"I've already lived an easy and comfortable life for thirty years. Right now, it's time to make haste and return to the City of Ancient Emperors," Qin Wentian replied. Princess Changping didn't really try to make him stay, "A grand era might be approaching but I'm happy being mediocre. Wentian, you have outstanding talent and should really try to contend against the geniuses of the world. It's just that you have to take note that safety always comes first."

"I understand, even if it isn't for my own sake, I still have others worried about me." Qin Wentian smiled. He then turned to Zhi Yan and Zhi Ran, "You two take good care of your mistresses okay?"

"Mhm. Master please don't worry." Zhi Ran nodded.

"Little lasses." Qin Wentian rubbed their heads. After that, with a flash of his silhouette, he directly vanished. Although he also felt reluctance to part from them, he didn't turn his head back.

...

The period of thirty years might be considered short in the perspective of the immortal realms, but for those geniuses in the City of Ancient Emperors, thirty years definitely wasn't a short time.

The rules of the city have changed, good fortune could be found everywhere. During these thirty years, it was unknown how many experts had fallen. There were some whose strength underwent a qualitative transformation, growing stronger than before. Those not so fortunate had all turned into piles of bones, buried here for all eternity in the City of Ancient Emperors. Even powerful immortal kings were no exception, all of them had a high chance to die in the city.

It was very rare for the immortal realms to experience such a brutal thirty years of time. The changing rules of the city indicated the arrival of a brand new grand era. There would be many supreme characters appearing in the immortal realms, this also fit in with the appearance of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy as well as the appearance of the Demongod Mountain. Even the experts from the Myriad Devil Islands came here. The sky of the entire immortal realms was changing.

At this moment, on the peak of a desolate mountain in the City of Ancient Emperors, two silhouettes, one male and one female could be seen. The man was tall and exuded elegance. His countenance was calm, but it did nothing to hide the sorrow of his eyes. He sat on that mountain as the white-robed maiden laid in his arms. Her hair had completely turned white, her face was pale as well as traces of blood could be seen at the corners of her lips.

"I shouldn't have come to the City of Ancient Emperors." The young man spoke in a light tone of voice, sounding extremely calm, with no traces of other emotions.

"Silly you…" The woman stretched out a dainty finger, gingerly touching his face. She gently spoke, "This place originally should be the place you should come to. The elites of the world have gathered here, how can they be lacking you? By cultivating at my side all these years, I have burdened you."

"If it wasn't for you, I wouldn't have what I have today. If we never had encountered each other in the past, the ending today would also be different. You guided me then, helping me so much, yet my actions have implicated you." The young man replied.

"Without me, your accomplishments would definitely be higher. As for my ending...As long as I'm able to die in your arms, I'm already very content. In this life, what else could be more satisfying to me than that?" Despite the paleness of the woman's face, she was as beautiful as ever. A blessed smile could be seen.

"But I've implicated you and now, you are dying because of me." The young man replied.

"You have never implicated me. Also, given how vast this world is, there definitely would be many characters ending up as bones in the City of Ancient Emperors. This calamity in my life, was already predestined. Don't blame yourself." That woman smiled. "I'm really tired. You have to take care of yourself in the future…"

After she spoke, she closed her eyes slowly as her aura dissipated. However, her countenance was calm and filled with love, she was at peace.

The young man gazed into the distance, with the wind gusting about, it was like sand had entered his eyes. At the corner of his eyes, tears streaked down his face. He glanced up at the heavens, where the runes of the great dao radiated a pure light that cascaded downwards. That, was the source of a dao element that hailed from some other immortal realm.

A terrifying light gleamed in the young man's eyes. He seemed to be able to see through everything as his gaze pierced through the void. In an instant, the pure light of the dao element cascading downwards, shot into his eyes as the light transformed into ancient runes, entering his mind. After that, his eyes grew increasingly resplendent, holding within them the power of samsara.

"How laughable. Is this merely one of my reincarnated lives?" The young man stared into the horizon, looking at the boundless starry skies. His demeanor changed, his entire being was different. A mocking smile could be seen on his lips but it was unknown if he was mocking others or mocking himself.

If there were others here, all of them would undoubtedly be shocked. This young man's cultivation wasn't high, only at the mid-stage of the immortal king realm. The amount of emperor's fate behind him wasn't a lot either, yet he had managed to comprehend a dao element.

As expected, in the City of Ancient Emperors, there would be those who turned into bones, but there would also be those who grew stronger.

"Who is it?" A sound could be heard behind him. That young man spoke, his tone of voice filled with tranquillity. In fact, he didn't even move.

Behind him, a figure appeared. This figure was none other than Qin Wentian.

He returned, coming back to the City of Ancient Emperors once again. Staring at the light cascading from the skies, he couldn't help but to sigh in his heart. That wasn't just a single dao element. With different dao elements appearing, how could the rules of the ancient city remain unchanged?

During these thirty years, he left to roam the world. In perspective of his cultivation, he didn't know whether his decision was the right one or the wrong one. However, he felt no regrets. Everyone had their own paths of cultivation. Back then, forsaking the opportunities in the city by leaving here, was his own choice, his own path of cultivation.

"It's me." The features of the Saber-Sword Immortal King faded away, revealing Qin Wentian's true face.

The eyelids of the young man trembled slightly, but it was only for an instant. He still didn't turn back, as he calmly spoke, "Those years back then, both of us participated in the recruitment exercise of the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. You obtained the first place, while Myriad Manifestations chose me to be her disciple. The world has changed so much, change is truly the only constant. Now, the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect no longer exists. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor spared no expense, wanting to kill you… while she died in here."

"My condolences." Qin Wentian didn't know what to say. He didn't expect that when he met Hua Taixu again, it would be in such circumstances.

"I've grieved enough. Everything will eventually return to the cycle of samsara." Hua Taixu calmly replied. Carrying up the corpse of the Myriad Manifestations Immortal King, his silhouette flashed as he soared up into the sky.

Chapter 1490: Face Slap

Qin Wentian glanced at the vanishing silhouette of Hua Taixu as he let out a long sigh. Back then in the past, when the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor first appeared in his particle world, that was the first time he and Hua Taixu met a major character of the immortal realms. Regardless of Eastern Sage, Bai Wuya, the Deepflame Immortal King, the Myriad Manifestations Immortal King, all of them were incredibly lofty characters.

Right now, things had changed. Bai Wuya stepped into the immortal emperor realm, Deepflame was killed by Bai Wuya long ago. The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect had disintegrated while the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor submitted to Old Devil Duotian. And right now, the Myriad Manifestations Immortal King died in the City of Ancient Emperors. In a short few hundred years, the blue sea turned into mulberry fields. Maybe, only time could be the witness to everything. In this cruel cultivation world, regardless of how imposing one might be, who could stand at the peak forever? When one decided to walk on this path, their fate was no longer determined by they themselves.

With a wave of his hand, Qin Wentian turned back into the Saber-Sword Immortal King. His eyes flashed with determination. In this cruel world, he had no way to control anything. The only solution was to keep growing stronger. He didn't want the same tragedy to befall him or his loved ones.

Stepping out, Qin Wentian stared at the light from the dao element, as a thousand thoughts filled his heart.

After returning to the City of Ancient Emperors, the emperor's fate he once accumulated, had all disappeared. This should also be part of the rules of the City of Ancient Emperors. Since you have already left, your emperor's fate would be reset to zero. You have to start again.

The City of Ancient Emperors thirty years later was far more lively compared to the one before. Even in the desolate wildernesses, immortal kings could be found cultivating everywhere, each with different amounts of emperor's fate. Thirty years might be a short period of time. However, to the people in the City of Ancient Emperors, it was an extremely long one as they had to contend against the others every day they spent in here.

Right now, the people who knew of him in the City of Ancient Emperors were already much fewer. When they saw the weak amounts of emperor's fate behind Qin Wentian, all of them had cold expressions of disdain. Even for newcomers to the City of Ancient Emperors, they would at the very least have some amount of emperor's fate. One must know that for those with strongest amounts of emperor's fate, they could already absorb the light from the dao element and gain some insights.

Qin Wentian continued on his way, he could sense that the immortal kings here were extraordinary, all of them filled with determination, regardless of their ages. There were many who were ancient ruins and treasured lands to further improve their strength.

The nearer he got to the central area of the City of Ancient Emperors, the more immortal kings there were. The frequency of encountering experts with shocking amounts of emperor's fate, was much higher. The dao element here has attracted numerous extraordinary characters and with the number of people increasing, there would naturally be combat. Many people fought for emperor's fate, for treasures, for the sake of battle, for killing, for plunder.

Right now, everyone in the city already knew how important emperor's fate is. Combat, receiving respect or fear or admiration, would all serve to increase the amount of emperor's fate. When one's emperor's fate reached a shocking level, like those who stood at the peak of this city, everyone would know their names.

"The emperor's fate there is so shockingly strong." Qin Wentian turned his gaze to a direction. Over there, the emperor's fate of a certain person had transformed into a beam of pure and unadulterated light that towered up into the sky. The emperor's fate had transformed and was now seemingly like a divine beam. The radiance from the dao element created runes that infused themselves into the divine beam of light, allowing the person radiating the emperor's fate to comprehend it. To think that when emperor's fate reached such an extent, it would also have this effect. This was simply shocking.

Upon seeing this, Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed as he sped off in a direction. Although the beam of light appeared near, it was actually very far away. The light originated from the peak of a remote mountain. Over there, a goddess-like figure could be seen. Her entire being had no flaws, perfect to the extreme. Her figure was extremely graceful and her skin extremely fair, there was the imprint of a plum blossom at the center of her forehead. That, in addition with the amount of emperor's fate behind her, caused countless to want to worship her.

"It's her?" Qin Wentian silently mused. He met this woman before, back then when he fought against the supreme crown prince. This woman was a supreme beauty from the nine-tailed demon fox race. She was also the one Xu Qingyao had termed vixen. Back then, she already had a shocking amount of emperor's fate. But now, her amount of emperor's fate had actually grown to such a terrifying extent. Her emperor's fate was actually able to aid her in comprehending the inheritance of dao elements.

"BOOM!" At this moment, a thunderclap sounded out from afar, causing the entire space and earth to tremble. Many people turned their gazes over only to see a supreme greater demon that had a gigantic body of over ten thousand meters rampaging there. His size blotted out the sun and when he stepped down, everything beneath his foot was crushed into smithereens.

"RUMBLE~" That demon directly moved towards here, his eyes staring at the nine-tailed fox standing at the peak of the mountain.

Boundless golden light radiated from the greater demon, he stared coldly at the woman standing at the peak. "Amassing emperor's fate by slaughtering the people of my race. How dare you. Demon fox, I want you to serve me forever."

The woman didn't bother about him, it was like she didn't even know he appeared. She continued closing her eyes as she cultivated, ignoring everything else happening in the world.

In the surroundings, more and more experts came by to watch the drama.

"BOOM!" With an explosive bang, the golden evil demon slammed out his palm, instantly creating strands of golden light that formed a prison around the fox maiden as his palm imprint blasted towards her.

The fox maiden finally opened her eyes. A resplendent light gleamed within, her pure-looking eyes held no fear at all. The prison of golden light instantly crumbled as a gigantic eye appeared above her, capable of seeing through everything.

"RUMBLE…" The terrifying rumbling sounds continued as the giant palm blasted forth. However, the speed of the attack seemed to slow before finally grinding to a halt. The body of the greater demon froze in place as well, resembling a statue. He had no way to move at all.

"Are you willing to be my slave, protecting me forever?" The fox maiden suddenly spoke, out of nowhere. That greater demon trembled, pushing with all his might. After a long time, he gave up and retracted his palm. His huge eyes shone with a demonic light before he eventually nodded, "I'm willing to."

"Kneel down." The voice of the fox maiden was exceedingly gentle and filled with charm. With a thunderous bang, that greater demon instantly knelt.

"If there are any who seeks to disturb my cultivation, kill them all without mercy." That fox maiden calmly spoke.

"Yes." That greater demon simply knelt there, incomparably respectful as it submitted to her completely.

"How powerful." The hearts of everyone trembled when they stared at the goddess-like figure, feeling how invincible she was. With a single glance, that giant greater demon was controlled and submitted, kneeling on the ground.

"She grew so much more terrifying after obtaining the inheritance of a dao element." Many experts felt a sense of helplessness in their hearts. Such a flawless and beautiful woman, even though she was a demon, many people here were all willing to take her as their wife. If they could have such a woman, they would have no regrets their entire life. However, the strength of the fox maiden made it so that none dared to show her any disrespect. Those who had disrespected her, were all already dead.

Another beautiful figure flew over, arriving at this location. When she saw the scene in the air, a helplessness appeared in her eyes. During these years, she always imagined the fox maiden to be her opponent, and wanted to surpass her. However, she discovered that there was no more hope. Not only in terms of beauty, the fox maiden also surpassed her in terms of strength.

"With just a single glance...If I fought against her, would I be able to withstand the might of that gaze?" Xu Qingyao mumbled. She herself was also a supreme beauty, but she knew she was a shade inferior when compared to the fox maiden.

Her beautiful eyes turned around, gazing at the experts in the surroundings. After that, her gaze froze as she stared at a person.

This man had completely vanished for thirty years, but the impression he gave her was just too deep. Even after thirty years, she still could recognize him with a single glance. It was none other than the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

Qin Wentian seemed to have sensed something. He turned his gaze over and saw a beautiful face looking at him. It was naturally none other than Xu Qingyao, the maiden whom he had abducted back then. What a coincidence.

"It has been so many years, is Fairy Qingyao still doing well?" Qin Wentian smiled when he saw that Xu Qingyao was still in a daze.

Staring at the playful smile on Qin Wentian's face, Xu Qingyao gritted her teeth, glaring at him. When she saw that Qin Wentian's emperor fate had completely vanished, she couldn't help but to ask, "Back then, you actually managed to escape the City of Ancient Emperors. Now that you are back, are you planning to cleanse the humiliation of that defeat and avenge yourself?"

"Cleansing the humiliation?" A look of interest appeared in Qin Wentian's eyes. However, he didn't really feel that it was a humiliation although he had been defeated. In reality, none of those who witnessed the battle felt that it was a humiliation when Qin Wentian was defeated. If not, Qin Wentian's emperor fate wouldn't have kept increasing despite his defeat. He defeated Huang Jiutian at the mid-stage of the immortal king realm and immediately fought the supreme crown prince after that. If this was considered a humiliation, what does all the geniuses in the City of Ancient Emperors count for?

"Seems like after Fairy Qingyao's cultivation base has improved, you have forgotten about the punishment I gave you those years ago." A teasing look appeared in Qin Wentian's eyes. Xu Qingyao glanced at him as she instantly recalled how this bastard had taken liberties with her. Her expression turned heavy, she initially didn't have too much vengeful feeling towards Qin Wentian and was merely speaking her mind. To think that this bastard actually brought up the past matters.

Xu Qingyao's cultivation had really improved. Today, thirty years from the past, she had broken through from the mid-stage to the peak-stage. From this, one could see how tough she had worked to improve her strength, tempering herself in the City of Ancient Emperors.

"Punishment?" Many immortal kings in the area turned to Qin Wentian. Someone was puzzled. Thirty years ago, many of them here now, hadn't come to the City of Ancient Emperors yet. All of them didn't know who the Saber-Sword Immortal King was.

There were also quite a few who saw the saber and sword strapped behind Qin Wentian and gradually recalled the major event that happened in the city thirty years ago. They couldn't help but to have an expression of interest on their faces. He had actually returned.

"Fairy Qingyao, why don't we talk romance and speak of love, flirting with each other under the moonlight once again for seven days and nights? This seat really missed the time we spent together back then." Qin Wentian laughed when he saw Xu Qingyao gritting her teeth.

"It's really him. The Saber-Sword Immortal King is back." Someone spoke in a low voice.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King? Who is he?" There were some who weren't familiar with this name.

Xu Qingyao's beautiful eyes coldly stared at Qin Wentian. This bastard...he was still as brazen as ever, taking liberties with her using words.

"No matter who the hell you are, since you dared to speak to Fairy Qingyao like this, slap your own face right now." When Xu Qingyao wanted to say something, an immortal king already walked out, standing before her, coldly staring at Qin Wentian while exuding arrogance. This scene caused those who knew of Qin Wentian's identity to open their eyes wide. How interesting, this person wanted the Saber-Sword Immortal King to slap his own face?

Chapter 1491: Tyrannical Words

Qin Wentian himself also had an expression of interest on his face as he stared at the immortal king who spoke. One couldn't help but to admit that people would always have a natural advantage if they were born beautiful. In addition, Xu Qingyao wasn't simply beautiful. She, who was now at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm, clearly also had outstanding talent. Other than this, her background was extraordinary. For a woman like this, she naturally would have many suitors wanting to please her, just like the immortal king who was telling Qin Wentian to smack his own face now.

"There's no need for you to interfere in my matters. Leave this place." Xu Qingyao reminded.

"Fairy Qingyao, you should know of my feelings towards you. How can I allow some others to humiliate you like this? This person's mouth is so filthy, clearly trying to take verbal liberties with you. If he doesn't slap his own face, I shall kill him." That immortal king arrogantly spoke, his eyes filled with an unmasked admiration when he stared at Xu Qingyao. Xu Qingyao's expression turned cold but she couldn't be bothered to care about this anymore. "Since this is the case, just do whatever you want."

"Mhm." That person smiled and nodded at Xu Qingyao. After that, he turned to Qin Wentian, "Are you deaf? Didn't you hear my words? Why are you not smacking your own face?"

As the sound of his voice faded, a dazzling light erupted from Qin Wentian's eyes, shooting out like lightning. Instantly, the sky changed color. Inside the vision of that immortal king, he only saw a pair of eyes gleaming with sharpness. Resplendent swords suddenly slashed out towards him, radiating so much sword qi that a sword river was formed, unexcelled in the world.

"Impudent!" That immortal king roared loudly, unleashing his own law energy. Punching out with his fist, currents of energy flowed about, wanting to destroy everything. However, he only saw that surging sword qi river vanishing the next instant, as though it had never appeared before. His expression froze as a look of bewilderment appeared on his face. In the next instant, he saw a beam of sword light falling from the sky. When he stared at his surroundings, he wasn't in the City of Ancient Emperors at all. He couldn't help but to snort coldly, "Using minor tricks like illusion techniques. Do you think you can cheat me?"

As he spoke, he stopped attacking recklessly and became more cautious, using his law energy to protect his body. When the sword qi river appeared again, it gushed towards him with ferocious might. His protection barrier instantly broke as fresh blood splattered through the air. Another beam of sword light directly slashed into his body as he saw his body being split apart.

"IMPOSSIBLE, THIS IS FALSE. AN ILLUSION, ITS AN ILLUSION!" That immortal king screamed uncontrollably. The sky returned to normal, Qin Wentian was still standing where he was, merely looking at his opponent. It was an illusion indeed...but at the next instant, another scream of misery rang out. That immortal king's eyes widened in disbelief, his body had truly been split into two, as he died with regrets.

Silence...this entire space turned silent. Numerous gazes turned to him. From the start until the end, Qin Wentian didn't even move a single step. He merely glanced at his opponent and that peak-stage immortal king started screaming, dying a few moments after that.

"The rumors are true. This Saber-Sword Immortal King is really terrifying." For those who were in the City of Ancient Emperors thirty years ago, all of them had heard of the Saber-Sword Immortal King's deeds. Even so, but when they witnessed his combat prowess, their hearts couldn't help but to tremble.

"The City of Ancient Emperors, the approaching grand era." In the silent space, a voice suddenly rang out, causing many people to sigh. That's true. In this grand era, although this man had no emperor's fate, one truly couldn't underestimate anyone here in the City of Ancient Emperors. When everyone was looking down with disdain on him, he killed a peak-stage immortal king with nothing but a single glance. How terrifying was this?

Emperor's fate once again appeared behind Qin Wentian, growing unceasingly stronger, beginning to glow with radiance. In an instant, the amount of his emperor's fate surpassed many people here.

"Is this the him thirty years later?" Xu Qingyao sighed in her heart. Initially, she thought that after she broke through to the peak-stage of the immortal king realm, the distance of her combat prowess when compared to this man, would lessen. However, from the looks of things now, he was still far beyond her. If it was she who fought with him instead, she too, might not be able to endure a single strike.

"What cultivation are you at now?" Xu Qingyao asked.

Qin Wentian smiled, staring at Xu Qingyao. "Why? Is Fairy Qingyao willing to spend another seven days and nights flirting with me? If you are, this seat naturally would be willing to chat more in-depth about my cultivation base with you."

"This bastard…" Xu Qingyao bit her lips. Back then, Qin Wentian took her away for seven days and nights, but he didn't touch her inappropriately in the slightest at all. At that time, she already knew Qin Wentian wasn't a lecherous fellow and was merely teasing her to punish her. But even so, did he really find it so fun to say such things in public?

"You came here after thirty years, you should have broken through to the peak-stage, right? If not, that person is still in the City of Ancient Emperors and he is stronger than before. It would be tough for you to survive if he wants to hunt you down. You should be very clear about this point as well." Xu Qingyao probed. Although she guessed that Qin Wentian had broken through to the peak-stage, she still wanted to hear a clear answer from him.

"Hard for me to survive here?" Qin Wentian mumbled. He naturally knew who 'that person' Xu Qingyao was referring to, was. "Since you are so curious, I can tell you that my cultivation base now is the same level as you."

"As expected." Xu Qingyao felt shock in her heart. Back then, this Saber-Sword Immortal King could already defeat almost anyone when he was at the mid-stage, including Huang Jiutian. Now, he who has already entered the peak-stage, how strong was he exactly?

However, could the him now be able to defeat that person?

Xu Qingyao then continued, "In these thirty years, there were huge changes in the City of Ancient Emperors. Good fortune can be found everywhere, and there were also the appearances of many other dao elements. The strength of everyone here is all rising rapidly. Even if you have broken through, the others would not stagnate. If you fight him again, you might still not be his opponent. I sincerely advise you to leave the City of Ancient Emperors."

"Fairy Qingyao, are you worried for this seat?" Qin Wentian smiled. Just like in the past, when he was in the City of Ancient Emperors, he was the Saber-Sword Immortal King, he wasn't Qin Wentian.

"I'm worried about you?" Xu Qingyao rolled her eyes. "I'm only reminding you out of good will. I'm afraid that you would be overconfident once more, thinking you are able to defeat the Yama King just because you've broken through. You might have improved, but others are also improving. Don't flee away pitifully again if you encounter him."

"Is that so?" An expression of interest appeared on Qin Wentian's face. His eyes flashed with the light of truth, able to see through all lies and illusions. Although Xu Qingyao's words weren't pretty to hear, she had no malicious intentions towards him. If not, he wouldn't be jesting around with her like this.

"Help this seat to spread this message. Get the Yama King to scram out of his hole and come see me. He is to kneel before this seat and apologize or I shall cripple his cultivation." Qin Wentian inclined his head, speaking as he stared at the crowd.

With just a single sentence, the hearts of everyone pounded rapidly, feeling like they must have heard something wrong. However, given the power of their hearing, how could they hear things wrongly? This man wanted the Yama King to look for him and telling the Yama King to kneel and apologize?

"Has he gone mad?"

Their hearts trembled, staring with disbelief at Qin Wentian. Right now in the City of Ancient Emperors, who didn't know of the Yama King's name? In the City of Ancient Emperors, the Yama King was one of those who others must never antagonize regardless of the cost.

Xu Qingyao froze, she stared at Qin Wentian unblinkingly. Was he planning to use the words the Yama King once said, and return them back to him?

She frowned, "You are merely emotional now, you best think through things carefully. Upon reaching our current level in cultivation, why is there a need to carelessly disregard your life for the sake of a few words? Is that really worth it?"

Qin Wentian stared at Xu Qingyao in a somewhat bewildered manner. An expression of interest flashed in his eyes, causing Xu Qingyao to glare harshly at him.

"After our romantic time together back then, could it be that Fairy Qingyao has fallen for this seat?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Fallen for you?" Xu Qingyao had a face filled with black lines. She glared at Qin Wentian and replied, "In that case, you can go and die then."

Qin Wentian laughed, he wasn't really bothered about Xu Qingyao's curse. He glanced at the surrounding experts, "Everyone, feel free to spread what this seat has said about the Yama King around. Tell him to scram out of wherever he is in and come to kneel before this seat and apologize."

Xu Qingyao bit her lips and stared at Qin Wentian, thinking that this fellow must have gone crazy. The experts in the surroundings were in an uproar as well. Those who haven't heard of the Saber-Sword Immortal King before, all wondered who he was. If these words were to spread to the Yama King's ears, this man would die for sure.

At this moment, that fox maiden who had been calmly sitting on the mountain peak opened her eyes, as a resplendent light flashed within. Her gaze slowly turned to Qin Wentian. She naturally recognized him. Back then when the Saber-Sword Immortal King fought against the Yama King, she was spectating by the side.

Right now, this Saber-Sword Immortal King has returned and even said such words in such a tyrannical manner, directly provoking the Yama King.

She didn't say anything in response to that. Her beautiful eyes then slowly closed again.

Qin Wentian also glanced over there. He initially thought that the greater demons from the Desolate Mountains were all cruel and brutal fellows. He had never expected there to be such a beautiful demonic maiden. Despite being a demon, she radiated a pure and holy feeling, like a goddess.

The words spoken by the Saber-Sword Immortal King soon created a huge wave of commotion in the City of Ancient Emperors. Some people laughed after hearing that, ridiculing the Saber-Sword Immortal King for being a fool. There had been many cases of such in the City of Ancient Emperors - randomly speaking tyrannical words, wanting to challenge those experts at the peak, aspiring to defeat them and gain more emperor's fate. All of these people have already paid the price for their foolish actions.

However, there were those who knew of the battle thirty years before among the crowd. These people were all extremely excited as they sped towards Qin Wentian's direction. After thirty years, would the Saber-Sword Immortal King be a match for the Yama King?

Very swiftly, news traveled to the experts from the Violet Sect, to the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, to the Skymist Immortal Empire, to the Paragon Sword Sect, and the Taihua Immortal Dynasty. All of their immortal kings in the city learned of it. In an instant, these experts all shot towards the location the Saber-Sword Immortal King was in!

Chapter 1492: Scared Off by a Single Sentence

Qin Wentian remained at his current location. Although the City of Ancient Emperors was vast, but given how famous the Yama King is, his words soon circulated around the city. Unless the Yama King, Yan Luowang, was currently in closed-door seclusion, he would definitely soon hear of this.

Within the City of Ancient Emperors, emperor's fate was like destiny. Since he had just came back and his emperor's fate was reset to zero, the fastest way to accumulate it back was to defeat those people standing at the peak who had the highest fame in the City of Ancient Emperors. By doing so, he could instantly gather respect, fear and awe, explosively boosting his emperor's fate. This was one of the reasons why he said such tyrannical words to challenge the Yama King.

More and more experts came to the area. Their gazes all turned to Qin Wentian, was this man the Saber-Sword Immortal King? Was he courting death? Wanting the Yama King to kneel and apologize to him.

"Bzz~" A raging wind kicked up as two greater demons appeared. They stared at Qin Wentian, these two were extremely outstanding elites. One was a golden roc and the other was a vermillion bird.

"Eh?" The golden roc circled around in the airspace above Qin Wentian's head, his eyes flashing with interest.

"Little Rascal, get lost. Others might get suspicious." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice over, scolding Little Rascal. So it turns out that these two demonic beasts were none other than Little Rascal and Purgatory. The three of them were bonded by blood and could sense the approximate location of each other.

Little Rascal, who was in the form of a golden roc, continued circling him. After that, he stretched out his golden talons and petted Qin Wentian on his head, "Daring to challenge the Yama King, not bad."

"Do you believe that this seat will slay you?" Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at Little Rascal. This little fellow even dared to tease him.

"What great guts, daring to threaten this king?" Little Rascal's voice might have matured somewhat but it was still extremely youthful-sounding. When referring to himself as 'this king,' it was quite comical and made many laugh out loud. Where did this little demon come from, he's actually quite adorable.

"Have your wings hardened?" Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Little Rascal. After that, his hand ferociously grabbed out in the air.

"Swish~!" Golden lightning arced through the sky as Little Rascal ran away instantly, avoiding the grab. His figure then turned tiny, transformed into a small white ball of fur. Under the bewildered gazes of the crowd, Little Rascal actually leapt onto the shoulder of the fox maiden as he spoke, "Sister goddess, he wants to bully me!"

"..." Qin Wentian was extremely astonished when he saw this scene. After that, he saw the fox maiden stretching out a jade-like hand to stroke Little Rascal's fur. She then coldly shot a glance in Qin Wentian's direction. Qin Wentian was completely dumbfounded.

Bastard… this Little Rascal was simply such a bastard. Are there any females that he couldn't handle? He even managed to worm his way into the hearts of Beiming Youhuang and this nine-tailed fox. What the hell was going on?

Little Rascal lifted his head high up and had a look of satisfaction on his face when he saw Qin Wentian's reaction. Purgatory transformed into her human form. Her fiery hot figure and pure-looking features exuding a demonic feel instantly attracted many gazes. These greater demons are all so beautiful.

Purgatory glanced at Qin Wentian, she also heard his voice transmission and didn't say anything. She stood at the side and transmitted her voice back, "Big brother Qin, the Yama King's strength is at the very peak of the immortal-king realm, his combat prowess is exceptional. Are you confident to win against him?"

"I have no idea." Qin Wentian laughed. "How did this little rascal cultivate? How did he break through to the peak-stage of the demon king realm so quickly? Also, how many years have you guys been in the City of Ancient Emperors?"

"We came here for many years. Little Rascal has a heaven-devouring beast senior taking good care of him and in addition, his own innate talent is also extremely terrifying, giving him a very fast cultivation speed. He just broke through not long ago." Purgatory replied in a gentle tone of voice. Qin Wentian nodded lightly. Back then at the Demongod Mountain, Little Rascal was already at the mid-stage. To think that he broke through so quickly. Right now, Purgatory was still at the mid-stage of the demon king realm.

"What is his relationship with the fox maiden?" Qin Wentian curiously asked.

"That woman possesses the highest-grade bloodline among the nine-tailed fox's race. After the descent of the Demongod Mountain, she received an evolution and it's rumored that she's a descendant of the nine-tailed divine fox. The heaven-devouring beast senior and the elders of the nine-tailed fox race have a pretty good relationship and hence, the senior brought Little Rascal to their side as a guest. Once Little Rascal met with that fox maiden, he instantly started his usual routine and bootlicked his way into the elders of the nine-tailed fox's race." Purgatory spoke with cold disdain. Back then when she was travelling together with Little Rascal, she had already seen the extent of his shamelessness.

Qin Wentian was actually perspiring. In his heart, he decided not to acknowledge his relationship with Little Rascal out in public. His face had been completely thrown away by this shameless rascal.

"The holy maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan are here as well, they came with us." Purgatory added.

Another gust of wind sprang up and more and more experts appeared. As expected, Qin Wentian saw the holy maidens from the Southern Phoenix Clan arriving, including Nanfeng Yunxi. Nanfeng Yunxi was dressed in red phoenix garb, exuding elegance and an unprofanable beauty.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King." Nanfeng Yunxi smiled as she called out.

"Holy Successor Yunxi, how have you been?" Qin Wentian laughed.

"The Saber-Sword Immortal King is acquainted with Nanfeng Yunxi?" Many people had intrigued looks on their faces.

"You even dare to return?" An icy voice rang out as another group of experts arrived. They were all dressed in yellow, exuding a majestic aura, unexcelled in the world. The man in the lead was none other than the person who was defeated by Qin Wentian back then - Huang Jiutian from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

Qin Wentian glanced at him as he laughed, "A defeated dog even dares to come here and meet me?"

Huang Jiutian's expression sank. The experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire all unleashed their auras.

"What? You guys want to start a war?" A holy maiden from the Southern Phoenix Clan coldly asked.

"War?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed as he glanced at the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire. "They are not qualified."

"How dare you!" An expert from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire coldly spoke.

"Bzz~"Qin Wentian glanced over, his eyes suddenly becoming extremely terrifying, instantly causing the other party to sink within. With a loud roar, that immortal king unleashed his aura in defense. The surrounding experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire were all extremely shocked. In just an instant, a bloody line appeared on the forehead of that immortal king. He screamed in misery as he fell from the air.

"RUMBLE!" All the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire turned their gazes to Qin Wentian.

"SABRE-SWORD IMMORTAL KING!" Huang Jiutian roared, he soared up into the sky as his battle intent radiated forth.

"I will count down from nine to zero. If you guys are still in front of me, I shall kill all without mercy." Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

"Nine."

"KILL HIM!"

"FIGHT!" When had the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire suffered such humiliation before? All of them roared out loud. Huang Jiutian trembled as his aura engulfed his surroundings.

"Eight." Qin Wentian continued. The experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire were all incomparably enraged. Huang Jiutian stared at the calm look in Qin Wentian's eyes as he involuntarily recalled the battle back then. At this moment, fear could be seen in his eyes.

"Seven."

Qin Wentian wouldn't waste time speaking nonsense. He continued to countdown.

"Fight or not?" The experts all stared at Huang Jiutian. Despite the intensity of the aura he exuded, Huang Jiutian didn't move at all. After thirty years here, his strength has improved remarkably, greatly increasing his combat prowess. When he encountered the Saber-Sword Immortal King here earlier, he felt an impulse to fight him once more, to cleanse the humiliation he suffered in the defeat before. However, he didn't expect the Saber-Sword Immortal King to be as brazen as ever, saying that he would start a massacre once the countdown ended.

"Six, five…" Qin Wentian was still counting down. Huang Jiutian felt an immense struggle in his heart. In these thirty years, he had improved tremendously. What about Qin Wentian? Could Qin Wentian have stagnated?

Qin Wentian earlier killed an immortal king with just a glance. When he did so, there actually wasn't any outbursts of energy or aura from him at all. How terrifying was this?

In addition, he came back here and the first thing he did, was to challenge the Yama King. Since he dared to come back and dared to do such a thing, what level has his strength reached?

Undoubtedly, he has already reached the peak-stage of the immortal king realm or he wouldn't have dared to return.

"Four."

Qin Wentian continued. Those experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire who were roaring earlier didn't move. The surrounding spectators all watched the scene with excitement. Although the Yama King has yet to arrive, they didn't expect the scene before them to be so fascinating. The words of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire's experts all sounded so dominant but the Saber-Sword Immortal King was even more tyrannical. Just a sentence he spoke, scared them so much that none of the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire dared to move.

The Saber-Sword Immortal King stood there, a single person holding off a group of immortal kings. None of his opponents dared to move at all.

"Three." Qin Wentian's tone of voice turned heavy. His body soared up into the air slowly as his gaze turned sharp, staring at Huang Jiutian.

Huang Jiutian's heart trembled violently, as his face turned red.

"Leave!" Finally, he roared out and turned around, flying away. The experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire all had shame on their faces when they saw this but they had no choice and followed after Huang Jiutian, flying far away. They fled very quickly, with extreme speed. In a few moments, they completely vanished. No longer having the face to remain behind.

"This…" The spectators felt their hearts shuddering as they stared at the Saber-Sword Immortal King. At this moment, even those who knew of him thirty years ago were similarly stunned. Huang Jiutian and the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire were frightened into fleeing just from a single sentence from him? This incident had completely toppled their logic.

"Crazy. Right now, the City of Ancient Emperors is just too crazy." Everyone silently mused.

"The experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire are all cowards." Someone spoke. Qin Wentian acted as though nothing had happened, he floated in the air casually, glancing at the crowd. After that, he spoke, "If any of you wish to challenge me, just come on up, there's no need to be polite. This seat will accept all challenges and treat it as a warmup before the Yama King arrives."

The entire space fell silent. The experts in the crowd exchanged mutual glances. Little Rascal's eyes widened as he stared at Qin Wentian.

"Hehe…" Little Rascal suddenly chortled. This fellow, after taking on the identity as the Saber-Sword Immortal King, he actually became this arrogant and violent. Luckily he escaped fast enough earlier or he would definitely be in for a beating if he was caught. Seems like he had to act more low-profile in the future!

Chapter 1493: Arrival

A bizarre scene appeared. After Qin Wentian frightened off the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, the emperor's fate behind him grew rapidly, instantly glowing resplendently, surpassing the majority of experts here.

The experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, one of their immortal kings were killed before their eyes and none of the others dared to move. They were even chased away by a single threatening sentence from Qin Wentian. This undoubtedly proved the strength of the Saber-Sword Immortal King. How could his emperor's fate not be resplendent? This scene caused many enemies of the Saber-Sword Immortal King hidden among the crowd to tremble as they resolved to stay low-profile, not daring to take any reckless actions.

For example, many experts from the Violet Sect had arrived. But now, they were merely staring at Qin Wentian and didn't do anything else.

After that, the experts from Skymist also came but nobody said anything about revenge. The sight of the Saber-Sword Immortal King floating in the air, was an invisible threat by itself.

"Interesting. These humans are all so interesting." A demonic beast mocked, his eyes gleaming with a bright light. He was filled with contempt for these humans.

"Not long ago, didn't a top-tier expert from the so-called peak power of the immortal realms, the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, said that he wanted to kill the Saber-Sword Immortal King? I've always known humans to be weak, but I didn't expect them to be so weak to this extent." Another greater demon laughed mockingly.

"What would you do if you were that expert?"

"I would directly tear his head off and eat it."

A group of demonic experts conversed among themselves, all of them viewing the humans around them with disdain.

"Such big words, why don't you go up there and challenge him." Some humans mockingly replied.

"The Saber-Sword Immortal King has never offended this king. If not, I would long be up there fighting with him." A greater demon replied.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King, what do you think of his words?" There were some humans who turned their gazes towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian coldly laughed, his thin lips gave everyone a sensation of extreme sharpness. He stared at them and replied, "If you all want to fight me, just do it. Why is there a need to keep inciting things with words? If you want this seat to play with you, just say the word, I will definitely grant you your wish. As for those who keep barking noisily, speaking so highly of themselves yet showing no actions to prove it, this seat cannot help but suspect if they are retarded."

"Who did you say was a retard?" An evil voice rang out. Qin Wentian saw a ugly face staring at him. This was a greater demon in human form. He was exceedingly ugly, a demonic expert from the Heavenhold Race.

"You can't understand my words? I will put it plainly for you, stop wasting time by farting around. Scram if you don't want to fight." Qin Wentian's eyes turned over, as he domineeringly spoke. He even dared to tell the world he wanted the supreme crown prince to kneel and apologize to him. The personality of the Saber-Sword Immortal King was just so tyrannical. Would there be any greater demons he wouldn't dare to offend?

The Heavenhold demon grinned, causing his countenance to become even more malevolent. He stared at Qin Wentian as he coldly spoke, "Still so arrogant before your death. I'll let you humans tear at each other first. The Yama King will naturally finish you off, there's no need for this king to act."

A mocking smile appeared on Qin Wentian's face, reality has proven itself. This demon only dared to speak arrogant words, yet had no courage to back up his words with actions.

Reality was as such, demonic beasts might be impulsive and violent but they were no fools. Since Qin Wentian could frighten the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire away, it was clear he had extraordinary combat prowess. In addition, he would soon die under the Yama King's hands, why was there a need to risk his life to fight the Saber-Sword Immortal King now? It was just that talking is free, so why not? The greater demon merely wanted to mock the humans of the immortal realms.

Qin Wentian also naturally couldn't be bothered with such weaklings. He continued waiting quietly here.

"Senior Brother Qin." A voice rang out in his mind. Qin Wentian saw that Jun Mengchen had arrived.

"You've finally returned. It has been thirty years, right now, you should be powerful enough to slay that fellow, right?" Jun Mengchen instantly rushed here when he heard that the Saber-Sword Immortal King appeared again. He who was now at the mid-stage of the immortal king realm, was roaming around the City of Ancient Emperors alone. Clearly, he was already strong enough to do so.

Qin Wentian glanced at Jun Mengchen's emperor's fate. It was resplendent to the extreme, and towered up into the sky. This caused a bright light to flash in Qin Wentian's eyes. However, he maintained his calmness and replied with a voice transmission, "I have no idea what the exact combat prowess of Yama King is now. After all, in that previous fight, I couldn't force out all his trump cards completely."

"Senior brother, you should have already broken through to the peak-stage, right? If this is the case, there shouldn't be any problems killing him." Jun Mengchen had always been extremely confident in Qin Wentian.

"Oh look there, isn't that Jun Mengchen?" At this moment, one of the crowd said.

"Mhm, that fellow also came here to watch the drama."

Many people then turned towards Jun Mengchen as they mumbled between themselves. Evidently, Jun Mengchen was pretty famous in the City of Ancient Emperors. The others naturally wouldn't be able to hear the voice transmissions between Qin Wentian and Jun Mengchen and all assumed Jun Mengchen to be here to watch the drama.

"Junior brother, seems like you are pretty famous in the city." Qin Wentian felt somewhat bewildered and silently asked.

"Hehe." Jun Mengchen laughed. "Senior brother, after all, I've been tempering myself here for thirty years, how can I not have a little bit of fame? Don't you know who your junior apprentice brother is? How can I lose face for you?"

Qin Wentian instantly sweated when he heard Jun Mengchen's reply. This fellow was already a powerful character, a mid-stage immortal king. However, his attitude still seemed as frivolous as before.

"You are the one who wants to challenge the crown prince of our Senluo Immortal Empire?" A cold voice rang out. From afar, a group of extraordinary figures, each radiating the air of royalty could be seen walking over. These people were all experts from the royal clan of the Senluo Empire. The voice of the person who spoke rang out like thunder from the heavens.

Qin Wentian glanced at these people. He met one of them before. Back then, he had encountered Yan Luotian during the descent of the Demongod Mountain and had even once challenged him. In truth, there were many people in the City of Ancient Emperors whom he had met before at the Demongod Mountain. If he revealed his true features, there would definitely be many who know who he is.

"Back then, you were defeated by my elder brother and fled miserably. To think you actually still dare to appear here now. Are you courting death?" Yan Luotian pointed his finger at Qin Wentian, as he brimmed with boundless arrogance. He was none other than the young brother of Yan Luowang, the Yama King.

"Ai, it's Yan Luotian? I was wondering who dared to be so arrogant here, to think that it's none other than the snivelly rat I crushed before. Do you want to fight again?" Even before Qin Wentian said anything, Jun Mengchen already stepped out, staring at Yan Luotian with a playful expression on his face.

Yan Luotian stared at Jun Mengchen as his countenance turned heavy. "Jun Mengchen, the matter here has nothing to do with you. Scram."

"Are you not very arrogant earlier? Saying that the Saber-Sword Immortal King lost to your elder brother. Back then, what cultivation base did your elder brother have? He was at the peak-stage while the Saber-Sword Immortal King was merely at the mid-stage. You even have the face to brag about his victory? Yan Luotian, no wonder after you lost to me that time, you even had skin thick enough to request aid from your clan's experts. You are truly one of the most shameless individuals I've ever met." Jun Mengchen mocked.

Yan Luotian roared angrily after being mocked in public. His aura gushed forth as he coldly spoke, "What does this matter now got to do with you?"

"How can this have nothing to do with me?" The Saber-Sword Immortal King is a friend of mine. The two of us are at the same level but you were abused by me so badly when we fought, and you still dare to act so arrogant before me? If I was you, I would have already scrammed for away." Jun Mengchen rudely continued. When he saw Yan Luotian's aura intensifying, he laughed, "Why? You really want to fight me? How about a life-and-death battle?"

"You…" Yan Luotian's entire body was trembling, it felt like he was about to lose control soon. However, he knew that he wasn't a match for Jun Mengcheng.

"Yan Luotian's strength should be very strong as well. However, who is this Jun Mengchen? He actually managed to obtain a dao element when he is merely at the mid-stage of the immortal king realm. How extraordinary is that? If he breaks through to the peak-stage, he would undoubtedly become one of those standing at the peak. Yan Luotian is clearly inferior to him." Many people silently mused.

"Who dares to be so insolent here?" A thunderous voice echoed out, shaking the entire space, causing the hearts of many experts here to tremble. This voice… has he arrived?

The sky changed color as a raging wind kicked up. RUMBLE~ The clouds swirled about wildly as a bright light appeared, dazzlingly golden, incomparably resplendent and was akin to a divine glow. This was caused by an unimaginable amount of emperor's fate.

A chariot pulled by hydras appeared in the air. Terrifying might bore down, pressing against all the spectators here.

"Yama King, Supreme Crown Prince Yan has arrived."

"He's more terrifying than before."

The hearts of everyone trembled. Such a grand appearance was just too magnificent. Only this supreme crown prince could pull this off, radiating majesty and imposingness, as though he was the only one capable enough to rule the world.

"We pay our respects to the crown prince." All the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire bowed and greeted. Even for experts of the royal clan, they had to bow as well. This was how extraordinary the status of the crown prince is. His authority in the Senluo Empire was as high as the heavens. There were even many immortal emperors who had to give face to him when they met him.

The Yama King's arrogance knew no bounds. Sitting in his chariot, his eyes gleamed with a divine light as he glanced downwards. He didn't bother to look at Qin Wentian, but was looking at the goddess-like figure on top of the mountain peak instead.

"You are still so beautiful. For your sake, I'm willing to give up my pursuit of Xu Qingyao and grant you the title as my legitimate wife. How about it?" The supreme crown prince directly spoke, causing Xu Qingyao's expression to turn unsightly. Although she has never accepted Yama King's pursuit, but when he said such words out in public, it would undoubtedly damage her reputation. He basically didn't give a damn about what she thought. This was the reason why she had never liked the Yama King. Although his talent was extraordinary, he was just too arrogant and had no one in his eyes.

The fox maiden inclined her head, calmly staring at Yama King but she didn't say anything.

"You can take your time and consider my proposal." Yama King continued. After that, he finally turned his gaze to Qin Wentian and Jun Mengchen. There actually was someone telling him to come here and kneel to apologize? There has never been anyone who dared to speak like this to him. This time around, his horizons could be considered to have broadened!

Chapter 1494: Fighting the Supreme Crown Prince Once Again

The Yama King turned his eyes to Qin Wentian and to Jun Mengchen. However, he actually didn't bother about the Saber-Sword Immortal King who said publicly, wanting him to kneel and apologize.

"Being so insolent to people of my Senluo Immortal Empire. How dare you. KNEEL!" The Yama King roared, a surge of energy akin to heavenly might caused the surrounding space to rumble. A formless energy manifested, shaking the hearts of everyone. Jun Mengchen's body trembled under the formless pressure but his eyes were as sharp as ever, staring at the Yama King who was in the air.

"Back then, you bullied the Saber-Sword Immortal King as his cultivation base was lower, defeating him. Why? Are you planning to make a move against me now? Yama King, although you are extremely famous, but you are nothing in my eyes." Jun Mengchen directly stared the Yama King straight in his eyes.

The Yama King stared at Jun Mengchen as he suddenly started to laugh out loud, causing the heavens and earth to shake. The surrounding space felt as though it was about to collapse. He still sat in his dragon chariot, lofty and high-up, staring down at everything in the world.

"To think that any random person would even dare to speak in this manner to this king. Simply not knowing the immensity of the heavens and earth." He lifted his palm and prepared to kill Jun Mengchen. However, he only saw Qin Wentian staring in the direction of his younger brother Yan Luotian. Qin Wentian then calmly spoke, "Kneel."

The sound of his voice was like a bolt of thunder. When Yan Luotian stared at Qin Wentian, he only felt an incomparably unblockable pressure pressing down on him. He roared loudly as his law energy erupted forth, wanting to retreat.

"BOOM!" A formless giant palm slammed down from the sky. With a deafening blast, he groaned in misery as he coughed out fresh blood. An instant later, he was knocked flat on the ground and laid there in a prostrating posture.

"HOW DARE YOU!" The Yama King roared. The Asura Prison instantly appeared, brimming with unrivalled might, engulfing this entire space including the location where Qin Wentian and Jun Mengchen was in.

"You are the insolent one." Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared up at him. "Only knowing how to bully those with a weaker cultivation base, you must have felt that you were very imposing, right? Your younger brother is merely at the mid-stage of the immortal king realm. Do you believe I can instantly kill him right now?"

The Yama King's gaze flickered as he stared at Qin Wentian. This Saber-Sword Immortal King wanted him to come here and kneel to apologize, he is even using his younger brother's life to threaten him now.

"BOOM!" A chaotic aura engulfed the area as destructive streaks of light rained down from the sky. The Yama King stood up from his dragon chariot. His was dressed in yellow, appearing like an unparalleled king that exuded extreme majesty, far above the common crowd.

"Yama King. Back then you bullied the Saber-Sword Immortal King because his cultivation base was lower than you. After defeating him, you still felt so self-satisfied. Right now, he domineeringly let out words, telling you to come and kneel and apologize yet you are actually planning to target me to establish your dominance? Do you feel very impressive? Now, look at your younger brother who's at the same cultivation level as me. A single word from the Saber-Sword Immortal King is already sufficient to make him kneel. It's just that he disdains to act impressive and didn't take the initiative to bully the weaker ones. Don't you feel ashamed?" Jun Mengchen's aura gushed forth. Even if he was trapped inside the Asura Prison, he felt no fear at all as he continued to rebut the Yama King.

"It has been a very long time since anyone dared to act so impudently before this king." The Yama King glanced at Jun Mengchen below. "Do you know what the consequences are after saying such things?"

"You can't even bear to hear such words? A person like you living so long till now, is truly a miracle." Jun Mengchen laughed. "Maybe because of your background, not many people dared to kill you. If not, for someone with your personality, you would have already been killed countless times."

"Simply too brazen." The hearts of everyone trembled. However, given the strength of the Supreme Crown Prince, he naturally had the qualifications to act as arrogant as he wanted. Who else would dare to slap his face with words like this, just like Jun Mengchen?

"Yama King, this seat told you to scram here to kneel and apologize instead of trying to show off how impressive you are. Are you deaf?" At this moment, Qin Wentian calmly spoke, causing everyone to be shocked. Jun Mengchen, the Yama King and the Saber-Sword Immortal King, each was more brazen and tyrannical than the last. Right now, the only thing remaining now was to see if the Saber-Sword Immortal King was a match for the Yama King.

However before the battle started, the vast majority of the people all felt that the Saber-Sword Immortal King would most probably die here. Although he was already very powerful and could kill peak-stage immortal kings with ease, even frightening off the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, but the fame of the Supreme Crown Prince was simply too dazzling. He has stood at the peak of the City of Ancient Emperors for over thirty years and those who would stand equal to him were as rare as kirin horns and phoenix feathers. Even the Saber-Sword Immortal King wouldn't be able to shake his position.

"In the past, this king had very high expectations of you and even gave you a chance before. As long as you kneel down and submit to me as my subordinate, I'm willing to give you a chance to live and grant you a boundless future. However, I didn't expect you wanted to die so badly. Since this is the case, this king shall grant you your wish." The Yama King stared at Qin Wentian. His tone of voice wasn't angry but was calm instead.

"Let them out of your Asura Prison first." Qin Wentian waved his hand, he didn't deign to speak too much.

"Get out." As the sound of the Yama King's voice faded, an exit appeared in the Asura Prison. Jun Mengchen and the others sped towards the exit and left the law domain. Only Qin Wentian still remained within.

"Wait for me to kill him first, I'll kill you after that. I won't make you wait too long." The Yama King glanced at Jun Mengchen. Since Qin Wentian dared to be so impudent, he decided to finish him off first in case others said that he only knows how to bully people with lower cultivation bases. Also, since the Saber-Sword Immortal King dared to say such tyrannical words to challenge him, it was a given that he has already entered the peak-stage of the immortal king realm.

The Asura Prison churned with chaotic energy, terrifying to the extreme. Everyone stared at this scene with interest. Before this, many of them still thought that the Yama King wouldn't be bothered to show up and would only send people here to kill the arrogant Saber-Sword Immortal King.

Outside the Asura Prison, Yan Luotian and Jun Mengchen had already exited. Yan Luotian's expression was extremely unsightly. Earlier, he was forced to prostrate himself before Qin Wentian, what a great humiliation was that?!

"Jun Mengchen, to think that you would side with the Saber-Sword Immortal King. After he dies, your death shall be near." Yan Luotian icily spat.

"You still dare to act so arrogantly before me?" Jun Mengchen stared at Yan Luotian with a playful gleam in his eyes.

"Just wait and see." Yan Luotian flicked his sleeve as he walked towards the area where the Senluo Immortal Empire's experts were. After that, he turned his attention towards the Asura Prison.

"I really want to see that you, who has broken through to the peak-stage of the immortal king realm, would you be able to walk out of my Asura Prison? Don't be like last time, only knowing how to pretend to be dead and eventually have to flee in a pathetic manner." The Yama King waved his hand. The Asura Prison rumbled as numerous fiends appeared one after another, each radiating a fearsome aura. Each of the fiends manifested had combat prowess at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm. It was simply shocking to the extreme.

"The negation effect?" Qin Wentian mumbled. The most terrifying thing in the Asura Prison wasn't the destructive might or fiends manifested. It was the negation effect. Inside here, the Yama King's opponent could only use the law energy stored in their body, they wouldn't be able to unleash their true strength.

"RUMBLE!" A fearsome underworld spear shot out, radiating a fearsome storm of destruction that sought to engulf everything, piercing towards Qin Wentian's body. However, Qin Wentian merely stood there calmly, not even moving at all. Boundless law energy radiated from him, from within to without, his body of laws was an indestructible one.

"Pu!" The spear pierced over, that underworld spear that could pierce a hole through the void, pierced right into the barrier of light radiated from Qin Wentian. However, at the point of contact, the spear disintegrated inch by inch until it became nothingness.

"What a powerful body of laws, inside the Asura Prison with the negation effect, he used the might from his body of laws and destroyed such a powerful attack by the Yama King. To think that the Yama King couldn't even break through his defense." Just a single move showed the spectators how powerful the Saber-Sword Immortal King was. Many people revealed heavy expressions on their faces. Since he dared to challenge the Yama King, he truly wasn't an ordinary character.

At this moment, they only saw a heaven-blotting giant foot radiating fearsome destructive might, preparing to stomp down. Those who witnessed the battle thirty years ago knew that it was precisely this attacked that stomped the Saber-Sword Immortal King flat, grievously injuring him. However, it failed to kill him. This Saber-Sword Immortal King seemed to have an indestructible body.

Right now, when this giant foot stomped down, what would the ending be?

"Chichi~" A terrifying sharp sounding noise rang out. That giant foot stomped down, the Yama King wanted the ending to be the same as previous time, stomping the Saber-Sword Immortal King flat.

"What's going on?" At this moment, everyone only saw a resplendent light gushing forth from that tiny figure which was the target of the foot. The foot stomped down with crushing force, but this time around, not only was the Saber-Sword Immortal King not stomped flat, a hole actually opened up in the giant foot as it began to disintegrate. It was like none of the attacks in the Asura Prison would be able to break through his defenses.

The Asura Prison trembled as numerous different terrifying attacks were launched towards Qin Wentian. However, the results were the same, all the attacks instantly disintegrated when they blasted into the light barrier surrounding Qin Wentian, none were able to break the defense of his body of laws apart. It was basically impossible for the Yama King to depend solely on the Asura Prison if he wanted to kill Qin Wentian.

The experts from the Senluo Empire as well as Yan Luotian, all had a look of shock on their faces. They knew very clearly how terrifying the Asura Prison was, yet it was unable to break apart the Saber-Sword Immortal King's defense.

In the air, the Yama King's expression was still extremely calm. It was like he didn't care about such a result at all. He stared at Qin Wentian and calmly spoke, "No wonder you are so arrogant this time around. As expected, your strength has increased, allowing you to disregard the attacks from my law domain. However, do you think that with just this, you would be qualified to fight against this king as an equal?"

"Although your Asura Prison can only bully those with a lower cultivation base, this seat truly hopes that your level of strength is higher than this. If not, just merely depending on this lousy broken law domain, things would be too boring." Qin Wentian calmly replied, in stark opposition to the Yama King. Both their words were filled with extreme arrogance!

Chapter 1495: Double-layer Combat

"Hahaha…" The Yama King started laughing maniacally when he heard Qin Wentian's words. As the sound of his laughter continued, everyone in the surroundings felt the entire space trembling as though it was about to fall apart.

Many experts who stood far away, retreated even further back. Was the Yama King enraged? If he acted with his full strength, how violent would the aftershocks be?

Right now, the Yama King was someone who has already obtained a dao element. He was much stronger compared to thirty years before and it's highly probable that the Saber-Sword Immortal King would die. What a pity that a supreme character would die soon. However, given the intense competition brought by this grand era, it was already destined that the vast majority of geniuses would fall and everyone had a possibility of dying. The Saber-Sword Immortal King is also an extraordinary individual and since he dares to challenge Yama King, he must have done his preparations well.

The rumbling sounds continued as law energy fluctuated wildly. The Yama King's domain, the Asura Prison, started churning as an extremely powerful destructive king fiend appeared, staring at Qin Wentian with its huge eyes, wielding a saber of darkness in its hands.

"There has never been anyone who has dared to speak this way to this king. Not even immortal emperors. Today, this king can be considered to have my horizons broadened." The Yama King icily spoke. "Slay!"

As the sound of his voice faded, that terrifying devil saber cleaved down, capable of splitting apart everything, much much stronger compared to the ordinary fiends earlier.

The law energy light from Qin Wentian grew even brighter as his constellation appeared. From the void, a giant palm slammed out, wanting to stop the saber. At the point of impact, both the saber and the palm imprint, mutually exploded.

"Is this the constellation condensed from your astral soul? Storing law energy in it? Not a bad idea. But how long can you last?" The Yama King laughed loudly. He had his arms crossed before his chest, appearing like a dominant hegemon.

"I've already said, just with the mere strength of your law domain, you best not embarrass yourself. This seat will give you a chance and allow you to unleash your strongest attack." Qin Wentian inclined his head and spoke. Who was the more arrogant one?

"These two have the same personality." Everyone mused silently, both were proud sons of the heavens, and disregarded everything else.

Jun Mengchen stared at Qin Wentian, excitement could be seen on his face. He discovered that this side of his senior brother was extremely interesting. So overbearing and tyrannical, completely different from the Qin Wentian he knew.

Nanfeng Yunxi's beautiful eyes also flashed with light, feeling a little puzzled. Qin Wentian didn't seem like the him before. Maybe after taking on the identity as the Saber-Sword Immortal King, he wanted to completely differentiate everyone's perception of Saber-Sword and Qin Wentian. The people he killed in the City of Ancient Emperors all had extraordinary backgrounds. Although many of them long had grudges with him, Qin Wentian didn't want to completely enrage them or the consequences would be unimaginable.

"My strongest attack? Are you even qualified?" Yama King coldly spoke. "Break out of my Asura Prison first before you talk. If you can do so, this king shall show you my other abilities."

"This seat's patience has a limit. Since I gave you a chance, you better cherish it. If not, if this seat acts to kill, don't blame me for not giving you any time to react. As for your Asura Prison, this seat can completely disregard its power." Qin Wentian's tone of voice was still as arrogant as before, like he didn't have the Yama King in his eyes at all. This made everyone speechless, this fellow...

"I've cultivated for so many years but I've never met someone so ignorant like you before. Since you wish for death so much, I'll grant it to you." The Yama King lost his patience. A shocking amount of destructive might gushed forth, causing the sky to change color as the entire space rumbled. After that, numerous hell king fiends appeared in the area of his law domain.

"Destroy." The Yama King stretched his hand out, signalling the fiends to attack.

"Slash!" The constellation behind Qin Wentian was in the form of a sword. As he slashed out, the surrounding area lost their luster as a sword qi river manifested in the Asura Prison. The waters of the river surged forth endlessly, easily submerging all the king fiends despite their ferocity. Qin Wentian continued standing there calmly, not even bothering to move at all.

If one can say that the Yama King is a supreme hegemon, capable of destroying gods and demons, the Saber-Sword Immortal King would be the sovereign lord of sabers and swords, wanting to tear the heavens asunder.

Everyone stared at the constellation behind the Saber-Sword Immortal King. This constellation contained each and every law attribute the Saber-Sword Immortal King was proficient in. They fused perfectly together, with no flaws at all. Even if he couldn't borrow the power of astral energy from his constellations in the nine heavenly layers, based on the stored energy within this personal constellation, he should be strong enough to contend equally with the Yama King, with no fear of the negation effect.

"Pu.. chi…" A powerful underworld spear broke through space, shooting towards Qin Wentian.

That gigantic king fiend from before slashed out another chain of saber strikes. The terrifying attacks continued without end, wanting to kill Qin Wentian within the Asura Prison.

"You still don't want to give up?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. The constellation behind him shone with a resplendent light, blasting out shocking amounts of sword qi infused with the pagoda holy will. The attacks would change constantly, sometimes it would be rivers of sword qi, other times, it would be a towering palm imprint. The Asura Prison trembled violently, everything within was destroyed by Qin Wentian.

"Given the strength the Saber-Sword Immortal King has displayed, ordinary peak-stage immortal kings definitely wouldn't be able to be his opponent. This is simply too violent." The spectators exclaimed. Another character capable of contending against the supreme crown price had appeared. If his cultivation grew stronger again, breaking through to the peak-phase of the peak-stage, maybe he would really have a chance to gain victory, defeating the Yama King.

"I've already said that the patience of this seat is limited. I'll give you nine breaths of time, this is your final chance before this seat takes your life. I'm starting the countdown now." Qin Wentian's eyes flickered with the violent destructive might, staring straight at the Yama King who was in the air.

"Nine again. He wants to kill the Yama King within nine breaths of time?" Everyone felt incredibly shocked when they heard that. Before this, Qin Wentian also counted down from nine and scared off the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire. Right now, he was still so tyrannical despite facing the Yama King.

"Killing the Yama King in nine breaths of time? How can this be possible? This Saber-Sword Immortal King truly is…"

Nobody believed in Qin Wentian. Even if he was stronger, it was impossible for him to have such power. In the entire City of Ancient Emperors, nobody would dare to say such a thing, unless of course, the one who said these words was an immortal emperor from the other dimension.

"Fools dreaming out loud." The Yama King was finally angered by Qin Wentian's arrogance. He wanted nothing more than to kill Qin Wentian immediately. Not only him, all the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire felt this way. They had never met such an arrogant fellow before.

"This Saber-Sword Immortal King must be 80% mad. His arrogance already reached such an ignorant extent." Someone exclaimed. Although the Saber-Sword Immortal King was powerful, nobody believed that he would be able to kill the Supreme Crown Prince within nine breaths.

"This fellow…" Xu Qingyao was also speechless when she heard Qin Wentian's words. Those words were too exaggerated. How can he achieve it?

"Fuck!" Jun Mengchen roared in excitement, spewing vulgarities, he was too agitated. He understood Qin Wentian very well, and knew that Qin Wentian would definitely achieve what he said. Although he also felt some slight disbelief, but he was still confident in Qin Wentian. Could it be that Qin Wentian had comprehended some new abilities that could finish the Yama King off in a single strike?

When he thought of this, Jun Mengchen felt hot blood coursing through his veins. Nine breaths of time roughly equated to nine seconds. He had to observe this carefully.

"Nine…" Just when everyone was still struck by disbelief, Qin Wentian started to count down, his bearing was the exact same when he threatened the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire's experts before.

"Royal brother, FINISH HIM!" Yan Luotian roared from the ground. He simply couldn't endure it any more, he had never met someone so brazen and arrogant as this Saber-Sword Immortal King.

"CROWN PRINCE, KILL HIM!" The experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire all spoke as well, wanting the Yama King to finish Qin Wentian off, and not play around with him any longer.

"Haha, hahahaha…" The Yama King laughed, the commotion it caused now was greater than before. The heavens and earth trembled, the nearby mountains all started to crumble apart. A terrifying amount of law energy radiated from him as the effect of negation swept over the area.

"This king is truly angered." As he laughed, the Asura Prison changed, transforming into a bloody maw of darkness, wanting to devour this entire space.

"The crown prince has finally made his move." The people from the Senluo Immortal Empire all had agitated looks on their faces. The Asura Prison was concentrating energy to unleash a strike of maximum power. The Saber-Sword Immortal King would enter true hell and would inevitably die.

"Eight." Qin Wentian spoke again. He slowly moved, soaring into the air. The Asura Prison trembled from the force of his steps but at this moment, the Yama King infused even more law energy within it, causing chaotic currents to swirl about wildly with devastating effects.

"Seven." Qin Wentian continued to count down. His eyes pierced through the void, directly staring into the Yama King's eyes.

"BOOM!" At this instant, the Yama King felt himself being trapped in a separate space where boundless streaks of destructive energy shot towards him. Torrents of sword qi gushed forth, intent on ripping him apart.

"SCRAM!" The Yama King howled. Giant demonic fiends appeared before him, taking the brunt of the attack. But at the next instant, Qin Wentian's figure appeared in front of him.

Qin Wentian at this moment was too dazzling, he stood high up in the air, resembling a divinity. He was higher up compared to the Yama King. Hence at this moment, he was looking down at the Yama King, his eyes filled with disdain while his body radiated an unexcelled, invincible might.

"Six." Qin Wentian spoke. The Yama King's expression turned unsightly. "Is that an illusory space? It actually possessed an attack component. No wonder you can injure my younger brother Yan Luotian, forcing him to prostrate himself with a single look. But even so, inside illusion-scapes or illusory spaces, as long as your target's strength exceeds your own, everything would be useless. Clearly, your strength is inferior to mine. How can you win?"

"Five." Qin Wentian didn't say anything and continued counting down. In the external world, his voice reverberated out loud, creating an echo, shaking the entire space. Qin Wentian began to radiate a fearsome aura at this moment.

"Four." In the illusory space, boundless law energy similarly erupted from Qin Wentian. He was like a divinity, unexcelled in the world.

"Double-layer combat? How can this be? You are able to attack in both this illusory space and in the external world?" Right now, the Yama King's confidence seemed to finally be shaken. His tone of voice contained a trace of fear.

"What?" The spectators were all immensely shocked when they heard that. Had the Yama King been dragged by the Saber-Sword Immortal King into a illusory space?

"Three." Qin Wentian's voice was as calm as ever, shaking the hearts of everyone. The nine breaths of time would soon end. The Saber-Sword Immortal King had said that he would kill the Yama King within nine breaths!

Chapter 1496: Slaying the Crown Prince

Although everyone felt Qin Wentian was bragging, but when Qin Wentian counted down to three, the hearts of everyone all involuntarily tensed up. They stared at the battlefield with their fists clenched. Even the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire were not as confident as they thought they would be. All of their eyes opened wide, fearing to miss out the slightest detail.

"Earlier, what did the Yama King mean? When the Saber-Sword Immortal King was rushing towards him, the Yama King said something about an illusory space and double-layer combat? Could it be that when the Yama King sank into the illusory space, the Saber-Sword Immortal King was also attacking him in the external world, doing a double-pronged attack?" Their hearts trembled. The Saber-Sword Immortal King was too terrifying, able to cleave apart all obstructions before him.

What they didn't see was that right now in another space, Qin Wentian was even more fearsome. His entire being brimmed with unexcelled might, akin to a real divinity.

"SCRAM!" The Yama King roared, his palms blasting out in the air, blotting out the sun, wanting to destroy all existences. Even though his opponent was able to launch real attacks in this illusory space, the power generated would still be limited by Qin Wentian's actual strength. For overpowered attacks, one could safely say that they were all illusions. This meant that as long as he was strong enough, he would be invincible in the illusory space so long as he didn't fall for the illusions.

At this instant, a burst of hellfire gushed forth, immolating Qin Wentian's figure. But in the next moment, countless Qin Wentians appeared in the illusory space, The Yama King couldn't tell which was real and which wasn't.

"Two." At this moment, Qin Wentian spoke, his voice ringing out in both the illusory space and the external world.

"How can this be?" The Yama King's expression changed. He had tried to struggle free of this false illusory space. Given his powerful will, he should be able to do it. However, even if he managed to break out from there, the attacks launched in that illusory space would convert to reality as well. This tyrannical law domain was clearly formed with the aid of some supreme illusory techniques the Saber-Sword Immortal King had cultivated. This bore a resemblance to his Asura Prison and from a certain perspective, there was no counter to it.

"RUMBLE!" The entire space trembled. The countless Qin Wentians lifted their hands and blasted out attacks. The Saber-Sword Immortal King didn't use his weapons but chose to blast out giant palms that resembled the hands of gods. The palms all flared with a resplendent light, each containing boundless might, infused with a towering sword intent as well a strand of the pagoda suppression holy will, and a tyrannical devil might that could destroy everything… At this moment, the Yama King could sense all the law attributes Qin Wentian was proficient in. All of them were fused perfectly within this torrent of palm strikes.

"ONE!" Qin Wentian roared, boundless divine light flooded the area and all the Qin Wentian's images continued their barrage. Which were real? Which were false?

The Yama King had no way to deal with so many attacks at the same time. He could only maximize his own defense and hid in the center of his Asura Prison, using the attacks from his law domain to offset some of Qin Wentian's palm attacks.

"BOOM!" The palm imprints slammed down, capable of annihilating all existences, flooding every inch of the Asura Prison. The rays of light they radiated all blasted into the Yama King's body, causing him to roar in anger. At this moment, another illusory scene appeared in his mind. He saw that in the external world, Qin Wentian slashed out a sword attack from his Nightmare Sword Art, wanting to tear him apart.

The Yama King could only do his best, strengthening his defense to the maximum. He couldn't help but wonder, was there really such a powerful ultimate technique in the immortal realms?

People in the external world naturally couldn't see all this. They only saw the Saber-Sword Immortal King rushing towards the Yama King with a sword in his hand.

"Time's up. He said he wanted to kill the Supreme Crown Prince within nine breaths? What foolish words." The experts from the Senluo Empire snorted.

"As expected, the Saber-Sword Immortal King was just boasting earlier. Nine seconds have already passed. Did he really think that a single sword attack will be sufficient to kill the Yama King?" The spectators all shook their heads silently. It was impossible to tell who would die in such a battle, let alone saying that one could kill the other within nine seconds.

However, none of them knew that in the other space, the Yama King's body was trembling violently when the unending waves of destruction generated from the palm imprints blasted into him, crushing his defenses. At this moment, he suddenly let out a scream of utter agony, causing the hearts of all the spectators to tremble.

The Yama King's eyes flashed with enlightenment. He glanced at the endless waves of palm attacks as he called out, "Go….d"

"Pu...chi…" At this moment, in the external world, Qin Wentian already arrived before him. With a simple stab, his sword pierced into the throat of the Yama King. Inside the illusory space, the endless attacks rained down with crushing force. God's Hand, he didn't even manage to utter the first word before his body exploded from the attack.

"CROWN PRINCE!" The experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire roared as their faces turned pale.

"How can this be?" Many people stared at the scene before their eyes with shock and disbelief. All of them were in a daze as their hearts trembled fiercely. How can this be possible? What was going on? Is this an illusion?

The sentence spoken by the Saber-Sword Immortal King from before was still reverberating through the air. Nine breaths of time...nine seconds… The Yama King was killed within this frame of time, actually dying to the Saber-Sword Immortal King. At that very last moment, what happened exactly?

Was it because of something that happened in the illusory space where the Yama King was trapped in?

The people here were all extraordinary immortal kings. They knew that for some of the more powerful illusionary techniques, what's illusory could become reality, a mixture of both causing opponents to have no way to differentiate it. But even so, the attacks launched wouldn't exceed the user's original strength. As long as the Yama King was strong enough, Qin Wentian's attacks shouldn't have been able to do anything to him. Even though the Saber-Sword Immortal King managed to trap him inside an illusory space, it would still be impossible to kill him.

But at this moment, the Yama King had truly died. This indicated that he was unable to deal with the Saber-Sword Immortal King's attacks in the illusory space.

The Yama King, the crown prince of the Senluo Immortal Empire, was one of those standing at the very peak of the City of Ancient Emperors. His combat prowess was unparalleled but before he could unleash his strongest attacks, he actually already died within the nine seconds. The Saber-Sword Immortal King wasn't bragging at all.

"He, achieved what he said." No matter what happened earlier, and no matter how curious they were, the truth was truth. Right now, all their eyes stared at Qin Wentian who was floating in the air. Before this, all of them thought that the Saber-Sword Immortal King didn't know the immensity of the heavens and earth and grossly overestimated himself when he said he would kill Yama King within nine seconds. That sounded like a joke in their ears, incomparably arrogant and ignorant. Nobody believed that he would be able to do it.

But at this moment, all of their doubts vanished. How laughable was their earlier thinking? The Yama King was killed by a single simple stab to the throat by the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

Just like what the Saber-Sword Immortal King has said earlier, he gave the Yama King a chance to unleash his strongest attack, but the Yama King didn't give a damn. In the end, it was unknown what the Yama King was thinking when he died. Did he regret it?

Xu Qingyao was completely dumbstruck when she saw this. Her beautiful eyes froze. A slight breeze blew by and her dress fluttered. Only after a long moment did she draw in a deep breath as she stared at the magnificent figure in the air. After this battle, the Saber-Sword Immortal King's name would definitely echo throughout the City of Ancient Emperors.

Even for the beautiful fox maiden on the mountain peak, her gaze also trembled, extremely taken aback as she stared at Qin Wentian. Although she has never fought with the Yama King before, there was no need to doubt the Yama King's strength as he was one of those standing at the peak of the city. But now, he had been killed by the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

"POWERFUL!" Jun Mengchen roared excitedly. "This Yama King kept assuming that he was invincible. Right now, what of it? Always acting like everyone else is inferior to him but he was killed by the Saber-Sword Immortal King within nine seconds. As expected, the Yama King basically could not live up to his reputation and only knew how to bully those with weaker cultivation bases."

"What nonsense? Who doesn't knows about my brother when he swept through the city with invincibility? When has he bullied people weaker than him?" Yan Luotian's expression was extremely ugly. Even if his royal brother died, he could not allow others to insult him.

"Nonsense? Back then he bullied the Saber-Sword Immortal King because the he had a higher cultivation base, wanting the Saber-Sword Immortal King to kneel and apologize. After he won, wasn't he very self-satisfied? Now, in a mere thirty years, the Saber-Sword Immortal King has returned after entering the peak-stage of the immortal king realm. At this point of time, your royal brother was finished off in nine seconds. Isn't this already enough to prove everything?"

Jun Mengchen coldly spoke, causing many to sigh. The Yama King naturally wasn't someone who couldn't live up to his reputation. One can only say that the Saber-Sword Immortal King is too powerful. It's only natural that the victor becomes the king while the loser was vilified. After this battle, it was unknown how many people would start mocking the Yama King for not being able to live up to his reputation. Such was the cruel reality. Even the Yama King had died here today. Who would have expected this? Who would dare to imagine this?

And it was precisely because no one dared to imagine this, those who stood at the very peak hadn't come by to see this battle. Only the fox maiden from the nine-tailed fox race was here, the others standing at the peak felt that this wasn't a battle worthy of their attention.

"Another supreme immortal king has been born." Many people mused silently as they stared at Qin Wentian. The sky in the City of Ancient Emperors is changing, as expected of the grand era, even a supreme elite like the Yama King could die, giving rise to another more terrifying elite - the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

"What was the Yama King trying to say at the instant before his death? Go… god? Was he treating the Saber-Sword Immortal King as a god?" Everyone stared at Qin Wentian, his magnificence knew no bounds and was truly like a divinity, lofty and high-up.

Qin Wentian glanced at the surroundings, at the shocked experts here. His expression was calm as he spoke, "This seat told him to kneel and apologize and I would have spared his life. Who would have known that he wanted to die so badly? This seat could only grant him his wish."

The hearts of everyone trembled. This fellow...if these words were heard by the Yama King, wouldn't he be so angered that he rose from death? Such arrogance...But then again, when they thought of the Saber-Sword Immortal King killing the Yama King within nine seconds, all of them could only silently nod their heads. If one wanted to be arrogant, they had to have the capabilities to back it up. If they had such power, they naturally would all be as arrogant as that as well!

Chapter 1497: Jun Mengchen’s Path

"Look at his emperor's fate." Everyone stared at Qin Wentian's back. His emperor's fate was madly increasing, the resplendent light towered up into the skies, in an extremely dazzling manner, surpassing everyone else here in a short instant.

"What a terrifying amount of emperor's fate. Just a single battle resulted in this. Also, as this news circulated around, his emperor's fate would only increase further, tramping on the Yama King, using him as a stepping stone." Everyone silently mused. For true demon-level geniuses, just a single battle was enough for them to accumulate emperor's fate.

Qin Wentian naturally could sense his emperor's fate increasing. In an instant, his entire person seemed different. He was able to more clearly see the City of Ancient Emperors. Even the light radiating from the dao elements felt clearer and more comprehensible for him.

This was the effect Qin Wentian wanted. It's too troublesome to accumulate emperor's fate by fighting battle by battle. Luckily, in the past, the Yama King arrogantly told him to kneel and apologize or he would be killed. Hence, the first thing he did when he came back, was to do the same thing to the Yama King, using a single battle to push his emperor's fate up. In the future, there might not even be a further need for him to battle and his emperor's fate could already be considered among the highest. After all, as long as there was fame, his emperor's fate would increase constantly.

"Let's leave." At this moment, after the silence, the experts from the Senluo Empire prepared to leave sneakily as they mutually exchanged voice transmissions.

"What? You guys want to flee now? Earlier were you all not very arrogant?" Jun Mengchen wasn't far from them and he had been paying attention to their actions. When he saw that they wanted to flee, he immediately spoke, causing all the experts from the Senluo Empire to freeze.

"Could it be you still want to restrict our movements?" An expert from the Senluo Immortal Empire coldly stared at Jun mengchen.

"Senior brother, you've already killed the crown prince of the Senluo Immortal Empire and this has already become a death grudge. The Senluo Empire would definitely think of ways to kill you. In the future, you must not expose your identity. Also, since we already offended this group of people, let's do things the complete way and finish them off to remove all future trouble." Jun Mengchen transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian naturally understood this logic. What sort of character was the supreme crown prince? He was named crown prince just at the immortal king realm and his rank was higher than all the princes combined of the Senluo Empire. His status was even higher compared to Zi Daolong. Since this has already become a death grudge, he naturally understood that he should be more ruthless.

"Mengchen, for now you are still uninvolved in this. Don't butt in, let me handle it." Qin Wentian replied. One of his reasons by taking on the identity as the Saber-Sword Immortal King naturally was to use this chance to do whatever he wanted, garnering more death grudges. He also naturally didn't want Jun Mengchen to be implicated.

Jun Mengchen understood Qin Wentian's intentions. He nodded silently and turned to the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire, "How can I restrict your movements? I'm only a mid-stage immortal king. If I did so, I might not even know how I died. This matter has nothing to do with me."

After speaking, he retreated, exuding an extremely carefree manner. Everyone had looks of understanding on their faces. Which of them here weren't intelligent? They naturally understood that Jun Mengchen didn't want to stir up trouble and decided to let the Saber-Sword Immortal King make the decision. He didn't want to be implicated within this. After all, he hasn't killed anyone from the Senluo Immortal Empire.

"Did this seat allow you guys to leave?" Qin Wentian turned his arrogant gaze towards the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire.

"Saber-Sword, you best not push things too far." One of the experts coldly spoke as his expression turned unsightly. Since this Saber-Sword Immortal King could kill the Yama King, it meant that he naturally had the ability to destroy their group.

"Push things too far?" Qin Wentian laughed when he heard these words. "Seems like you guys have all forgotten everything that happened before."

As he spoke, he shook his head. Initially, both he and the supreme crown prince, the Yama King, weren't acquainted with each other. Because of the matter with Xu Qingyao, the other party wanted him to kneel and apologize, and submit to him as a slave. If he was the one defeated today, who would be the one who died? If he lost, the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire would never have spared Jun Mengchen.

Qin Wentian mockingly stared at the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire. He then stepped out, the sound of a single step caused the entire space to shake.

"Since this is the case, this seat today shall 'push things too far.'" As the sound of his voice faded, he turned his gaze towards an expert. In just an instant, that person sank into a dreamscape, a towering sword qi river gushed forth inside the dreamscape as that immortal king died just like that.

"You…" All the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire started to tremble. All of them unleashed powerful auras.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King! If it wasn't for you using despicable methods, how could you defeat my elder brother?!" Yan Luotian howled. Before this, to save his own life, he initially wanted to endure this. But since the Saber-Sword Immortal King wanted to kill them all, there was no need to endure the words he wanted to say any longer.

"So, my methods are all despicable? It would only be logical if he wins?" Qin Wentian glanced at Yan Luotian. In the next instant, Yan Luotian clearly felt what his elder brother felt before. He sank into a dreamscape.

"All of you shall enter!" Qin Wentian turned his gaze about. A moment later, all the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire entered the same dreamscape. Qin Wentian stood arrogantly in the air, like a god in the heavens, lofty and high-up, floating above them.

"What ability is this?" A person roared in rage.

"This seat tempered myself by roaming the mortal world, using thirty years worth of time, seeing countless sceneries and gaining insights into the myriad of things on earth. What's real, what's false? In the dreamscape, this is my world." Qin Wentian calmly spoke, not afraid to let others know. So what even if other people knew about this, could they even counter it?

"Using dreams as illusions, a world of dreams?" The hearts of everyone trembled. This Saber-Sword Immortal King actually had comprehended such a unique ability."

At the next instant, in the dreamscape, countless figures of Qin Wentian appeared. The myriad of laws shone resplendently behind each figure, boundless and majestic.

"Since experts of the Senluo Empire have an affinity with hell fiends, let me send you lot to hell." Qin Wentian waved his hand as a barrage of attacks rained down. Which of these attacks were real, which of them were false? They needed to defend against everything, but the end result was them dying one after another.

In the external world, the spectators only saw the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire standing in different locations. All of them screamed miserably and in a short few seconds, all of them died just like that. In fact, even before the body of the first person who died hit the ground, all the other experts also died.

"This is the Saber-Sword Immortal King's true strength? He killed the Yama King in nine seconds, the other experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire can't even withstand a single strike." At this moment, everyone truly felt how terrifying Qin Wentian was.

Xu Qingyao's shock was the greatest because she had interacted the most with Qin Wentian. In the battle back then, she also witnessed Qin Wentian's combat prowess. At that time, although he was already immensely powerful, the present him was on a completely different level. All his attacks have already returned to the origin and seemed extremely simple. There were no aftershocks at all. However, this was what made everyone shocked. Given his current strength, no matter how many peak-stage immortal kings stood before him, it would be useless. Of course, unless, they also stood at the peak.

"The Senluo Immortal Empire is in for it."

Many people mused silently. Those immortal kings that appeared in the City of Ancient Emperors were naturally those with more outstanding talents. Yet now, all of them were killed by the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

"Given how arrogant the Yama King was, to think that he was actually defeated here. This time, the price of his arrogance didn't merely cost him his life, it even affected the destiny of the Senluo Immortal Empire."

The immortal kings who died were undoubtedly some of the strongest immortal kings from the Senluo Immortal Empire and all of them were the core strength, the pillars of the empire. Now, a single battle caused so many elite immortal kings to die, it would undoubtedly greatly affect the Senluo Immortal Empire's future.

And the reason for this was because thirty years ago, the Yama King was too tyrannical and had no one in his eyes. After thirty years, he eventually had to pay the price.

The Saber-Sword Immortal King's victory cemented him as one of the legends in the City of Ancient Emperors.

"Is there anyone else who still wishes to spar with this seat?" Qin Wentian swept his gaze over to the surrounding experts. How would anyone dare to reply? Even the Yama King died, right now, only those experts who stand at the very peak would dare to challenge him.

"Since there are none, this seat shall take my leave." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, his silhouette flashed as he departed the area alone.

"Brother Saber-Sword, wait for me!" Jun Mengchen shouted as he followed after. Little Rascal blinked but he heard Qin Wentian sending him a voice transmission, "Just stay here for now."

Little Rascal's strength was already pretty high. In addition, with the nine-tailed fox maiden beside him, there was no need for Qin Wentian to worry about his safety. If Little Rascal followed him, it might cause others to be suspicious instead.

Nanfeng Yunxi stared at that departing back. Xu Qingyao was also looking at him. They were both speechless, as many thoughts filled their minds.

"Saber Sword Immortal King…"

Everyone mumbled as they departed the area one after the other. Very swiftly, the news of the Saber-Sword Immortal King using only nine seconds to kill the Yama King circulated around, shocking the entire City of Ancient Emperors. Countless experts were stunned. With just a battle, the Saber-Sword Immortal King made it so that everyone remembered his name.

For those who looked upon him as a joke when he challenged the Yama King back then, all felt regret for not going to personally witness this fight. They felt as though they missed something.

Many immortal kings started to discuss about what power is the Saber-Sword Immortal King from and where did he come from. Why was it that they had never heard of him before. Such a powerful person shouldn't be some nameless individual.

After several months, on the top of a mountain, a figure quietly sat there as his emperor's fate shone brilliantly. The light radiating from the emperor's fate formed a resonance from the light cascading down from a dao element, allowing him to sense the inheritance energy from it. This figure was none other than Qin Wentian. As time flowed by, is emperor's fate grew in amount, there was no longer a need for him to fight others to accumulate emperor's fate.

"As expected of an inheritance from the upper world. Truly extraordinary. Mengchen, is what you comprehended the energy from the dao of the world? World Force." Qin Wentian asked. Not far away from him, another figure could be seen sitting down. This was none other than Jun Mengchen.

"That's right senior. There shouldn't be too many people who can comprehend this I feel." Jun Mengchen nodded. Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. "Remember this, at the very end, only a single person can become the complete inheritor of any of the dao elements. If you want it, you would be binded by the laws of the City of Ancient Emperors and you would have to defeat and kill others who contend against you for it. Mengchen, since this is the path you've chosen, you have to walk it well!"

Chapter 1498: Comprehending Dao Element

Jun Mengchen's eyes gleamed with sharpness. Wanting to contend for the dao element's inheritance, he had to become the one and only by defeating everyone else.

"Don't worry brother. There won't be many that are a match for me." Jun Mengchen didn't really mind it as he casually replied.

"Don't be too careless. By depending on my emperor's fate, I can sense the energy within the dao elements. The energy within all the dao elements are actually all-encompassing. Your physique has an affinity with this world-type dao element, and although others might cultivate different law-attributes from you, they might still be able to comprehend this dao element. After all, elite immortal kings are everywhere here, and there are even immortal emperors although they are in a different space." Qin Wentian reminded.

"Right." Jun Mengchen nodded. "Senior brother what about you? With so much emperor's fate and given how high your comprehension is, don't you plan to gain the inheritance of a dao element? Or do you want to comprehend as many as you can?"

"The attributes in the dao elements would reject each other, only one can be selected ultimately." Qin Wentian calmly replied. During these days, this was something he had comprehended. Jun Mengchen's eyes flickered, feeling somewhat taken aback.

"Since that's the case, what will be your choice?" Jun Mengchen asked.

"I won't accept the inheritance from any dao elements or I would have to be binded by the rules of the City of Ancient Emperors. I will only depend on my emperor's fate to comprehend as many insights as I can by forming a resonance with the radiance exuded by the respective dao elements but I won't cultivate the respective inheritances." Qin Wentian spoke. Depending on his emperor's fate, his senses with regards to comprehending the radiance by the dao elements was much more clearer.

Among the dao elements, there are those of the buddha-path, spatial, samsara, world...each and every kind of dao element possessed an all-encompassing energy, terrifying to the extreme. Once you completely cultivated the inheritance, you would be restricted and had to be bound by the rules of the city. Only by defeating those who contend against you for it, would you truly be able to possess it.

If it was about tens of years ago, no one would have thought that the City of Ancient Emperors would be so terrifying. But now, since the rules of the city have changed, everyone in the immortal realms began to believe the rumors that spread long ago. This era, would be an era where ancient emperors are born. It was only a matter of time.

Hence, everyone felt that time was tight and wanted to grow stronger as fast as possible, and naturally obstructing others if there's a chance.

"Mhm, senior brother, your talent is peerless. You definitely can embark on a path no one has done before." Just like before, Jun Mengchen was extremely confident in Qin Wentian.

"Mengchen, right now there are many people in the City of Ancient Emperors paying attention to me. Don't mix with me so frequently, you should change location and continue with your cultivation." Qin Wentian stated. Jun Mengchen nodded. He then stood up and prepared to speed away. "Senior brother, we must both stand at the peak of the immortal realms one day."

After speaking, his silhouette flashed as he soared into the air.

Qin Wentian closed his eyes as he silently comprehended the insights he gained, ignoring all external matters and grudges.

However, although the leaves of the tree wanted to stay still, how would the wind care about it? The fame brought by defeating the Yama King was too great, resulting in him generating shocking amounts of emperor's fate. There would naturally be other supreme characters who wanted to copy his method. Right now, everyone in the city knew about how the Saber-Sword Immortal King gained so much emperor's fate. As long as they could defeat him, they would be able to replace him and stand among the supreme elites at the peak of the city.

Today, a supreme peak-stage immortal king came by. Lightning crackled around him, the sky changed color as he stared at Qin Wentian, brimming with a fierce intent to do battle.

"You are the Saber-Sword Immortal King?" This expert stared at Qin Wentian, his voice booming out like thunder.

"Scram." Qin Wentian's eyes were still close as he replied.

"Indeed, as arrogant as the rumors. Saber-Sword Immortal King, this seat comes from the Thunder God Hall. I wish to test your strength." That expert spoke. Peals of thunder rained down, causing the earth in the surroundings to crack.

"Bzz~" A mysterious energy suddenly bore down on him. In an instant, this immortal king from the Thunder God Hall frowned. He discovered that he was in a separate space now, no longer on a mountain.

"An illusory space?" His eyes flashed. Lightning and thunder churned wildly, sweeping through everything. But at this moment, a sword qi river that flowed endlessly appeared, engulfing this entire space. He roared in rage. The thunder and lightning in the area transformed into numerous terrifying thunder dragons as he sought to fight back, causing the sky to change color from his display of power.

"Pu chi…" Streams of sword intent pierced through the dragons easily. In the next instant, a hole opened up in his forehead as he was slaughtered.

In the external world, faraway from the mountain peak which Qin Wentian was cultivating at, several experts were using their immortal sense to observe this battle. When they saw this scene, their hearts pounded intensely. The Saber-Sword Immortal King was too overwhelmingly strong. They only saw the Thunder God Hall's immortal king roaring and Qin Wentian didn't even move. In fact, he didn't even open his eyes. In the next instant, a hole opened up in the forehead of the challenger who was a supreme peak-stage immortal king and he died right after that. Such a scene brought too much of an impact to them.

"The Saber-Sword Immortal King can't be offended." Many people silently mused as they retracted their immortal senses and left the area. They no longer dared to spy on Qin Wentian. If they wanted to establish their fame by using Qin Wentian as a stepping stone, they had to make the preparations well or they would fall here. The Saber-Sword Immortal King was ruthless and wouldn't give you any chance to retreat. You would die as long as you acted against him.

Given the sort of character the Saber-Sword Immortal King was, he even dared to kill the supreme crown prince of Senluo, the Yama King. Who else would he still not dared to kill? If he spared those people who went to challenge him, it would only result in more and more people challenging him. Clearly, he wanted to intimidate everyone by showing his strength. Challengers had to be prepared to die should they wanted to challenge him.

And as expected, such a scene stunned many experts, allowing Qin Wentian to be able to continue to quietly cultivate. At this point of time, more changes occured in the boundlessly vast City of Ancient Emperors as more and more ancient ruins appeared. In fact, there were even hints of ancient emperors in some of these ruins, which caused the entire city to sink in a fervor.

This made many wonder. These ancient ruins should have existed all alone but were hidden away. Right now, to coincide with the arrival of the new grand era, all these ancient ruins finally started to surface.

However, all of this didn't affect Qin Wentian. He seemed to be a transcendent being, not bothered at all with the changes in the City of Ancient Emperors as he cultivated alone.

Today, there was finally someone who couldn't endure any longer and came to challenge Qin Wentian. It was a peak-stage demon king, a royal greater demon. However, his ending was the same as the previous challenger, slain mercilessly by Qin Wentian. Those who wished to use him as a stepping stone will all be killed by him with no exceptions.

Time flowed by but gradually, for those true supreme elites that stand at the peak, they were like transcendent beings, outside the 'system.' They didn't contend against anyone, but nobody was able to replace their position. These existences gradually became the symbols of the City of Ancient Emperors. Among them, the name of the Saber-Sword Immortal King was actually within. All of them stopped participating in disputes or fought against the others. They were focused on comprehending the dao elements from the radiances they exuded instead, working hard to raise their strength further.

Another twenty years passed since the Saber-Sword Immortal King killed the Yama King. During these twenty years, many extraordinary characters appeared. But even so, none of them were able to challenge the positions of those who stood at the peak.

However, although they weren't able to challenge those characters at the peak, no one can deny that more and more extraordinary characters were appearing. Numerous experts broke through, many mid-stage immortal kings became peak-stage immortal kings, and even more initial-stage experts broke through to the mid-stage.

In the last ten years, there was another batch of legendary characters who appeared. For example, Jun Mengchen who comprehended the world force dao element. His strength was unordinary, he had unrivaled combat prowess. It was like he only lacked a single step before his name was listed along with those true supreme elites that stood at the peak.

Hua Taixu was also in this group. He had also comprehended a dao element and seemed to have completely transformed overnight. His comprehensions was exceptionally deep and his cultivation base had reached the peak-phase of the mid-stage immortal king. He became famous because not that long ago, he killed a bunch of greater demons. These demons were naturally from the Desolate Mountains, and they were actually of royal blood, from the Sun Gold Demonic Race.

Hua Taixu, with his mid-stage immortal king cultivation, slayed over ten powerful greater royal demons that were at the peak-stage of the demon king realm of the Sun Gold Race in the span of a single night. This battle caused his name to resound famously throughout the City of Ancient Emperors, as his emperor's fate turned more majestic. Right now, he was being hunted by those peak existences of the Sun Gold Race within the City of Ancient Emperors.

It was rumored that the reason was because of a beautiful maiden. The Myriad Manifestations Immortal King died in the hands of a greater demon from the Sun Gold Race. This was why he suddenly went crazy and went on a killing spree.

Other than this, a heaven-devouring beast appeared in the City of Ancient Emperors, but this heaven-devouring beast wasn't imposing at all. It was extremely 'unique,' lecherous and shameless, loving to act as an adorable little demon that constantly jumped into the embrace of the goddess of the nine-tailed demon fox race. Also, when he saw any beautiful woman, he would instantly befriend them. He caused many greater demons to be enraged and want to kill him. However, his strength was truly extraordinary, and many greater demons at the peak-stage of the demon king realm actually couldn't even withstand a single strike from him, all ended up being devoured. His shameless personality soon circulated around the City of Ancient Emperors.

During these last ten years, more and more dao elements appeared in the sky, allowing people of the city to comprehend them.

At this moment, in a certain area within the city, a group of beautiful immortal kings could be seen. They surrounded a single person, as though wanting to protect her. That person sat cross-legged, exuding a holy aura akin to a goddess. In the air, the light cascading down from a dao element ceaselessly rained down on her, flowing into her body, causing her charm and beauty to intensify.

There were many other immortal kings in the surroundings. Some had looks of admiration in their eyes, some had killing intent, some had nefarious thoughts, wanting her body. These were all people who could comprehend the dao element she was cultivating. They wanted to kill this maiden off.

This dao element, was actually a spatial law dao element.

"Who is she?" Someone asked. "Being able to obtain recognition of a dao element with a mid-stage immortal king cultivation. There weren't many of such people, she should be someone famous."

"She's the princess of the Evergreen Empire, Evergreen Qing`er, the doted daughter of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. She has an innate immortal king physique and was gifted in the laws of space. It's rumored that she's extremely sensitive to spatial energy and this was how she gained the recognition of the spatial dao element."

"Given her background, her beauty, and her talent, she would definitely attract many suitors." Another person sighed.

"Evergreen Qing`er already has a fiance. Back then, this matter caused a great commotion that shook the entire immortal realms."

"Who is it?"

"Qin Wentian from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, the successor of Ancient Emperor Yi."

"I've never heard of this man before. He don't seem to be very famous in the City of Ancient Emperors?" A person puzzledly stated.

"I also feel that it's strange. Given Qin Wentian's personality and his reputation, he should have came to the City of Ancient Emperors. However, he didn't appear here and seemed to have vanished completely. This matter is truly strange. One must know that in the past, he was a person who ascended to the peak of the Demongod Mountain. Old Devil Duotian and the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor wanted to kill him but he was sent away by the Southern Phoenix Matriarch."

"Oh, I remember now. Maybe he was worried that many people wanted revenge as he has offended too many peak powers. Right now, the elite immortal kings of all major powers are in the city. If Qin Wentian really appeared here, they would definitely group up to kill him."

Many people discussed about the topic, their gazes were fixed on Qing`er, feeling awe at her beauty!

Chapter 1499: Void Beasts

Qing`er was incomparably pure and holy, akin to a goddess. The maidens around her were naturally her fellow sect members from Matriarch Ji's sect, they were acting as her protectors.

"I didn't think that junior sister Qing`er would actually be the first among us to comprehend a dao element." A young woman sighed. They were all proficient in spatial energy but among the many fellow disciples, Qing`er comprehended it the fastest.

"In the future, if someone among us sisters manages to comprehend a dao element, we cannot kill each other for it. We have to unite against others, understand?" A senior apprentice sister stared at everyone and spoke. All the maidens nodded. If there was another person among them who comprehended a spatial-type dao element as well, there might be cracks among their relationships. But before that, they would unite against all outsiders.

Among the spectators, there was a group of figures who were stocky in build. They wore luxurious purple robes and appeared like the royalty of humanity, yet they gave off a sense that they were not humans. Their eyes were extremely tiny, like that of rats. They are clearly a type of greater demons.

"What should we do?" They transmitted their voices to each other. Quite a few people turned their gazes to the person in the center. This person was more muscular than the others, but his frame was shorter in comparison. At this moment, his eyes gleamed with sharpness.

"Our boss has already spent many years comprehending this spatial dao element. We cannot allow others to threaten him. As long as there are any others attempting to comprehend the same dao element, we have to kill them all." That person in the center replied with a voice transmission. The others respectively nodded, they continued conversing silently and they gradually spread out in a circle, slowly trapping the maidens of Matriarch Ji within.

"Huh?" Somebody sensed something was wrong.

"Those fellows, they are planning to act."

"They are from the void beast race. These bastards are all extremely wretched beings, yet they are very united. Before this, they banded together and killed a supreme expert that was comprehending the spatial dao element. Now, they must be planning to act again." The surrounding crowd conversed. Void beasts were all extremely famous in the City of Ancient Emperors. After all, it has been a long time since the rules of the city changed.

"What are you guys planning to do?" Upon seeing the commotion, the people of Matriarch Ji's sect discovered that they were being surrounded by the void beasts.

"For those who have nothing to do with this, scram." The void beast in the lead coldly spoke. After that, the crowd all backed away, not wanting to be implicated by this. Void beasts were considered extremely powerful royal-blooded greater demons and all of them had extraordinary abilities. But as long as they didn't act against the crowd, none in the crowd would want to interfere.

"Careful, this bunch of ugly rats are planning to act against junior sister Qing`er." A maiden coldly spoke. After that, the void beasts all bared their fangs and let out hissing noises, as a look of malevolence could be seen in their eyes.

"There's nothing I hate most than people calling this king ugly." The leading void beast exuded a fearsome pressure, transforming into a storm of demonic qi.

"Also, we are not rats. We are majestic void beasts." Another void beast icily spoke. In reality, void beasts were a kind of rat kings which mutated a long time ago but they refused to admit that they were rats. Also, there was nothing they hated most than people insulting them, saying that they were ugly. The words of that maiden undoubtedly stabbed into their sore point.

In an instant, the violent surges of demonic qi transformed into a golden spatial storm of the void, ravaging its surroundings. The surrounding crowd all backed away. Although these void beasts were ugly, there was no need to doubt their strength. It was rumored that the old ancestors of the void beasts would even dare to clash head-on with the ancestral phoenix from the Southern Phoenix Clan.

"Void Boundary!" The disciples of Matriarch Ji's sect all unleashed powerful spatial energy. In an instant, this entire space sparkled with spatial runes which transformed into the incomparably resplendent void boundary, blocking all external influences.

"Bzz, bzz, bzz~" However, the void boundary was useless to the void beasts. They easily bypassed it and rushed into the region. They then reverted to their original forms which were even more ugly compared to their human forms. They waved their claws and bared their fangs, lunging towards the maidens from Matriarch Ji's Sect.

"As expected of void beasts, they are able to traverse the endless void with ease. Spatial energy is useless against them." The spectators felt their hearts shaking. However, the disciples of Matriarch Ji weren't people who couldn't live up to their reputations. Although none of them could be considered a character standing at the peak of the City of Ancient Emperors, the vast majority of them were still extraordinary individuals.

Their fingers all pointed outwards, radiating terrifying spatial energy that weaved about in the air. The sky changed color as a fearsome diagram covered the area, formed by the convergence of different spatial diagrams, capable of annihilating everything.

"The ultimate art of Matriarch Ji, Immortal Slaying Diagram." The eyes of the surrounding experts gleamed with sharpness, recognizing this innate technique.

The immortal diagrams were triggered by spatial energy but they are all different. Because, other than their proficiency in space laws, the other law attributes they are proficient in were all different. Hence, the giant spatial diagram that formed after convergence, had the ability to unleash all sorts of terrifying attacks.

"Minor tricks." A cold voice rang out. The void beasts actually didn't avoid the attacks. They all slashed out with their claws, causing numerous manifestations of claw attacks to launched out, tearing at that spatial diagram.

"BOOM!" One of the void beasts tore a hole open and dashed forth from there. After that, a scream of pain rang out as fresh blood splashed through the air. A maiden was injured, there was a terrifying wound on her face.

"Their original forms are truly rats." The hearts of everyone trembled. The attacking speed of void beasts was too fearsome, but their speed and strength were clearly way above ordinary rat-type demons.

"Void beasts are considered the nemesis of those proficient in spatial law. They are innate space beasts and can even counter the spatial abilities of others, directly drawing upon spatial energy. Although these rats are ugly, their abilities are considered a blessing to them by heavens." Someone mused.

The group battle instantly erupted, forming powerful aftershocks that ravaged the area. The crowd retreated far away, even the mountains in the surroundings started to crumble as cracks appeared on the ground. The experts from Matriarch Ji's Sect were more passive in comparison. By right, the giant immortal slaying diagram formed by them should have a restraining effect on their opponents. But to these void beasts, their attacks were clearly not as effective as usual.

"Qing`er, careful!" At this moment, a voice rang out. One of the void beasts broke past the obstruction and directly rushed towards Qing`er who was in the midst of comprehending the dao element. His evil eyes flashed, even he felt a little pity that he was about to kill such a beautiful maiden.

Sharp golden claws were extended, shooting out thorns that pierced towards Qing`er. If one were hit by these thorns, they would definitely be ripped apart. The people spectating from afar couldn't help but to feel fear in their hearts. This void beast actually acted, wanting to destroy Qing`er.

At this moment, countless resplendent spatial runes flowed around Qing`er, transforming into protective barriers. She opened her eyes, as she stabbed her finger out in an attack, causing the runes around her to form a spatial prison that directly trapped the void beast. This time around, the void beast was actually restricted.

"Yi…" A shrill voice called out. The void beast used his innate abilities, wanting to bypass the spatial barrier by stepping into the void. His body gleamed with a radiance but that was all. Nothing else happened. His ugly eyes couldn't help but to flash with puzzlement.

Qing`er's expression was cold. She blasted out a palm attack, forming an immortal slaying diagram that shot towards the void beast. A moment later, the void beast was actually absorbed into the diagram, forcefully bringing it into another dimension. A voice of agony rang out, causing the eyes of the other void beasts to shine with a murderous light as all of them rushed towards Qing`er.

Qing`er stood up, when she saw that her fellow apprentice sisters were injured and there was even one who died, killing intent immediately appeared on her face. Her silhouette flashed as she rushed out in a direction, joining the battlefield.

"This Evergreen Qing`er is so powerful. As expected of someone who had comprehended a dao element." The surrounding experts were somewhat shocked by Qing`er's combat prowess. She was able to fight against peak-stage immortal kings. However, even so, the Matriarch Ji's disciples were clearly in the inferior positions. After all, void beasts were nemeses for those who were proficient in spatial law energy.

This battle caused an extremely huge amount of commotion, causing a spatial storm to rise up. More and more people from afar noticed and all of them gradually rushed over.

"What's going on?" An icy voice suddenly rang out. Three figures suddenly stepped out from the void. The person in the center was extremely terrifying. Although he was ugly-looking, he radiated an overwhelming pressure.

"Boss, that female comprehended the dao element. Let's eat her." A void beast pointed his finger at Qing`er.

"She must be courting death." Even if the void beast didn't say anything, these experts who just arrived would naturally join in the battle when they saw the demons of their race fighting against humans. The center figure had a robe with royal designs on it. His robes fluttered with the wind as he grabbed outwards in the air. Momentarily, countless manifestations of claw attacks filled the air, shooting towards Qing`er, wanting to rip her apart. The entire space was flooded by the claw attack, and the attacking speed of each manifestation was extremely fast.

"Peak-stage of the immortal king realm, is he the king of the void beasts?" The hearts of everyone trembled. Qing`er did her best to defend but as an explosive sound rang out, a wound appeared on her arm, causing fresh blood to flow out.

"Vile creature, you dare?!" From afar, a violent sound echoed out loud, shaking the heavens and earth. The void beast king turned his gaze to afar, only to see a young and handsome figure rushing here. His face was expressionless as he continued attacking Qing`er, showing no mercy.

"BOOM!" The figure from afar punched out, his fist imprint was like a shooting star, causing the surrounding space to tremble as it tore through the void. With a deafening boom, the attack reached first although it was unleashed later. It was actually incomparably quick and had shattered the countless claw manifestations.

"It's Jun Mengchen, he actually rushed over here. Seems like the battlefield is going to be expanded." Everyone mused silently. During these ten years, Jun Mengchen was growing increasingly famous in the City of Ancient Emperors!

Chapter 1500: Great Storm

Raging winds breezed by, Jun Mengchen soared through the air, arriving before the void beast king.

"Jun Mengchen, why has he come? Could it be that he is in love with Evergreen Qing`er?" Someone asked in puzzlement.

"The fiance of Evergreen Qing`er, is Qin Wentian. Jun Mengchen is the junior apprentice brother of Qin Wentian and the two of them have an extremely good relationship." Those who were more familiar with news about the eastern regions started to explain, causing many people here to be enlightened.

"This bunch of ugly rats, you all actually dare to injure my sister-in-law!" Jun Mengchen roared, his eyes coldly sweeping over these void beasts as he stared at the void beast king, flashing with killing intent.

"Chi, chi…" The void beasts all inclined their heads and looked at Jun Mengchen, revealing their fangs. The void beast king in the lead also radiated killing intent. "You dare to insult my void beast race?"

"So what about it?" Jun Mengchen pointed his finger at his opponent. "Why don't you take a good look in the mirror and see how ugly you are. You lot still dare to come out in the open and frighten people with your faces? Daring to injure my sister-in-law, I will take the lives of you vile creatures today."

"ROAR!" How could the void beast king still endure under such insults? He directly acted, slashing out with his claws. The claw manifestation attack actually transformed into a golden sword that slashed through the void, wanting to tear the world asunder. Jun Mengchen was naturally the target of this terrifying attack. If this attack hit, Jun Mengchen would most probably be split into twain.

An incomparably violent king aura radiated from Jun Mengchen. Boundless light cascaded down, enveloping his body. With a roar of anger, the sky changed color. He punched out with his fist which contained boundless might, shattering the slash that shot his way.

"Puchi…" The void beast king directly stepped into the void, bypassing the attack and actually appearing before Jun Mengchen in an instant. Too swift, the innate abilities of this greater demon race were truly terrifying. He could ignore distances and directly attack, aiming for Jun Mengchen's eyes. He wanted to use the simplest and most violent method to destroy the person who insulted his race.

"How terrifying." Many people sweated for Jun Mengchen. Stepping through the void, able to attack at any instant. Facing such powerful attacks at an instant notice, it can be said that it was almost unavoidable. Just when everyone thought Jun Mengchen would be killed, Jun Mengchen's body suddenly radiated a blinding glow, like the king of a world. The blinding light expanded forth, containing boundless strength. When the attack from the void beast king landed, it actually failed to penetrate this light barrier.

The eyes of the the void beast king flashed. He continued attacking, ignoring the amount of distance between them.

"Can you even break my defense?" Jun Mengchen roared. The king's light from him flashed brilliantly as an all-annihilation destructive energy ferociously gushed forth from him, engulfing his opponent. However, the void beast king's reflexes were extremely fast, able to step into the void to evade it. The space before Jun Mengchen was flooded with destructive energy, burying everything within. Those who saw this scene felt their hearts trembling, but the void beast king had already appeared in a location far away.

"Is this the power of the world force used by Jun Mengchen?" Everyone stared at the resplendent barrier around Jun Mengchen, this felt like an entire world, possessing world force, resonating with Jun Mengchen's unique physique. Right now, his physique was no longer a secret. It was the rarely seen world-physique, and enable one's body to generate world energy. With this physique, he was able to stand at the peak of the mid-stage of the immortal king realm, granting him enough power to fight against peak-stage immortal kings.

"Bzz~" From afar, more and more experts arrived, including other greater demons. All of them were watching this battle with interest.

"Ugly rat. Why? You guys were insulted by humans?" A greater demon spoke. His frame was small as well and was incredibly ugly, comparable to the appearances of the void beasts, yet he still called them ugly. This was truly interesting.

The void beast king coldly glanced over, "You demons from the Heavenhold Race are much uglier compared to us."

"Hehe, why? After being insulted by humans, you want to take your anger out on us Heavenhold Demons? If we were in your shoes, how would these humans still be able to live on after insulting us." That Heavenhold Demon grinned. His eyes then brightened when he glanced towards Qing`er and the other maidens. "These human beauties are really not bad. It would be a pity to kill them. Why don't we enjoy the pleasures of flesh? We have been fighting in the City of Ancient Emperors for such so long, it has been such a long time since I sampled the taste of human beauties. I truly missed the days when we invaded the immortal realms."

As the sound of these words rang out, many humans revealed expressions of anger. Cold gazes swept over, looking towards the experts from the Heavenhold Race.

"What are you looking at? Are you all reluctant to accept what I've said? You want to battle?" These Heavenhold Demons might be ugly, but they were very confident. Their eyes swept over the humans as they spoke arrogantly.

"You guys are already ugly enough, but your words are even more disgusting. Why did the heavens give birth to you bunch of weird creatures? Looking at you is simply making my eyes filthy." Jun Mengchen glanced at the demons from the Heavenhold Race as he coldly spoke.

"Jun Mengchen, you might be somewhat famous in the City of Ancient Emperors, but daring to insult my Heavenhold Race would only lead to your death. Ugly rat, hurry up and kill him. Just leave the beauties with us and I want them alive, especially for that princess." The leading character from the Heavenhold Race coldly spoke, pointing to Qing`er.

"Vile creatures are indeed vile, so uncultured. It's truly an insult that you demons took human forms. If I don't finish you all off, my name isn't Jun Mengchen." Jun Mengchen coldly spoke. A terrifying storm rose up in the air, as law energy fluctuated wildly. A terrifying world diagram appeared behind Jun Mengchen, continuously expanding, blotting out the sun.

"You are insulting each and every demon of our desolate mountains?" A cold voice rang out. This voice was from an expert of the Nether Race, they were also in human form and were observing the battle. They couldn't help but to speak out when they heard Jun Mengchen's words.

"Those demons who rampaged through the immortal realms, behaving wantonly. I shall kill them all." Jun Mengchen matched the gaze of the greater demon as he coldly shot back. Back then after the Demongod Mountain appeared, the greater demons started to invade the immortal realms after that. Among them, many demons were extremely arrogant, treating humans as their playthings. He was already extremely dissatisfied with these demons. If his cultivation was strong enough, he would definitely hunt them all down, driving them back to the desolate mountains.

"Everyone, what do you all think?" The void beast king coldly spoke. From all around, demonic growls could be heard, all of them staring sinisterly at Jun Mengchen. One of the demons laughed, "The immortal realms are truly a good place. Right now, we are all busy here in the City of Ancient Emperors. Or I would definitely roam the human world and enjoy the taste of being an emperor."

"Humans have occupied the immortal realms for too long and think that they are the masters. However, its true there are many nice places in the immortal realms. For example, the Jadestage Immortal Palace and the Southern Phoenix Clan. The beauties there truly makes me drool. If we can capture them all, we definitely have to enjoy ourselves, using their bodies to the fullest." Some of the demons started to laugh in an unrestrained manner, not giving a damn. In fact, during those early years when they invaded, they did do many unspeakable acts to many humans.

"Don't you guys have any guts at all?" Jun Mengchen howled in anger, staring at the humans in the surroundings. However, he soon discovered that the majority of these human cultivators didn't even have the intention to join the battle. They all had the attitudes of neutral spectators.

"You humans are lowly and are nothing but scum. Able to betray each other for the sake of self-interest and benefits." Some of the demons impolitely insulted.

"IMPUDENT!" One of the human immortal kings could no longer endure it. He stepped out, and a moment later, several powerful immortal kings were also emboldened as they followed after him, each of them radiating a cold intent. The atmosphere of this place became extremely tense as the auras of humans and demons permeated it. A formless pressure formed into a grand terrifying storm so huge that even people extremely far away were able to see it.

"What's going on over there? Look at the storm of energy. How terrifying." From extremely far away, there were people staring over this direction as they felt their hearts trembling. After that, their silhouettes flickered as they moved closer to the location of the battlefield.

"Mhm? A group of experts whose bodies seemed to be cast from gold, all had expressions of interest on their faces when they noticed this. All of them then soared into the air and sat upon a golden war chariot, speeding over.

The formless pressure increased as the magnitude of the storm grew greater and more intense. Not long after, the place where Qing`er and the others were at, actually became a place where numerous experts gathered.

"Something big is going to happen." Someone mused. In truth, the battles in the City of Ancient Emperors during these ten years, were already no longer as fierce as before. The situation has already been set, nobody could change the positions of those standing at the peak. Everyone was focused on cultivating, busy raising their strengths instead of duking it out. But now, such a scene actually appeared. Seems like there are some fierce battles about to happen.

Even for the disciples of Matriarch Ji and the void beasts, none of them thought that such a scene would appear. The void beasts only wanted to kill Qing`er who was cultivating the spatial dao element. They didn't expect that such a major scene would occur.

Qing`er coldly stared at her surroundings. There were many humans and demons who gathered here. In fact, many devil cultivators from the Myriad Devil Islands could be seen as well. Their existences were like the darkness, standing quietly there, but all of them were extremely dangerous characters.

"Someone said that us demons are uncivilized and wants to hunt us all down. Everyone, what do you all think of this statement?" A demon from the Heavenhold Race coldly spoke.

"Who dares say such a thing? Your Heavenhold Race should hurry up and kill him. For those who dare to obstruct you, we will slaughter them all with no mercy." An extremely glacial voice rang out.

"Also for those females, leave them to us and those rats. Everyone wouldn't have any objections, right?" The Heavenhold demon pointed his finger to the disciples of Matriach Ji's sect as he spoke.

"As long as you guys can take them down, they are all yours." Another greater demon spoke. They coldly stared at the humans in the area, as though as long as these humans moved in to help, they would kill them all.

Chapter 1501: Battle Erupts

Jun Mengchen's expression turned cold when he heard this arrogant voice. Before this, he had already experienced the arrogance of these greater demons back when in Gazing Emperor City. Now, their arrogance was even more boundless in the City of Ancient Emperors, completely disregarding the humans of the immortal realms.

Although the Demongod Mountain appeared, causing the greater demons of desolation to rise up in terms of strength, humanity was after all, one of the powerhouses in the myriad of things in the grand scheme of the world. How could they allow the demonic beasts to insult and humiliate them like this?

"A bunch of lowly vile beasts. After killing you all, I shall barbeque all your flesh and eat it. WHO IS WITH ME?" Jun Mengchen roared to the human cultivators, his battle intent soaring up into the sky.

"Whoever dares to interfere, shall be killed without mercy." Those golden sun demons sitting in the golden chariot coldly spoke, threatening the humans.

"This incident started because you Jun Mengchen insulted the greater demons first. You should handle it yourself, we won't be used by you." A human cultivator spoke, hiding in the shadows.

"Who?" Jun Mengchen's eyes flashed as he coldly spoke. "After being humiliated by these vile creatures, you as a human even dared to say such words? What a useless coward. You are associated with shame itself."

"What? This matter is something you started, you can't resolve it and want to pull other humans into this battle with you? Making use of us must be your motive, do you think that we are foolish?" That voice rang out in the air. "If these demons continue to insult us after they deal with you, it wouldn't be too late for us to fight with them then."

"So much nonsense. Has your discussion finish? Can we act now?" The void beast king's ugly eyes flashed with coldness, staring at Jun Mengchen.

"Haha, let's attack. Since these humans know what's good for them, we can ignore them. Let's finish these people first and hand over the human beauties to my race." The Heavenhold Demon laughed.

"A bunch of vile creatures, you guys should scram back to the desolate mountains." A group of experts walked over, these people were all from the Heavenly Talisman Realm, with Tuoba Saintsky among them. Other than them, the experts from the Southern Phoenix Clan also arrived. They naturally stood on the side of Jun Mengchen and those from Matriarch Ji's sect, making preparations to fight side by side with them.

"Even the Southern Phoenix Clan came. Interesting, we can really have some fun this time around." A look of excitement flashed in the eyes of the demons from the Heavenhold Race.

"Let's fight." In the air, a demon from the Nether Race coldly spoke. Instantly, numerous demonic beasts acted, all of them reverting to their original forms as they rushed towards the people of Matriarch Ji's sect. The Heavenhold Race also lunged over, causing the space to tremble with their boundless and innately-gifted divine strength that was capable of holding up the sky. When they attacked, lightning and thunder crackled around, causing sounds of explosions to ring out.

"BOOM!" A demon ape stomped on the ground, causing violent tremors. The demons attacked one after another, beginning their killing spree, wanting to destroy all these humans.

"KILL!" Jun Mengchen's aura gushed forth with no reservations. The world diagram unfolded, growing more and more boundless, transforming into an entire world. In an instant, Jun Mengchen was clad in full royal attire, appearing like the king of that entire world. He lifted his hand and punched out, causing a golden fist imprint to shoot through the air, powered by the energy of this entire world.

"BOOM!" The fist imprint was moving with the speed of a shooting star, directly aiming for a demon of the Heavenhold Race. That Heavenhold Demon had boundless strength, he similarly unleashed a punch with no worries.

The two streaks of fist light collided in midair, but at the point of collision, the Heavenhold demon only felt a vast pressure born from the aftershock gushing towards him. A moment later, cracking sounds rang out as some of his bones in his arms shattered. Fresh blood splashed through the air as the eyes of the demon widened, his heart pounding in fear. With a roar of rage, he wanted to expand his form but everything was too late. When he decided to match Jun Mengchen's punch head-on arrogantly, the ending was already decided. The fist light penetrated his body, directly shooting into his heart.

The Heavenhold greater demon glanced at his chest. He only saw a hole there as his heart was crushed. There was a look of fear on his face before he finally fell down, dead by a single punch.

"ROAR!" A thunderous roar rang out. One of the peak-stage demon kings of the Heavenhold Race transformed into a gargantuan giant, his body filled with boundless strength as he rushed towards Jun Mengchen.

Jun Mengchen glanced at him. He soared up into the sky and also turned into a giant, radiating a kingly aura, akin to the supreme king of the entire world. His battle intent permeated the atmosphere as he clashed against this new opponent.

In the other battlefields, combat also erupted. Tuoba Saintsky borrowed the law attributes of the other experts, easily handling their opponents. They formed something like a formation and Tuoba Saintsky was at the eye of that formation.

Other than them, there were some humans who were infuriated after being insulted by the demons and had joined the battle. But in comparison to the human experts watching the battle, these people who joined the battle were so few that it was pathetic.

"KILL!" A supreme demon king from the Nether Race commanded.

"KILL!" On the golden chariot, the golden sun demons all wielded battle sun spears as they rushed forward.

Demons have always lived in a world where might makes right, the law of the jungle. The strong shall become king and the weak shall serve the king. They might be cruel and violent, without many laws to govern their way of living. But in some situations, they were far more united compared to humans. The number of greater demons participating in the battles was naturally far more when compared to the human experts.

These battles caused a storm of commotion to be whipped up as the battlefields constantly expanded. Countless pairs could be seen fighting against each other, giving their all to kill each other.

In the City of Ancient Emperors, countless experts noticed the commotion and all of them had shocked gazes. In that direction, there was actually a large-scale battle with many participants. Not only that, more and more participants seemed to be joining in. Many humans could no longer stomach the arrogance of demonkind. If this continued, the immortal realms would sooner or later become a world of demons.

Nanfeng Yunxi was in combat as well. However, despite her mid-stage immortal king cultivation base, she wasn't able to contribute much to the overall situation. The humans were clearly in an inferior position, the number of demon kings far surpassed them.

"Careful!" At this moment, Nanfeng Yunxi called out. But it was too late. Before her eyes, a holy maiden of the Southern Phoenix Clan was impaled by the claws of a void beast. Fresh blood splashed through the air, the situation was extremely miserable.

Nanfeng Yunxi's heart pounded violently. How many maidens have fallen since they entered the City of Ancient Emperors? More than a few immortal king-level holy maidens have already died. In this grand era, geniuses were as common as clouds. With so many people contending for opportunities, there were naturally some who grew stronger while others became corpses.

Not only did the Southern Phoenix Clan have holy maidens who died, there were also quite a few immortal kings who died from Matriarch Ji's sect, as well as some of those human experts who chose to participate in the battle. Naturally, it was the same for the demons as well.

For those humans who were still alive, they didn't feel regret at all. They were still fighting because they knew that in this grand era, such a battle between demons and humans would come sooner or later. If it wasn't today, it would be tomorrow.

At this moment, an alluring and beautiful figure appeared, with an adorable snow-white little demon in her arms appeared. The little demon leapt out, instantly transforming into a golden giant beast. The female's voice was extremely airly, she then spoke, "This is a battle between humans and demons. You really want to stand on the side of the humans? If it is true, I won't be helping you."

"This is my battle, it has nothing to do with you. If I dared to not help out when Qing`er is in danger, that fellow would surely slay this baobao if he learned of it." Little Rascal mumbled. After that, he directly rushed out in Qing`er's direction as his body continued expanding.

"ROAR!" A thunderous roar caused the sky to change color. The void beast fighting against Qing`er only felt a vortex of devouring might completely shrouding him. He lifted his head and stared at Little Rascal as he roared in anger, "You actually moved against me?"

"I'll kill whoever dares to make a move on Qing`er." A rare expression of seriousness could be seen on Little Rascal's face. His mouth was bared, revealing sharp teeth. At this moment, that void beast was surrounded completely by a mass of devouring energy. He invoked his innate ability, wanting to step through the void and flee. But, he only saw Little Rascal roaring once more as even the space itself, where he wanted to travel to, was devoured.

That void beast struggled, constantly stepping into the void but Little Rascal's attacks were relentless. No matter how he tried to flee, he was unable to escape from Little Rascal. Not too long after, his body transformed into a beam of light that shot into Little Rascal's mouth, as he was devoured. At the final few moments, that void beast's body was as tiny as an insect.

"Is this the power of a heaven-devouring beast? How terrifying. It's rumored that heaven-devouring beasts who cultivate to the peak, are able to swallow the sky itself. I wonder if this is true or false." Someone exclaimed.

"Do you guys know the origin of this heaven-devouring beast?" Someone teased.

"What origin? Didn't he come from the Desolate Mountains as well?" A person asked.

"That's not true. If he was from the Desolate Mountains, why would he help humans in this battle? He grew up in the immortal realms and his master is none other than Qin Wentian, the fiance of Evergreen Qing`er."

"Traitor! EAT HIM!" A royal greater demon stared at Little Rascal and barked. A moment later, several powerful demons rushed towards Little Rascal. Little Rascal himself was like a supreme demon king, his eyes and fur were golden. Lifting his head, he howled at the heavens as a formless energy enveloped those greater demons who moved against him, completely devouring them.

"Interesting." Some of the more powerful supreme demons arrived, observing the situation.

At this moment, on a certain mountain peak, Qin Wentian could be seen sitting there. He has already been seated here for a very long time. But at this moment, the summons of Little Rascal suddenly rang out in his mind. His eyes opened as two bolts of lightning shot through the air, imposing to the max.

"RUMBLE~" With a flash of his silhouette, he directly rose up in the air and sped towards the direction where Little Rascal was. It has been so many years, Little Rascal has never taken the initiative to summon him before. This time around, something urgent must have happened!

Chapter 1502: Saber-Sword Immortal King Appears

The battle raged on, the world seemed to lose its luster, the rivers dried up and the mountains crumbled.

Right now, in the battlefield, the number of experts were simply terrifying, exuding fearsome might.

A battle between humans and demons, how could the scale of it not be big? The rules of the City of Ancient Emperors have changed, and it has never seen a battle on such a large-scale before. Numerous demons and humans joined in one after another, the situation causing even those who are unwilling to participate, to have no choice but to fight.

In fact, there were many supreme peak characters that was rarely seen in the City of Ancient Emperors participating as well. The fox maiden of the nine-tailed fox race, the first person to gain the inheritance of the buddha-type dao element, Jiang Zihua, as well as that the supreme greater demon sitting in the golden sun chariot who once killed a crown prince of the Taihua Immortal Dynasty. Right now, he was also one of those who stood at the peak, nobody dared to antagonize him. The people of his race also participated but he still didn't act. Even when his fellow demons encountered danger, he still stood aside and merely observed the battle.

Right now, the entire immortal realms were in chaos, as the grand new era approaches. The situation in the immortal realms was no longer the same as before. Although the greater demons from the Desolate Mountain Range received a boost in their strength, but if they really wished to stand on the peak of the immortal realms, they still needed extraordinary strength. The City of Ancient Emperors was the best place to temper themselves.

Other than the peak characters of humanity, many royal-blooded greater demons of the Desolate Mountain Range appeared here, joining the battle and gradually suppressing the humans.

The battle was extremely intense, blood fell like rain from the sky. This situation was extremely brutal and the number of people who died was unknown. The void beasts and Heavenhold Race fought against Matriarch Ji's sect and the maidens from the Southern Phoenix Clan. Little Rascal who reverted to his true form, single-handedly held his side of the battlefield, blocking numerous opponents. If it wasn't for the joint efforts of many extraordinary supreme greater demons, it was unknown how many demon kings would have already been devoured by him.

Other than this, Jun Mengchen's combat prowess was also extremely tyrannical. The void beast king fought with him but was unable to gain any advantages at all.

There were also a few supreme experts from the Southern Phoenix Clan. Phoenix shadows covered the sky, as their flames burned the heavens. But no matter how hard they fought, they were still suppressed, and many of them were already injured.

Qing`er's expression was extremely cold. Spatial energy enveloped her protectively, and her clean robes were now stained with blood from her wounds, invoking feelings of pity from those who saw her.

At this moment, there were several greater demons surrounding her. A supreme greater demon from the Heavenhold Race had a lascivious look on his face. "What a beautiful maiden. I want her alive, everyone, please show mercy when you attack."

"Sure." A void beast coldly replied. To such a beautiful woman, the most cruel fate for her wasn't to kill her.

"GO!" The greater demon from the Heavenhold Race punched out with boundless might as meteors fell from the sky. Qing`er's expression turned heavy, her spatial law energy surrounded this area, trying to restrain the attacks.

"Hmph." The void beast snorted coldly. He stepped through the void and opened up a spatial pathway, directly appearing before Qing`er as he attacked with his claws.

"The reason why so many humans participated in this battle, is actually because of this woman. Capture her!" Many greater demons rushed towards Qing`er, instantly putting her into a dangerous situation.

"RUMBLE!" At this moment, a blood-red lightning blasted onto a greater demon. That greater demon shuddered, but a moment later, boundless law energy manifested, transforming into a prison that trapped him within.

"NO!" That demon roared coldly, but before he could do anything, the lightning in the prison blasted him into ashes. Many demons glanced at the attacker, as they bristled with rage. The attacker was from a group of devil cultivators who were currently walking over. These devil cultivators all radiated the power of judgement, terrifying to the extreme.

"Devil cultivators from the Judiciary Hall, they actually participated. There might be many humans in the Myriad Devil Islands, but they have always stood in opposition to the immortal realms. Why would they help them now?" Someone had a puzzled look on his face.

"Judiciary Priestess." The crowd turned their gazes towards a female in red robes and a judiciary crown on her head. She exuded a cold imposingness.

"The devil cultivators also wish to interfere?" In the air, a greater demon in human-form crossed his arms before his chest. He was an super-variation beast with the bloodline of a phoenix and a roc, an expert from the phoeroc race.

"Are devil cultivators of the Myriad Devil Islands not humans?" The priestess coldly replied. This scene actually caused another group of devil cultivators standing far away to have a bewildered look on their faces. They were dressed in black and resembled sinister shadows living in the darkness. They were none other than experts from the Darkness Devil Hall.

"Priestess Bai Qing has always been cold and emotionless, why is she suddenly so passionate now?" A devil cultivator coldly commented, clearly taken aback.

"Back then when Bai Qing was still in the immortal-foundation realm, there was a group of immortal cultivators who came to the Myriad Devil Islands. Do you still remember that time?"

"Mhm."

"Back then, Bai Qing was acquainted with a person and referred to him as Wentian gege. From this, you can know how close they were. This Qin Wentian created a huge commotion on our devil mountain. He is also extremely famous in the immortal realms and this Evergreen Qing`er is none other than his fiancee." A devil cultivator pointed at Qing`er as he spoke.

"In that case, Bai Qing doing this now is to help her. However, given Bai Qing's attitude towards Qin Wentian, does she really just treat him like an elder brother?"

The devil cultivator at the side coldly laughed. "Of course she only treats him as an elder brother. If not, why would she help Qin Wentian's woman?"

"Maybe her feelings for him are too deep?" The other devil cultivators laughed, as though they were speaking of insignificant matters.

"Didn't you guys hear it? Devil cultivators from the Myriad Devil Islands are also humans. Could it be that you all aren't demons?" From the air, an expert from the phoeroc race coldly roared at the sky rocs and white tigers. After that, he directly soared through the air and attacked the devil cultivators from the Judiciary Hall, fighting against them intensely.

In all directions, the number of spectators far exceeded the number of fighters. But as long as more humans joined in, the demons would gradually be suppressed.

From afar, a supreme expert was hurrying over. This was none other than Qin Wentian, his robes fluttered with the wind as he constantly extended his immortal sense outwards. With a single glance, he could tell that the demons and humans were fighting against each other, with all major powers and different demonic races being involved.

Also, in the center of the battlefield, Qing`er, Jun Mengchen, Nanfeng Yunxi, Little Rascal and Bai Qing were actually there. The sight of those familiar silhouettes couldn't help but to cause his heart to stir.

When he saw the wounds of Qing`er, and the blazing manner in which Jun Mengchen fought, his eyes gleamed with a cold killing intent.

Finally, he arrived here. He then transformed into a beam of light and directly rushed into the battlefield while roaring tyrannically, "What's going on? A bunch of vile beasts dares to insult humanity? All you vile creatures, stop for this seat!"

This voice was tyrannical to the extreme, insulting the demons and having no regards for anything in his eyes. With a single sentence, Qin Wentian was instantly involved in the battlefield.

However, for king-level battles, especially such a large-scale one, how could they ceasefire just like this with a single sentence from Qin Wentian? The experts in combat didn't stop, both sides still continued warring.

"You guys didn't hear this seat's words?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. His palm shot through the air, manifesting a countless number of swords that flew towards Qing`er and Bai Qing's direction. When those demons sensed the powerful sword intent, all of them finally reacted. However, it was too late, many greater demons were slain by the tyrannical sword intent, giving rise to roars and screams of pain and agony.

Instantly, many parts of the battlefield fell to silence as numerous gazes gleaming with sharpness turned to Qin Wentian.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King!" Someone recognized Qin Wentian as he couldn't help but to exclaim.

"He is the Saber-Sword Immortal King? Seems like the peak characters of humanity and demonkind are all participating in this battle." The eyes of many flashed. If the Saber-Sword Immortal King participated, the situation might change.

Many demons also stared at Qin Wentian, and the copious amounts of emperor's fate behind him. So, this is the Saber-Sword Immortal King who killed the Yama King within nine breaths of time? He is truly tyrannical indeed, wanting the battle to stop just from a single sentence from him.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King, stop being so insolent." A supreme greater demon from the phoeroc race stepped out. His eyes gleamed with sharpness as he stared at Qin Wentian. Earlier, one of the greater demons who died to Qin Wentian, belonged to his race.

"Insolent?" Qin Wentian inclined his head, his eyes shooting out two streams of sword intent, gushing at the phoeroc. That demon hurriedly stepped aside, arcing through the sky as he roared, "WHAT ARE YOU DOING?"

"You think you can escape?" Qin Wentian coldly sneered. A sword qi river gushed forth, as screams of misery rang out. A few moments later, the crowd only saw the peak-stage demon king from the phoeroc race being lacerated into pieces. This was simply terrifying to the extreme.

"This Saber-Sword Immortal King truly lives up to his reputation as mentioned in the rumors. His personality is truly lawless and tyrannical. There are so many demons here, and each of the demon races possess supreme experts, especially for the phoeroc race. Yet, he directly started killing the moment he came here." The crowd trembled, this Saber-Sword Immortal King was simply too fierce.

Qing`er's eyes flashed with a strange light as she stared at Qin Wentian. Earlier, that sword attack from Qin Wentian seemed to be a casual strike, but it had immediately lifted the pressure on her, causing her to be somewhat puzzled.

"Qing`er, it's me." At this moment, a voice rang out in her mind. Instantly, Qing`er only felt currents of warmth in her heart. She lowered her head and glanced at her wounds. The frostiness in her eyes all melted away. This fellow hasn't looked for her despite her already being in here in the City of Ancient Emperors for a long time. So it turned out that he actually assumed a different identity!

Chapter 1503: Arranged Battle

The moment Qin Wentian acted, he vanquished several demon kings. That, in addition to his arrogant words, instantly caused the anger of several greater demons to stir as terrifying auras bore down on him with demonic qi permeating the atmosphere.

"You want to take all the demons from the Desolate Mountains as your enemy?" A supreme expert among the void beasts coldly spoke.

"Putting such a large hat on my head? All the demon races from the desolate mountains?" Qin Wentian laughed loudly, staring at his opponent. He then continued, "You demons surrounded the humans of my immortal realms, and in addition to what happened back in Gazing Emperor City, the demons from the desolate mountains have never placed us humans from the immortal realms in their eyes before. From your past actions when you lot invaded our world, are you guys not taking the humans of the immortal realms as your enemy?"

The demons all fell silent. That expert from the phoeroc race continued floating in the air, his lofty eyes staring fixedly at Qin Wentian. Not only him, the void beasts, the Heavenhold Race, and many other demons were staring at Qin Wentian with killing intent in their eyes.

It was just that the Saber-Sword Immortal King was too famous and that, coupled with the fact that he instantly killed several greater demons when he appeared, everyone was still shocked. Even for the violent demonic races, nobody dared to act recklessly.

Someone turned his gaze to that dazzling supreme greater demon sitting in the gold sun chariot. Bright light illuminated the area around him and he was also one of those characters who stood at the absolute peak in the City of Ancient Emperors. His strength was undoubtable, his combat prowess powerful enough to rival the heavens. A supreme character had appeared from humanity. In this place, only he and the nine-tailed fox maiden would be powerful enough to stand equal to this Saber-Sword Immortal King. However, the personality of the fox maiden was too cold, the probability of her entering combat wasn't as high as the supreme greater demon from the gold sun race.

As for experts from the phoeroc race, they glanced towards an extremely powerful demon from their race. Although his fame wasn't equal to the strongest phoeroc who was also in the City of Ancient Emperors, all the phoerocs knew how terrifying his strength was.

This powerful phoeroc narrowed his eyes, after that, he turned to Qin Wentian and loftiness could be seen brimming within his gaze.

"What do you guys think?" He didn't act directly, but turned to the greater demons in the surroundings instead. In response, many of the greater demons unleashed their auras and killing intent, clearly wanting to kill this extremely arrogant Saber-Sword Immortal King.

"He insulted us demons from the desolate mountains and massacred our experts. He has to be killed." A demon roared.

"Insulting demons, and you guys want to kill this seat? Fine, let's see who dares to do it." Qin Wentian swept his gaze at the demons in the surroundings. With this sentence, the entire space fell silent. Although demonic qi still permeated the atmosphere, he was still as confident as ever, almost to the point where one could say that he was brazen to the extreme.

The space fell to silence once again. However, the amount of demonic qi in the air didn't lessen. The demons were exchanging mutual glances, as though planning for something.

"Bzz~" The wind gusted by as a void beast attacked. He shot through space and clawed out at Qin Wentian, instantly unleashing a powerful wave of spatial energy, wanting to kill his target. In an instant, the spatial energy transformed into a spatial prison that trapped Qin Wentian within. A moment later, many other greater demons started to move. Among them, there were several void beasts. The spatial energy radiating from them all converged together, strengthening the spatial prison holding Qin Wentian.

After that, the greater demons from the Heavenhold Race started to attack. They stomped the ground and transformed into gigantic versions of themselves, blasting out fist imprints that contained boundless might. There was also an expert from the phoeroc race who attacked. Spreading his wings wide, he arced through the air, moving towards Qin Wentian.

"Do you demons from the desolate mountains even know shame?!" Jun Mengchen roared. The world force around him radiated forth, showcasing his power.

"ROAR!" Little Rascal howled in anger, his golden eyes flickering with a terrifying coldness as a fearsome devouring vortex began to swallow the spatial energy inside the prison.

However, Qin Wentian was as calm as ever. He swept his gaze over, only to see many greater demons rushing at him unceasingly. Although his body was trapped by the prison, an arrogant calmness was clearly seen on his face.

With a sweep of his gaze, those demons rushing towards Qin Wentian felt the skies changing in an instant. This space they were in was different from the one they were at moments ago. They were all rushing towards Qin Wentian, but Qin Wentian simply stood there quietly, looking back at them. He seemed so near, but also seemed so far away.

"Illusionary space?" Many of the greater demons exchanged glances. How can this be, they were brought inside a world of illusions? Was this a law domain comprehended by the Saber-Sword Immortal King? It was rumored that back then when he slew the Yama King within nine breaths of time, illusionary arts were involved. Was this how the Yama King died back then?

Upon thinking of this, their hearts started pounding even more furiously. Fear began to appear in their hearts. After all, the Saber-Sword Immortal King was too famous, and this illusory space was extremely mysterious and profound.

"Bzz~" A void beast shuttled through space, arriving before Qin Wentian. His sharp claws extended outwards, wanting to tear Qin Wentian into pieces but he soon discovered that Qin Wentian's figure completely vanished. They were still in the illusory world, unable to break out from it.

The body of an expert from the phoeroc race blazed with fire. He pointed his finger to the center of his forehead as his eyes gleamed with light. His consciousness returned to the external world, able to observe reality. But to his immense shock, he discovered that it was as though his consciousness was divided into two. One part of him was in reality, the other part was still inside the illusory world.

"This is a dreamscape, he wants me to sink into a dream he created." Pacing to and fro at the boundary of reality and illusion. Fear rose in his heart when he actually discovered that he had no way to completely struggle free.

Inside the illusory space that was a dreamscape, many demons were already suffering from attacks. Countless Qin Wentians appeared in that space, staring calmly at them.

"What space is this?" A greater demon roared in rage.

"A space to bury all of you in." Qin Wentian calmly replied. In an instant, the myriad law energies gushed forth, engulfing this entire space. How cold these people withstand Qin Wentian's attack? All of them died within the space with no exceptions.

Hence, a shocking scene appeared in the external world. Those demonic beasts that rushed towards Qin Wentian all actually started to die as they approached him, even before reaching him. They simply roared, rushed forward, and dropped off dead.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King." The crowd stared at the dying demons. The remaining demons turned sullen as the atmosphere fell silent.

Strong. Was this the strength of the Saber-Sword Immortal King? His illusionary arts have already reached such a transcendent state. There seemed to be no way to counter or break free from it by force. As long as Qin Wentian stood there, he was able to drag others within the illusory space he created and kill them cleanly.

The spatial prison around Qin Wentian vanished. He calmly stood there and coldly spoke, "Anyone else want to kill this seat?"

"There's no way to kill him." The spectators silently mused. Wanting to kill a character standing at the peak of the City of Ancient Emperors, numbers were useless in this case. Because, none of them would be able to withstand even a single one of their attacks.

The experts from that demon race, glanced up at the demonic figure from the golden sun race in the air that was more dazzling than the sun. Although there were many demons here, he was the only one that had the possibility of being able to deal with the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

"You should make your move." A demonic beast spoke.

"In this place, you are the only one that can kill him."

"Humans have insulted us demons from the desolate regions. We have to uphold our honor."

From all directions, the greater demons stared at the figure sitting in the golden sun chariot, as though treating him as their hope.

The Saber-Sword Immortal King was too powerful, they couldn't kill him. In fact, they weren't even able to get near him. In addition, he had once used his prowess in the illusionary arts to kill the Yama King in nine breaths. Even these violent demonic beasts understood that it was impossible for them to kill him with their strength. If they stubbornly continued, they would only be courting death.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King." At this moment, the supreme greater demon in the chariot finally spoke. The moment he opened his mouth, all the demons here were extremely excited, all of them hoping he would act and kill the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at the greater demon. This was a demonic beast of the gold sun race, that was rumored to be a super-variation race with the bloodlines of the sun crows and the golden demon race. They have the advantages of both bloodlines, regardless of attack or defense, they were both extremely strong and could even compare to the phoeroc race in terms of speed.

In Qin Wentian's eyes, a towering battle intent could be seen. This character was a supreme greater demon, he wondered how this person would compare to the Yama King.

"Let the battle today end here." Just when everyone thought another world-shaking grand battle would occur, the figure in the sun chariot suddenly said this. He then continued, "The demons from the desolate mountains have finally walked out from there after so long, it's naturally impossible for us to retreat back there. In the future, the immortal realms shall be shared between humans and demons. This isn't something a single battle here would be able to resolve it. Whether humans or demons are in the right, it's useless to argue any further. Strength is the only path forward, only the strongest will have the authority to decide things."

Qin Wentian quietly listened. He naturally understood that this was the truth. If the demons are stronger, humans would end up as slaves. If humans are stronger, demons would end up as slaves. This was the stark reality, the cruel truth of the world.

"We have yet to stand at the peak of the immortal realms, we can't even decide the grand situation. But even so, right now in the City of Ancient Emperors, there are already quite a number of immortal kings that are qualified to stand at the absolute peak. I really want to see who is strong, and who is weak." The supreme greater demon continued.

As the sound of his voice rang out, all the spectators were stunned. Could it be he wanted all the combatants to cease-fire as he fought one-on-one against Qin Wentian?

"I'll gather all the experts at the absolute peak, regardless of those from the demonic races or those from humanity. We will fight against each other to see who is the true king of the City of Ancient Emperors." The eyes of this supreme expert from the gold sun race were as bright as the sun, he stared at Qin Wentian and continued, "Saber-Sword Immortal King, when the time comes, please show up. This invitation is extended to the fox goddess and Jiang Zihua as well."

The hearts of all the spectators trembled. Arranging a battle for the characters in the city of ancient emperors that stood at the absolute peak?

The beautiful eyes of the nine-tailed fox maiden shone with a bright light. But in truth, she also wanted to know who currently, was the strongest among them in the City of Ancient Emperors.

Jiang Zihua laughed, he glanced at the supreme greater demon on the chariot, "Sure. You should set the time and location."

"We will forget everything that happened today. Not long after, I shall spread the information around the City of Ancient Emperors. Just wait for news." That supreme greater demon spoke. As his voice rang out, sunlight flared and illuminated the surroundings. The war chariot let out a rumble and directly sped away.

When the other experts from the Sun Gold Race saw this scene, they too, departed respectively.

Chapter 1504: Massacring the Three Demon Races

When the surrounding demons saw the supreme greater demon from the sun gold race leaving, all of them had the intent to retreat and prepared to stop fighting.

Naturally, this was because there wasn't anyone here who could deal with the Saber-Sword Immortal King anymore. If it wasn't for that, how would they have retreated so easily?

"Saber-Sword Immortal King. On the day of the arranged battle, it shall be the day of your death." A greater demon from the Heavenhold Race coldly spoke. His malevolent eyes were still flashing with arrogance.

"All the beauties here, we shall allow you to lead some carefree lives for these moments. Don't be in such a rush, we, from the Heavenhold Race, will definitely dote on you all." They didn't forget to add a lecherous comment as they stared at the maidens from Matriarch Ji's sect and Qing`er. Truly extremely detestable.

"Also for the Southern Phoenix Clan, it's said that you guys have the phoenix bloodline. I'm burning with anticipation." Many experts from the phoeroc race also coldly spoke. They themselves had the bloodline of a phoenix and a roc. They couldn't help but to wonder at how pure the phoenix bloodline of the maidens from the Southern Phoenix Clan is.

"Retreat." A void beast gritted his teeth, feeling extreme reluctance.

"Retreat? Did this seat agree to it?"

At this moment, Qin Wentian suddenly spoke, causing many of the demonic beasts who just soared up into the air to freeze. Numerous pairs of demonic eyes turned towards him.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King, what do you mean by this?"

"Earlier, didn't you hear what that supreme gold sun crow had to say? If you want to fight, he would gather the peak elites to fight with you." These demons stared at Qin Wentian.

"What a joke. Did this seat agree with him?" Qin Wentian's expression was painted with arrogance. He floated in the air and killing intent radiated forth from him, causing all the demons here to tremble. This bastard, did he really want to continue the battle?

"You...don't dare to accept his challenge?" A greater demon from the Heavenhold Race pointed at Qin Wentian while a violent demonic qi filled the air.

"No one can direct the way this seat does things. Since he wants to fight, this seat will naturally comply. However, you demons have insulted humanity and were extremely rude to the fairies. Earlier, you started a battle just because you wanted to, and now, you want to leave so simply just like that?" Qin Wentian arrogantly spoke. He then laughed, "This seat once spent seven days and nights talking about love with Fairy Qingyao. Who in the City of Ancient Emperors doesn't know that I'm someone who treats the fairer sex with respect and gentleness? Let alone the fact that the fairy maidens from the Southern Phoenix Clan have a good relationship with this seat."

"Fairies, before this, which demons have participated in this?" Qin Wentian turned his gaze towards Nanfeng Yunxi.

The auras of the demons trembled as their fury rose up into the skies, cursing at Qin Wentian. How could they fail to understand that the Saber-Sword Immortal King was not intending to spare them? He wanted to take revenge.

"Those rats who call themselves as void beasts, the Heavenhold Race, and the Phoeroc Race." Nanfeng Yunxi's expression was like ice as she spoke. She naturally understood Qin Wentian's intentions. These demons didn't merely humiliate and insult them, they also did the same to Qing'er. Although Qin Wentian was taking on the identity as the Saber-Sword Immortal King, he would also definitely help Qing'er to take revenge.

"Very well, since all the demon races are willing to stop the battle, I shall give the desolate mountains some face. The others can leave, but the demons of those three races stay behind." Qin Wentian's voice was calm, this caused the demons from the three races to be incomparably enraged. A greater demon from the Heavenhold Race trembled violently as he roared, "LET'S JOIN FORCES TO DESTROY HIM! I don't believe his illusionary arts are so powerful."

Qin Wentian rose up in the air, he glanced at the greater demon who spoke and in an instant, that demon only felt a sword intent directly piercing through his eyes, disregarding his defense. He immediately screamed in pain as blood flowed from his eyes. A few moments later, the sword intent shot through his body, lacerating him to bits. This sight was simply shocking to the extreme.

"The Saber-Sword Immortal King is too terrifying." Many humans silently mused. Many of the demons here all froze as well. Before this, they were arrogant because they could suppress humanity. But now, nobody was strong enough to control the Saber-Sword Immortal King and hence, none of the other demons dared to make a move recklessly.

After all, the Saber-Sword Immortal King only wanted to deal with those three specific demonic races.

Regardless of humans or demons, all of them would feel fear when met with an invincible enemy. Who would be willing to send themselves to death?

"Swish~" All of a sudden, terrifying bursts of energy gushed out. The experts from the Phoeroc Race moved, all of them shooting towards Qin Wentian from different directions. Their speed was as quick as lightning, especially for the phoeroc in the center. He was extremely terrifying, his size could blot out the sun and every flap of his wings generated fiery golden beams of light that shot towards Qin Wentian.

With a wave of his hand, a sword qi river manifested, surging forth endlessly, clashing against the golden beams of light. With a stomp, the earth trembled as his pagoda law domain engulfed the surroundings. Numerous pagodas appeared, containing tyrannical destructive might, boring down on each of the phoerocs. In an instant, the phoerocs crumbled from the pressure. Even powerful demon kings of the phoeroc race were unable to withstand his attack.

"What a perfect law domain." Many of the humans sighed in admiration. They were all famous immortal kings in the immortal realms, and had outstanding talent. They naturally were able to tell how perfect this pagoda law domain was. Back then, when this Saber-Sword Immortal King broke through to the peak-stage, he already dared to directly challenge the Yama King and even killed him within nine breaths. Now, ten years later, how much stronger was he?

However, there was still a powerful phoeroc that survived. His strength could shake the sky, and his surroundings manifested several runes, converting together to form an imposing armor. Even when the pagoda pressure bore down, it only served to restrict his movements and couldn't kill him directly. Boundless light radiated from him, attacking the holy will of the pagoda law domain.

The phoeroc unleashed his ultimate demonic arts, causing claw marks to appear on the pagoda, but Qin Wentian had no expression on his face at all. His palm pressed forward, blotting out the sky, forming a giant imprint that radiated an absolute suppressive might. He directly slammed his palm towards that gigantic phoeroc, like how one would smack a fly.

The expression of that phoeroc drastically changed. This attack was much stronger compared to the crushing pressure of the pagoda domain. He roared in rage and unleashed ultimate demonic arts but he was unable to block Qin Wentian's attack. When that giant palm slammed down, he could only watch helplessly as his body shattered under the impact as he died directly.

The demons of the void beast race and Heavenhold Race trembled when they saw the supreme expert from the phoeroc race being exterminated. Spatial fluctuations rocked the area as the void beasts directly stepped into the void, planning to flee without a fight.

"You think you can run?" Qin Wentian's calm voice rang out. Those fleeing void beasts only felt themselves being pulled into a separate space. A demonic gleam appeared in their eyes, as their expressions turned unsightly. How can this be? Earlier, they were sure that they had already stepped into the void. But a moment later, they discovered that they were pulled into an illusory world. This was simply impossible.

"Since you wish to kill humans, just leave your lives behind." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. After that, his sword intent gushed forth, piercing through all the void beasts, showing no mercy at all.

Out of the three demon races, only the experts from the Heavenhold Race remained. Their ugly faces were painted with fear. A greater demon among them howled, "Saber-Sword Immortal King, you killed so many experts from the demon races, do you think you can still live after exiting the City of Ancient Emperors?!"

"Even with things as they are now, you are still actually threatening this seat?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. With a wave of his hand, his pagoda law domain appeared once more, crushing everything. The greater demons of the Heavenhold Race all died amidst their howls of misery, pain and anger.

When the dust settled, the demon kings from these three races have been completely vanquished. Their corpses could be seen all around, and at this moment, this entire place fell silent.

Ten years ago, the Saber-Sword Immortal King shot to fame after a single battle, killing the Yama King within nine breaths of time. Ten years later, he single-handedly brought down so many demon kings of the three demon races, this was simply stirring up trouble. However, he didn't seem bothered by it at all. He calmly stared at the Southern Phoenix Clan and Matriarch Ji's sect. "These vile creatures actually dared to disturb all of you fairies, they simply didn't know what was good for them. This seat has already wiped them out. In the future, if there are still any demons who dare to disturb the fairies of our immortal realms, this seat will deal with them appropriately."

Many beautiful immortal kings of the Matriarch Ji's sect clasped their hands and thanked Qin Wentian. "Many thanks to the Saber-Sword Immortal King for helping out."

"Don't worry about it, we are all human cultivators of the immortal realms how can we watch on when we saw you fairies being insulted by the vile beasts? In the future, if such a thing happens again, feel free to look for me." Qin Wentian spoke with righteousness. Qing`er's eyelashes fluttered, silently rolling her eyes when she saw that. This fellow...was truly good at acting.

"Senior brother is so awesome." Jun Mengchen exclaimed in his heart, feeling reverence towards Qin Wentian. What a great role model.

"Fairies, this seat has cultivated alone for many years. Now, I wish to experience the mortal world and temper myself out there. I wish to accompany you all and travel together. I wonder if fairies are okay with it?" Qin Wentian glanced at the disciples of Matriarch Ji's sect as he spoke, his words causing them to exchange mutual glances, as they speculated about what he meant by that.

Could it be that the Saber-Sword Immortal King fell in love with one of them?

Upon thinking of this, they saw the eyes of the Saber-Sword Immortal King landing on Qing'er and they immediately understood. However, they all understood Qing'er. With Qin Wentian in her heart, it was impossible for her to fall in love with anyone else. Hence, a maiden transmitted her voice to Qing`er, "Junior sister, do you have any objections?"

"Although the Saber-Sword Immortal King as killed the demons from the three races here, there would undoubtedly be other demons of the three races that are in other locations inside the City of Ancient Emperors. Now that we have formed a death grudge with them, we might meet with more trouble in the future." Qing`er transmitted her voice back in reply, causing that maiden to start slightly. She seemed to have forgotten this point. Could it be that the Saber-Sword Immortal King actually wanted to protect them?

"Since Brother Saber-Sword has put it this way, we would naturally have no objections, we can also discuss the dao with you and verify our cultivation." That female immortal king clasped her hands and smiled.

"Sure. Also, other than discussing the dao, maybe we would have a chance to chat about some other stuff." Qin Wentian winked.

"Cough, cough…" Jun Mengchen was sweating. This senior brother of his was simply shameless.

Qing`er also rolled her eyes. This fellow... was a scoundrel!

Chapter 1505: Experts at the Peak

The surrounding experts were also stunned by Qin Wentian's words. Was this really the same person who killed the Yama King in nine seconds, and the same person who massacred the demon kings of the three powerful demon races?

This was simply shameless. Tempering himself in the mortal world, other than discussing about dao, he wanted to discuss some other stuff with so many beautiful immortal kings? What other stuff could he be referring to? He was simply too shameless. So it turns out that it wasn't just the combat prowess of the Saber-Sword Immortal King being awesome, he was also awesome in flirting with the ladies as well.

"Why doesn't the fairies of the Southern Phoenix Clan come along with us?" The next sentence spoken by the Saber-Sword Immortal King caused everyone to be speechless. The maidens from Matriarch Ji's sect wasn't enough and he even wanted the maidens from the Southern Phoenix Clan? He was simply worse than a beast!

Strange looks appeared on the holy maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan. However, they were already acquainted with the Saber-Sword Immortal King before this, coming jointly as a group to the City of Ancient Emperors. It was just that the Saber-Sword Immortal King now couldn't be compared to the past. His strength had improved by leaps and bounds and had already became a character who stood at the peak.

"Sure." Nanfeng Yunxi naturally nodded as she knew of Qin Wentian's identity. However, she instantly regretted when she said that. Because, she saw many sisters looking at her with strange looks in their eyes right after that…

Although the Southern Phoenix Clan was acquainted with the Saber-Sword Immortal King, the words he spoke earlier were still ringing out loud in everyone's mind. Although they were acquainted, there was no need for you to agree so readily, right?

Could it be…?

Upon thinking of this, the looks in the eyes of the other holy maidens grew even stranger, causing Nanfeng Yunxi to blush. This caused many experts in the surroundings to be stunned. Nanfeng Yunxi was also a supreme beauty herself, exuding a sense of grace and nobility, yet she was actually feeling shy because of what happened? How stirring was her beauty after her cheeks reddened with the blush from shyness? Many males were instantly in a daze as they stared at her.

"Maybe Nanfeng Yunxi is interested in the Saber-Sword Immortal King?" The others couldn't help but to muse silently. Not only them, even the other holy maidens were thinking like this as well. But since they were already acquainted before this, the other maidens naturally wouldn't object when Nanfeng Yunxi agreed.

"I also wish to discuss about the dao with all the fairies. Is it alright?" A weak-sounding voice rang out. The gazes of everyone turned over only to see Little Rascal reverting back to his original snowy-white puppy look. He was currently walking over here with a swagger in his steps.

"Isn't this the demonic beast of Qin Wentian?" Some of the holy maidens smiled, having met Little Rascal before.

"Mhm, he is." Nanfeng Yunxi nodded. "Little Rascal, you are as lecherous as ever."

"Nanfeng Yunxi, don't accuse this baobao okay?" Little Rascal spoke in an adorable manner. He then turned his gaze to Qing'er, "Qing'er, this baobao missed you."

"Where did this demonic beast come from? Bastard. Do you believe this seat will kill you?" Qin Wentian turned and glared at Little Rascal. Little Rascal actually stole his lines? Was his skin itching for a beating?

"Why would this baobao be afraid of you?" Little Rascal stretched out his paws in a provoking manner.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King, this demonic beast isn't the same as others, he has a connection with junior sister Qing`er. Please rest your anger." The female immortal kings of Matriarch Ji's sect hurriedly spoke. They had witnessed the arrogance of the Saber-Sword Immortal King for themselves. This Little Rascal actually dared to talk back to him? Was he not afraid that the Saber-Sword Immortal King might kill him in a fit of anger?

What she didn't know was that this Little Rascal was truly not afraid… Little Rascal was connected to Qin Wentian by telepathy, how would he be scared of Qin Wentian?

"Fairy ignore him, he might be able to scare others, but he won't be able to frighten this baobao." Little Rascal grinned. After that, he leapt into Qing'er's embrace, causing Qing'er to be speechless.

"Sister goddess, I'll follow Qing`er. I'll look for you to play in the future." Little Rascal spoke to the nine-tailed fox maiden. The fox maiden nodded lightly as she turned and departed. Beside her, the gigantic demon who became her slave followed after.

The other demons all respectively left the area as well, leaving behind the humans.

Qin Wentian glanced in Bai Qing's direction. He saw Bai Qing and her devil cultivators silently leaving without a word. All was fine as long as Qing`er was okay. He really owes Bai Qing too much.

"Nanfeng Yunxi, I'll join you all too." Jun Mengchen spoke. Nanfeng Yunxi nodded, the other holy maidens didn't have any objections either.

The experts of the Heavenly Talisman Realm glanced over but they didn't say anything. As they looked upon Qin Wentian, they sighed in admiration in their hearts. They didn't expect their Heavenly Talisman Realm to have such a powerful character that was even stronger compared to senior Tuoba Saintsky. Truly, the Heavenly Talisman Realm was a place with many hidden tigers and dragons. They had never heard of the Saber-Sword Immortal King before.

Finally, more and more people left this area respectively. Qin Wentian had a bevy of beauties around him, evoking envy in the hearts of others.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King, after killing the demons of the three race, you might be in true trouble in the future. After all, once you leave the City of Ancient Emperors, the demons of the three races and the Senluo Immortal Empire, would definitely not spare you." A female immortal king reminded.

"Don't worry about it, upon seeing you fairies being insulted by those vile creatures, how can this seat stand aside?" Qin Wentian brushed it aside. His eyes turned to Qing'er as he smiled, "However, Senior Matriarch Ji is truly something. Not only are the disciples of her sect outstanding in talent, they are also all beauties. No wonder those vile beasts would feel their hearts stirring. For a maiden like Qing'er, even this seat is awed by her beauty."

"Pu…" Jun Mengchen's face was filled with black lines. He clasped his hands to Qin Wentian, "Saber-Sword Immortal King, I'm impressed. I really am."

His heart was truly filled with endless reverence for this senior apprentice brother of his. Qin Wentian actually dared to tease Qing`er under the guise of the Saber-Sword Immortal King and did so in public. Truly shameless to the extreme.

As expected, the pure and innocent Qing`er who was like an ice mountain, couldn't stand for his teasing. She transmitted her voice over to him, "Shameless!"

Qin Wentian couldn't help but to laugh in his heart when he saw the embarrassed look on Qing`er's face.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King, you might not know but junior sister Qing`er already has someone in her heart. Her fiance is Qin Wentian of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, this has also been approved by the Evergreen Immortal Emperor himself." A beautiful immortal king with an alluring figure walked over and spoke gently. Although she has cultivated for many years, she still looked very young, around twenty plus years of age, due to her powerful cultivation base.

"Oh I see, this seat has no other intentions." Qin Wentian seriously nodded. Everyone rolled their eyes, it would be strange if he didn't have any other intentions.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King, why is your illusionary arts so unique and so powerful?" That female immortal king flashed a dazzling smile at Qin Wentian, no longer mentioning anything about Qing`er. The surrounding maidens mutually exchanged glances. Seems like this junior sister of theirs, Junyi, is extremely interested in the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

Upon discovering this, all of them smiled and walked away. Junior sister Junyi's appearance was outstanding and her talent was also extremely high. She was really not too bad a match for the Saber-Sword Immortal King. They were all very familiar with her and knew that not many males could enter her eyes because of how strong she was. But at this moment, this Saber-Sword Immortal King was undoubtedly a dragon among humans, causing the heart of their junior sister Junyi to stir to the point where she didn't mind taking the initiative to strike up a conversation.

"There's nothing special about it, but it isn't purely illusion. Dreamforce is mixed within as well, an application of my law domain." Qin Wentian didn't hide anything as he spoke. Even if these people weren't from Matriarch Ji's Sect, there was no problem even if his enemies knew about it. They still wouldn't be able to break it. This was how terrifying this law domain of his was.

"Being able to establish a law domain from a dreamscape, and given how powerful it is, how have you managed to accomplish it?" Immortal King Junyi smiled, she was extremely beautiful. The two of them started chatting, getting along very well with each other, as though they hated that they met each other too late. Many from Matriarch Ji's sect silently nodded in approval. If their junior sister Junyi could get together with Qin Wentian, it would really be a wondrous matter.

However, Qing`er was feeling ill at ease. Her beautiful eyes kept flickering, watching this rascal cheating the feelings of her junior sister. There was no way for her to remain calm.

"What are you doing?" Qing`er transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian.

"Qing'er, I cannot expose myself. Hence, I can only follow the course of nature." Qin Wentian replied with an honest tone, but he was hiding his laughter in his heart. His immortal sense caught the changes in expression on Qing'er's face. To think that even someone as pure and innocent as her would also have jealousy in her heart, causing him to be slightly surprised and a little pleased.

This was the scenario here. But in other parts of the city, after everyone had departed, the name of the Saber-Sword Immortal King was like the sun in the sky, once again resounding famously through the entire city. He domineeringly annihilated demons from three races, simply unexcelled in the world. In fact, he didn't even place the supreme greater demon from the gold sun race in his eyes at all.

In addition, there was also a supreme greater demon from the phoeroc race who stood at the peak. This Saber-Sword Immortal King actually disregarded him and killed so many phoerocs. He was simply lawless and tyrannical.

Very swiftly, news about this incident circulated around. That supreme existence of the phoeroc race immediately started to hunt the Saber-Sword Immortal King the moment he received this news.

After that, that supreme greater demon of the sun gold race, fixed a location and time for all the characters at the peak to do battle. This news made many people in the City of Ancient Emperors to be filled with anticipation.

In the wilderness area on a certain mountain, a man clad in black radiated an extremely violent aura. An immortal king was standing before him, bowing as he reported the news. The man in black nodded, "I'll be there."

In another location, where the ocean waves surged unendingly, a figure slowly walked out from the ocean. Every step he took caused the waves to churn. Finally, he stepped on shore and there were many immortal kings there paying their respects to him.

"Interesting, I also wish to see exactly how strong the other experts are who also stand at the peak." He inclined his head and stared at the sky, his expression incomparably calm.

On another gigantic mountain that was actually in the form of a human, a bright light flashed, incomparably dazzling, flooding the entire area. At this moment, numerous cracks appeared on the mountain as a rumbling sound rang out. Rocks flew everywhere and a beam of light shot straight up into the sky. A moment later, the mountain shattered apart to reveal a golden figure that seemed akin to an ancient buddha. This person lifted his head and opened his eyes. He then stood up and stretched himself. He was now only a single step away from the immortal emperor realm.

There hasn't been much commotion in the City of Ancient Emperors in recent years. But soon after, all the characters standing at the peak would appear one after another!

Chapter 1506: Gathering

Everyone in the City of Ancient Emperors was completely shaken by the commotion.

However, Qin Wentian during this period of time, was still leading an extremely leisurely life. Over here, only him and Jun Mengchen were the only males. The others were all maidens from Matriarch Ji's Sect and the Southern Phoenix Clan. Being surrounded by so many beauties, how could they not be happy and relaxed?

They didn't hide aside to cultivate. When the time of the arranged battle drew near, everyone knew that the Saber-Sword Immortal King was about to head over. Many couldn't help but to feel worried for him.

At this moment, Qin Wentian was lying on a huge rock on a certain mountain, staring at the light cascading from the dao elements in the distance. His eyes were immeasurably deep, as bright as starlight.

Footsteps rang out, a beautiful figure appeared beside him. She was extremely beautiful, and as her hair fluttered in the wind, he was able to smell the fragrance from her hair.

This woman was none other than the Immortal King Junyi. During these days, she intentionally got close to Qin Wentian. Right now, everyone knew what was in her heart.

"Junior sister Junyi has fallen." From afar, the maidens of Matriarch Ji's sect sat together, smiling as they turned their gazes over.

"However, the Saber-Sword Immortal King keeps remaining neutral, not expressing his stance. Although he's polite, he also gives others a sense of distance. I'm a little worried…" A maiden sighed lightly.

"The look in the Saber-Sword Immortal King's eyes is different when he looked at Qing'er. Sigh, I'm afraid junior sister Junyi won't have any hope." Someone glanced at Qing'er. Qing`er lowered her head lightly, it wasn't appropriate for her to reveal Qin Wentian's identity. It wasn't that she didn't trust her fellow apprentice sisters but if she really revealed it here, accidents might occur and the consequences would be unimaginably dire. Qin Wentian has offended too many people using the identity of the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

But Junyi seemed to have truly fallen in love this time around. She kept wanting to get closer to Qin Wentian and kept taking the initiative. Everyone was able to tell that she was in love with the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

Qin Wentian was extremely depressed, he didn't expect to meet someone like Junyi here. He couldn't help but to transmit his voice to Qing'er. "Qing'er, what should we do?"

"This is something you caused, you should go solve it yourself. What's the point of asking me?" Qing`er's reply was tinged with a little resentment. Qin Wentian felt wronged, he couldn't help but to sigh in a depressed manner, "But...I'm also innocent."

Qing`er's gaze flickered. She also knew that no one was wrong in this matter. She could only reply, "Senior sister Junyi has a cheerful personality. She must have truly fallen in love with you or she wouldn't act like this. I don't wish for my senior apprentice sister to be hurt."

"Mhm, she most probably would understand my attitude towards her as time passed by. If not, after leaving the City of Ancient Emperors, the Saber-Sword Immortal King shall vanish forever." Qin Wentian sighed. He could sense numerous cold gazes on him, and he could only smile bitterly in his heart.

"Do you loathe me, feeling that I'm too casual?" Junyi hugged her knees as she sat down, her beautiful eyes on the horizon ahead as she suddenly asked in a light tone of voice.

"How can that be? Immortal King Junyi is so beautiful, I only have admiration for you in my heart." Qin Wentian calmly replied.

"My fellow apprentice sisters are already laughing about me." Immortal Junyi was like she didn't hear his reply and mumbled to herself. "This is nothing much. I've cultivated for so many years, although I'm always with my fellow sisters, there would inevitably be times where I feel lonely. It's just that I didn't have the fate to meet a suitable dao companion that gives me the same feeling. However, I know that my looks are not bad, but there's still a distance between me and junior sister Qing`er. Let alone, with someone like you, only supreme beauties would be worthy enough to be a match for you."

"Eh…" Qin Wentian was sweating, he didn't expect that Junyi would be able to tell that he was in love with Qing`er.

From afar, the disciples of the Matriarch Ji's sect and maidens from the Southern Phoenix Clan all turned their heads and stared in this direction. Junyi didn't make any efforts to mask her voice. They could naturally hear her words.

"Junior sister." There was someone from the Matriarch Ji's sect who stood up and called.

"Senior sister." Qing`er also called out.

"It's fine, I'm only speaking of the matters in my heart, there's no need to be worried for me." Junyi turned towards her fellow apprentice sisters and smiled at them. She then spoke to Qin Wentian who was beside her, "Junior sister Qing`er was born with an extraordinary background. Her talent is outstanding and she's also extremely beautiful. Almost everyone would fall for her. However, she already has someone in her heart. Why is your gaze towards her different? There's always hints of evasion in your gaze when you look at me."

"Immortal King Junyi, there are somethings that are unexplainable. Even if one knows that there would be no good ending, one would still harbor a trace of hope." Qin Wentian spoke in a light voice. Junyi started, after that, she smiled and nodded her head. "That's true. Are you referring to me? In the future, if you change your mind, please remember to tell me."

As she spoke, she smiled sweetly and jumped down from the huge rock before walking away.

"Senior sister." Qing`er walked up to her, there was a look of worry on her face.

"Junior sister Qing'er, I'm fine. This has nothing to do with you." Junyi glanced over, smiling as she nodded her head at Qing'er. Upon seeing her smile, Qing`er actually felt some pain in her heart. After that, she coldly glanced at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian could only smile bitterly. Things were just out of his control…

Immortal King Junyi walked to the side of the mountain and stared at the sea of clouds. Seeing her back, many people could feel the hurt in her heart. A fellow apprentice sister appeared beside Qing`er and patted her on her shoulders.

In the direction of the Southern Phoenix Clan, Nanfeng Yunxi also had a look of resentment in her eyes when she glanced at Qin Wentian. She then turned to Immortal King Junyi's back as she sighed silently in her heart.

"Since ancient times, beauties would always fall for heroes. How could someone not fall in love with a magnificent character that was capable of contending against others for the world? But sadly, the falling flowers are yearning for love but the heartless brook ripples on. What a sorrowful thing." Nanfeng Mingyue, another holy maiden of the Southern Phoenix Clan, sighed as she shook her head.

Jun Mengchen glanced to the left and right. He couldn't help but sigh silently in admiration. His senior brother was his senior brother indeed. He couldn't help but to be impressed.

...

The date of the arranged battle drew closer and closer. Today, in an area at the central region of the City of Ancient Emperors, many experts gathered here. Most probably, over 50% of the people currently in the city were here.

That supreme demon from the sun gold race invited the experts who stood at the peak to gather here. After the rules of the city changed, this would truly be a battle of supreme characters who stood at the absolute peak. The crowd would be able to witness their magnificence and glory. If these supreme characters continued to cultivate without dying, they would definitely be able to stand on the top of the immortal realms in the future. Right now given this era, the cultivation speed of every one had increased. The prophecy made back then, about the birth of an ancient emperor, was now believed by everyone as more and more peak-stage immortal emperors gradually appeared.

The surrounding experts were almost countless in numbers, occupying the entire area. However, the center of this space was extremely vast and was left empty. There were only dipliated ruins there.

"They are here." At this moment, a peak-stage immortal king spoke in a low voice. Many people wondered, "Where?"

As the sound of their voices faded, an extremely terrifying demonic qi gushed forth. The temperature in the surroundings surged up, painting to sky crimson. After that, an immensely powerful figure appeared. Although this person was in human-form, the demonic qi he exuded soared up into the air. As his eyes swept across the surroundings, no one dared to match his gaze.

"Where's the Saber-Sword Immortal King?" His voice contained an intense killing intent as his body gleamed with a dazzling light.

This man, was none other than the supreme demon of the phoeroc race who stood at the peak, Jia Huangtian.

"He's arrived. The battle back then, the Saber-Sword Immortal King killed the demons of the three races, including that of the phoeroc race. Jia Huangtian has been searching for the Saber-Sword Immortal King high and low but was unable to find him. Today, he will surely kill the Saber-Sword Immortal King." Many people felt their hearts trembling when they sensed his killing intent. There was no need to doubt Jia Huangtian's strength. He had an extremely high-graded bloodline and had startling might.

"ROAR!" Another heaven-shaking noise echoed through the air. Lightning flashed as the sky changed color. A gigantic true dragon rushed down, radiating imposing might. Countless people felt a stifling pressure pressing down on them. The body of the dragon was so vast that one couldn't see the end of it with a single glance.

A pair of fearsome eyes glanced down at the crowd. After that, the dragon took on human-form and landed on the ground. From every part of his body, a tyrannical aura could be felt. After he descended, the crowd discovered many demonic dragons followed behind him with this man as the leader.

And at this moment, a brilliant beam of light shot up into the sky. Another giant sun appeared as a war chariot shuttled through space. This was none other than the supreme greater demon of the sun gold race who issued the invitation. The members of his race also stood in the chariot all around him.

"All of them have such powerful auras." The crowd trembled as they sighed. Regardless of their emperor's fate or the might emitted from their bodies. These characters were clearly on a different level.

"The supreme demons from the desolate mountains are all so impatient, the first three were actually all from the demon races." Everyone commented lightly. After that, another supreme demon with an imposing countenance and extremely cold aura appeared. It was like he came from hell itself. His aura made it so that nobody dared to approach him.

"It's that supreme demon from the Nether Race."

"It's rumored that he comprehended the energy of hell and reincarnation. He is extremely powerful."

A divine light suddenly flashed in the sky. The fox maidens from the nine-tailed fox race appeared, instantly drawing the attention of many. This was especially so for the fox goddess in the lead. She was so alluring, truly a goddess in terms of beauty.

More and more experts from the demon race appeared. There were many extraordinary greater demons but only a few who stood at the absolute peak. This doesn't mean that the demon race was weak. It was only because there were many other demons who haven't fully matured yet now, and weren't yet qualified to stand at the peak of the City of Ancient Emperors. An example was Little Rascal, as a heaven-devouring beast. If given time to grow, he would definitely be one of those who stood at the peak of the entire immortal realms in the future.

Right now, a human in black arrived. However, despite being human, violent auras of demonic beasts could be felt from him.

"This must be that person from the Beast God Sect. He's incredibly mysterious and dangerous. There are already many powerful greater demons who died in his hands."

After that, an ancient buddha appeared. It was one of the buddha cultivators from the Ask Heart Temple.

Jiang Zihua also showed up. He glanced at that monk from the Ask Heart Temple. The two of them received the inheritance from the same dao element and they would definitely have an inevitable confrontation in the future.

"Everyone came so early." A calm voice rang out. From afar, a figure in white could be seen approaching the area. This man in white was extremely young and looked very harmless. There were no traces of any aura from him at all. However, those who knew him didn't dare to underestimate him. If just based on the surface, who would have expected that this young man was actually a powerful devil cultivator?

If Qin Wentian was here, he would surely recognize him. This person was none other than the one who invited him to the devil mountain back then, that supreme apostle from the Devil Apostle Hall.

After he arrived, many other devil cultivators also appeared, but they belonged to different factions.

There was another devil cultivator who appeared, shrouded in darkness. He was like a sinister shadow and was from the Darkness Devil Hall.

Chapter 1507: Arrogance

"The devil cultivators of the Myriad Devil Islands have arrived."

Many people turned their gazes towards the devil cultivators. There were many elite immortal kings here from the various major powers. Right now, they were more familiar with the powers of the Myriad Devil Islands and knew that at the strongest devil mountain, there were a total of seven devil halls situated at the peak of the devil mountain.

The Sacred Devil Hall was like a spiritual symbol. Mainly, the other six great halls controlled the devil mountain. The first three devil halls, Judiciary, Darkness and Apostle, they were there with the Sacred Devil Hall when the Myriad Devil Islands were formed. After that, the other three devil halls, Myriad Ancient, Imperial Dragon and Sky Devil, appeared.

Right now within the city, the Judiciary Devil Hall, Darkness Devil Hall and Apostle Battle Hall had each produced a supreme character. This was the result of the immeasurably deep foundation of these three great devil halls.

The young man in white was the apostle of the Apostle Devil Hall. He roamed the world and he was the one who told Qin Wentian and the others back then to head to the devil mountain. After that, he roamed the immortal realms alone and observed the changes under the heavens. Right now, the era has truly changed.

As for the shadowy figure, he was a child of darkness from the Darkness Hall. His title was the Seven Nights Immortal King. Before he left the devil mountain, he was already chosen by the Darkness Devil Hall to be the next generation Devil Lord.

Other than him, there was also a terrifying devil king character dressed in judiciary robes. He was a devil-king level priest from the Judiciary Devil Hall. His title is known as the Feather Immortal King and would be the future grand priest of the Judiciary Devil Hall.

The three experts stepped out. These three supreme characters represented the Myriad Devil Islands, causing many experts in the surroundings to turn their attention to them.

"Every peak character is arriving one after another. The Saber-Sword Immortal King is the only one not here yet." Someone mused silently. These people were all those standing at the peak of the city. In the entire immortal realms, desolate mountains and myriad devil islands, only a few of them existed.

Maybe there might be other geniuses on the same level in some of the major powers but they might not have matured to this point yet, or have already entered the immortal emperor realm.

"Where is the Saber-Sword Immortal King?" A voice filled with rage echoed out. The gazes of everyone turned over, the person who spoke was a tiny figure with an ugly appearance. Those who saw him instantly tensed up, this must be the supreme character from the void beast race. The emperor's fate behind him towered up into the sky, terrifying to the extreme. Qin Wentian had finished off all the void beasts in the City of Ancient Emperors other than him. He definitely had to take revenge.

There were also some greater demons from the Heavenhold Race among the crowd. Their eyes were all flashing with killing intent.

Huang Jiutian and the other experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire was here as well. When they thought about the Saber-Sword Immortal King, they naturally all hoped that he would die in the battle today. They couldn't forget how humiliating it was for them to be frightened away by a single sentence the Saber-Sword Immortal King, telling them to scram within nine seconds or he would kill them all. From that time onwards, everyone in the City of Ancient Emperors would laugh or make jokes about them in their faces. The Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire was also a peak power, they had never suffered such a great humiliation before.

As for the Senluo Immortal Empire, their experts in the City of Ancient Emperors have almost all been wiped out by Qin Wentian. Only a scattered few remained and these people were all now hiding among the crowd, not daring to reveal their identities.

Other than them, there are also experts from the Violet Mountain, from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty, the Skymist Immortal Empire and the Paragon Sword Sect. They were all waiting for the Saber-Sword Immortal King to appear. They wanted nothing more than for him to die. But before this gathering, none of them dared to act when they saw the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

This was especially so for the experts from the Violet Mountain. The Violet Emperor raged and commanded his forces to come to the city and hunt the Saber-Sword Immortal King down. But all of them understood that even if the joined forces, they wouldn't be a match for him when they saw how the Saber-Sword Immortal King killed Zi Daolong. Hence, nobody dared to act recklessly.

"Seems like he doesn't dare to come." That supreme character from the sun gold race coldly spoke. Back then when the humans and demons warred against each other. He told all of them to cease-fire and spread the news about the arranged battle. However, after he left, Qin Wentian didn't spare the demons from the three races. He massacred them all. This made the supreme expert from the sun gold race to feel extremely unhappy. Wasn't this a complete disregard for him? This was equivalent to smacking his face.

"He will be here." At this moment, a voice rang out. The supreme expert from the sun gold race turned over. The person who spoke was none other than Jiang Zihua. His expression was calm but his tone of voice was filled with a certainty, he believed in his own judgement.

"Let's wait then." The supreme character from the phoeroc race, Jia Huangtian, spoke with a cold expression. Today, other than contending against the other supreme characters who stood at the peak, his other purpose here was to slay the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

Among the gathered experts, there were also demons from the sky roc race. Within them, the extraordinary greater demon, the golden-winged great roc Jia Nantian, was here as well.

Regardless of the phoeroc race in the desolate mountain range or the sky roc race in the western regions, their bloodlines were similar. They had a common ancestor.

"The Saber-Sword Immortal King is here." From afar, the sounds of an exclamation rang out. Everyone turned and scanned the skies and after that, they saw a figure flying through the air, exuding a sense of carefreeness. Other than the Saber-Sword Immortal King, it could be no one else.

Sword intent crackled around him. Qin Wentian stepped upon the wave of sword intent as he flew over here, with a speed as quick as lightning. He swept his eyes over all the experts and he instantly felt numerous sharp gazes landing on him. These sharp gazes weren't only from the ten plus of experts standing in the vast central area of emptiness, there were also many sharp gazes from within the crowd. Many people had malicious intents towards him. With his sharp senses, he already detected many sources of killing intent.

"Seems like there are truly many who wish to kill me." Qin Wentian silently mused. He had offended too many major powers, naturally, those who wished to kill him would be plenty in number. He also knew that after exiting the City of Ancient Emperors, he can never use the identity of the Saber-Sword Immortal King again. If not, he would encounter the experts of all the major powers hunting him down, compared to now where only the Eastern Sage and Violet Emperor were involved. If that really happens, there would no longer be a place for him in this layer of the immortal realm.

"The Saber-Sword Immortal King actually dared to show up." Many people were impressed by his courage. After offending so many experts, slaying the demons of the three races, he actually still dared to appear. As expected of the rumors, he had no regards for anyone in his eyes. There wasn't the word 'fear' in his dictionary. He would kill anyone who dares to antagonize him.

"So this is the Saber-Sword Immortal King." That supreme character of the demon dragon race stared at Qin Wentian. His eyes flickered with a little contempt. "It's rumored that he slew the Yama King within nine breaths of time. That so-called Yama King who was said to also stand at the peak, was truly trash. Jia Huangtian, since he killed the people of your race. We will leave it to you to handle this."

All of them had heard of that story before. When the demons and humans warred, the Saber-Sword Immortal King stopped the war alone and killed all the demons from the three races. This naturally caused all the demons here to be extremely dissatisfied and unhappy with him.

Right now of all the supreme characters here, there are five supreme greater demons, four immortal cultivators of the immortal realms and three powerful devil cultivators from the Myriad Devil Island.

Jia Huangtian coldly stared at Qin Wentian, "Saber-Sword Immortal King, who gave you the guts to slaughter my people?"

His body floated up into the sky as his wings spread apart. His golden wings gleamed with a bloody light, shimmering with the power of runes as spatial fluctuations could be felt from them.

Qin Wentian glanced up at Jia Huangtian. He immediately recalled the golden-winged great roc, the elite of the golden-winged roc's race, Jia Nantian. In the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, he encountered that fellow before. Although this Jia Huangtian also had the phoenix bloodline, their gazes were somewhat similar. Naturally, this Jia Huangtian was even more terrifying in comparison. His eyes were so sharp that it felt like it could pierce through anyone he looked at.

"Where did this bastard come from? How dare he speak to this seat this way."

Qin Wentian's voice was extremely calm, with no anger in it at all, as casual as the wind like what he said was just an insignificant matter.

This single sentence instantly caused all the experts here to widen their eyes as they looked at him. This…

It was rumored that the Saber-Sword Immortal King was lawless and tyrannical, with no one from the major powers or demon races in his eyes at all. Before this, the crowd still doubted this. But now, they finally saw it for themselves how brazen the Saber-Sword Immortal King is.

Right now, they have finally seen it for themselves. Just a single sentence from him caused everyone in the crowd to see how arrogant the Saber-Sword Immortal King was.

The phoeroc race was an extremely powerful demonic race, with the bloodlines of the great rocs and phoenixes. Jia Huangtian was also a supreme character who stood at the peak of the city. Facing Jia Huangtian's words, the Saber-Sword Immortal King actually said 'where did this bastard come from?'

Just these words made Jia Huangtian unleash his overbearing aura, a formless pressure swept through the sky and earth as numerous resplendent feathers shot towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian coldly regarded this scene. He didn't evade it. Law energy fluctuated around him, allowing Jia Huangtian's attack to slam into his body. Upon impact, the feathers all winked out of existence.

"How truly impudent. He is insulting a demon of our desolate regions." From afar, that void beast who was spectating coldly stated. Qin Wentian directly referred to Jia Huangtian as a bastard. Clearly, he had no respect for the greater demons at all. Not only him, the other supreme greater demons were all staring coldly at Qin Wentian.

"Back then after I announced my plans for an arranged battle, you actually slaughtered the demons of the three races after I departed. You completely have no regards for me. Could it be you really think that you alone are enough to fight against all the demon races from the desolate mountains?" That supreme demon from the sun gold race coldly spoke. Bright sunlight pierced into Qin Wentian's eyes, causing him to feel an extraordinary heat threatening to burn his eyes.

"If you arranged this battle just to gather all the supreme greater demons to gang up and fight me, please go ahead. This seat shall play as long as you all want to play." Qin Wentian stood with his arms clasped behind his back, staring at the dazzling figure on the sun chariot, showing no fear at all.

"You really have no one in your eyes after killing the Yama King." That supreme demonic dragon expert arrogantly spoke, disdainfully staring at Qin Wentian.

"Don't tell me you invited us over just to settle the personal grudges between you guys?" At this moment, a voice rang out. It was none other than the supreme expert from the Judiciary Devil Hall.

"Of course not." That supreme greater demon from the sun gold race replied. He then swept his eyes over all the supreme experts that gathered here as he continued, "Everyone here must have already heard of each other names before. My purpose for gathering all of you here is because I want to see clearly for myself what's the level of strength each of you is at. Are you people really worthy to be one of those standing at the peak of the City of Ancient Emperors."

"I have this intention as well." That child of darkness from the Darkness Devil Hall icily spoke.

"There's nothing wrong in borrowing this opportunity to settle my personal grudge. After killing him, there would be one less opponent for all of us. It won't affect anything." Jia Huangtian spoke, he was still staring at Qin Wentian. Clearly, he didn't plan to spare him at all.

"Bzz~" Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed as he stepped out, directly appearing in the center of this vast emptiness. Flicking his sleeves, his calm gaze swept through everyone as he slowly spoke. "I already said that if you all want a battle, I shall play with you all till the end. Why would this seat be bothered about a demonic bastard?"

Chapter 1508: Fighting Jia Huangtian

"BOOM!" A destructive might radiated forth. Jia Huangtian was completely angered. The sky was dyed crimson as the clouds turned red, the bloody glow covering everything.

The Saber-Sword Immortal King insulted him once again, saying why would he be bothered about a demonic bastard?

The phoeroc race is one of the strongest demonic races in the desolate mountains. As for Jia Huangtian, he was a royal within the clan. This time, as the demons left the desolate mountains to invade the immortal realms, he had a heart filled with ambition, wanting to stand at the very top. How could he endure being insulted by the Saber-Sword Immortal King again and again?

"Everyone retreat, give us more space for the battlefield." On the war chariot, that supreme character from the sun gold race waved his hand. In an instant, the spectators who were already very far away, retreated even further. As for those supreme peak characters, each of them occupied a location, they also stepped further back as their auras permeated their surroundings. As someone who stands at the absolute peak, even if the aftershocks were powerful, it wouldn't be able to injure them.

The entire sky was painted crimson, but there were dazzling flashes of golden light. Jia Huangtian stared at Qin Wentian as he spoke, "Right now, you are getting more and more arrogant. I'll make it so that you die a miserable death."

"Many people have said the exact same thing to this seat before. But now, this seat is still alive and well, yet they have already reported to hell." Qin Wentian calmly stared at Jia Huangtian. His body also slowly rose up in the air, exuding an elegance and carefreeness. There were no hints of fear or nervousness from him at all.

"You killed the experts from my phoeroc race. After I kill you, I shall finish off everyone that has a connection to you, sparing no one at all." Jia Huangtian unleashed his killing intent. Boundless golden lights transformed into sharp swords, falling from the air, wanting to pierce Qin Wentian. Terrifying rumbling sounds rang out as a sensation of sharpness engulfed the area. Ordinary peak-stage immortal kings would be killed in a single instant. From this, one could already tell how terrifying Jia Huangtian was.

But when these attacks landed on Qin Wentian, they were basically unable to injure his body of laws at all.

"Just with this sentence from you, the City of Ancient Emperors is already destined to be your burial place." Qin Wentian domineeringly replied.

"Very well, I heard that your illusionary arts are unrivalled and you killed the Yama King with it. Just make your move." Jia Huangtian stood at his original location, waiting for Qin Wentian to unleash his illusionary arts. He wasn't afraid at all.

"The City of Ancient Emperors only knows that this seat killed the Yama King using illusionary arts. All of you believed that I'm only proficient in that? If it wasn't for the negation effect of the Yama King's asura prison, I wouldn't have bothered to use illusions to kill him. You are so arrogant. This seat can effortlessly kill a demonic bastard like you, there's no need for me to use any illusions at all." Qin Wentian's voice was still calm but his words contained an arrogance that stirred the anger of the demons from the desolate mountains. Although they were fighting against Qin Wentian, all the demons let out bellows of rage. They wanted Jia Huangtian to immediately kill him.

Jia Huangtian pressed his palm forward in the air, instantly causing the surrounding energies to churn wildly as boundless law energy gathered before his palm. The law energy transformed into numerous resplendent sharp swords and with a wave of his hand, the swords were like flowing water, instantly combining with the swords formed from his feathers as they flooded the area.

The holy vajra will of Qin Wentian was released. His entire body gleamed with a golden light, akin to a golden buddha body. When the sharp swords blasted into him, his body trembled but the impact wasn't able to force him to take a step back. He continued calmly staring at Jia Huangtian as he spoke, "These lousy attacks, stop unleashing them to throw face. Even I feel embarrassed for you. Back then, I allowed the Yama King to unleash his ultimate attack first within nine seconds. However, because he was too arrogant, he refused to do so and ended up being killed by this seat. Do you want to follow in his footsteps?"

"Since you wish to court death so much, I shall grant you your wish." Jia Huangtian roared. With a wave of his hand, a burst of destruction flooded the area before him as a new space manifested. This space was different from the one earlier, it was a separate world that sought to swallow Qin Wentian within.

"Seems like you have also received the inheritance of the spatial dao element." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, Jia Huangtian blasted out an attack which transformed into the sharp claws of a desolate beast, tearing through the void, grabbing hold of Qin Wentian. After that, a powerful energy ripped him through the void, bringing him forcefully into the separate space of destruction.

"What a powerful spatial ability." The spectators were all stunned. As expected of the supreme character of the phoeroc race, terrifying to the extreme indeed. Qing`er and Jun Mengchen were among the spectators too and they were somewhat worried for Qin Wentian. Although they knew Qin Wentian was very powerful, his opponent was after all, also someone who stood at the peak. Their hearts weren't able to be as calm as water.

"Since this is the case, it's all the more clear that I shouldn't spare you." A killing intent flashed in Qin Wentian's eyes. Qing'er also comprehended the spatial dao element. Since this is the case, regardless of whether he had a grudge with Qing'er or not, they are already destined to be enemies.

"BREAK!" Qin Wentian spoke. His sword holy will flowed forth, destroying the spatial claw that grabbed on to him. With a flash of his silhouette, he soared further up into the sky.

Jia Huangtian's eyes were cold to the extreme. His figure vanished with the speed of lightning, showing the speed of the sky rocs. This was one of his innate abilities.

"Space lock!"

A fearsome burst of killing intent gushed out. The space Qin Wentian was in, suddenly froze. His body froze along with the space as well.

"The strongest innate ultimate art of Jia Huangtian." The spectators felt their hearts trembling as they saw this scene. If they wanted to contend against Jia Huangtian, they had to be able to deal with his innate abilities, The human cultivators among the spectators could feel how much pressure Qin Wentian was in. Especially so for demonic beasts, some of their innate abilities were too powerful. After the descent of the Demongod Mountain, many demonic beasts achieved an evolution, as they awoke inheritance memories, granting them even more powerful innate abilities and ultimate techniques.

After that, Jia Huangtian even obtained the inheritance of the spatial dao element. His proficiency with spatial laws rose at an incredible speed. Right now, along with his understanding in spatial law, when he used his ultimate innate technique, he was able to freeze space itself, trapping Qin Wentian there.

"Senior brother!" Jun Mengchen's gaze flashed. Such a powerful ultimate heart caused his heartbeat to involuntarily quicken. Qing`er's face was pale as well. The energy she was cultivating, was none other than spatial energy. She knew very well how terrifying this technique was. It was definitely able to threaten Qin Wentian's life.

"Incinerate." Jia Huangtian pointed his finger at the frozen space. At this moment, phoenix flames landed on that patch of frozen space, seeping into it, wanting to set Qin Wentian ablaze. The instant the phoenix flames came in contact with Qin Wentian's body, the power of the flames seeped inside his inner organs, as he became a burning torch.

"BOOM!" The powerful holy wills of Qin Wentian finally aided him to break apart the frozen space. However, his body was still covered in the fearsome flames.

"What a terrifying Jia Huangtian. These supreme characters who stand at the peak, all of them are extraordinary indeed. Although the Saber-Sword Immortal King is powerful and had once used his illusionary arts to kill the Yama King, he would most probably still die today." Many people mused silently.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King, a king of a generation. Will he die like that simply from a clash among those who stand at the peak?"

"If the Saber-Sword Immortal King dies here, his friends wouldn't be able to escape death too."

As for the enemies of the Saber-Sword Immortal King, all of them had excitement on their faces. Finally, was Jia Huangtian going to finish off the Saber-Sword Immortal King? The Saber-Sword Immortal King has been arrogant for far too long. It was about time for him to die.

"RUMBLE!" The terrifying flames exploded, rising to the sky. Qin Wentian's body appeared in the vision of everyone and at this moment, his body of laws, seemed to be completely burned. The heat from the flames seeped into his body, destroying his organs but a few moments later, the flames all actually started to recede, gradually fading away.

He stared straight at Jia Huangtian, his sword intent rising to the sky, forming a sword qi river around him that slashed out with lightning speed. Jia Huangtian dodged with lightning speed, directly vanishing. The sword qi river tore the world asunder as a wide path was opened up in the void, stirring the hearts of the crowd, filling them with extreme shock.

"What great recovery, what a powerful attack." Everyone sighed with admiration as they stared at Qin Wentian. His eyes shone with a bright light and the flames burning him had completely disappeared. It was like Jia Huangtian's earlier phoenix flames had no effect.

"The Saber-Sword Immortal King has an undying body. It's very difficult to kill him. Someone spoke."

"That's right. Forty years ago when he was at the mid-stage immortal king realm, he had a battle against the Yama King. He survived due to having an undying physique. I personally witnessed that battle."

Someone from the crowd spoke, causing the surrounding people to exclaim. What a demon-level figure. He even had an undying physique.

"Don't forget what sort of character Jia Huangtian is. He has both the bloodlines of golden-winged rocs and the phoenixes. He should be able to achieve the nirvana rebirth effect as well. This battle, he would still die for sure."

"That's right. The space locking ability is too perverse. Who can defend against it? Even Qin Wentian wasn't able to avoid being frozen earlier. It was just that the phoenix flames were too weak to burn through his undying physique."

The surrounding experts analysed. As expected of a battle of supreme characters at the peak. When it erupted, the might displayed shocked every one of the spectators.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King, you can't even touch me. Do you regret things now?" Jia Huangtian's figure soared through the air, staring at Qin Wentian as he spoke.

Qin Wentian inclined his head. There was a calm smile on his face. "You are much more intelligent compared to the Yama King. At the very least, you understood that you have to go all out at the beginning and use your true power. In this case, although you can't change the ending, you would be able to prolong the moments of your life."

Jia Huangtian stiffened. A moment later, he started laughing uproariously. As he laughed, his figure vanished once more as a terrifying energy erupted towards Qin Wentian, the space being locked down once more.

Boundless law energy radiated around him. He stretched his palms out, blasting them forward. In an instant, fearsome gigantic imprints of law slammed out, each containing a supreme law energy. Cracking sounds echoed in the empty void as the space that was about to be completely frozen, cracked apart. The remnants of the spatial energy remaining flowed ceaselessly, akin to a spatial storm.

"He broke it?" The eyes of everyone flashed with shock. The art of locking down space was neutralized by the Saber-Sword Immortal King. Even Jia Huangtian himself stiffened, there was a puzzled look in his eyes. How strong were those palm attacks exactly?

"No matter how strong an innate technique is, they are ultimately unleashed through one's law energy. As long as your proficiency over law energy is stronger than your opponent's attack, there's nothing that cannot be countered." Qin Wentian calmly replied, as though he was speaking of an insignificant matter.

He had cultivated and comprehended many things in the City of Ancient Emperors for many years, using his emperor's fate to comprehend the radiance cascaded down by several dao elements yet he refused to accept the dao element completely. It wasn't a waste of time, his senses towards law energy was much deeper and clearer than before and had already reached an extraordinary level.

Chapter 1509: Saber-Sword Immortal King, Qin Wentian??

Jia Huangtian's expression didn't change after he heard Qin Wentian's words. He floated in the air and was as imposing as ever. He coldly added, "So what if you managed to break my technique? Next, this will be your doomsday."

As the sound of his voice faded, he moved and vanished from the spot. The crackling golden lightning shot out as he activated the space lock once again.

The light from Qin Wentian's body was extremely resplendent as law energy flowed around his body of laws that were at the state of perfection. Boundless law might circulated around his palms as he blasted them forward. Instantly, giant palm imprints appeared, explosively wrecking the area before him, breaking apart the space lock once more.

But in just this instant, Jia Huangtian vanished again. He directly appeared in another direction. This speed was too quick, so quick that immortal sense was unable to track. His eyes gleamed dazzlingly and unleashed his technique once again. The space lock energy gushed forth towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian stood at his original location and there was a bored expression on his face. His palms blasted forth again, easily countering Huang Jiatian.

These two figures, one moved, one did not. The one who moved was like lightning, the one who didn't move was as solid as a mountain. In an instant, a bright light flashed as this entire space was engulfed by destructive might. Spectating the battle of these two, everyone felt dazzled and stunned. They were simply too powerful. The palm arts of the Saber-Sword Immortal King were unbelievably strong. Its might could shake the heavens and he was capable of producing it in unending waves.

"Chi…" At this moment, after his space lock was broken again, Jia Huangtian didn't retreat. He chose to rush forward, directly attacking personally. Before him, numerous shadows of sky rocs manifested, tearing apart the palm imprints. He suddenly expanded in form, radiating the sharpness of rocs and majesty of the phoenix. His terrifying claws ripped space apart as a destructive space filled with fiery destruction shot towards Qin Wentian.

At this moment, Qin Wentian could clearly sense the destructive might in the air. In truth, although he appeared incomparably arrogant, he was still shocked in his heart when he felt Jia Huangtian's strength. Given Jia Huangtian's innate ability space lock, if it wasn't for his attacks being tyrannical enough, he would already have been trapped within and would be as helpless as a lamb offered up for slaughter. In addition, this was merely one of Jia Huangtian's innate abilities. He also had the speed of great rocs, able to traverse through space, as well as the flames of phoenixes.

When the claw attack blasted over, Qin Wentian could feel an immense surge of spatial energy wanting to bury him within. His sword intent gushed forth as he pulled out a sword. The sword holy will churned wildly, infusing into his weapon and with a single slash, his sword produced dreamforce, directly entering the consciousness of Jia

Huangtian. Jia Huangtian only saw a beam of bright light slashing out a true dragon, a great roc and a vermillion bird.

The two attacks collided in mid-air as both exploded. As for that terrifying space of destruction, it was torn asunder by the sword blow.

Jia Huangtian's silhouette flashed. However this time around, Qin Wentian also moved. His movement speed was actually quick to the extreme. His eyes flashed, it felt like he actually could track Jia Huangtian's movements. He then slashed out with a sword attack, showing no hesitation at all. The Nightmare Sword Art was more perfect as compared to before.

Jia Huangtian had no choice but to defend against this sword slash. Before this, he was the one attacking while Qin Wentian defended. But now, Qin Wentian took the initiative to attack.

Everyone felt their hearts trembling when they saw this. The Saber-Sword Immortal King was finally showing his true abilities. What a quick movement speed and what a powerful sword technique.

"Pagoda Hell." Qin Wentian suddenly stomped on the ground. The light from his pagoda domain appeared, engulfing everything as a formidable power of suppression bore down on Jia Huangtian. However, Jia Huangtian's speed was as fast as lightning and had an explosive power on par with heavenly thunder. When the suppression effect bore down on him, he instantly froze the space, blocking the suppression attack. He then rushed towards the boundary of the pagoda law domain and slashed out with his gigantic claws. Cracks appeared on the law domain, the spatial energy within lacerated everything as he broke free from it. The powerful pagoda law domain couldn't trap him.

A supreme expert like Jia Huangtian was truly too difficult to deal with.

In truth, Jia Huangtian also had the same thought about Qin Wentian at this moment. The Saber-Sword Immortal King's attacks were too powerful and had a bewilderment effect to them. His gaze was also very terrifying, able to cause opponents to sink into a dreamscape with a single glance. When fighting against him, one had to be extremely cautious in every step.

Their bodies pulled apart. Jia Huangtian floated in the air, staring at Qin Wentian. Contemplation could be seen in those sharp eyes of his.

After that, his figure flashed as he vanished once more, shooting through space, circling around Qin Wentian. At this moment, the surrounding space kept freezing solid. The law energy from him was boundless, wanting to bury everything here.

Qin Wentian calmly stared at Jia Huangtian who was rushing him. His eyes shone with the light from the art of truth, granting him the ability to see through all illusions, he wanted to see what Jia Huangtian's actual intent was.

"Bzz~" Jia Huangtian once again arrived before Qin Wentian, moving at an inconceivable speed. His gigantic body launched a supreme attack, as the shadows of a great roc and an ancient phoenix intermingled, blasting out towards Qin Wentian.

The sharp sword in Qin Wentian's hand slashed out with no hesitation. His sword intent flowed in unending waves, arcing through the nine heavens, penetrating everything in this world.

"BOOM!" Jia Huangtian appeared. His gigantic wings flowed with boundless law energy, directly colliding against Qin Wentian's sword.

A moment later, the indestructible wings were actually damaged. Qin Wentian's sword intent pierced right through them, sinking into that gigantic body, causing the hearts of everyone to shudder.

What did Jia Huangtian want to do?

He actually used his indestructible wings to block that sword? Was he planning something?

"Bzz~" The giant wings flapped once more, flowing with golden blood. The bloodline power within Jia Huangtian's body thrummed as he icily shouted, "SPACE LOCK!"

As the sound of his voice rang out, the space froze once again. At this moment, Qin Wentian basically didn't have time to attack. Inside the frozen space, Jia Huangtian's wings slammed down with crushing force. He purposely took an attack from Qin Wentian to get close to him, before launching an attack with colossal might.

"What a crazy fellow. He actually risked being severely injured by the Saber-Sword Immortal King just to launch a decisive blow to kill the Saber-Sword Immortal King?"

"Jia Huangtian is from the royal faction of the phoeroc race. Ancient phoenix blood flows in his veins, granting him incomparable recovery speed. From a certain perspective, he had similar physiques compared to the Saber-Sword Immortal King, his could also be called an undying one. How difficult it must be to kill him? That sword attack might severely injure him but there was no way he would die to that.

"The Saber-Sword Immortal King is finished." Many experts silently mused.

However, at this moment, Qin Wentian's eyes saw through everything. His gaze was matched with Jia Huangtian, gleaming with killing intent. At this exact moment, Jia Huangtian felt a burst of soul energy shooting into his eyes, wanting to destroy his soul.

"DIE!" Jia Huangtian howled. He disregarded his defense and gave his all to finish off Qin Wentian. As long as he killed Qin Wentian, all attacks produced by Qin Wentian shall cease.

He saw his barrage of attacks landing on Qin Wentian, blasting numerous holes in Qin Wentian's body. A coldness flashed in his eyes. Finally, has this battle ended?

So what even if that was a soul attack? Could an illusory technique really do anything to him?

"Something's wrong." At this moment, he felt a piercing pain in his soul. The terrifying attack from before continued invading his soul. His heart trembled as he felt a chill enveloping his body. If the Saber-Sword Immortal King's attack was still present, what was that earlier scene all about?

An illusion, a dreamscape?

Jia Huangtian instantly understood. His will was still incomparably strong. After that, he saw Qin Wentian appearing not far from him. Qin Wentian seemed injured, but he still stood there arrogantly. Also, his form had expanded, matching Jia Huangtian's size and his palms were gleaming with a terrifying might. He then blasted out his palms, causing a boundless radiance to engulf everything.

Jia Huangtian retreated with explosive speed, unleashing the entirety of his spatial law energy. However, the two giant palm imprints glowed with divine light, emanating a supreme suppressive pressure. They were akin to a grand formation that channelled boundless waves of destruction towards him.

The powerful suppressive pagoda effect, alongside with the destructive sword holy will, the two effects converged together as they slammed into Jia Huangtian.

"ARGH!" Jia Huangtian let out a scream of misery. When the boundless energy gushed into his gigantic body, the energy started to devastate his inner organs. Under the suppression from the supreme radiance, his body was destroyed bit by bit.

"BOOM!" A surge of terrifying nirvanic flames surrounded him, granting him an insane amount of recovery and protecting him from dying.

"Do you still think you can live?" Qin Wentian's eyes were terrifying to the extreme.

At the same instant his attack landed, an extremely destructive beam of light shot right into Jia Huangtian's soul. Regardless of how powerful the shield of nirvanic flames were, it was unable to stop this.

"SABER-SWORD IMMORTAL KING!" Jia Huangtian howled in madness. However, Qin Wentian didn't seem to hear it. He was determined to finish Jia Huangtian off, his countenance was painted with coldness.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King…" Many people exclaimed, their hearts pounding rapidly. Back then, the Yama King was killed by him. Could it be he really want to kill Jia Huangtian from the phoeroc race? Is he planning to offend all the major powers?

"Saber-Sword Immortal King?" From the void, a cold laugh appeared. It was unknown where this voice originated from but it clearly entered the ears of everyone, seemingly containing a mystical energy.

"You guys should refer to him as Qin Wentian instead. It's more suitable." That voice rang out once more.

As the sound of this voice faded, countless people felt their hearts trembling, especially those who knew of Qin Wentian's identity.

The Saber-Sword Immortal King was Qin Wentian?

This voice came from the void, it was as though the person who spoke was afraid that the Saber-Sword Immortal King might take revenge on him for exposing his identity. However, this immensely powerful Saber-Sword Immortal King, was he really Qin Wentian?

Qin Wentian's heart also pounded violently. He has already been extremely cautious, using the identity of the Saber-Sword Immortal King and cementing his impression of extreme arrogance in the eyes of everyone. With a change in personality, a change in looks and a change in his aura, how could there still be anyone who recognizes him? Could it be from the attacks he unleashed earlier? That should be impossible. Although that strike was reinforced by the power of God's Hand, he had already intentionally masked the energy fluctuations from it. But then again, in the entire immortal realms now, he was the only one who was proficient in God's Hand. Did it inadvertently reveal something with his attack earlier? Unless maybe when he killed the Yama King in the dreamscape back then, Yama King had guessed his identity and somehow transmitted a message before his death?

Chapter 1510: This Seat is Qin Wentian

The person hiding in the shadows who exposed him...who could it be?

Qing`er, Jun Mengchen, Nanfeng Yunxi. Those who knew of Qin Wentian's identity all felt their hearts trembling as a feeling of unease appeared. Although before this, Qin Wentian also had quite a few enemies. But after using the identity as the Saber-Sword Immortal King, he killed plenty of people from major powers, Zi Daolong, people from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty, Skymist Immortal Empire, and Paragon Sword Sect, etc. Among these, he undoubtedly offended the Senluo Immortal Empire the most. He had slain their crown prince, the Yama King.

From this point, the pressure on Qin Wentian, who had his identity exposed, could very well be imagined. In the future, it wouldn't just be the Violet Emperor and the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor who wanted to hunt him down. No matter how vast the immortal realms are, nobody would be able to protect him. Not even the Southern Phoenix Matriarch.

"Qin Wentian." As expected, the eyes of the disciples of the Violet Emperor all gleamed with sharpness. The people from the Skymist Immortal Empire, the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire and other major powers, all stared coldly at the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

If the Saber-Sword Immortal King really was Qin Wentian. Then, there can be no way for them to allow him to continue surviving. He had actually already grown to such a terrifying extent now.

This was truly tough to believe. But even so, many in the crowd believed that this news was real. The Saber-Sword Immortal King must be Qin Wentian. The area around his face had a mysterious aura, and everyone knew that his cultivation has something to do with illusions. Now, it seems like it was to conceal his identity. Also, Qin Wentian's fiancee Evergreen Qing`er was in the city, Jun Mengchen was here, Nanfeng Yunxi was here, and even his demonic companion was here. What about he himself?

Also in the battle before this, although the pretext of the Saber-Sword Immortal King acting to help out, was for the sake of humans in the immortal realms. Right now, in hindsight, it was because he wanted to help Evergreen Qing`er. By destroying the demons from the three races, was he helping Qing`er to vent her anger? No one here was a fool. When they connected the dots, all of them felt their hearts trembling.

Hence, everyone felt that this might be real.

"Who is the one speaking sneakily in the shadows. Did this seat offend you?" Qin Wentian coldly snorted. His palms continued slamming towards Jia Huangtian.

"Just take off your mask and the truth will be revealed. Right now, although you masked the power behind your attack, other than God's Hand, I truly have no way to imagine what other innate technique there is in the immortal realms that's so similar to this. Or don't tell us that you created this palm attack? Also, where did you originate from? There was no mention of any Saber-Sword Immortal King in the immortal realms before this." That voice continued from the void, echoing through the area. Everyone stare closely at Qin Wentian's attack. Indeed, now that they were looking carefully, they could see a shadow of God's Hand within.

"No wonder he dared to be so lawless and kill so many experts. So it turned out that he was hiding his real identity. Once he exits the City of Ancient Emperors, the Saber-Sword Immortal King would vanish forever. Who would be able to find him for revenge?" The void beast who was standing far away coldly spoke. "It's very easy to see if he's Qin Wentian or not. We can directly deal with Evergreen Qing`er."

As the sound of his voice faded, numerous gazes instantly turned to Qing`er. At this moment, the people of Matriarch Ji's sect were suddenly faced with many powerful enemies. Immortal King Junyi had a complicated expression on her face. So it turned out that the Saber-Sword Immortal King was Qin Wentian? She naturally believed so. Because, from the start, the Saber-Sword Immortal King had already hinted that he was interested in Qing`er. So this was the reason why. Seems like her feelings were all her one-sided wishful thinking.

At this instant, Qin Wentian understood that there was no way for him to continue concealing his identity. A cold light flashed in his eyes. The person who exposed him must die. This man was intentionally pushing him into a hell where there was no reprieve.

"Saber-Sword Immortal King. Your identity has already been exposed. Why are you still not letting me go?" Jia Huangtian's voice was low, extremely weak even. He was enduring this through great pain as the nirvanic flames kept healing him. As long as these flames doesn't cease, his life would never end.

Qin Wentian's cold eyes swept over to Jia Huangtian. Inside his immeasurably deep eyes, an intense killing intent flared.

"KILL!"

As his voice rang out, the power of God's Hand blasted forth. Numerous runes sparkled, transforming their shapes as a burst of divine glow illuminated the surroundings. The true God's Hand appeared, breaking apart all energy, shattering everything. Jia Huangtian howled, "Saber-Sword Immortal King, ARE YOU COURTING DEATH?!"

Qin Wentian's eyes glowed with a fearsome killing intent, brimming with soul energy. With a thunderous bang, Jia Huangtian's nirvanic flames were snuffed out. His gigantic body was destroyed bit by bit. Yet another character that stood at the peak died in the Saber-Sword Immortal King's hands. Regardless of whether the Saber-Sword Immortal King was Qin Wentian or not, he can already be proud of his accomplishments.

Countless experts among the spectators froze. Even after his identity was revealed, he still chose to go ahead and kill Jia Huangtian?!

They all only saw Qin Wentian turning his head, staring coldly at the void beast who said to target Qing`er. With just a single glance, that void beast shuddered. He suddenly felt a chill taking over his body, as an intense unease appeared in his heart.

"Bzz~" The supreme void beast was extremely decisive. Spatial energy erupted forth as he stepped into the void, wanting to flee right away.

Qin Wentian didn't say anything, he immediately grabbed out with his hand. His hand that resembled the hands of gods, broke through the void. That void beast, who was still within, suddenly felt a huge burst of suppressive energy boring down on him. There seemed to be shadows of countless pagodas pressing on him. When he lifted his head, he saw a giant palm imprint covering everything, blotting out the sky.

Great terror painted his countenance as he frenziedly tried to escape. He continued twisting through the void, but that suppressive pressure greatly slowed his movements. The divine hand of god pressed down, blocking his path and eventually captured him.

"BOOM!" The fingers of the palm crushed. That void beast didn't even have the time to scream and instantly got smashed into smithereens. What a miserable ending. The angered Saber-Sword Immortal King struck fear in the hearts of all the spectators. That void beast stepped into the void and had already fled very far away. But even so, he was still killed in the end.

All of this was because he said a sentence he shouldn't have said.

The void beast initially thought that Qin Wentian would definitely be extremely miserable after he said that and many experts would attack him en masse. However, he didn't expect that Qin Wentian, after his identity was revealed, would be even more terrifying than the Saber-Sword Immortal King. Right now, Qin Wentian seemed to have no more worries. Since he already offended so many major powers and even killed the demons of the three races, why would he care if he killed more people?

The Saber-Sword Immortal King used his words to exhibit his arrogance. He would always display it before he started a massacre. But now, Qin Wentian who was exposed and truly angered, didn't even say a single sentence and acted directly, killing Jia Huangtian and the supreme void beast.

As his gaze swept past, those earlier who wanted to make a move against Qing`er, all froze there. Who would still dare to act recklessly? That would simply be courting death.

In the vast space here, a gentle wind gusted, and it could be clearly heard. From this, one could see how quiet this place was at this moment.

Qin Wentian glanced at everyone. He lowered his head slightly and his hand swiped past his face. A moment later, after he inclined his head, a handsome and extraordinary countenance was revealed. The lines of his face were clear, his eyes flashed with coldness and was immeasurably deep, like a sea of stars. Qin Wentian then slowly spoke. "That's right. This seat is Qin Wentian!"

Silence descended onto this space. The Saber-Sword Immortal King was actually none other than a hidden identity of Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect of the eastern regions, the son-in-law of the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Once, he had displayed his talent and managed to ascend to the peak of the Demongod Mountain and was sneaked attacked by the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor and the Violet Emperor. To save him, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch intervened, the resulting effect sending him away to an unknown location.

Qin Wentian had been missing for so many years. So it turned out now that he had long entered the City of Ancient Emperors using the identity of the Saber-Sword Immortal King. His name resounded famously throughout the city and he became someone that stood at the peak. He killed the Yama King, the crown prince of the Senluo Immortal Empire, he killed Jia Huangtian of the phoeroc race, Zi Daolong, the son of the Violet Emperor, many experts from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty and the greater demons of the three demonic races.

Those who had grudges with Qin Wentian were all trembling intensely now, their hearts filled with tidal-waves of fear. In these short few tens of years, Qin Wentian had already matured to such a terrifying extent? Only a scarce few at the immortal king level would be able to stand equally against him.

If they didn't kill him now. After he enters the emperor realm, the number of people who could suppress him would be fewer and fewer.

Before this, he was already somewhat famous, but his cultivation base was too low. But now, he had truly grown and had matured so quickly and suddenly. This point created a huge rush of impact to those from the Violet Mountain. Before this, they knew that Zi Daoyang's death had a connection with Qin Wentian. Zi Daolong went to seek him out, wanting to capture him but years later, Zi Daolong actually died in his hands. If the Violet Emperor knew about this, one can only wonder what his feelings would be.

In the location where the experts from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire were at, the countenance of Huang Jiutian grew extremely unsightly. However, the one who was most shocked, was none other than Huang Shatian who was now at the peak-phase of the mid-stage of the immortal king realm. He cultivated so assiduously but that man was still so far ahead of him. Not only so, it seemed that Qin Wentian was climbing further and further upwards, with greater speed. No one in his entire Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, including him, was able to catch up to Qin Wentian.

The disciples from the Heavenly Talisman Realm were shocked as well. But they soon recovered. The maidens from the Southern Phoenix Clan were also surprised. They glanced at Nanfeng Yunxi, no wonder Nanfeng Yunxi would always have that look in her eyes when she stared at the Saber-Sword Immortal King.

The people from Matriarch Ji's sect glanced at Qing`er, an understanding was in their hearts. They then turned to Junyi, only to see Junyi was also looking at Qing`er.

"I'm sorry, Senior sister, I didn't have any bad intentions when we hid the truth from you." Qing`er spoke in a light voice.

"Qing`er, senior sister understands." Immortal King Junyi smiled as she nodded, maintaining her elegant self. Although she felt some hurt, but things truly couldn't be blamed on Qing`er. How could she not understand how sensitive Qin Wentian's identity was? Qing`er was deeply in love with Qin Wentian, she naturally wouldn't have exposed him. Although she also understood this, there was still an unknown depressed feeling in her heart when she glanced at that magnificent figure. But gradually, a smile eventually appeared on her face as she decided to try and forget everything.

Such a character was truly worthy for her junior sister Qing`er to love. It was only natural that she would fall for him when she had no idea that the Saber-Sword Immortal King was Qin Wentian.

In the direction where the devil cultivators gathered, many experts from the Judiciary Devil Hall were together. Among them, a beautiful figure in priestess robes stared at that magnificent character as she smiled and called out, "Wentian gege!"

Chapter 1511: Immortal, Devil and Demon

Qin Wentian's heart trembled when he heard Bai Qing calling out. He turned his head and stared at that figure dressed in judiciary robes. A gentle smile appeared on his face, "Little Qing, who asked you to run out and greet me. Don't you know things could be dangerous?"

"I'm not afraid." Bai Qing shook her head. "Wentian gege's enemies are my enemies as well."

Qin Wentian stared at Bai Qing's beautiful eyes as he sighed softly in his heart, flowing with currents of warmth.

The devil cultivators beside Bai Qing all stared at her bewilderedly. This emotionless priestess of theirs actually had such a gentle side to her? Her voice was as clear and gentle as a youth. Right now, after the Saber-Sword Immortal King's identity was exposed and Qin Wentian had became public enemy, she actually had no reservations and called out 'Wentian gege,' placing her in an extremely disadvantageous situation.

The people of the Myriad Devil Islands have probably heard of some things in the past. Seems like those stories were true. The Judiciary Priestess Bai Qing had very deep emotions towards Qin Wentian who had once ascended the Devil Mountain.

The people from the Devil Mountain all stared at Qin Wentian, although many haven't met him before, most of them have heard of his name. After all, there were simply too many rumors about Qin Wentian on the Devil Mountain. Back then, the Grand Priest and Dark Lord of the Judiciary and Darkness Devil Halls wanted to act against him but 'that' existence spoke out and stopped them. From then on, nobody from the Devil Mountain dared to make a move against Qin Wentian.

Right now from the looks of it, this person who could cause such a commotion on the Devil Mountain, was truly extraordinary. Back then he was merely at the immortal-foundation realm. But now, he was already a hegemon at the immortal king level, with only a scarce few being able to contend against him.

"Qin Wentian, back then I told you to head to the Devil Mountain to gain good fortune. Seems like that was really the right choice." That grand apostle smiled. Qin Wentian turned to him, "That's true. I really have to thank you for that."

However, the Child of Darkness beside the grand apostle, didn't really have a friendly expression on his face. After all, Qin Wentian did fight against a Child of Darkness at the immortal-foundation level when he ascended the Devil Mountain. In the end, that Child of Darkness was punished and even the Darkness Lord had to apologize to him. One could say that from that time onwards, Qin Wentian became a transcendent figure in their Darkness Devil Hall. But then again, he clearly came from the immortal realms.

Right now, in the City of Ancient Emperors when they met with Qin Wentian again, Qin Wentian was no longer that weak immortal-foundation character from before.

"Count me in!" Jun Mengchen also yelled out. He icily continued, "Which cowardly rat is hiding in the shadows? If you have the guts, just step out and confront this issue directly like a man."

Nobody replied. The other party seemed to only want to expose Qin Wentian's identity and had already vanished. It was not going to be so easy to find who the culprit was.

"Don't let me find out which bastard it is." Jun Mengchen cursed out venomously. He truly couldn't endure such behavior, wanting to sneak about in the shadows. That person clearly wanted to push his senior brother Qin Wentian off a cliff. In the future, no matter how vast the immortal realms are, there would be no place for Qin Wentian to survive. After all, the powers he offended were all major powers. This move by that hidden person was too ruthless, he wanted to borrow the blade of others to kill Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian swept his eyes over the crowd and spoke, "Since you guys already know who am I, what now? Who wants to kill me?"

As the sound of his voice rang out, the atmosphere turned silent once more.

That's right, so what even if his identity was exposed? In the City of Ancient Emperors, the Saber-Sword Immortal King already stood at the peak. Before this, he had already killed the supreme existence of the phoeroc race, Jia Huangtian. At this place, who would be able to kill him?

Join forces against him? But other than those who also stood at the absolute peak, mere numbers would do nothing against Qin Wentian.

In the City of Ancient Emperors, who can kill him? Who would dare to kill him?

"Back then on the Devil Mountain, I've long heard of your name. Today, since there's such a good opportunity, I want to test how strong that immortal cultivator, who has walked out of my Darkness Devil Hall back then, has become." A cold and sinister voice rang out. The eyes of the crowd flashed as they turned to the person who spoke. It actually wasn't any of the peak supreme demons of the desolate mountains, but was a devil cultivator instead, the Child of Darkness from the Darkness Devil Hall.

Qin Wentian turned his glance over and coldly spoke, "Since you are from the Devil Mountain, let me advise you it's best not to make a move against me. Earlier when I killed Jia Huangtian, there were actually still some powers which I didn't use. For example, the inheritance I obtained from the Devil Mountain. You should know a little about what power that is. You won't stand a chance."

"You are too confident. Even if you have obtained that inheritance, you might not be able to win against the devil kings from the respective devil halls." The Child of Darkness' voice was as cold as ever.

"If I defeat you, should I kill you or not?" Qin Wentian bluntly asked.

"Arrogant." The Child of Darkness stepped out. Instantly, the sky turned to darkness. This Child of Darkness melded within the shadows and vanished without a trace. Everyone could only stare at the pitch-black area, even their immortal senses weren't able to penetrate it. They couldn't tell what was happening within.

Qin Wentian closed his eyes as terrifying waves of law energy circulated around him. This time, he no longer bothered to hide the law attributes he was proficient in. The law attributes of devil and destruction radiated forth from him, terrifying to the extreme.

The entire space was painted with darkness. This was a darkness law domain. Abruptly, a terrifying devil might churned wildly within it as numerous figures of the Child of Darkness appeared, stabbing at Qin Wentian with their spears of darkness. The devil might towered up into the sky, able to penetrate everything. Around Qin Wentian, many vortexes of darkness appeared.

But at this moment, fearsome devil might also erupted forth from Qin Wentian. His astral soul appeared, in the form of a supreme terrifying devil, peering down at all existences from the heavens. The devil will radiating from him resembled the will of the Myriad Devil Sovereign. It caused all the devil cultivators here to feel an urge to submit. The entire space was trembling in an unstable manner, even the spears of darkness were trembling.

"After I broke through to the immortal king realm, the astral soul I condensed, is one with devil-law attributes. Devil cultivators are of no threat to me." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. Back then, he obtained the inheritance of the Myriad Devil Sovereign and now that he had the support of a devil-aligned astral soul, he was naturally able to restrain any other devil cultivators.

Countless devil runes flashed into existences. The figure of the devil peered down arrogantly at the Children of Darkness in the law domain. With a single glance, the fake children all disintegrated and the spears of darkness involuntarily exploded.

"GET LOST!" With a loud roar, imbued with the authority of the Myriad Devil Sovereign, the darkness in the area faded away, as the sky turned bright once more.

That Child of Darkness was forced back several steps from the impact of the shout. His expression turned stiff as he stared at Qin Wentian. Reality was proven, devil cultivators were clearly of no threat to Qin Wentian. He had really obtained the inheritance of the Myriad Devil Sovereign.

Although earlier that wasn't his entire strength. This Child of Darkness could already sense that it was impossible for him to defeat Qin Wentian.

"This fellow…" Bujie, who was spectating not far away, trembled. His eyes gleamed with a bright light. That was truly the inheritance of the Myriad Devil Sovereign.

Right now, the Saint Devil Hall had no one in it. The totem of belief, the Myriad Devil Sovereign, had never once showed himself. To think that his successor would actually be an immortal cultivator from the immortal realms. How interesting was this? If one day, the Devil Mountain was really under the authority of Qin Wentian, wouldn't he be sitting on the throne of the Myriad Devil Sovereign?

When he thought of this scene, a smile suddenly appeared on Bujie's face. Wouldn't things be really interesting then?

"Dual immortal-devil cultivator." The spectators felt their hearts shaking when they saw this brief battle. The devil king from the Darkness Devil Hall was seemingly willing to accept his inferiority after a short exchange. It was just like Qin Wentian had said. The earlier fight against Jia Huangtian, he still held something in reserve. Now, since his identity was exposed, he would naturally have even more methods and techniques as he didn't have to worry about hiding his skills. He would only be stronger.

These supreme characters who stood at the peak of the city, was there anyone among them that could be a match for him?

In the air, the battle intents of the other supreme greater demons all rose up. Especially so for the supreme expert of the sun gold race. He was the one who invited all the characters at the peak to gather at this location, wanting each of them to contend against the others to see who was the strongest. But now, this situation was completely in Qin Wentian's control. No one was able to seize Qin Wentian's radiance.

Before this, although the Saber-Sword Immortal King had killed the Yama King, nobody thought that he would be this powerful. Clearly, they still underestimated him.

A terrifying golden sun spear was formed from a strand of sunlight. It directly shot towards Qin Wentian. That supreme demon from the sun gold race stood up, he was like a god of the sun.

Qin Wentian waved his sword, the sword qi generated formed a river, blasting the long spear apart.

That supreme demon then stepped out, his entire being radiating an intense light as he appeared directly before Qin Wentian. A huge sun manifested behind him and a sun spear stabbed out towards Qin Wentian. At this moment, the world seemed to be burning from the anger of his fury. The sun spear naturally contained flames of the sun. The light emitting from it was so blinding that no one could look at it directly.

The crowd only saw that Qin Wentian was engulfed in a ball of sunflames, akin to that of a law domain. The spear stabbed forth with no hesitation, piercing into him, radiating an intent to incinerate the heavens and earth.

"BOOM!"

At this moment, a terrifying demonic might engulfed the surroundings, radiating from Qin Wentian. His body was covered by a demonic glow, even his countenance warped a little, becoming more demon-like. He resembled a demon god, lording over everything under the sky.

"Demonic energy. He even cultivated demonic energy? Immortal arts, devil might, demonic techniques. He is proficient in all three?" Many people trembled with shock. Not only that, Qin Wentian's proficiency was extremely high with all three paths.

The phantom of a divine Xuanwu Turtle appeared, enveloping him, with the vajra holy will circulating around it. The fire from the huge sun behind, blasted out, shooting endless fireballs, yet it was unable to break through that defense. In fact, the power of the sun spear was unable to penetrate it either. With a wave of his hand, Qin Wentian manifested a sword strike with the full power of God's Hand. This sword strike contained the sword holy will and transformed into the form of a sky roc, rampaging through the world.

The sword collided with the sun spear and both exploded from the force of the impact. Qin Wentian's palm blasted out again, manifesting the might of a divine elephant that radiated the pagoda holy will, causing the atmosphere to be filled with a heavy suppression. The golden sun crow expanded his form to gain strength to counteract the pressure.

After that, a thunderous boom rang out. That gigantic golden sun crow was blasted backwards with the titanic force. His body trembled violently, but his eyes burned with the unending fire of the sun, terrifying to the extreme.

"You are not my match. If you supreme greater demons of the desolate mountains joined forces, there might still be a sliver of hope for you all." Qin Wentian calmly spoke, not giving a damn about the unsightly expression on the golden sun crow's face!

Chapter 1512: Winning Every Battle

"Brazen!" The sun gold crow roared in anger. The supreme greater demons from the Nether Race and that demonic dragon also tensed up, as their eyes gleamed with wrath. What a brazen human, he wanted those who stood at the peak, to join forces?

At this moment, a surge of fiery intent enveloped the area as numerous suns floated in the air. Many people felt their bodies on the brink of bursting into flames. All the spectators hurriedly retreated and as they did so, the entire space was swallowed up by a sea of fire. This was too terrifying. After retreating to a sufficient distance, the spectators inclined their heads and stared at the numerous suns being manifested. They knew that the supreme greater demon, the golden sun crow, has been thoroughly enraged.

Qin Wentian actually insulted him like that, hinting that he wasn't his opponent and wanted him to join forces with the other demons. What a great humiliation this was?

He wanted to ascend to the peak, if they joined forces and they all lost to Qin Wentian, what did this indicate? It meant that as long as Qin Wentian was around, how could there still be a place for them in the immortal realms?

"Swish~"

A blazing heat swept past. That giant figure floated in the center of the surrounding suns. Boundless sun energy congregated on him as he started glowing with a golden light. Even his blood was golden, boiling with energy. As he stretched out with his claws, a supreme golden sun spear appeared, roughly a thousand feet in length. The sun energy infused frenziedly as it began erupting with sun flames. Any ordinary peak-stage immortal kings would die upon coming in contact with the flames. There was no need to mention how powerful it would be if it was specifically used for attacks.

"Too terrifying, he is truly angered." The crowd silently mused. This golden sun crow gathered the peak supreme characters here. From a certain perspective, he did so because he was confident he had the strength to stand at the very top, surpassing everyone else. But after the supreme characters gathered, the stage seemed to have been created for Qin Wentian alone. This human was lawless and incomparably arrogant, cultivating the three paths of immortal, devil and demon. There seemed to be no one who could stand against him. If no one could control Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian would undoubtedly ascend to the true peak, standing higher than the rest of them in the City of Ancient Emperors.

Qin Wentian's gigantic figure flowed with resplendent light, causing all the spectators to feel their hearts tremble. At this moment, Qin Wentian stretched out his hand. Destruction and devil energy converged together, materializing an ancient halberd. This ancient halberd radiated a tyranny unmatched in heaven and earth. It was a true halberd of destruction, a weapon fit for a devil king.

Qin Wentian now was like a supreme devil lord. He pushed out with his palm as the energy of God's Hand infused the halberd. He even infused the holy wills from the Eastern Tomb within as well.

When God's Hand was combined with the holy will, as well as reinforced by the immense power of his bloodline and law energy, Qin Wentian didn't even know how powerful it would be. But at the very least, he was sure that within the City of Ancient Emperors, only an extremely rare amount of people would be able to withstand this. The God's Hand was after all the secret art of an ancient emperor. The dao elements might be more powerful and tyrannical but they weren't something that could be fully comprehended and used to its fullest effect within a short period of time. These people who gained the inheritances from the dao elements, their insights were only equal to the tip of the iceberg.

Devil might flooded the area as a supreme devil lord appeared behind Qin Wentian. Boundless law energy flowed endlessly into his halberd, wanting to break the myriad of techniques, destroying all lives. The halberd shimmered with pure destruction, destroying the beams of sunlight that constantly shot at him.

"KILL!" In the air, the huge suns infused into the golden sun spear one after another, granting it immense power. At this instant, just the light emitted from the sun spear alone was sufficient to kill peak-stage immortal kings, leaving the attack aside. The long spear stabbed forth, actually manifesting golden crows that flew over, wanting to rip everything apart.

The devil lord behind Qin Wentian slashed out with the halberd, instantly manifesting the phantoms of terrifying supreme demons. There was the great roc that could tear apart everything, the divine elephant that could suppress everything, the vermillion bird that could incinerate everything, the ancient chaos beast that could devour everything...the shadows of these demons hovered around the halberd, transforming into a vortex of pure destruction.

The spear clashed against the halberd, creating thunderous boom that rang throughout the sky, causing the entire space to shake. This was simply terrifying to the extreme. The powerful demons of destruction brimming with the power of the holy wills cleaved apart the golden crows, devouring them into the vortex. The shockwaves generated from the impacts shot out in all directions, even those peak-stage immortal king spectators that had retreated far away were injured despite their defensive capabilities when they came into contact with the aftershocks.

A shrill voice suddenly screamed. The crowd stared at the battlefield only to see the sunlight growing in intensity, blinding their eyes. They saw the silhouette of the golden sun crow floating in the air, his entire body was bleeding from devastating wounds, including his claws and beak. His eyes flickered with pain and agony.

They then glanced at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian stood in the air arrogantly, the demonic and devil qi circulated around him wildly.

"Is there anyone who still wishes to fight? I, Qin, shall accept all challenges." Qin Wentian glanced at the experts in the surroundings as he calmly spoke. That supreme beauty from the nine-tailed fox race then walked out. Her robes fluttered, she resembled a celestial maiden from the nine heavens, instantly drawing the attention of countless people. A feeling of tenderness appeared in the hearts of the spectators. Would Qin Wentian really bear to act against such a supreme beauty?

"Sister goddess, can you not fight with Wentian?" Little Rascal called out from afar. The fox goddess glanced at him and turned to Qin Wentian after that. "I wish to test your illusionary arts."

"Wentian, don't injure sister goddess!" Little Rascal shouted out. Qin Wentian glanced at the supreme beauty before his eyes as he nodded, "Sure, how do you want to test it?"

"I'm also proficient in illusionary arts. I humbly seek guidance." The fox goddess calmly spoke. In her beautiful eyes, a strange glow suddenly gleamed, instantly causing those who looked at her to fall within an illusion.

At the next moment, Qin Wentian only saw the beautiful countenance of the fox goddess growing clearer and clearer in his mind's eye, entering the depths of his soul. In an instant, only her silhouette remained in his mind.

"Are you willing to accompany me forever, as we roam the world?" A voice that was seemingly filled with magical power rang out. Qin Wentian's will shuddered. He felt a stirring inside him that made him reluctant to say no.

In his mind's eye, he could clearly see two figures. One was the fox goddess and the other was himself.

"What do you want me to do?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Become my follower, I will give you a lifetime of riches and glory." The fox goddess spoke gently, her voice containing a mystical power that seeped into Qin Wentian's soul. Right now, many memories between him and the fox goddess were created, as though they shared countless experiences together before. She wanted to wipe out all traces of his past, leaving only her behind.

"Okay." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Are you willing to give up everything for me?" The fox maiden gently asked. Qin Wentian nodded in a dumbstruck manner. He slowly walked forward, coming to her side as his knees buckled, looking like he was about to kneel.

The fox maiden calmly stared at this scene. Her beauty was holy and unprofanable, she was like the most dazzling maiden in this world. Her magnificence knew no bounds and her beauty was unrivaled.

But at this moment, Qin Wentian didn't kneel. His figure flashed as he suddenly stepped forward, directly hugging her willow-like waist. In that instant, that fox maiden stiffened as a terrifying light gleamed in her eyes.

"There was once a maiden who wanted to do a similar thing to me. This is my punishment for her." Qin Wentian used more force, pressing the fox maiden closer to his body.

"How dare you." Her expression drastically changed. After that, she turned into a phantom and vanished. This caused a bright light to flash within Qin Wentian's eyes. This fox maiden seemed to be a little different compared to Beiming Youhuang.

In the external world, the fox goddess's expression changed. She coldly glared at Qin Wentian as her aura fluctuated.

"As expected of the fox goddess of the nine-tailed demon fox race. Not only is your beauty unrivalled, your figure is extremely sexy as well. You are even so proficient in illusionary arts. I'm really impressed." Qin Wentian smiled. The fox maiden radiated coldness, when she heard Qin Wentian praising that her figure was sexy, she naturally knew what he was referring to. Her silhouette flashed as she directly left, causing all the other experts to be in a daze.

Earlier, what happened in the illusion?

This fox maiden was the goddess of the nine-tailed fox race. She was actually so angered by Qin Wentian that she left?

Right now, out of the five supreme greater demons who stood at the peak of the desolate mountains, Jia Huangtian the phoeroc was killed, the golden sun crow was heavily injured and defeated, and the fox goddess had departed. Only two more greater demons remained. The Child of Darkness from the devil cultivators had lost, the other devil cultivators would undoubtedly be suppressed by Qin Wentian too.

"RUMBLE!" That greater demon from the Nether Race stepped out as a fearsome underworld energy filled the air. His aura reeked of bloodlust and cruelty, it was terrifying to the extreme.

At the same time, that demonic dragon also stepped out. His movements rumbled the space around him as his body glowed with a violet-reddish hue.

The two supreme demons moved towards Qin Wentian at the same time, clearly intending to join forces. This caused countless spectators to sigh. Qin Wentian was too terrifying. Even the two prideful greater demons who stood at the peak had to join forces to deal with him.

"Might as well save me the trouble." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. Devil might gushed forth from him as two strands of powerful sword intent shot out, slashing towards the two supreme demons.

The supreme demon from the Nether Race directly reverted into his true form, his countenance instantly becoming one of malevolence. Nether spikes could be seen protruding from all parts of his body. When the sword intent slashed over, his spikes shone with underworld light, disintegrating the sword intent. As for the demonic dragon, he punched out with his fist, shattering the sword intent with brute force!

Chapter 1513: Hunter

"Are these the unexcelled demon gods of the desolate mountains who swept through the immortal realms with impunity when they invaded? To think that you two supreme characters, who stand at the peak, actually have the face to join forces against my senior brother." Jun Mengchen impolitely mocked. After the Demongod Mountain appeared, the demons from the desolate mountains started invading the immortal realms and were all extremely arrogant. They had already experienced the demon's arrogance for themselves first hand when they were at Gazing Emperor City.

After these demons entered the immortal realms, all of them felt that the immortal realms was their paradise. They treated it as if they had become the kings of this era.

That supreme golden sun crow invited those who stood at the peak to gather. But what was the ending? They were still crushed by Qin Wentian single-handedly. Even the supreme phoeroc Jia Huangtian was killed directly.

Many greater demons from the desolation mountains stared at Jun Mengchen with anger, their killing intent was extremely terrifying. However, this was a battle for those who stood at the peak and it was the truth that Qin Wentian alone had suppressed all of them. Over here, Qin Wentian was the only one basking in radiance. Right now, that demon from the Nether Race had truly joined forces with the demonic dragon. This was already a very shameful matter. They could only hope to kill Qin Wentian as quickly as possible to save some face.

At this moment, the two supreme experts both rushed Qin Wentian. The demon from the Nether Race had a malevolent look on his face. His baleful qi enveloped everything and a surge of nether energy gushed forth, forming a nether domain. In an instant, Qin Wentian only felt his body growing numb, on the verge of paralysis. A nether chill invaded his body as he felt a bone-chilling coldness.

Gazing about, this entire place became a nether prison, cold to the extreme. Numerous human skulls appeared, all of them opening their mouths as they rushed towards Qin Wentian wanting to devour him.

The demons from the Nether Race had always been famed for their cruelty. They ate humans and loved to commit every kind of atrocity there is.

After devouring human experts, they would convert the energies of the humans and transfer it into their nether prison. Nether prisons are an innate ability of the Nether Race, equal to their law domains. It could trap their opponents, and even unleash attacks, fighting for them. The Nether demon before Qin Wentian was of the royal-faction, his abilities are naturally superior to normal nether demons.

Countless innate techniques from the humans he devoured blasted over. Qin Wentian's body shone with a startling glow as he activated his bloodline ability, burning rebellion.

In an instant, swirls of demonic qi filled the air, causing the currents of energy to turn even more chaotic. A fearsome golden-winged roc manifested before him. This was one of the bloodline abilities he gained, the blood avatar protection. The eyes of this manifested roc gleamed with spirit, resembling Qin Wentian's eyes. Qin Wentian then waved his hands, causing countless runes as well as the vajra and sword holy wills to infuse the wings of the roc.

Flapping sounds rang out as the gigantic golden wings moved. The attacks formed by these wings resembled those slashed out by a supreme king sword. Numerous roc attacks erupted forth, causing the atmosphere to crackle with energy.

Qin Wentian's attacks mirrored those attacks launched by the golden blood roc he manifested. For a moment of time, countless resplendent and tyrannical attacks blotted out the sky, crushing all obstacles before them.

"Are these innate techniques of humanity or ultimate demon arts of the greater demons?" The countless people spectating all felt their hearts trembling with fear. Was Qin Wentian still a human? He would be an immortal at times, a devil at times, and could even become a true demon. What was more terrifying was that the demonic arts launched by his demon blood manifestation could even be infused with immortal energy and supplemented by immortal innate techniques. This was simply too terrifying, Everyone felt that Qin Wentian was simply invincible. The City of Ancient Emperors would end up as the world where he stands at the top.

The expression of the nether demon turned ugly. His spikes bristled, a moment later, they actually fanned out and shot forth, piercing into the smaller rocs which manifested earlier from the blood avatar roc, causing the rocs that were pierced, to turn into ice statues, frozen solid.

As for that violet-blooded demonic dragon, he punched out with devastating force, emitting howls of demonic dragons, tyrannical to the extreme, shattering the ice statues.

Qin Wentian didn't seem bothered by it. With another flap from the terrifying wings of the blood avatar roc, the sharpness emanated forth engulfed everything, instantly slashing towards the nether demon, brimming with the sword holy will, slashing apart the nether prison, into the demon's body.

The spikes from the nether demon shot out in a bid to defend against those terrifying wings. However, before absolute strength, everything was useless. The spikes shattered, the nether demon howled in rage as more skulls appeared, rushing out wanting to devour Qin Wentian.

"Get lost." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. The bloodline avatar directly rushed forward, breaking apart all attacks, slamming into the nether demon. The nether demon roared thunderously, it felt like he wasn't fighting against Qin Wentian but was against that golden-winged roc instead.

Qin Wentian's eyes turned cold. One of his palms unleashed an attack powered by God's Hand, its might capable of suppressing the world, joining forces with the avatar to attack the nether demon. The other palm then blasted in the direction of the demonic dragon.

Terrifying demonic qi permeated the atmosphere. Very swiftly, the nether demon let out shrill screams as he was heavily injured and forced back. Devastating wounds covered his body as blood splashed through the air. The demonic dragon coldly glared at Qin Wentian. At this moment, Qin Wentian was using God's Hand to blast out palm attacks that were fearsome to the extreme. Within the palm strikes, the dao of the heavens and earth could be felt within. It also resembled the augmentation effect of a grand formation and had startling might.

"I said before that you guys are not my match." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. He didn't wish to kill anymore. Now that his identity was exposed, he wasn't worried for himself but was worried that his actions might implicate the people around him.

The nether demon let out angry howls, while the expression of the demonic dragon turned unsightly. He has yet to unleash his true power, but from these few clashes, it did really seem impossible for him to defeat Qin Wentian who cultivated the energy from the three paths. Qin Wentian was like a demon beast in human form, possessing boundless demonic qi.

"These demonic beasts are truly overestimating themselves, actually joining forces to deal with an immortal realm cultivator. It's time to teach them a lesson, did they really forget about the existences of us humans from the immortal realms?" At this moment, a sinister voice rang out. This caused everyone to stare bewilderedly at the person who spoke. It was none other than another supreme character that stood at the peak, the person who didn't say a single word before this. This man, came from the Beast God Sect at the extreme east of the eastern regions, within the great snow mountains.

Earlier, he didn't say anything. He only chose to speak up now when Qin Wentian clearly didn't fear the demons from joining forces, giving others a bizarre feeling.

"Since the golden sun crow invited us here, I might as well take the chance to experience everyone's strength." As the sound of his voice faded, he directly stepped out. A strange black aura flowed around him, resembling a cloud and in the swirls of darkness, a pair of eyes actually appeared, giving off an extremely eerie feeling.

He rushed towards the supreme nether demon injured by Qin Wentian. Soaring forth by stepping upon the black clouds, his speed fast to the extreme. A dangerous aura could be felt from him as the feeling of eeriness intensified.

The eyes of the nether demon flashed with coldness. So what if he was injured, did this human think that he was good to bully?

With a loud roar that shook the sky, the nether prison appeared once more, cold beyond cold. Countless malevolent skulls appeared as they flew towards that Beast God Sect's expert.

However, at this very moment, the black cloud revolving around that expert from the beast god sect directly lunged out, blanketing the area, locking down space. It was akin to a law domain. In an instant, the howls of ten thousand beasts rent the space as numerous greater demons of different races appeared within. Their eyes had lost all spirit and luster, it felt like they had been refined into beast puppets.

"ROAR!" The surrounding demons all howled when they saw this, as countless terrifying pairs of eyes turned to that supreme expert from the Beast God Sect. They discovered that among the beast puppets, there were actually quite a few from their races.

This man truly hid himself extremely deeply.

Qin Wentian also felt shocked when he saw this scene. That supreme expert from the Beast God Sect controlled the puppets, and directly suppressed his enemies, destroying everything.

He then recalled the rumors about the Beast God Sect. The Beast God Sect emphasizes on taming demonic beasts, controlling the powerful greater demons. This man had refined many greater demons into his beast puppets, using them as a part of his combat strength.

As expected, no matter how cruel, how cunning, how sinister demons are, they were clearly not comparable to the darkness in the hearts of humans. A very good example was this supreme expert from the Beast God Sect.

Swishing noises rang out as boundless beast chain shackles shimmering with a black light appeared. The chains instantly shot towards the head of the nether demon, wanting to bind it.

The nether demon finally felt a sense of crisis. He howled in rage and soared up into the sky. But how could the expert from the Beast God Sect spare him? Stepping out, he attacked, joining forces with the beast puppets under him as they all also launched their attacks, aiming for the supreme nether demon. This made the other demons even more enraged. This human also seemed capable of using demonic techniques.

"KILL HIM!" Many demonic beasts howled. This expert from the Beast God Sect was definitely their hunter. They had to kill him off.

Roars filled the sky as numerous demons lunged over with killing intent.

"EXTERMINATE THESE HUMANS!" Another thunderous roar rang out as the demons viewed the surrounding humans with hatred. The supreme greater demons of their desolate mountains were all defeated, causing the brutal and berserk natures of all the demons here to rise up due to agitation.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. He didn't expect such an ending. Seems like demonic beasts were truly quick to anger.

His silhouette flashed, he ignored the battle between the supreme expert of the Beast God Sect and the supreme nether demon. He transformed into a giant, resembling a divinity as boundless might radiated from him, his sword intent towering up into the sky. He coldly spoke, "The battle today started because of the supreme golden sun crow. If you all cannot afford to lose, don't blame me for starting a massacre here."

Chapter 1514: Contending for the Buddha Dao

Qin Wentian stood there, resembling a divinity. Those demonic beasts instantly sobered up, cleared of their anger. They stared with trepidation in their gazes at the magnificent figure in the air.

"Wanting to kill humans? The two supreme greater demons of your demonic races joined forces to deal with Qin Wentian. Could it be that you won't allow us humans to do the same thing to you?" Somebody coldly spoke, radiating an intense battle intent. All the demonic beasts let out low-sounding roars. The other demons from the nether race rushed out, wanting to save the supreme nether demon that was trapped.

The other experts from the Beast God Race also rushed out. They were all hidden within the black cloud. Countless chains shot out from the air, enveloping a certain area, wanting to lock everything down.

Qin Wentian didn't interfere in the combat here. Although that supreme character from the Beast God Sect was somewhat sinister and took advantage of the situation earlier, the nether demon wasn't any kind soul either. Staring at the skulls manifested, he could tell that the supreme nether demon had murdered many humans before. To such a demon, Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't feel any sympathy. Just let them kill each other. When they exit this place, the two major powers would clash with each other, making the immortal realms even more chaotic. This way, not all the major powers would be focused on him then.

As for that demonic dragon, he icily stared at Qin Wentian before he glanced at the nether demon fighting against the supreme expert from the Beast God Sect. He sighed in his heart, seems like after the Demongod Mountain appeared, causing the demonic beasts of the desolate mountains to enter an evolution phase, they have truly been too arrogant and had underestimated humans. This time around, it could be considered a lesson for them. He could feel that it was very difficult for him to defeat Qin Wentian. Also, for that supreme character of the Beast God Sect, that man gave off an extraordinary feeling as well.

Humans weren't as simple as the demons. They hid themselves extremely deeply.

"ROAR!" A draconic roar echoed out loud shaking the heavens and earth. The demonic dragon directly shot up into the skies. Although he didn't exhibit his full strength, he knew that he has already lost. Regardless of what happened, the person standing at the absolute peak of the City of Ancient Emperors would definitely not be him. Even if he continued staying here, there would be no meaning to it.

Numerous screams of pain and misery rang out. That supreme nether demon was struggling futilely. He was about to be refined by that supreme expert from the Beast God Sect with such terrifying methods that the spectators felt a chill in their hearts. One must definitely never underestimate the mysterious Beast God Sect.

Qin Wentian glanced at the experts who remained. The only ones who didn't participate in the battle were the Grand Apostle, the supreme character from the Judiciary Hall, Jiang Zihua of the immortal realms and the reverend from the Askheart Temple.

"Any comments?" Qin Wentian glanced at the other supreme experts as he asked.

"My Jiang Clan has always harbored no ill intentions towards Brother Qin. Back then my younger brother Jiang Ziyu had issued an invitation for brother Qin to pay a visit to my Jiang Clan, we will definitely treat you as a valued guest. Even after so long, my Jiang Clan still welcomes Brother Qin with open arms." Jiang Zihua smiled. Qin Wentian back then could sense that Jiang Ziyu had some other intentions behind this invitation. Also, his combat prowess back then was extremely weak, he naturally wouldn't pay a visit to the Jiang Clan. Now, he wouldn't go as well. The Jiang Clan was extremely mysterious, cultivating in buddha-path techniques and arts. Although Jiang Zihua's smile seemed gentle and warm, it still gave him an unfathomable feeling.

In fact, even with his art of truth, he had no way to see through what Jiang Zihua was thinking. He couldn't tell if they had kind intentions or malicious ones.

"I will definitely pay a visit if there's a chance to." Qin Wentian casually replied, his tone somewhat perfunctory. Jiang Zihua naturally understood. He nodded and smiled, "We shall await your coming with anticipation then."

As he spoke, his gaze turned about, staring at the reverend from the Askheart Temple. "Reverend, both you and I had obtained the buddha dao element's inheritance. I always wanted to find you for a good spar. Now that there's such a good opportunity, why don't we exchange some pointers?"

"I have the exact same intention." The reverend from the Askheart Temple calmly replied.

"Since this is the case, I thank reverend for the guidance." Jiang Zihua stepped out. Buddhic light shone around him, causing the surrounding space to be illuminated by a golden glow. His handsome figure radiated buddhic light, and his appearance right now felt extremely dashing.

"Reverend, please." Jiang Zihua was exceedingly polite. It didn't seem that they were going to battle, but were about to discuss about the dao of buddha instead.

The reverend from the Askheart Temple stood at his original location. Buddhic light enveloped him as a resplendent lamp appeared above him, giving off a radiance that illuminated his dharmic idol. He seemed to be completely at one with his dao.

Bujie's eyes flashed with worry as he stared at the situation here. Although he had joined the Myriad Devil Islands for cultivation and comprehended the devil arts from the Myriad Ancient Devil Hall. His heart was still filled with the Askheart Temple.

"Clearly you are planning to fight a grand battle yet Jiang Zihua still speaks so politely. Such a hypocrisy. Either he is truly a transcendent being or he is a great villain. From my perspective, he is most probably a villain." Bujie spoke. The devil cultivators beside him glanced at him. One of them laughed, "But on the contrary, I feel Jiang Zihua exhibits the manner of a gentleman, exuding extraordinariness and elegance."

"You guys only cultivate devil arts, how can your judgement be as good as someone like me who has cultivate both the buddha and devil path? Both of them obtained the buddha dao element and only one would remain eventually. The price the other has to pay might very well be death. In such a situation, would you be polite to your opponent?" Bujie laughed as he questioned.

"Naturally I wouldn't. If I was the one, I would directly start the battle and kill off my opponent." That devil cultivator replied.

"That's right then. When things don't go according to logic, something strange must be going on. Clearly only one of them can remain at the end, yet Jiang Zihua still feigned civility in such a situation. If he isn't a villain, what is he?" Bujie's voice was filled with contempt, as though Jiang Zihua had offended him before. The devil cultivator at the side merely laughed but didn't argue further. He naturally could tell that Bujie seemed extremely unhappy with Jiang Zihua. This might be because of Jiang Zihua's opponent, a monk from the Askheart Temple. After all, Bujie was from the Askheart Temple.

As they spoke, Jiang Zihua and the reverend already started fighting. Both of them cultivated in buddha energy and comprehended buddhic innate techniques and arts, receiving the inheritance of the same dao element. Jiang Zihua's buddha techniques had unparalleled power, and contained a seemingly boundless transformation, with many other attacks mixed within. However, the reverend from the Askheart Temple defended purely with buddha techniques. The two of them clashed, their dhama idols warring against each other as well.

Qin Wentian was content to be a spectator. At this moment, there were actually thousands of figures of Jiang Zihua around the battlefield. Each of his clones contained a shocking amount of power and all of them chained their attacks together. What was even more terrifying was that the attacks launched by each clone, were actually a different type, but they could all miraculously fuse together, engulfing everything that stood in their way.

The reverend pressed his palms together. Boundless buddha energy flowed around him as ancient runes manifested. The sound of buddhic chants filled the air as a giant ancient buddha appeared, blasting out with its giant palm, breaking apart all attacks launched his way.

The powerful palm imprint shattered everything. But at this moment, Jiang Zihua stomped ferociously on the ground as his figure vanished completely without a trace. When he appeared again, he was already in the air, standing above the reverend. Buddhic light flared resplendently as a diamond vajra appeared, exuding waves of suppression that bore down against the reverend from the Askheart Temple. Even the spectators felt their hearts trembling when they saw this scene.

The reverend calmly chanted buddha sutras, as immovable as a mountain. His palms glowed with a faint golden light. The buddha beads he was holding shattered as the golden buddhic light enveloped him completely, helping him to withstand the pressure. The force boring down on him was so great that the earth around him cracked, forming a rough pattern resembling a spider web.

"Bang, bang, bang…" His buddha beads exploded one by one, releasing an intense brilliance. Everywhere the reverend stepped, a golden dao lotus bloomed. Their petals converged together to form a sword capable of slaying evil, slashing out at Jiang Zihua as his physical body launched an attack as well.

However, Jiang Zihua's movements were like the shadows, he evaded everything and was still in the airspace directly above the reverend. He smiled and said, "Reverend, please be careful."

As the sound of his voice faded, thunderous explosions rang out as more diamond vajras manifested, locking down this entire space with the overwhelming suppressive pressure, launching countless attacks at the reverend from the Askheart Temple.

"BOOM!" A moment later, thousands of giant palms erupted forward in all directions, blasting against the diamond vajras. However, this attack was clearly insufficient.

The diamond vajras continued pressing in, sealing the space around him. The reverend could only chant buddha sutras with his palms pressed together. The remainder of his buddha beads all exploded at this moment, giving off a radiance that completely covered him, granting him an indestructible dharma idol and body, allowing the attacks to hit him. He was as immovable as a mountain and only wished to be connected to buddha for all eternity.

"Reverend, please forgive this junior for my offense." Jiang Zihua calmly spoke. An instant later, an illusory scene appeared. Countless incredibly alluring maidens appeared, oozing charm and charisma, as they started to dance, imprinting their images into the reverend's mind. These maidens were born from an illusion, yet they seemed more real than reality. They stripped off their clothing piece by piece, charming to the extreme.

Even for spectators, they felt their hearts being stirred profoundly when they saw such a scene. This illusionary technique seemingly has the power to turn into reality, mesmerizing the hearts of people.

"Is this also a buddhic art?" Bujie shouted, his expression turned cold.

"All innate techniques and arts share the same origin source. Powder and rouge might as well be powder from bones." Jiang Zihua replied. The reverend from the Askheart Temple nodded, "Well said, powder and rouge might as well be powder from bones. My dao heart shall not be shaken."

Although he spoke with determination, these maidens soon started dancing more provocatively, exuding incomparable charm and beauty as they danced closer and closer to the reverend. Many of the spectators felt their control slipping as they stared at the mesmerizing dance. They understood that Jiang Zihua wanted to break the reverend's dao heart.

"Despicable!" Bujie roared. Qin Wentian glanced at Bujie. Seems like the emotions of this fellow towards the Askheart Temple were still as before.

Finally, a clear sound rang out. Cracks began to appear on the indestructible dharma idol of the reverend from the Askheart Temple. The reverend's body itself also started to crack apart, causing fresh blood to flow. However, he was still immovable as a mountain as the buddhic chants from his mouth continued unabated.

"Cease-fire!" Bujie roared in anger and stepped forward. The devil cultivators beside him all started but soon recovered as they followed him. After all, Bujie had transcendent status in their Myriad Ancient Devil Hall.

"What are you guys planning to do?" The experts from the Jiang Clan stepped out and obstructed their path. Jiang Ziyu was among them, he coldly spoke, "This is a battle between both characters who stand at the peak. Even the monks from the Askheart Temple didn't interfere. What are you devil cultivators interfering for?"

"KILL!" How could Bujie give a damn about so much? He directly waved his hand and issued the kill command. After speaking, he took the initiative and punched out towards Jiang Ziyu. He, Bujie, has cultivated both the devil and buddha path. Why would he care so much about rules when he does things? He shall simply fight if he needs to fight.

"Bujie, there's no need to interfere." That reverend spoke. Clearly, he was acquainted with Bujie. However, injuries soon appeared on his body, and they grew even heavier.

"Master!" Bujie called out, causing the hearts of all the devil cultivators from the Myriad Ancient Devil Hall to tremble, finally understanding why.

Qin Wentian's heart trembled as well. So it turned out that this reverend was none other than Bujie's master.

Chapter 1515: Unrivalled in the City of Ancient Emperors

Jiang Zihua and the reverend's battle continued. Qin Wentian glanced at them. If this continued on, Bujie's master might very well be killed by Jiang Zihua.

"Jiang Zihua, we all came from the immortal realms. Although we are contending against each other in the City of Ancient Emperors, victory and defeat are already clear. There's no need to kill one another." Qin Wentian spoke, instantly indicating his stance. His intent was clear, he wanted Jiang Zihua to stop attacking the reverend from the Askheart Temple.

Since this was Bujie's master, he naturally couldn't act like he didn't see this,

"Brother Qin, I and the reverend received the inheritance from the same dao element." Jiang Zihua calmly spoke. Qin Wentian naturally understood his meaning. Between the two, one must fall for sure.

"Even if it's the same dao element, there's no need to take his life." Qin Wentian spoke. However, the reverend merely pressed his palms together, resembling an ancient mountain, as immovable as a mountain despite his injuries. He calmly stated, "Dao friend Qin, this old monk is filled with gratitude for your kindness. It's just that this is my battle, I will settle things myself."

Qin Wentian glanced at the reverend, and the numerous cracks on his dharma idol. He then asked, "Reverend, why do you have to persist?"

"If I don't enter hell, how can I see through the true meaning of the buddha path? This, is my path." The buddhic light from the reverend intensified, as though he was about to enter nirvana.

"Master!" Bujie called out loudly. "Qin Wentian, help me out!"

Qin Wentian was truly put in a difficult position. Originally, he wanted to interfere but the reverend himself told him not to. In addition, the reverend's tone was calm and given his current cultivation base, there's no question that his state of heart is already transcendent. Since this is the case, his resolve must be extremely tough and he has long seen through the mortal coils.

"Silly boy, don't speak nonsense. Your dao is of freedom, so act according to your desires. Now that you have entered the devil-path, do well and comprehend more things. Don't allow the dust of the mortal world to stain your carefree heart." The reverend added.

Jiang Zihua then laughed, "Reverend's cultivation is truly supreme. I, Jiang, cannot hold a candle to you."

Although he said this, his attacks grew even more ferocious, wanting to kill the reverend from Askheart Temple.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with coldness. But a moment later, the radiance from the reverend grew so intense to the point where one couldn't open their eyes. He merged as one with the buddhic light, transforming into a beam that shot up into the clouds. The resplendent lamp above him grew even brighter, and a buddhic relic – a sarira, appeared inside it.

"MASTER!" Bujie howled. Devil light illuminated the area around him as numerous devils manifested, brimming with a powerful will as they rushed towards Jiang Zihua.

"This is my path. Bujie, there's no need to feel sad. We will see each other again." A voice rang out from within the lamp, incomparably ethereal. After that, as the light of the lamp faded, the lamp also vanished into the void. Bujie thought back to the memories of his childhood as he felt his heart bleeding blood, filled with extreme sorrow. He was an orphan and was extremely mischievous when he was young. He encountered his master who brought him into the Askheart Temple, nurturing him, bringing him up, showing kindness and imparting the buddha dao to him.

Jiang Zihua inclined his head and bowed slightly, "Reverend's cultivation base has reached a height that's far above me. I, Jiang, truly feel regret."

"Brother Jiang's strength really made me impressed. Right now, the supreme characters at the peak are contending for number one. Why don't I use this opportunity to test Brother Jiang's capabilities?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, boundless law energies circulated around him as devil intent soared up into the skies. This made the experts in the surroundings tremble as they froze.

Qin Wentian was planning to act against Jiang Zihua. Seems like he was very unhappy that Jiang Zihua didn't listen to his request. This was clearly an act of revenge. As expected, those who are strong are wilful indeed.

Jiang Zihua's eyes flashed with a strange light. However, before he could say anything, Qin Wentian directly slammed out a palm attack. The might of this devil palm seemed unending and boundless, like that of a devil god, containing a fearsome destructive power within. The terrifying pagoda holy will was infused within as well, when the palm slammed forth, it had the power to collapse everything.

Right now, Jiang Zihua basically didn't have any choice to choose. Qin Wentian directly acted, he had to fight even if he didn't want to fight.

Buddhic light shone from him as many ancient buddhas appeared around him. All of them unleashed buddha palm attacks in retaliation.

The gigantic devil palm slammed forth with unmatched momentum, easily shattering those buddha palm attacks, arriving before Jiang Zihua. Jiang Zihua folded ancient hand seals as a golden buddha statue appeared before him.

With an explosive bang, the statue slammed out two giant palm attacks, clashing with the devil palm imprint, finally causing Qin Wentian's attack to disintegrate.

Jiang Zihua then transformed into countless clones as a resplendent buddhic light enveloped everything. His true body vanished, and at this moment, an overwhelming pressure could be felt above Qin Wentian's head.

A boundless buddha might cascaded down, boring down on this entire area. Qin Wentian glanced up, his sword holy will transformed into a towering sword qi river, capable of slashing everything apart. At the same time, Jiang Zihua suddenly felt himself entering another space. Over here, he stood alone in the air, with countless figures of Qin Wentian surrounding him.

His eyes gleamed, shining with buddha light, wanting to see through all illusions. In reality, his true body appeared and descended downwards, wanting to slay the true body of Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's body radiated a bloody light as his blood protection avatar appeared, transforming into the form of a Xuanwu, infused with the vajra holy will. Despite Jiang Zihua's powerful attacks, he was as immovable as a mountain.

In the dreamscape, the countless figures of Qin wentian surrounded Jiang Zihua, each of them launching palm strikes, causing the sky to be blotted out.

Jiang Zihua transformed into countless clones, launching out buddha techniques in deterrence. After that, a bright light flashed as he vanished into the void. When he reappeared again, he was already extremely far away. However, this was useless in the dreamscape. No matter how far he ran to, Qin Wentian could instantly appear beside him in an instant. The pagoda law domain gushed forth, enveloping the entire dreamscape.

At this instant, the spectators saw a strange scene. After Jiang Zihua's attacks in reality failed, he returned back to his original location. Right now, he was very far away from Qin Wentian but he was frenziedly launching out attacks and defending himself while Qin Wentian stood unmovingly, simply radiating law energy.

At this moment, Qin Wentian also moved, shuttling through space, directly moving towards Jiang Zihua. He slammed out with a punch, sweeping through everything. Jiang Zihua's countenance drastically changed, he could feel how much pressure Qin Wentian's other opponents were under when they were facing this double-layer combat.

With a thunderous boom, the giant buddha statue shattered. Jiang Zihua was forced back, as he coughed out several mouthfuls of blood.

However, Qin Wentian also ceased his attacks. He stood arrogantly in the air, coldly regarding Jiang Zihua.

“It was just a friendly spar between us. Brother Jiang wouldn’t mind it, right?” Qin Wentian coldly spoke, domineering referring to the matter before this, where Jiang Zihua didn’t stop the fight against the reverend.

Jiang Zihua’s heart turned cold but there was no expression on his face. He then smiled at Qin Wentian, “Brother Qin’s strength is truly extraordinary. No one in the City of Ancient Emperors can contend against you. I, Jiang Zihua, am truly impressed.”

The spectators all felt shocked in their hearts. They also felt that what Jiang Zihua said was true. In the City of Ancient Emperors, Qin Wentian already had no opponents. Since his identity as the Saber-Sword Immortal King was exposed, he no longer had any trepidations and unleashed his full strength. No one could contend against him. He could deal with whoever he wanted to deal with.

Before this, Qin Wentian told Jiang Zihua to stop but Jiang Zihua refused to. Hence, Qin Wentian directly acted against him, injuring him to humiliate him. How domineering was this? If it wasn’t because the reverend from the Askheart Temple told him not to interfere, most probably, Qin Wentian would already have killed Jiang Zihua.

“Brother Jiang praises me too much.” Qin Wentian calmly spoke, he directly flicked his sleeves and departed. At this moment, the experts from the Jiang Clan and the Myriad Ancient Devil Hall had already stopped fighting. They glanced over at Qin Wentian, the people from the Jiang Clan all had unsightly looks on their faces. Jiang Ziyu also had a complicated expression on his face. Back then when he first met with Qin Wentian, it was in the Southern Phoenix Clan. At that time, Qin Wentian was helping Nanfeng Yunxi to compete for the position of holy successor while he was helping out another holy maiden.

At that time, Qin Wentian’s cultivation base was inferior to him. But now, at the immortal king realm, no one in the entire Jiang Clan was able to hold a candle to Qin Wentian. As for he himself, he was already long surpassed by Qin Wentian.

“Bujie, the reverend has already clearly stated his will. I can’t very well flout it. Also, he did say that you guys would meet each other again. I believe that he didn’t really die.” Qin Wentian consoled Bujie.

“Mhm.” Bujie nodded. He could understand where Qin Wentian was coming from. But still, he couldn’t help but to feel hurt when he saw his master vanishing under the attacks of Jiang Zihua. He could only hope that his master didn’t lie to him and they would see each other again in the future.

There are many secret techniques of the buddha path that ordinary people couldn’t comprehend. There are some that enables the user to cultivate a sarira, some that even allowed the user to be reincarnated into the next lifetime. It was highly possible that Bujie’s master didn’t really ‘die.’

In the other direction, the experts from the Beast God Sect thoroughly annihilated the demons from the nether race. Their strength caused many to feel shock in their hearts. Right now, only three more characters had the opportunity to challenge Qin Wentian. The supreme character from the Beast God Sect, and the two other supreme devil cultivators from the devil mountain. In fact, that two other devil cultivators have not made a move since the beginning at all.

“Brother Qin, if there’s a chance, head back to the devil mountain for a walk.” The Grand Apostle smiled at him. Qin Wentian glanced over and nodded his head, “Sure, I will head there if I get a chance to.”

“Farewell.” The apostle departed. The supreme character from the Judiciary Hall cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian. He didn’t have any intentions to act either. He turned and walked towards the direction where the devil cultivators of the Judiciary Devil Hall were at.

As for the supreme expert from the Beast God Sect, he was already satisfied at having hunted down the supreme nether demon. He didn’t say anything and directly led the other experts from the Beast God Sect away.

No one else challenged Qin Wentian again. For this gathering for those at the peak, he alone reigned supreme over the others. No one could rival him.

“I really didn’t expect that he would actually be the one.” Before this, many people didn’t expect that the ending would be this.

As for Qin Wentian’s enemies, their eyes flickered with coldness. This gathering was truly a failure. Not only did they fail to kill Qin Wentian, he even ascertained his position, standing at the very peak of the City of Ancient Emperors. From now on, no one else would dare to easily make a move against him, unless he exits the City of Ancient Emperors!

Chapter 1516: Calamity

Countless people came here to spectate this battle at the very peak. Finally, Qin Wentian’s magnificence knew no bounds, no one could rival him. It was just that there were still many people who doubted if he could become a supreme character that also stands at the peak of the immortal realms.

Although many experts in the city had conflicts with each other, no one else was like Qin Wentian, who repeatedly offended so many major powers in addition to his earlier grudge of the eastern regions. It was unknown how many wanted him to die. Even in this city, there were already plenty of people who sought to kill him. It was just that none of them dared to act now and chose to remain hidden.

From the three perspectives of immortal, devil, demon, this time around, the devil cultivators didn’t really act. Demons suffered the most losses because all of them fought against Qin Wentian and were defeated. After that, the supreme character of the Beast God Sect even hunted that supreme nether demon.

Staring at the arrogant figure in the air, many people had different thoughts in their hearts. There were too many people in the City of Ancient Emperors who knew of Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian didn’t leave immediately. His eyes flickered as he stared at certain directions. Occasionally, cold gleams could be seen in his eyes, and those who were stared at by him, all felt their hearts trembling.

Among these people, many of them tried to make a move against Qing'er when his identity was exposed. That void beast wanted to use Qing'er to threaten him, causing the hearts of many to stir with greed. Although they didn’t really act it out, they had the impulse to do so and Qin Wentian noticed it. What’s more, many of these people had grudges with him.

Hence, right now he was considering if he should kill them all or not.

After contemplating for some time, Qin Wentian didn’t act immediately. His figure flashed and he arrived beside Qing`er.

Qing`er bitterly glanced at him. Although she had seen Qin Wentian’s unparalleled strength, she was still worried for him. After exiting the City of Ancient Emperors, Qin Wentian would definitely face a calamity, a great one at that.

However, she didn’t say anything much. She quietly walked to his side and held his hand. Regardless of what calamity he had to face, she would endure it together with him.

Qin Wentian could sense the warmth in Qing`er’s hand. He gently smiled at her and stroked her hair, everything was clear even without needing words.

“Senior brother Qin, this time around you are truly in the limelight. I wonder how many people will be jealous of you and how many beauties would throw themselves into your arms.” Jun Mengchen walked over as he laughed. This caused Qin Wentian to glare at him. Jun Mengchen sneakily glanced at Qing`er before rubbing his head, “Naturally, none of them would be comparable to sis-in-law.”

More and more figures sped over, appearing beside Qin Wentian as they transmitted their voices, “Lord.”

Qin Wentian glanced at them, they were none other than the experts from the Battle Saint Tribe who came to the City of Ancient Emperors for training. This time, they came here to observe the battle too, but they didn’t expect to run into their Saint Lord, Qin Wentian, here.

Right now, they finally understood why Qin Wentian could become their Saint Lord. Back then when he first entered their realm, he had just broken through to the immortal king level. But now, he was already unrivaled in the entire immortal king realm.

“Not bad, all of you have great improvements.” Qin Wentian smiled at them. All of them were present, not one of them have fallen and their strengths had clearly improved.

The experts from the Battle Saint Tribe were proficient in forming many battle formations. As long as they stuck together, it wouldn’t be an easy task to deal with them.

“Wentian gege.” A clear voice drifted over. The judiciary priestess Bai Qing walked over. She took off the judiciary crown on her head as her inky black hair flowed down like a waterfall. Her lanky figure and her pure and flawless countenance, was truly a beautiful sight to behold.

“Little Qing.” Qin Wentian smiled and walked up, rubbing her on her head with a gentleness in his eyes.

Bai Qing smiled sweetly. That year after Qin Wentian left the Myriad Devil Islands, she personally sent Qin Wentian away. At that time, she believed that it would be extremely difficult for them to meet again in this lifetime.

Upon seeing Qing'er walking over, Bai Qing turned to face her. A strange light flashed in her beautiful eyes, after that, when she saw Qin Wentian’s gentle look in her eyes when he looked at Qing'er, she also called out, “Elder sister Qing`er.”

When they were in the particle world, she had once participated with Qin Wentian and Qing`er in the Heavenly Fate Rankings, and were acquainted with her.

“Mhm, little sister Qing, our names are truly similar.” Qing`er who had always been solemn and cold, actually smiled at Bai Qing. She lightly spoke, “Your big brother Wentian always mentioned about you. He does miss you alot.”

“Wentian gege, is this true?” Bai Qing had a radiant smile on her face.

“Of course it’s true. I’ve always missed my little sister.” Qin Wentian’s skin grew thicker as he laughed loudly. It was true that he had missed her, but he had never mentioned Bai Qing before Qing'er at all. However, although Qing'er told a lie, it was a white one and caused Qin Wentian to feel warmth in his heart. Qing`er was trying to accept the people around him, taking the responsibility of a wife. Considering her personality, it might be quite difficult for her to do so.

Jun Mengchen, who was at the side, kept rolling his eyes. The two beauties stood around Qin Wentian, both of them were extremely pleasing to the eye but for some reason, as an outsider he kept feeling as though the atmosphere was somewhat strange.

“Qin Wentian.” An icy voice suddenly rang out. Qin Wentian turned about only to see the disciple of Matriarch Ji, Immortal King Junyi, glaring at him. He couldn’t help but to smile awkwardly as he greeted, “Immortal King Junyi.”

The disciples of Matriarch Ji also turned to Junyi, feeling worried that she might not be able to think straight. Even Qing`er felt a little nervous.

“Haha…” But at this moment, Immortal King Junyi suddenly laughed. A beautiful smile was on her face as she faced Qin Wentian. “You truly have swindled us badly. Clearly, your little lover is before your eyes yet you still act as though you are a secret admirer of hers. Aren’t you tired?”

Everyone set their hearts at ease when they saw Immortal King Junyi’s attitude. Qin Wentian also laughed, “It can’t be helped. If my identity was exposed then, I would be killed just from the stares of my enemies alone. You should be able to understand after seeing the situation today. If it wasn’t for the fact that I have enough strength, I would have definitely died today.”

“Hmph, since this is the case, I shall force myself to forgive you then. In the future, you are not allowed to bully my junior sister Qing`er or I shall not spare you.” Immortal Junyi skipped over all the awkward matters before and smiled while she teased Qin Wentian.

“How would I dare to? It would be wonderful if Qing'er doesn’t bully me.” Qin Wentian shrugged, glancing at Qing'er. When Qing`er saw that her senior sister was okay, her smile grew even more radiant after that.

“Alright, we should leave soon. I’m not really used to so many people in the surroundings staring at me.” Qin Wentian laughed. Only now did they realize that all the spectators who had yet to leave, were staring in their direction. Qin Wentian was simply too dazzling, attracting the attention of others.

Everyone nodded. After that, they all soared into the air and left the area. The spectators glanced at their backs, having a thousand thoughts in their minds. This unrivalled character in the City of Ancient Emperors, would he live long enough to ascend to the very peak of the immortal realms?

Most probably, things wouldn’t be so easy.

Xu Qingyao was among the spectators. Her beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian’s back as she sighed silently in her heart. The Saber-Sword Immortal King was actually Qin Wentian!

All the spectators respectively departed. The experts from the Violet Mountain gathered together, exchanging mutual glances. One of them then spoke, “Master’s orders seem impossible to complete. What should we do?”

“Since he is Qin Wentian, this grudge between him and our master has already been festering for a long time. Since it is impossible for us to kill him in the City of Ancient Emperors, we can only report this information up to master.” A person replied. The others nodded as all of them started to leave the area.

The other spectators also left. Although many people in the city wanted to kill Qin Wentian, none of them truly dared to act.

Qin Wentian and his group came to the peak of an ancient mountain. Many people gathered here, creating a very lively atmosphere.

Qin Wentian glanced at his good friends beside him, feeling gratified in his heart.

“Qin Wentian, this time around you’ve offended most of the major powers. The moment you exit the city, there would definitely be a large number of immortal emperors wanting to kill you.” A maiden from the Southern Phoenix Clan reminded. Back then, Qin Wentian already created a gigantic storm of commotion in the eastern regions. It was only because there were powerful emperors backing him, resulting in the storm of commotion being resolved. But now, even if he had some emperors backing him, their strength would definitely be insufficient. Even if their Southern Phoenix Matriarch stood behind him, it would still be useless.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded.

“Senior brother, before this there were many who wished to kill you here. But after your identity was exposed, many people actually prepared to act against sis-in-law to threaten you. After the battle, why didn’t you look for them and take revenge?” Jun Mengchen asked.

“I’ve considered this matter. Since we have already offended them, it would be good if we execute them all, saving ourselves future trouble by weakening the strength of the major powers. However, doing so would surely completely enraged all the major powers and might implicate the innocent people around me. Hence, I decided to spare them for now.” Qin Wentian glanced at his friends around him. The eyes of the others flashed as they sighed in their hearts. At this moment, how could they fail to understand what Qin Wentian was referring to?

He formed many grudges but Qin Wentian still hoped that if his enemies wanted to do something, they would set their targets solely onto him and wouldn’t implicate the people around him. Hence, he decided to spare those people. If not, if Qin Wentian didn't give a damn, he would surely make rivers of blood flow in the City of Ancient Emperors. At that time, it would be unknown how many immortal kings would die.

"It's alright. I didn't make a move against them and at the very least, inside the city, no one else would dare to make a move against you guys." Qin Wentian smiled. "We shall spare them temporarily. If I really die after we leave the city, things can't be helped. But if I can survive the calamity, these people need not dream about surviving any longer."

The expressions of everyone turned solemn, they could sense a sorrow in Qin Wentian's words. Clearly, Qin Wentian himself also understood that the chances of him surviving the incoming calamity was close to nil.

"Senior brother, you will be fine for sure. We still have to conquer the immortal realms together and ascend to the peak." Jun Mengchen spoke. Qin Wentian nodded and smiled, "That's right, we have to do that together."

"Me as well, me as well!" Little Rascal stretched his head out and spoke in a juvenile voice. Qin Wentian directly aimed a slap at him, "If you know things are serious, hurry up and work hard at your cultivation. Stop fooling around and taking advantage of poor innocent females every day or I might feel the itch to cripple your privates."

Little Rascal trembled and leapt towards Qing`er, standing on her shoulder. His little paw then slapped himself reassuring on his chest, "You almost frightened this baobao to death."

"Hahaha…" Everyone started laughing when they saw this comical scene, dulling the worry in their hearts.

Many people then started to silently make a vow in their hearts. They had to grow stronger and not allow Qin Wentian to come to any harm. But when they thought about the major powers of the immortal realms who stood at the peak, they couldn't help but to feel how tiny and inconsequential they were. What they needed now was time!

Chapter 1517: Annihilation of a Race

The City of Ancient Emperors still continued to have different storms of commotion. However, the commotions all failed to exceed the one caused by the battle of the supreme characters standing at the peak.

At that time, all the supreme characters gathered and after the battle, Qin Wentian's name resounded famously through the entire City of Ancient Emperors, even spreading out to the immortal realms, causing the vast majority of people in the immortal realms to know of his name. After that battle, Qin Wentian could be said to be a god in the City of Ancient Emperors. It would be tough for anyone to surpass him after that.

Inside the City of Ancient Emperors, the dao elements caused the strength of many to improve as they achieved a transformation.

Time continued flowing by silently. To the immortal kings of the vast immortal realms, even a hundred years was a time period that could pass in the blink of an eye. A majority of them were stellar martial cultivators who had several thousand years of cultivation history and there were even some who exceeded tens of thousands of years. In addition, most of these people couldn't be considered characters with outstanding talent from the major powers.

Another eight years passed. The City of Ancient Emperors finally produced an immortal emperor at the immortal king dimension. This exceeded the expectations of many people. This man, was actually none other than the reverend who 'died' in the battle against Jiang Zihua back then, the master of Bujie. There were many who witnessed him breaking into the immortal emperor realm as the commotion caused was very large.

Today, boundless buddhic light flashed in the sky, cascading down from the heavens, landing on a desolate area. This light was too dazzling, attracting the attention of countless experts. They saw the reverend that was killed by Jiang Zihua, reviving from the dead. The buddhic light converged together, reforming his body. And an instant later, a wave of energy covered him as he disappeared completely from this dimension.

The laws of the city were very clear. Once one broke through to the emperor realm, they could not stay here any longer.

After Bujie got the news, he was extremely excited. As expected of his master. Seems like the battle against Jiang Zihua, although it looked like Jiang Zihua had won, no one was clear who the ultimate victor was since the reverend entered the immortal emperor realm.

Many experts in the city also felt this way. Seems like the competition for dao elements might very well extend to the emperor realm. It was too early to say who was victorious and who was not.

Several years passed again. The second immortal emperor was born. But this time, the immortal emperor wasn’t one of the supreme characters who stood at the peak. It was a nameless cultivator from the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire who wasn’t that famous. He had been stuck at the peak of the immortal king realm for a very long time.

This cause many to have hope in their hearts, there was no need to stare up at those characters at the peak. Their combat prowess might be strong but they might not be able to enter the emperor realm so quickly. For example, Qin Wentian hasn’t even stepped into the peak-phase of the immortal king realm. In fact, he was only at the initial-phase of the peak-stage. But just by observing his cultivation base, would you dare to gauge him as a weakling?

For many experts with supreme combat prowess, they might not even be able to reach the peak-phase of the peak-stage of the immortal king realm. They still needed much time before they had a chance to step into the immortal emperor realm.

More and more immortal emperors appeared. Naturally, more and more extraordinary individuals also appeared. There were even some of these people who wanted to challenge those supreme few standing at the peak.

But as for those supreme few, they had almost disappeared from the vision of the crowd. Maybe, all of them were silently contemplating the radiance from the dao elements, searching for more insights to aid them in breaking through to the immortal emperor realm in the future.

Time flew past. Many people were already unclear how many years it has been since that battle to determine the hegemon who stood at the absolute peak. Right now on an ancient mountain, brilliant sun rays cascaded down, incomparably resplendent.

This place was the cultivation place for the golden sun crows. It belonged to them and nobody dared to take a step onto this mountain.

Everyone, regardless of demons from the desolate mountains or humans from the immortal realms, all knew of their domineering attitudes.

However, today, there was someone who came to this region and that person even stepped into the cultivation grounds of the golden sun crows.

This man was robed in white. He had a lanky figure and a handsome appearance. His long hair flowed down his shoulders, incomparably carefree. His eyes were like the abyss, immeasurably deep.

This figure silently stood beneath the mountain, allowing the waves of heat to gushed towards him. He simply stood with his hands behind his back and calmly regarded everything before him, as though he was waiting to see something.

“Who?” At this moment, a resplendent light flashed as the temperature instantly elevated. A terrifying greater demon appeared, bathed in flames and there seemed to be a giant sun behind his back. His body gleamed golden, it was unknown how strong his defense was.

“It’s you!” After he saw that man, his lofty eyes flashed with a terrifying killing intent as sun flames erupted forth from his eyes, wanting to incinerate this person.

The young man in white continued standing there, his immeasurably deep eyes calmly regarding everything. In this instant, a terrifying light gleamed in his eyes, as a spiral could be seen within. His eyes no longer seemed like eyes, but was like the cycle of samsara, the reincarnation of an entire world. With just a glance, people who looked at him would sink within, unable to extricate themselves.

The sun flames in the eyes of the demon gradually ceased, turning dull and lusterless. After that, it was like he encountered something extremely terrifying. His eyes were suddenly filled with fear as he started trembling madly. His wings opened up as he sought to flee, creating thunderous sounds in the air. The body of the golden crow that was bathed in flames, haphazardly flew about, smashing himself into a mountain, clearly in a state of panic.

The crow let out screams of misery, creating a huge scene. Numerous other golden sun crows appeared, staring with shock at their clansman.

“What are you doing? Stop now!” One of the crows roared, speaking in their language. However, that golden sun crow continued rushing into mountains, injuring himself heavily. Finally, amidst the screams of misery, his wings were finally torn apart. He could no longer control the flames around his body and his entire being began to be incinerated. A few moments later, he exploded, turning into a shower of flames and blood.

The other demons from the golden sun race stared dumbfoundedly at this sight. They completely had no idea why this happened.

A moment later, they seemed to have sensed something and turned their gazes towards a direction, staring at the young man in white. An instant later, their killing intent all erupt forth.

“You are the one who did that?” A demon coldly asked. With a flash of his silhouette, he directly appeared before the white-robed young man.

“That year, we didn’t hunt you down after you killed some of our clansman. You actually still dare to return here?”

“KILL!” Numerous golden sun crows reverted to their true forms, floating in the air. All of them unleashed their law domains, combining the effect, enveloping the young man in white. However, he still seemed as calm as ever, standing there with his hands behind his back. His samsara-like eyes continued spinning, staring at these greater demons.

In an instant, many of the crows trembled. A moment later, the look in their eyes changed, losing their spirit and luster. Their expressions were all different. It was like each of these golden sun crows was currently experiencing a different sight.

However, the ending was the same for most. As long as their cultivation base wasn't at the peak-stage, they would instantly fall within the illusion and descend into madness, even starting to slaughter their companions in an incomparably violent manner. They had completely forgotten about who they were and their allegiance. Only madness remained in their minds.

What was more terrifying was that none of them knew that they had already lost all sanity.

Only the strongest among them was still struggling bitterly, their bodies trembling violently. One of the peak-phase peak-stage powerful golden sun crows could still maintain the clearness of his mind. He glanced at the slaughter around him as he roared in rage, wanting to wake his clansman from the madness. However, it was useless no matter what he did.

"What did you do to them?" That powerful greater demon howled madly.

The young man was as though he didn't hear the question. He looked at the demon, "Now, do you guys feel regret for killing her?"

"I have no idea what happened. Quickly stop what you are doing!" This peak-stage demon king roared.

"You have no idea?" The look on the young man's face was as calm as ever. So calm that it was terrifying.

"You have no idea. But after you demons learned of it, not one of you regretted your actions and continued hunting her down. Since this is the case, let the golden sun race vanish from the City of Ancient Emperors today, and vanish from the immortal realms in the future." The young man calmly spoke, like he was speaking of a very insignificant matter. His tone was so emotionless, so terrifying.

"Bzz~" His eyes turned even more terrifying. Those peak-stage demon kings also started to descend to madness. And finally, the peak-phase peak-stage crow conversing with him could no longer control himself. He saw a different scene in his mind, and each of the things he experienced in his mind felt so incomparably real.

He didn't experience too much because his life was ended by a silver spear that pierced through his head.

The white-robed young man then walked passed the corpse, he didn't linger nor look back. There were still other golden crows that were struggling bitterly, still alive. However, their fates were already sealed.

He climbed to the peak of the mountain. Over here, that supreme greater demon, the golden sun crow who once issued the invitation for all supreme characters at the peak to gather, was cultivating here. The eyes of the golden sun crow snapped open, revealing a towering killing intent, causing people who were extremely far away to clearly feel it. Countless people stared in the direction of the mountain, wondering what was happening there.

Many experts rushed here, as waves of emotions rose in their hearts. Finally, did someone challenge one of the supreme experts standing at the peak?

Not too long after, the violent intense energy waves dissipated. When the first of the crowd arrived here. His body trembled violently as he stared at the surroundings in disbelief.

He inclined his head, only to see a young man in white slowly walking away, exuding a sense of extreme carefreeness.

That person shuddered. After the white-robed young man departed, he directly rushed up to the peak of the mountain. The sun flames have already ceased, and when he arrived, his body trembled even more intensely as his legs grew soft.

Before his eyes, that supreme golden sun crow who once stood at the peak, laid on the ground helplessly. The head of the golden sun crow was cut off and tossed to a corner. His eyes were still wide open, as he died with an intense grievance!

Chapter 1518: The Dao You Cultivate Becoming a Dao Element

In the City of Ancient Emperors, the sun gold race was completely wiped out.

In fact, even that supreme existence died. The fire burning at the peak of the sun mountains ceased, it would never light up again.

Today, countless experts appeared at the peak of the sun mountain. When they saw the headless corpse of the gigantic body of the supreme gold sun crow, all of them felt a shock from the depths of their soul.

This, was the City of Ancient Emperors. This was the brand new era? With the rise of geniuses, elites among them would definitely be born. And for those who rose up, they were destined to trample upon the bones of others? How many supreme characters would share the fate of the golden sun crow? Being beheaded as his blood flowed down the mountain, dying the mountain path a bright golden.

This might very well be one of the best eras, but it would also be one of the cruelest ones. Even if you are a legendary character, you might have a high chance to fall.

In the past, the Yama King was already an example. Now, the supreme demon from the sun gold race has died. In the future, would it be the current number one in the City of Ancient Emperors, Qin Wentian? Can he escape this calamity?

Who, would be able to tell for sure?

This tyrannical race of greater demons from the desolate mountains was completely annihilated in the span of a single day. Even the supreme greater demon with the most outstanding talent among them, was buried in the City of Ancient Emperors.

This news soon swept through the City of Ancient Emperors, shocking countless experts.

After Qin Wentian, another name circulated around. Everyone knew of this name. This man was also from the immortal realms but he wasn’t from any of the major powers. This man was an unaffiliated cultivator and had followed his master in cultivation. However, his master died in the hands of the golden sun crows. The fruit of the karma of back then, was finally sown.

Hua Taixu became a character on par with Qin Wentian in the span of a single day.

After the news of the gold sun race being completely exterminated, the other demons from the desolate mountains no longer dared to act so domineeringly in the City of Ancient Emperors. They were much more restrained in their behavior and no longer dared to kill humans so easily.

That year in the past, Qin Wentian defeated all the supreme greater demons. Today, Hua Taixu annihilated an entire race. These were like warnings to them, telling them that the humans of the immortal realms might be so powerful that they couldn't afford to antagonize them.

After learning of the news, Qin Wentian also felt shocked in his heart. Back then, the Myriad Manifestations Immortal King took Hua Taixu as her disciple. At that time, to them all, the Myriad Manifestations Immortal King was a high up and lofty existence. Never did he expect that she would eventually fall in love with Hua Taixu and would die in the City of Ancient Emperors. Her death clearly caused a great impact to Hua Taixu. For revenge, he annihilated an entire race. How imposing was that?

Today, on a huge rock of a certain mountain. Two humans sat facing each other, chatting as they drank wine.

One of them, although his aura was retracted, his eyes glowed with spirit. This person was Qin Wentian.

As for the other, he was dressed in white and had a very handsome appearance. His eyes were like the starry sky and this man was none other than the Grand Apostle of the Apostle Devil Hall.

"Qin Wentian, do you know that now, in the City of Ancient Emperors, everyone is comparing you with Hua Taixu as equals." The apostle laughed. The two of them seemed to be old friends, and were extremely casual.

They truly could be considered friends. During these years when Qin Wentian was cultivating here, the apostle would frequent here to chat and drink with him. They were long familiar with each other.

"Hua Taixu is naturally worthy, since he could annihilate an entire race of demons, including a supreme character at the peak. Even if the people of the city placed him above me, there's nothing strange about it." Qin Wentian laughed, he didn't really care for this at all. This was just illusory fame, what he wanted was true strength to deal with the incoming calamity.

"You are too humble. If my judgement isn't wrong, you should only be at the initial-phase of the peak-stage during the battle back then. Now, your cultivation has already reach the late-phase and your strength is incomparable to the past. If you can turn back time, that supreme golden sun crow most probably wouldn't even be able to withstand a single strike from you. If you personally act, you could also easily annihilate an entire race of demons." The apostle laughed.

"So what about it? You should know how many major powers I have offended. As long as I exit the city, I have to worry about my life. Right now, are the people of the city not discussing how long I can live for?" Qin Wentian smiled, as though he wasn't talking about himself.

“Calamities are determined by the heavens. If time can reverse and you know that your identity as the Saber-Sword Immortal King would be exposed. Would you offend less people?” The apostle asked.

“No.” Qin Wentian shook his head, there was no need even for him to contemplate the question. He long had an answer. The Paragon Sword Sect, the Skymist Immortal Empire, Zi Daolong and the rest all wanted his life. Even if he used his original identity to deal with them, he definitely wouldn’t have shown mercy as well. As for the Yama King of Senluo, he wanted him to kneel in apology and become his follower. Between the two of them, one had to die for sure, let alone for the fact that he also needed the boost in emperor’s fate. With regards to killing the demons of the three races, the demons started this by making a move on Qing`er and the Southern Phoenix Clan. Undoubtedly, this also made it so that between him and Jia Huangtian, only one could survive.

Everything, even if time was reversed, there would be no changes. Humans living in the immortal realms have no choice but to follow what fate dictates. Many things would always be out of your expectations. He had no regrets.

The apostle laughed after he heard Qin Wentian’s words. He lifted his wine cup and took a drink. “Hence, we shouldn’t dwell on matters of the past but should face what is going to happen in the future. One day, when you have no paths left to you, there’s still a place you can head to.”

Qin Wentian stared at him as he laughed, “The devil mountain?”

“That’s precisely it.” The apostle nodded. “You’ve obtained the inheritance of the Myriad Devil Sovereign. Although your current strength isn’t strong enough, but you should already be powerful enough to obtain the recognition from all the supreme devil halls. Although there might be some who outcast you due to your identity as an immortal realm cultivator, you needn’t care about them. From a certain perspective, since you obtained the Myriad Devil Sovereign’s inheritance, you are already considered his successor. The devil cultivators wouldn’t take the initiative to make a move against you. If you head to the devil mountain, no one in the immortal realms would dare to barge into the Myriad Devil Islands to hunt you down.”

“This is really a good suggestion.” Qin Wentian laughed. The immortal emperors of the immortal realms didn’t dare to enter the Myriad Devil Islands. Even though the era has changed, those immortal emperors most probably still wouldn’t dare to do so.

The apostle inclined his head, staring at the light cascading down from the air. He smiled, “Seems like you really plan not to accept the inheritances of any dao elements.”

“If I accept the inheritance of a dao element, I would be bound by the City of Ancient Emperors. Let alone the fact that even now, I still don’t fully understand what the dao elements entail. If I accept it, I might regret the consequences.” Qin Wentian inclined his head and calmly replied.

“That’s fine as well. The inheritance of the Myriad Devil Sovereign by itself should already surpass these dao elements.” The apostle laughed. Qin Wentian nodded. The inheritance of the Myriad Devil Sovereign was terrifying indeed. All devils had to submit before him. It was able to subdue all cultivators of the devil-path. But as to how strong it is exactly, he still had no idea now.

He also didn't know how strong the inheritances of the dao elements are. Hence, he couldn't make a good comparison.

"Let's not talk about this. Given your current cultivation base, I believe you shouldn't be too far from the immortal emperor realm. Do you have any insights?" The apostle asked again.

Qin Wentian shook his head, "The emperor realm is still extremely mysterious to me. I don't think it would be so easy for me to break through."

"It isn't that profound. After all, the king and emperor realm can be considered as one great realm. There isn't any qualitative evolution involved. It shouldn't be too hard to break through. Given your talent, when your cultivation level reaches the peak, things should flow naturally for you." The apostle seemed extremely confident in Qin Wentian.

From Celestial Phenomenon to Immortal-Foundation, that can be considered a qualitative evolution. Law energy would be birthed, as their immortal-foundations were established. From immortal-foundation to the immortal king realm, that is also a qualitative evolution. One's law energy would be saturated to the point where a body of laws is formed, they would also have access to more power, easily consolidating their law domains. However, in comparison, the immortal king level and immortal emperor level, are actually considered the same realm. It was just that immortal emperors had power far above immortal kings because they could form resonances with their astral constellations, borrowing the pure force of laws to infuse their bodies.

Although their strength would explosively increase, there was no change to the base. Hence, it cannot be considered a qualitative evolution.

"Let's hope so." Qin Wentian stared up at the sky.

The apostle glanced at him. He stood up and laughed, "People say that emperors are the masters and immortal kings are slaves to them. Although they belong to the same realm, the distance between them is immeasurable. But even so, I really want to see if you can slay immortal emperors while you are at the immortal king realm, given how extraordinary your combat prowess is."

"Emperors can resonate with their astral constellations in the nine heavenly layers. The amount of law energy they have access to is far superior to immortal kings. How difficult must it be for an immortal king to kill an immortal emperor." A gleam of sharpness flashed in Qin Wentian's eyes.

"It's difficult, but it doesn't mean that there's no hope. You yourself, are clearly hope itself." The apostle laughed. After that, his silhouette flashed as he directly soared into the air, departing the area. His voice drifted over with the wind, “Let alone the fact that since you know the basic abilities of immortal emperors, why don’t you try to comprehend some unique energy that can counter emperors?”

Qin Wentian glanced at the vanished figure. He then turned his glance to the light cascading down from the dao element in the sky. Qin Wentian soared into the air and directly basked himself in the radiance of the dao element. However, he didn’t accept the energy into his body and didn’t cultivate it. He merely quietly stood there, sensing it silently.

Below him, Qing`er appeared at the place where he was at earlier. She inclined her head and stared at his figure in the air. How handsome was Qin Wentian now? He was extremely dazzling and despite the resplendent radiance of the dao element, it wasn’t able to seize away the light belonging to Qin Wentian.

“Today, the radiance of the dao elements shine down on you. Who knows, there may come a time in the future where the dao you cultivate becomes a dao element.” Qing`er smiled sweetly as she murmured.

Chapter 1519: Facing the Calamity in his Stead

Qin Wentian just quietly cultivated in the City of Ancient Emperors, he had no idea of the commotion he caused in the external world.

Although everything happened inside the city, there always had been an unbreakable connection between the city and the external world. This was especially so after Qin Wentian's identity was exposed. How could his enemies spare him? The experts in the city instantly headed back to report to the immortal emperors.

Gradually, Qin Wentian's name resounded out not only in the City of Ancient Emperors solely.

In fact, even in the emperor-dimension of the city, a huge commotion was created as well.

Many emperors in the City of Ancient Emperors encountered attacks because the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord were within that group. Finally, they were forced to exit and return to the immortal realms.

However, things weren't at an end yet. Voices appeared in the immortal realms saying that Qin Wentian might keep hiding in the City of Ancient Emperors and refuse to exit. If one wanted to kill Qin Wentian, they had to start by acting against the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Of course, the main point was to act against the Evergreen Immortal Empire because everyone knew that the woman Qin Wentian loved, was none other than Evergreen Qing`er.

Because of such voices, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect had no choice but to disband. This was a helpless gesture for them. If the major powers really ganged up on the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, they would definitely be completely annihilated. They could only temporarily choose to disband.

Hence, the once the Thirteen Prefectures of Eastern Sage, entered an era where there was no one governing it. Countless experts contended against each other for power daily, plundering cultivation resources. After all, the strongest elites were all in the City of Ancient Emperors. This made it so that those second-tier third-tier experts, had a chance to do whatever they wanted.

However, although the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect could choose to disband, the Evergreen Immortal Empire was simply too vast and their foundations were already stable long ago. It wasn't so easy for them to disband just like that. Finally, the Evergreen Empire encountered attacks from experts of many major powers. There were even many emperors joining in, the ones leading the charge were none other than the other emperors of the eastern regions who participated in the war many years ago.

How could the Skymist Immortal Empire, Paragon Sword Sect, Taihua Immortal Dynasty, miss out on this godsent opportunity? They joined forces with those major powers who viewed Qin Wentian with hatred. The Senluo Immortal Empire, Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, and even emperors from the three demon races. The Evergreen Immortal Empire sent out an order for all the experts to come back and guard the empire. The situation could be ignited with a single spark, the atmosphere was incomparably tense.

And this was because many emperors were still in the City of Ancient Emperors and have yet to return. If not, the commotion would definitely be even larger. But even so, just this already caused the Evergreen Immortal Empire to feel an impending sense of doom.

Finally, these experts launched their attack. They slaughtered many experts from the Evergreen Immortal Empire and captured many important characters from the Evergreen Empire as hostages. Among them, the younger sister of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Princess Changping as well as her husband, the Crimson-Eye Marquis, were both captured.

And this was even after the major powers showed mercy. Many major powers in the eastern regions wanted the Evergreen Immortal Empire to disappear. However, there were many powers from the other regions who only wanted Qin Wentian and didn't wish to complicate things. Hence, they did this to give the Evergreen Immortal Empire pressure, wanting them to give Qing'er up. Everyone in the immortal realms knew about the love between Evergreen Qing'er and Qin Wentian. As long as they captured Qing`er, Qin Wentian would definitely show up.

Right now, they wanted to use the hostages as an exchange.

However, how could the Evergreen Immortal Emperor hand out the daughter he doted upon the most? In fact, he didn't even send anyone to notify Qing`er, wanting to bear this burden alone. He would rather fight to the death than to implicate his daughter.

However, given how large this matter was, news of it would definitely still reach the City of Ancient Emperors. Although the Evergreen Immortal Emperor didn't send anyone to inform Qing'er and even wanted to hide this from her, Qing'er eventually learned of this from other sources.

Not only did Qing`er know about this, those from the Matriarch Ji's sect and the Southern Phoenix Clan also knew about this.

Right now, they were all gathered together. The experts from the Matriarch Ji's sect stared at Qing'er and spoke, "Junior sister Qing'er, senior Evergreen clearly wants you to stay here away from danger. You must not do any silly things and throw yourself into the net to be captured."

"My empire is in danger, my father doesn't wish to implicate me but how can I allow the empire he built to die just like that? Let alone, my aunt was also captured by them." Qing`er spoke in a light voice, her tone filled with hints of sorrow. Back then when Qin Wentian's identity was exposed, she already had a strong feeling of unease. She didn't expect everything to come so fast. They didn't wish to wait for Qin Wentian to exit the city and directly acted against the Evergreen Immortal Empire. They wanted her to go to them, exchange for the hostages and used her to threaten Qin Wentian.

"But Qing`er, you should know that the person they want isn't you. They want Qin Wentian. By going, you wouldn't change anything. They wouldn't stop their attacks either."

"That's right junior sister. You must not go over."

The people from Matriarch Ji's sect persuaded. A look of sorrow was in Qing`er's eyes. She turned her head and stared at the horizons. Over there, boundless radiance could be seen cascading downwards onto a magnificent figure. Qin Wentian was sitting there cross-legged, immersed in his cultivation.

He has already cultivated for many years and he seemed to be in the midst of gaining an insight, and was in a completely immersed state.

Staring at that figure, Qing`er smiled radiantly. In this life, she has already become his woman and had no more regrets. It was just that she would no longer be able to see him ascend to the peak of the immortal realms.

As she smiled, a translucent tear rolled down her face. How beautiful was that? This scene caused all the experts from the Matriarch Ji's sect to be touched. They mutually exchanged glances and voice transmissions, "What's junior sister planning?"

"That teardrop, it seems that she has come to a decision, but I wonder what it is."

"Fellow sisters, can you all promise Qing'er one thing?" Qing'er glanced at all of them.

"Qing`er, please speak."

"After I leave, don't tell him about this matter, don't disrupt his cultivation. Just treat it as though nothing has happened. If he asks about me, tell him that I returned to the Evergreen Immortal Empire to take a look." Qing`er spoke.

"No way!"

"Qing`er, tell us what are you planning to do exactly?"

Everyone decisively rejected.

"Fellow sisters, take it as Qing'er is begging you all." Qing'er seriously spoke. The hearts of everyone trembled, staring at her beautiful countenance as their hearts stirred.

"You want to give your life in place of him? But what can you accomplish with that? Those people would never spare him. After he learns about it, do you think he wouldn't go and look for you?" Immortal King Junyi agitatedly spoke. They all could faintly sense that Qing`er was determined to die. She might very well be sending herself to death.

"Senior sister, you have no idea how tough it is for him to climb up all the way here. His origins are from a particle world, and he had to climb up step by step. I know all of his experiences and you guys should already have seen his talent. Now, he is already unrivalled in the City of Ancient Emperors, and in the future, he would definitely be unrivalled in the immortal emperor realm. He is destined to stand at the peak. I shall take his place and face this calamity in his stead." Qing`er smiled.

"I shall make the appropriate arrangements. If I die, the major powers wouldn't be able to use me to threaten him. He will definitely avenge me. He also wouldn't go recklessly to give up his life. As long as he is alive, there is hope."

Qing`er understood Qin Wentian too well. She knew that if she was alive, Qin Wentian would definitely go and save her even if he were to die. But if she died and told her fellow sisters to get Qin Wentian to take revenge for her, there would be many other implications and Qin Wentian wouldn't recklessly court death. After all, there was still Qingcheng in his heart.

All the maidens stared at Qing'er. Usually, Qing'er wasn't a woman of many words, treating her words like gold. But now, they actually discovered how witty and sensitive she was. She had already seen through Qin Wentian's thought process and even thought of a method to deal with the aftermath after she dies.

"No…" They shook their heads. They had no way to accept this. No matter how outstanding Qin Wentian's talent was, to them, Qing'er was still the person closest to them. They didn't want to see Qing'er dealing with the calamity in his stead. Definitely not.

"Senior sisters, listen to me." Qing'er smiled at the maidens here as she continued gently, "I'm already his woman. His matters are my matters, this is a very ordinary concept. If he dies, I shall die together with him. But if I die, he would definitely take revenge and wouldn't die so needlessly. Do you all want to see us both dying, or would you allow Qing'er to protect the life of the man I love?"

The hearts of the maidens here trembled violently. They stared dumbfoundedly at Qing'er, only to see her still smiling at them. Their hearts were shaking tumultuously, but what else could they say when Qing'er already put it like this?

"Senior sister, I will stay here for one more day. Can you guys send me out tomorrow?" Qing`er smiled. After that, she turned around and walked to that giant rock and sat there. She inclined her head and stared at Qin Wentian who was cultivating in the air. How peaceful did he seem? How handsome did he look?

She simply sat there and looked at him as the memories between them started to appear once again in her mind.

She even recalled the time when they first met. She was beside her master, Fairy Qingmei, and met the young Qin wentian who roamed around to temper himself. After that, her master told her to guard him. And this task, continued on for many years.

She also remembered that for the sake of Mo Qingcheng, he dragged the demon sword for ten thousand miles and cleaved the Pill Emperor Hall into two. For love, he didn't mind giving his life.

She also thought of how she felt when he finally confessed and told her to wait for him, before she left the particle world.

As she recalled all these memories, her beautiful eyes that were staring at that figure, turned wet as tears flowed once more. However, she was still smiling, and her smile was exceedingly beautiful.

This life, has already been very perfect. If she could die in his stead, that could also be considered a perfect ending. For him, she was willing to give her life.

She had no more regrets in this life. If there really is a next life, she was still willing to be his wife.

She only hoped that they wouldn't have to suffer too much in the next life and wished to meet him as early as possible. If there really is one, she would tell him she loved him at the earliest opportunity and get married with him as soon as possible, spending as much time as she could together, making everyone in the world envy them!

Chapter 1520: Evergreen's Anger

Qing`er left. She silently departed the City of Ancient Emperors. Just like what she had said, no one told Qin Wentian who was still in the midst of his cultivation.

Qin Wentian was still cultivating and had no idea what was happening in the external world. At this moment, at the location below where he was cultivating, a maiden quietly stood there. She had a beautiful face and an extraordinary aura but she wasn't Qing`er. This maiden was Nanfeng Yunxi instead.

She knew that Qing'er left and she also knew the reason why. As a woman, she naturally could understand Qing'er's feelings. She was extremely moved in her heart. No wonder Qin Wentian would love Qing`er so deeply. Their love should have already transcended life itself.

Nanfeng Yunxi's beautiful eyes were misty, shining with tears. She stared at the figure in the air but at the end, she didn't say anything as she turned about quietly and left. Maybe, she respected Qing`er's choice. Or maybe, she didn't wish for Qin Wentian to die.

But, what will happen if he learned the truth one day?

Qin Wentian was still in the state of immersion. He contemplated the energy from the dao element but wasn't willing to accept the inheritance. He did this for the spatial dao element, the world dao element, and he cultivated them using a dreamscape, perfecting his own abilities.

Inside the dreamscape, Qin Wentian stood in an illusory world with all seven of his astral souls manifested out before him. The astral souls expanded, forming constellations while he stood in the center of them all. A vast sword qi river surrounded them, with the sword law-attribute and his other laws fused within.

With an intent of his will, the river started churning, breaking through the void, causing this entire illusory world to tremble. Sword qi ran rampant, containing boundless strength that could suppress and destroy everything. Each strand of sword intent was like a river filled with the infusion of many kinds of law attributes, capable of tyrannically powerful attacks.

With a wave of his hand, his constellations transformed again and again. This time, they became the forms of humans. Numerous divinity-like figures descended from the sky, all of them golden in color. Sometimes, they would also take on devil form, constructing a body of darkness, manifesting numerous devils in the area around him.

"Go!" Qin Wentian spoke. In an instant, the devils all launched their attacks, forming devil-god palm strikes that shot through the space, engulfing the entire world.

"Right now, I still can't fathom the mysteries of being able to resonate with one's constellation. I wonder how strong my attacks are now." Qin Wentian mumbled in his heart as he continued to cultivate and perfect his abilities.

...

In the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empeire, Qing`er had returned. She returned via a teleportation array. She went to Matriarch Ji's headquarters first before coming back. If not, there would be no way for her to enter from the outside, given the enemies surrounding their empire now.

The instant Qing'er returned, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor directly appeared and brought her into his emperor palace by stepping through the void. He roared at Qing'er, "WHO TOLD YOU THAT YOU CAN RETURN?"

Qing'er has never once seen her father acting in this manner towards her. This was the first time. When she saw his furrowed brows and the anger on his face, Qing'er didn't know what to say. She could only lower her head in silence.

"Leave here immediately. Return to the City of Ancient Emperors." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor snarled in rage. Qing`er shook her head, "Since I have returned, I will not leave."

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor's countenance turned unsightly. He stared at the daughter he doted on the most. He wanted to vent his anger but he didn't know what to say. Finally, he asked, "Where is he? He allowed you to come back here alone?"

"He doesn't know about this, I didn't tell him. During these years, he has been in closed-door seclusion. No one can disturb him, and I won't allow anyone to do so." Qing`er lifted her head, her beautiful eyes filled with stubbornness, as she looked at her father.

"I truly have a great daughter." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor spoke as he trembled. "You want to use your life to exchange for his? Did you consider about me? About our Evergreen Immortal Empire?"

What sort of character was the Evergreen Immortal Emperor? He instantly discerned Qing`er's intentions. By not telling Qin Wentian, what did it mean by her returning alone? Was there even a need to ask?

"Precisely because I've considered about you, my father, as well as our empire, I decided to return." Qing`er inclined her head and seriously looked at the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. She continued stubbornly, "The Evergreen Immortal Empire is in danger now. As your daughter, the daughter of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, I have a responsibility to uphold. Even if I die, I would have no regrets. This is what I ought to do. However, I cannot let him die. I shall account for all his debts."

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor stared at his beloved daughter as he sighed with sorrow in his heart, wanting to ask the most profound question of all time. What exactly is love?

"Oh? You are willing to give up your life because you don't want to implicate him. Even if the Evergreen Immortal Empire is eradicated, you also want him to live on. Right?" The Evergreen Immortal Empire sighed. Qing`er's eyes turned slightly red, flickering with guilt. But she still nodded resolutely, "I'm willing to die for our empire with no regrets. Father, if I die, you have to live on."

"What is he worth exactly? Is he really qualified to make my daughter do this for him?" The Evergreen Immortal Emperor didn't know what to feel in his heart. Even though Qin Wentian was outstanding, he naturally still doted on his daughter the most. This was his most beloved daughter. But now, his daughter wanted to use her life in exchange for his.

"He is worth it. Because, he is the man I love. Because, he is the son-in-law of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor." Qing`er smiled sweetly. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor turned around, closing his eyes. It was unknown what he was thinking about.

"Father, don't send me away. Even if you forcefully do so, Qing'er would really be a sinner if something happens to our empire. I would still take responsibility then." Qing'er seemed to have guessed her father's thoughts. She decisively spoke, but the Evergreen Immortal Emperor didn't move. He continued closing his eyes in silence. However, he understood that since his daughter was already determined to do this, there was no way for him to change her mind any longer.

"Father, just hand me over to them." Qing`er spoke lightly.

"And you will commit suicide after that, as death ends all troubles, stopping them from using you to threaten Qin Wentian?" The Evergreen Immortal Emperor opened his eyes and laughed. "Qing`er, you are so naive."

"Your daughter is unfilial." Qing`er lowered her head.

"You are indeed unfilial." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor turned back and looked at Qing`er. "But even if you are unfilial, you are still my daughter. For my daughters, no matter how unfilial they are, I will never hand them over. Even if I die, I won't go down without a fight."

"Father..." Qing`er had a pleading expression on her face.

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor turned and waved his hand. A moment later, a formless energy gushed into Qing`er, sealing her strength completely. He then spoke, "Come in."

As the sound of his voice faded, two serving girls entered.

"Take good care of her. Do not let her out of your sight, even for an instant." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor quietly spoke. After that, he flicked his sleeves and departed. Qing`er stared at the departing back of her father as tears once again flowed down her face.

Even if she was unfilial, she is still the daughter of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. Even if he had to die, he would go down fighting.

...

In the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, in a random location, there were many extraordinary experts gathered here. They were all from different major powers and terrifying auras could be felt from each of them.

"There seemed to be some commotion in the imperial palace. The daughter of Evergreen, Evergreen Qing`er, might have returned." At this moment, a person spoke, his words causing the eyes of everyone else to flash.

"Is this news accurate?"

"Let's prepare to launch an attack, we will learn the truth sooner or later." The Skymist Immortal Empire suggested, in an extremely domineering manner. They were the major powers from the eastern regions. They were the ones who wished for war the most, wanting to eradicate the Evergreen Immortal Empire completely. Hence, he came here personally.

Just as he was speaking, his expression suddenly drastically changed, becoming extremely unsightly, even ashen.

"Skymist, what's going on?" There were people who asked as they stared at him.

"Evergreen has gone mad." The Skymist Immortal Emperor angrily spoke. He stood up, as a violent aura gushed forth frenziedly.

"What has happened exactly?" The Paragon Sword Emperor asked.

"The White Emperor is in the royal palace of my Skymist Immortal Empire." The Skymist Immortal Emperor grimly spoke, his expression cold to the extreme.

"The mysterious White Emperor actually left the Evergreen Immortal Empire?"

"Is he staking it all on a single throw? However, the Skymist Immortal Empire, there should be enough protectors in your empire, right? Why would you fear a single White Emperor?" The Paragon Sword Emperor asked.

"The White Emperor has broken through to the peak-stage…" The words of the Skymist Immortal Emperor caused the hearts of everyone to tremble.

If he is at the peak-stage, the Skymist Immortal Empire might really not be able to endure such attacks. The Evergreen Immortal Empire was betting it all on this. They actually sent out a peak-stage immortal emperor to attack the Skymist Immortal Empire.

At this instant, the expressions of the Paragon Sword Emperor and the Taihua Immortal Emperor, both also turned unsightly. Their empires were also in the eastern regions. If the White Emperor wanted to attack, their empires would all be his prime targets. The fact that the White Emperor has entered the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm, was a calamity to them.

"What should we do?" The Skymist Immortal Empire glanced at the people in the surroundings. The immortal emperors from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire and the Senluo Immortal Empire glanced at him. Seems like the major powers of the eastern regions were limited in their power, they actually didn't have enough strength to protect their roots in the case of an attack.

At this moment, a powerful immortal sense suddenly bore down upon all of them. Everyone inclined their heads, they could clearly sense the existence of this immortal sense.

"It's Evergreen."

"Evergreen, get the White Emperor to stop!" The Skymist Immortal Emperor roared in rage.

"Are you afraid now? When you attacked my empire, did you not do so willingly and happily? I'm now warning all of you that if any of you dares to attack my Evergreen Immortal Empire again, I shall spare no expense and duke it all out, staking my life itself. You guys best make sure to kill me then. If I manage to escape, I shall join the White Emperor and enact our revenge one by one on your empires. Let's hope you guys can endure the acts of our revenge. I sincerely hope you all can protect the lives of your clans well."

The cold voice of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor rang out, containing no emotions as he directly threatened the immortal emperors here. Since things have reached this state, it actually caused him to have no more apprehensions!

Chapter 1521: Conveying a Message

The immortal emperors here all had unsightly expressions on their faces. The Skymist Immortal Empire replied, "Evergreen, I will leave the battlefield now, leaving your empire. Tell the White Emperor to stop."

The White Emperor has broken through to the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm, no one in the Skymist Immortal Empire was capable of contending against him. This battle might even cause the power level of the entire Skymist Immortal Empire to decline. Why did the Skymist Immortal Emperor want to destroy the Evergreen Immortal Empire so badly? It was merely because of benefits. But if in pursuit of such benefits caused his own empire to be destroyed, even if he annihilated the Evergreen Immortal Empire, he wouldn't be the one having the last laugh.

Don't take the alliance between these powers seriously. Now, the immortal realms are in a state of unprecedented chaos and each major power was scheming and plotting to get ahead. Alliances could be dissolved in the blink of an eye. If his Skymist Immortal Empire really declined, the next immortal empire to be destroyed might very well be it.

"Now you want to retreat to get the White Emperor to stop? After you return and things stabilize, you want to invade my empire again?" The Evergreen Immortal Emperor coldly spoke. "Everything has long been destined. Since you already took the step to show your commitment in destroying my Evergreen Immortal Empire. Let things escalate up then, we won't stop until one of us dies. In addition, I will get the White Emperor to capture the members of your clan. If any of my people have any casualties, they shall perish together."

As the sound of his voice faded, the immortal sense of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor dissipated. The anger of the Skymist Immortal Emperor towered up into the sky.

The other immortal emperors exchanged glances of dismay. This time, they have pushed the Evergreen Immortal Emperor too much. His daughter, Evergreen Qing`er, must have returned and was prepared for death. However, she might have been forcefully imprisoned by the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. He was already determined to spare no expense to wage war. This point, from him sending the White Emperor out to deal with the Skymist Immortal Empire, we can already see that Evergreen is prepared for a situation where both the fish dies and the net breaks.

"Everyone, let's hasten and attack the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire. We must capture Evergreen Qing'er and kill Evergreen himself to prevent all sources of future trouble. After that, we will use Evergreen Qing'er to threaten Qin Wentian, forcing him to show himself." The Skymist Immortal Emperor spoke.

Everyone murmured when they heard that, not directly replying to him. This caused the heart of the Skymist Immortal Emperor to sink. "Why is no one talking?"

"Evergreen has already decided to make sure both the net breaks and the fish dies. You should have heard his words earlier. If we fail to kill him, we will have to suffer the acts of revenge jointly by him and the White Emperor.

Our descendants will definitely be annihilated. In order to protect them, shouldn't we reconsider our plans? Let's wait for all the other emperors to return from the City of Ancient Emperors before we proceed with destroying the Evergreen Immortal Empire. At that time, we can capture Evergreen easily and force the White Emperor to show himself. We have to kill them both or there would be endless trouble." An immortal emperor spoke.

"That's right. Evergreen has already gone crazy. We won't join in for now. Everyone better make sure your preparations are done. We have to kill Qin Wentian eventually as well. But I didn't expect that Evergreen would go crazy for the sake of a daughter. Why doesn't he just simply hand over Qin Wentian?" Another immortal emperor coldly asked. Their purpose was different from the Skymist Immortal Emperor. They only wanted to kill Qin Wentian. And now, since they had no confidence to crush the Evergreen Immortal Empire completely, it's best that they didn't push the Evergreen Immortal Emperor past his final line of sanity.

Everyone had their own plots and plans.

"Maybe Qin Wentian still has no idea about this. I will send someone to the City of Ancient Emperors to find out more. If Qin Wentian doesn't know about this, I will tell my man to convey that the Evergreen Immortal Empire is already surrounded and Evergreen Qing`er might die anytime. I don't believe he would still not come out after that. If he really doesn't come, we will inform Evergreen about this. If he knew that his son-in-law acts like this, I believe Evergreen wouldn't fight for this son-in-law any longer."

"That's right, in that case, I will bid farewell first. Everyone, let's keep in contact." The Paragon Sword Emperor instantly stepped out and retreated with a flash. The Taihua Immortal Emperor similarly bid his farewell and left with great speed.

Everyone naturally understood what they were worried about. Their empires were also located in the eastern regions. Since the White Emperor could attack the Skymist Immortal Empire, he could also easily attack their territories.

"Bastards!" The Skymist Immortal Emperor cursed in his heart, his eyes turning red. Nobody cared about his suggestion to immediately attack the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Everyone only cared about their own territories. If he attacked alone, the others might not reinforce him. To them, it would be best if both the Evergreen and Skymist Immortal Empires fell.

After several days, a huge commotion shook the eastern regions, as everyone in the immortal realms focused their attention there.

The White Emperor entered the peak-stage and the Skymist Immortal Empire was destroyed in the span of a single day. Their capital was razed to the ground, with countless dead and even more injured. It was unknown how many experts fell in the battle, and there were even immortal emperors who died. The powerful Skymist Immortal Empire declined so overwhelmingly much in the span of a single day. Only those experts out there tempering themselves and the Skymist Immortal Emperor, as well as a few other more powerful ones, managed to escape this calamity.

When this news circulated out, many people felt incomparably shocked. Was this the fury of the Evergreen Immortal Empire? The Skymist Immortal Empire formed an alliance to surround the Evergreen Immortal Empire and they suffered the most terrible consequences for it.

However after that, the White Emperor vanished completely, there were no other movements from him. Everyone could easily guess his intentions. The White Emperor would be in the shadows, striking fear in the hearts of the Paragon Sword Sect and the Taihua Immortal Dynasty. They wouldn't dare to attack the Evergreen Immortal Empire any more. But, if the White Emperor somehow dies, they would definitely continue to collaborate with the Skymist Immortal Empire and spared no expense to attack the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

What made people surprised was that the Skymist Immortal Emperor didn't do much. He didn't directly seek revenge. Everyone mused at how patient he was, even able to endure such a thing. However, they also understood that the Skymist Immortal Emperor couldn't help but do this. If they gathered their remnant forces and fought against the Evergreen Immortal Emperor now, the ones laughing at the end would definitely be the other major powers. Hence, no matter how much hatred he had, he still could only choose to endure.

And at the same time, inside the emperor dimension of the City of Ancient Emperors, many immortal emperors learned about this and quite a lot of them chose to exit the city. The people who did so were those who wanted to kill Qin Wentian. For example, the emperors from the Senluo Immortal Empire, Phoeroc Race, and the other demonic races.

And as for those major powers close to Qin Wentian and the Evergreen Immortal Empire, they also paid attention to this matter. Their emperors also decided to leave the City of Ancient Emperors and headed to the eastern regions. This time around, the vast majority of powerful experts in the immortal realms, all gathered in the eastern regions.

Given that such a large-scale matter occurred, news started circulating around the immortal-king level dimension of the City of Ancient Emperors. All the experts learned about this, with the exception of Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was still cultivating and had no idea.

At this moment, at the ancient peak Qin Wentian was at, Jun Mengchen and the others were below the mountain. They glanced up at Qin Wentian, hesitation was plain in their hearts, struggling to tell him of this matter or not. If they told him, it was unknown how many immortal emperors there were now out there waiting for him. If Qin Wentian went, he definitely would die.

"Qin Wentian!" At this moment, a figure flew over from afar. He stood arrogantly in the air, staring at the cultivating Qin Wentian as he shouted out. The space trembled, the intensity of the shout jolted Qin Wentian awake. He opened his eyes as coldness flashed within, staring at the man who just appeared.

In the City of Ancient Emperors, there were actually people who dared to disrupt his cultivation?

"Qin Wentian, the Evergreen Immortal Empire is facing a calamity because of you. Your fiancee, Evergreen Qing`er, headed back there in your stead, wanting to die for you but to think that you are still peacefully cultivating here. I'm truly impressed with how stoic you are." That person coldly laughed. This caused Qin Wentian's eyes to gleam with sharpness. He moved with the speed of lightning, that person wanted to retreat but his movements were halted with a glance from Qin Wentian, causing him to sink within an illusion.

"BOOM!" A giant hand grabbed hold of that person, causing him to cough out blood from the impact.

"Qin Wentian, I came with good intentions to tell you. What do you mean by this?" That person cursed in rage. Qin Wentian's expression was terrifyingly cold. "Speak clearly."

"Don't you know? Now, the entire immortal realms are in chaos. This is especially so for the eastern regions. All the major powers from all around have surrounded the Evergreen Immortal Empire, wanting to force the Evergreen Immortal Emperor to hand over Evergreen Qing'er. You should know very clearly who their true target is. Right now, many of the immortal and demon emperors have exited the City of Ancient Emperors and have arrived at the Evergreen Immortal Empire. In order to protect you, Evergreen Qing'er wanted to hide this from you. It can be said that she's truly sentimental."

That person slowly spoke, only to see numerous figures speeding over here at this moment. The people from Matriarch Ji's Sect, the Southern Phoenix Clan, and Jun Mengchen. All of their expressions were unsightly. Did they still fail to hide this from him after all? The enemy actually sent someone here to inform Qin Wentian directly. They clearly wanted Qin Wentian to show up.

"Mengchen." Qin Wentian turned and stared at Jun Mengchen. Jun Mengchen lowered his head and didn't say anything.

"Yunxi." Qin Wentian turned to Nanfeng Yunxi after he saw Jun Mengchen lowering his head. Nanfeng Yunxi bit her lips but she didn't say anything either. Qin Wentian instantly understood in his heart. He also knew that out of everyone here, he was the only one who didn't know about this.

"You guys are so foolish, you all actually kept this from me?" A low growling sound rang out from Qin Wentian. He instantly understood what was going on.

"Qing`er didn't want you to go there and die. Hence, she told us all not to let you know about this. She wished to protect you." Nanfeng Yunxi finally spoke, she still didn't hope for Qin Wentian to go. She knew that once he went over, although the Evergreen Immortal Empire might not be eradicated, Qin Wentian would definitely die for sure.

This was a path of death, waiting for Qin Wentian to step upon.

"Qing'er, silly lass..." Qing'er's beautiful face appeared in his mind. He felt pain in his heart as he spoke, "Could it be that she doesn't understand, as long as she is alive, I would definitely show up. How can she not know this…? This must mean that when she left, she was already prepared to die. She's going to her death!"

The hearts of everyone trembled. The people of Matriarch Ji's sect sighed. To think that the emotions between the two of them were so deep, capable of seeing the thoughts of each other. Qin Wentian immediately knew that Qing`er was going there to die.

"Qin Wentian. Before junior sister Qing`er left, she told us not to tell you this. She said if you died, she wouldn't live alone in this world any longer. Since this is the case, why not she take your place. She asked us this question. Does she want us to watch both of you die meaninglessly, or allow her to use her life to protect the man whom she loves. She wants you to survive and take revenge for her in the future." Immortal Jun Yi sighed, causing the pain in Qin Wentian's heart to intensify.

"Qing`er." Qin Wentian's sorrow was boundless. He howled in rage as countless strands of sword intent gushed forth. The expert who came here to convey the message trembled as his expression changed drastically. A moment later, his body was torn to shreds by the billowing strands of sword intent!

Chapter 1522: The Secret of the City of Ancient Emperors

The people below could only sigh in their hearts. Finally, he still learned the truth.

That person who came to convey the message was simply asking Qin Wentian to send himself to death. However, wasn't he a little too foolish? Given how angry Qin Wentian would be, how would he spare him?

"I'm leaving." Qin Wentian's robes fluttered as he slowly spoke.

"Are you going to send yourself to death?" Nanfeng Yunxi's silhouette flashed as she soared into the air, staring at Qin Wentian with her beautiful eyes as she spoke in a loud voice, "Can it be that you still don't understand Qing'er's efforts? If you go like this, there's no difference from courting death. Have you forgotten what Immortal King Jun Yi has said? If you die, Qing'er wouldn't want to live alone in this world any longer."

Qin Wentian's body trembled. He stared at Nanfeng Yunxi. He naturally understood that she didn't want anything to happen to him.

"From the news I received, junior sister was already prepared for death when she returned. However, after the Evergreen Immortal Emperor learned of it, he sealed her strength and imprisoned her. Regardless of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor or Qing`er, they didn't send anyone to inform you. Clearly, both of them don't hope that you would die." A maiden from the Matriarch Ji's sect spoke.

"Wentian gege." Bai Qing walked over. Her crystal-like eyes looking at Qin Wentian.

All of them didn't wish for Qin Wentian to send himself into death.

"Senior brother." Jun Mengchen also spoke. Qin Wentian's eyes turned over as he stared at everyone. He sighed silently as he spoke, "There's no need for you guys to persuade me. Qing'er is willing to die for me. Do you all want me to hide here forever and watch on as Qing'er takes on this calamity for me?"

Qin Wentian smiled, his smile appearing somewhat bleak and desolate.

"I have decided." Qin Wentian spoke in a voice so tough that it could sever iron, causing everyone to sigh softly.

"Qin Wentian, I won't stop you from heading there. But if you head there like that, there's no difference in sending yourself to death. At the very least, you should fight for a sliver of hope. And right now, the White Emperor has already broken through to the peak-stage of the emperor realm and destroyed the Skymist Immortal Empire, causing the other major powers of the eastern regions from acting directly. In addition, with the announcement made by the Evergreen Immortal Emperor that if the Evergreen Empire was destroyed and his enemies failed to kill him, he would act together with the White Emperor and take revenge on each of the major powers who attacked them. Undoubtedly, such words would cause trepidation in the hearts of all the major powers."

Nanfeng Yunxi continued, "Hence, in reality, many major powers aren't really willing to war against the Evergreen Immortal Empire. They only want your life. As long as you send out a message saying that you would head over, but with the prerequisite that they don't attack the Evergreen Immortal Empire or you would disappear forever, those powers definitely wouldn't attack the Evergreen Immortal Empire before you appear. Why don't you try to fight for this period of time to give you a chance to make some preparations?"

The maidens from the Southern Phoenix Clan stared strangely at Nanfeng Yunxi. Her words seemed to have been thought of long ago. Most probably, she has always been worried that Qin Wentian would head to his death the moment he learned the truth.

"Yunxi, your words are right. However, what preparations can I make? The major powers involved now far surpassed those who participated in the adjudication battle back then. The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect is far from sufficient to help. The Southern Phoenix Clan, Matriarch Ji's sect, also have no way to participate in this." Qin Wentian sighed. The danger level was too high. Who would be willing to fight for him, Qin Wentian?

At the very least, the him right now wasn't qualified to rally supporters.

"How do you know what would happen if you don't fight for more time? I will head back to the Southern Phoenix Clan and determine their attitude." Nanfeng Yunxi spoke. She knew that hope was minimal and vague, but she was willing to give it a try.

"Qing`er is our junior apprentice sister, the disciple which master dotes on most. We will also see what our master plans to do." An expert from the Matriarch Ji's sect spoke. This war...although they were immortal kings, they wouldn't be qualified to participate in it. It would be an emperor-ranked war. Only immortal emperors are powerful enough to participate.

"Senior brother, the strength of our Heavenly Talisman Realm is immeasurably deep, we can try asking help from there." Jun Mengchen silently transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian's heart stirred, but he didn't really have too much hope with regards to this. The members of the Heavenly Talisman Realm had an agreement before they joined. The Heavenly Talisman Realm wouldn't force its members to do anything, but in return, they wouldn't interfere and personally act for any member as they don't wish to be exposed. He had no idea what the ultimate aim of the Heavenly Talisman Realm was. But at the very least, he didn't have the capabilities to make the Heavenly Talisman Realm openly support him in full, revealing themselves before all the immortal emperors in the immortal realms."

"Wentian gege, I will head back to the devil mountain to get reinforcements for you. Bujie will definitely help you as well." Bai Qing spoke in a low voice.

"I'll speak to that old fellow at the desolate mountain range." Little Rascal's voice was still as juvenile as ever, but his tone was extremely serious. The old fellow he was referring to, was naturally that powerful demon emperor, the nine-headed heaven devouring beast.

Qin Wentian glanced at his companions as currents of warmth flowed in his heart. Unknowingly, everyone was now already immortal kings. If they didn't belong to various major powers, they might very well have already been the masters of some areas.

"Qin Wentian, just try it. At the very least, there's a sliver of hope. If you don't try, you will die for sure." Nanfeng Yunxi's beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian.

Upon seeing her gaze, Qin Wentian solemnly nodded his head. "Right, in that case, I will give myself three more months of time. You guys help me to convey my words to the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Tell them that I will head to the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire after three months to settle everything. If within the Evergreen Immortal Empire is attacked within these three months, I shall vanish forever, never to appear again."

"Good." Nanfeng Yunxi heaved a sigh of relief. She also knew that the hope was uncertain. But at the very least, he had to fight for it.

"See you guys three months later at the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire."

"Wentian gege." Bai Qing clenched her fists. After that, she turned about and left. She was prepared to use her greatest speed to rush back to the devil mountain.

"Senior, I'll head to the Heavenly Talisman realm to request aid from all the senior brothers." Jun Mengchen transmitted his voice as he left as well. Everyone left one after another, but they weren't abandoning Qin Wentian. On the contrary, they were helping him to fight for a chance of survival.

"Saint Lord, do you have a chance to break through to the immortal emperor realm?" The experts from the Battle Saint Tribe were still here. Qi Yu stared up in the air, looking at Qin Wentian. If Qin Wentian could break through to the emperor realm, he would have the chance to enter the highest-realm of their Battle Saint Tribe and gain the help of immortal emperors from the Battle Saint Tribe.

"How can it be so easy to break through to the emperor realm?" Qin Wentian sighed. He clenched his eyes tightly as his eyes flashed with killing intent. The reason for this calamity was because back then when he fought that supreme battle of the peak, an ethereal voice sounded out, exposing his identity. If not, in the future when he left the City of Ancient Emperors, the Saber-Sword Immortal King would vanish forever and none would be the wiser for it. There wouldn't have been this calamity, and wouldn't create such a huge commotion in the immortal realms.

That person who exposed his identity, he had to kill him for sure. It wouldn't merely cause him to lose his life, it would also shake up the entire immortal realms.

Who was it exactly that had exposed his identity?

If he knew who it was, he would definitely make that person die a most miserable death.

Inclining his head, Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with a terrifying coldness. Qing`er went out to take on this calamity for him. Luckily the Evergreen Immortal Emperor was decisive enough and because he doted on her too much, he spared no expense and was willing to wage a war.

At this very moment, numerous clouds suddenly blanketed the sky as a fearsome aura bore down on everything. Lightning and thunder rumbled about within the clouds, it was an extremely terrifying sight.

"Qin Wentian, come up here." A voice drifted from the clouds. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as he looked up. Amidst the raging tempest, he saw that gigantic black dragon once more, spiralling about in the air.

With a flash of his silhouette, he soared right up into the sky, stepping into the middle of the tempest. He looked at that gigantic black dragon and asked, "Senior, do you have anything you need my help with?"

"Are you willing to follow me?" The black dragon spoke.

"To where?" Qin Wentian furrowed his brows.

"To that divine residence. The you now has the qualifications to take the authority scepter. I will bestow it to you." The black dragon spoke, his words causing Qin Wentian's eyes to flicker. He stared at the dragon, "Didn't senior say that because the rules of the city have changed, I have to contend against others before I can take the scepter?"

"That's right. But during these years, I have always been paying attention to the City of Ancient Emperors. You truly didn't disappoint me, and can be considered as passing the test. Hence, I'm allowing you to take the scepter." The black dragon continued confidently, "As long as you obtain the authority scepter, even if many people in the immortal realms wish to kill you, they wouldn't be able to do it. As long as you remain here in the City of Ancient Emperors, regardless of what cultivation realm you are, nobody can kill you. I can protect you from death."

"What if I exit the City of Ancient Emperors?" Qin Wentian asked.

"I won't interfere in matters outside the City of Ancient Emperors." The black dragon replied.

"In that case, senior, this junior shall give up on obtaining the scepter." Qin Wentian spoke. A cold light flashed in the black dragon's eyes. "Do you know what this authority scepter represents?"

"Junior has no idea. It's just that the calamity junior is going to face, may result in me dying. If this is the case, wouldn't I have let down senior's kind intentions and lose the scepter?" Qin Wentian calmly replied.

"For the sake of love?" The black dragon coldly snorted. "This immortal realm is one that's focused on the martial path. If you stand at the peak of the immortal realms one day, you can enjoy the love of countless beauties in the world. Are you really going to give up on the authority scepter for such a minor thing? Do you know what it indicates when the rules of the city changed? Do you know why the dao elements appeared? Do you know what it really means to hold the authority scepter?"

"Junior is ignorant." Qin Wentian replied.

"In this universe, there's a total of thirty-three immortal realms. The dao elements came from the upper worlds, they are inheritances from supreme powers in the other immortal realms who are looking to accept disciples. Once one has comprehended a dao element and cultivated in it, they would be bound by the dao element and cannot selfishly leave this layer of the immortal realms. Once they defeat those who cultivate the same dao element as them and gain the recognition of the dao element, they can bypass the great void to reach the other immortal realms from the City of Ancient Emperors. They need not suffer the death tribulation that would occur from attempting to leave. If not, why do you think that so many elite and legendary geniuses of each era would come to the City of Ancient Emperors?"

The black dragon spoke, causing Qin Wentian's heart to tremble. He didn't expect the origin of the dao elements to be so great. So this, is the true secret of the City of Ancient Emperors.

"You have yet to accept the inheritance of any dao element. Just as well, as long as you obtain this authority scepter, it means that you have no need to contend against any others for the dao elements and can directly enter the other immortal realms from the City of Ancient Emperors. As for what would happen in the future, I shall temporarily not tell you. Considering the fact that I've told you the secret, do you want the authority scepter now or not?" The black dragon stared at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian stared at the huge saucer-like eyes of the black dragon. He was still as calm as ever as he replied, "This junior knows that I will face a death calamity very soon. I don't dare to waste time and accept the inheritance. I can only disappoint senior's wishes."

"Insufferable and idiotic." The black dragon snarled in rage as a terrifying aura gushed forth from him. Bolts of lightning flashed around Qin Wentian. It was as though as long as the black dragon willed it, Qin Wentian would die here.

"In that case, fine. I really want to see how can you stand amidst these tumultuous waves if you don't accept the inheritance." The black dragon roared. After that, a powerful wind blew the clouds away as the raging tempest in the air dissipated, causing the atmosphere to return to its previous calm.

Qin Wentian was still incomparably calm. He once wanted the authority scepter, but the black dragon went back on his words. He had already determined to forsake this inheritance then. Let alone now that he was fully focused on Qing`er, he naturally wouldn't bother about an inheritance that might bind him to some unknown restrictions!

Chapter 1523: Attitudes From All Around

After the black dragon left, Qin Wentian descended and landed on a huge rock of a mountain, sitting there cross-legged.

He didn't continue to comprehend other energies and didn't try to break through to the immortal emperor realm. Breaking through wasn't something that could be done in a single day. It needed time, it needed one to accumulate and stabilize their foundation, it needed a stroke of fate. The Qin Wentian now was comprehending insights from the Undying Scripture!

The crisis this time around, would most probably result in his death. Although many good friends around him went back to seek help, Qin Wentian didn't really have too much hope.

Outside the City of Ancient Emperors, in the immortal realms, Qin Wentian's message soon reached the Evergreen Immortal Empire. The entire empire trembled, the sounds of sobbing could be heard from the palace Qing`er was in. Did he finally find out after all?

After that, another message came. Qin Wentian said he would come to the Evergreen Immortal Empire in three months because, in the meantime, his friends around him would try to find helpers for him. Among them, the people of Matriarch Ji, the holy maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan, the judiciary priestess of the Judiciary Devil Hall, Bujie of the Myriad Ancient Devil Hall from the Myriad Devil Islands, Jun Mengchen from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and others.

This caused many people to sigh in their hearts. Qin Wentian had enemies all around the world and he had offended countless people. To think that his friends would be so loyal, wanting to spare him from dying even in such a scenario. However, could they reverse the situation? Clearly, it was impossible.

The news circulated. Other than the Skymist Immortal Empire, the Paragon Sword Sect, the Taihua Immortal Dynasty, the Violet Emperor and the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor who wanted his life, the Senluo Immortal Empire, the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, Sacred Sun Sect all arrived. Not only them, there were also supreme demonic races like the Phoeroc Race, the Heavenhold Race, the Void Beast Race, and the White Tiger Race...with so many major powers involved, no one believed that Qin Wentian could survive.

This was a death calamity, he would die for sure. The scale of this was much larger compared to the emperor-ranked battle and adjudication battle in the past. Now, even Matriarch Ji and the Southern Phoenix Clan were helpless.

Everyone sighed, this Qin Wentian had truly created huge trouble.

However, as an immortal king, being able to cause such a huge storm was already sufficient for him to be proud of it. What a pity for a genius to fall like this. He wouldn't have the chance to rise up.

In the Heavenly Talisman Realm, Jun Mengchen stood together with an old man. This old man had an extraordinary aura and was a supreme character at the immortal emperor realm. It was none other than the senior brother who inducted Jun Mengchen into the Heavenly Talisman Realm. Beside them, Bai Wuya was present as well.

Right before them, a figure appeared.

"Jun Mengchen, I already know of the reason why you came. It's just that you should already be very clear of the situation regarding the Evergreen Immortal Empire now. Almost half of the entire forces in the immortal realms have arrived and the vast majority of them want Qin Wentian to die. This time around, he offended too many people and shouldn't go there to head to his death." The person spoke. He was one of the supervisory generals of the Heavenly Talisman Realm and had great authority.

"Senior brother Qin attaches value to his emotions. He will definitely head over, there's no way to stop him. Our Heavenly Talisman Realm has experts as numerous as the clouds, we should have plenty of immortal emperors on our side. Can we not give senior brother Qin some aid?" Jun Mengchen asked.

"Qin Wentian's talent is truly extraordinary. You all most probably don't know about this but our Heavenly Talisman Realm has always treated him with huge importance. In fact, many of our plans were centred around him, we sincerely hoped that he would really be able to ascend to the peak one day. However, this time he was truly too impulsive. Our Heavenly Talisman Realm hasn't completed our preparations yet. Although we have many powerful experts, but once we expose ourselves, every other power in the immortal realms would unite against us. These peak powers wouldn't want to see us rise up, gaining enough power to threaten them."

The supervisory general spoke to Jun Mengchen, "Tell Qin Wentian not to head there. He should focus on his cultivation properly in the City of Ancient Emperors."

"Given Qin Wentian's personality, he would go there for sure."

"Bai Wuya, you should have more understanding towards our Heavenly Talisman Realm now. You should also know that right now, many major powers have already noticed our existence. It's just that they still have no idea how strong we are exactly. This time, if we appear in full force to aid Qin Wentian to tide over this calamity, we would instantly be exposed. They would even capture the disciples of our realm and force them to open the passageway here. They might even unite and attack us en masse. That would be a true calamity then."

The supervisory general continued to Bai Wuya, "It's still too early. This grand era is a chance for us, many members of our Heavenly Talisman Realm will rise up. Qin Wentian should endure for a period of time."

Bai Wuya sighed in his heart. Even the supervisory general said this. This meant that it was already impossible to get the Heavenly Talisman Realm to help out.

After all, even the Heavenly Talisman Realm wasn't powerful enough to move against the entire immortal realms.

"However, you guys can help him out if you wish. We won't restrict you all. However, remember that safety is number one. Protect your own lives well first before you help him." That supervisory general commanded. After that, he turned and left. Jun Mengchen trembled violently as he clenched his fists. Staring at that gradually departing back, he mumbled, "What does this count for?"

"Mengchen, I know you have a very good relationship with Qin Wentian. However, this matter is too critical. The supervisory general still has to consider the best interests for our Heavenly Talisman Realm." That senior brother who inducted Jun Mengchen, spoke.

"But isn't the senior brother Qin now enough to make the Heavenly Talisman Realm mobilize all its forces to help him?" Jun Mengchen angrily replied.

"You…" The senior brother who had inducted Jun Mengchen shook his head. Ultimately, Jun Mengchen was still in the prime of his youth and had hot blood and impulsiveness in his personality. But even so, he could understand Jun Mengchen.

"The Heavenly Talisman Realm wouldn't force its members to do things they don't want to do. The immortal emperors here are all extremely proud people and Qin Wentian now is facing a death calamity. Your relationship with him might be good, but how many of the emperors would be willing to fight for him? In addition, other than exposing our Heavenly Talisman Realm, those who participate in the battle even have a chance of dying. Now, this is a grand era. Who doesn't want to reach the peak? How many would be willing to die for Qin Wentian?"

Jun Mengchen's eyes flashed, he was speechless but he still wasn't happy. Even so, the Heavenly Talisman Realm should still be able to mobilize some emperor-ranked experts.

Right now in the Judiciary Devil Hall on the devil mountain, before a majestic palace, the Judiciary Priestess Bai Qing knelt there. She had already knelt for three days.

"Bai Qing. This is a war between the major powers of the immortal realms. We might as well take this chance to weaken their strength. There's no reason for us of the Judiciary Devil Hall to interfere." From within, a voice rang out.

"Grand Priest, Wentian gege is the successor of the Myriad Devil Sovereign, he has a chance to inherit the leadership position of the Saint Devil Hall in the future. Why would we not fight for him?" Bai Qing knelt as she pled.

"Get up first. When the time comes, we will send the experts in the City of Ancient Emperors over there. As to whether we participate in that war or not, it isn't something I can decide." The Grand Priest sighed. Bai Qing knelt there and kowtowed to the palace. After that, she stood up and departed the area.

Inside the City of Ancient Emperors, Qin Wentian was still cultivating. During this period of time, he didn't try to comprehend or cultivate any other energy, focusing solely on the Undying Scripture. At the very least, he would do his best. If he really cannot escape this calamity, he still had his other self - Di Tian, left.

At this moment, a few beautiful figures came over.

"Qin Wentian." A gentle voice rang out. Qin Wentian opened his eyes and stared at the person who came.

"Yunxi." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Qin Wentian, follow me back to the Southern Phoenix Clan. Our Matriarch wants to see if you have the capabilities to cultivate a nirvana art." Nanfeng Yunxi spoke. Qin Wentian smiled and shook his head. Back when in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, he had seen the nirvana art before. Although it was very powerful, how could his enemies give him the time to recover? It would be better to depend on the Undying Scripture plus his undying body.

"Many thanks to the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. I have yet to properly thank her for acting to save my life back then. Yunxi, I'll go with you to the Southern Phoenix Clan. After that, I will head straight to the Evergreen Immortal Empire." Qin Wentian stood up. He then turned and glanced at the experts from the Battle Saint Tribe. "You guys continue to stay in the City of Ancient Emperors to cultivate. There's no need to bother about me."

"Saint Lord." The eyes of the experts from the Battle Saint Tribe flashed.

Qin Wentian waved his hands, "Don't worry."

As he spoke, he walked forward. Even if he really died, he still had another avatar, Di Tian. Di Tian would be able to take over everything.

Qin Wentian followed Nanfeng Yunxi as they departed, exiting the City of Ancient Emperors. By using a teleportation array, they soon arrived at the Southern Phoenix Clan with the fastest speed.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch personally appeared to receive him.

"Qin Wentian pays my respects to the Southern Phoenix Matriarch." This was the second time he saw the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and he was still struck by a sense of awe. Regardless of her countenance or demeanor, they were both perfect. Although Nanfeng Yunxi was already considered a very rare beauty, but before the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, her beauty was clearly inferior.

The phoenix matriarch smiled and nodded. She usually would have a solemn and cold expression when facing others, but now, before Qin Wentian, she exuded warmth, causing people to feel comfortable.

"After our last meeting at the Demongod Mountain, I didn't expect you to ascend to the peak of the immortal king realm so quickly, being invincible in your realm. If you had more time, I'm afraid the entire immortal realms would be your era." The phoenix matriarch spoke.

"Matriarch, you praise me too much. I'm afraid I won't be able to pass this calamity. I might not even have the chance to repay you for saving my life back then." Qin Wentian bitterly smiled.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch didn't really mind that, "It's just a slight effort on my part, Old Devil Duotian and the Violet Emperor wouldn't dare to do anything either. There's no need to put that matter in your heart. But now, your calamity has truly arrived. There are simply too many powerhouses gathered in the Evergreen Immortal Empire now, including the Senluo Immortal Empire and the Phoeroc Race. Even their emperor-ranked experts wish to kill you. There are even more emperors who left the City of Ancient Emperors to head there. If you really went, you would undoubtedly be courting death."

"But even so, I still have to go. This is something I ought to do." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Everyone has their own thoughts and resolve. I won't attempt to persuade you. This time around, too many major powers are implicated inside. Even if my Southern Phoenix Clan stood behind you in full force, we won't be able to protect you. However, I shall personally head there. If there's a chance to, I will do my best to save your life." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch stared at Qin Wentian while sighing softly in her heart. Although Qin Wentian was at the peak of the immortal king ream, to her, he was just a junior. But even so, she truly admired Qin Wentian from the bottom of her heart.

"I have no way to repay senior for your kindness." Qin Wentian sincerely spoke. The Southern Phoenix Clan had no connection to him. There was no need for the Southern Phoenix Matriarch to do this. Being able to help him to this extent, was already considered a great kindness. A moment later, he waved his hand as a supreme ancient cauldron appeared in the air.

"There's Sacred Luminance in this cauldron. Senior Matriarch, you can allow the more outstanding geniuses of the Southern Phoenix Clan to use this to temper themselves. Consider this a little matter that I can do for the Southern Phoenix Clan." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The phoenix matriarch's eyes flashed with a strange light as she sent a strand of her immortal sense into the cauldron. To think that there was actually Sacred Luminance in there!

Chapter 1524: Surrounding the Imperial Palace

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch's beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian, "The sacred luminance is a truly sacred item. Why didn't you use this as the condition to get my Southern Phoenix Clan to help?"

"Junior and Yunxi are originally already friends that can head to the death for each other. I also have many years of friendship with the Southern Phoenix Clan and you, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, even saved my life before. I'm just doing what I ought to do. If I use this as a condition, I would really be too despicable. Also, in any case, if I cannot pass this tribulation, I'm not willing to implicate the Southern Phoenix Clan within."

Qin Wentian slowly spoke. "It's just that, I hope that after I die, the Southern Phoenix Clan would still be able to maintain their current relationship with the Evergreen Immortal Empire and help me take care of Qing`er. In the future, if the sacred luminance is able to aid the Southern Phoenix Clan in growing stronger, there's naturally nothing I desire more."

"Qin Wentian…" Nanfeng Yunxi's heart trembled as an expression of sorrow appeared on her face. Was he making funeral arrangements?

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch also sighed in her heart. She truly thought that Qin Wentian would be at the peak of the immortal realms if he had time to grow. Is there really no way for him to escape this calamity?

"This cauldron, I shall hand it to matriarch to keep it for me. If you can use it to unleash greater power, please feel free to use it directly." Qin Wentian spoke. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch's beautiful eyes flashed. He was truly making funeral arrangements. What a rare thing the sacred luminance was, just by using it to baptize the experts of their Southern Phoenix Clan, this act was already sufficient to repay them everything they had done for him. Now, he even passed the ownership of the sacred cauldron to her. He was truly making funeral arrangements and hoped that she would take good care of Qing`er for him in the future.

"Good." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch didn't reject it.

"Yunxi and I are extremely close friends, she is also a holy successor of your clan. I hope matriarch will be able to take better care of her." Qin Wentian laughed.

"You this fellow, Yunxi is a member of my Southern Phoenix Clan, where would I need you to remind me about this? If it wasn't for the fact that your emotions for Evergreen Qing`er were too deep, I long wanted to betroth her to you." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch casually laughed, her words causing Nanfeng Yunxi's heart to shake as she blushed and stealthily stole a glance at Qin Wentian.

"Phoenix Matriarch, you shouldn't make jokes with a soon to be dead man like me." Qin Wentian bitterly smiled and shook his head.

"You really have no plans to train in the nirvana art of our Southern Phoenix Clan?" The Southern Phoenix Matriarch asked.

"It's fine." Qin Wentian shook his head. "Time is almost up, I should begin my journey there."

"No hurry. When the time comes, I will personally send you there." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch stared at Qin Wentian. Her words caused his eyes to flash as he nodded lightly.

...……

In the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, within the Darknorth Mountains, the mountains of law appeared once more.

Inside the forbidden ground, a beautiful figure exuding magnificence could be seen. She was clad in robes of a simple design, but this did nothing to diminish her beauty.

She slowly walked into the depths of the forbidden ground, entering the place she entered before. She walked past the two stone monuments that could suppress everything, flowing with a strange light, entering the ruins. She glanced at the surroundings and shouted at the void, "Old fellow, I know you are here. These mountains of law are all under your control. I have a matter I want to ask you."

"Speak." An ethereal voice drifted from the void, it was none other than the old freak Qin Wentian met before.

"I've met the person you once told me about. What did you mean by those words you told him before in that year?" Beiming Youhuang asked.

"Oh? You discovered it so fast?" That voice rang out once more lazily. "I don't mean anything by it, I've already said what I need to say."

"You…" Beiming Youhuang's expression turned unsightly. She was thinking whether what Qin Wentian had said was nonsense or not.

However, back then when she encountered Qin Wentian, the words that fellow spoke did seem something like this crazy old man would say. Could it be that he and her were really fated by destiny?

But, that shameless guy...How can this be possible?

As she thought about this, Beiming Youhuang felt angry again. "Forget it if you won't say. In any case, he will die soon. Right now, more than half of the major powers of the immortal realms have gathered in the eastern regions, wanting to take his life. It is almost impossible for him to escape this calamity."

"Oh, let him die then. What has this got to do with me?" That old man replied, his words causing astonishment to appear on Beiming Youhuang's face.

"You are the one who has a 'connection' with him. You came here because you want to beg me to save him, right?" This crazy old man replied, "I'm not so free though."

"Come to beg you to save him?" Beiming Youhuang's expression turned cold. "It's for the best if he dies earlier. It's just that he also received an inheritance from you so I thought I came here to inform you. If not, it wouldn't be too good if your successor died out there abruptly, right?"

"I can search for a successor anytime I want. Just let him die, it's okay with me." That crazy old man didn't seem to care about this at all. "Little girl, could it be that you came here to accompany me because you are afraid I might be lonely?"

"Stop dreaming." Beiming Youhuang had the same feeling now as she did when she conversed with Qin Wentian, she was extremely unhappy about the old man's decision. She instantly turned and left, "I've already said my piece. It doesn't matter to me if he lives or dies. Do what you want to."

After that, she departed the place.

"Two fellows with no conscience." That old man appeared after Beiming Youhuang left. His long hair was still extremely messy, appearing like a mad old man. He mumbled to himself, "Death? I can't even die if I want to."

...

The eastern regions, in the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

Right now, the majority of those who stayed in the royal capital have already moved out. They didn't dare to remain behind. The Evergreen Immortal Empire might topple anytime and once a war starts, the aftershocks would wreck the entire capital and countless people would definitely die. Hence, those with lower cultivations have long fled here. They planned to return only after the war was over.

However, despite countless people evacuating, there were still people in the capital. Also, all of them had a high cultivation base, at the immortal king realm at least.

Right now, immortal kings filled the streets of the royal capital.

After the news circulated out, many immortal kings exited the City of Ancient Emperors and rushed to gather here. Experts from the other major powers used the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire as their base.

Today, was the end of the three months Qin Wentian had said.

The blazing sun hung high up in the sky, its light illuminating the imperial palace. However, the people inside couldn't feel any warmth at all. They could only feel coldness in their hearts.

Today, the fate of the Evergreen Immortal Empire would be decided.

All the major powers long sent out the news that if Qin Wentian failed to uphold his agreement and didn't appear today, they would instantly sweep through the Evergreen Immortal Empire, razing this place to level ground.

Everything, would depend on Qin Wentian.

In the princess residence inside the imperial palace, two beautiful women could be seen together. These two, were none other than Qing`er and Qingcheng.

"Qingcheng, you really should leave now. I will send you away." Qing`er spoke to Qingcheng.

"Sister Qing`er, do you think he will really come today?" Mo Qingcheng asked in a light voice.

Qing`er's beautiful eyes flickered with sorrow, "It's all my fault."

"Sister Qing`er, I never blamed you. This is what he would do in any case. But no matter what he has to face today, as his wife, I will accompany him to the end if need be. We shall stay together forever no matter what happens. If he is alive, I will be alive. I won't leave this place." Mo Qingcheng gently smiled, filled with an air of poignant-ness. She knew how difficult it was for Qin Wentian to come all this way from a particle world. Who would have thought that there are so many people in the immortal realms who wanted to kill him now?

"Qingcheng…" Qing`er looked at the smile in Mo Qingcheng's eyes as she sighed. She held Mo Qingcheng's hand and smiled, "Alright, let us wait for him together."

"Mhm, let's wait for that dumbo together." Mo Qingcheng smiled and nodded. It didn't seem as though she was waiting for death.

Rumbling sounds rang out, causing the entire space to tremble with a terrifying thunderous noise. In the air, a group of experts on a war chariot sped over. The man in the lead was middle-aged, exuding an air of kings and emperors. Boundless might gushed from him, his eyes seemingly could pierce through everything as he stared at the direction of the Evergreen Immortal Empire's imperial palace. In an instant, a stifling pressure bore down on everyone within there.

"If Qin Wentian doesn't come to die today, we will destroy everything in the Evergreen Immortal Empire." His voice was fearsome to the extreme, causing the hearts of countless people to tremble.

This person, was none other than the Senluo Immortal Emperor from the Senluo Immortal Empire. The son he doted on the most, the Yama King, died in Qin Wentian's hands. Now, he personally led immortal emperors under him to come here to kill Qin Wentian.

In another direction, demonic qi towered up into the sky. Golden flames burned in the air as the experts from the Phoeroc Race arrived. Numerous fearsome phoerocs floated in the air, blotting out the skies, terrifying to the extreme.

Beside them, the ugly demons from the Heavenhold Race, the void beasts and the brutal white tigers could be seen.

The white tigers naturally still remembered how Qin Wentian feasted on white tiger flesh back then in the sacred academy. They also wanted to use this chance to kill that fellow. Although he was still a peak-stage immortal king, he had already matured enough to be a threat.

The experts from the eastern regions also arrived. The Violet Emperor, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, experts from the Paragon Sword Sect, the Taihua Immortal Dynasty and the Skymist Immortal Empire all came. The Skymist Immortal Emperor rode on a war elephant and there was an expression of ice on his face. His killing intent was the most intense out of the experts here. The entire Skymist Immortal Empire was destroyed by the White Emperor. He didn't come here just to kill Qin Wentian.

The Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, the Sacred Sun Sect and the others, all arrived respectively. Qin Wentian had killed their experts before. All of them wanted to come here and see how he would die today.

Inside the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, a group of experts soared up into the air. Among them, there actually was the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and Matriarch Ji. Matriach Ji glanced at the enemy experts gathered around them and coldly spoke, "All the most powerful experts in the immortal realms, including immortal and demon emperors from many of the peak powers gather here today just to kill a junior immortal king? This throne has been alive for many years, this can be considered as having my horizons broadened. I'm impressed, really impressed."

"Matriarch Ji, you best not step in this pool of troubled water." The Senluo Immortal Emperor coldly spoke as he stared at her. Such words were truly unpleasant to hear - so many powerful emperors gathered here just to kill a junior at the immortal king realm. But no matter what, Qin Wentian must die today.

"Matriarch Ji, could it be that you wish to protect Qin Wentian even now?" The Violet Emperor icily spoke. There were simply too many here who wished to kill Qin Wentian. As long as anyone dares to say that they wanted to protect Qin Wentian, they best consider the consequences. He actually wanted nothing more than to hear Matriarch Ji say that she would protect Qin Wentian. If that was the case, he would naturally rally everyone here to destroy her as well!

Chapter 1525: So Beautiful that it Hurts

How could Matriarch Ji not understand the intentions of the Violet Emperor? Her imposing eyes coldly looked at the Violet Emperor, "There's no need for you to try and intimidate people. Violet Emperor, you can also be considered a peak-stage immortal emperor and have been famous for a long time. Back then because of Zi Daoyang's death, you started to make things difficult for Qin Wentian. I heard you even sent people to the Evergreen Immortal Empire wanting to capture him, using your seniority as an excuse. What happened in the end? Nobody gave you face, your embarrassment turned to anger and you decided to continue hunting a junior. But now, look where your brilliant choices led you? It led you to the death of another son."

Matriarch Ji's words prodded at the sore spot in the Violet Emperor's heart. His eyes flashed with terrifying violet light.

"Stop acting so mighty. If you didn't borrow the might of everyone who gathered here, I truly don't have you in my eyes. Qin Wentian killed your son and you want to bully him who is merely a junior. You can very well send your subordinates to hunt him down, but all of them failed and caused you to lose more face. But, you have no shame. You even came here to the Evergreen Immortal Empire, wanting to use the life of my disciple to threaten Qin Wentian to appear. A peak-stage immortal emperor? What a glorious matter."

Matriarch Ji didn't care about his face. She then coldly stared at the experts in the surroundings, "My intent is clear, since you guys can be so shameless and do things to this extent, in the future, I shall definitely repay this favor, forming an alliance to storm the Violet Mountain. At that time, I hope that you, the Violet Emperor, would still be able to act so imposing before me."

Those who could cultivate to the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm, were all naturally extraordinary geniuses. Matriarch Ji was one of the strongest in the immortal realms, yet her personal disciple Qing`er was almost captured and used as a form of threat. One could naturally imagine how she would feel in her heart. Hence, she directly went for broke and threatened the Violet Emperor here. Not only him, she also included the other major powers in the threat.

Today, because all these powers wanted to kill Qin Wentian, but none could manage to do it alone, they decided to come here together. But what about after they killed Qin Wentian? Wouldn't Matriarch Ji, the Evergreen Immortal Empire, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, the Southern Phoenix Clan, form an alliance and strike back? If they allied together, which singular power they targeted would be able to stand against them?

As the sound of her voice faded, the expressions of the other major powers in the east all changed. Regardless of their geographical locations or strength, they would definitely be included in the other party's revenge.

In this space, there were even many powerful characters who came here to spectate. All of them coldly laughed in their hearts, and had the expression of someone watching a good drama. The immortal realms would fall into chaos sooner or later. It would be for the best if these major powers who wished to act, started a conflict now and caused everyone's strength to diminish. After all, by coming here to participate, these powers have already offended the Evergreen Immortal Empire to the limits.

Matriarch Ji has always been close to the Evergreen Immortal Empire. And there was also their relationship with Qing`er. In the future in the chaotic immortal realms, they would definitely ally together.

But now, those major powers who participated were like riding on the back of a mounted tiger, it was too difficult for them to get off. The only way to do so was that they had to kill Matriarch Ji and the Evergreen Immortal Emperor in one shot, not allowing them to survive. However, how could things be so easy? Matriarch Ji was someone that's proficient in spatial energy and is also a peak-stage immortal emperor. If she couldn't win, can't she choose to flee? Let alone, the White Emperor was still out there somewhere. If they chose to act against Matriarch Ji's sect now, the follow up revenge they had to endure would definitely be even more ruthless.

"I only want the life of Qin Wentian. Whoever blocks me, shall be the enemy of my Senluo Immortal Empire. Whoever wants revenge, just come at me straight in the future." The Senluo Immortal Emperor icily spoke. His son with the highest talent was already killed. Regardless of who Qin Wentian is, regardless of the consequences, he had to kill Qin Wentian today.

"If Qin Wentian doesn't die, we shall destroy the Evergreen Immortal Empire." A phoeroc coldly spoke. Jia Huangtian was also one of the phoerocs with the strongest talents, but he has already died.

More and more experts arrived, including those who had nothing to do with this. For example, the people from the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, the Hundred Refinements Sect, the Jadestage Immortal Palace, and the other demonic races of the desolate mountain range.

"The Southern Phoenix Clan actually didn't show up?" A cold voice rang out. It was from the experts of the Ancient Ying Clan. They always had conflict with the Southern Phoenix Clan and as part of the three hegemons of the southern regions, they wanted nothing more than to implicate the Southern Phoenix Clan into this storm.

"Don't be so anxious, the Southern Phoenix Clan will appear for sure." A person smiled. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch was acquainted with Qin Wentian and had helped when they were on the Demongod Mountain before.

Also, everyone knew that the relationship between Qin Wentian and the Southern Phoenix Clan wasn't a shallow one. They would surely show up.

"Even so many devil cultivators from the Myriad Devil Islands came. Seems like today is going to be a lively day." Someone in the crowd glanced in a certain direction. Many devil cultivators gathered over there, their auras cold and tyrannical, flowing with devil might. Although they were gathered in a single location, they belonged to different factions.

"There are even quite a few monks from the Askheart Temple." From another direction, a few monks wearing kasaya could be seen. They were purely buddhist cultivators, different from the Jiang Clan. Although the Jiang Clan cultivated buddhist-path techniques and arts, they weren't considered pure buddhists.

More and more experts appeared. There were several experts from the upper echelons of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect appearing as well, including the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord and Bai Wuya.

Eastern Sage coldly glanced over. Other than Qin Wentian, the ones he hated most were none other than the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord and Bai Wuya, he wanted nothing more than to shatter their bones into pieces. Other than them, the Pure Yang Sword Emperor, and the senior who inducted Jun Mengchen, who was an old man with a celestial appearance who also had helped out in the war against the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and Eastern Sage Sect, were also in his kill list as well.

There were actually four immortal emperors right now in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, causing many to feel shock in their hearts.

The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord naturally could feel the cold gaze from the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. He turned and matched his gaze, "Eastern Sage, to think that after your Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was destroyed, you are actually willing to become a dog for someone else. How pitiful, you have wasted an entire lifetime of your cultivation."

The someone else he was referring to, was naturally none other than Old Devil Duotian. This old devil treated his subordinates extremely harshly. Since the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor has joined the Old Devil Duotian and even asked him for help to kill Qin Wentian, it was clear that Eastern Sage had already betrayed himself.

"You guys would do best to consider for yourselves first." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor sinisterly replied.

Jun Mengchen came as well, he stood at the back. He had to come no matter what. But when he saw that there were so many enemies, he felt a sense of helplessness. Their enemies were simply too strong, they had no chance at all. Since the Heavenly Talisman Realm refused to mobilize its forces to aid Qin Wentian, there was simply no chance for them to save Qin Wentian at all.

"Immortals, devils and demons. Today, we are actually here for the same thing. There should be over half of the major powers in the immortal realms here today." Someone spoke in a low voice. Including the spectators, there was undoubtedly more than 50% of the major powers in the immortal realms gathered here today.

Just for a Qin Wentian at the immortal king realm, such a huge commotion was actually triggered. If it was before this, no one would have believed it.

Many of those who have not seen Qin Wentian before, all felt extremely curious. They wanted to see what sort of character he was exactly. Right now, his fame was so widespread that everyone has heard of it. Within a hundred years, he rose up from a nameless immortal-foundation cultivator to being unrivaled in the immortal king realm. Such growth speed was truly shocking to the extreme.

In the airspace above the Evergreen Immortal Empire, more and more experts from the various major powers appeared.

When faced with such a situation, would Qin Wentian come?

If he comes, he would die without a doubt.

Qin Wentian should understand very well that this is a death situation. Would he really appear?

Many people were doubting this. After all, the Qin Wentian in the rumors is definitely an extraordinary genius. If he continues to grow, he would definitely shine in the future, rising easily to the top. For such a character, his state of heart would definitely be extremely terrifying, he naturally would also be very rationale, more to the side of logic than emotions.

Would he come here to die for the sake of a woman?

For the vast majority of the powerful characters here, they wouldn't do so. If it was them in Qin Wentian's shoes, they would definitely not have appeared here today. To them, preserving their life was everything. Nothing was more important than that.

Beiming Youhuang and Beiming Nongyue stood together beside the Darknorth Immortal Emperor as they quietly waited.

"Elder sister, do you think Qin Wentian will appear?" Beiming Nongyue asked softly. Although she was acquainted with Qin Wentian, she couldn't be sure.

"For someone as shameless as him, there's a 80% probability that he won't appear." Beiming Youhuang's tone wasn't very kind. Beiming Nongyue's mouth twitched but she didn't say anything. Although she didn't want to see Qin Wentian coming here to die, her elder sister don't really seem to like Qin Wentian.

She stared at Li Yufeng in the camp of the Hundred Refinement Sect, there was a trace of worry in his eyes. Clearly, he also didn't want Qin Wentian to come and to send himself to death.

Even Xu Qingyao was here. She stood beside two immortal emperors. These two immortal emperors was clearly a couple, they were her parents.

Even the fox goddess of the nine-tailed fox race was here.

Pei Qing also came. Right now, he was moving towards Beiming Youhuang's location. He bowed to the Darknorth Immortal Emperor when he arrived, "Your Majesty."

"Pei Qing, why did you exit the city of ancient emperors as well?" The Darknorth Immortal Emperor laughed as he asked.

"I knew that Youhuang came out and I guessed it might have something to do with this commotion. Hence, I came here to watch the show too." Pei Qing smiled. After that, he turned to Beiming Youhuang, but he was directly ignored.

Pei Qing bitterly smiled and shook his head, turning to stare at the crowd. He didn't expect that Qin Wentian would actually manage to create a storm of such proportions. Seems like Qin Wentian must have done too much evil. He was simply courting death.

In the airspace above the palace, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Qing'er and the others were here. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor still didn't release the seal on Qing'er. He was worried that Qing`er would die to prevent Qin Wentian from appearing.

"Father, why must you do this?" Qing`er stared at her father with a look of sorrow on her face. She knew that Qin Wentian would come for sure. Only her and Mo Qingcheng didn't doubt this. However, she actually didn't want him to appear.

"As your father, I respected your choice and didn't inform him. But then again, as your father, how can I watch you die like this?" The Evergreen Immortal Emperor sighed. "If he doesn't show up, this means that he isn't worthy of you. If he does appear, it means that he is a true man, I will feel proud for him."

Qing`er closed her beautiful eyes as she sighed in her heart. At this moment, a flash of multi-colored light streaked across the sky, incomparably resplendent. In an instant, the temperature here suddenly surged up as the terrifying flames that just manifested felt as though it wanted to incinerate the heaven and earth.

Auspicious clouds rolled across the sky, transforming into the shadow of a phoenix. This phoenix was truly beautiful, capable of stirring the hearts of those who saw it.

Qing`er inclined her head, tears began to flow from her face when she saw this scene.

What a beautiful phoenix this was. Yet, why did it cause her heart to hurt so badly!

Chapter 1526: Asking for her Hand in Marriage

The beautiful flash of multi-colored light stirred the souls of people, cascading downwards. A crisp-sounding cry from the phoenix could be heard. This was a true divine phoenix, bathing in phoenix flames. Its wings spread open gracefully, floating in the air. On the back of the phoenix, a magnificent, elegant, holy, beautiful figure, could be seen standing there. There seemed to be no descriptive words apt enough to describe her. This person was none other than the Southern Phoenix Matriarch.

"Southern Phoenix Matriarch actually brought this divine phoenix over." The hearts of many experts trembled as they stared at the phoenix.

"He has arrived."

Everyone could see the young man standing beside the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. He was incredibly handsome. His long robes fluttered in the wind, and he who was now basking in the multi-colored light, seemed to exude even more magnificence.

This was especially so when he stood beside the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, causing him to be even more dazzling. Many of the unaffiliated spectators in the crowd sighed silently when they thought of the fate this supreme genius would soon face. The immortal realms actually gave birth to such an outstanding person…

Qing`er's tears were like a broken kite, there was no longer a way to hold them back. Her sparkling crystal-like tears flowed down her face unceasingly, dripping onto her robes.

He came, although he knew he would definitely die, he still came.

In reality, she already knew that he would come. But when she finally saw him, she still had no way to control the tearing pain in her heart. It was because he came, this was precisely why it felt so painful. If he didn't appear, she might not have felt so much pain.

"Why are you here? Who told you to come…?" Qing`er's voice was gentle, yet traces of sorrow could be heard within. She stared up at the beautiful phoenix in the air, the hurt in her heart was so bad that she could barely breathe.

Why did he still chose to come here and die?

Could it be that he doesn't understand with his level of talent, how high his accomplishments would be in the future? Does he not know that these people would definitely kill him as long as he appeared here? They wouldn't give him a chance to escape.

"Because, I'm here to ask for your hand in marriage." Qin Wentian gently smiled, his words causing Qing'er's body to tremble violently. Her heart also trembled when she saw two rows of maidens from the Southern Phoenix Clan with valuable gifts in their hands as they started to walk towards Qing'er.

Because, I'm here to ask for your hand in marriage!

"What does this fellow want to do?" The eyes of the experts flashed. Could it be he doesn't know he would die for sure? He actually wants to marry Evergreen Qing`er now?

Even the people on Qin Wentian's side were stunned. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor stared at the approaching phoenix maidens as well as the Southern Phoenix Matriarch standing beside Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian didn't appear to be joking.

Very swiftly, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor seem to have understood something. Sharpness gleamed in his eyes, but it turned gentle when he stared at Qin Wentian.

Seems like he had already planned everything out before he decided to come here.

He didn't come here by using the teleportation array in the Southern Phoenix Clan, but chose to appear in such a dazzling and resplendent manner. The maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan even brought so many valuable gifts over, there was no need to doubt what Qin Wentian meant by this. These were all betrothal gifts. Qin Wentian had clearly planned things out.

"He is truly someone that doesn't have any idea about the immensity of heaven and earth. He is already going to die yet he still has the mood to get married?" The Violet Emperor icily spoke. When Zi Daolong died, his immortal sense saw the face of the Saber-Sword Immortal King. But the him back then, didn't think of the possibility that the Saber-Sword Immortal King was none other than Qin Wentian.

"Asking for her hand? I'm afraid you don't have the opportunity." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor also coldly spoke, his killing intent gushing forth.

However, Qin Wentian acted like he didn't see anything. He continued walking towards Qing`er with a smile on his face. It felt like he didn't come here today to die, but truly came here to ask for her hand in marriage.

A violent aura radiated from the Senluo Immortal Emperor as his killing intent bubbled forth, gushing towards Qin Wentian. But at this moment, a phoenix cry rang out as the divine phoenix appeared in the center of everyone. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch calmly spoke, "Today, no matter what grudges you all might have with him. Talk about it only after the marriage."

"The Southern Phoenix Clan wishes to protect Qin Wentian?" An expert from the Ying Clan coldly laughed.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch glanced at the person who spoke, her eyes flashing with disdain. "I, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch have promised to ensure that his wedding proposal will be a smooth one. If anyone tries to disturb or disrupt this, I will take that person as an enemy and attack him."

As the sound of her voice faded, a mighty aura gushed forth from her. The divine phoenix beneath her also radiated a sense of imposingness, transferring its power to the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. In the air, countless balls of divine flames appeared, as bright as starlight, causing the sky to change color. At this moment, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch was actually more beautiful than ever.

The eyes of everyone flashed. Right now, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch seemed to have merged with the divine phoenix, becoming one entity. Her combat prowess would undoubtedly be extremely terrifying. If they forcefully acted against her, they would definitely have to pay a heavy price.

Also, she didn't say that she would protect Qin Wentian. She was only here to ensure the marriage proposal went smoothly.

"What bravado. Southern Phoenix Matriarch, could it be you really want to take the whole of the immortal realms as your enemy?" The Skymist Immortal Emperor spoke. He sat on a divine elephant and exuded extreme tyranny. There were a few other immortal emperors beside him, they were all that was left of the Skymist Immortal Empire. Right now, their hatred against the Evergreen Immortal Empire was the greatest.

"You still don't have the qualifications to talk to me. If you want to fight, you and the few other emperors beside you, are still insufficient to face me." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch impolitely humiliated the Skymist Immortal Emperor, causing his face to turn extremely ugly. However, he was helpless to rebut against it.

"Fine, since it won't take long, I will just wait. Let's hope the Southern Phoenix Clan won't make a wrong choice." The Senluo Immortal Empire coldly spoke.

Right now, Qin Wentian has already arrived before Qing'er. When he saw tears streaking down her face, he smiled gently and helped her wipe the tears away. "Qing'er, why are you crying so much when you see me? Do you loathe me that much?"

Qing`er felt even more pain in her heart when she heard Qin Wentina's words. There was no way for her to stop her tears from flowing. She had never acted in this manner before Qin Wentian before, crying so much.

"Since I made you cry so badly, are you still willing to be married to me?" Qin Wentian gently asked. Qing`er stared at his face intently, as though wanting to commit every detail of his features into her memories, burying it within her mind forever.

"I'm willing." Suddenly, a radiant smile flashed on her face. Although there were tears in her eyes, her smile was still so beautiful, so radiant, moving to the extreme.

Even for the enemies who gathered here, all of them couldn't help but praise the emotions between the two people. A celestial couple.

For Qin Wentian, Evergreen Qing`er came back alone to face death. After Qin Wentian learned of the news, he clearly knew it was a death situation yet he still came here with no worries, ignoring the consequences. Not only so, he even wanted to propose a marriage and ask for her hand.

Qin Wentian gently embraced Qing'er, Qing'er allowed him to do so as her tears rolled down, dripping on his robes.

Mo Qingcheng could see everything from below. She was also crying, but she quietly stood where she was, not intending to disturb Qin Wentian and Qing`er. She was willing to give them this bit of alone time, despite the fact that she too, wanted badly to rush over and hug Qin Wentian.

This gentle embrace lasted for a long time, a very long time. Qin Wentian finally broke from the hug. He turned his gaze to the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and smiled, "Your Majesty, I didn't really prepare too much, please forgive me for the simple betrothal gifts. You have once agreed to betroth Qing`er to me. Now that I come here and asked for her hand in marriage, you wouldn't have any objections, right?"

"Since I've already agreed to this back then, I naturally wouldn't have any objections now." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor nodded.

"In that case, I will leave Qing`er to you in the future. Help me take good care of her." Qin Wentian stared at the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, like he was making funeral arrangements.

"I will." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor didn't say anything else since he was Qing`er's father and it was only natural. He merely solemnly nodded in agreement, accepting Qin Wentian's words.

How could he not understand that Qin Wentian came here today because he was worried Qing`er would die in his stead or choose to die together with him?

Qin Wentian, truly has the heart.

How could Qing'er not understand this too? She lightly shook her head and wanted to say something, yet she only saw Qin Wentian gently placing both his hands at the side of her face. He spoke in a very light voice, "Qing'er, I've already asked for your hand in marriage. You have to stay alive and wait for our actual wedding. Before our wedding, nothing can happen to you."

Many people had puzzled looks on their faces. Before this, Qin Wentian seemed like he was making funeral arrangements. But now, he actually told Evergreen Qing`er to wait for their actual wedding? Wasn't this complete nonsense?

However, Qing`er simply looked at Qin Wentian. But she continued to shake her head.

"Qing'er, you know this. I won't die, you have to wait for me." Qin Wentian stared into her eyes, transmitting his voice to her. Qing'er seemed to have understood the meaning behind his words. A look of pain appeared in her eyes, was Qin Wentian really planning to face this calamity alone?

Staring at the gentleness in his gaze, she trembled in pain and closed her eyes. But she eventually nodded her head.

Only after Qin Wentian saw Qing'er nodding, did he finally heave a sigh of relief. He continued, "Qing'er, you have to wait for me to return. Help me take care of her in the meantime, you have to take good care of her."

Qing`er naturally understood who Qin Wentian was referring to. Seems like he didn't intend to say his final farewell to Mo Qingcheng. It felt a little cruel to do this.

"I will." Qing`er nodded seriously. She naturally understood what the words 'take care' meant. She absolutely must not let anything happen to Mo Qingcheng.

Qin Wentian didn't even speak to Mo Qingcheng. It wasn't that he didn't love her. It was that he loves her too much.

Even if he really died and the experts here dispersed, who could guarantee that none of his enemies would act against the people closest to him? In such a scenario, he would rather no one saw his relationship with Mo Qingcheng. He ignored her for the sake of protecting her.

He softly transmitted his voice over, "Qingcheng, take care. Wait for me. I will definitely come back."

After that, he resolutely turned and walked towards the area surrounded by these powerful enemies. His back was facing Qing'er, his back was facing Mo Qingcheng. Qing'er stopped crying, her beautiful eyes were filled with an unbreakable resolve. But for Mo Qingcheng, her legs gave way as she started sobbing.

Did he really have to face all of this alone?!

Chapter 1527: A Historic Moment

In this vast space, Qin Wentian faced everyone here. More than 50% of the major powers of the immortal realms were currently gathered. He had never seen such a large group of experts before. Among these people, any one of them was a character powerful enough to rule an area in the immortal realms.

But now, all of them actually gathered here. Not only that, the vast majority were people who wanted to kill him.

"Everyone really looks up to me, Qin Wentian." Qin Wentian seemed to be praising himself but his words were the truth. For him, so many experts were actually mobilized. They truly looked up to him.

"So, your death is inevitable. You can die with no grievance." The Senluo Immortal Emperor coldly spoke. As the person who could kill the son he doted on the most, the Yama King, one could very well see how high Qin Wentian's talent was. However, an enemy was an enemy, he wouldn't feel any admiration.

"I really can die with no grievance, it's just that I still feel reluctance in my heart." Qin Wentian laughed carefreely. "Given how vast the immortal realms are, how many geniuses rose to the top in different eras? Which of them didn't step upon countless bones to ascend? Everyone, if you take a step back, you can assume that those I killed were nothing but my stepping stones. But even so, I only acted against them because they first had killing intent towards me. If I had the chance to turn back time, I would kill them again. Maybe because of the situation now which caused so many experts to gather in the City of Ancient Emperors, the number of people I killed naturally increased as well. This might be what led to this situation today.

"However, why did those people die while I remain alive? There's only one reason. They were all inferior to me, that's the reason why they died. If not, I would be the one who died instead." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. He then continued, "I initially had the chance to wipe out all of your forces in the City of Ancient Emperors, but I didn't do so because I don't wish to implicate others. Sadly, despite so, you guys still tried to implicate the people around me in order to kill me."

"Have you finished speaking?" The Violet Emperor coldly spoke.

"Violet Emperor, since I'm standing here, I already have no plans to leave this place alive. It's just that I'm laughing because you, as a peak-stage immortal emperor, actually has such a small and narrow heart. In the past, Zi Daoyang didn't die in my hands but you wanted to implicate me to vent your anger. If not for that, there wouldn't be a grudge between us and Zi Daolong need not have died as well. I might be the person who killed Zi Daolong, but you, as his father, was the starting cause of why he died."

Qin Wentian impolitely spoke, his words causing the expression of the Violet Emperor to turn even more ugly as his killing intent surged.

"Since you know you will die for sure, what's the point of saying such things?" The Violet Emperor icily spoke.

"I only want to tell everyone that after my death, all grudges should dissipate into thin air. There better be no other implications to my kin or close friends or although I might have died, I still have many seniors and good friends in the immortal realms who would pay close attention to all of your descendants and juniors. Unless your clans die out, you guys better consider things properly on their behalf."

"You want to reset everything to zero after you die? Fine, I will agree. I originally had no grudge with the Evergreen Immortal Empire. If you die, everything will end with it." The Senluo Immortal Emperor spoke. Qin Wentian wanted to use his life to resolve this storm. He didn't wish that after his death, the Violet Emperor, Eastern Sage, or the Skymist Immortal Emperor would continue to act against the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

Many of the major powers had no objections to this. They were wary of the revenge from the Evergreen Immortal Empire, the Southern Phoenix Clan and the other major powers allied with them. It would truly be a headache to face that. After all, it was impossible to protect their descendants every moment.

To many people, they only wanted to kill Qin Wentian.

However, the expressions of the Skymist Immortal Emperor and the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor were incredibly unsightly to behold. Qin Wentian actually wanted to settle everything with his death alone?

The Skymist Immortal Emperor would never agree to this. He had to take revenge against the White Emperor for destroying his Skymist Immortal Empire.

Naturally, there was no way the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor would agree as well.

"You can die now." The Senluo Immortal Emperor coldly spoke. Although he came for revenge, he was still the lord of the Senluo Immortal Empire and a peak-stage immortal emperor. It wouldn't be too glorious if he personally killed Qin Wentian. Since Qin Wentian understood that he would die no matter what today, just let him commit suicide.

Qin Wentian turned his head and glanced at Mo Qingcheng, before returning his glance to Qing`er, as a smile appeared in his eyes.

"Why…?" Qing`er was still mumbling to herself. Why did Qin Wentian have to show up? Why must it be this way? Why did he ask for her hand now and want her to live on to wait for him?

Qin Wentian smile at Qing'er, but the more radiant his smile was, the more pain Qing'er felt in her heart. Finally, she saw Qin Wentian turning around as a terrifying aura gushed from his body.

"Silly fellow." A sigh rang out. A hand placed on Qin Wentian's shoulder. Qin Wentian stared at the Evergreen Immortal Emperor in puzzlement only to see the Evergreen Immortal Emperor saying, "You are already considered half my son. These people killed my citizens and surrounded my empire, how can I sit aside and watch you die? Hence, although I know it's unwise to start a war, I still have to fight."

As he spoke, terrifying rumbling sounds echoed as the Ancient Evergreen Tree appeared, shining resplendently, as its branches extended out in all directions, merging as one with the Evergreen Immortal Emperor.

"Your majesty, you have already promised me to look after Qing`er." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice.

"At this moment, if I refuse to participate, I wouldn't be able to face you, I wouldn't be able to face Qing`er. However, don't worry. If we can't stop them from killing you, I won't seek death. Fighting now, is just my attitude." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor then turned his gaze to everyone, "Earlier, since my son-in-law already spoken. I shall comply with his wishes. After this war if Qin Wentian dies, all grudges shall be scrubbed clean. You guys can kill me in this war, or I will kill you all. After this war, everything shall be reset to zero. Don't forget that the White Emperor is still out there."

"Well spoken, fighting now is an attitude indeed. Since the Evergreen Immortal Emperor put it this way, I, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, shall participate as well and seek guidance from the immortal emperors of the immortal realms." The phoenix matriarch laughed. She didn't expect the Evergreen Immortal Emperor to stand out at this moment when Qin Wentian was willing to die.

But just like what the Evergreen Immortal Emperor has said, fighting was an attitude. Hence, she, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, decided to participate in this war as well.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch brought her divine phoenix for this. Unless the people here ganged up on her and attacked en masse, she definitely wouldn't die here.

"Very well." The experts from the Ying Clan laughed. The Southern Phoenix Clan wanted to participate. Even if all grudges were scrubbed clean due to Qin Wentian's death, their participation would undoubtedly cause a crack. In the chaotic immortal realms, less and less major powers would be willing to become friends with the Southern Phoenix Clan. More would be their enemies instead.

Their Ying Clan naturally hoped that the Southern Phoenix Clan would participate more in the war. It would be best if things blew up as large as possible.

"Ants trying to shake a tree." The Senluo Immortal Emperor sinisterly stated.

"I'm here too." The voice of Matriarch Ji drifted over, but the expressions of all the experts here didn't change much. They long expected that there would be others who obstructed them.

"Our Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect will naturally be participating as well." Bai Wuya calmly spoke. Jun Mengchen, who stood beside him, had both his fists clenched. Although the hope was slim, there was at least still a tiny chance.

The Heavenly Talisman Realm didn't give the go-ahead to participate. But even so, they still had four emperors on their side supporting Qin Wentian.

Nanfeng Yunxi succeeded as well. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch brought a divine phoenix along and would personally participate.

"Awooo~" From afar, Little Rascal howled at the old heaven-devouring beast. Purgatory's beautiful eyes were staring at him pleadingly too. However, the nine-headed heaven-devouring beast shook his head, "Too weak. We are far from strong enough. If I participate, I naturally can protect myself from death. But do you really think that things would end just like that if he dies? Qin Wentian has offended too many greater demon races, if I participate now, they would definitely seize opportunities to attack me in the future. I still want to watch you mature and grow up."

In another location, Bai Qing wiped away her tears, staring unblinkingly at the powerful devil cultivator in front of her. Her beautiful eyes had boundless anticipation, awaiting his answer.

"If I don't agree, you would probably hate the Judiciary Devil Hall immensely, right? Forget it, there's nothing our devil mountain would be afraid of." As he spoke, that devil cultivator stepped out and said, "Count us in."

The surroundings experts felt bewildered, even the devil cultivators from the Myriad Devil Islands wanted to join? Wasn't Qin Wentian's reputation a little too great?

"Our Myriad Ancient Devil Hall will join in as well." Bujie announced loudly. The devil emperors stared in astonishment at Bujie, but all of them soon had bitter smiles on their faces and had no choice but to step out. They merely agreed to come here for a look and would help out only if there was a chance to, but they didn't agree to participate directly. However, this Bujie directly announced that they would join the battle. Could they say that a disciple from their devil hall shouted the wrong words now? If they did so, it would truly be too shameful. This wasn't the attitude devil cultivators should have.

Not far from them, another expert walked out silently. However, what made Bujie surprised was that this man was actually from the Apostle Devil Hall. Could it be they were helping due to the fact that Qin Wentian had the Myriad Devil Sovereign's inheritance?

Of the devil mountain, three out of the six supreme devil halls decided to participate, causing many to feel shocked in their hearts. Huang Shatian, who was in the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire faction, was the clearest regarding this. He stared at Qin Wentian while sighing in his heart. It was unknown whether he was sighing at Qin Wentian's talent or the fact that such an outstanding genius like Qin Wentian would die soon.

"Sir Qin has fate with our Askheart Temple. Since our fates are joined, we still have to do something for him." A powerful immortal emperor from the Askheart Temple walked out, gleaming with a bright buddhic light.

"Who?" At this moment, the Senluo Immortal Emperor, and the demon emperor from the phoeroc race inclined their heads and stare in the air. A resplendent light flashed as a silhouette could be seen standing there with an ancient bow in his hands.

"Emperor Yu." The Violet Emperor's expression turned cold.

"I was the servant for Ancient Emperor Yi. Qin Wentian is his successor, how can I allow you guys to bully him like this? Evergreen might have made an agreement with you guys, but I have always been all alone. If Qin Wentian dies here today, I shall slay any of the descendants from all your clans everytime I come across one." Emperor Yu bluntly spoke, his words causing the expressions of many experts to turn ugly. This was what they were most troubled over. The threat of a peak-stage immortal emperor was too great.

"Things are getting interesting." A expert from the Jiang Clan among the spectators laughed. He didn't expect there were actually so many experts who would be willing to fight for Qin Wentian. Before this, everyone had guessed wrongly. There was no comparison between this war and the one that happened against the Evergreen Immortal Empire back then.

For that war, the maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan had participated. But this time around, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch brought her divine phoenix along to participate.

For this war, three supreme devil halls from the Myriad Devil Islands would participate, there were also the monks from the Askheart Temple.

With such powerful factions here fighting for him, one couldn't help but to be impressed with Qin Wentian. But even so, there were over ten major powers who wanted to kill him. Those factions that wanted to protect him were naturally still inferior in comparison.

This, was why the entire immortal realms felt that Qin Wentian would surely die. The factions who wanted to kill him were too strong, so overwhelmingly strong that it struck despair in the hearts of everyone.

Qin Wentian glanced at the battlefield. Those who wished to kill him and those who fought for him, as well as though who were in the shadows, waiting to collect the benefits after both sides wounded each other. He glanced at all of these people, committing their faces to his memory.

But at this moment, who would have thought that this war would be a foreshadowing for the future of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms?

This moment would be recorded in the annals of history. Even countless years later, it would be something everyone discussed enthusiastically!

Chapter 1528: Judgement Day

Other than the two sides that revealed their attitudes, Beiming Nongyue and Li Yufeng both had extremely good relations with Qin Wentian. But just with this layer of friendship, neither the Darknorth Immortal Emperor nor the Hundred Refinements Emperor, would participate in this storm.

Similarly, for the Ying Clan and Thunder God Hall who also had a slight grudge with Qin Wentian, they both didn't bother to participate and was content to be spectators. The immortal realms were going to descend into chaos soon. Strengthening themselves should be their sole purpose. They naturally wanted nothing more than to see other major powers exhaust themselves in a war. If there was no critical reason, they naturally didn't want to participate. But of course, if there was a heaven-sent opportunity that appeared, they also wouldn't mind stabbing Qin Wentian in the dark.

In any case, no matter what happens, Qin Wentian would definitely die today no matter how many fought for him.

The Senluo Immortal Emperor didn't mind Qin Wentian committing suicide. But now, since there are people who wanted to fight for Qin Wentian, he could only personally act to finish Qin Wentian off.

He glanced at the Southern Phoenix Matriarch before turning to the phoeroc race's emperor. "You have a similar bloodline as her. I will leave her to you."

"Sure." That emperor was named Jia Yemo, he was a supreme demon emperor with the powers of two bloodlines. His talent was extremely high and could be considered an existence on the level of old monsters. This time, after Jia Huangtian was killed, he came to the Evergreen Immortal Empire for revenge as Jia Huangtian was a junior he had very high hopes for.

He wanted to see how strong the Southern Phoenix Matriarch would be exactly as someone who possessed a primordial bloodline of the divine phoenix.

In an instant, the experts here all unleashed their auras, causing resplendent lights to radiate from them. Those who didn't want to participate, all retreated far away, allowing the combatants to have a vast battlefield. Given how large the scale of this war was, the aftershocks were enough to engulf the entire Evergreen Immortal Empire.

The Ancient Evergreen Tree has already enveloped the imperial capital completely. Qing`er and the others were safely inside it too.

"Ancient Evergreen." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor coldly spoke. The branches and vines of the tree extended outwards without end, towards the enemies, wanting to trap them within a prison.

Each branch and vine emitted a dazzling glow, flowing with law energy, staying evergreen and indestructible.

A terrifying surge of demonic might gushed up into the sky. The phoeroc, Jia Yemo, reverted to his true form as a pair of gigantic phoenix wings blotted out the sky. With a flap of his wings, every obstruction in his surroundings shattered apart. He then rushed towards the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the divine phoenix mount.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch calmly stabbed out her finger, summoning a ball of undying flames that shot forth.

As the Southern Phoenix Matriarch has already made clear of her intentions to fight, the other immortal emperors from her clan naturally wouldn't stay neutral. All of them stepped out and joined the battle. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch represented the entire Southern Phoenix Clan. Her attitude represented the entire clan as a whole.

"Capture them!" The white tigers howled, rushing towards the immortal emperors from the Southern Phoenix Clan.

A terrifying spatial light flashed as a fearsome king void beast appeared. It stepped through space, rushing towards Qin Wentian. The protective branches and vines around Qin Wentian crumbled at its onslaught. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor clearly wanted to use the Ancient Evergreen Tree to protect Qin Wentian. But how could it be so easy to do so before the attack of so many experts?

Similarly, another expert also stepped through space. This was none other than Matriarch Ji. Terrifying turbulent spatial storms raged around her as she directly attacked the king void beast.

Upon noticing this, several void beasts all came forward, fighting against the immortal emperors from Matriarch Ji's sect. The strongest emperor-ranked war in countless years, happened in the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

The immortal emperor from the Sacred Sun Sect walked out. He was a supreme character, one of the sect leaders of the Sacred Sun Sect. The rays from the sun focused on him. The heat radiating from him was so overwhelming that the vines and branches of the Ancient Evergreen in his surroundings all disintegrated from the heat.

From the air, a fearsome heavenly might locked down on him. This caused coldness to flicker in the eyes of the Sacred Sun Sect's sect leader. The heat around him surged, he became like a real sun, summoning boundless flames to incinerate the heaven and earth, gushing towards Emperor Yu who was in the air.

Emperor Yu's body was gleaming like the stars. The bow and arrow in his hands were resplendent to the extreme, seemingly capable to shoot down the sun.

"Feather Divine Arrow? Isn't this a supreme divine weapon once used by Ancient Emperor Yi?!" The eyes of all the spectators flashed when they felt the tyrannical might exuded by the bow and arrow. Right now, to think that this weapon landed in the hands of Emperor Yu. This old fellow truly hid himself deeply within the God Hand Mountain Manor, not revealing himself at all.

The divine arrow shuttled through the air, capable of destroying everything. It pierced through the sacred sun sword which the sect leader took out, shooting straight for the sect leader himself.

However, as a sect leader of the Sacred Sun Sect, how could he not have any powerful treasures on him? A sun crown on his head radiated brightly as a fearsome law energy shot out, transforming into a true sun. The flames within the sun erupted forth, burning everything. Ordinary immortal emperors would have no choice but to retreat.

This time around, Emperor Yu lifted his bow and shot out three more Feather Divine Arrows. Other than the sect leader from the Sacred Sun Sect, two other immortal emperors were locked on as well. Both of them were immediately on the defensive as they moved closer to their sect leader.

Emperor Yu who was at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm, with the divine bow and arrow in his hand, the power he could unleash was unimaginably formidable. If those who just broke through to the immortal emperor realm fought against him, they would undoubtedly die within a single strike. They might all be immortal emperors but there was a difference of two small-stages in their cultivation. Even mid-stage immortal kings might not be able to withstand the might of a single divine arrow.

"The power of the Feather Divine Arrows are extremely strong, they can simultaneously control several immortal emperors." The spectators mused silently. After the arrows of Emperor Yu locked on to their targets, their targets would be filled with trepidation, their movements restricted and easily controlled by him. This was a good weapon which was very good for threatening opponents.

In addition, when they thought of what the Emperor Yu said earlier, about him taking revenge after Qin Wentian's death, all of their expressions turned incredibly ugly. If Emperor Yu didn't die here today and he managed to escape, things would definitely be extremely dangerous for them in the future.

"Who wants to join forces with me to kill him?" The sect leader from the Sacred Sun Sect coldly spoke, his heart brimming with ambition. He actually wanted to kill Emperor Yu.

Both were peak-stage immortal emperors but Emperor Yu had the Feather Divine Bow and Arrows with him. Even so, the sect leader of the Sacred Sun Sect didn't fear Emperor Yu. It was just that it wouldn't be easy to kill him. But if they allowed him to attack freely, he would be a huge threat to them. Since this is the case, he might as well ask another peak-stage immortal emperor to join forces to eliminate Emperor Yi once and for all.

"I'll join you." The Violet Emperor coldly spoke. Emperor Yu had disrupted his plans umpteen times. He might as well take the opportunity to finish Emperor Yu. The Sacred Sun Sect was a supreme peak power in the central regions. From this, one could see how powerful a sect leader character from it was. If the commotion this time around wasn't great enough, the Sacred Sun Sect might not even have dispatched a sect-leader level character.

These two experts instantly moved towards Emperor Yu. Emperor Yu's eyes flickered, but he didn't attack directly. He soared higher up in the air, it wasn't a joke to deal with two peak-stage emperors, he would clearly be at a disadvantage. With his bow in his hand, he could be extremely powerful if he attacked at long-distances. Naturally, if he could make it so that two peak-stage immortal emperors were focused on him and not participating in the war, it could already be considered very excellent.

Many immortal emperors from the Skymist Immortal Empire were fighting against the immortal emperors from the Heavenly Talisman Realm. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord fought against his old rival, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. The greater demons of the Heavenhold Race were fighting against the experts from the Judiciary Devil Hall.

The Senluo Immortal Emperor grabbed out in the air. A towering might from the underworld gathered and shot towards Qin Wentian. However, at this moment, an ancient buddha from the Askheart Temple appeared before him.

As a buddhic chant rang out, the entire space transformed into a buddha world.

"Why must the Askheart Temple interfere in this battle?" The Senluo Immortal Emperor coldly frowned.

"Sir Qin is fated with the Askheart Temple. This is already reason enough." The reverend which summoned the ancient buddha, replied.

The Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, the Paragon Sword Sect, and the Taihua Immortal Dynasty were fighting against the devil cultivators from the Grand Apostle and Myriad Ancient Devil Halls.

"Haha, only a large-scale war like this is interesting. I really feel like participating too." An immortal emperor from the Ancient Ying Clan laughed. The entire royal capital was covered with emperor-level aftershocks. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor used the Ancient Evergreen Tree to occasionally attack various enemy immortal emperors. However, he was also enduring powerful attacks every moment, causing parts of the ancient tree to crumble apart.

From the surface, it appeared that the factions on Qin Wentian's side, were able to handle their enemies. However, if one observe more indepthly, they could tell that the factions on his side had to do their best to obstruct the enemies. It was impossible to prevent Qin Wentian's death. In any case, this still wasn't the full strength of the enemies as there were still some emperors in the City of Ancient Emperors who had yet to exit.

Also, although it was agreed that all grudges would end once Qin Wentian dies, the immortal emperors on both sides were extremely ruthless, going for the kill whenever they could.

If not, it would be impossible for the two peak-stage immortal emperors, the sect leader of the Sacred Sun Sect and the Violet Emperor to join forces against Emperor Yu.

Eventually, an immortal emperor from the Paragon Sword Sect managed to break through and appear before Qin Wentian. Every step he took contained a startling sword might. An astral glow gleamed from him, his sword intent could pierce through everything, directly boring down on Qin Wentian, instantly causing many others in the surroundings to turn pale.

However, Qin Wentian's body also radiated light from boundless law energies. His constellation appeared, along with streams of sword qi river, all surging up to block that descending sword intent.

"You have to die eventually. What a futile struggle, you even implicated so many others in this." Although this emperor from the Paragon Sword Sect was an initial-stage one, he was naturally powerful enough to kill Qin Wentian. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor was tied down by other forces and wasn't able to help him. This caused many people to sigh. As expected, no one would be able to save him.

That immortal emperor from the Paragon Sword Sect leisurely strode forward. Another strand of sword intent fell from the sky, directed towards Qin Wentian. The sword intent formed a paragon sword that pierced through everything, shooting right through the sword river. Immortal emperors were clearly on a different level with immortal kings. A single sword was able to break through so many streams of sword qi river, capable of destroying everything.

The paragon sword radiated a heavenly pressure and an intensely sharp aura as it bore down on Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian's expression was incredibly unsightly. He closed his eyes, seemingly struggling helplessly underneath the overwhelming might!

Chapter 1529: Killing An Emperor

Qin Wentian, was he going to die?

Despite so many experts on his side, it was still hard for him to avoid death today.

In the direction of the Darknorth Immortal Empire, Pei Qing floated in the air, quietly observing the battles. He spoke lightly, "The cultivation of this man is insufficient yet he is so arrogant. I long knew he would die at a young age, but I didn't expect it to be so soon."

Beiming Nongyue was extremely unhappy when she heard this. She coldly replied, "Because he once smacked your face with his words, you are extremely unhappy and decided that he is arrogant? Don't forget who was the one being arrogant first back then. In the end, didn't the arrogance someone displayed turn into humiliation and that person had to slink away like a defeated dog?"

Pei Qing narrowed his eyes, staring at Beiming Nongyue. "As an immortal emperor, I naturally have the qualifications to be arrogant. At that time, who the hell was he? A mere immortal king dares to act so arrogantly before me? If that place wasn't in the Darknorth Royal Palace, how would I have spared him? The ending he is going to have was already predicted by me back then. A man's attitude determines his destiny."

"The things he dares to do as an immortal king, you as an immortal emperor might not dare to. A mere immortal king like him can make over half of the major powers in the immortal realms fight over his fate. Didn't you always self-proclaim to be extraordinary? Saying that you are the number one genius of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty? But in front of him, your radiance dimmed to the point of darkness. Are you jealous of him?" Beiming Nongyue continued, causing Pei Qing to be even more unhappy. Despite the Darknorth Immortal Emperor beside him, Pei Qing couldn't help but to snort coldly at Beiming Nongyue to express his unhappiness.

"Can you two be quiet?" Beiming Youhuang frowned, her tone sounding extremely irritated. Beiming Nongyue and Pei Qing didn't continue to speak.

Outside the battlefield, there were some who were gloating over Qin Wentian's misery, there were others who felt incomparably nervous. Jun Mengchen, Nanfeng Yunxi and their group hated that they weren't strong enough to join the battle. Sadly, although they were considered exceptional characters at the immortal king realm and could be considered true experts in the perspective of the immortal realms, they were still not qualified to join this war. Those participating now were all immortal emperors. If they joined in, death was their only fate.

Qing'er and Mo Qingcheng stared unmovingly, at the battlefield. Or more accurately, they were staring at Qin Wentian. At this moment, Mo Qingcheng looked extremely weak. As for Qing'er, after Qin Wentian's proposal and words, she no longer cried. Her beautiful eyes flickered with the coldness of an unbendable resolve.

In that battlefield, the immortal king from the Paragon Sword Sect pressed forth with his finger as the boundless sword might radiated forth crushed down with merciless might, wanting to kill Qin Wentian in body and soul.

At the same moment, the constellation behind Qin Wentian transformed into the form of a supreme devil. For an instant, it was like a devil god descended down to the world, summoning numerous members of its kind, their auras engulfing everything, sealing this entire space, using a convergence of their palm attacks to block the pressure of that paragon sword blow.

"Mhm?" The eyes of everyone flashed. Qin Wentian actually still had the power to defend? Why did his method seem somewhat similar to achieving a resonance with his constellation?

A symbol of an immortal emperor was clearly the fact that they could resonate with their constellations. Their power far exceeds immortal kings. During combat, emperors would use this method frequently to overwhelm their opponents.

But at this moment, an immortal king actually did the same thing? However, could he really withstand the attacks of an immortal emperor with just that?

One must know that resonating with one's constellation might grant immortal emperors great power. But immortal emperors are still immortal emperors, they are not solely restricted to this method. Their cultivation realm was a step higher and the energy within their bodies was terrifying to the extreme. Maybe other immortal emperors could stop the paragon sword attack. But an immortal king wanted to do so? Isn't that nothing but a fool's dream?

"Qin Wentian is quite intelligent, he actually thought of mimicking immortal emperors to try and defend against one. However, that's nothing but an ant trying to shake a tree. He's ultimately still overestimating himself and is doomed to fail." Everyone mused.

That immortal emperor from the Paragon Sword Sect had a mocking smile on his face. He stared at Qin Wentian who was surrounded by devils who seemingly stood in a protective formation.

"You are so humorous." That Paragon Sword Sect's immortal emperor laughed. After that, he slashed out with his sword. He didn't slash at the gigantic palm formed from the convergence of palm attacks. He aimed for Qin Wentian directly.

"Burning rebellion!"

Qin Wentian's blood force erupted out. An inky black Xuanwu Turtle manifested, glowing with blood-red light, exuding holy will. It actually didn't shatter from the sword attack. This caused that immortal emperor from the Paragon Sword Sect to have a look astonishment on his face.

His defense was actually so strong to this extreme? Although cracks appeared on the turtle shell, it actually didn't shatter. No wonder he could reign supreme in the immortal king realm, unrivaled by all others. No wonder he could cause experts from all directions to gather here for the sake of killing him. People wanted to kill him not only for the mere sake of revenge. They also wanted to remove a future threat. There was no way they could stand still and watch an enemy like Qin Wentian grow stronger, rising to the top step by step. The further he proceeded, the harder it would be for them to kill him.

The Violet Emperor and the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor were the clearest with regards to this point. When Qin Wentian was weak, although they had killing intent, they minded their status and face, and didn't act personally to kill him. But later on, their hearts were filled with regrets. The Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was destroyed, a son of the Violet Emperor, Zi Daolong, was killed by Qin Wentian. Right now when they finally wanted to act personally to kill Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian already was in a position where so many other major powers moved to help him.

If a few hundred more years passed, once he broke through to the emperor realm, who in the immortal realms would be able to kill him?

The aura of the immortal emperor from the Paragon Sword Sect surged. Boundless sword intent congregated as one, transforming into a gigantic supreme sword that filled the sky with hums. His lips curled up in a smile filled with killing intent. This attack should be sufficient to end Qin Wentian.

"The reason why I can kill so many people from you major powers is because of only one reason. They, are the same as you. Always overestimating yourself."

As the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, the devil god's shadow behind him howled with anger. Qin Wentian stabbed out his finger aiming for the sky. In an instant, the giant palm from before moved. It trembled as numerous devil imprints fell from the sky, cleaving down towards that immortal emperor from the Paragon Sword Sect.

"KILL!" Qin Wentian roared. The devil god behind him let out an earth-shattering roar as a supremely powerful palm powered by the entirety of power of God's Hand slammed out frenziedly towards that immortal emperor.

At this moment, that giant palm transformed into a supremely terrifying grand formation. The palm attacks rained down ceaselessly with such might that even immortal emperors couldn't afford to ignore it. The immortal emperor from the Paragon Sword Sect pressed his palm forward, forming another supreme paragon sword in his hand as he swept out in an arc with it. RUMBLE~ The palm attacks blasted down, but many of them were lacerated into nothingness by the sword intent. However, the palm attacks seemed endless, there were simply too many of them. The paragon sword trembled as it began to lose its luster.

The expression of this immortal emperor turned ugly. He finally understood what Qin Wentian meant by that sentence he spoke earlier. Some people, although they are just immortal kings, couldn't afford to underestimate them.

The energy in the immortal emperor's body churned wildly. Right now, it was impossible for him even if he wanted to borrow the strength of his constellations. He could only depend on the energy within him. Countless sharp swords manifested into being, wanting to rip everything apart but they were soon shattered by the unending waves of palm strikes. Qin Wentian's left hand lifted up as a devil saber materialized. A moment later, it sliced down, directly aiming for the immortal emperor's soul. Even for an immortal emperor, he could feel the extreme pain in his soul as his face turned pale.

The palm attacks continued raining down unceasingly. It was so fast that the naked eye could no longer follow its speed. A wail of reluctance echoed out thunderously as all the swords eventually got destroyed. The remnants of energy from the palm strikes all slammed into the immortal emperor's body. If he can't kill the immortal emperor with a palm strike, he would then launch the same attack over and over again. Deafening explosive sounds rang out as the surroundings trembled intensely. Finally, the immortal emperor could no longer withstand the destructive power as his body exploded, instantly turning into dust.

Qin Wentian's energy consumption was terrifying to the extreme. Sweat covered his entire body. There was ultimately still a distance between theory and reality. Despite his careful consideration and planning on how to kill an immortal emperor, when he truly fought with one, it was still incomparably difficult.

But at this moment, all the experts here were dumbstruck. The one who died wasn't Qin Wentian? It was that immortal emperor from the Paragon Sword Sect!

An immortal king killing an immortal emperor?

This was a battle that turned everyone's logic topsy-turvy. Although the characters here were all extraordinary individuals, all of them were still incomparably shocked.

Many immortal emperors narrowed their eyes when they saw Qin Wentian's strength. In that case, Qin Wentian should die even more. If he doesn't die, how could they feel at ease?

As expected, the battle raged fiercer and fiercer, there were instantly immortal emperors who started to kill their way over in Qin Wentian's direction.

However, to those who wished to protect Qin Wentian, they were incomparably surprised, but their joy soon faded away. Such an elite genius, was he really going to die here like this? They fought even more frantically, trying to block those immortal emperors who wanted to kill Qin Wentian.

When Jun Mengchen, Qing`er and their group saw such an awe-inspiring scene, they didn't feel joy or surprise. Instead, their worry grew more intense instead.

Pei Qing narrowed his eyes, a cold intent could be seen flickering within.

"Immortal emperor? Pei Qing, you are also merely an initial-stage immortal emperor." Beiming Nongyue coldly mocked. Before this, Pei Qing was still feeling so proud due to his identity as an immortal emperor, saying that Qin Wentian couldn't compare to him. However, in the blink of an eye, Qin Wentian had already killed an immortal emperor!

Chapter 1530: Crazy Battle

Pei Qing naturally could hear the hidden meaning within Beiming Nongyue's words. How could his expression not be unsightly?

The first time when he met Qin Wentian in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty's royal palace, he was extremely proud about his own status and exhibited extreme disdain for everything else, even killing an expert on Qin Wentian's level casually.

In addition, everyone understood the import of Qin Wentian's last act. It wasn't as simple as just killing an immortal emperor. It was him killing an immortal emperor when he was in the immortal king realm.

Although his opponent was just an initial-stage immortal emperor, he was still someone from a peak power, the Paragon Sword Sect. How could he be weak?

Being able to kill immortal emperors when he is only in the immortal king realm. In that case, if Qin Wentian broke through to the immortal emperor realm, what magnificent scenes would there be?

Sadly, no one would be able to see such a scene. Everyone was very clear on this point in their hearts.

"There's no need to compare myself with a dead person." Pei Qing coldly spoke.

"But you basically can't compare, right? The number one genius of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty?" Beiming Nongyue sarcastically spoke but there was no joy in her eyes. She could see the situation on the battlefield. More and more experts launched powerful attacks, wanting to kill Qin Wentian regardless of cost.

Even Beiming Youhuang was sighing in her heart silently. Although she always felt that Qin Wentian was shameless, but her impression of him has changed after she saw the incident today.

The experts of the immortal realms all gathered here, surrounding the Evergreen Immortal Empire to force Qin Wentian to appear. Everyone in the world knew that as long as Qin Wentian showed up, he would definitely die today.

But even so, he still came. He came here with no intentions of walking out alive.

He knew he would die but he still appeared here. For such a person, how could you say that he is shameless?

It was rumored that Qin Wentian was unrivaled in the king's realm in the City of Ancient Emperors and had killed many supreme characters of many major powers, resulting in all of them coming here to hunt him down. If those are only rumors, was there still a need to suspect the truth of them when everyone here personally saw how he killed an immortal emperor? He was even stronger compared to the rumors, his talent even higher.

If he could stay alive, he would definitely the hegemon of his generation. Although countless major powers in the immortal realms wanted to kill him, given how vast the immortal realms are, he could change his name and hide in remote places, changing his identity and cultivating silently. As long as he was careful enough, it was still possible to climb to the peak of the immortal realms.

But, he actually chose to show up here. With his talent...he still came here to die.

For him, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, the Southern Phoenix Clan, Matriarch Ji, Emperor Yu, the monks from Askheart Temple and even the devil cultivators of the Myriad Devil Islands chose to participate in the war.

This man, was completely different from the Qin Wentian, she, Beiming Youhuang, was acquainted with. Hence, she couldn't help but to think back to the words spoken by that old freak as she sighed in her heart.

Because, no matter how outstanding Qin wentian was, no matter how good she felt about him, he wasn't too far away from dying.

At this moment, two other immortal emperors rushed him. Although the Evergreen Immortal Emperor was doing his best to obstruct the enemies, there were still quite a few peak-stage and mid-stage immortal emperors, with even more initial-stage immortal emperors on the enemy side. It was no surprise that some managed to breach the Ancient Evergreen Tree. Not only that, in terms of numbers, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and his allies were slowly losing control.

Staring at the two immortal emperors rushing over, although they were both at the initial-stage, they wouldn't be the same as that immortal emperor earlier who underestimated Qin Wentian. Astral light radiated from them, the two of them resembled divinities as they attacked. They wouldn't give Qin Wentian the slightest chance at all.

These two immortal emperors. One was from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty and the other was from the void beast race.

Terrifying spatial energy erupted forth. The powerful demon emperor appeared before Qin Wentian as its gigantic claws sought to rip everything apart. The claws were akin to sharp spatial swords, terrifying to the extreme.

The devil might from Qin Wentian also erupted forth. The constellation behind him was still present as the devil god summoned countless devils which blotted out the sky with their numbers. When that shockingly powerful claw blasted over, Qin Wentian's blood energy churned wildly as he infused his holy will into the Xuanwu Turtle's shield barrier. But even so, the claw shattered the Xuanwu's protection and landed on Qin Wentian's body of laws.

Yet, Qin Wentian didn't seem to feel pain. His eyes gleamed with sharpness, piercing into the mind of his opponent. Sword intent gushed forth from his eyes, tunneling into the body of his opponent as he launched tyrannical attacks at the void beast's soul.

"ROAR!" That void beast howled in rage. His attacks already arrived before Qin Wentian, he mustn't fumble now. His claws sank into Qin Wentian, the law energy of the emperor realm gushed forth unceasingly with heaven-shaking might, lacerating Qin Wentian's body, causing blood and flesh to fly about. The sight of this was incomparably cruel, many people closed their eyes, not wanting to look upon this.

"ARGH!" Jun Mengchen let out a roar of pain and misery. His fists were clenched tightly but he couldn't go. If he participated, he would only die uselessly. He had to remain alive to take revenge for his senior brother.

Little Rascal transformed into a gigantic golden beast as he rushed forward. However, he was forcibly grabbed by that nine-headed demon emperor, not allowing him to go out. It was so difficult for him to find a royal-blooded Heaven Devouring Beast. How could he allow Little Rascal to die like this? His only purpose now was to nurture Little Rascal.

Purgatory's beautiful eyes flowed with tears as she recalled all the memories she had with Qin Wentian. She wanted to rush forward but was also held back by the old heaven devouring beast. He didn't want her to die senselessly.

The other immortal emperor stood at the back. When he saw this scene, he believed that there was no need for him to act as Qin Wentian was going to die.

"DIE!" At this moment, a shocking voice of anger erupted from Qin Wentian. Although his body was being torn to pieces, he still could produce such a howl of fury. The soul attacks as well as attacks from his dreamscape, all transformed into reality. They directly blasted into the void beast, sending him flying. After that, the giant palm blasted out once more, brimming with the might of a grand formation, directly killing this void beast who was at the demon emperor realm.

"This…" Countless people were stunned into shock, not daring to believe their eyes. The strike unleashed before Qin Wentian died, was actually so terrifying? Powerful enough to slay an immortal emperor?

When cracks appeared on his body due to the claw attacks, he was actually still able to unleash an attack of such might. Was he really just an immortal king?

Tragic. One could only use the words 'a tragic sight' to describe Qin Wentian. His entire body was covered with bloody wounds, essentially crippled. But even so, the light in his eyes were as bright as ever, capable of stirring the souls of others. He was staring at the remaining immortal emperor who was dumbfoundedly staring back at him.

"Senior brother!" Jun Mengchen actually teared when he saw this. How tragic. That magnificent and carefree senior brother of his was actually in such a miserable state now. He felt hatred, he hated these enemies, as well as the fact that he was useless.

Bai Qing radiated a terrifying judgement glow. Her eyes were blood-red, extremely terrifying. That was her Wentian gege, he was actually injured to such an extent.

"ARGH! Evergreen and White Emperor, I can't live under the same sky as you two!" An enraged voice echoed out, trembling the sky. It was actually the Paragon Sword Emperor who roared. Clearly, the Paragon Sword Sect suffered the same fate as the Skymist Immortal Empire. When so many people gathered here, the White Emperor made his move against the Paragon Sword Sect.

"My sentiments exactly." The voice of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor was cold to the extreme, causing many of the spectators to have strange looks on their faces. As expected, although before this, everyone agreed to have the slate of grudges reset to zero, how could things be so easy? With an emperor-level war occurring, in addition to the current situation in the immortal realms with the demons of the desolate mountains invading, chaos reigned supreme. It was destined to sweep through the immortal realms. No one could evade it.

Before this, the Evergreen Immortal Empire could be considered among the weaker ones among the major powers in the eastern regions. If they could kill Qin Wentian today but failed to completely eradicate the Evergreen Immortal Empire, given the peak-stage cultivation base of the White Emperor, as well as the Evergreen Immortal Emperor plus the Ancient Evergreen Tree, the balance of power among the eastern regions would shift again.

At this moment, the crowd actually discovered to their shock that the devil might radiating from Qin Wentian grew stronger and stronger. The numerous wounds and cracks on his body were actually regenerating!

"Undying energy. You comprehended the undying law attribute?" The immortal emperor from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty had an ugly expression on his face. He thought that there was no need for him to join the fight. But, before Qin Wentian actually killed the demon emperor from the void beast race, contrary to everyone's expectations? In that case, Qin Wentian was surely a spent force, an arrow at the end of its flight. He wasn't in a hurry to kill Qin Wentian, he didn't want to suffer any more than necessary from the last-ditch attacks from Qin Wentian before his death.

But Qin Wentian actually had an undying body. That attack earlier basically failed to kill Qin Wentian.

The constellation behind Qin Wentian grew even more terrifying. One could see the resplendent astral souls within radiating with a variety of law attribute energies he was proficient in. Terrifying amounts of laws energy gushed forth as they congregated on the gigantic palm from before.

"Act quickly!" A loud roar rang out. That immortal emperor from the Taihua Immortal Emperor moved to comply but at the next instant, a terrifying gaze directly brought him into a dreamscape. He naturally knew that his consciousness was in a dreamscape and was also able to break free from it, returning to reality. But, the problem was that the attacks from the dreamscape could also turn into reality!

"Being able to drag a few immortal emperors to the grave with me. I'm actually not on the losing end." Qin Wentian started laughing madly. Boundless law energy gushed forth from him, draining him dry. That devil god's giant palm slammed down once more with crushing force, aiming for that immortal emperor. Although the immortal emperor's attacks once again caused his body to crumble apart, that giant palm attack also caused the immortal emperor to be blasted into a state at the edge of death.

Finally, with a howl of despair, that immortal emperor from the Taihua Immortal Dynasty died before Qin Wentian. But the Qin Wentian now, was truly an arrow at the end of its flight. He no longer had any strength left, all his energy was drained dry.

A thunderous boom rang out as a mid-stage immortal emperor shattered his giant palm imprint. He stood in the air, coldly staring down with contempt at Qin Wentian.

So many major powers here, with so many powerful experts. Yet… to think that an immortal king actually managed to kill three immortal emperors!

Chapter 1531: Hair Turning White in an Instant, Tears of Blood

Be it the experts spectating or the experts currently fighting, all of them were stunned into speechlessness. Qin Wentian, who was surrounded, actually depended on himself to kill three immortal emperors.

What an incomparably high combat prowess and terrifying cultivation talent? His undying body in combination to these factors, made it seemed like he was perfect.

Qin Wentian was simply an unrivalled genius. If he could break through to the immortal emperor realm, how difficult would it be to kill him? If he stepped into the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm, at that time, who in the entire immortal realms would be able to stand against him?

This made everyone shiver. Luckily, they came here to hunt him down today. If not, if they still delayed this and waited for him to grow stronger, he would truly become an invincible enemy. This was especially so in this chaotic era. With his rise, how many peak powers that had enmity with him would fall?

Three immortal emperors died, this caused many experts here to sigh silently with relief. Their decision this time around was right. They should kill Qin Wentian before his strength grew out of control. This was undoubtedly the correct path.

For the spectators, many of them felt it was a pity for such a supreme character to die here. However, many of those who hated Qin Wentian naturally wanted him to die as soon as possible.

In this era, everyone naturally hoped that they themselves would be able to stand at the peak of the immortal realms.

Qin Wentian caused their hearts to tremble. Luckily, he was finally going to die today.

Right now, in the airspace above Qin Wentian. That mid-stage immortal king who shattered Qin Wentian's palm imprint was standing there. Qin Wentian inclined his head, his gaze was extremely terrifying. At this last moment, although his opponent was a mid-stage immortal emperor, he still wanted to battle.

"RUMBLE~" The vines of the Ancient Evergreen Tree broke past the enemy line and extended towards Qin Wentian, destroying everything that was blocking them. However, that mid-stage immortal emperor was also an extraordinary character. The constellations in the sky resonated with him as boundless law energy churned wildly, tearing the ancient vines into pieces. He stared at Qin Wentian below and stabbed his finger outwards. An astral beam congregated, brimming with destructive might as it shot towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian howled loudly, the last bits of his blood energy rose up into the sky, transforming into a dragon and a vermillion bird.

The middle-stage immortal emperor casually stomped down, causing the heaven and earth to shake. Boundless law energy pressed down, crushing the dragon and vermillion bird. The power of the stomp directly bore down on Qin Wentian. Terrifying rumbling sounds rang out. The broken body of Qin Wentian was devastated to beyond recovery.

Qin Wentian was completely devoid of energy. He felt a sense of helplessness when he saw the middle-stage immortal emperor. Everyone understood that no matter how good Qin Wentian's talent was, it was impossible to reverse the situation any longer. There were over ten peak powers who wanted his death. How can he be alive?

Qin Wentian also knew that he wouldn't be able to survive. He turned about, his gaze staring in the direction of Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng who both were enveloped protectively by the branches of the Ancient Evergreen Tree. A radiant smile appeared in his eyes as he stared at the two women he loved.

Qing`er also smiled at Qin Wentian. The her at this moment didn't cry. Her smile was as radiant as his, beautiful to the extreme. It was like she wanted to imprint her most beautiful appearance within his mind.

Qin Wentian spread his arms open like he wanted to hug them. It also looked like he knew he was going to die and was ready to give up everything.

Countless geniuses in the immortal realms, an empire is like a painting;

Several hundred years worth of cultivation, magnificence through the generations;

Defeating kings and emperors, fighting against the heavens. He would rather let the heavens down instead of her!

...

The destructive might bore down, destroying everything. Qin Wentian's body exploded. At this moment, not even a broken body could be seen. Everything had completely shattered.

Staring at the vanished silhouette, the battles here all simultaneously ceased. This was so sudden, even the battles between the various peak-stage immortal emperors had stopped.

In this war, there were immortal emperors who died, emperors who got injured, emperors who fled.

This violent war strangely stopped after Qin Wentian's death. The experts here all slowly retreated to two sides, staring at the place where his figure vanished.

Has he died?

Naturally, a mid-stage immortal emperor unleashing a full powered strike against an immortal king who had no strength left, how could the immortal emperor fail to kill the immortal king? No matter how strong his physique was, it would surely crumble into dust.

There were some with cold looks in their eyes. There were some who heaved a sigh of relief, some who sighed with regret and sorrow and some who let out roars of anger.

That magnificent figure who reigned supreme in the king dimension of the City of Ancient Emperors, killing experts of the various major powers effortlessly, the same person who managed to kill three immortal emperors..had he died just like this?

From now on, there was no longer a Qin Wentian in the immortal realms.

"Has he finally died?" The expression on the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's face was ice cold but the flames of his fury and hatred had yet to cease. He still wanted to destroy the Evergreen Immortal Empire and the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. However, he understood that since Qin Wentian had died, this war would continue no longer. Many major powers have already achieved their aims. They didn't want to continue fighting and suffering losses. Even if they eventually won, it would be a pyrrhic victory and they even had to deal with the devastating acts of revenge if they failed to completely eliminate their enemies.

The Violet Emperor also stopped fighting. He glanced below, his eyes flickering with violet light. Nobody knew what he was thinking about.

"ARGH!" Jun Mengchen let out a bellow of rage. Trails of blood actually ran down from his palms caused by his fingernails digging too deeply.

Revenge, he definitely has to take revenge.

His eyes swept past the surroundings, memorizing the faces of those who participated in this battle. he would definitely take revenge in the future, regardless of the cost.

The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, Bai Wuya and the two other immortal emperors of the Heavenly Talisman Realm all sighed in their hearts. Bai Wuya was expressionless but an intense killing intent could be seen in his eyes.

Qin Wentian was someone he brought into the Heavenly Talisman Realm. From the time when Eastern Sage wanted to recruit disciples, he was already acquainted with Qin Wentian who was cultivating in the particle world. One could say that he had watched Qin Wentian grow up. Although Qin Wentian referred to him as senior brother because he was his elder in the sect, in reality the relationship between the two of them was more like true siblings. Bai Wuya and Qin Wentian both felt this way.

But now, Qin Wentian had died. He, Bai Wuya, was the person who brought Qin Wentian into the Heavenly Talisman Realm but he couldn't protect him. Bai Wuya glanced up at the sky, he couldn't help but to question his decision. Was bringing Qin Wentian into the Heavenly Talisman Realm a correct decision or a wrong one?

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor was expressionless. His eyes similarly swept through everyone here as he memorized their faces. It wasn't just Qin Wentian who died. This was also the greatest humiliation he had ever faced. He couldn't even protect the life of his son-in-law.

However, he wasn't too sad. He believed that Qin Wentian would definitely return.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch sighed silently as well. Although she only met Qin Wentian a few times, this didn't affect the admiration she had for this junior. She truly wanted to watch as he ascended to the peak. But sadly…

Many maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan had looks of sorrow. Ultimately, they still failed to change anything.

They were willing to participate in the war, regardless of the dangers. This was already something not many people were willing to do.

The monks of Askheart Temple pressed their palms together and closed their eyes while chanting a buddhist scripture. They all had solemn expressions.

"The actions today will definitely create repercussions in the future, resulting in a fruit of karma." As the sound of their voices faded, the monks vanished with a bright flash of light. Only echoes of the buddhist chants remained. However, none of them could understand it, they naturally didn't bother to make an effort to understand it as well.

The people here were all major characters. Since the deed is done, they have already weighed all the consequences. No matter what may come, they would just accept it stoically.

"Brother, have a good journey. Farewell." Li Yufeng murmured. He was just an immortal king, he couldn't change anything.

Beiming Nongyue, Xu Qingyao and the fox goddess all sighed silently. Xu Qingyao had tears in her eyes, causing her parents to glance at her with astonishment. However, she soon ceased her sobbing. She wiped away the tears but she couldn't stop feeling sorrow in her heart.

Most probably, she would never be able to forget this war for her entire life.

Beiming Youhuang stared at the battlefield, at the vanished silhouette of Qin Wentian. Her eyes were still cold and immeasurably deep. At this moment, she couldn't help recall the scenes where she interacted with Qin Wentian. She remembered the disrespect Qin Wentian had shown her, and how he took liberties with her.

Originally, she should be the one to kill him. But now when Qin Wentian had really died, she felt no hints of joy at all. On the contrary, she actually felt sadness.

Roaring sounds continued to echo out. Little Rascal was roaring defiantly, trying to struggle free. Purgatory was crying. The old heaven devouring beast had no choice but to forcefully bring then away for fear of them courting death needlessly.

Many people also glanced towards a certain direction. That direction was where Qing`er was in. For her, although he knew he would die, Qin Wentian still came here.

In that direction, another maiden of extreme beauty was kneeling on the ground and sobbing uncontrollably. Her long hair covered her face. She was none other than Mo Qingcheng.

However, Qing'er was acting completely different from her. Qing'er stared at the location where Qin Wentian vanished. She didn't cry and was smiling instead. It was like Qin Wentian was still there, smiling at her. His smile was so handsome, so good to look at.

Hence, she was smiling, smiling beautifully. Her beauty caused the experts in the surroundings to all feel a sense of awe.

As she smiled, all of a sudden without any warning, her hair suddenly turned completely white.

After that, the hearts of many people trembled violently. Qing`er's hair had turned as white as snow, gleaming with a faint sheen of silver, as though in expression of her longing for Qin Wentian.

Her hair turned white in an instant!

But even so, there was still a smile in her eyes.

Although her hair had turned white, she was as beautiful as ever. A beauty emitting a trace of tragicness, but she was still so beautiful that it could stir the hearts of people.

"Qing`er…" The Evergreen Immortal Emperor's heart pounded violently as an intense pain could be felt. Not only him, many maidens who had nothing to do with this, felt a wrenching pain within their hearts when they saw this,

The grand priest of the Judiciary Devil Hall sighed. With a flash of his silhouette, he returned to Bai Qing's side. But at the next moment, his eyes narrowed as his body actually shuddered violently.

"Bai Qing!" His heart pounded rapidly, staring at Bai Qing who was before him.

Only to see at this moment, Bai Qing's eyes were still fixed at the location where Qin Wentian's body was blasted into dust. Her eyes were blood-red, within her eyes, tears could be seen flowing out.

However, the tears that flowed, were crimson in color. She was crying tears of blood!

Chapter 1532: Bizarre

This war, has ended.

Qin Wentian, died in battle.

Before this, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Qin Wentian and the Senluo Immortal Emperor agreed that after this war, all grudges would be reset to zero. However, could this really be done?

This was such an intense war. Evergreen Qing`er, one of the core characters in the war, her hair turned white in an instant. The man whom she loved deeply had died. Could all grudges really be reset to zero? Leaving aside her talent, there was still the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and Matriarch Ji behind her.

There was another shocking scene which everyone saw. A female immortal king from the Judiciary Devil Hall actually cried tears of blood. Nobody knew what that meant but at the very least, if this priestess became the controller of the Judiciary Devil Hall in the future, she would definitely spare no expense and lead the devil army of her hall back to the immortal realms for revenge.

The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect lost their most outstanding disciple. Everyone in the immortal realms knew that ever since when Qin Wentian was still weak, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect had already been at his back, nurturing him as one of the core members. How could all grudges be reset to zero?

Everything that happened today has already determined that this war, was just a trigger point. In the future, there most likely wouldn't be any peace in the immortal realms.

In addition, leaving aside the immortal emperors who died in the war, there were several others who were injured. The White Emperor destroyed the Skymist Immortal Empire completely. Other than the few immortal emperors who managed to escape, the Skymist Immortal Empire no longer existed. After that, he even attacked the Paragon Sword Sect. Could the grudges between them really be reset to zero?

For the experts of the Ying Clan, the Jiang Clan, the Thundergod Hall and the others, a faint smile could be seen in their eyes. The result of this battle was enough. This storm would surely continue on. Some of these powers might still be relatively peaceful for a few years but all of them would eventually be engulfed by the storm.

Also, things would definitely be more interesting if they returned to the City of Ancient Emperors to contend against each other now.

"Southern Phoenix Matriarch. If there's a chance go, I'll definitely capture you back to my clan for breeding purposes." Jia Yemo of the phoeroc race spoke. After that, his silhouette flashed as he soared through the skies.

The other phoerocs respectively departed. Qin Wentian was the culprit who killed Jia Huangtian. Since he has already died, there was no longer a need to persist with this war.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch coldly glanced over. After that, the major powers started to retreat and soon vanished into the horizons. Even for people like the Skymist Immortal Empire who had an irreconcilable grudge with the Evergreen Immortal Empire, the Violet Emperor and Eastern Sage, all departed.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch and Matriarch Ji then glanced at Qing`er as they sighed.

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor retracted the Ancient Evergreen Tree. Qing`er stared at everyone in the air and bowed with her head full of white hair, filled with gratitude to them for participating in this war.

Regardless of what the ending was, these people were willing to fight for Qin Wentian.

After that, she turned and walked towards Mo Qingcheng who was still kneeling on the ground. Mo Qingcheng knelt there unmoving. No sounds could be heard from her.

Qing`er stretched out her hand to stroke Mo Qingcheng's hair before helping her to get up on her feet.

Mo Qingcheng inclined her head. With just a single glance at her, the hearts of everyone here pounded violently.

They had already noticed this maiden before and many of them knew about her relationship with Qin Wentian. Maybe, because Qin Wentian didn't want his enemies to target her, he didn't say farewell to her earlier.

She was originally a beauty whose appearance wasn't in anyway inferior to Qing`er. But at this moment, her eyes lost all luster and had the grey look of dead ashes. There was no hints of life or spirit within, as though she was already dead. At the instant Qin Wentian had died, her life seemingly ended as well. Her heart had died with him at that same moment.

Qing`er stared into Mo Qingcheng's eyes and gradually carried her up as she walked into the imperial palace. She promised Qin Wentian that she would definitely take good care of Qingcheng.

"My condolences." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch stared at their backs ad she sighed. She then glance at the location where Qin Wentian perished as she brought her experts away.

All the experts departed respectively. This war was a war that could determined the future of the immortal realms. It finally ended with Qin Wentian's death. News of this war swiftly circulated around the boundless immortal realms. The other major powers who didn't participate soon received the news.

After that, the news spread from the upper echelons to all the main cities and to the minor cities, gradually circulating through the entire immortal realms.

Qin Wentian's name resounded out in all areas of the immortal realms for the first time, no longer merely in the eastern regions.

In addition, many powerful immortal emperors were not even as famous as Qin Wentian. This heaven-shocking battle where Qin Wentian was surrounded by emperors, he killed three immortal emperors in retaliation. After he perished, the hair of the princess of the Evergreen Immortal Empire turned white in an instant. While a judiciary priestess from the Myriad Devil Islands cried tears of blood for him. This story became a legendary one as it circulated around the common people of the immortal realms.

Also, two other peak powers, the Skymist Immortal Empire and the Paragon Sword Sect were eradicated. Only a few immortal emperors of either powers remained alive.

...

In the Jiyue Hall of the Southern Phoenix Clan.

Back then, Nanfeng Jiyue's talent was unquestionable. In this era, the owner of the hall, Nanfeng Yunxi, her cultivation talent was just as terrifying. Many people were speculating that Nanfeng Yunxi might be a character on par with Nanfeng Jiyue.

At this moment, in an elegant courtyard within the Jiyue Hall, the melody of a zither could be heard. This melody was beautiful, so beautiful that it caused people to feel a sense of sorrow.

"Shengge." A voice rang out. After that a beautiful maiden of the Southern Phoenix Clan walked over.

"Dang!" A music note suddenly quivered as a string of the zither broke. Nanfeng Shengge stared at it as she smiled, "Ultimately it's still an ordinary zither. The strings can break easily, humans can die easily…"

"Shengge, after the matriarch has returned, the melody of your zither has not been stable. How many times has it been since the strings on your zither broke? It has never happened in the past before. In addition, you seem to have cast matters of your cultivation to the side. Could it be that his death has such a great impact on you? Making it so that you cannot come to terms with reality?" This maiden was also a protector for Nanfeng Yunxi. She was someone who was very close with Nanfeng Shengge.

Ever since the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and her experts returned with the news, Nanfeng Shengge became like this. This maiden naturally could guess at the reason.

Nanfeng Shengge gently smiled, her beauty resembled that of a portrait and was on the level of Nanfeng Yunxi.

"We cultivate for a lifetime, and although our lives are incomparably long, we might only meet some people once in our lifetime. He, was undoubtedly such a rare character." Nanfeng Shengge calmly spoke. "If he was fine, I would admire him silently from afar, watching him climb up step by step and ascend go the peak. What a pity that the heavens are jealous of his talent, dooming him to such an early death."

"But what happened has already happened. What can we do? I know he was unrivaled, exhibiting his talent clearly within the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and standing at the peak of the City of Ancient Emperors. He killed three emperors when at the immortal king realm but he still died… We cannot let his death affect us, we still have to cultivate. Right now, you are acting this way and Yunxi shuts herself inside her room, not wanting to speak to anyone. How can I be at ease?" That maiden sighed.

Humans always say the term femme fatale but when a guy was too outstanding, wasn't he also a source of trouble as well?

Both Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge were maidens with excellent talent in the Southern Phoenix Clan. Regardless of talent or beauty, they are the cream of the crop. However, both of them were willing to admire that person in silence, watching him ascend to the peak. His death, actually caused such a great impact to them, filling their hearts with pain and sorrow.

"Don't worry about me, I'll be fine." Nanfeng Shengge smiled. She continued playing on the ancient zither but the music produced seemed to be lacking something.

"The first encounter between them was a mistake that could last an entire life." That maiden sighed as she turned about and left.

...

After several months , more news circulated out. The Skymist Immortal Emperor and the Paragon Sword Emperor joined forces with the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor as they once again arrived in the Evergreen Immortal Empire to attack it. However, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor didn't return to the City of Ancient Emperors but was already on guard against them. He used the Ancient Evergreen Tree to envelop his empire protectively.

The White Emperor appeared and so did Matriarch Ji and the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, catching the attackers by surprise. Many of the emperors brought here by the three attackers were killed and the three of them were injured. But even so, they managed to break out and flee.

The number of experts from the Skymist Immortal Empire and the Paragon Sword Sect diminished even more. The situation in the eastern regions underwent a great change. Those powers who didn't participate in the war, watched everything with greed in their eyes. As for the Taihua Immortal Emperor, he didn't dare to head back to the City of Ancient Emperors and chose to remain behind to guard against any possible attacks.

There was also a major thing that occurred in the Myriad Devil Islands. Bai Qing, the judiciary priestess, received the title of grand priestess when she was merely at the immortal king realm. The devil lord of the Judiciary Devil Hall personally started to guide her on her cultivation.

Naturally, regardless of the commotion in the external world, conflicts were always the most intense within the City of Ancient Emperors because the peak elites were all gathered there. After Qin Wentian's death, another batch of immortal kings rose up to the top. There were also some among them that broke through to the immortal emperor realm.

It was rumored that right now, the strongest person in the immortal king realm was Hua Taixu. But after he annihilated the sun gold race in the past, he seemed to have vanished completely.

Also, in the northern regions within the territories of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, there was a forbidden ground with two stone monuments guarding a city of ruins.

Within that region, a sloppy looking old man walked about in spirals with a focused look in his eyes. If one looked with their naked eyes, there was nothing in front of him. But if one was to observe via unleashing overwhelming amounts of immortal sense, they would faintly be able to sense a minute fluctuation that was extremely blurry. Even for this old man, he couldn't sense the minute fluctuation clearly.

"How bizarre. Did he really die?" The sloppy old man murmured to himself.

"It shouldn't be though. How strange." He continued walking in spirals trying to understand something. His immortal sense was unleashed to the max but the fluctuation still felt extremely blurry to him.

After a long time, he sat down and closed his eyes. An instant later, his soul detached from his body as it moved towards the source of the minute fluctuation, in intense concentration. He wanted to see what was going on exactly. Was there really a thing in the immortal realms that could hide from him?

Finally, he seemed to have traced the source. Very swiftly, his soul returned to his body as his eyes abruptly opened, gleaming with a terrifying light. It felt as though he could see through everything within the heaven and earth.

"What a good fellow. What treasure is that?" A rare expression of excitement appeared on his face. Stretching his hand out, he sliced open the void as he began to pull something out from it. This thing… actually resembled a tiny astral-being!

Chapter 1533: Heaven-Defying Opportunity

The tiny astral-being. Its interior was akin to the boundless starry space.

At this moment, an ethereal form floated within this starry space, like an existence of the void, invisible and untouchable.

After a long time passed, the slightest hint of a consciousness appeared in the ethereal form as it floated about aimlessly, trying to sense its surroundings.

This ethereal form then transformed into a blurry shadow. It was actually the figure of Qin Wentian.

"Where is this place?" Qin Wentian mumbled as he glanced at his surroundings. He only saw a countless number of stars here but he swiftly discovered that this place wasn't the nine heavenly astral rivers but was a place similar to that.

"This is the space within the tiny astral-being in my mind?" Qin Wentian mused, feeling extremely shocked. He didn't die. The Undying Scripture seemed to have saved his life. Also, the remnant of his soul was actually absorbed into the tiny astral-being?

This was something his father left behind for him. What treasure was it exactly?

"My soul isn't extinguished. This means that I'm not truly dead." Qin Wentian's soul radiated a wave of energy. He then began to cultivate in his soul-form.

He didn't think about the battle which ended his life. He cast aside all random thoughts. There was only a single thought in his mind now. He had to live on. He had to survive.

With the Undying Scripture, there was a chance that this remnant of his soul might recover fully. At that time, he could forge a body of flesh.

As long as he doesn't die, there was hope. Even if he lost everything, he could start again.

Time slowly passed by. The starry space here was incomparably silent. Due to the devastating damage he received, he only had a remnant of soul left. Although he had a heaven-defying art like the Undying Scripture, it was impossible for his soul to recover in a short time. Hence, he soon forgot the passing time as he focused on his cultivation.

In the blink of an eye, seven years passed. In these seven years, many changes occurred in the immortal realms and City of Ancient Emperors. There were constantly waves of experts rising to the top and experts dying.

As for that war that happened, many people has gradually forgotten it. Qin Wentian's name also was slowly buried into people's memories. People would only recall about him if someone casually brought up events of the past war.

However, there were some who would never be able to forget that year.

Those people who participated in the war, many juniors and descendants of them were killed. Even two immortal emperors had died. From this, one could tell how powerful the expert acting against them was.

It was none other than the peak-stage immortal emperor, Emperor Yu.

Hence, a hunt occurred in the immortal realms. Several peak-stage immortal emperors hunted Emperor Yu causing him to be seriously injured, almost to the point of dying. But even so, he managed to escape. This hunt caused a huge amount of commotion in the immortal realms.

But no matter how the external world changes, the forbidden ground of the Darknorth Immortal Empire was as quiet and desolate as ever.

The crazed and sloppy looking old man was lazing about. He had long gotten used to loneliness. Right now, he was lying on a rock as though he was sleeping, quietly waiting for something.

Inside the tiny astral-being, after seven years of cultivation, Qin Wentian's soul grew stronger and stronger as his form grew more clear and defined.

At this moment, he finally halted his cultivation.

His soul moved around in the starry space, heading towards a constellation. At the next instant, a bright light flashed as he came into contact with it. Qin Wentian only felt a memory appearing in his mind but this wasn't a memory that has anything to do with his father. It was a record of a powerful innate technique instead.

Heavenly Warring Divine Fist - When one's cultivation of this reached the extreme point, one can shatter an entire world, even breaking apart space and the void.

Qin Wentian's consciousness stirred. His soul moved towards another constellation as another memory appeared.

Divine Slaughter Art - When one's cultivation of this reached grand completion, millions upon millions of stands of slaughter light beams would converge as one, forming a boundless zone of slaughter, easily taking the lives of everything within. It was another art capable of destroying an entire world.

Qin Wentian's soul body trembled as he explored other constellations. After a long time, he flew to his original location as he contemplated about the new memories he gained. All of the techniques and arts here were the absolute ultimate, any of them were sufficient to cause a fervor in the immortal realms, their power level even surpassing God's Hand but there were actually countless of such techniques in this tiny astral-being.

After a long time, he trembled and murmured, "Father, what heaven-defying treasure did you leave behind exactly?"

When he died, the main remnant of his soul survived and was brought into this starry space.

Maybe, his father depended on this back then to live a second life.

Qin Wentian recalled that his father was forced to hand over some treasure by his clan. Could the tiny astral-being be the heaven-defying treasure?

And now, his father has bequeathed this to him.

He recalled the scene when he was still an infant. His father had passed this treasure to him then.

He once thought that this treasure only contained the memory fragments of his father. He didn't expect it to hold so many powerful innate techniques and arts.

In addition, he still had no clear idea regarding the secrets within. What was this tiny astral-being exactly?

"It has been so many years. Are Qing`er and Qingcheng still doing well? Also there's that little lass Bai Qing, Mengcheng, Yunxi and the others. I wonder how they are. Also, where am I now? Am I still in the Evergreen Immortal Empire?" Qin Wentian mused as his soul floated around, trying to find the exit.

In the external world, the sloppy old man who was sleeping on the huge rock suddenly moved. His eyelids fluttered as his eyes opened. He sat up, the soul fluctuations before him grew increasingly stronger and a moment later, an ethereal form appeared from the void. This naturally was none other than Qin Wentian's soul form.

The eyes of the sloppy old man gleamed with sharpness as he stared at Qin Wentian's soul. "Interesting. You actually made a full recovery inside that treasure?"

Qin Wentian started. After he woke up, to think that he wasn't in the Evergreen Immortal Empire but was actually in the forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty instead. Not only that, he met this crazy old freak once again.

"Old fellow, you are the one who brought me here?" Qin Wentian asked, speaking in a natural sounding tone.

"Heh heh, how interesting." The old freak leapt down from the rock and walked one round around Qin Wentian. He was filled with curiosity, "What is that treasure exactly? How did you get it?"

"Ancestral inheritance." Qin Wentian rolled his eyes.

"An inheritance? There's no way such an item would appear here in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms." The old man narrowed his eyes. His gaze causing Qin Wentian to feel tense and ill-at-ease.

"Forget it, I won't ask anymore. Most probably you also have no idea. However, shouldn't you kowtow when you see me? What attitude is this?" The old freak grumbled.

Qin Wentian rolled his eyes once more and ignored the old fellow.

"After my death, what happened to the Evergreen Immortal Empire?" Qin Wentian asked.

"After you died, the war stopped. As to what happened exactly, I'm not very clear about that. However, shouldn't you worry about yourself first? Right now, other than soul energy, you don't even have a corporeal body. Do you still have the time to worry about other things?" The old fellow replied.

"Didn't you teach me the Undying Scripture? As long as a part of my soul survives, that cannot be considered a truth death. What's there to worry about?" Qin Wentian responded.

"Hehe, you should try forging a body." The old fellow narrowed his eyes and laughed as he stared at Qin Wentian, like he was looking at a supremely valuable treasure. The ill-at-ease feeling he felt instantly grew more intense.

Qin Wentian nodded. He then sat cross-legged and channelled the Undying Scripture. A few moments later, flesh and bones took form around his soul. This body was perfect, and resembled his original body exactly.

But when Qin Wentian opened his eyes, he stared listlessly in the distance ahead as his eyes seemed to lack spirit.

He stretched out his hands and stared at them while mumbling, "Do I have to start over again for everything?"

Only after his body was formed did he realize that he had truly died once and wasn't just seriously injured. His old body was shattered into pieces and even his soul was almost fragmented to the point of disappearing completely. Luckily, the main remnant of his soul was pulled into the tiny astral-being, resulting in him 'surviving' the ordeal.

But, there were consequences. Right now, although his soul force might be extremely strong, there was completely no astral energy in this newly created body, let alone law energy. He was like an ordinary human that had never cultivated before.

"Am I crippled..?" Qin Wentian mumbled.

"HAHAHA…" The crazy old freak suddenly started laughing uproariously. He inclined his head and stared at Qin Wentian while sighing, "To think there are actually such fools like you under the heavens. Don't you know what sort of heaven-defying opportunity this is? Countless supreme and unrivaled characters would pay any price to be in your shoes, yet you are here wallowing in misery and sighing with regret?"

"Heaven-defying opportunity?" Qin Wentian started for a moment before his eyes gleamed.

In an instant, his heart started pounding ferociously. He stretched his perception outwards and could sense the flow of astral energy clearly. Extremely clearly in fact.

He seemed to have discovered something. Closing his eyes, he extended his soul perception skywards.

Not long after, when Qin Wentian opened his eyes again, sharpness gleamed within as his eyes flowed with spirit.

He glanced at the crazy old freak, finally understanding why he had laughed uproariously.

"You understand now?" The old freak continued laughing as he looked at Qin Wentian.

"Many thanks Senior." Qin Wentian bowed.

"You are finally willing to call me senior?" The old freak stretched out his hand and pushed his long hair back. He grinned and said, "So what if your cultivation has to start again from zero? Do you know how many truly supreme characters are even willing to enter reincarnation for a chance like this? But even if they were willing to enter the cycle of samsara, they might not even have an opportunity like yours. Right now, although all your cultivation is gone, your powerful soul force and experiences remained. With a powerful soul force, how can your perception be weak in sensing astral energy? With your past experience, how would your cultivation be slow? With your comprehension and insights, how would you encounter any bottlenecks in the cultivation realms before the immortal emperor realm?!"

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded excitedly.

"Before this, which heavenly layer has your perception reached?" The old freak smiled as he asked.

Qin Wentian looked at him and replied, "The 8th heavenly layer."

At this moment, it was the old freak's turn to start. After that, he began laughing uproariously again.

"8th heavenly layer. Your first astral soul shall be from the 8th layer and in the future, all of your astral souls shall be from the 8th layer at the bare minimum. Not only that, you can select new constellations to condense your astral souls from, choosing your law attributes all over once again!"

Chapter 1534: Upper World

Qin Wentian's heart trembled as he stared at the crazy old freak who was laughing uproariously.

8th heavenly layer. Also, from the very first astral soul he condensed, it would be from the 8th heavenly layer!

Qin Wentian naturally understood what this meant. This means that as long as his opponent was at the same level of cultivation as him, he could effortlessly insta-kill them. Just based on the advantage of his astral souls alone, the quality of his astral energy would be higher than them. Also, even for law attributes of the same origin, his law energy would naturally be stronger compared to his opponents.

Let alone the fact that he could restart his choice of astral souls.

Given his innate talent, in addition to this heaven-defying opportunity, what would he become in the future? Qin Wentian's heart was moved as he trembled with excitement. He no longer felt that he was a cripple.

Qin Wentian was after all, an extremely intelligent man. He instantly understood when the old freak reminded.

The cultivation base of stellar martial cultivators couldn't replicate themselves even if one had a new body. So, although he initially had a cultivation base at the immortal king realm, his body was newly reforged. His new body didn't have astral energy, arterial circulation, yuanfu...or his previous immortal-foundation.

But so what of it? His soul force wouldn't be diminished, belonging to the immortal king level. That, plus his cultivation experiences, insights, comprehensions and talent, and high-graded astral souls which he could condense from the 8th heavenly layer, how fast would his cultivation speed be? He would definitely encounter no bottlenecks and he basically only needed a few years to enter the immortal king realm again. Compared to him, what does those other geniuses at the immortal king realm count for?

Is this, not considered a heaven-defying opportunity?

The old man smiled at Qin Wentian, "In the other layers of immortal realms, there are many supreme characters you can't come in contact with. They exhaust all methods to undergo rebirth and reincarnation, all for the sake of a slight possibility to obtain a chance like this. To think that you managed to get this opportunity so easily."

Qin Wentian bitterly smiled and shook his head. To him, this was an unexpected incident and he narrowly lost his life. His body was blasted to pieces and even his soul was fragmented. Luckily the tiny astral-being absorbed the main remnant and the Undying Scripture allowing his soul to recover. All these coincidences allowed him to have this heaven-defying opportunity!

If others were in his place? Would they shatter their souls and bodies on purpose just for a vague chance like this? Most probably, they would have truly died if they did so.

Although he didn't know if the tiny astral-being or the Undying Scripture helped him the most, both probably played an important role in this. There was no need to mention how valuable this treasure was. And, the Undying Scripture was clearly an extremely heaven-defying art as well. How can it be so easy for others to obtain it? Seems like the crazy old freak before him must have some grand and truly terrifying origins.

As for people who had the Undying Scripture, would they really allow someone to blast their bodies and souls until so coincidentally the main remnant of their soul remained? Would truly powerful characters dare to do this? If they did so, their opponents must surely be on the same level as them. By doing so, they were essentially placing their lives in the hands of their attackers. What if their attackers truly sought to destroy them completely? Wouldn't they be courting death?

"What a pity." Qin Wentian suddenly sighed. His bloodline powers also vanished as well. If he had them, wouldn't this new body be even more perfect than his original one? But in any case, he still had another true-self out there and that avatar still possessed his bloodline powers.

"Senior, are you very familiar with the other immortal realms. In these thirty-three heavens, what rank does the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms belong to?" Qin Wentian stared at the old freak as he asked. Before this, he had inferred from the words of this old man that he understood the other immortal realms.

"There are no rankings among the thirty-three heavens. All of them are cultivation grounds. It's just that the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms are a little unique. They are sealed off from the others." The old freak glanced up at the skies as he spoke quietly.

"Sealed off?" Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed. "Senior please tell me why."

"Seems like you understand that you can't stay in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms any longer. Might as well. Let me introduce the other immortal realms to you." The old freak glanced at Qin Wentian as he slowly continued, "I've already said that the immortal realms are all cultivation grounds. But naturally, although there are no actual rankings, there are a difference between the strong realms and the weaker ones. This is especially so after countless years of transformations. The situation has gradually solidified."

"Current, one of the strongest realms is undoubtedly the hegemon of all thirty-three immortal realms. The highest layer is named the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and has become the gathering place for truly powerful experts. This realm is known as the upper world, I've no idea what occurred through the countless years for them to become the hegemon but you only need to understand that their position is far higher compared to any of the other thirty-two immortal realms. In fact, several of the thirty-two other realms are ruled by superpowers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms."

Qin Wentian's heart trembled. Even several of the other thirty-two realms are dominated and ruled by the supreme superpowers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? In that case how strong are those superpowers exactly? Their strength should be countless times greater than the entirety of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, right? Or in other words, they could reduce the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms to ashes with a flick of their fingers.

Qin Wentian couldn't help but to recall the tyrannical ancient clan his father was from. He wondered what tier of strength did that ancient clan belong to.

Given how powerful his father was, as well as how cautious he acted, not even daring to reveal himself in a minuscule particle world… He felt that there was a high possibility that his father's clan might be terrifying to the extreme, a superpower from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms isn't merely the hegemony of the other thirty-two. They are situated right in the center of all the immortal realms. According to what I know, there are a few superpowers there who don't just control a single layer of immortal realms but rule over quite a few instead. The immortal realms they ruled over all changed their faith to them. You might not understand this, I can give you another example to help you understand better. There are four other layers of immortal realms to the west of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. These four are ruled over by a single superpower in the Upper World, a super Buddhist Sect. As a result, the other four immortal realms converted their faith and conviction to buddhism."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. In the Upper World, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there's actually a buddhist sect superpower that's so terrifying that it rules over four other immortal realms? How fearsome was this?

"Naturally, because of the vast multitude of lives there, there are still some others who are not buddhist-path cultivators. But even so, there's no doubt that buddhist-path powers hold the greatest sway in the four immortal realms that lies in the western region."

"Four immortal realms...no matter how powerful a superpower is, it shouldn't be easy for them to govern it right? How did they do so?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Naive. No matter what, you are still an immortal king expert that's only a step away from the immortal emperor realm in the past. Why are you so dumb? When one's strength reaches a certain extent, is there still even a need to 'govern'?" The old freak disdainfully replied. "Each layer of immortal realms can be considered an entire world and would operate automatically to its own rules. The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms is the same as well. For example, if the Upper World sent a supreme expert down here who has the cultivation base of those you guys refer to as ancient emperors, wouldn't all the major powers in this world submit to that person unconditionally? Is there even a need for that person to govern this place?"

Qin Wentian nodded. That's right. This was after all a strength-oriented world. When one's strength reached a certain extent, everything would be simplified. They just needed to ensure that they are sufficiently strong. If they grew weaker, their authority to rule would naturally slip from their grasps.

"Why are there no superpowers governing the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms?" Qin Wentian curiously asked. From what the old freak has said, there shouldn't be any reason why the superpowers in the Upper World would ignore this place.

"The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms?" The crazy old man laughed. "Because, there's someone who doesn't allow the people of the Upper World to enter this place."

Qin Wentian's eyes narrowed. There was actually such a terrifying existence?

This old freak said earlier that there are some superpowers who had the might to rule over several immortal realms. From this, one can see how fearsome those experts of the superpowers in the Upper World are. But they are also actually forbidden by someone to enter the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms? Wouldn't the person who forbid them be someone of the legends?

"Naturally, that existence wouldn't obstruct those at the emperor realm and below to enter. But those people might not have enough strength to take over this immortal realms without support from the respective superpowers they are from." The old freak continued explaining.

"Senior, didn't you say that those super powers are able to rule several other layers of the immortal realms? If that's the case, why would they heed the brazen warnings of that unknown existence, forbidding them to enter the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms?" Qin Wentian curiously asked.

"The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have undergone countless years of transformations before the situation now was fixed. Other than some of the superpowers dominating the other immortal realms, there are still some singular existences that can stand on par with the superpowers. Although these singular experts didn't dominate other immortal realms, their foundations and roots are extremely deep, not something you can imagine. The superpowers naturally didn't want to carelessly offend an expert on the same level as them. But even so, they still went ahead to set up the City of Ancient Emperors as a means of recruiting new blood, gifting them dao elements from the other immortal realms on the premises that the successors would have to become their disciples."

The old freak slowly explained. Such information was definitely considered secrets of the highest grade in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms simply knew too little information with regards to the other immortal realms.

However, this old freak seemed to have a great understanding about these matters. In fact, it seemed like he knew everything there was to know in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms like the palm of his hand.

Qin Wentian couldn't help but to stare in astonishment at the old freak as he asked, "Senior, who are you exactly?"

The old freak glanced at him and seemed too lazy to answer this question. He then replied, "You wouldn't know even if I told you know. You will understand more when you grow stronger in the future. I'm telling you all these now because I want you to make a decision. If I can send you to the other immortal realms, do you want to go or not?"

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with sharpness. This old freak is truly extremely powerful. He actually had the ability to send him out.

"If I leave the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, would I be forbidden from entering again?" Qin Wentian had a look of worry on his face as he asked.

"That existence didn't forbid those who left here from returning. As long as you can return, you will be able to return." The old freak replied.

"I'll go then." Qin Wentian spoke with no hesitation after learning the answer. Although his cultivation speed would be very fast after he reforged his body, what's the point of returning to the peak of the immortal king realm? There are still immortal emperors above him. He might need to reach the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm before he can sweep through the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms with invincibility. During this period of time, it was useless for him to remain behind.

"To the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms or to the other immortal realms?" The old freak asked again.

"To the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." Qin Wentian didn't hesitate. If he wanted to leave, he naturally would choose the strongest immortal realms to head to!

Chapter 1535: Crafty Old Man

The old freak had a deep smile on his face when he heard that. "Are you sure you want to go? Let me remind you, even if your strength recovered to your past level, or even if you broke through to the immortal emperor realm, there would still be too many supreme characters who can kill you in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Other than the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the other thirty-one immortal realms are extremely powerful as well. Their strength level is surely higher than the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Don't you want to consider about going there instead?"

Qin Wentian glanced at the smile in the narrowed eyes of the old man as he spoke with resolve, "There's no need to consider any further. Send me to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms."

Right now, he wasn't so easily frightened. Although the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were the hegemon of all other immortal realms, although there were many people there who could kill him, the stronger an immortal realms were, the more people there would be. For every peak character, there would be countless people who had lower cultivations. Even for the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, unless one has already climbed to the very peak, although an immortal emperor might not be a hegemon just like here in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, that immortal emperor couldn't be considered a weakling.

"You've got guts. In that case, go and focus on your cultivation and regain some of your strength first. In any case, you are completely ignorant about the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. If you go just like this, even an ant can crush you to death." That old freak laughed. This was the truth. At the very least, he can't head over there now immediately.

"I really want to see what law-attribute astral souls you would want to condense." The crazy old freak's silhouette flashed as he directly vanished after speaking. Qin Wentian simply couldn't track his movements, it was too fast.

"Astral soul?" Qin Wentian mumbled as he stared at the sky.

The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms was actually an immortal realm sealed away, with experts from the other immortal realms being forbidden entry. Back then, was it because of this reason that his father chose this place to start his second life?

Because the power of his clan was too strong. He had no choice but to intentionally hide in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms and a particle world near here. Also, after he was born, they were still extremely cautious, not daring to show their face. Uncle Black and the others were the same as well.

Qin Wentian suddenly remembered that his current body no longer had his original bloodlines.

If he still had his original body, in the future in the Upper World, when his bloodline powers flared up, would the supreme characters there recognize it?

And now, he wouldn't have any trouble regarding this. Was this all just a coincidence?

Closing his eyes, he increased his focus and sent his perception up in the air, bypassing the heavenly layers, climbing all the way to the 8th layer. His target was very clear. He directly chose an astral soul whose law-attributes he was familiar with. This astral soul contained dual-law attributes, one of the devil-path energy, and the other was undying energy.

When the astral soul was condensed, a tyrannical might radiated forth from his body. A devil king phantom appeared, Qin Wentian was just like a fearsome devil-path cultivator. Although his cultivation base was still at the lowest cultivation realm, the might he exuded would definitely shock the hearts of people, giving off an extremely oppressive feeling.

Originally, this was supposed to his seventh astral-soul of his original body. But now, it was his first astral soul instead. The difference of power between this comparison, was simply inconceivable to imagine.

As to why he chose this as his first astral soul, the main reasons are because of the Myriad Devil Sovereign's inheritance as well as the astral soul also contained the undying law-attribute. His soul cultivated the Undying Scripture and his body had the undying characteristics. It would naturally be of great help to him if his astral soul could match this.

Terrifying rumbling sounds rang out, Qin Wentian continued his cultivation.

In the blink of an eye, three years had already passed.

After these three years, Qin Wentian's aura underwent a huge chance. He was more similar to the him of the past, his eyes shone brightly with spirit, and his appearance was incomparably good-looking.

Right now, his current cultivation base was at the immortal-foundation realm.

Such cultivation speed was simply unfathomable and shocking to the extreme. However, given how strong his soul is now due to cultivating the Undying Scripture, in addition to the high-grade astral energy from the astral souls he condensed from the 8th heavenly-layer, his foundation was incomparably solid. Qin Wentian didn't feel strange for his cultivation to achieve such speed.

In addition, if it wasn't for him choosing different astral souls and different innate techniques, needing him to gain new comprehensions and insights, his cultivation speed might have been even faster.

A figure silently appeared before Qin Wentian. "Given your current soul strength and your immortal-foundation cultivation base, you should be able to handle some simple things. You can head to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms now."

"I will listen to senior's arrangements. It's just that I still have some things I need to do here." Qin Wentian nodded. To this crazy old freak, Qin Wentian's heart was truly filled with nothing but heartfelt gratitude.

"You want to let your wives know that you are still alive?" The old freak understood Qin Wentian very well and could instantly guess his thoughts. "Don't worry, I will get a person to go and accomplish this for you."

Qin Wentian was a little bewildered but he still eventually agreed.

...

Right now in the emperor-dimension of the City of Ancient Emperors, Beiming Youhuang sat down in a desolate area and was quietly cultivating. She didn't choose to inherit the energy of the dao elements. Although her talent was extraordinary, she was still an initial-stage immortal emperor after all. In this chaotic era where the heavens belong to the peak-stage immortal emperors, she wasn't that famous and her emperor's fate wasn't very much either. Although she gained some insights regarding the dao elements, she didn't choose to cultivate any of them.

"Little doll, come out." A voice rang out in her mind, causing her heart to tremble. Her beautiful eyes opened, flashing with sharpness. Only a single person dared to address her in this manner.

With a flash of her silhouette, Beiming Youhuang exited the City of Ancient Emperors with no hesitation and rushed back to the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. In fact, she didn't even head to the royal palace first but directly moved towards the forbidden grounds in the Darknorth Mountains.

"I'm here." Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes flickered with a wilful light. Although she's already an immortal emperor, no matter how radiant her achievements are, she still felt like a small girl before this old man. This was simply something inconceivable.

A sloppy figure soon appeared in front of her eyes. His gaze was blocked by his filthy long hair, and was a little cloudy. He then spoke, "In the past, when you asked me to save the little brat, I didn't do so. Do you hate me for it?"

Beiming Youhuang started, she didn't expect the crazy old man to bring this up all of a sudden. Although she would never admit to it, but maybe she felt a little unhappy and resentment that the old man didn't save Qin Wentian.

"This has nothing to do with you." Beiming Youhuang shook her head. She sighed silently, feeling a little sorrow as she recalled the scenes in the past.

"In that case, did you really wish from the bottom of your heart for me to save him back then?" The old man's muddy eyes suddenly turned clear as he smiled at Beiming Youhuang.

Beiming Youhuang started again. She then replied, "If you asked me to come here just for that matter, I will be leaving first."

As she spoke, she really turned around, preparing to leave.

"What if I tell you I can still save him even now?" The old man spoke, his words causing Beiming Youhuang to turn stiff as her heart pounded violently. After that, she slowly turned back and faced him, "Really?"

"When have I ever lied to you?" The crazy old man unhappily stated. "I just need to waste a little strength and couldn't be bothered to do so."

"Senior, no matter what, he is considered your successor. Do you really want to watch him die without saving him?" Beiming Youhuang stared at the old man as she implored. If others said such a thing, she wouldn't believe them. However, she truly believed this old man could save Qin Wentian if he wanted to.

"What do you mean by my successor? I just granted him a random cultivation art, but I can also give this art to others. In any case, aren't you very unhappy with him? I'm looking for you to see if there's anyone you know with outstanding talent and more importantly, that person is someone you like. I'm prepared to grant this new person the same cultivation art as well." The old man spoke.

Beiming Youhuang stared at the crazy old man as she thought back to that frantic war. That magnificent figure that killed three immortal emperors and for some reason... his smile before his death. She bowed and replied, "Regardless of how vast the immortal realms are, there's no one more suitable to inherit your cultivation arts than him. Senior, please lend a helping hand and save him."

"Oh?" The old man hesitated. Beiming Youhuang nervously observed him but after a moment, the old man shook his head again. "This won't do. His soul is fragmented and has almost completely dispersed. If I want to save him, the price I need to pay won't be small. Also, since you have no feelings towards him, why should I waste the time and effort?"

Beiming Youhuang's heart trembled. She bit her lips and said softly, "I do have feelings towards him."

"Oh?" The old man narrowed his eyes and laughed, staring at Beiming Youhuang. Beiming Youhuang's countenance was tender and beautiful, like a freshly bloomed flower. But after she said those words, her state of heart soon returned to her original calmness.

"Alright, alright. Fortunately, I didn't waste my effort." The crazy old man sighed. With a wave of his hand, he brought Beiming Youhuang into the ancient ruins. A moment later, when Beiming Youhuang saw the figure sitting cross-legged in cultivation before her, an expression of disbelief appeared on her face.

Qin Wentian was also stunned. After that, he nodded to Beiming Youhuang. He should have guessed it was her when the old man said he would ask someone to help.

"Old bastard…" Beiming Youhuang coldly looked at the crazed old freak, clearly knowing that she was played.

"What did you call me?" The old man frowned, staring at Beiming Youhuang. "What did you tell me before this? Hey brat, you are really lucky with the ladies."

Beiming Youhuang's eyes widened. She was an immortal emperor but she was shamed so badly now that a blush colored her cheeks red. "Senior, junior said the wrong thing earlier. I know my mistake now."

"Oh?" The crazy old man laughed. He then turned to Qin Wentian and glanced to Beiming Youhuang again. That smile seemed to contain a deep meaning behind it.

Qin Wentian was completely bewildered. He blinked his eyes and stared at Beiming Youhuang's face that was painted with shyness. But very soon after that, Beiming Youhuang recovered and coldly glanced at Qin Wentian, reverting back to an ice mountain. "What are you looking at?"

"Eh…" Qin Wentian had a face full of black lines. He wanted to argue but when he thought of the fact that he needed a favor from her, he suppressed himself and replied, "Princess Youhuang, we are really fated. Now, I have a small favor to ask from you, can you please not reject it?"

"What is it?" Beiming Youhuang asked.

"Princess, can you please make a trip to the Evergreen Immortal Empire for me? I need you to meet with my wives." Qin Wentian spoke. Beiming Youhuang initially wanted to reject but she suddenly recalled that scene years ago, the headful of white hair on Qing`er's head and that grey look of dead ashes in Mo Qingcheng's eyes. Her heart trembled, she couldn't bear to reject him. She eventually nodded, but her voice was still as cold as ever. "Fine, I'll go on this trip for you."

The old freak laughed when he saw this scene, as though his scheme had succeeded. This time around, the trip to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, he wasn't at ease for Qin Wentian to head there alone. Now that he's seen Beiming Youhuang's attitude, he felt more relaxed. It has been countless years, it wasn't an easy task to find two good seedlings like them!

Chapter 1536: Explanation

In the princess residence of the Evergreen Immortal Empire's imperial palace.

Two young women were chatting together. They were beautiful and had the innocence of youth. But at this moment, a slight sorrow could be seen between their brows.

"Elder sister, if sister Qingcheng continues like this, I'm afraid she will collapse sooner or later. Help think of a solution if you can." The younger girl glanced at the other girl beside her as she spoke. The two of them were siblings.

"You should be very clear regarding the relationship between sister Qingcheng and master. Unless master comes back to life, there are no solutions…" The older girl beside her sighed. So, these two were none other than Zhi Yan and Zhi Ran, the two disciples Qin Wentian, Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng accepted when they were roaming around the immortal realms for leisure.

Zhi Ran's eyes dimmed. She knew that her sister was right.

"Is Qingcheng still like that?" At this moment, a voice rang out. The two sisters instantly glanced over.

"Sister Qinger!" The two of them called out. A maiden of exceptional beauty appeared before their eyes. Her silvery white hair was like snow and her demeanor was colder than before. Even for Zhi Yan and Zhi Ran, they could clearly sense the coldness from Qinger.

"Mhm, we are useless." The two of them lowered their heads as though they had done something wrong.

"This isn't your fault." Qing`er sighed. "As your mistress, I did not assume any responsibility and had not taught you girls anything at all. In addition, I'm afraid I have no time in the future too. Do you all wish to go out and cultivate? I can get others to guide you."

Zhi Yan and Zhi Ran both shook their heads. Zhi Ran spoke, "Sister Qinger, don't chase us away. We are willing to take care of sister Qingcheng all the way until she recovers. We won't be able to set our hearts at ease if others took care of sister Qingcheng. After she recovers, it wouldn't be too late for Sister Qinger to find other people to instruct us."

Qing`er patted them on their heads as she sighed silently in her heart, glancing at the figure behind the sisters.

Over there, a maiden clad in white could be seen. Her features were beautiful but there was an extremely haggard look on her face. Her eyes lacked spirit and were like empty holes. She had no reaction even when Qinger came here. She merely stared ahead in a dumbfounded manner. In fact, Qinger couldn't even sense her lifeforce, she was like the living dead.

"Qingcheng…" Qing`er felt pain in her heart when she saw how Qingcheng looked. Although she was now cultivating in the City of Ancient Emperors, she would return here often to see Mo Qingcheng. However, everything she tried was useless.

It has been ten years, Mo Qingcheng didn't eat or drink anything in these ten years. The clothes on her body wouldn't be changed if it wasn't for Zhi Yan and Zhi Ran. She had truly become a zombie. Because she feared Mo Qingcheng would meet with an accident, Qing`er instructed her people to guard her day and night. After that, the pair of sisters volunteered to be the ones taking care of Mo Qingcheng.

"Wentian will definitely return. He definitely will, he didn't die then. Qingcheng, why won't you believe me?" Qinger's heart was filled with sorrow when she saw the appearance of Mo Qingcheng. She had promised Qin Wentian to take care of her. But Mo Qingcheng, she didn't really need anyone to take care of her. When she saw Qin Wentian being blasted to smithereens, her heart had also died at that moment. No matter what Qinger said, there was no reaction from her.

"Princess." At this moment, a voice drifted over as a strand of immortal sense arrived here. When that figure saw Qing`er, she respectfully greeted.

"Who told you that you can send your immortal sense to pry here?" Qing`er's eyes turned cold. Her immortal sense swept out coldly. That serving girl instantly turned pale, "Princess, your subordinate has no such intentions. It's just that the princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, Beiming Youhuang, begs for an audience with you. I initially sought to inform miss Zhi Ran and Zhi Yan but I didn't expect that princess was here as well."

"Beiming Youhuang?" Qing`er's eyes flashed with coldness. "Tell her to go back."

But at this moment, the sound of whistling wind rang out as a figure arrived directly inside Qinger's manor. In the air, Beiming Youhuang glanced at Mo Qingcheng and Qinger as she sighed in her heart.

"What do you mean by this?" Qing`er's expressions turned a few notches colder.

"I have news about Qin Wentian. Let's find a secret place, I wish to tell you this alone." Beiming Youhuang transmitted her voice over. In an instant, Qing`er's cold eyes flashed with a bright light, as though she wanted to see through Beiming Youhuang. A few moments later, she nodded, "Come with me then."

"Bring her along too." Beiming Youhuang continued transmitting her voice, she was clearly referring to Mo Qingcheng.

"Zhi Ran, Zhi Yan, leave Qingcheng to me. You girls wait for me here." Qing`er spoke softly. After that, she glanced at the serving girl, "You can withdraw."

The serving girl outside the manor bowed and retreated.

Qinger carried Qingcheng and led the way. Beiming Youhuang followed behind her, and eventually, they arrived at Qinger's bedchambers.

"You have news about him?" Qing`er stared at Beiming Youhuang.

"Qinger, Qingcheng." At this moment, a voice rang out. In an instant, Qinger stiffened. Even Mo Qingcheng's empty eyes seemed to regain a hint of their previous luster.

A bright light flashed as a figure condensed from a strand of immortal sense appeared.

"You guys chat. I will leave first." Beiming Youhuang directly turned about. With a wave of her hand, she sealed the chamber and left the area. The strand of immortal sense was something Qin Wentian left on her. It wouldn't be able to exist for too long and would naturally dissipate after a moment of time after it activated. By doing so, Qin Wentian was naturally worried about Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng. And as for Beiming Youhuang, she had already done what Qin Wentian needed her to do.

Qing`er naturally wouldn't bother about Beiming Youhuang leaving. At this moment, she was staring dumbfoundedly at the figure that just appeared. Mo Qingcheng's eyes grew brighter and brighter as more spirit flashed within.

"Wentian, are you really here?" Mo Qingcheng's tears began to flow as she trembled, walking forward slowly. It felt like she was in a dream.

"Qingcheng, it's me." Qin Wentian glanced at the snow-white hair of Qing`er and the empty eyes of Mo Qingcheng. He felt an extremely heart-wrenching pain in his heart. At this moment, he hated himself, he actually caused them to feel so much torment. In addition, it has been ten years since he 'died.' For ten years, although they were alive, every waking moment they had to endure, was probably worse than death.

Mo Qingcheng bit her lips, using enough force to cause blood to flow. She felt the sensation of pain and when she moved her hands over and wiped her lips, and when she saw the fresh blood, she finally knew that this was reality. She could no longer endure it, her tears flowed down like falling rain. She stretched out a trembling hand, wanting to touch Qin Wentian.

However, Qin Wentian's figure was ethereal. He stretched out his hand was a wave of warmth enveloped Qing`er. "Silly lass, this is a body projection formed from my immortal sense."

"Mhm, mhm…" Mo Qingcheng's tears continued flowing, her body trembling involuntarily and was convulsing. She stretched out her hands, moving them closer to his face although she knew she couldn't touch him. She muttered in some disbelief, "Wentian, are you really still alive?"

Upon seeing how Mo Qingcheng appeared, Qin Wentian felt even more pain in his heart. Qing`er didn't move forward, she stood at her original location. That time when Qin Wentian died, she smiled radiantly as she watched. But now, her tears also finally flowed although she knew Qin Wentian still had another true-self that was alive out there.

"Qingcheng, Qing`er. I'm really well and alive now, what are you two crying for?" Qin Wentian felt a sourness in his heart. When he saw his wives, boundless pain and sorrow flooded his heart but he still tried to smile. He didn't want his wives to cry any longer.

"Mhm, I will stop crying." Mo Qingcheng finally smiled after ten years. She wiped her tears away, and when Qin Wentian saw how haggard she looked, he couldn't help but to tremble. He then said gently, "In the future, even if I'm not around you, you are not allowed to cry anymore, okay?"

"Okay." Mo Qingcheng nodded. "As long as you are alive, I will wait for you. I will listen to whatever you say."

"Silly lass…" Qin Wentian's voice turned softer. Qing`er continued standing there. Although she wanted to go nearer, she was willing to leave this time for Mo Qingcheng. As long as Qin Wentian was safe, she was already very satisfied in her heart.

"Wentian, this avatar of yours, is he also in the immortal realms now?" Qing`er asked lightly. She wanted to see him very badly.

"Qinger, this is the immortal sense from my original body." Qin Wentian replied. His words caused Qinger to turn stiff as a look of joy appeared on her face. She trembled and asked, "Really?"

Back then those years ago, although she knew Qin Wentian had another true-self, she couldn't help feeling boundless sorrow and despair as Qin Wentian's original body was blasted to pieces. Her hair turned white in an instant, the body of the man being blasted into pieces was the man she loved most. Although she knew he had another avatar, she was still willing to give her life in exchange for his. If not, she wouldn't have snuck out of the City of Ancient Emperors behind Qin Wentian's back.

So when she learned of the news that Qin Wentian was still alive, one could very well imagine her current emotions.

"You two, why don't you girls trust me?" Qin Wentian bitterly smiled. "In the war back then, I did die but because of some strange coincidences, I managed to survive and was saved by a mysterious senior. I've gradually recovered my strength, and after this, that mysterious senior will send me to the Upper World, to the strongest layer of immortal realms among the thirty-three heavens. The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms."

"Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms…" Qing`er mumbled, gradually believing his words. Earlier, she still suspected if Qin Wentian was lying to her for the sake of consoling them.

"Also, that mysterious senior is currently within the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. This is also the reason why I asked Beiming Youhuang to do me a favor and come here. After I leave, I will naturally still return in the future. You girls must stay strong. Don't be worried for me. The day I return shall be the day the skies of these immortal realms change." Qin Wentian spoke with a heroic air. As expected, after Qin Wentian spoke, Qing`er finally smiled, causing her beauty to be even more intense.

"This strand of immortal sense of mine also contains some memories. They are information on cultivation arts, and I'll pass them on to you. Qing`er, your talent is higher, after I leave, take care of Qingcheng for me." Qin Wentian smiled at Mo Qingcheng. The haunting look in her eyes earlier truly had frightened him.

"Mhm, I know." Qing`er seriously nodded.

"Also for that little lass Bai Qing. I don't know what reaction she had after I died. She would definitely feel extremely hurt. Help me think of a solution to tell her the news that I'm still alive." Qin Wentian instructed.

Qing`er recalled the tears of blood from Bai Qing as her heart trembled. She nodded and asked, "What about Jun Mengchen and Little Rascal?"

"You don't need to tell them about this. Mengchen will surely want revenge for me after I died. Let my death serve as a source of motivation for him to improve his strength. As for Little Rascal, he will definitely work hard in cultivation too. It's just that I feel sorry for Purgatory." Qin Wentian slowly sighed. "Time is short, remember to stay strong and wait for my return."

The two maidens nodded seriously. After that, Qin Wentian's immortal sense transformed into a beam of light that shot towards Qinger's forehead. Qinger naturally didn't resist it.

After today, Qing`er stopped solely focusing on cultivating day and night at every moment. As for Mo Qingcheng, she gradually recovered her spirit.

With regards to Qin Wentian, he and Beiming Youhuang were silently sent out of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms!

太古仙域 - Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The title of this book 太古神王, if translated literally, would be Supreme Ancient God King.

Chapter 1537: First Arrival at the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms

The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was the hegemon of the thirty-three heavens. It was naturally boundlessly vast.

The Lifelong Realm was a region in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. There were countless cities within and the ruler of this place was the Lifelong Realmlord.

In Windthunder City, it was clear that this city was extremely prosperous. Countless experts could be seen strolling around on the streets.

Jialan Mingyue's mood today was very good. She, who was extremely young, has just broken through to the immortal king realm recently. After she consolidated her cultivation realm, her father gave her a city to manage. Hence, despite her young age, she was the City Lord of Windthunder City.

At this moment, she was currently choosing a divine weapon from a transaction pavillion in the city.

"Miss, if you need a divine weapon, we can just get the monarch to find someone to refine it for you. Why is there a need to go through so much trouble?" Beside Jialan Mingyue, there were many female protectors. All of them were at the immortal king realm, with a higher cultivation compared to her. But then again, her status and background were extraordinary. Everyone in the surroundings understood that the Jialan Monarch gave the city to his daughter to play with.

Given Jialan Mingyue's current cultivation, she was pushed to this level by virtue of using cultivation resources. Now that this Windthunder City belonged to her, she naturally would receive plenty of cultivation resources as tribute per year.

As the hegemon of all thirty-three immortal realms, the cultivation resources here weren't something the cultivation resources of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms could compare to.

Also, those superpowers that ruled here, their strengths were leagues above the major powers in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

"There's no need to trouble father." Jialan Mingyue smiled. The center of her brows had a hint of carefreeness. She pointed to a beautiful looking defensive divine artifact in the form of a robe and asked, "What is the price for this?"

"Since Miss is fond of it, how would I dare to quote a price?" The boss immediately brought it over and personally placed it in the hands of Jialan Mingyue. Jialan Mingyue's lips curled up into a satisfied smile. After that, she walked another round around the shop before exiting it happily. Outside, there was another group of guards dressed in silver. There was also a powerful thunder beast with a demon-king cultivation base.

“Let’s go to some other places to take a look.” Jialan Mingyue smiled. She rode on the demonic beast and the people in the surroundings instantly opened up a path for her, silently cursing at the Jialan Monarch. He actually arranged his useless daughter to govern this city? Many merchants definitely would be in for it. Naturally, none of them dared to say anything. The Jialan Monarch himself also understood that in his territory, no matter what trouble his daughter created, there would be no issue at all. This, was the power of authority.

“ROAR!” At this moment, the thunder beast let out a low-sounding roar. It inclined its head and stared upwards. Jialan Mingyue and the others did the same as well. At this moment, from the air, two figures could be seen descending downwards at a rapid speed.

The figures of these two gradually grew clearer and clearer, causing the eyes of many to narrow with surprise. These two were actually so dazzling.

They were a man and a woman. The man faintly exuded a unique radiance, resembling a hint of divinity, transcending mortality. He was exceedingly handsome, almost to the point of someone fitting the description ‘pretty boy.’

As for the woman beside him, she was also an exceptional beauty. She emitted a sense of nobility and coldness, but her looks were so striking that no one could turn their gazes away once they looked upon her. This made many in the surroundings sigh. What a great couple. They were both so good-looking that it seemed that they were from portraits.

Staring at the maiden in the air, Jialan Mingyue actually felt a sense of inferiority. This made her extremely uncomfortable.

These two were naturally none other than Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang who came from the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

“Is this place really the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? Youhuang, what is the identity of that old freak? He is actually so powerful?” Qin Wentian glanced at the streets below as he transmitted his voice to Beiming Youhuang.

“I don’t know. Also, call me by my full name, thanks.” Beiming Youhuang coldly replied. But her heart was also stirred up by terrifying waves. That crazy old man actually created a supreme spatial grand formation capable of traversing immortal realms inside the forbidden grounds. This was simply inconceivable. They actually managed to bypass space and directly tunnelled through the endless void, arriving at this place.

“Youhuang, since you agreed to come to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms with me together, we should roam this place as a team in the future. It would be better if we are more familiar with each other.” Qin Wentian spoke. He then glanced in the direction of Jialan Mingyue. There were several kings around her. He could infer that her status must be extraordinary.

“Who wants to be together with you? Since we have already arrived here, you should go your own way and I will go mine. We have nothing to do with each other.” Beiming Youhuang impolitely transmitted her voice over in response. Qin Wentian abruptly halted his steps and stared at her in astonishment. “Youhuang, you won’t be so ruthless, right?”

However, Beiming Youhuang couldn’t be bothered with him anymore. Qin Wentian wanted to cry but no tears came out. He couldn’t help but to curse at that old freak. If he knew this would be the case, he would have cultivated a few years more and entered the immortal king realm before coming over. Right now, he was merely at the immortal-foundation realm. Everyone in the streets below had a cultivation base higher than him. He would definitely be extremely miserable…

Seems like he had to find a place to upgrade his strength first. Women are truly undependable creatures.

On the streets, Jialan Mingyue couldn’t help but frown when she noticed that the two of them were chatting. She then commanded, “Bring them down here to me.”

“Yes.” An immortal king behind her nodded. His silhouette flashed and soared up into the sky. He cast a deep glance at Beiming Youhuang and was awestruck by her beauty.

“You guys, the City Lord has some questions for you. Please follow me down.” The guard spoke. Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian both furrowed their brows. That young woman was the City Lord of this place?

The two of them, one was the princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, an immortal emperor character. As for the other, although his cultivation base was only at the immortal-foundation realm now, he had even killed immortal emperors before. They naturally wouldn’t place these immortal kings in their eyes. But after contemplating for a moment, they decided to comply with the guard.

After all, this place was the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They just arrived here and it would be for the best for them to be clearer of the situation here. It wouldn’t be a mistake for them to keep a low profile.

“Miss, is there anything we can help you with?” Qin Wentian arrived before Jialan Mingyue as he smiled at her. He didn’t feel that Beiming Youhuang would take the initiative to speak, given how cold her personality was. Hence, he took the initiative.

“Where did you two originate from?” Jialan Mingyue asked.

“We are people who cultivates in the wilderness, casually roaming around before we came here.” Qin Wentian replied.

"In that case, you guys are unaffiliated cultivators?" Jialan Mingyue's beautiful eyes flashed. Qin Wentian nodded in response.

"I'm the City Lord of Windthunder City, under the Jialan Monarch's jurisdiction. Since you guys are unaffiliated cultivators, how about becoming my followers?" Jialan Mingyue looked at Qin Wentian as she smiled. Although the cultivation of Qin Wentian was low, only at the immortal-foundation realm, he was incredibly handsome and exuded an extraordinary aura. It wouldn't be a bad idea for her to have a follower like him, even if he served no other purpose than being an eye-candy.

As for this woman, her cultivation base is clearly extraordinary, higher than hers. She is also extremely beautiful as well. Who knows, there might be situations where she could use the beauty of this woman to serve her own ends.

Qin Wentian started. Were people of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms so direct?

Although his cultivation base was low, these people shouldn't be able to see through the cultivation base of Beiming Youhuang, right? They actually dared to directly recruit them as followers just like that?

"Little Miss is the daughter of the Jialan Monarch." An immortal king behind Jialan Mingyue spoke.

"I'm long used to cultivating leisurely out there in the wilds. Miss, please don't take offense." Qin Wentian tactfully rejected. The daughter of a Monarch? What a joke, Beiming Youhuang herself was a bonafide immortal emperor and her father was the overlord of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. This Jialan Mingyue wanted to recruit her as a follower? At most, the Jialan Monarch's cultivation realm was also at the immortal emperor level.

Jialan Mingyue started, but a smile soon appeared on her face. "Oh, don't worry about it. Since this is the case, you guys can leave."

"Many thanks, Miss." Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang walked past them. But after they left, Jialan Mingyue's smile instantly vanished as her expression turned cold.

"Find an excuse to detain them. After that, send them to the City Lord manor." A frown could be seen on Jialan Mingyue's face. In Thunderwind City, this was the first time she got rejected when she tried to recruit someone. To think that there was someone who doesn't know what was good for them.

"Miss, that woman's cultivation isn't low." An immortal king protector reminded. Jialan Mingyue merely snorted, "You guys are all from famous sects, and are subordinates of the Realmlord. Even if her cultivation is higher than yours, how can you all lose to an unaffiliated cultivator?"

"Yes." That female immortal king was helpless. She couldn't help but curse Jialan Mingyue in her heart. The Jialan Monarch had spoiled her too much, After that, she brought a group of guards and pursued after Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang. Just like what Jialan Mingyue has said, in the Lifelong Realm, although she was just a City Lord, the person above her was a Monarch, and the person above Monarchs, are Overlords, with the Realmlord overseeing everything. There are levels of authority, and they, could also be considered subordinates of the Realmlord.

Even for those major clans in the Lifelong Realm, they wouldn't dare to antagonize subordinates of the Realmlord recklessly. Naturally, many people in the various major clans and sects of the Lifelong Realm would send their members to join the Realmlord, causing them to be closely connected, building up a deep foundation.

Unaffiliated cultivators have the lowest status. They would also find it the toughest to obtain cultivation resources.

…

Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian slowly roamed the streets. At this moment, Beiming Youhuang suddenly frowned. "Trouble will soon descend upon us."

"Seems like the status of unaffiliated cultivators are truly extremely low." Qin Wentian shook his head. An instant later, a group of experts appeared. A female immortal king dressed in black coldly spoke, "The two of you, hold it right there."

Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian turned about, radiating a cold intent. This was especially so from Beiming Youhuang. A powerful wave of emperor might radiated from her, causing the female immortal king in black robes to tremble.

"Scram." Beiming Youhuang coldly spoke.

"Who exactly are you both?" That immortal king questioned. Despite sensing emperor's might from Beiming Youhuang, she didn't choose to flee.

"Does that have something to do with you?" Qin Wentian furrowed his brows and replied. His tone had turned cold. Previously, he was already polite enough. To think that Jialan Mingyue actually wanted to capture them. Wasn't this a little too tyrannical?

"Naturally, it has something to do with me." An icy voice drifted over. It was none other than Jialan Mingyue leading her subordinates over. She coldly glanced at Beiming Youhuang, "An unaffiliated emperor appearing in Windthunder City all of a sudden? I suspect that the two of you are bandits. I have the obligation to capture you two back to my manor for investigation purposes. You two should obediently follow me."

“Bandits?” Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian had a puzzled look on their faces. They completely had no idea what sort of rules there were in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. These people clearly already knew that Beiming Youhuang was an immortal emperor but they showed no fear at all?

This commotion immediately attracted the attention of many. All of them gazed at Beiming Youhuang while musing what a beauty she was. Could such a beautiful female immortal emperor really be a bandit?

A fearsome coldness gushed forth from Beiming Youhuang. Her cold eyes flashed with killing intent and this scene caused the expressions of all the people in the surroundings to change. Has this woman gone mad? She actually displayed killing intent towards the City Lord in Thunderwind City? Could it be she didn’t know the consequences?

Jialan Mingyue’s expression drastically changed. Clearly, she was extremely taken aback. She immediately took out a crystal ball as bright light radiated from it, imprinting Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian’s images within. Jialan Mingyue then directly spoke to the crystal ball, “Father, these two want to kill me!”

Chapter 1538: Nine World Palaces, One Realm

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, as he stared with bewilderment at the crystal ball.

The people of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms can communicate and relay messages through this crystal ball?

Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes also flashed. Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to her, "Youhuang, don't be impulsive. This Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms is very strange. Our looks might have been imprinted into the crystal already. Also, from their attitudes, it seems like they are very sure we wouldn't act against them. There should be some rules, let's make things clear first."

The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms is the Upper World, the strongest layer out of the thirty-three heavens. They were completely ignorant of things here and couldn't help but to be more cautious.

Jialan Mingyue inclined her head and stared at the two of them, her eyes contained a trace of wariness, as well as cold disdain. Although the possibility of these two daring to act against her was very small, but if she encountered someone crazy, she might very well die in their hands. At that time, there would be no meaning even if her father avenged her.

Upon seeing Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian remaining silent. She contemplated a little and continued, "As unaffiliated cultivators, you guys actually appeared in my Windthunder City and one of you is even at the immortal emperor realm. How can I be careless? I'm bringing you two back for an investigation. If you two are innocent, nothing will happen to you."

"Miss…" One of Jialan Mingyue's protected transmitted her voice, "For immortal emperors, even if they are unaffiliated cultivators, we do not have the capabilities to offend them."

Jialan Mingyue's protectors weren't like Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian, ignorant of everything. Immortal emperors are ultimately immortal emperors, they had extraordinary strength and status. By using this method to threaten an immortal emperor, although Jialan Mingyue's words seemed polite, in truth, this was clearly inappropriate. Jialan Mingyue didn't have this authority. An immortal emperor could totally disregard a City Lord like her.

But Jialan Mingyue couldn't swallow this breath of resentment. It was fine if they both merely rejected her. But the woman actually showed killing intent? In that case, it was clear she would have no face if she let things go like that. It would be best if she could delay them until her father arrived. At that time, everything would be settled then.

"Fine. I'll go with you." Beiming Youhuang spoke in a light tone but her expression was as cold as ever. If this place was the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, why would she need to suffer like this? Just like what Qin Wentian said, they were completely ignorant of things here in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. It would be best to get things clear first before making a decision.

This time, the people here were all astonished. This immortal emperor was actually so easy to talk to? Jialan Mingyue also started.

Jialan Mingyue's lips curled up. "In that case, come to my City Lord manor first. I'll naturally not mistreat the two of you."

"Youhuang, I feel that this woman is delaying on purpose. Do you really want to go?" Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Beiming Youhuang.

"If there's danger, I will directly take her hostage." Beiming Youhuang replied.

Qin Wentian nodded and didn't continue to persuade her. The two of them then followed Jialan Mingyue, while observing the areas in the city. This city was extremely prosperous, although a character like Jialan Mingyue was the City Lord, this city could be compared to a main city of their Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Also there was a dazzling lineup of treasure transaction pavilions all around.

However, when they arrived at the City Lord manor, they could sense a fearsome aura gushing forth. A group of experts that was a regiment of an immortal army, walked out.

Beiming Youhuang's countenance changed. She transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian, "There are three immortal emperors. One of them is a mid-stage immortal emperor and two other initial-stage immortal emperors. The rest are immortal kings."

A bright light flashed through Qin Wentian's eyes. The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are actually as powerful as what the crazy old freak has said? There were countless people here who could trample them to death.

Before this, he thought that the crazy old freak was just trying to scare him. Even in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, an immortal emperor can also be considered a character strong enough to rule over an area. Who would have thought that they would encounter such a situation the moment they arrived here?

In truth, his guess wasn't wrong. Although they met three immortal emperors when they arrived, in truth, that mid-stage immortal emperor was already a ruler of a vast area. He even had many cities under him and naturally, also numerous powerful experts following him.

This mid-stage immortal emperor was none other than Jialan Mingyue's father. He only came here through a teleportation array after receiving the news that Jialan Mingyue might be in danger. One could say that Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian have nicely delivered themselves up to the doorstep.

“We pay our respects to the Monarch.” The people around Jialan Mingyue bowed.

The Jialan Monarch surveyed Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian. He didn’t give a damn about Qin Wentian who was merely at the immortal-foundation level. But as for Beiming Youhuang, her beauty actually caused a bright glow to flicker in his eyes.

“Mingyue, what’s going on?” The Jialan Monarch asked.

“Father, the two of them are unaffiliated cultivators. I wanted to investigate them to see if they are bandits or not.” Jialan Mingyue replied but she silently transmitted her voice over, “Father, these two don’t seem to know everything. I told them to follow me and they actually agreed. Also, this woman earlier displayed killing intent towards me.”

“Senior, me and my senior sister just arrived here. We are definitely not bandits.” Qin Wentian spoke. At the same time he spoke, he and Beiming Youhuang were both prepared to act at any instant. As long as something felt wrong, they would instantly capture Jialan Mingyue.

“Senior sister? This means that you guys are not unaffiliated cultivators but have a sect?” Jialan Mingyue asked.

“Our master is somebody that lives in seclusion. The two of us has always been cultivating in the wilderness and have no sect to speak of. It’s just that we might have accidentally offended Miss earlier after exiting the mountains. Please forgive us.” Qin Wentian spoke.

“I wonder which supreme expert is your master?” Jialan Monarch stared at Beiming Youhuang as he asked. If Qin Wentian’s words were real, the master of an immortal emperor definitely wouldn’t be simple.

“Master doesn’t wish for his name to be revealed.” Qin Wentian bowed apologetically.

“Oh, so it’s just a misunderstanding. My daughter was frightened by the behavior of you two earlier. In addition, recently around the region governed by the Lifire World Palace, there were many bandits that appeared, plundering the area. Hence, the Lifire Empyrean gave orders to strictly step up on the checks. If the two of you don’t mind, why don’t you temporarily stay at my residence as guests?” The Jialan Monarch spoke.

“Lifire World Palace?” Qin Wentian noted down this name.

Beiming Youhuang furrowed her brows. But Qin Wentian actually replied, “Since senior has issued the invitation, how would we not comply with it? Senior sister, let’s head over to senior’s residence.”

Beiming Youhuang glanced at him only to hear Qin Wentian transmitting his voice, “Youhuang, being beautiful is always an advantage. This Jialan Monarch has a different look in his eyes when he looks at you. He definitely wouldn’t do anything towards you. It’s better that we adopt the soft approach.”

When she heard Qin Wentian’s words, Beiming Youhuang shot him a cold glance. However, she knew that Qin Wentian also had no choice but to do this. They were completely unfamiliar with the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and the strength of the Jialan Monarch’s group clearly exceeded them. Could they say no? Even if they wanted to flee, they might not be able to. They might as well comply with the Jialan Monarch first.

“This place is my daughter’s manor, there’s a teleportation array leading to my Jialan Emperor Palace. Please.” The Jialan Monarch was exceedingly polite but his gaze was fixed only on Beiming Youhuang. He couldn’t care less about Qin Wentian.

Jialan Mingyue’s mouth twitched. How could she not understand what sort of person her father was. But as long as he could help her vent her emotions, it was enough.

“Father, it’s been some time since I visited your palace. I will accompany you.” Jialan Mingyue spoke.

“Alright, let’s go back together.” The Jialan Monarch nodded. The group of them then headed towards the teleportation array. Jialan Mingyue came to Qin Wentian’s side and asked, “Why is there such a huge difference between your cultivation base and your senior sister?”

“Ah I feel regret when I speak of this. My talent is far inferior to hers.” Qin Wentian bitterly smiled and shook his head.

“Oh? Your senior sister not only has high talent, she is extremely beautiful as well. Are you fond of her?” Jialan Mingyue laughed, clearly, the atmosphere now was no longer as tense as earlier. But this actually caused Qin Wentian to start. The attitudes of people here actually could shift so quickly.

“How can I be worthy of my senior sister?” Qin Wentian smiled. He then asked, “Miss Jialan, the two of us just arrived here and have completely no idea regarding the rules here. Please pardon us if we offended you earlier. Also, what is the Lifire Palace?”

Jialan Mingyue stared at Qin Wentian in astonishment. This fellow was really good-looking, the light in his eyes was extremely mesmerizing from a certain perspective.

Because of his unique astral souls, the Qin Wentian now, was more attractive than he was before.

“You really have no idea?” Jialan Mingyue asked.

“Mhm.” Qin Wentian nodded.

“This place is the Lifelong Realm, the Lifelong Realmlord is the ruler of this realm and the territories here can be classified into nine world palaces. The Lifire Palace is one of the nine world palaces and is led by the Lifire Empyrean. My father is one of the nine monarchs under the Lifire Empyrean and is responsible for governing this region. The Windthunder City where we met, is naturally one of the cities under my father’s control.” Jialan Mingyue smiled.

“Lifelong Realm!” Qin Wentian’s eyes gleamed with sharpness. This name…it involuntarily cause him to recall the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

The Lifelong Realm, the Lifelong Realmlord, this boundlessly vast region was just part of it.

“Are the cultivation bases of the nine monarchs same as your father? In that case, wouldn’t the nine world palace lords be peak-stage immortal emperors?” Qin Wentian pretended to be shocked.

“You have underestimated the palace lords and monarchs. Usually, for the nine monarchs, their cultivation bases would be at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm or they would be extraordinary mid-stage emperors. As for the nine palace lords, their cultivation is naturally a step higher, at the Empyrean Realm. They might also be extraordinary peak-stage emperors.” Jialan Mingyue coldly smiled. Qin Wentian’s heart trembled. No wonder this Jialan Mingyue didn’t feel fear despite discovering Beiming Youhuang was an immortal emperor.

If things were like what Jialan Mingyue explained, the power led by a monarch would be equivalent to a peak power in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Under an Empyrean, there are a total of nine monarchs which are also equal to nine peak powers. The territories they governed are all exceedingly vast. This Windthunder City was merely a city the Jialan Monarch gave his daughter to play with.

As for the Empyreans mentioned by Jialan Mingyue, this made Qin Wentian feel that she was referring to someone with the cultivation at the ancient-emperor realm.

There are a total of nine empyreans, and even if the people around them are ignored, there are still a total of 81 monarchs under them. This force was sufficient to sweep through the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms unchallenged.

“What about the bandits?” Qin Wentian calmed himself down and asked.

“Under the Longlife Realmlord, there are nine world palaces led by the nine empyreans, with a total of 81 monarchs under them. They naturally were the ones controlling the cultivation resources in this realm. There are some brazen fellows who dared to rob and plunder the resources. These people are the bandits I was referring to, they are all hunted down on sight.” Jialan Mingyue cast a deep glance filled with hidden meaning at Qin Wentian. This caused Qin Wentian to sigh in relief silently. Earlier, this Jialan Mingyue actually gave them such huge hats to wear.

Chapter 1539: Frogs in a Well

The Jialan Emperor Palace was extremely majestic in appearance and the experts within were as numerous as the clouds.

Jialan Monarch didn't question Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian after he brought them here. On the contrary, he politely arranged a banquet to host them both.

During the banquet, Qin Wentian even met Jialan Mingyue's mother. Her mother was a very beautiful woman that looked about thirty plus years of age. She actually was also an immortal emperor expert. Every frown and smile of hers could stir the hearts of people but when she glanced at Beiming Youhuang, her eyes flashed with a deep meaning. Instinct told Qin Wentian that she was on her guard against Beiming Youhuang.

"Beiming Youhuang, regardless of your demeanor or cultivation base, they are both extraordinary. After some time, the nine monarchs will gather and head towards the Lifire Palace. At that time, I'll bring you along. The Empyrean will definitely admire you and at that time, I'll ask him to give you a title as my protector. At that time, there's no longer a need for you to be an unaffiliated cultivator. You can enjoy cultivation resources every year." The Jialan Monarch smiled, as though he had completely forgotten the issue of bandits and only wanted to recruit Beiming Youhuang.

An immortal emperor expert, and such a beautiful immortal emperor. Who would not want to recruit her? Even if she had some misunderstanding with his daughter, it was just a small issue. As long as Beiming Youhuang became his person, all minor matters naturally can be forgotten. As for Qin Wentian...the Jialan Monarch didn't even spare a glance at him.

Beiming Youhuang's eyelashes fluttered. Her gaze was still cold as she replied, "Thank you for your kind intentions. It's just that I just exited the mountains and I still wish to roam about first for now."

"Youhuang, becoming my protector doesn't mean that your freedom would be restricted. At that time, I'll let you do whatever you want to do." The Jialan Monarch waved his hand, clearly showing his intent to recruit Beiming Youhuang. How would he let her escape from his palm? As one of the nine monarchs, the Jialan Monarch naturally wasn't a simple character.

Qin Wentian inclined his head and drank. He could already tell that if they reject this, the other party definitely wouldn't release them. In fact, they might even directly claim that Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang were bandits.

"Senior sister, since the monarch regards you so heavily, why don't you head to the Lifire Palace together with him? It isn't too bad to become a protector." Qin Wentian interjected. The Jialan Monarch smiled when he heard this as he cast a glance at Qin Wentian.

"However, Monarch, the two of us aren't that clear about matters regarding the external world. Is the status of unaffiliated cultivators really that low?" Qin Wentian asked.

"The Lifelong Realm is the territory of the Lifelong Realmlord. All the cultivation resources are controlled by his subordinates and hence, in this territory, the Realmlord has absolute authority. Regardless of sects or clans, all of them have to submit to him before they can gain some authority and power. As for unaffiliated cultivators, there is no lack of people like this." The Jialan Monarch laughed. He didn't state openly on how much contempt people usually have for unaffiliated cultivators.

Earlier, Qin Wentian already understood some things from Jialan Mingyue. He could deeply sense how powerful the hegemon of a realm was. This was completely different from the peak powers in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Naturally, this also has something to do with cultivation resources. In comparison, the cultivation resources in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms were considered very little. Also, from the words of the Jialan Monarch and his daughter, they seemed to place a very heavy emphasis on cultivation resources.

"Youhuang, what do you think?" The Jialan Monarch laughed.

"Let me consider it. However, I don't mind going along with Monarch to pay my respects to the Lifire Empyrean." Beiming Youhuang also wished to see what sort of character the lord of the nine monarchs was. Could the Lifire Empyrean really be an ancient emperor? After knowing how strong the Lifelong Realmlord is, Beiming Youhuang sighed silently in her heart. The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms were truly too weak in comparison.

After the banquet ended, the Jialan Monarch told Jialan Mingyue to bring Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian to roam Jialan Emperor City. This city was naturally named after the Jialan Monarch. Not only so, once someone took over his position, the city's name would change to match with the newly appointed Monarch as well.

The emperor city was very large. Also, the construction materials for the buildings in the city were all extraordinary in nature. Qin Wentian actually tried attacking it, but given his current cultivation base, he couldn't even leave a scratch behind on the buildings. From this, one could see how tough the foundations of the city were. According to Jialan Mingyue, the vast majority of the buildings here in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, are all constructed using immortal-grade meteor stones, king-grade meteor stones and emperor-grade meteor stones. The more powerful an emperor city is, the more valuable its construction materials would be.

In fact, the entire city seemed like a terrifying cultivation formation, brimming with law energy. For some of the palaces of those powerful characters, they were precisely constructed with an imbued grand formation, purposely suited for their cultivation. Ordinary commoners wouldn't even have the qualifications to stay in the emperor city. Every building was worth its weight in gold and for visitors, they can only spend sky-high prices to stay in an inn or to rent a space.

Hence, inside this emperor city, just a glance would fill one's entire vision with countless immortal kings. Even for those with weaker cultivations, their elders must definitely have some strength for them to be able to come in here.

And because of this, there were many jobs in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. For example, formation master, building construction, trading in materials, etc… This place was truly exceedingly prosperous.

Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang roamed the shops. Every transaction used immortal-grade or king-grade meteor stones. As for them, they were pitifully poor. They also saw the crystal ball used by Jialan Mingyue earlier for sale. However, they could only look at it as they weren't able to afford it.

Upon seeing the smiling look in the eyes of Jialan Mingyue, Qin Wentian felt somewhat embarrassed.

As time passed, the two of them came across an elegant lake, with many decorated dragon boats floating around. There were also many pavilions built on the lake, where beautiful maidens could be seen dancing for the sake of the onlookers. These maidens all wore revealing clothing and were extremely pretty. Despite it being night, the light emitted from the lanterns clearly illuminated every part of their bodies. Many people were sitting in the boats, listening to the zither music and enjoying the dance. Although Beiming Youhuang was an immortal emperor, she had never seen such a luxurious and prosperous city before. She couldn't help but to sigh silently in her heart.

"Youhuang, do you feel like we are frogs in a well?" Qin Wentian stood beside her. The two of them exuded magnificence that would last through the generations, causing many of the people here to glance at them. There was even one who raised his wine cup in their direction and said, "The two of you are truly a match made in heaven."

After that, the dragon boat the person was on, floated by. Qin Wentian grinned, but Beiming Youhuang rolled her eyes at him.

"We should cast aside all that we thought we knew before." Beiming Youhuang transmitted a sigh.

"Cultivate well. If your cultivation improves by a step, you would be at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm. Who knows, this prosperous city might be named after you, the Darknorth Emperor City." Qin Wentian stood with his hands behind his back. His white robes fluttered in the wind, exuding a sense of carefreeness.

"Do you really want me to follow the Jialan Monarch?" Beiming Youhuang furrowed her brows, coldly staring at Qin Wentian.

"The Jialan Monarch is one of the nine monarchs under the Lifire Empyrean. He isn't some ordinary character and even if he is interested in you, he wouldn't do anything against your will. Also, given your beauty, people would surely want to woo you no matter where you go. This is something very normal. In addition, this is the first time we are here in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. You can make use of the Jialan Monarch to be acquainted with the Lifire Empyrean. After that, you can slowly decide what you want to do in the future."

Qin Wentian glanced at the lake in front of him as he calmly spoke. How would he not want Beiming Youhuang to stay far away from the Jialan Monarch? It was just that this place is still the Jialan Monarch's territory. How could it be easy if they wanted to leave?

"Are you trying to praise me?" Beiming Youhuang icily snorted. "Also, don't forget that before this, Jialan Mingyue told the Jialan Monarch that she wants you. Although she was very polite in the banquet, you should already be clear on her character after what we've seen. She is someone who can instantly change her face. If you land in her hands, hmph."

"Don't worry. After I leave this place, do you think an initial-stage immortal king would be enough to threaten my life? Let alone the fact that the Jialan Monarch wants to please you. She wouldn't dare to be too overboard." Qin Wentian calmly replied.

Beiming Youhuang stared puzzledly at Qin Wentian. Before this, she was somewhat cold because she thought Qin Wentian want to obtain some benefits by suggesting that she should follow the Jialan Monarch. However, Qin Wentian was really thinking for her sake.

"That old freak told me to protect you." Beiming Youhuang suddenly spoke.

Qin Wentian stared at her in astonishment. After that, a smile that was not a smile appeared on his face. Beiming Youhuang's expression turned unnatural after being stared at by him in this manner as she coldly asked, "What are you looking at?"

"Before this, didn't you say that we should separate and each go our own way? Youhuang, did you fall in love with me?" Qin Wentian spoke in a joking manner.

"Stop daydreaming." Beiming Youhuang cast a look of disdain at Qin Wentian but Qin Wentian began to laugh uproariously.

After several days, just like what Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian had anticipated, Jialan Mingyue wanted to bring Qin Wentian to tour Windthunder City while the Jialan Monarch wanted Beiming Youhuang to remain in the emperor palace.

Qin Wentian had already made his plans. He willingly followed Jialan Mingyue back to Windthunder City.

In the city lord manor of Windthunder City, Jialan Mingyue brought Qin Wentian into her bedroom. She laid down on a sofa, her alluring figure laid there provocatively as she shot a look filled with intent at Qin Wentian. "Do you feel reluctant being away from your senior sister?"

The Jialan Mingyue now was like a different person completely.

"I've interacted with my senior sister for many years. I naturally would feel some reluctance." Qin Wentian replied.

"Do you think that your senior sister is beautiful or I am more beautiful?" Jialan Mingyue sweetly smiled.

"Each to her own, it's not good to compare." Qin Wentian straightforwardly replied while coldly laughing in his heart. Although this Jialan Mingyue was a beauty, how can she be comparable to Beiming Youhuang?

"Oh? This young lady's leg feels a little numb now. Come and press it a little for me." Jialan Mingyue stretched out one of her jade legs, exuding temptation.

"Miss Jialan, by doing this, miss' reputation might suffer." Qin Wentian shook his head.

"I don't even mind, why would you mind? Could it be that you want to avoid me?" Jialan Mingyue forcefully stared at Qin Wentian. She couldn't help but admit that this Qin Wentian was truly more and more handsome the more she looked at him. If he could serve her properly, she was willing to give him a chance.

"I don't dare to." Qin Wentian continued to shake his head.

"In that case, fine. You can go out first." Jialan Mingyue smiled, as though she didn't mind his answer. She casually waved her hand, "In the future, I'll arrange things to do for you."

"Since this is the case, I'll have to thank little miss first." Qin Wentian bowed and retreated. After turning around, a bright light flashed in his eyes.

"PAK!" After Qin Wentian left, Jialan Mingyue's expression sunk as a wooden chair nearby was smashed into pieces. Killing intent flickered in her eyes, "This miss has already given him a chance but he doesn't know how to cherish it. Did he really think that he would be safe because his senior sister is heavily regarded by my father? Father is truly a fool, his lust knows no bounds and still wishes to take more concubines."

"Miss, what should we do with him?" A serving girl asked.

"Make the arrangement and send him to mine Yuan Meteor Stones." Jialan Mingyue coldly spoke. The serving girl's heart trembled when she heard that. Seems like Qin Wentian would surely be dead!

Chapter 1540: Mine

In the area ruled by the Jialan Monarch, there were several Meteor Stone Mines. He was responsible to send people to excavate the cultivation resources.

At this moment, at the border of a meteor stone mine, there was a regiment of troops standing on guard, surrounding it tightly, not allowing anyone to pass them.

In one of the passageways, Qin Wentian was actually there. He wasn't here alone, there was another immortal-foundation female with him. They were brought here by two other immortal kings.

"Qin Wentian, up ahead is the entrance of the mine. You lack cultivation resources, right? You might as well take this opportunity to earn some. This is a chance the little miss has given to you, you best cherish it." The immortal king who brought Qin Wentian here smiled at him, but there was a look with hidden meaning in her eyes.

"Since this is the case, please help me thank the little miss." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded. In the depths of his eyes, coldness flashed. How could he not understand that the other party had malicious thoughts? On the way here, he would have escaped but he didn't do so. It was because he wanted to see a meteor stone mine personally.

"The two of you can enter." Not far away, the other immortal king communicated with the guards here and directly called out to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian and the immortal-foundation female walked over and followed the guards into the entrance of the mine.

Qin Wentian's immortal sense extended outwards. He was slightly shocked at the presence of so many immortal kings among the guards. From this, one could see how important the mines are.

"The date of exit for this mine was last year. Hence, after you all enter, the exit will only open again after nine years. If you two are still alive then, you all can exit together with the people within." One of the guards spoke to Qin Wentian and the female as they continued to proceed forward.

"Enter." The guard spoke after they arrived at a gate. Qin Wentian and the maiden stepped into it together and in an instant, intense spatial energy enveloped the two of them, teleporting them through space. When they appeared again, Qin Wentian's gaze stiffened as he stared at his surroundings in shock.

"Is this the mine?" Qin Wentian glanced downwards. It appeared that he just arrived at a new continent, an incomparably vast one in fact. The mountains here were all of different heights, and the entire atmosphere even exuded a hallucinatory aura.

The female beside him was named Yan Yun`er. Her cultivation base was at the 8th-level of immortal-foundation. She saw the bright light in Qin Wentian's eyes and couldn't help but ask, "Are you a fool? Do you not know that Jialan Mingyue clearly sent you here because she wants you to die?"

She had no way to imagine why Qin Wentian was so excited. In addition, his tone when speaking to the immortal kings who brought them here felt a little strange. He was very polite when he spoke to them.

Regardless of Qin Wentian's appearance or demeanor, both were extraordinary. Could he really be a fool?

"Yun`er, I'm ignorant of matters in the external world. What is so bad about coming to this meteor stone mine?" Qin Wentian asked.

Yang Yun`er was dumbstruck. She stared ahead, "This is also my first time here but I've heard rumors about this place before. In the area on the boundaries of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, many unusual places would appear, and cultivation resources would be born within them. However, the cultivation resources are also limited. The supreme experts would usually search for places like that in the void. For example, this place is in the form of a mountain range. This means that the stones within the mine here should all be earth-attributed meteor stones."

"If that's the case, we are now outside the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?" Qin Wentian asked.

"We came here through a teleportation gate and should be outside the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. In the immortal realms, why did those supreme characters establish a power to control a region and recruit so many soldiers? Clearly, their purpose is to obtain these cultivation resources. Who knows, some of the mines might even produce king-grade or emperor-grade meteor stones or even more valuable items if one is lucky enough."

"Hmm, if they can discover these mines, why don't those supreme characters directly take everything away? Why do they need to waste time and effort to hire guards to guard here?" Qin Wentian curiously asked. Although immortal emperors might not have such capabilities, he believed that there are still people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms with enough power to do such a thing.

"The mines are a born due to the accumulation of heaven and earth origin energy for a long period of time. Sometimes, if one waits long enough, there might even be heaven-defying treasures appearing within. If they took away everything from the start, they would only be able to benefit from the mine a single time."

"The mines would automatically produce the immortal meteor stones continuously?" Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. No wonder the buildings of the Jialan Monarch's emperor city were all constructed using valuable meteor stones. The amount of resources here was something the people in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms would never dare to imagine. Just the spatial teleportation gate alone wasn't something immortal emperors could build.

"What are you guys dawdling around for?" A cold voice rang out. Qin Wentian inclined his head and saw a guard in armor pointing his spear at them. Before this, he actually didn't notice that there were actually even guards here inside the mines.

"Let's go." Yan Yun`er pulled Qin Wentian along as she descended downwards.

"Before the entrance of the spatial teleportation gate opens again, those who try to leave the mine shall all be killed without mercy." A voice rang out through the air.

Yang Yun`er transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian. "Now, you should understand why coming in here is a death sentence, right? There are many people in the mine, including prisoners captured by the Jialan Monarch's subordinates. Many slaves from the major clans and sects are here as well, in addition to people who lack cultivation resources. The majority of the people here don't mind the risk, most of them are desperate criminals or fugitives. For the sake of obtaining more meteor stones, they don't mind to kill or plunder. This place might even produce gas occasionally and, is simply death for immortal-foundation characters like us."

"Did you offend Jialan Mingyue?" Qin Wentian asked.

"I'm the daughter of the previous city lord of Windthunder City. Because my father was very unhappy that the city lord position was given to Jialan Mingyue as a plaything, he spoke out in displeasure. The result is that my entire clan was captured one by one and sent into the various mines controlled by the Jialan Monarch." Yang Yun`er's voice turned extremely cold.

Qin Wentian glanced at her before bitterly smiling and shaking his head. Seems like Jialan Mingyue was treating him like a prisoner.

"Let's hope we can stay alive and exit here." Yang Yun`er sighed.

"I'll protect you." Qin Wentian smiled. Yang Yun`er started, she glanced at Qin Wentian and asked, "You, protect me?"

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. Yang Yun`er smiled and walked forward. "Okay then, I'll wait for you to grow stronger to protect me."

"Eh…" Qin Wentian bitterly smiled and followed after her. Not long after, they encountered a group of experts in the midst of digging for meteor stones. They were using law energy to break apart the surface of the mountains. The rocky area was extremely sturdy and even for immortal-foundation experts, they needed a very long time to break them apart.

At this moment, a gaze turned over. This pair of eyes gleamed with a ferocious light, as a sinister smile appeared within.

"Let's leave." Yang Yun`er trembled and transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian.

"Hold it there." That person coldly shouted. Yang Yun`er stiffened. That person grinned, "The two of you, come here. Let us excavate the meteor stones together."

"His cultivation base is higher than mine but he intentionally masked it earlier. He must be a ruthless character, and might even be an immortal king," Yang Yun`er transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian.

"Doesn't matter." Qin Wentian replied. He actually stepped towards that person and joined him in excavating the surrounding earth. Not long after, a sparkling meteor stone appeared.

Qin Wentian kept it and continued his efforts. Yang Yun`er was helpless and decided to join him as well. Time quickly flowed by, several months had passed and they gained many meteor stones. At this moment, a mist-like substance suddenly appeared, enveloping everyone, causing them to see hallucinations occasionally.

"Oh! A king-grade stone!" That ferocious person who beckoned for them to join him suddenly opened his eyes. He had been cultivating at the side all this while.

But very swiftly, the hallucinations disappeared as the mist dissipated. Everyone in the surroundings had a puzzled look on their faces as they stared at that person.

"Who took it?" The ferocious-looking immortal king stood up and icily asked.

Everyone exchanged mutual glances of confusion. That ferocious-looking immortal king swept his gaze through the crowd as he continued, "Everyone, take out your spatial rings."

"Senior, can you leave some stones for us? When the exit opens again, if we do not have enough meteor stones to pay the toll, we would still have to excavate for another ten years." That immortal king frowned. A fearsome aura gushed forth as a saber law domain appeared, directly slaughtering that person.

The expressions of others instantly paled. That immortal king then turned his gaze to Yang Yun`er, "Little beauty, go and take his spatial ring for me."

Yang Yun`er trembled. That immortal king looked at the fearful expression on her face and licked his lips. He laughed loudly, "Don't worry my little beauty, how would I bear to kill you? Naturally, you have to serve me well tonight."

Yang Yun`er bit her lips. Her face was extremely pale. But at this moment, Qin Wentian suddenly spoke out, "The item you want is with me."

"Huh?" That immortal king instantly turned to Qin Wentian, revealing a malevolent smile. However, at this moment, Qin Wentian's eyes seemed to have transformed. An inky black devil light flashed as two bolts of lightning shot out. In an instant, that ferocious-looking immortal king howled loudly in pain and misery.

"Die."

A formless terrifying aura gushed forth from Qin Wentian. Everyone felt fear from the depths of their soul. With a loud thump, the body of the immortal king fell to the ground. There were no wounds at all on his body.

Everyone stared at Qin Wentian in terror. Under their gazes, Qin Wentian walked towards the body of the immortal king and took his spatial ring away. He peered at the contents of the ring. There were many meteor stones within but it was still far from sufficient to him.

"Yun'er, I might need to enter seclusion for a period of time. I will spare some time to excavate meteor stones before the exit opens again. Do you want to accompany me?" Qin Wentian stared at Yang Yun'er who was dumbstruck as he spoke. Although he could now kill immortal kings with his soul force alone, he didn't feel much satisfaction doing that. He prepared to recover his cultivation to the immortal-king realm first. At that time, it would be much easier to resolve any troubles they might have to face!

Chapter 1541: Encountering a ghost?

Yang Yun`er stared at Qin Wentian in shock. This fellow was actually so powerful?

Upon hearing Qin Wentian's words, she transmitted her voice, "We, who are excavators, aren't allowed to cultivate here let alone use the immortal stones we obtained from the mine. If we are discovered, the people above will immediately come and deal with us."

"This is simple. Just follow me." Qin Wentian smiled, directly turning and flying through the air. Yang Yun`er stared at his back and soon followed after. When she thought of the words Qin Wentian had spoken, that he would protect her, a radiant smile couldn't help but to appear on her face. This fellow, she initially still thought that he was joking.

There were truly many people digging for meteor stones in here and plenty of them were immortal kings. Qin Wentian and Yang Yun`er soon encountered another batch of cultivators. He didn't waste time talking with them. His soul energy gushed forth, projecting two spirit bodies, directly blasting towards the two immortal kings.

There were very few people who were proficient in soul energy even in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The countenances of the two immortal kings instantly changed. Their law domains erupted forth with haste but it was too late. The formless soul energy has already entered their bodies.

"Destroy his body!" An immortal king roared. A ball of terrifying flames instantly shot towards Qin Wentian's body. Yang Yun`er turned pale when she saw this scene. Had Qin Wentian gone mad?

Qin Wentian naturally wasn't crazy. Very swiftly, his two spirit bodies reverted to soul energy and returned to his burning body. A powerful sense of vitality flooded the surroundings as his body actually began to quickly regenerate, causing the two immortal kings to stare in shock.

Was this a monster? His body seemed to be indestructible. If one wanted to kill him, they could only target his soul. But as fate would have it, his soul was so powerful that it even surpassed them both… Wasn't he simply a monster?

Also, there were still remnants of his soul energy within their bodies from the attacks earlier. It felt like Qin Wentian could trigger his soul energy and attack them at any time.

"I won't kill you two, I won't take your meteor stones too. You guys can continue excavating the area. I'll head into the interior of the cave here to cultivate. While excavating, you two can be my guards and prevent others from disrupting my cultivation. If not, don't blame me for being impolite." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. He didn't care if they agreed or not as he turned to Yun'er. "Yun'er, no matter if you wish to cultivate with me or to dig for more meteor stones, I'll go in first."

As he spoke, he proceeded into the depths of the cave. The two immortal kings had countenances that alternated between shades of green and white. Their facial expressions twitched when they felt the threat of the remaining soul energy. Could they say no?

"What are you all looking at? Continue your excavation." One of the immortal kings roared at the surrounding people who were staring at them. The crowd immediately turned around and continued their excavation. Yang Yun`er's beautiful eyes flashed. She contemplated for a moment and eventually chose to join Qin Wentian, heading deeper into the interior of the cave.

Qin Wentian took out the king-grade meteor stone he obtained earlier. Surrounding him, a hallucination domain appeared, creating many illusions. He directly closed his eyes and sat down cross-legged, really starting his cultivation just like that.

To Qin Wentian who had a peak-stage immortal king cultivation base in the past, there naturally wouldn't be any bottlenecks up till that level.

Five years later, Qin Wentian entered the immortal king realm. His soul perception shot up into the skies, entering the nine heavenly layers. His perception now might be very powerful, but it was still not as strong as back then when he was at his peak. He still wasn't able to break through the barrier of the 8th heavenly layer to step into the 9th.

But even so, his seven astral souls now were all from the 8th heavenly layer. This was simply shocking to hear.

Powerful astral light cascaded down from the sky, causing a huge commotion. The guards in the air naturally sensed this. Their eyes flashed and glanced towards the location where Qin Wentian was cultivating as they snorted coldly. There actually was someone cultivating underneath their eyes?

Very swiftly, four powerful immortal kings arrived at the outside of Qin Wentian's cave. Their immortal sense gushed in as they coldly spoke, "Who's the one cultivating within? Scram the hell out now."

Those who were mining all trembled. Even the two immortal kings who were guarding this place for Qin Wentian, and Yang Yun`er, all came out.

Yang Yun`er turned pale. These four immortal kings are the guards of the mine, ordinary characters definitely couldn't afford to antagonize them. They had the power to kill those who disobeyed the rules.

No noise came from the interior, there was only a scene of illusions.

"Not knowing the immensity of the heavens and earth." One of the guards directly stepped out. He had a cultivation base at the mid-stage of the immortal-king realm and the force of his steps caused the ground to tremble violently, making the hearts of others shudder. He walked step by step into the depths of the cave, directly entering the scene of illusions as his immortal sense gushed forth. Finally, he clearly saw Qin Wentian's location.

Qin Wentian continued sitting there. He calmly glanced at the immortal king who came in, only to hear the immortal king coldly speaking, "It's forbidden to cultivate in the mine. You actually dare to defy orders?"

Qin Wentian closed his eyes as he replied, "You are also following orders and are responsible solely for protecting the mine. You don't even have a share of the excavated meteor stones. So why so serious? Just get out and pretend nothing has happened."

"HOW DARE YOU!" That immortal king roared. He stepped forward while unleashing a powerful aura. A black-colored ball of fire then erupted forth.

"Don't make it so that you won't be able to extricate yourself from this." Qin Wentian's voice was as calm as ever. His eyes were still closed.

"Courting death." That immortal king coldly snorted. A burst of fist light shot out. The black flames enveloped around the fist imprint as it penetrated through space, exuding a stifling pressure.

Just before the powerful punch arrived, a beam of light radiated from Qin Wentian. In an instant, a layer of divine glow seemed to cover his entire body. That punch dissipated into nothingness upon impact, like it had never existed before.

"I don't wish to offend you guys. Please tell those outside not to disturb my cultivation." Qin Wentian opened his eyes. His terrifying gaze caused a piercing pain in the mind of the immortal king as he let out a roar of pain. It was so painful that he couldn't even open his eyes. An instant later, sweat covered his entire body as his heart pounded rapidly. When he opened his eyes again, Qin Wentian had already closed his and was back to focusing on his cultivation.

"Thump…" His heart pounded. This… was this really the strength of someone who just broke through to the immortal king realm?

He didn't say anything more and directly turned and exited the cave. He communicated with the three other guards. After that, the four of them actually silently left just like that, like nothing had ever happened before. This scene caused everyone else to open their eyes wide, like they just encountered something incredibly unbelievable. Yang Yun`er drew in a deep breath and peered into the depths of the case. This fellow, what sort of monster was he exactly?

"Continue your excavations." The two immortal kings guarding Qin Wentian coldly spoke. They both knew that Qin Wentian wasn't someone they could offend.

Qin Wentian didn't come out. After breaking through to the immortal king realm, things wouldn't be as simple as before. He needed to comprehend new types of attribute energies and establish new law domains. After all, his current seven astral souls were completely different from the past. The law domains he established before, were naturally no longer suitable.

Time flowed by, in the blink of an eye, another three years passed. This was already the 9th year mark after Qin Wentian entered here. In addition, after several more months, the spatial gate would open again and they will be able to leave.

During these three years, he broke through from the initial-stage of the immortal king realm to the mid-stage level. He only needed one more step to recover his cultivation base of the past.

Today, Qin Wentian finally kept the king-grade rock and walked out of the cave. The two immortal kings found even more people to excavate. Because the two of them were immortal kings guarding here, no other groups dared to find trouble for them.

With an intention of his will, the two sources of soul energy in their bodies returned back to him.

"Don't worry, I said before I wouldn't do anything to you. I just only wanted you two to protect me a little while you were excavating." Qin Wentian smiled when he saw that the two of them were extremely nervous.

Only now did the two of them heave a sigh of relief. When they sensed Qin Wentian's cultivation, their hearts clenched. This fellow, was he hiding his cultivation base before?

However, what was going on with the breakthrough? They could clearly sense the astral energy cascading downwards. Also, usually people would need a very long time to break through but this guy only spent a few years to reach the mid-stage of the immortal-king realm.

"Yun'er, let's leave." Qin Wentian spoke to Yang Yun'er.

"Mhm." Yang Yun`er nodded. Qin Wentian pulled her by her arm. With a flash of his silhouette, the two of them vanished together.

"Did we just encounter a ghost?" The two immortal kings mumbled to themselves.

"I think we must have encountered one. This old man has cultivated over a thousand years. This is the first time I saw such a bizarre matter." The other person spoke in a depressed manner.

"You…" Yang Yun`er spoke weakly as she soared through the air with Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian completely ignored the surrounding guards up here.

"What's there to fear? These people are merely following orders, when they encounter people stronger than them, they would choose to close one eye. In any case, they won't receive additional benefits, why would they want to risk their lives to make trouble?" Qin Wentian casually smiled.

"What is your cultivation base now?" Yang Yun`er asked.

"Mid-stage immortal king." Qin Wentian laughed. Yang Yun`er stared at him in a dumbfounded manner, "Were you concealing your cultivation base earlier?"

"I guess it can be considered so." Qin Wentian replied, not bothering to explain. They continued flying through the air and there would occasionally be scenes of illusions which appeared, blocking their vision. Qin Wentian didn't care and directly rushed through them.

"Maybe more immortal stones appeared?" Qin Wentian asked.

"I don't think so. There are many types of mines. This mine we are in can only be considered one of the more basic ones and would only produce hallucinatory-effect stones. A majority of those higher grade stones were long excavated away many years before." Yang Yun`er replied.

Qin Wentian nodded lightly and continued to proceed forward. However, all of a sudden, far away from them, a towering beam of light shot up into the skies. An instant later, a brilliant astral light flashed and illuminated the area, pulsing in resonance with something.

"Emperor-grade stone!" Yang Yun`er's eyes gleamed sharply.

"Resonance of astral energy, the symbol of immortal emperor realm. Is this an emperor-grade stone? Wouldn't this stone be even more valuable compared to an immortal king?" Qin Wentian laughed in a joking manner.

"One can put it that way." Yang Yun`er actually seriously nodded. "A piece of emperor stone can help immortal kings to pry through the mysteries leading to the immortal emperor realm. It can also produce unending torrents of law energy, deepening the user's understanding of their law attributes. Naturally, the law attributes in the emperor stone must be suitable for the user first. If not, you can use it for a transaction.

"Just so nicely, I'm a penniless man now. Jialan Mingyue have truly helped me a great deal." Qin Wentian laughed. A bright light flashed and a moment later, a spatial gate appeared in the air.

Just when Yang Yun`er was lost in her thoughts, Qin Wentian pulled her and entered the spatial gate. At the next instant, another spatial gate appeared in a different location as they stepped out from it.

Qin Wentian currently possessed a spatial-type astral soul. The astral soul he condensed from the 8th heaven layer was naturally none other than one which took the form of a giant spatial gate!

Chapter 1542: Qin Wentian’s Astral Soul

Qin Wentian and Yang Yun`er stared ahead, before their eyes, an ordinary-looking stone started to transform as astral light radiated from it. It became a gigantic piece of immortal stone as numerous hallucinations and illusions formed in a vast region around it.

"Such a large piece, it's value is priceless." Yang Yun`er's heart trembled as she continued. "The immortal stones for sale within the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are all products that have been refined from manufacturing before. This ore before us is naturally-formed, it's definitely of a very high quality."

Many immortal kings in the surroundings appeared as their eyes gleamed with sharpness. For such a large piece of stone, the price was astronomical. Many of the criminals could use this to bribe their way free of their crimes and even make a heap on top of it.

"This emperor stone it's its own illusion formation, and it's also an emperor-graded formation. If this stone lands in the hand of a formation grandmaster, how terrifying would that be?" Yang Yun`er sighed. In the vast space here, everything was actually covered by a heavy mist. They were enveloped within as well.

"Qin Wentian, I can't see anything." Yang Yun`er's vision was completely blocked, even her immortal sense was confounded by the hallucinatory mist. She couldn't even see her fingers when she stretched out her hand. But at this moment, she suddenly felt a current of warmth passing through one of her palms. There was someone who held onto her and that person's eyes were gleaming with a golden light, as though he was able to see through all these illusions.

"You are right, if we wait any longer, the higher-ups might even want to close this mine, trapping us within. I'll take it now." Another spatial gate appeared before Qin Wentian. He stepped into it and directly appeared in another location. At the very same instant, his aura erupted forth like a raging storm.

Qin Wentian directly ignored everything else. With a wave of his hand, a screen of light covered the emperor stone as a spatial thread manifested. He directly pulled the string into his spatial gate and kept it.

In an instant, the mist vanished completely, as did the astral light. Qin Wentian stepped through space, immediately bringing Yang Yun`er with him as he prepared to depart the area.

Numerous cold gazes shot towards the direction where Qin Wentian was at. A turbulent flood of law energy permeated the area. Qin Wentian coldly glanced over and said, "The emperor stone already belongs to me. If there's someone who wants to plunder it, I shall show no mercy and kill everyone."

As he spoke, he directly turned and left, ignoring all the immortal kings here.

"Simply courting death. Thunder Domain!" A voice roared. Instantly, purple thunderbolts enveloped all directions, trapping Qin Wentian and Yang Yun`er within. Inside the thunder domain, a fearsome giant appeared, rushing towards Qin Wentian. Lightning crackled wildly around them, as thunderbolts frequently fell from the sky.

Qin Wentian turned towards the giant. Golden runes manifested, landing on Yang Yun`er, transforming into a barrier of energy that protected her. Qin Wentian pulled her along with him, directly moving through the domain, ignoring the purple thunder and lightning striking his body. Despite the intensity of the attacks, they all actually failed to injure him at all.

That immortal king's expression changed. The thunderbolts from the sky grew even more powerful. An illusory face appeared in the sky and the thunder attacks increased in power to the extent where Qin Wentian felt his soul tremble. There seemed to be a soul attack aspect mixed within the thunder in this domain.

Qin Wentian stretched out his hand as a spatial sword domain appeared around him. From the sky, a burst of boundless divine sword glow flashed.

"Die." Qin Wentian pointed his finger forward. A million strands of sword intent penetrated through everything, turning that immortal king into dust in an instant. He simply had no way to resist.

"Let me remind you all again. For those who want to plunder the stone, I'll kill all without mercy." Qin Wentian waved his hand and kept his opponent's spatial ring and left casually. Nobody dared to follow him. Staring at his vanishing back, they felt a chill from the bottom of their hearts. The law energy that manifested earlier from him caused them to feel stark terror. The laws this man controlled were of a higher level compared to theirs, he could suppress them effortlessly.

Yang Yun`er stared at Qin Wentian blankly. She was gradually getting numb to all this. The immortal-foundation character that was brought here by Jialan Mingyue's subordinates before clearly came here out of his own will. If not, he would already have killed them off with ease.

"We have to hand over 90% of the meteor stones we obtain before we exit. Is there any way to evade this tax?" Qin Wentian asked.

"There's no way to evade it. After we exit, all our spatial rings will have to be handed over for them to inspect. In this boundlessly vast realm, all the cultivation resources here belongs to the Realmlord. We are able to get 10% because they acknowledge our effort in mining them. If the harvest is good, some criminals might be able to buy their freedom. This mine belongs to the Jialan Monarch, the resources we excavate here will be handed over to Jialan Emperor City before transferring to the Lifire Palace, before it is moved again to the Realmlord's location. Who would dare to covet things that belong to the Realmlord? No matter how strong you are, you would only die if you did so." Yang Yun`er explained.

"Mhm, the Realmlord must be filthy rich." Qin Wentian laughed. No wonder, the superpowers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have such tight control over cultivation resources. Other than these ordinary mines, there might still be other higher-graded mines.

"Since we can only get 10%, let's excavate more then." Qin Wentian descended. An instant later, a sword formation appeared beneath his feet, which constantly extended outwards.

The earth cracked and clouds of dust and tiny gravel flew everywhere. Thunderous rumbling sounds shook the sky as more and more meteor stones appeared. Qin Wentian used his immortal sense to control his sword, while collecting the meteor stones that appeared with his hands, doing everything in an extremely smooth manner.

"This fellow…" Yang Yun`er was speechless as she looked at Qin Wentian, as he continued moving forward while creating the ruckus. This was simply the actions of a madman. More and more powerful characters appeared in the surroundings and all of them stared at Qin Wentian with covetous looks in their eyes, silently mocking what a foolish person this man was. All his effort was destined to end up in their pockets.

Nobody obstructed him, but many people chose to follow after him. They wanted to wait a little while more before they acted to plunder the meteor stones.

The law energy radiating from Qin Wentian seemed endless. He continued doing so for many days and attracted even more immortal kings. Yang Yun`er followed behind him, but despite knowing Qin Wentian was very strong, she still trembled in fear when she noticed her surroundings. Could it be that he really believed he was invincible in the immortal king realm?

Some of the experts in the surroundings were peak-stage immortal kings. All of them had looks of greed on their faces.

Finally, Qin Wentian stopped. He glanced at the meteor stones in his spatial ring as a satisfied smile appeared on his face. Although he can only obtain 10%, his harvest was already extremely great.

In addition, if there are people who wish to kill him to seize his meteor stones, he naturally wouldn't be polite in his actions towards them.

"Let's go." Qin Wentian came to Yang Yun`er's side and prepared to leave. However, the experts in the surrounding had followed him for so long, how could they be willing to watch him leave just like this? Numerous figures flashed, blocking his path, trapping him in the center.

Spatial fluctuations rocked the area. Qin Wentian directly stepped into a spatial gate, bypassing the void and appearing in another location.

"Wait here for me." Qin Wentian said to Yang Yun`er. After that, he turned around and returned back to the spot he was in.

"Those who get near me, dies." Qin Wentian's body soared up into the air. A holy and resplendent light cascaded down on him. His entire being resembled a divinity.

That...was the power of light. Qin Wentian's body radiated an incomparably dazzling light, causing the experts to be unable to open their eyes. The light was even more piercing than the light from the sun.

Also, although he warned them, the majority of the experts didn't bother with it. Instantly, many powerful immortal kings rushed forth but at the next instant, their bodies were directly penetrated by light beams. All of them screamed in pain, dying one after another as the light domain engulfed all of them. No matter how strong their cultivations were, no matter what law-attributes they cultivated, all of them died with no exceptions.

Qin Wentian stood in the air, impassively glancing at everything. At this moment, he was god, the god of radiant light. The other experts who didn't step out earlier were all so frightened that their bodies trembled involuntarily. Terror appeared in their eyes as they stared at Qin Wentian.

The light slowly faded away. The spatial energy transformed into boundless threads, keeping the spatial rings of those who died. After that, he turned around and left. Nobody dared to pursue him.

"Given his strength, why is there a need for him to come here and fight over cultivation resources with us?" After the terror, a person angrily spoke. Everyone was speechless as well. Given the strength Qin Wentian displayed, the monarchs would definitely accept him as a subordinate and would nurture him heavily. If his luck was good, he might even obtain the favor of one of the nine empyreans. Why was he here in this mine, excavating for cultivation resources?

Nobody knew what to say to that. Although many were criminals among them, there were also some who were at the end of their ropes. But given their combat prowess, they were only average or they wouldn't have taken the risk and come here into the mines.If they were in a sect, the cultivation resources they would be granted would definitely be better.

Yang Yun`er already didn't know how many times she was stunned by Qin Wentian. She stared blankly at Qin Wentian as she asked, "You are so powerful, why do you want to bring me along with you?"

"Because we came in here together." Qin Wentian smiled.

Yang Yun`er blinked and turned silent for a moment. She then asked again, "Many of the constellations in the heavenly layers are recorded, especially so for constellations in the 6th heavenly layer. Not only that, I've also read descriptions of astral souls from the 7th heavenly layer before but I don't recall seeing such a powerful astral soul like yours. Is that the light law-attribute?"

"Yes. My astral soul came from the 8th heavenly layer." Qin Wentian smiled. Once again, Yang Yun`er had a dumbfounded look on her face as she stared at him.

Chapter 1543: The Legendary Grand Bandit

The date of the exit opening finally arrived. During these few days, numerous battles erupted throughout the boundlessly vast mine area as people started to frenziedly plunder from each other. Those weaker immortal-foundation characters had all of their harvest stolen. Many people died as well.

In fact, even several immortal kings died within the mine.

Qin Wentian also encountered many robbers. He didn't show any politeness and killed them all, taking their spatial rings for himself instead. This was the law in the mines. He wouldn't take the initiative to plunder but if people dared to antagonize him, he would show no mercy. Hence, the meteor stones on him grew more and more in number. When the giant spatial gate exit finally appeared, when its light enveloped the entirety of the mine, Qin Wentian actually felt a little depressed.

There were so many meteor stones with him, including quite a few emperor-ranked ones. Was 90% really going to be taken away like this? This was something he felt extremely unhappy about. Although he was invincible inside the mines, but he as an immortal king, how was he qualified to covet the belongings of the Realmlord? Wasn't this simply courting death? The Realmlord wouldn't even know of this matter, his subordinates could easily handle Qin Wentian. Even the Jialan Monarch could squash Qin Wentian to death.

He knew that the Jialan Monarch controls the mines in this region, and all of these mines contained spatial gates that led directly to the Jialan Monarch's emperor palace. The resources of these mines, even if it was an ordinary mine, no one could covet it. If someone actually dared to act according to their greed, they would immediately be classified as bandits and become fugitives.

"Everyone exit immediately." In the air, the guards spoke, their voices thundered through the mine. Many experts rose up and entered the spatial gate, vanishing from this location.

Ten years. It has been ten years. Every ten years, a mine would produce many meteor stones, alongside with many experts dying within. There were even some who would be trapped for ten more years until they obtained sufficient meteor stones to pay off whatever they had to. These people were usually the weaker ones, the stones they mined would be plundered by others.

But in any case, one rule was for sure. Nobody could steal the cultivation resources in the mine for themselves.

"Let's leave." Qin Wentian and Yang Yun`er entered the exit too.

In the outside world, numerous guards appeared, even more than the number Qin Wentian had seen when the guards brought him in. When the spatial gate opened, it was also the day to claim the harvest. Two immortal emperors from the Jialan Emperor Palace would come here to do the supervision. After that, they would return straight away via the teleportation array, leaving nothing to chance. But then again, there was of course nothing that was absolute.

Those who just exited the mine were made to gather in a vast area. All of them took out their interspatial rings to account. Qin Wentian and Yang Yun`er were among them. With two immortal emperors as supervisors, the other immortal kings were responsible for accounting. Who would dare to create trouble?

Also, these two immortal emperors weren't among the immortal emperors he had seen before when he went to the Jialan Emperor Palace. From this, one could see how many immortal emperors the Jialan Monarch had under him. Just this fact alone would make the Jialan Monarch a supreme power at the very peak in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

Qin Wentian stared at the surrounding experts who handed over their interspatial rings, feeling pain in his heart. 90% was to be paid as tax?

...

Although this mine was just an ordinary mine, the Jialan Monarch took no chances. There were a total of three teleportation arrays leading to the Jialan Emperor Palace. Reinforcements could arrive here instantly at any time.

Also, there were powerful guards around the teleportation array, especially during harvest day. The many peak-stage immortal kings were undoubtedly elites among the Jialan Monarch's subordinates.

At this moment, before a teleportation array, two peak-stage immortal kings were standing on guard. They seemed to be closing their eyes in meditation but their immortal senses were constantly sweeping through the surroundings in vigilance.

At this moment, the two of them seemed to have sensed something. Their immortal senses rushed toward a certain direction and a moment later, a gigantic beast appeared in their vision.

This beast was a lion. Both his eyes gleamed with an evil green light, which shot into the minds of the two immortal kings. They struggled frenziedly, wanting to resist it but in the next moment when they opened their eyes again, green light actually could be seen gleaming within. The gigantic lion had already seized control of their minds.

For the guards at the other two teleportation arrays, they encountered the same scenario as well. Their eyes gleamed with greenlight as a tiny figure of a lion appeared in their minds.

"Destroy the teleportation arrays." A voice rang out in their minds. With no hesitation, these mind-controlled experts all unleashed their strongest attacks, destroying the teleportation arrays. In an instant, the rumbling thunderous sounds shook the entire mountain range, causing the experts who just exited the mines to shudder as their expressions changed.

The expressions of the two immortal emperors drastically changed, turning pale.

Usually, nobody would dare to touch a mine. But if somebody did so, they were extremely clear in their hearts of what was happening.

Those who dared to do this were definitely bandits. There was no need to doubt so. Also, it should be a large bandit group.

One of the immortal emperors instantly took out a message crystal and send his immortal sense in, "Monarch, there are bandits appearing here, and the teleportation arrays were all destroyed."

As the sound of his voice faded, a stifling pressure suddenly bore down from the sky. A group of experts had all released their auras. All of them were, at the very least, at the immortal king realm. Also, they exuded a sharpness that only came about through constant warfare.

In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, bandits were more dangerous and terrifying compared to ordinary troops under each of the nine monarchs. Even if they had the same cultivation base, because bandits had to dance on the edge of life and death often, their combat prowess was usually superior. Also, all of them were extremely ruthless characters.

Qin Wentian still had no idea what was going on, but Yang Yun`er had already turned pale. She pulled his arm and whispered, "Bandits!"

"Bandits?" Qin Wentian narrowed his eyes. When he first entered the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, at Windthunder City, Jialan Mingyue had already tried to frame him, saying that he and Beiming Youhuang were bandits. To think that he would encounter real bandits the first time he came to mine meteor stones.

What made him be taken aback was that these bandits seemed even more like an army compared to the guards of the Jialan Monarch. Each of them was clad in full armor, ready for battle at any instant.

As bandits, their faces were naturally covered. Who would be willing to show their faces? There were some extremely cautious bandits who hid their identities and mixed within cities after they retired. No one would know that they were once a bandit.

In the air, the terrifying demonic lion appeared. His eyes shone with an evil jade-green light as he stared at the surroundings.

"Evil Emperor!" The two immortal emperors froze. As emperors, they actually felt fear in their hearts at this moment.

That's right, the name Evil Emperor, was referring to this demonic lion. This lion was an extremely powerful demon emperor.

Naturally, he wasn't the leader of the bandits.

The Evil Emperor was the mount of a supremely powerful great bandit named the Night Empyrean many years ago.

Night Empyrean could be considered a legendary bandit in the Lifelong Realm. His strength was terrifying to the extreme and he had plundered many mines before, including an extremely valuable large mine. This incident even caused the Realmlord to sit up. Two Empyreans eventually joined forces, laying an intricate trap and finally managed to kill the Night Empyrean while suffering many casualties of their forces.

This was an incident that happened many years ago. Who would have thought that the beast mount of the Night Empyrean would actually appear in one of the mines controlled by the Jialan Monarch today.

Were the forces under the Night Empyrean planning a comeback?

But something was wrong. Although these bandits were united, they weren't the past followers of the Night Empyrean. A majority of the Night Empyrean's forces had already been annihilated. If not, if the Night Empyrean was still alive, why would he target such an ordinary mine?

The two immortal emperors radiated coldness. They naturally didn't forget the legend of the great bandit. Back then, the Lifire Empyrean was one of the two empyreans that joined forces to kill the Night Empyrean.

Also, the nine monarchs under the Lifire Empyrean had also participated in that battle.

"Who are you?" One of the immortal emperors stared at a lithe figure standing on the back of the demonic lion. This figure was clad fully in armor as well. Only a pair of eyes gleaming with sharpness could be seen.

That person didn't reply. The entire space was so quiet that it felt terrifying. The bandits then descended, their auras and pressure they radiated, caused countless people to tremble.

"What should we do?" Yang Yun`er stared at Qin Wentian as she asked. She didn't expect that she would be able to survive in the mine. But after they exited, she felt hope again. Could it be her hope was going to turn into despair now?

Qin Wentian's expression was also extremely unsightly. There were many immortal emperors in the air, and especially that demonic lion, Qin Wentian knew he didn't have the strength to fight them. Right now, even the two immortal emperors under the Jialan Monarch, felt fear in their hearts.

"Kill all the guards, allow none to escape." An immortal emperor of the bandit forces coldly spoke, causing countless people to turn pale.

Given the strength of the bandits, how would they even fight against them? Wouldn't that be courting death as well?

"All of you excavators are not allowed to move. If not, don't blame us for starting a massacre." A cold voice rang out from the figure standing on the demonic lion. The immortal emperors of the bandit forces then directly rushed at the two immortal emperors.

"LET'S MAKE A RUN FOR IT!" At this moment, the situation was already out of control. The majority of the crowd feared that their lives would even be worse than living in the mine if the bandits took over. If they attempt to escape, they would still have a chance to live!

Chapter 1544: Favor

The battle instantly erupted as chaotic law energies permeated the atmosphere. One of the bandits coldly spoke, "We told you all not to move. You guys don't even want a path of survival?"

As he spoke, he punched out, directly killing a group of experts who were fleeing away.

Right now, although the bandits had the advantage, their numbers were not plenty. In fact, the number of bandits was even fewer than the guards, let alone the excavators.

Upon seeing the guards and bandits fighting, how could the excavators not choose to flee?

Qin Wentian cast a glance at the battlefield and instantly understood that this was a one-sided fight. The guards were simply not a match for the bandits. The bandits dealing with the two immortal emperors were extremely terrifying. They instantly soared up into the air to battle, effortlessly suppressing the immortal emperors.

"They want us to fight so they can use the chance to flee away. Bastards." Someone cursed in anger. Seems like the two immortal emperors already understood this was a losing battle and were hurriedly fleeing away. But the two bandits were stronger than them, how could they allow the two immortal emperors to flee?

What made people feel even more despair was that that terrifying demonic lion and the figure standing on its back had not even acted yet.

Upon seeing the two immortal emperors fleeing, only then did the figure on the lion's back float up in the air. After that, the gigantic lion shot towards the direction of the immortal emperors as a jade-green light permeated their surroundings, directly drilling into their minds. The two immortal emperors under the Jialan Monarch immediately let out roars of pain but no matter how they struggled, they couldn't change their fate.

"Is this the strength of bandits?" Qin Wentian stared at the massacre in the air. These bandits even dared to kill immortal emperors under the Jialan Monarch. These people weren't just the subordinates of the Jialan Monarch, they were also considered subordinates of the Lifire Empyrean.

This was the first time he encountered bandits, and he had to encounter such a large group. Qin Wentian couldn't help but to curse silently. This time around, he was truly in miserable straits due to Jialan Mingyue. Why did she have to send him here to this mine?

"Let's go." Qin Wentian spoke softly to Yang Yun`er, silently retreating in a direction.

"Qin Wentian, you won't be able to flee if you bring me with you. Just leave alone." Yang Yun`er transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian. Although she felt despair, she wasn't willing to drag Qin Wentian down. Before this, if it wasn't for Qin Wentian protecting her in the mine, she might have already died.

"If we don't try, how would we know?" Qin Wentian didn't say anything more and directly brought her along as he soared into the air. A spatial gate flashed into existence and he stepped into it, shuttling through the void.

"Mhm?" An expert noticed the fluctuations. After noting down his cultivation base, two peak-stage immortal kings sped through the air with lightning speed. One of the two peak-stage immortal king was also proficient in spatial laws and he could trace Qin Wentian's movements directly.

Qin Wentian wanted to open up another spatial gate again but that immortal king flooded the area with his own spatial law energy, scrambling the space. At the same moment, the other peak-stage immortal king had already arrived. As he closed in, a terrifyingly heavy pressure bore down on Qin Wentian and Yang Yun'er. Yang Yun'er directly coughed out blood as she paled.

"Sirs, we are just excavators. If you all want the meteor stones, we can give them all to you." Qin Wentian took out his interspatial ring. He naturally didn't give a damn about these two peak-stage immortal kings. But there were still immortal emperors in the surroundings. Not only that, the leader of this group didn't even act yet. He wouldn't dare to be so impulsive as to kill people directly. That would only be courting death.

"Hmph." That peak-stage immortal king coldly snorted as he stomped down in the air. Yang Yun`er groaned and coughed out a mouthful of blood. Qin Wentian's law energy surrounded her, forming a barrier as he stared up at that peak-stage immortal king coldly.

"I'm willing to give up my interspatial ring. Don't push things too far." Qin Wentian held out the hand with the ring in the air. As long as the other party agreed, he would just give the ring away. Meteor stones can always be excavated again but life was precious. He didn't wish to die again. In addition, his rebirth back then was due to a series of lucky coincidences.

"Too late. We will take your ring and your life as well." That immortal king stomped down again as a heavy gravitational force slammed into Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian could clearly sense a formless pressure mercilessly pressing down on him. If he was an ordinary mid-stage immortal king, this strike was already sufficient to take his life.

"Why must your force me?" An extremely icy killing intent flickered in Qin Wentian's eyes. In an instant, his gaze turned demonic. The face of the peak-stage immortal king up in the air changed. After that, he fell into a dimension formed from an eye-technique, trapped within illusions.

"KILL!" A flawlessly pure sword beam shot through the air. The immortal king trembled as terror shone on his face. Everything was already too late. The sword beam penetrated his body, crippling his defenses. Qin Wentian took a step forward and grabbed his throat while hoisting him up the air. He then coldly spoke, "Since you want death so much, I shall grant it to you."

As the sound of his voice rang out, a tyrannical piercing look of sharpness shot from his eyes, lacerating the peak-stage immortal king into pieces.

Everything happened in the span of a single breath. It was too quick, so quick that even the immortal king proficient in spatial energy couldn't react in time.

This peak-stage immortal king waved his hand as spatial energy formed a spear that shot towards Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian's aura radiated forth as a spatial shield appeared before him, blocking that attack. After that, that peak-stage immortal king fell into the same dimension created by Qin Wentian's eye technique and couldn't struggle free no matter how hard he tried to.

"KILL!" Once Qin Wentian acted, he had no intentions of showing mercy, he would kill when he said kill. In the blink of an eye, that peak-stage immortal king died as well.

"Mhm?" The experts from afar all had shock on their faces when they saw this. The leader also glanced at Qin Wentian in surprise. After that, a group of experts flew towards Qin Wentian with a glance from the leader.

"Immortal emperors, two immortal emperors." Qin Wentian's expression turned ashen. He once again stepped into a spatial gate but the spatial law in the area was disrupted easily with a palm strike from one of the immortal emperors.

Several peak-stage immortal kings and immortal emperors stood before Qin Wentian and Yang Yun`er.

"Yun'er. Seems like I won't be able to protect you any longer." Qin Wentian softly spoke to Yang Yun'er beside her.

Yang Yun`er's eyes instantly turned red. she stared at the leader, "Senior, we were forced to enter the mine to excavate for cultivation resources. Why do you have to kill us?"

"I only gave the order to kill the guards, not the excavators. You guys are the one who wanted to flee, disobeying my orders" The leader spoke. What made Qin Wentian start was that this voice was actually quite melodious. It was a female voice.

The leader of this group of powerful bandits was actually a female immortal emperor.

"Also, you just killed my men." The female immortal emperor glanced at Qin Wentian, her revealed eyes shining brightly.

As the sound of her voice faded, an immortal emperor walked out beside her. Instantly, astral light fell from the sky, boring down on him, forming a resonance with the immortal emperor.

"If I die in the fight, senior, please spare her life." Qin Wentian pushed Yang Yun`er aside as she soared up into the air, facing the immortal emperor alone.

"Qin Wentian." Yang Yun`er's eyes were red. As for that female immortal emperor, a look of intrigue appeared on her face. This fellow was a mid-stage immortal king but he wanted to fight an immortal emperor? Wasn't he overestimating himself?

That immortal emperor grabbed out with his palm, manifesting a giant hand in the air that brimmed with tyrannical might, as it smashed towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian lifted his palm and slammed out. With a thunderous bang, that giant hand was actually crushed by Qin Wentian. This caused the eyes of everyone to narrow. At the immortal emperor realm, even if it was a casual attack, it should be sufficient to destroy a peak-stage immortal king. But at this moment, a mid-stage immortal king actually dared to fight head-on with an immortal emperor.

"Hahaha!" That immortal emperor laughed loudly. Another giant palm appeared. The fingers on this palm transformed into gigantic mountains that covered the sky, blotting out everything, creating a scene resembling an apocalypse.

At this moment, an incomparably resplendent divine glow radiated from him, actually brimming with buddhic might.

The him right now was like an ancient buddha. Not only that, a powerful radiance flowed around him, as ten thousand arms appeared behind him. All of the manifested arms blasted out, aiming to break the five gigantic mountains. Between the two of them, the energy storm created from the aftershocks was extremely terrifying, capable of shattering everything into pieces.

The revealed eyes of the female immortal king flashed with interest. The attack of an immortal emperor was actually continuously blocked by a mid-stage immortal king?

The immortal emperor snorted as the astral light resonance from him grew in intensity. Qin Wentian actually stepped forward. A pair of terrifying eyes appeared behind him as his eyes turned demonic. In an instant, with a single glance, that immortal emperor felt himself being trapped in a dimension created by an eye-technique.

"Enough." A gentle voice rang out, causing Qin Wentian who wanted to initiate an attack to freeze. He quickly retracted his energy. His opponent also was stunned, inclining his head to look at the female immortal emperor.

"From now on, you will follow me." The revealed eyes of the female immortal emperor flashed with a bright smile as she spoke to Qin Wentian. Upon seeing the bright light in her eyes, a strange look appeared on Qin Wentian's face.

Follow her?

Could it be that he would really have no choice but to become a bandit?

However, in this situation, can he even reject? If he did so, it would simply be courting death.

"Fine. Senior, can you spare my friend?" Qin Wentian pointed to Yang Yun`er as he spoke.

"No problem, she's just a little lass." The female immortal emperor clearly didn't care much about Yang Yun`er. After that, she directly turned around and left. The immortal emperor who fought with Qin Wentian coldly looked at him with unhappiness flashing in his eyes. But he didn't say anything and followed after the female immortal emperor. The other bandits also cast a deep glance at him. This fellow actually managed to obtain her favor!

Chapter 1545: Excellent Creature

"Hu…" Qin Wentian breathed. How dangerous. If this female immortal emperor wanted to kill him, he would truly be in danger. Although right now he had seven extremely powerful astral souls as well as the undying attribute due to the Undying Scripture, if the difference in strength was too great, he might still die. If the other party blasted him to the point where his soul scattered, how could he recover?

Yang Yun`er's beautiful eyes turned to Qin Wentian. She didn't expect that she would be able to live.

"Yun'er, take care." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to her. Yang Yun'er nodded, her eyes turned red as she thought of all the things that happened. The two of them met by chance and their relationship couldn't be considered deep. Qin Wentian had already done enough for her.

Qin Wentian stepped out, following the bandits. From afar, the fearsome gigantic lion had already returned as well. His large eyes, gleaming with green light, swept towards Qin Wentian. It actually caused Qin Wentian to feel his soul tremble. He didn't dare to be careless in the slightest. This demonic lion was a supremely powerful demon emperor monster. He couldn't afford to antagonize it. Just a single glance made him understand that this lion was also someone who cultivated soul force.

Lifting his head and glancing over, he saw that the two immortal emperors under the Jialan Monarch had already died. The guards were all annihilated as well. Those who had resisted among the excavators were all in extremely miserable states.

"What should we do with these people?" Beside the female immortal emperor, an expert spoke. After he spoke, he didn't forget to glance at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian narrowed his eyes. He instantly understood the intent of this man. These people all came here fully clad in armor, with their features covered. If they brought Qin Wentian away, a flaw would appear. In that case, the best solution was undoubtedly to slaughter all the excavators that had survived.

The female immortal emperor glanced at Qin Wentian only to hear Qin Wentian saying, "I'm proficient in illusions. I can change my appearance."

"Let's go then." The female immortal emperor lazily spoke. The other experts all mounted on the back of the giant lion. Qin Wentian naturally followed them as well. The lion shot up into the air and sped away into the distance with startling speed.

"What a fearsome group." Qin Wentian mused silently. This was the first time he encountered bandits and their strength had already toppled his earlier conjectures. In addition, he himself also became a bandit. This was truly a speechless matter.

The clouds churned as the lion sped through. Nobody said anything, there was only the sound of sonic booms. The speed of this giant was incredibly quick and after some time, Qin Wentian discovered that the bandits began to hop off the lion's back one by one. Very swiftly, other than the female immortal emperor remaining, there was one more immortal emperor and three peak-stage immortal kings, plus Qin Wentian left.

"We will soon arrive." That immortal emperor spoke to the female immortal emperor who had her eyes closed in meditation.

"Mhm." The female immortal emperor calmly replied. After that, the group of them removed their armors, revealing their true faces.

The female immortal emperor turned and glanced at Qin Wentian as a charming smile appeared on a face. This smile was so mesmerizing that it could make those who saw it feel their bodies going limp.

A pair of phoenix eyes, and brows like the touch of a willow. Her features were exquisite to the extreme and her skin seemed so soft that it would break with a single touch.

This bandit leader's beauty was actually comparable to Beiming Youhuang, not the slightest bit inferior at all. It was just that her demeanor was completely different.

Beiming Youhuang always radiated coldness, but this female immortal emperor gave off a feeling of absolute charm. Just by sitting there, with her jade legs crossed, she was extremely alluring to the max. Her waist was as lithe as a water snake, she was able to mesmerize people with a single glance. Ordinary people would definitely fall for her.

What made people even more unable to endure was that she, who had removed her armor, was only wearing a simple and flimsy looking red dress which further accentuated her perfect figure. She sat there simply. From Qin Wentian's vision angle, he could see the whiteness of her twin peaks. It was simply mesmerizing to the extreme.

"Hmph." The immortal emperor beside her coldly snorted as he looked at Qin Wentian. He spoke with disdain, "Although palace mistress favors him, it seems that he is only of this level."

Qin Wentian was startled awake from the cold snort. He also felt that his manners were slightly lacking for staring at the female immortal emperor so openly and couldn't help but to feel a little awkward. He hurriedly shifted his eyes away, not daring to look again. This charming maiden before him wasn't just a beautiful girl. She was also a powerful immortal emperor, the leader of this bandit group. She could easily take his life effortlessly.

However, he was still extremely shocked in his heart. He didn't expect the leader of the bandit group to be such an alluring woman, truly an excellent creature. She was so beautiful that he was slightly dazed. Right now, Qin Wentian felt that his state of heart was already quite extraordinary and he had also seen many beauties before. Yet, he still reacted in this way. From this, one could see how strong the charm of this female immortal emperor was.

"Palace mistress?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. The nine empyreans were also known as palace lords. But this was impossible, how could one of them try to plunder a mine?

The term 'palace mistress,' should be just a title of sorts that was of no relation to the nine empyreans.

"Before our palace mistress, who can withstand her charm? Although this little brat's combat prowess isn't bad, but when he saw palace mistress's true face, hmph…" The immortal king behind laughed.

"What is your name?" The female asked with a stirring smile that could move the hearts of people.

"Qin Wentian."

"Mhm. In the future, you can just refer to me as palace mistress too." The female immortal emperor surveyed Qin Wentian, her eyes flashing with interest. "You are really very handsome and have an extraordinary demeanor. It should have something to do with the law attributes you cultivate, right? How can I be willing to ask you to change your appearance?"

"Palace mistress praises me too much." Qin Wentian was indeed more good-looking then before. He felt that this might have something to do with astral souls. After all, astral souls from the 8th heavenly layer were able to subtly influence the demeanor of a person.

Qin Wentian suddenly radiated an intense illusionary fluctuation. A moment later, the contours of his face changed and his demeanor also transformed. Very soon, he became a different person entirely.

"What a powerful law energy from your astral soul." The female immortal emperor laughed. After that, she glanced at the gigantic lion below and spoke, "Little lion, you can change back now."

A moment later, the lion instantly grew smaller, becoming the size of a house cat and leapt straight into the bosom of the female immortal emperor. All the ferocious and baleful aura emanating from it had vanished completely

The female immortal emperor waved her hand as a divine artifact in the form of a sedan appeared. She directly entered it and laid down on the sofa within. The remaining immortal emperor and three peak-stage immortal kings directly became the sedan carriers as they hoisted it up and proceeded forward.

"This…?" Qin Wentian was dumbstruck. He silently mused at how terrifying this group of bandits are. In the blink of an eye, they completely changed themselves. He initially thought that bandits would all be hiding in the wilderness but who would have thought that after this group of bandits removed their armor, they weren't worried about people seeing them at all.

"Why are you in a daze for? Come on in." A languid-sounding voice rang out from within the sedan. Qin Wentian started, he then glanced at the sedan and replied, "Junior doesn't dare to."

"Palace mistress, why don't you make him carry the sedan?" The immortal emperor suggested. The female immortal emperor glanced at him with narrowed eyes and that immortal emperor instantly went quiet. After that, he shot a cold look at Qin Wentian. This was none other than that immortal emperor who fought against him earlier.

"Are you afraid that I will eat you up?" The charming voice rang out once more. Qin Wentian braced himself and shifted the curtains covering the sedan to the side before stepping in. Upon seeing that alluring figure lying on the sofa, Qin Wentian averted his eyes, not daring to look around recklessly. The scene was just too beautiful.

"Am I good looking?" That female immortal emperor smiled. Qin Wentian nodded, "Palace mistress's beauty is truly astounding."

"Come sit over here." The female immortal emperor stretched out her legs and pointed at a location beside them. Qin Wentian nodded and sat there. As long as he turned his head, he would be able to see those beautiful legs which could cause people's blood to surge up.

"The law attributes you are proficient in are Buddha, Space, Illusion, Sword and Light. Also, the quality of law energy from you is far superior to those with the same cultivation base as you. Why would a character like you appear inside the mine and is even an excavator?" The female immortal emperor casually asked. Qin Wentian's heart clenched. This meant that the female immortal emperor didn't trust him fully yet.

"I've offended the Jialan Monarch." Qin Wentian replied.

"Oh? Tell me more about it." The female immortal emperor smiled.

"I have to start from me and my senior sister leaving the wilderness…" Qin Wentian weaved a lie. In any case, he summarized and said that the Jialan Monarch was attracted to his senior sister's beauty, but as for him, he was arranged to go to the mine by Jialan Mingyue.

"You guys heard it too, right? Send someone to investigate this. Make sure the facts match up to his story." The female immortal emperor laughed. The experts outside nodded. Qin Wentian's heart couldn't help but tremble a little. Luckily he didn't lie outright and had mixed some truth within the lies.

"Being able to cause the Jialan Monarch to be attracted to her, your senior sister should be a supreme beauty, right? Compared to me, who is better looking?" The female immortal emperor smiled as she asked.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as he replied, "Although palace mistress's beauty is rarely seen in this world, my senior sister's beauty similarly can topple kingdoms with ease. No many people can be compared to her."

"Mhm?" The female immortal emperor was stunned before she started laughing. The four experts outside also laughed. As time flowed on, they eventually descended from the air. Qin Wentian glanced below only to see a majestic and vast city located inside a mountain range.

"Palace mistress, what place is this?" Qin Wentian curiously asked.

"This is the most luxurious city used mainly for transactions, in the entire territory of the Lifire Empyrean. Its name is Heavenly City." The sedan continued descending with great speed as the majestic city grew larger and larger in Qin Wentian's vision.

...

Right now, at the mine where Qin Wentian was at previously, the Jialan Monarch led a group of experts here. When they saw the destruction in the area, his expression grew terrifyingly heavy. Two immortal emperors that were his subordinates had died in battle here.

"Capture all those who are still alive back for questioning." The Jialan Monarch icily spoke. After that, an immortal emperor stepped out and began to extend his immortal sense outwards.

Not far away from the Jialan Monarch, a beautiful figure stood there. This was naturally none other than Beiming Youhuang. Right now, the air around her felt extremely chilly. She slowly walked towards Jialan Mingyue with an ice-like expression on her face.

"What are you doing?" Jialan Mingyue was somewhat afraid of Beiming Youhuang. She continuously retreated.

"Bang!" Beiming Youhuang's palm directly blasted out, sending Jialan Mingyue flying away. This caused Jialan Mingyue to cough out blood as she turned pale.

Chapter 1546: Number One Beauty in Heavenly City

Jialan Mingyue steadied herself. She stretched out a hand and wiped away the traces of blood at the corners of her lips. The look in her eyes was cold to the extreme as she stared at Beiming Youhuang.

"Cheap slut, you dare to hit me?" Jialan Mingyue coldly spoke. She has never suffered such humiliation before.

Beiming Youhaung stepped forward as a fearsome ice-like energy permeated the area, capable of sealing all life. At this instant, Jialan Mingyue felt frost covering her entire body as a sense of immense crisis bore down on her.

"Youhuang, stop!" The Jialan Monarch stepped out, waving his hand to dissipate the frosty energy. He turned his gaze to Beiming Youhuang, "Youhuang, what are you doing?"

"Those who are sent here to mine the stones are all criminals or slaves. You actually sent Qin Wentian to such a place?" Beiming Youhuang's eyes were cold to the extreme, staring at Jialan Mingyue.

"You want to kill me?" Jialan Mingyue sensed the killing intent from Beiming Youhuang as her eyes flashed with redness.

"Youhuang, there are many who are still alive. He might be fine." The Jialan Monarch spoke.

Beiming Youhuang stared at the Jialan Monarch as she coldly spoke, "Although I'm doing things for your emperor palace, I report directly to the Lifire Empyrean. You can let your daughter become the city lord but your daughter actually dared to send my junior brother into the mines. Right now, I don't even know if he is alive or dead. Jialan Monarch, if something happens to Qin Wentian, I'll make sure Jialan Mingyue dies with him."

"Father, did you hear what she said? This cheap slut wants to kill me in front of you. Could you really forsake your daughter for her beauty?" Jialan Mingyue screamed, her eyes turned bloodshot. Since young, she was pampered and spoiled. In the Jialan Monarch's territory, she had always been able to do anything she wanted.

Today, Beiming Youhuang actually sent her flying and said that she wanted to kill her.

"Stop talking." The Jialan Monarch's expression turned heavy.

"Father, it has been so many years. You haven't bedded her yet? Or is it because you are too emotionally attached to her and don't care about your daughter anymore? She said that she wanted to kill me!" Jialan Mingyue had always been doted upon and her whims would always be fulfilled as long as she threw a tantrum. But now, someone wanted to kill her and her father actually told her to stop talking.

"Shut up." The Jialan Monarch coldly roared as a terrifying pressure gushed forth from him. Jialan Mingyue was so frightened that she turned pale as she stared at her father in trepidation.

"Jialan Mingyue. Remember the words you said today. Also, the Jialan Monarch, you would do well to better educate your daughter." Beiming Youhuang coldly spoke. After that, her figure flashed as she directly soared through the air, deciding to look for Qin wentian herself.

The Jialan Monarch had a heavy expression on his face. He coldly stared at Jialan Mingyue and transmitted her voice to her, "It's okay that I doted on you usually but your nonsense actually knows no bounds? Do you think that I have no idea about your lawless behaviour in Windthunder City? Right now, Beiming Youhuang is someone the Lifire Empyrean admires very much, she is heavily nurtured by him. You actually dared to insult her like this? Are you courting death?"

Jialan Mingyue was stunned when she heard her father's words. She then replied, "But you are one of the nine monarchs under the Lifire Empyrean. Can it be that you are afraid her? Let alone, father…."

"What do you know? I naturally wouldn't fear her. But what about you? You simply know nothing at all." The Jialan Monarch coldly stated. "After you return, the position of the city lord will be stripped from you. Head to the emperor city. Your mother will discipline you."

After speaking, the Jialan Monarch flicked his sleeves and walked towards those excavators whom his forces found. His expression was somewhat sinister. Back then, because of lust, he brought Beiming Youhuang to the Lifire Palace. But the things that happened after that were all out of his expectations. The Lifire Empyrean actually had the intention to heavily nurture Beiming Youhuang. At the end, things went according to the Jialan Monarch's wishes and Beiming Youhuang was arranged to station at Jialan Emperor City. However, in reality, the Jialan Monarch knew that her true purpose was to monitor his movements. This made him very unhappy about it.

Right now, Beiming Youhuang can be considered someone very popular with the Lifire Empyrean. The Jialan Monarch naturally wouldn't dare to do anything to her.

"Monarch, according to these excavators, all our guards were killed. Those who remained alive are all excavators." The person in charge of questioning these excavators bowed low when he saw the Jialan Monarch approaching.

"Ask if they know about someone named Qin Wentian." The Jialan Monarch coldly spoke.

"Yes."

More and more excavators were captured here and underwent questioning. However, there was simply not much information regarding the bandit group. They only knew that all the bandits were fully clad in armor and none of them showed their faces. Other than this, there was still a terrifying demonic lion at the demon emperor realm. The Jialan Monarch instantly knew that the lion was none other than the Evil Emperor, the beast mount for the legendary great bandit, the Night Emperor.

Finally, news of Qin Wentian appeared. But what was strange was that the Qin Wentian from their info, was an immortal king expert and had extremely high combat prowess. He was brought away by the bandits.

After Beiming Youhuang learned of this news, her heart trembled slightly but she heaved a sigh of relief. Immortal king realm. Seems like there was no mistake, his cultivation base has almost recovered. To think that the life of that fellow would be so tough and was actually viewed favorably by the bandit leader. For now, she can only hope that nothing has happened to him.

After Jialan Mingyue learned of this, she instantly spread the news that Qin Wentian was a traitor and had betrayed them to join the bandits. Beiming Youhuang couldn't be bothered with her. She would account this debt with Jialan Mingyue in the future.

...

Heavenly City was an area under the jurisdiction of the Lifire Palace and had an extremely long history.

The female bandit lord didn't lie to Qin Wentian. The Heavenly City was truly the most prosperous transaction grounds in the domain controlled by the Lifire Palace. Over here, large amount of treasures were traded daily. There were naturally also many major powers stationed here. Immortal kings could be seen everywhere and in fact, if you walked onto the streets randomly, there's a high chance that you would encounter an immortal emperor. This was how lively the city was.

The Thousand Feathers Palace was one of the major powers in Heavenly City. Their strength was very strong and they had numerous immortal emperors within the sect. Their main business was to transact divine weapons, innate techniques and arts, as well as various rare treasures. They were pretty famous in Heavenly City.

Naturally, the most important reason for the Thousand Feathers Palace's fame wasn't because of its business. It was because of the palace mistress of the Thousand Feathers Palace.

Just because, the palace mistress of the Thousand Feathers Palace, is also known as the number one beauty in Heavenly City.

In this boundlessly large city, beauties were as common as clouds. The palace mistress of the Thousand Feathers Palace had the title of Fairy Thousand Feathers. Not only was her looks outstanding, her talent in cultivation was extremely high as well. Her entire being radiated immense charm and she could hook in people effortlessly, causing them to lose themselves in mesmerization. Nobody dared to doubt the fact that she was the number one beauty in Heavenly City.

In Heavenly City, many people would do many things, just for the chance to meet with the Fairy Thousand Feathers. The reason why it was so lively inside the Thousand Feathers Palace was because many people were hoping for a chance just to cast a single glance at Fairy Thousand Feathers.

However, the people of Heavenly City didn't realize that at this moment, there was someone who was extremely frightened of meeting Fairy Thousand Feathers.

Right now, in an elegant-looking room, Fairy Thousand Feathers was sitting on a sofa and was dressed in robes of a pure white, causing her to exude a sense of innocent temptation. This was especially so at the way she crossed her legs. Just a glance at it would definitely cause people to be unable to endure.

"Is this mistress really so ugly to look at?" Ye Qianyu charmingly smiled as she stared at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian didn't even dare to look at her.

"Palace mistress's beauty is unrivalled. This subordinate dares not profane it." Qin Wentian lowered his head.

"Oh? You have never had profane thoughts when you looked at me before?" Ye Qianyun started giggling, staring at Qin Wentian causing him to shiver coldly.

"Don't worry, guys are all the same. Just look if you want to, don't be so wishy-washy." Ye Qianyu's voice was filled with boundless charm. Qin Wentian inclined his head and fixed his eyes on that mesmerizing body exuding temptation.

"News has arrived. You are really honest and didn't lie to me. I already have news regarding the person you asked me to check up on." Ye Qianyu spoke.

"How is she?" Qin Wentian asked. The one he wanted news about, was naturally none other than Beiming Youhuang. Although back then he said that the Jialan Monarch wouldn't dare to do anything to Beiming Youhuang, he couldn't help but feel worried as it has been quite some years since he last saw her.

Ye Qianyu had a smile that was not a smile on her face. "So nervous?"

"Palace mistress, I have a very good relationship with my senior sister. I will naturally be nervous and worried for her news." Qin Wentian replied.

"Seems like this mistress's charm is truly weak, I can't even be compared to a woman so far away. I even heard that she's an ice-like beauty." Ye Qianyu smiled. "Don't worry, she's doing well for herself and is heavily regarded by the Lifire Empyrean. She is currently stationed at Jialan Monarch's territory.

"Many thanks palace mistress." Qin Wentian silently heaved a sigh of relief.

"Can you show me your astral souls?" Ye Qianyu charmingly smiled. Qin Wentian felt a little awkward. This vixen seemed to be extremely curious regarding his astral souls and had requested to see them many times before.

It was just that it was a fact that his astral souls were very unique. He didn't know what sort of reactions would she have if he released his astral souls for her to see.

Upon seeing Qin Wentian not saying anything, Ye Qianyu slowly stood up and stepped forward. The fragrance from her hair drifted in the wind. Every movement she made felt extremely alluring.

Ye Qianyu walked to the side of Qin Wentian. She was slightly shorter than Qin Wentian but was still considered quite tall. She had perfect proportions and was definitely considered an excellent specimen of a woman. Not only so, she was also an immortal emperor. Qin Wentian didn't dare to match her eyes. He lowered his head but soon saw a breathtaking sight, a patch of skin as white as snow, and a 'deep valley' appeared in his vision, causing his blood to churn wildly.

"Hehe." Ye Qianyu smiled lightly. "What did you see?"

"Palace mistress, please spare me." Qin Wentian begged for mercy.

"Spare you? This mistress has never treated anyone so gently before. You have already seen what you want to see, and even seen what you are not supposed to see. Tell me, what should I do?" Ye Qianyu smiled. Qin Wentian was about to cry, he knew he couldn't evade this anymore. "Palace mistress, in that case, please keep the matter about my astral souls a secret."

"Sure." Ye Qianyu nodded, smiling at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian turned around and faced her, releasing his astral souls one after another. Very swiftly, all seven of his astral souls appeared, instantly causing this space to shine with boundlessly blinding light.

Ye Qianyu initially thought that she was already prepared for this. But when she saw this scene, she couldn't help but to take a few steps back as a dumbstruck expression appeared on her face. However, swiftly after, an incomparably charming smile appeared on her face as she winked at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian bitterly smiled and retracted his astral souls, waiting for her to ask questions. However, Ye Qianyu merely casually smiled, "Enough. You can leave now. Since your identity is already clear, in the future you may roam around Heavenly City freely."

Ye Qianyu actually didn't ask anything.

Qin Wentian started, he stared at her bewilderedly but nodded soon after that. "Qin Wentian bids his farewell."

After speaking, he turned and departed.

"When you are free in the future, remember to come and chat more often with me. Oh, don't think about escaping, okay? If not, this mistress would really be very sad." Ye Qianyu giggled. Qin Wentian was so scared that he instantly increased his pace and walked away, amidst the laughter from Ye Qianyu.

Chapter 1547: Generous Treatment

In the following days, Qin Wentian would often roam Heavenly City after he changed his appearance. This city was located in the sprawling mountains and was incomparably prosperous with as many experts as the clouds and naturally, also countless treasures.

Over here, as long as you have enough meteor stones, there's nothing you can't buy.

Qin Wentian bought a messaging crystal. This treasure was very good to use and one could retain immortal sense within it. The usage was very simple as well. For example, if Qin Wentian wished to contact Beiming Youhuang, Beiming Youhuang only needed to leave a strand of her immortal sense within and Qin Wentian could talk to her as long as he also sends a strand of his immortal sense into the crystal.

However, because the materials needed to refine this weren't simple, the crystal was very expensive.

After Qin Wentian's time in the mine, he initially thought that he was very rich. But after spending a few days in Heavenly City, he actually discovered that he was pitifully poor. There were many treasures that were so expensive he didn't even dare to imagine buying them. For example, for some extremely powerful emperor-ranked weapons, they needed an astronomical amount of emperor-grade stones as part of the manufacturing process, in addition to other valuable materials. Also, one still needed to hire a grandmaster weaponsmith to forge it. From this, one could very well imagine how high the price was.

Also, the emperor-ranked weapons of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were much stronger and higher in quality compared to the ones in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Even if your cultivation base wasn't high enough, the weapons could allow you to unleash the power much easier. Hence, many people from the major clans and sects of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would all have an innate advantage. Unaffiliated cultivators were usually in miserable states.

The stronger a world is, the greater the disparity between those at the top and bottom.

Naturally, among unaffiliated cultivators, bandits were all extremely wealthy. Even if they plundered an ordinary mine, their harvest would be extraordinarily high. It was just that they had to gamble for wealth with their lives.

Don't look at how carefree the Fairy Thousand Feathers seemed to be. Once her identity as a bandit was exposed, she would be hunted down relentlessly by people.

During these days, some of the core characters in the Thousand Feathers Palace received orders from the palace mistress to buy in light-attribute and life-attribute emperor stones. In addition, she wanted high-graded ones. Because the law-attribute energies in these particular types of stones were slightly lesser, the palace mistress ordered her forces to collect them in large quantities. Although many people felt puzzled, they still did so, obeying her orders.

As for this point, Qin Wentian had no idea at all. But for the Barbarian Emperor, he naturally knew about this. Hence, he went to find Qin Wentian.

"Senior, what can I do for you?" Qin Wentian saw the Barbarian Emperor entering the courtyard he stayed in. This Barbarian Emperor was none other than the immortal emperor who fought with him back then at the mine.

"Let's go to the battle formation. We can finish our fight." The Barbarian Emperor coldly spoke. Qin Wentian saw the cold intent flashing in the emperor's eyes and didn't understand what had he done to offend the other party. In any case, ever since he arrived at the Thousand Feathers Palace, this Barbarian Emperor has been extremely unhappy and would always shoot cold glances over.

"Senior you are an immortal emperor. I acknowledge my inferiority." Qin Wentian rejected as he smiled. Leaving aside the fact whether he could defeat emperors or not, this place was after all the Thousand Feathers Palace. No matter what, the Barbarian Emperor was a doyen in the Thousand Feathers Palace, a trusted subordinate of that vixen. There was no advantage for Qin Wentian even if he defeated this emperor. Since he was now in such a situation, it would be best for him to remain low-profile.

"We have yet to decide a victor between us. Your combat prowess is high, the palace mistress heavily favors you. How can you be a coward and dodge the battle?" The Barbarian Emperor berated. "Come with me."

"Junior is only a mid-stage immortal king. Why must senior make things difficult for me?" Qin Wentian frowned slightly, feeling somewhat unhappy. What did he mean by running away from a fight because he was a coward? Wasn't this person an immortal emperor who came here to challenge him, a mere mid-stage immortal king? Yet this person was still speaking like he was right.

However, Qin Wentian couldn't be bothered to say such things. If he could avoid such needless confrontations, he would naturally do so.

"Today, you have to fight even if you don't want to fight." The Barbarian Emperor coldly snorted as he stepped out, causing a loud boom to echo. The surface of the ground cracked open. Despite the flooring being made of special materials, it was still unable to withstand the might from a single stomp of this immortal emperor.

"Senior why must you push me so?" Qin Wentian's voice tinged with unhappiness.

"So what if I force you?" The Barbarian Emperor stepped forth again. A rumbling sound rang out. The house Qin Wentian was in completely collapsed due to the tremors of the earth as a unique vibration energy shook the entire space. Qin Wentian's body was also trembling in resonance to the vibration.

"A`mun." A languid sounding voice rang out, causing the Barbarian Emperor to start. After that, his gaze turned gentler and that vibration energy vanished. He then glanced in the direction of the palace mistress's bedroom.

"Come over to my place. Qin Wentian you come as well." That voice rang out once more. The Barbarian Emperor coldly glanced at Qin Wentian before stepping out. Qin Wentian followed after him and a few moments later, they arrived at the palace Ye Qianyu was staying at.

"Palace mistress." The Barbarian Emperor and Qin Wentian saw Ye Qianyu walking towards them. She changed her robes and was now clad in a luxurious-looking robe, exuding elegance. This style perfectly matched her beauty. The Barbarian Emperor's eyes flashed with light as he stared at her.

"A`mun, Qin Wentian has already joined us. You are an immortal emperor, why are you provoking him. Do you not have me in your eyes?" Ye Qianyu softly spoke. The Barbarian Emperor bowed, "Palace mistress, I only want to see how strong his combat prowess is. I want to see if he is worthy enough for palace mistress to spend so much to nurture him."

"I know what I am doing. When did it become your turn to make decisions on my behalf?" Ye Qianyu's voice turned a few degrees colder. This was the first time Qin Wentian saw her being so solemn. The Barbarian Emperor lowered his head, "A`mun knows my mistakes. It's just that he has not had any achievements yet but he is already receiving such preferential treatment. I feel unwillingness in my heart."

"Hmph, do you think I have no idea what you are thinking?" Ye Qianyu coldly snorted. "Since you demolished Qin Wentian's residence. From now on, Qin Wentian you shall stay in my palace. You can choose any of the rooms here."

"Palace mistress, you must not do this." The Barbarian Emperor inclined his head as his expression changed.

Qin Wentian had a look of astonishment on his face. This...although she was an excellent specimen of a beauty, he really didn't dare to reside here. He would definitely be tormented by her.

"Why? You dare to doubt my decision? Ye Qianyu's voice turned even colder.

"A'mun doesn't dare to. It's just that palace mistress…" The barbarian Emperor still wanted to speak only to see Ye Qianyu waving her hand, stopping him from saying anything else. She then continued, "Things will be decided like that. A'mun, I know what you are thinking of. However, you better retract your thoughts and focus on cultivation. Don't let down the hopes my father had for you."

The heart of the Barbarian Emperor trembled. He stared at Ye Qianyu only to see Ye Qianyu's gaze turning gentler as she looked at him. He nodded and replied, "Elder sister Qianyu, A`mun will definitely not let down master's hope."

"Mhm, you can go. Remember to put cultivation first." Ye Qianyu waved her hand. The Barbarian Emperor still coldly shot a glance at Qin Wentian before he left.

Qin Wentian perspired cold sweat. At this moment, he finally understood the relationship between the two of them

Ye Qianyu's father was actually the Barbarian Emperor's master. No wonder the Barbarian Emperor would be so close to Ye Qianyu. As an emperor, he was actually willing to carry the sedan for her and she even called him "A`mun." So it turned out that there was such a reason behind this.

So the two of them can be considered one family. When he thought of this, Qin Wentian felt even more depressed. How could he fail to tell that this Barbarian Emperor was fond of Ye Qianyu in the romantic sense? Yet, Ye Qianyu still told him to stay in her palace. Wasn't she trying to make things difficult for him? When he thought of the glance shot towards him by the Barbarian Emperor before he left, Qin Wentian could only shake his head helplessly.

Upon seeing Qin Wentian frowning slightly, Ye Qianyu actually laughed. "Why? Are you not happy that I allowed you to choose a room in my palace to stay in?"

"Your subordinate don't dare to. I'm worried that it would affect your image and reputation and hence…" Qin Wentian spoke.

"Woah, you are so considerate? Since this is the case, why don't you stay together with me? If that's the case, no one would dare to say anything then…" Ye Qianyu giggled. Qin Wentian looked at this excellent creature of beauty before his eyes in a dumbfounded manner. He couldn't help but to shiver involuntarily. When she saw how Qin Wentian was reacting, Ye Qianyu laughed even louder. Truly, her figure was alluring to the extreme.

"You should have heard A`mun's words earlier. Right now, you have no achievements at all and others would surely gossip about you. I'm planning our next heist, you should come along with us and use your original features to take revenge on the Jialan Monarch. How about it?" Ye Qianyu spoke.

"Eh…" Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines. He continuously shook his head, "Palace mistress, please spare me. I'm your captive and palace mistress can ask me to do whatever you want, except for being a bandit. I can help palace mistress to manage the things of the Thousand Feathers Palace if you wish for it."

Bandits, if he really became one and without masking his facial features, would he still be able to roam around freely in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms in the future? Bandits had to live their lives on rocks.

"I've already arranged for other people to handle matters of the Thousand Feathers Palace. You need to temper yourself. Being a bandit isn't a bad idea." Ye Qianyu persuaded. Qin Wentian still disagreed, not showing the slightest inclination at all.

"You really don't want to go?" Ye Qianyu's voice turned slightly colder.

"Palace mistress please forgive me."

"Alright, I won't force you." Ye Qianyu sighed lightly, her voice filled with a little disappointment. Her eyes of incomparable charm cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian, causing Qin Wentian to almost be unable to bear it and agree to her. This woman was just too terrifying. With just a single glance it was enough to shake the minds of people, making them willing to go through water and fire for her.

"Femme fatale." Qin Wentian silently mused.

Qin Wentian found a location and stayed there, he did his best to find a room further away from Ye Qianyu's. Ye Qianyu was true to her words, she didn't look for him and force him to become a bandit again.

One day, a person came to the palace she was staying in. It was supposedly a powerful formation grandmaster and after being extremely busy, Ye Qianyu sent a message to Qin Wentian, telling him to follow her towards the cultivation grounds.

Passing through the great hall, Qin Wentian came to Ye Qianyu's cultivation grounds. This was a place that others were always forbidden from entering.

Heavenly City was constructed in a mountain range. Ye Qianyu cultivated on a natural mountain with high peaks, that was also covered in formations. Qin Wentian climbed up the stairs and came to a cultivation platform. After that, his gaze froze as he stared unblinkingly at the platform before him.

"How is it?" Ye Qianyu stood beside Qin Wentian and spoke softly. This cultivation platform shone with resplendent light, causing astral light to fall upon it endlessly, radiating with a radiance akin to emperor light.

"Palace mistress." Qin Wentian's expression turned heavy. This cultivation platform has seven law attributes and it matched his seven astral souls perfectly. Right now, he was no longer a stranger to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and deeply knew how expensive it must be to create a cultivation platform like this. This was especially so where the law attributes infused within must come from countless numbers of emperor stones. Let alone an immortal king, even immortal emperors might not be able to afford to create such a cultivation platform.

Ye Qianyu actually created one such cultivation platform for him!

Chapter 1548: Daughter of the Night Empyrean

Qin Wentian glanced at Ye Qianyu who was beside him and spoke, "Palace mistress, I don't understand."

He really didn't understand, this luxury was something even immortal emperors couldn't afford to enjoy but Ye Qianyu actually built such a grand cultivation platform for him just because she saw his seven astral souls?

"From now on, you can enter or exit my personal palace freely. This cultivation platform is for you. You can try it out." Ye Qianyu smiled.

"Junior feels guilty and is unworthy of such a gift." Qin Wentian replied.

"The cultivation platform is already built, and what's spent is already spent. Use it or not, that's up to you. Don't worry, I wouldn't use this as an excuse to force you into becoming a bandit. If you are unwilling to do so, there's no need for you to do so." Ye Qianyu softly spoke. After that, she walked forward, moving to the peak of the mountain. Over there, one could enjoy the scenery of the entire Heavenly City.

"Is her loneliness real?" Qin Wentian could actually sense the loneliness radiating from her as he stared at her back view. He sighed and turned his gaze towards the cultivation platform. Upon drawing a deep breath, he entered and began his cultivation.

A seven-colored light surrounded him as boundless law energy descended from the skies. The intensity of the law fluctuations were so great that the surrounding space churned wildly. The astral light cascaded down, entering his body, and he released his astral souls, also using them to absorb it. Naturally, he didn't forget to comprehend the laws when he was in this miraculous state of focus. From his viewpoint, due to the transparent platform, he could also see the scenery of the entire Heavenly City. But no one outside the palace would be able to see into it. Immortal sense was barred as well.

Only when he truly cultivated inside the platform did Qin Wentian truly understand how terrifying the resources of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are. Also, this was merely the tip of the iceberg. For those supreme major powers here, did they nurture their juniors in this manner? What sort of demon-level geniuses would they be able to produce?

Seems like although he has heaven-defying astral souls, he mustn't underestimate the geniuses here. This world, it was truly much more fascinating compared to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

With such cultivation conditions, Qin Wentian naturally set his heart at ease to cultivate and prepared to step into the peak-stage of the immortal king realm, recovering his cultivation base of the past. Only with such a cultivation base, would he feel more secure when roaming the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Ye Qianyu would often come here to cultivate as well. Occasionally, she would sit at the peak of the mountain, enjoying wine alone or even bathe in the small lakes in the surroundings. Luckily Qin Wentian was in a state of total focus or he would definitely be distracted.

After a period of time, the Barbarian Emperor couldn't endure any longer and came to Ye Qianyu's palace, requesting to meet with her.

"Palace mistress, how can you act like this? You actually established the cultivation platform in your own resting area?" The Barbarian Emperor stared at the figure exuding magnificence before him as a trace of unwillingness could be seen in his eyes.

"What's wrong?" Ye Qianyu replied. "Why do you like to interfere in my matters so much?"

"Has he been in there since that day I left?" The Barbarian Emperor asked in rage while pointing to the interior of the palace.

"How dare you." Ye Qianyu's expression turned cold.

"Qianyu, even if this sounds impudent, I have to do so. Why? How am I inferior to him?" The Barbarian Emperor roared. A tiny lion appeared here all of a sudden, quietly staring at the Barbarian Emperor and Ye Qianyu as he shook his head slightly.

As the beast mount of the Night Empyrean, the Evil Emperor naturally knew that the Night Empyrean's disciple was in love with his daughter. It was just that the Barbarian Emperor couldn't match up to her, and was inferior in many regards.

Ye Qianyu coldly looked at the Barbarian Emperor, causing his anger to slowly dissipate. He lowered his head again, not daring to meet her sharp eyes.

"A`mun, go back. In the future, you will understand why I did so." Ye Qianyu sighed softly. The Barbarian Emperor could only leave with reluctance.

Upon seeing the Barbarian Emperor leaving, Ye Qianyu turned and entered the depths of her palace. After arriving before Qin Wentian, she stopped and stared at him. After that, a charming smile appeared on her face as she looked at him who was focusing. This fellow was really very interesting.

She then turned and walked towards the peak of the mountain. Qin Wentian opened his eyes and glanced at her back. For some reason, he kept feeling that her back exuded a great loneliness.

However, he once again closed his eyes to cultivate and time unknowingly flowed by. In the blink of an eye, two years had already passed. When Qin Wentian opened his eyes once more, a bright light shot out from within. Boundless radiance from law energy circulated around him. His astral souls were then retracted as he slowly stood up and walked out of the cultivation platform.

He glanced at the mountain peak. Ye Qianyu was still there indeed, she was quietly lying on the soft ground and staring at Heavenly City in a daze.

For some reason, every time Qin Wentian saw her, he would sense how lonely she was.

"You finished your closed-door seclusion?" Ye Qianyu smiled charmingly. Her demeanor suddenly changed entirely and the lonely aura from her vanished without a trace. The her right now was filled with charm, exuding alluringness.

"Mhm, many thanks palace mistress." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Sit." Ye Qianyu gestured. Qin Wentian sat opposite her. After interacting with her for some time, he discovered that this excellent creature wasn't as terrifying as he thought. Her treatment towards him can be considered especially well. So well that Qin Wentian didn't know what to do.

"Your cultivation speed is truly fast. Right now, you who is at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm should have no pressure when fighting against initial-stage immortal emperors, right?" Ye Qianyu's beautiful eyes stared unblinkingly at Qin Wentian. Such cultivation speed was truly terrifying to the extreme. Also, Qin Wentian had broken through much earlier on, it was just that he has not ended his seclusion yet.

"I think there shouldn't be a problem." Qin Wentian nodded.

"It's just that I don't understand why palace mistress wants to treat me so well?" Qin Wentian asked.

"If you don't understand, there's no need to go and specially understand." Ye Qianyu casually replied.

"However, I truly have no idea how should I repay palace mistress for your kindness." Qin Wentian sigh,

"Why don't you give yourself to me and be my husband?" Ye Qianyu's beautiful eyes were like water, her stare could even hook the souls of people away. Qin Wentian stared at her current self with eyes exuding passion, and bitterly smiled, "Palace mistress, if you continue to tempt me like this, I might really not be able to control myself."

"Oh? Don't control yourself then." Ye Qianyu giggled. "This mistress is still a virgin by the way."

"Eh…" Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines, he couldn't help but to recall that devilish princess he encountered before in the Myriad Devil Islands. That devilish female was also extremely powerful, causing him to be helpless in response. However, this excellent creature before his eyes was far superior to the devilish princess regardless in terms of appearance, figure, demeanor and charm.

"I don't dare to." Qin Wentian smiled bitterly.

"You don't dare to? In that case, you mean you want to but you just don't dare to do it?" Ye Qianyu slyly spoke, causing Qin Wentian to run away.

"Because of your senior sister?" Ye Qianyu suddenly asked.

Qin Wentian shook his head, turning his gaze to stare at the horizon. Despite the majesticness of this city, his mind couldn't help but to think of Qing`er and Qingcheng.

Qing`er with a head full of silvery white hair and Qingcheng who had eyes lacking life were still waiting for him in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

With longing for his wives in his heart, Qin Wentian's state of heart was as still as water. Upon sensing the calmness of Qin Wentian's mind, Ye Qianyu's eyes flashed with a look of intrigue. Qin Wentian just had stories unknown to her.

"Do you want to drink a cup or two?" Ye Qianyu asked.

"Sure." Qin Wentian nodded. Ye Qianyu waved her hand and produced a jar of fragrant wine and poured out two cups of wine. She then spoke in a gentle voice, "This is the first time I poured wine for a man."

"Many thanks palace mistress." Qin Wentian took the wine cup and toasted her before the two of them drained the contents of the cup.

The wine was very strong, producing a heartburn effect and a wave of heat that traversed his entire body. Qin Wentian didn't expect Ye Qianyu to actually drink such a strong alcohol.

"My surname is Ye, which also stands for Night. Not many people know of my surname." After a few cups, Ye Qianyu's face was slightly red, causing her to be even more beautiful. She then asked Qin Wentian? "Do you know about the Night Empyrean?"

"No." Qin Wentian shook his head.

"You are not someone from the territories managed by the Jialan Monarch." Ye Qianyu smiled, as though she had seen through Qin Wentian. She then continued, "The Night Empyrean is a legendary bandit who once roamed freely in the Lifire Empyrean's territory. Even the Lifire Empyrean could do nothing to him. After sometime, the Lifelong Realmlord learned of this matter and sent the Lifire Empyrean reinforcements. With the joint-efforts of two Empyreans, the Night Empyrean was finally subdued and the vast majority of his family and subordinates were all completely annihilated."

Qin Wentian's heart trembled, he seemed to have guessed something.

"I'm Ye Qianyu, the daughter of the Night Empyrean." As expected, Ye Qianyu's next words confirmed Qin Wentian's guess. Qin Wentian's heart pounded. If he revealed this fact, Ye Qianyu would definitely die without a burial place. Yet, she still exposed her identity to him.

"The vast immortal realms are separated into different areas that are governed by superpowers. They control all the cultivation resources and those who didn't agree were all deemed as unaffiliated cultivators. For those who ignore the orders and went to take resources for themselves, they were pronounced to be bandits. How tyrannical was this? The people of this world all have to live by the system set by the superpowers before they can have a share of the cultivation resources."

Ye Qianyu coldly spoke. Qin Wentian helped her to refill the wine as she continued drinking.

"But naturally, the world was originally already like this. The strong rule while the weak submit. Their words became the rules of the world. If you ascend to the peak one day, you will be the same as well. At that time, those who comply with you can live and those who disagree with you will die." Ye Qianyu seemed to be mocking herself as she laughed, "Those years ago, my father discovered a mine and found excavators to mine it. After that, an Empyrean took the mine for himself and gifted it to the Realmlord. Wasn't that an act of plunder? Were they not the bandits they spoke of?"

Qin Wentian sighed in his heart. There was truly no difference the white and black. It was just who was stronger. The stronger party would naturally be justice. The weaker one would be the bandits.

"After that, after my father grew stronger, he became the legendary bandit. And now, I decided to follow in his footsteps." Ye Qianyu spoke as she laid down on the ground. That sexy figure simply laid down like this, she most probably didn't know how mesmerizing her posture was.

"Will you think that I'm telling you this to seduce you, wanting to keep you by my side and for you to take revenge for me after you grow stronger?" Ye Qianyu suddenly turned to Qin Wentian and asked. She, with the red blush on her face, was truly alluring to the extreme.

"I don't dare to think so." Qin Wentian spoke. "Given palace mistresses beauty, even empyreans wouldn't be able to resist you. Although I know my talent isn't considered bad, I dare not assume that the me right now is someone qualified enough to be comparable to those empyreans."

"Hehe." Ye Qianyu smiled. "You are wrong. I'm seducing you precisely. If you really want to do something to me, I might not resist."

Qin Wentian could hear the gentleness of her voice. He took a glance at the sexy figure lying beside him and was on the verge of breaking down. This vixen was simply too ruthless!

Chapter 1549: Bandit Qin Wentian

Qin Wentian stared at that incomparably alluring figure, "Palace mistress, I'm willing to become a bandit. I just won't use my true facial features."

Ye Qianyu started. She smiled at Qin Wentian, "Such a good chance to do what you want to me but you actually chose to give up? Don't regret this in the future, okay? As for being a bandit, I won't force you into it. Do what you want to, don't be tempted because of beauty."

Qin Wentian speechlessly glanced at her, "The Jialan Monarch and I had some conflicts before, I might as well take this chance to take some revenge. This is my will. Palace mistress, farewell."

Staring at Qin Wentian's departing back, the beautiful eyes of Ye Qianyu flashed with a bright light. After that, she turned her gaze back to the city.

The light sound of footsteps soon echoed out. Ye Qianyu didn't turn. In this place, other than Qin Wentian, only the Evil Emperor could enter or exit freely as he wished.

"Miss, why must you do this?" The Evil Emperor asked in a light voice.

Ye Qianyu turned and glanced at the little lion as she smiled, "Don't you feel that he is very interesting? I really didn't plan for him to become a bandit and wanted him to focus on his cultivation fully instead. Yet, he actually took the initiative to join us. Clearly, this isn't an effect caused by my beauty, it's just that he wanted to pay the debt for the kindness of me constructing the cultivation platform for him."

"Miss, your body is priceless. In the future you would surely have a supreme dao companion. Why must you make things so difficult for yourself?" The Evil Emperor shook his head.

"Making things difficult?" Ye Qianyu smiled as she looked at the Evil Emperor. "Little lion, you might have underestimated him a little too much. If he was willing earlier, I might really have not rejected his advances."

As she spoke, her smile turned brighter, tempting to the extreme.

The Evil Emperor stared at Ye QIanyu in astonishment.

"Oh ya, little lion, don't you find that he is very handsome?" Ye Qianyu suddenly asked. The Evil Emperor was instantly stunned into a daze as black lines appeared on his face. His little miss was at the immortal emperor realm, yet she would still be infatuated?

"Little lion, there are many things you won't be able to understand." Ye Qianyu sighed softly. She treats Qin Wentian well and didn't have any motives it. She didn't request him to do anything, she only wanted him to remember her when he grew stronger in the future. For some people, it would be too late when you want to build up a good relationship with them after they grew stronger. Sending coal in the midst of a heavy snowstorm was far superior to adding petals on an already perfect bouquet.

"I really don't understand. Miss, as long as you are happy." The lion spoke gently.

"It was pretty boring in the past. Now that he is here, things should be more interesting and I can even tease him occasionally." Ye Qianyu smiled.

However, very soon later, Ye Qianyu suddenly frowned. Her figure flashed as she stepped out of her palace.

Outside, in Qin Wentian's residence, a figure appeared. This figure's aura was extremely explosive. He was coldly glaring at Qin Wentian, exuding an extreme sharpness.

Other than the Barbarian Emperor, who else could there be?

"A`mun." The Evil Emperor felt extremely unhappy. This Barbarian Emperor kept making trouble time after time and has overstepped his bounds. No matter how the little miss treated Qin Wentian, that was her private matter.

"Senior Evil Emperor. Today, I want to fight him." The Barbarian Emperor angrily spoke. Qin Wentian actually stayed in Ye Qianyu's personal palace for over two years. As to what happened within this period of time, he was completely ignorant. During these two years, he was always easily distracted and had no mood to focus on his cultivation. Now that Qin Wentian finally came out, he could no longer suppress the breath of resentment and directly came here.

"Senior, you are at the immortal emperor realm. Qin Wentian knows that I'm inferior to you." Qin Wentian still refused to battle. Outside, there were three peak-stage immortal kings who were secretly monitoring the situation here. This time around, the Barbarian Emperor seemed to be truly enraged.

It wasn't a secret that the Barbarian Emperor has always been in love with the palace mistress. But in reality, who wasn't in love with the palace mistress?

In the entire Heavenly City, how many beauties and geniuses were there?

But what sort of character was the palace mistress? She was not only powerful, she is the owner of all the treasures in the Thousand Feathers Palace and is also the number one beauty in the entire Heavenly City. In this place, there wasn't a single man that she liked.

The Barbarian Emperor was someone with an extremely good relationship with the palace mistress, but the palace mistress has never allowed him to stay in her personal palace before at all. That immortal king is just a servant, yet he somehow managed to gain the favor of palace mistress and was doted on excessively by her. In fact, they were suspecting that the palace mistress might be dazzled by Qin Wentian's good looks.

No wonder the Barbarian Emperor was enraged. Seems like this fellow was going to be in for it.

"Such a coward who only knows how to dodge fights. What's the use of keeping you around here? If you don't want to fight, just get lost from Heavenly City." The Barbarian Emperor roared.

"A`mun." At this moment, Ye Qianyu's expression was extremely cold. "An emperor forcing an immortal king to fight in such a self-righteous manner. You are getting more and more insolent."

"Qianyu." The Barbarian Emperor stared at Ye Qianyu.

"Qin Wentian. Did you not hear my orders?" Ye Qianyu spoke. Qin Wentian nodded to indicate that he heard it.

"Fine. Let's go to the arena." The Barbarian Emperor turned.

"There's no need to. Just fight here." Ye Qianyu stepped out. A fearsome law energy gushed forth from her, forming a barrier with the two of them within it.

"A`mun use your strongest attack directly. Qin Wentian, there's no need to save face for him." Ye Qianyu seemed to have made up her mind to teach the Barbarian Emperor a lesson.

The Barbarian Emperor was even more enraged when he heard her words. Bright light flashed, he resonated with the astral light cascading down from his constellation in the heavenly layers. A supremely powerful energy radiated from him, capable of causing the sky to collapse. A brutal gigantic palm imprint blotted out the sky, covering everything.

The Barbarian Emperor was truly angered.

Qin Wentian sighed in his heart. To the people of the Thousand Feathers Palace, he was ultimately considered an outsider. He has always kept a low profile, although Ye Qianyu really did treat him extremely well. Now, since Ye Qianyu was the one who told him to fight, he could only comply.

A blinding radiance covered his body, his law attribute energy of light transformed into a fearsome storm that ravaged the surroundings.

"KILL!" The Barbarian Emperor howled in rage, causing the sky to change color. The five fingers of the giant palm contained a towering strength as they smashed towards Qin Wentian.

"Come on then." Qin Wentian spoke. At this moment, the light radiating from him grew even brighter, causing people who looked at him to involuntarily close their eyes. Even Ye Qianyu had to shield her eyes. This light, was like a grand radiance that could cover everything, and destroy everything.

Everything that came in contact with the light was all completely destroyed. The Barbarian Emperor felt a blinding pain in his eyes. But, no matter what, he was still an emperor. The pulsing of his resonance with his constellation grew even more intense but regardless of what methods he used, his defenses were slowly disintegrating bit by bit.

"ARGH!" A voice filled with pain rang out. The radiance transformed into beams of light and entered his body. The beams of light were akin to great swords of destruction, ravaging the interior of his body. At this moment, Qin Wentian stepped out and directly arrived before the Barbarian Emperor. He then slammed out with a simple palm attack, the impact knocking the Barbarian Emperor backwards, slamming him into the barrier Ye Qianyu erected. After that, he crashed into the ground with a pale expression.

The Barbarian Emperor then stiffly stood up. His gaze was filled with trepidation as he stared at Qin Wentian.

His countenance alternated between shades of green and white as his body kept trembling. But this wasn't because of his injury.

"Cough!" He spat out a mouthful of blood. Instantly, the entire being of the Barbarian Emperor seemed extremely dispirited, in the depths of depression. The three peak-stage immortal kings all had their eyes wide-open when they saw this. They mutually exchanged glances, only to see shock in their eyes.

The Barbarian Emperor, who was at the immortal emperor realm, was actually defeated.

Not only so, he was defeated extremely miserably, in a single strike. He was helpless and couldn't even retaliate.

A powerful immortal emperor was actually defeated in such a domineering manner?

How ironic was this?

Before this, Qin Wentian kept refusing to fight and even said that he was inferior. But what was the truth? Wasn't this a mockery?

"A`mun do you understand now?" Ye Qianyu retracted the barrier as she sighed softly.

The Barbarian Emperor lifted his head and glanced at Ye Qianyu. After that, a smile so bitter appeared on his face that it looked even uglier than him crying. "No wonder you don't love me. So this is the reason why."

"A`mun you followed me the longest and should understand me the most. You should know what my purpose is. I hope you can cultivate well and reach the realm my father did. This is my anticipation for you. I have no interest in matters of love for now." Ye Qianyu's voice was no longer as cold as before.

"I understand. I'll cultivate well." The Barbarian Emperor nodded.

"Go on then. Prepare for our next mission. This time around, Qin Wentian will participate as well." Ye Qianyu spoke. The Barbarian Emperor nodded. He cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian before leaving this place.,

...

Several months later, Ye Qianyu, Qin Wentian and a group of people silently left the Thousand Feathers Palace. At a certain mountain, a giant lion hovered in the air. Clouds covered the peak of the mountain. The bandits now were all fully clad in armour and there were more and more people appearing here to join them gradually. They then leapt onto the back of the giant lion. No one attempted to converse, they were all in tacit agreement.

Before this, everything was already arranged via the messaging crystal. Everyone just needed to follow orders and do their part.

Finally, everyone had arrived.

Ye Qianyu swept a glance at everyone. A low-sounding voice rang out, "Earlier, we have plundered one of Jialan Monarch's mines and he is sure to take precautions against us. This time, things won't be so simple. The timing of the spatial exit are all staggered now for his mines and the number of guards have increased. In addition, even the Jialan Monarch himself may personally appear occasionally to patrol around."

Ye Qianyu's voice didn't have the slightest hint of charm within. Although more than two years already passed, the plundering of a mine wasn't a minor matter. The Jialan Monarch wouldn't be careless and might actually be waiting for them to appear. Everyone was very clear regarding this point.

This was why it was so tough to be a bandit. Sometimes, after a successful heist, bandits would have no choice but to retire for good for fear of things being too dangerous the second time.

Qin Wentian's expression was somewhat heavy. He didn't expect that the first major thing he did when he came here to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would actually be an act of banditry. Truly, there was nothing that couldn't happen in the vast world. Everything was possible!

Chapter 1550: Attack

The Purple Cloud Mine was one of the three largest and most valuable mines in the territory governed by the Jialan Monarch. It was one of the three main mines and was able to produce different attributed immortal stones. Emperor-ranked stones would appear frequently as well. Not only that, even for stones with grades exceeding the emperor-rank had appeared before.

Hence, to the Jialan Monarch, the importance of this mine was far superior to the mine that was plundered back then. The guards stationed here all had cultivation bases far higher than the excavators.

At this moment, two powerful mid-stage immortal emperors were stationed here. They were in charge of collecting the harvest personally. The power of the guards here was simply terrifying to the extreme.

There were also a total of six teleportation arrays that directly connected to the Jialan Monarch's emperor palace. Also, the Purple Cloud Mine itself wasn't that far away from one of the main cities. Even if the teleportation arrays were damaged, the Jialan Monarch could still directly teleport to the nearby main city and fly here as soon as possible.

Hence, bandits usually wouldn't dare to touch the Purple Cloud Mine. Ordinary bandits would never dare to take such a risk as the defense level of this mine was just too high.

In addition, roughly about more than two years ago, a case of banditry had occurred in one of Jialan Monarch's mines. From this, one could very well imagine how tight security was nowadays.

At a location extremely far away from the Purple Cloud Mine, the Evil Emperor continued flying forward with great speed, and there were many experts on his back. Qin Wentian could see that the strength of this group was far more terrifying than the bandit group he saw before. There were more experts, including more immortal emperors among them.

"Qin Wentian." At this moment, Ye Qianyu's voice sounded out in Qin Wentian's mind. His eyes flashed as he cast a glance at her.

"Although the Jialan Monarch is a mid-stage immortal emperor, he is still one of the nine monarchs under the Lifire Empyrean, in charge of a vast territory. Do not underestimate his strength. After the battle starts, you have to avoid him. Your target is to eliminate as many enemy peak-stage immortal kings as you can and lure initial-stage emperors to hunt you down before you finish them off." Ye Qianyu spoke.

Qin Wentian's countenance froze slightly. Ye Qianyu actually told him to avoid the Jialan Monarch. Seems like the combat prowess of the Jialan Monarch was truly extraordinary. The other party might be able to kill him easily.

Right now, he has already been in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms for a period of time. He had more understanding about the situation here and he naturally wouldn't overestimate himself. There would surely be many extraordinary characters in this world.

"Right. Palace mistress, you seem to know that the Jialan Monarch would appear for sure. In that case, do we clash head-on with his forces for this operation?" Qin Wentian transmitted his voice over and asked.

"Just wait and watch the drama. Don't worry, I will only kill the guards. I won't act against the innocent excavators." Ye Qianyu smiled as she transmitted her voice. Qin Wentian didn't say anything. Ye Qianyu was the Night Empyrean's daughter and her enemy was two out of the nine empyreans under the Lifelong Realmlord. The Lifire Palace and the nine monarchs under it had once worked together to kill her entire family. She naturally had to take revenge.

In addition, as a bandit. She would always be in opposition to those from the side of 'justice.'

The lion continued flying forward. Finally, they arrived at the airspace above the Purple Cloud Mine. Qin Wentian turned his gaze below only to see countless sharp gazes glancing up right at them.

"Kill." Ye Qianyu coldly commanded. After that, the armored experts from this bandit group all descended down from the air. They actually didn't destroy the teleportation arrays like they did last time but chose to start a direct attack.

Qin Wentian's heart trembled. Ye Qianyu's operation this time around, was clearly intentionally a provocation to the Jialan Monarch.

In the air, countless beams of light descended. The gigantic lion Evil Emperor directly roared and rushed towards the two mid-stage emperors while disregarding everything. Ye Qianyu was clad in armor and had an inky-black spear in her hand that was shimmering with the darkness of night. As she pierced out with her weapon, a swath of darkness descended upon her targets.

Numerous experts hurriedly rushed out. Inside the domain of darkness, their immortal senses were actually obstructed, they couldn't see anything.

The Evil Emperor snarled, the light from his eyes shot into the mind of one of the mid-stage immortal emperors, targeting his soul. He opened his bloody maw and sought to swallow his opponent whole. That mid-stage immortal's countenance drastically changed as he retreated with explosive speed.

A green light gushed forth from the Evil Emperor, stopping his target's movements, directly devouring him. This caused everyone to be stunned. A powerful mid-stage emperor was instantly swallowed up just like that.

Qin Wentian's heart pounded. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the death of immortal emperors seemed to be an extremely ordinary matter. It wouldn't create too much commotion.

The crowd battle instantly erupted. Qin Wentian rushed out, his fingers were used as swords and every stab he made would surely kill an enemy immortal king. In a few short moments, many experts died. But right now, the teleportation array in the mine lit up as another group of experts appeared. What made Qin Wentian shocked was that the Jialan Monarch was actually among this group.

The Jialan Monarch wasn't in his emperor palace but was fully prepared all this while? Clearly, he has not forgotten about the plunder two plus years ago. He was waiting for an opportunity to capture the bandits and now, the bandits really did appear again.

The teleportation array from the emperor palace leading to the Purple Cloud Mine lit up as more and more experts appeared, flying towards here. Qin Wentian soon saw a familiar figure. This figure exuded an ice-like aura but was incomparably beautiful. She was naturally none other than Beiming Youhuang. She came here today as well.

"Evil Emperor." The Jialan Monarch saw the Evil Emperor kill a mid-stage immortal emperor who was his subordinate as his expression turned ashen, radiating a terrifying killing intent.

The two mid-stage immortal emperors guarding here were instantly killed by the Evil Emperor. Clearly, this party was here to declare war on him, showing no mercy when they acted, destroying two immortal emperors at the very first moment they could.

This two mid-stage immortal emperors in addition to the two initial-stage immortal emperors who died back then… In a short three years, he actually lost four powerful emperor-ranked subordinates. This was sufficient to cause his heart to ache. In the future, he still needed to recruit experts and had to renegotiate conditions, nurturing them heavily to foster trust.

The Evil Emperor howled and directly rushed at the Jialan Monarch. His jade-green eyes imprinted themselves in the Jialan Monarch's mind yet at the next instant, the eyes of Jialan Monarch also turned extremely terrifying to behold, capable of trapping others too. A fearsome aura gushed forth from his body, devouring the emperor light from the Evil Emperor.

The entire being of the Jialan Monarch grew incomparably resplendent, like a candle shining brightly in the night. Terrifying runes manifested around him, creating booms of thunder as they summoned numerous phantom-like snake-dragons which spiralled about in the air.

"DIE!" The Jialan Monarch roared. The snake-dragons danced wildly in the wind, converging together to form a giant beast that rushed at the Evil Emperor, producing a deafening blast due to the impact. Violent auras gushed about from the impact as the experts in the surroundings all retreated, avoiding this battlefield.

The giant beast resembled a dragon, but not like one. It also resembled a snake, but not completely so. It had a malevolent countenance and a pair of demonic eyes as it spiralled in circles above the head of the Jialan Monarch.

The eyes of the Jialan Monarch gleamed as he stared at the lion king. "Evil Emperor. After the death of the Night Empyrean, you are still making trouble everywhere. Today, this monarch shall destroy you."

The Evil Emperor moved forward. His jade-green eyes were demonic to the extreme. Ye Qianyu came over as well. She had a spear of darkness in her hand and her countenance was extremely cold.

"Where is Qin Wentian?" Beiming Youhuang's icy gaze shot over as she coldly asked. This caused Qin Wentian who was at the side to start in astonishment.

This…

Ye Qianyu glanced at Beiming Youhuang. Her revealed eyes flashed with brightness. Was this the beautiful senior sister of Qin Wentian? This woman was truly a supreme beauty in her own right.

At this moment, a figure frenziedly killed his way over to Beiming Youhuang, causing Qin Wentian to be stunned. That figure who was attacking Beiming Youhuang, was actually the fully armored Barbarian Emperor.

Beiming Youhuang's body glowed with emperor light as a cold intent flooded her surroundings, instantly freezing everything. The Barbarian Emperor's body was directly frozen. He howled in rage, breaking through the ice. Beiming Youhuang radiated an extremely strong killing intent as she stepped forward. With a wave of her hand, another death-like ice qi gushed forth.

"Given Youhuang's strength, there shouldn't be any problems for her to deal with the Barbarian Emperor." Qin Wentian silently mused. Beiming Youhuang was a supreme demon-level genius back in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. She was the youngest to break through to the immortal emperor realm in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty and has also ascended to the peak of the Demongod Mountain. She broke through after cultivating in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and there was no need to doubt her talent. It was just because of her beauty, her talent in cultivation might be disregarded by some.

"Have you forgotten to fight just because you saw your lover?" Ye Qianyu's voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind, filled with a teasing tone. Qin Wentian was speechless. He then hurriedly stepped out, moving towards a peak-stage immortal king. With an intention, the eye-technique dimension appeared. Sword qi roared within, directly finishing off his opponent.

The him now, has already recovered his cultivation base to his past peak. Those who were on the same level as him, basically couldn't even withstand a single strike. Even if he doesn't depend on the law domains he established, just a simple punch or sword strike was sufficient to slay his opponents.

Around Qin Wentian, a region of swords appeared. Every time he stepped out, boundless sword intent would gushed forth, killing many immortal kings in the blink of an eye.

"Bzz~" A raging wind gusted forth as an immortal emperor moved towards Qin Wentian. It was one of the two immortal emperors that appeared together with the Jialan Monarch back then when he was in Windthunder City.

Qin Wentian retreated back, quickly fleeing in the opposite direction. That immortal emperor snorted, how could he spare Qin Wentian? Emperor light glowed around his body as a giant prison appeared, trapping both him and Qin Wentian within. This was one of his law domains. The unending flow of astral light from his constellation would provide a ceaseless source of energy for this prison formed from his laws!

Chapter 1551: Threaten the East, Strike at the West

The immortal emperor used a law energy prison to seal this space. The gaze he used to look at Qin Wentian with, was like he was staring at a dead man. His expression was cold to the extreme as he spoke, "Given your combat prowess, you could have made a living off the right path but you actually chose to be a bandit. Simply courting death."

As the sound of his voice rang out, he stepped forth and Qin Wentian only felt a formless heavy pressure pressing down on him.

Qin Wentian's expression was incomparably calm. Boundless light flowed from him, exuding an almost holy feeling, and was blinding to the extreme.

A spatial gate appeared as Qin Wentian stepped into it. At the next instant, the spatial gate opened at a location before that immortal emperor. Qin Wentian slowly stabbed forth with his finger as a beam of extreme brightness shot out, engulfing everything, brimming with destruction.

That immortal emperor punched out, the force of his attack shaking the void. The spatial gate directly crumbled as the boundless energy in the attack slammed into Qin Wentian. However, under the powerful radiance, no matter how strong an attack was, it would dissipate under the bright light. Qin Wentian's finger strike actually unleashed a sword formed of light, flowing endlessly like a river, madly piercing into his opponent's body.

How could one block an attack performed with light?

In an instant, pinpoints of white light appeared all around the immortal emperor's body, slowly disintegrating him upon contact. In a few short moments, the emperor's figure vanished completely. As for the prison surrounding them, it naturally dissipated as well.

"Mhm?" The experts who saw this situation all narrowed their eyes. That immortal emperor has vanished?

Not long ago, he established the law prison to make sure his target couldn't flee and was prepared to kill him off. But now, the person who vanished was actually that immortal emperor?

However at this moment, everyone was engaged in a fierce battle. Nobody was actually able to spare the attention to deal with Qin Wentian. The battle between the Jialan Monarch and the Evil Emperor was the most brutal one. The aftershocks of their fight swept through the surroundings, destroying everything despite the vastness of the area where they fought in.

The terrifying giant beast manifested by the Jialan Monarch actually fought evenly against the Evil Emperor. As for the Jialan Monarch himself, he was fighting against Ye Qianyu. Just like what Ye Qianyu had said, as one of the nine monarchs under the Lifire Empyrean, how could the Jialan Monarch be weak? His position was even higher than peak-stage immortal emperors and there was naturally no need to doubt his combat prowess. If not, how could he sit securely in his position, and impose his will on experts of his territory?

Although if there were things he couldn't settle with his strength, the Lifire Palace would surely send reinforcements. But why would the Lifire Palace want such a subordinate? The Lifire Palace naturally wanted the strongest people to share the burden of management with them.

Qin Wentian glanced over here before he cast another glance at Beiming Youhuang and the Barbarian Emperor's battle. Beiming Youhuang possessed the absolute advantage, easily suppressing the Barbarian Emperor. If this carried on and if the Barbarian Emperor didn't choose to flee, he might really be killed by Beiming Youhuang.

"Why are you still not helping me out?" The Barbarian Emperor coldly shot a glance at Qin Wentian, causing him to start.

"The Qin Wentian you spoke of was that slave? He has already died, he was personally killed by this man." The Barbarian Emperor pointed at Qin Wentian as he spoke.

Right now, Beiming Youhuang was trembling when she heard that. Cold qi filled the air, she heavily injured the Barbarian Emperor, blasting him into retreat but she didn't continue to pursue him. She then landed before Qin Wentian and asked, "Are his words real?"

"Eh...." Qin Wentian saw the cold eyes of Beiming Youhuang shining with a blood-like light while radiating a fearsome killing intent. Right now, she was truly terrifying to the extreme.

This beautiful princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty actually cared so much for him?

That Barbarian Emperor truly hated him, intentionally putting him in a situation where it was hard for him to advance or retreat. Should he fight or tell Beiming Youhuang.

If he told Beiming Youhuang, he might be easily exposed. If others guessed that he was Qin Wentian, he wouldn't be able to roam this territory after killing subordinates of the Lifire Palace any longer.

"Yes." Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed, he directly turned and fled after speaking.

"Ah!" Beiming Youhuang screamed when she heard Qin Wentian admitting to the Barbarian Emperor's words. Her hair fluttered wildly as she blasted out with a palm, causing ice to freeze everything in her surroundings. Qin Wentian's power of light gushed forth, breaking through the layers of ice while Beiming Youhuang pursued after him frenziedly.

Upon seeing this scene, Qin Wentian felt warmth in his heart. He didn't expect Beiming Youhuang to be so concerned about him. She actually seemed to have gone mad after hearing news of his death.

He continued flying forward as Beiming Youhuang pursued him. Numerous times, he was almost struck by an attack but luckily, they were all negated by the power of his light laws. The two of them flew with great speed and soon arrived at an extremely faraway location.

Qin Wentian turned his head back to see Beiming Youhuang whose eyes were still bloodshot chasing after him. He then transmitted his voice, "Youhuang, it is I."

Beiming Youhuang suddenly halted, staring dumbly at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian turned his body and faced her but he actually spoke this sentence, "Beautiful maiden, what do you mean by chasing me so far? Could it be that you've fallen for this seat?"

"Hu…" Beiming Youhuang initially knew that Qin Wentian was intentionally saying this after she heard his words. But although she understood, the coldness radiating from her grew more intense when she thought back to how he teased her now, in addition to her mad chase after him. She waved her hand as frost covered everything, directly freezing Qin Wentian who was clearly taken by surprise.

Qin Wentian stared at her dumbfoundedly. Beiming Youhuang was too ruthless. She actually attacked for real.

Bright light flashed from his body of laws as he broke apart the ice. He could see a bitter resentment in the cold eyes of Beiming Youhuang and he couldn't help but to smile bitterly in his heart. "Youhuang, are you doing well beside the Jialan Monarch? He didn't bully you, right? Should I kill a few of his immortal emperors to vent your anger for you?"

Beiming Youhuang couldn't be bothered with him and continued her attack. Qin Wentian helplessly defended but he was only going through motions while Beiming Youhuang actually attacked for real. Many times, he was almost seriously injured.

"Mhm?" At this moment, Qin Wentian frowned. The Barbarian Emperor rushed here and roared coldly, "I shall help you destroy her."

As he spoke, a giant palm slammed towards Beiming Youhuang.

Coldness flickered in Qin Wentian's eyes. This Barbarian Emperor wanted to kill Beiming Youhuang? Or was he trying to make him expose his identity?

Once he admitted that he was Qin Wentian, not only would he be hunted down, Beiming Youhuang's status would definitely be affected and would be in an extremely awkward position or might even be deliberately targeted by others.

"You restrict her first then. I will go kill others." Qin Wentian's body flashed, directly leaving the area, as he stepped through the void. This caused the expression of the Barbarian Emperor to turn extremely cold.

"Retreat!" At this moment, a command rang out in the air, spoken by Ye Qianyu. She and the Evil Emperor coldly glanced at the Jialan Monarch as they retreated. The bandits all retreated in her direction as well. The Jialan Monarch waved his hand, stopping the others from pursuing them. At this moment, he suddenly felt a strong sense of unease.

When they fought, nobody was guarding the teleportation arrays and they were destroyed by a few bandit immortal kings

Both forces were fighting, yet the bandits destroyed the teleportation arrays. What did this mean?

There was only a purpose for this, they wanted to prevent the Jialan Monarch's forces from returning to the emperor palace. But he naturally wouldn't assume that these bandits were daring enough to attack his emperor palace. However, what if they destroyed the teleportation arrays because they were doing something sneaky? Are there other groups of bandits?

The Jialan Monarch has occupied his post for many years and was naturally sensitive to matters like this. At the time he learned that the teleportation arrays were destroyed, he thought of many things as the worry in his heart grew stronger.

Ye Qianyu's bandits, including Qin Wentian, had already returned to the back of the Evil Emperor. The revealed eyes of Ye Qianyu flashed with a mocking smile before they flew away.

Beiming Youhuang stared coldly at Qin Wentian as he departed, causing him to sweat. This woman...he was just teasing her earlier.

"Youhuang, do you remember the lake where we were travelling through back then? A month later, I will head there and look for you." When the Evil Emperor was retreating, Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Beiming Youhuang. The battle was too fast, he wanted to ask how Beiming Youhuang's current situation was but there was no way for him to leave behind each other's immortal sense in their messaging crystals. Qin Wentian could only arrange for a separate time to meet her.

Back then, he left Beiming Youhuang alone in the Jialan Emperor Palace for ten plus years. Although Beiming Youhuang was stronger than him, he still felt guilt in his heart.

"Monarch." Upon seeing the Evil Emperor bringing the bandits away, there were experts walking towards the Jialan Monarch, staring at him in puzzlement.

The other party were bandits, although they couldn't suppress them, there was no way they could allow them to leave so freely, right? If this was made known to the Lifire Palace, the Lifire Empyrean would definitely punish the Jialan Monarch.

"Something is wrong. They don't seem to be here specifically to plunder the Purple Cloud Mine." The Jialan Monarch narrowed his eyes. He took out his messaging crystal and very swiftly, it vibrated as a voice rang out in his head.

"Monarch, our Flowing Sand Mine and Heavenfall Mine just got attacked by bandits!"

"RUMBLE!" A violent aura gushed forth from the Jialan Monarch. He instantly flew forward, moving towards the city closest to here. The Flowing Sand and Heavenfall Mines were two out of the three main mines he was responsible for.

He did anticipate that bandits would attack the Purple Cloud Mine on the day where the exit spatial gate opens. Hence, he was lying in ambush here. To think that the true targets of the bandits were the two other mines instead!

What a good diversion tactic. Since this is the case, the powerful forces of the bandit group here weren't their entire strength. How strong were they exactly?

After the Night Empyrean was killed back then, did he leave behind some of his vile spawns who had fortunately survived the purge?

Chapter 1552: Vixen’s Victim

After the Jialan Monarch arrived at the city closest to the Purple Cloud Mine, he discovered that the teleportation arrays here leading to the emperor palace were damaged too. Clearly, this was a deliberate provocation that was planned long in advance.

As expected as a surviving vile spawn of the nefarious Night Empyrean. The Jialan Emperor had a heavy look on his face. He knew that he would soon have to face great pressure from the Lifire Palace.

As for Ye Qianyu's group, things were the same as the previous time. The bandits respectively got off at different stops, silently disappearing from view. No conversation was necessary, all of them were in tacit agreement. Ye Qianyu, Qin Wentian and the others then returned to the Thousand Feathers Palace in Heavenly City.

"Qin Wentian, you didn't use your full strength to kill enemies. You clearly could kill that initial-stage immortal emperor but why did you not do it?" As they returned, Qin Wentian's features returned to normal. The Barbarian Emperor immediately start to berate him.

Qin Wentian coldly glanced at him, "I still want to ask you what your true intentions are. You clearly know that she is my senior sister, yet you purposely want her to fight with me. If I wasn't held back by this, I naturally could kill more people. What is the meaning behind your actions?"

"Palace mistress, Qin Wentian's senior sister is someone from the Lifire Palace. His heart will not be with us sooner or later." The Barbarian Emperor coldly snorted, staring at Ye Qianyu.

"A'mun, since I dared to use him, I naturally would have considered everything. Also, Qin Wentian has already fought with us and even killed an immortal emperor from their side. What problems can there be?" Ye Qianyu calmly spoke. "A'mun, you should return to your residence first. After we get the treasures from the mines, I will help you to forge an even better emperor-ranked weapon."

"Many thanks palace mistress." The Barbarian Emperor clasped his hands and shot an icy glance at Qin Wentian before he took his leave. Ye Qianyu and Qin Wentian were after all, returning to the same place as Qin Wentian was staying in Ye Qianyu's personal palace…

Inside the palace, Qin Wentian stared at Ye Qianyu as he asked, "Palace mistress, what was the purpose of our plunder this time around?"

He naturally discovered that this operation was not usual. Hence, he couldn't help but to ask now.

Ye Qianyu's earlier solemn look melted away as a charming smile appeared on her face. She didn't reply to Qin Wentian. Her soulful eyes regarded him and spoke, "Your little lover is truly beautiful and is extremely powerful. So it turns out that you are in love with such ice beauties."

Qin Wentian had a speechless look on his face but he didn't explain anything. There was no way to explain things to this vixen.

"Don't worry. Although we clashed head-on earlier and didn't gain any harvest, overall, we seized enough cultivation resources for a hundred years from the other two mines." Ye Qianyu laughed. "The Jialan Monarch controls a total of three great mines. They are the Purple Cloud Mine we attacked, and the Flowing Sand Mine, as well as the Heavenfall Mine. While we were attacking the Purple Cloud Mine, I sent two more groups to attack the Flowing Sand and Heavenfall Mines. Tell me, if immortal emperors led immortal kings to plunder a mine, how many guards stationed at the mines would be able to stop them?"

Qin Wentian stared at the smile on Ye Qianyu's face as his heart pounded lightly. The attack this time around was to mask her true targets. What an audacious plan. Qin Wentian couldn't help but to smile bitterly. This bandit leader was no minor bandit. Has he already boarded onto the pirate ship?

Staring at the bitter smile on Qin Wentian's face, Ye Qianyu giggled, "Right now, you can't even leave if you want to. Do you regret it? Do you want me to get someone to forge two emperor-ranked weapons for you? Tell me what divine weapons you want."

Qin Wentian shook his head, the bitter smile on his face was still there. Ye Qianyu blinked, "Could it be that you are angry because I didn't inform you about this earlier?"

"I don't dare." Qin Wentian shook his head. This was the first time he participated in a bandit operation. It was only normal that Ye Qianyu didn't tell him the full plan.

"Are you really angry? Could it be that you want me to marry myself to you? You can just say it if that's what you want. Who knows? I might really agree to that." Ye Qianyu coquettishly smiled at him. That gaze filled with charm caused Qin Wentian's ability to resist to be severely weakened. When he saw Ye Qianyu moving closer and closer to him, Qin Wentian was about to start sobbing, "Palace mistress, I'll go and focus on my cultivation now."

As he spoke, he started to turn around and hasten away, running towards his cultivation platform.

"If you are in love with ice beauties, I can change my demeanor and make it colder." Ye Qianyu called out while laughing as she stared at the fleeing Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian stumbled and almost fell to the ground. Could he really still focus on his cultivation in the future…?

...

The Flowing Sand and the Heavenfall Mine were plundered and the guards there were all annihilated. A majority of the excavated stones were all taken away by the bandits. As for the person responsible for these two mines, the Jialan Monarch, he didn't appear at all. He only showed up after the bandits plundered the mines and by the time he came, all bandits had already disappeared.

This matter caused a large commotion in the Lifire Palace. The Lifire Empyrean was extremely enraged and sent people there to investigate. The Jialan Monarch headed to the Lifire Palace to apologize. In the Lifire Palace, several monarchs who had always been in opposition to the Jialan Monarch, accused him of failing in his duties and beseeched the empyrean to remove him from his post. But ultimately, the Lifire Empyrean still decided to give him a chance, telling him to investigate this manner completely and he has to find the bandits regardless of the cost. If his strength wasn't sufficient to suppress and annihilate them, he can apply for reinforcements from the Lifire Palace after he has found the bandits.

Only then did this matter came to a close. The Jialan Monarch started his investigation. However, the bandit group left no clues for him and how could they jump out involuntarily to confess that it was them who plundered the two mines? They would definitely lay low for a period of time or might even retire completely.

Just like what the Jialan Monarch anticipated, Ye Qianyu's group of bandits wouldn't act again within a short period of time.

As for Qin Wentian, he was prepared to head to the emperor city for his meeting with Beiming Youhuang. After Ye Qianyu learned of it, she actually wanted to tag along. Qin Wentian was speechless and naturally decisively objected. What a joke, an immortal emperor of such beauty tagging along would definitely be too conspicuous. Did this woman not know of her own status? The daughter of the Night Empyrean, the leader of a group of bandits. She still wanted to go to the Jialan Emperor City? What a crazy person.

Although Qin Wentian adamantly objected, his objection was naturally ineffective…

Hence, one day, a strange group appeared in the Jialan Emperor City.

A young man with an extraordinary aura walked around the emperor city. This was naturally none other than Qin Wentian who had changed his facial features. Despite so, his demeanour remained unchanged and was extremely attractive. However, the passersby on the street only took a casual glance at him before tossing him to the back of their minds. This was because the person beside him was simply too dazzling.

Ye Qianyu was clad in a phoenix dress today, which further accentuated her perfect figure. Her bright smile and charming eyes radiated a radiance that drew the attention of others. Her snow-white skin and alluring figure was truly a sight pleasing to the eyes.

What was even more mesmerizing was that there was a slit in her dress, revealing her perfect long and sexy legs, adding to her mesmerizing aura.

However, nobody dared to antagonize her because when their immortal senses swept past her, they couldn't ascertain her cultivation base. Clearly, she had a higher cultivation compared to them.

But such an alluring maiden with no flaws was actually locking arms with that young man. Her smile was extremely charming and there was a blessed look on her face. But what was strange was that the young man had a cold expression on his face like he wanted to beat someone up… This scene seemed a little incongruous. Many people felt the impulse to rush and beat Qin Wentian up, tossing him by the roadside to replace him and lock arms with the beautiful maiden.

They were cursing this bastard in their hearts. Living in such fortune, yet he still had a cold expression on his face? What did he mean by this? He doesn't know how to cherish beauty? Why did he look like he was forced to lock arms with her? He is simply a bastard...

Qin Wentian truly felt like beating someone up. It was fine that this vixen came, but could she be more low-profile about it? What was she wearing? Why was she wearing so provocatively? Is she trying to attract more attention? This bandit lord was actually so out in the open now, Qin Wentian really felt the urge to cry.

He initially wanted to keep a low profile but it seems that his plan was destined to end up in failure. Everyone who passed by them clearly took note of them.

"Can you let go of me…" Qin Wentian gritted his teeth and transmitted his voice over. He could feel the warmth of her arm. Right now, he felt very miserable, extremely miserable.

"Am I not beautiful?" Ye Qianyu had a doleful look in her eyes as she stared at Qin Wentian. Such a look was capable of instantly causing someone's heart to soften.

She was not not beautiful, but was too overly beautiful!

Qin Wentian completely gave up when he saw that look. He knew that it was useless. There was no way for him to stop anything this vixen wanted to do.

Under the moonlight, the scenery of the lake was beautiful to the extreme. The dragon boats sailed leisurely on the water, accompanied by sounds of zither music. In the various pavilions beautiful maidens could be seen dancing as well, it was truly a beautiful and relaxing sight.

Qin Wentian sat on a dragon boat as he extended his immortal sense outwards. Beside him, Ye Qianyu laid down in a carefree manner with her head on his shoulder. Her perfect figure was truly tempting to the extreme, causing many dragon boats to start gathering around Qin Wentian just for a glance at this beauty. Although these people didn't dare to disturb them directly, they felt that there was nothing wrong for them to look.

Qin Wentian's peak-stage immortal king aura instantly gushed forth, permeating the surroundings. He radiated coldness as he spoke, "Scram!"

After that, many dragon boats surrounding his all drift away. Ye Qianyu's eyes flashed with a bright light when she saw this. She giggled, "Why? Are you jealous when you see so many people looking at me?"

Qin Wentian gritted his teeth, He glanced at the excellent figure lying beside him. He didn't know why but when he saw many people looking at Ye Qianyu, although the emotion he felt couldn't measure up to jealousy, he felt pretty uncomfortable about it. Maybe, this was the innate nature of males.

"Why don't you woo me then? If you do so, I will only let you alone look at me. You can stare at me as long as you want to." Ye Qianyu had a charming smile on her face. Her long hair fluttered in the wind, that mesmerizing face of hers was extremely beautiful under the moonlight.

"Palace mistress, please spare me." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice over. If this continued, someone would surely die.

At this very moment, an immortal sense 'bumped' into Qin Wentian's immortal sense. After that, Qin Wentian felt his body growing cold and he hurriedly opened his eyes. He then directed the dragon boat towards a certain direction. From afar, an extremely beautiful ice beauty could be seen standing on a different dragon boat. Under the moonlight, she seemed like a goddess, similarly attracting the attention of several people. Yet, the eyes of this ice beauty were fixed upon Qin Wentian and Ye Qianyu.

Ye Qianyu was as though she sensed something. She smiled widely and actually laid down with her head resting on Qin Wentian's thigh. Qin Wentian's gaze instantly froze!

Chapter 1553: Stirring Dance

"This…" Qin Wentian lowered his head and stared at the excellent creature resting her head on his thigh. Ye Qianyu had a smile on her face as she stared at the dragon boat drifting towards them from afar, she was smiling at the ice beauty on that boat. From her smile, Qin Wentian could see the hints of a playful tease within.

He couldn't help but to perspire cold sweat. This woman has gone mad.

Beiming Youhuang's expression was still as icy as ever. She naturally saw how Ye Qianyu was smiling at her. She looked at Ye Qianyu, her perfect figure simply laid beside Qin Wentian. All her contours were truly mesmerizing to the extreme. Although she was a female, Beiming Youhuang could strongly feel the charm exuded by Ye Qianyu. Let alone a male like Qin Wentian.

Inclining her head slightly, her eyes were like sharp blades of wind. Qin Wentian smiled bitterly. Although he had no relationship with Beiming Youhuang and didn't need to explain anything, he couldn't help but to feel an inexplicable sense of him doing something wrong.

This vixen's actions were always illogical. This place was the emperor city governed by the Jialan Monarch yet she wore so provocatively, completely not afraid of attracting attention. You didn't have the slightest clue what she wanted to do exactly.

"You invite me here just to see this scene?" A cold voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. It was naturally Beiming Youhuang's voice.

"Youhuang, if I tell you this vixen did this intentionally after she saw you, would you believe me?" Qin Wentian bitterly smiled, transmitting his voice back.

"It doesn't matter if I believe it or not as we have no relationship between us. If you are fine, I shall leave then. Right now, your identity is a bandit, you shouldn't stay for long in the emperor city." Beiming Youhuang's voice was still as cold as ever, having a sense of pushing Qin Wentian away. Qin Wentian didn't know to laugh or cry, he weakly replied, "Are you...jealous?"

Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes flashed as she coldly stared at Qin Wentian. After that, with a wave of her hand, her dragon boat started to sail in the opposite direction.

"Just a joke!" Qin Wentian was sweating now as he directed his boat to chase after her. After he caught up, he didn't go over but chose to let his boat travel side by side with hers.

"Ignoring me after you met with your little lover?" Ye Qianyu giggled, causing Qin Wentian to start. She actually didn't transmit her voice but chose to speak out instead.

"You've gone mad." Qin Wentian lowered his head and looked at her. Could it be that she didn't know if there were people observing them now, their actions would be extremely suspicious?

"Ai, seems like I'm not welcomed." Ye Qianyu sighed with a hint of sorrow in her tone. After that, she sat up, "Alright then, I shall leave this time to you two. I shall go enjoy the lonely solitude alone."

After speaking, her silhouette flashed as she flew through the air towards a pavilion. Over there, there were a few fairy maidens dancing, exuding incomparable charm. Ye Qianyu wasn't polite at all as she descended right in the middle of them from the sky. She took off her shoes, revealing her fair white ankles as she started sashaying with her hips under the moonlight. Right now, she was more beautiful compared to a fairy in a portrait.

"What a beautiful woman." For a period of time, the other experts travelling on dragon boats were all looking over there, attracted to Ye Qianyu.

"Natural fox-like charm, a truly excellent creature." Everyone was completely mesmerized by her beautiful appearance, alluring figure, and snow-white skin. Just a glance caused them to be unable to divert their gazes away.

Qin Wentian stared at this scene dumbfoundedly. He really regretted. He shouldn't have come here together with her.

"Your luck with the females is truly good. There are two beautiful women with such deep emotions for you in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. After you came to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm, there's actually such a charming maiden accompanying you daily." Beiming Youhuang coldly spoke. Although she said that Qin Wentian's luck with females was good, her tone was filled with a touch of heavy sarcasm.

"Youhuang, I have always been worried about your safety through these years. Are you well?" Qin Wentian knew he couldn't explain things clearly, hence he didn't bother to try.

"Oh? With such an excellent creature that's also at the immortal emperor level to accompany you, you present such an awesome sight even when being a bandit. Are you sure you have the time to think about me?" Beiming Youhuang's voice was as cold as ever.

"Eh…" Qin Wentian glanced at Beiming Youhuang who was beside him. He only saw that her eyes were fixed on Ye Qianyu who was dancing under the moonlight. She basically didn't spare a glance at him at all.

Ye Qianyu was floating as she danced, attracting the attention of everyone here. The fairy maidens dancing below her were already exceptionally beautiful. But at this moment, nobody was staring at them. All of them had their attention fixed on Ye Qianyu.

Her dance seemed to contain a magical power, drawing people into it.

Qin Wentian also couldn't avert his gaze. He was completely stunned by this excellent creature, Ye Qianyu. There were many beauties in the immortal realms and he has seen all sorts of sexy dances before. But even so, Ye Qianyu's beauty when she was dancing, had truly exceeded all of his expectations.

Right now, the scene was incomparably quiet. Everyone was watching in enjoyment under the soft and gentle glow of the moon. When the moonlight shone upon her, Ye Qianyu seemed to be the only one in this entire space. Only her dance mattered.

The fairy maidens in the pavillion stopped and exited. They similarly were looking at Ye Qianyu in admiration. That was a true dance, it didn't seem to originate from the mortal world. Even for women, they had no way to shift their gazes away and were instantly attracted, unable to extricate themselves.

That spiralling dance was so agile, the swaying of the hips exuded mesmerization. Her long hair fluttering in the wind spoke of an unquestionable charm. Each and every scene branded themselves deeply into the minds of everyone present.

Qin Wentian suddenly saw Ye Qianyu smiling at him. Just that single smile had entered straight into his soul, causing him to involuntarily tremble.

Beiming Youhuang was in a daze as well. A moment later, she shifted her gaze towards Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was clearly immersed in watching the dance, unable to extricate himself from him. She sighed softly, given Ye Qianyu's beauty, it was no wonder he couldn't resist. There shouldn't be any males who could resist such a beautiful maiden. Also, Ye Qianyu wasn't simply beautiful, she was extremely charming as well.

"Why did you arrange to meet me here today?" Beiming Youhuang no longer mocked Qin Wentian but seriously asked instead. Qin Wentian woke up from his daze. He transmitted his voice to Beiming Youhuang, "Back then when I was sent to the mine, I didn't expect over ten years would have passed by before we met again. I'm worried that you would be at an disadvantage at Jialan Monarch's side. Although I heard that you gained the favor of the Lifire Empyrean, I still couldn't set my heart at ease. Hence, I wanted to see you."

A strange light flashed in Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes. She then transmitted her voice back in reply, "I'm doing pretty well. The Lifire Empyrean personally ordered me to be at the Jialan Monarch's side to help him. But in truth, I'm considered as someone on the same level as the Jialan Monarch. He wouldn't dare to do anything to me."

Qin Wentian nodded lightly, "In that case, I can rest my heart at ease. Given your talent and beauty, no matter where you go, you would surely be heavily favored. Beauties would always be appreciated, let alone someone like you with breath-taking beauty."

"Are you praising me?" Beiming Youhuang quietly spoke.

"Naturally." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Compared to her, how am I?" Beiming Youhuang glanced at the dancing figure and asked. But after the words left her mouth, she instantly berated herself silently, why did she ask such a question? Could it be that she was provoked by Ye Qianyu's beauty?

"Both of you are rare beauties and each has different aspects where you all excel in. She is like the beautiful temptress under the moon, capable of mesmerizing every living being. As for you, you are like the goddess of the moon, your beauty is sacred, holy, not to be profane. There's no need for any comparison." Qin Wentian smiled.

Beiming Youhuang didn't say anything in response to that. She continued, "Then, are you prepared to continue being a bandit? Could it be that you don't know what status bandits have in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? You won't be able to face others with your true face and would even encounter endless waves of people trying to hunt you down. Given your talent, even if you left now and quit being a bandit, you can still soar high in the future. You can go to other locations to temper yourself and even join any of the superpowers here."

Qin Wentian sighed silently. He glanced ahead. When Beiming Youhuang conversed with him about this, he suddenly realized why Ye Qianyu treated him so well.

Even if he had no intentions towards her, but given how good she has treated him, could he really leave so carefreely just like that?

Humans ultimately are not creatures with no emotions. They couldn't sever all relationships easily. If he wanted to leave, he would wait until he repaid Ye Qianyu for her kindness before he did so.

Beiming Youhuang seemed to have understood something when she saw Qin Wentian's expression. Ultimately, all heroes would fall to beauties.

"I understand." Beiming Youhuang spoke in a light voice. Qin Wentian bitterly smile. Did she really understand?

Clearly, she didn't But Qin Wentian didn't bother to explain. He and Beiming Youhuang didn't really have that kind of relationship in any case. They were only here together because of the old freak. Before this, Beiming Youhuang could take care of him due to her strength. But now after his cultivation base was restored, there was no need for Beiming Youhuang to protect him anymore.

A messaging crystal appeared in Beiming Youhuang's hand. Qin Wentian stared for a moment before he understood. He then sent a strand of immortal sense into her crystal while he also took out his own. Beiming Youhuang did the same as him and sent a strand of her immortal sense into his messaging crystal. In this manner, they would be able to contact each other easily in the future.

"In the future, you have to be more cautious. Tell them not to plunder any more mines in the Jialan Monarch's territory and do their best to remain hidden. The Lifire Palace is taking this extremely seriously and once they uncover your identities or find your hiding place, the Jialan Monarch would directly request for reinforcements to wipe you all out." Beiming Youhuang spoke as she kept her messaging crystal.

Qin Wentian nodded, "You too, the hearts of men are unfathomable. You should keep a low profile although you are doing things for the Lifire Empyrean. It's best not to easily offend others."

"I understand." Beiming Youhuang nodded. After that, the boat beneath her feet drifted into the distance. At this moment, Ye Qianyu's dance also gradually stopped.

Chapter 1554: Ten Years

After Ye Qianyu stopped dancing, the people here finally snapped out of their dazes. But even so, the eyes of everyone was still on Ye Qianyu. She was so beautiful that it caused people to be breathless.

Regardless of how strong their cultivation was, when Ye Qianyu was dancing, nobody could resist that magical power.

"A dance by fairy maiden. Truly rarely seen in the world." After some time, a voice sighing with admiration rang out as everyone woke up from their daze. When they looked at Ye Qianyu's beautiful face, they felt an impulse to claim her for themselves.

"Palace mistress, we should return." Qin Wentian stood on the dragon boat and transmitted his voice to Ye Qianyu. However, Ye Qianyu merely giggled and glance in his direction, "Has your meeting with your little lover ended? Your meeting might have concluded but I have not had enough fun yet."

As she spoke, Ye Qianyu then turned to everyone, "Today, I have embarrassed myself here before everyone. Please forgive me. I only wished to find someone suitable to be my lord husband and accompany me all my life. I wonder if there are any in the crowd who is willing to?"

"Eh…" Qin Wentian stared dumbly at Ye Qianyu. What did this vixen want to do?

"Naturally, if fairy doesn't despise me, I'm willing to dedicate my love to Fairy alone for all eternity." A handsome-looking young man with an extraordinary aura straightforwardly spoke. His skin was so thick that it caused others to click their tongues. This young man chose to confess directly.

"If Fairy can become my dao companion, I wouldn't mind even if you want me to give up cultivation." Another person spoke. Everyone started to express their stances. Among them, there were some extraordinary characters with extremely high cultivation bases but they were all ensnared by Ye Qianyu in her web of mesmerization. They were simply infatuated with her, willing to give up everything for her.

"There are so many interested candidates, how can this little maiden make a good choice? Since this is a strength-oriented world, why don't all the lords here prove their worth with strength? I will simply leave with the person who can suppress all others. How about it?" Ye Qianyu's eyes flashed with a beautiful smile capable of toppling empires. A moment later, a peak-stage immortal king stepped out and walked towards Ye Qianyu. "I'm willing to give it a try,"

"RUMBLE!" Abruptly, a fiery palm imprint descended from the sky, slamming towards that immortal king who just stepped out. That immortal king's countenance changed drastically. After that, a thunderous boom resounded out as that immortal king screamed in pain. His body was blasted into the waters of the lake.

"Ridiculous to the max. Fairy, your cultivation base is at the immortal emperor realm. How dare an immortal king go forward." A supreme expert stepped out with his hands placed behind his back. "I'm an elder of the Mystic Flame Sect. If Fairy doesn't mind it, I'm willing to protect you forever."

"A mere elder of the Mystic Flame Sect dares to boast here? Let me persuade you not to come out to embarrass yourself." An extraordinary young man with a cultivation base at the immortal emperor realm spoke. He also looked very young and was like a gentleman, carefree to the extreme.

This was a disciple of a major power in the emperor city. His talent was very high and he was good-looking. Hence, he felt very confident.

"Fairy truly has transcendent beauty. Also, given your cultivation realm, I originally didn't think that I would be able to match up to you. But since Fairy has spoken, and since there's such a chance, I'm willing to work hard and fight for it." This man spoke beautifully. However, he suspected that Ye Qianyu might just be an ordinary cultivator who cultivated a charm arm. Although she was beautiful, she was abandoned by some others and had to find someone to depend on now.

Not only did he think so, but many people also had the same thoughts. If not, why would such a beautiful maiden with this cultivation base search for a dao companion here?

"Palace mistress, have you played enough?" Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines as he saw more and more experts approaching. If this carried on, the attention of the Jialan Monarch might really be drawn. Although nobody knew that Ye Qianyu was the bandit lord, it would always be better to be more cautious. If her actions now caused suspicion to form, things would truly be dire.

Ye Qianyu glanced at Qin Wentian with a look of bitter resentment in her eyes. She transmitted her reply, "If you don't act now, I will really leave with someone else."

"This vixen…" Qin Wentian was completely speechless. Was all her actions earlier just to force him to act?

However, he could tell that no matter if it was her behavior during that plunder or today's actions, Ye Qianyu has always done whatever she wanted to. She had no trepidations. But she was truly very intelligent. After she saw his astral souls, she didn't force him to do anything and merely built a supreme cultivation platform for him. Although he knew that she wanted to win him over, he still involuntarily sank in.

But now, Ye Qianyu actually intentionally acted this way. Was it just to make him act?

"This crazy woman." Qin Wentian sighed silently as he stepped out, moving towards Ye Qianyu. After that, Qin Wentian stretched his hand out and held her by the waist. "Let's go."

"Okay then, carry me." Ye Qianyu's charming eyes were like silk, staring at Qin Wentian with eyes filled with emotions.

"I will take advantage of you for free and won't be responsible for it. Don't regret this." Qin Wentian was incomparably depressed. After being teased by her for so many days, he couldn't help but grimly speak as he carried Ye Qianyu up. Ye Qianyu's soft body was pressed against his. This was sufficient to cause most people to immerse themselves in the feeling.

"Put the Fairy down!" The young man from before had an ugly expression. An immortal king actually dared to snatch this beauty from him?

"Go!" Qin Wentian directly flew up into the air after carrying Ye Qianyu. That immortal emperor radiated a brilliance as he chased after them. Qin Wentian coldly shot a glance at him and in an instant, he unleashed a powerful eye-technique, turning the space the immortal emperor was in into a separate dimension. Countless swords then fell from the sky, forming a region of swords around him, exterminating everything.

That immortal emperor roared and unleashed emperor might while blasting out attacks. Qin Wentian continued flying while he punched out backwards. The fist imprints he created blasted out in eight directions, like the fist from a heavenly god. It was tyrannical to the extreme. The immortal emperor roared in anger but after he was hit by one of the fist imprints, he staggered backwards and actually coughed out a mouthful of blood.

Upon seeing this domineering strike, the other experts here narrowed their eyes. Nobody dared to obstruct Qin Wentian when he flew near them. After that, they saw Ye Qianyu flashing a charming smile at them, as though her plan had succeeded. At this instant, they all understood that Ye Qianyu's earlier actions were just to make this young man take action.

In the blink of an eye, Qin Wentian who was carrying Ye Qianyu, vanished from the vision of the crowd. Many people started. That beautiful dance was still fresh in their minds, unable to dissipate. Was she really an ordinary female that cultivated the charm arts? That demeanor, such an alluring dance. Was she really just an ordinary person?

Qin Wentian's speed was quick to the extreme, soaring through the air. Ye Qianyu's hands were wrapped around his neck, staring at him with a look of passion in her eyes. Under the moonlight, such beauty and the feeling of the softness of her alluring body against his, made Qin Wentian not dare to match her gaze.

"Palace mistress, are you satisfied now?" Qin Wentian released his hold but Ye Qianyu actually still held on. She gently smiled, "After today, I think you will never be able to forget me."

After speaking, she released her hold as well and walked side by side with Qin Wentian as a charming smile appeared on her face. Qin Wentian's heart trembled lightly as he recalled that dance of hers. Earlier when he was carrying her, he couldn't help to marvel at how soft her body felt. Right now, he could only sigh silently. She had accomplished her objective so easily. And although he knew what she wanted to do, he still couldn't stop her.

Today, Qin Wentian initially came here to see Beiming Youhuang. But unknowingly, most probably Beiming Youhuang only took up a very small portion of the memories formed today. This palace mistress of his was just too difficult to deal with.

"Palace mistress, given your cultivation base and beauty, why must you do this?" Qin Wentian was helpless and there was a bitter smile on his face.

Ye Qianyu gently looked at him as she smiled, "Could it be that you don't know you are very handsome?"

"...." Qin Wentian was completely speechless. He naturally wouldn't be so silly to the point where he believed that a beautiful immortal emperor was seducing him just because of his good looks.

"Oh ya, are you still thinking of my dance earlier? If you want to see it in the future, you can come and look for me oh. I'm willing to dance for you alone." Ye Qianyu suddenly laughed. Qin Wentian started for a moment before a spatial gate appeared. In the next instant, Qin Wentian immediately stepped into it, fleeing in defeat!

After they returned to Heavenly City, Qin Wentian immediately started his closed-door seclusion. He was worried that if he continued interacting with this vixen, she might really eat him up.

Ye Qianyu, as the number one beauty in Heavenly City, even if she didn't take the initiative to charm others, there would be countless people fighting to gain her favor But if she really exuded charm to intentionally mesmerize someone, how many people would be able to resist it? Naturally, other men wouldn't resist and would welcome it instead. With such a beautiful woman throwing herself into their arms, who would reject it?

But Qin Wentian was different. If he truly accepted Ye Qianyu, he would need to shoulder everything for her. He naturally understood this point. The hatred between her and the two empyrean palaces...as her man, he naturally would have to take over that.

But this wasn't the main reason. An even deeper reason was naturally because of Qing`er and Qingcheng. They had given up way too much for him. He knew that they were still waiting for him to go back.

He had to return to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms as soon as possible. Right now, his most important purpose, was to raise his strength.

Who's heart wouldn't be moved when facing a woman like Ye Qianyu? But even if his heart had stirred, he still couldn't take that step.

This seclusion lasted a long time. In this period, he came out several times but had never exceeded a single day in terms of time spent outside the seclusion. At most, he would chat with Ye Qianyu, drink a few cups of wine with her, or get updates on how Beiming Youhuang was doing before he returned to his cultivation. With such good cultivation conditions arranged for him, how could he not work hard?

Unknowingly, another ten years passed. It has already been twenty-three years since Qin Wentian came to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Not only has he recovered his cultivation base, his strength even exceeded his past peak. After these ten years in seclusion, one could say that he was really a step away from the immortal emperor realm. Qin Wentian could faintly sense that his breakthrough wasn't too far off in the future!

Chapter 1555: Rumor and Plan

In Heavenly City, there was a craftsman named River Portrait Immortal Emperor. He was a craftsman skilled in many aspects.

His main rise to fame was through weapon forging as his talent for forging was extraordinarily high, a true grandmaster. Many buildings in Heavenly City were built by him. Not only so, some major powers within the Lifire Palace's territory would also invite him for his forging service.

However, the River Portrait Immortal Emperor concentrated fully on his cultivation or in his forging research, he wasn't subservient to any major powers or attached himself to any. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the status of forgers was extremely high, they were able to easily procure a large amount of cultivation resources. Many unaffiliated cultivators also wanted to walk this path, when their cultivation base reached a bottleneck, they would spend time on researching the forging path. They might even need to waste many years to gain a basic understanding of this path.

However, things were the same as cultivation. Talent was necessary and in addition, there were some who specially condensed specific astral souls just for this. They planned to walk this path since they were very young.

At this moment, in the River Portrait Immortal Emperor's manor, Qin Wentian was quietly staring at him sculpting an emperor stone. Divine weapons created like that were usually extremely weak. However, scattered around the feet of the River Portrait Immortal Emperor, numerous sculptures could be seen littering the ground. This was merely one of the methods for him to practice daily.

As for Qin Wentian, he was now sitting beside the immortal emperor as he observed quietly.

"Don't look at these simple-looking sculptures. To the vast majority of people, they wouldn't even be able to do such a simple thing. Cultivation cannot allow one to reach the end of the path in one step. Forging is the same as well. An example is language and words. If you can't even pronounce a word well, how can you arrange words properly together into a coherent sentence?" The age of the River Portrait Immortal Emperor was very great. His hair was completely white but he seemed to be in very high spirits. This was especially so when he was sculpting. His eyes shone like torches, glowing with bright light.

"Just come over as much as you want. It's very rare for people to have your cultivation base and talent in forging. Hence, I taught you many things. Even if you eventually choose not to forge weapons, it would still be of some help to your cultivation." The River Portrait Immortal Emperor took out a large piece of emperor stone and tossed it to Qin Wentian. "Try to sculpt it into the shape of a sword."

"Right." Qin Wentian smiled as he nodded. A dagger formed of law energy appeared in his hand as he started to sculpt away. The emperor stone was exceedingly tough and Qin Wentian's sculpting speed was very slow. Even so, he took this seriously. Such a cultivation method might be said to be a waste of resources. Only the truly rich or those who forge weapons for a living, could afford to do this.

Gradually, the emperor stone was sculpted into shape. Numerous clear rune-like lines were engraved on the stone as a startling amount of sword intent radiated from it. It was merely a weapon sculpted from an emperor stone yet it seemed capable of unleashing a sword law domain.

"You are truly extremely talented. If you are willing to devote your effort to this, your future accomplishments would surely be much higher than mine." The River Portrait Immortal Emperor smiled at Qin Wentian.

"Senior praises me too much. It's just that junior has done some research on formations and knows a little about runes and divine inscriptions. Hence, I find it easier than others but I would still need much more guidance." Qin Wentian humbly replied.

"Have you already finishing reading those ancient manuals on forging I passed to you earlier?"

"Mhm, I've finished them." Qin Wentian nodded. He took out a few jade slips and passed them to the River Portrait Immortal Emperor.

"Luo`er. Go and take more jade slips over." The River Portrait Immortal Emperor spoke

After a few moments, a young and innocent-looking woman dressed in white walked over here and passed some jade slips to Qin Wentian. She smiled, "Grandpa has never treated any one so good before."

"Mhm, I naturally understand senior's kind intentions." Qin Wentian nodded.

"These items are mainly to broaden the knowledge of others. It would be a waste to keep them by my side anyway. Given the talent of this young fellow, I'm naturally willing to help him out." The River Portrait Immortal Emperor smiled. "Young fellow Qin, in the future if you have the chance to, you can head to the Heavenly Talisman Realm and take a look. The Realmlord of the Heavenly Talisman Realm has a very deep comprehension on runes and divine inscriptions. There are many grandmaster forgers living there."

"Heavenly Talisman Realm!" Qin Wentian's heart trembled. What a familiar name. So it turned out that the Heavenly Talisman Realm was the same as the Lifelong Realm, it was a vast domain of territory in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

In that case, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms was probably just a chess piece to the true Heavenly Talisman Realm. Could it be that the ultimate purpose of the Heavenly Talisman Realm was to fully control the entire Azure Mystic Immortal Realms?

If the Heavenly Talisman Realm was to quietly developed for many years in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, it was truly highly possible that they could take over the entire layer. As long as their foundation and accumulated strength was great enough, the moment the revealed themselves fully, nobody in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms would be able to contend against them. At that time, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms who are not unified, would probably be unified under the banner of the Heavenly Talisman Realm, becoming a source of reserve strength.

"Heavenly Talisman Realmlord, my Master?" Qin Wentian smiled and shook his head. The overlord of an entire realm, what existence was that? Qin Wentian's status was too far beneath him. Back then when he was at the Celestial Phenomenon Realm, he has already entered the Heavenly Talisman Realm in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms and took the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord as his master. But in truth, the master and disciple relationship was merely a one-sided affair. At most, the people of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms could only be considered honorary disciples. Where would the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord have time to guide them? It was just a title for them to call him master.

"Oh ya, the Heavenly Talisman Realm is just next to the Lifelong Immortal Realm. You have not gone to such a faraway place yet, right? In the future, after you grow stronger, you would naturally have the chance to do so then." The River Portrait Immortal Emperor smiled.

"Grandpa, I also wish to travel far. Why don't you allow me to go out?" The white-robed young lady glanced at the River Portrait Immortal Emperor.

"Haha, with your skills? Most probably if you head out, you would instantly be abducted by others." The River Portrait Immortal Emperor laughed.

Luo`er pouted, "No matter what, I'm at the very least, at the immortal king realm."

"Fine, fine. After you find a dao companion, you can go as far as you want to. Grandpa won't bother about you then." The River Portrait Immortal Emperor smiled as he shook his head.

"Grandpa, I don't want a dao companion, I only want to be by your side."

"How can that be allowed? Grandpa would grow old sooner or later and you would also encounter someone you like in the future. In fact, I feel that young fellow Qin isn't bad at all. Luo'er, what do you feel about him?" The River Portrait Immortal Emperor joked. Luo'er glanced at Qin Wentian as her innocent face tinged with the red of shyness. She then turned and glared at the River Portrait Immortal Emperor, "Grandpa, what nonsense are you talking about?"

"How can Mister River Portrait be old? You are vigorous and fit and in the future, your cultivation base might even grow stronger. You are not old at all." At this moment, a gentle and sweet voice rang out. Ye Qianyu who was wearing a dress today, walked over here as she glared at Qin Wentian with a hint of hidden resentment in her eyes.

"Palace mistress is still the one who knows how to talk well. However, compared to palace mistress, this old man me has truly aged." The River Portrait Immortal Emperor laughed as he shook his head.

"Mister River Portrait, how's my man's talent in forging?" Ye Qianyu smiled. The River Portrait Immortal Emperor froze. After that, he saw Ye Qianyu walking to Qin Wentian's side and linked her arms with his. Only then did he understand what was going on. His eyes were filled with astonishment as he stared at Ye Qianyu and Qin Wentian.

"The talent of young fellow Qin is naturally extremely high." The River Portrait Immortal Emperor nodded.

"I have to thank mister for your patient guidance then. We will bid our farewell first." Ye Qianyu pulled Qin Wentian along as she walked out. Qin Wentian speechlessly got pulled along by her. He then flashed an apologetic smile at the River Portrait Immortal Emperor.

After the two of them left, a bright light flashed in the River Portrait Immortal Emperor's eyes. "Woah, the number one beauty of our Heavenly City actually fell in love with little fellow Qin, someone who is still at the immortal king realm."

Glancing at their departing backs, he then continued, "Luo`er, you should be interested in young fellow Qin, right? However, I think it's better to give up. You are still far from being able to compete with Ye Qianyu. It's just that although young fellow Qin's talent is good, is he really worthy for Ye Qianyu to act like this?"

Ye Qianyu and Qin Wentian then walked on the city streets. Her alluring figure tightly leaned against Qin Wentian, "Recently, you keep running over here. Tell me the truth, did you fall for the little maiden because of her innocent looks?"

"Eh…" Qin Wentian was speechless. "Weren't you the one who recommend me to come to senior River Portrait to learn forging?"

"I also didn't expect you would come here to chase girls." Ye Qianyu stared at Qin Wentian. Upon seeing the bitter smile on his face, her grin widened, "Could it be that I cannot satisfy your needs? Do you want this mistress to serve you properly tonight?"

"Palace mistress, can you spare me?" Qin Wentian saw numerous gazes shooting his way and many of those gazes were radiating with sharpness.

This place was Heavenly City and Ye Qianyu was well known as the number one beauty. Who hasn't heard of her before? By acting like this in the eyes of the public, his life might be in danger...

Very swiftly, a piece of shocking news circulated around Heavenly City. The number one beauty of the city, Ye Qianyu, actually linked arms with a young man and looked to be very affectionate with him. It was said that the two are dao companions.

This young man had long stayed within the personal palace of Ye Qianyu and ten years ago, Ye Qianyu even spared no expense to get Grandmaster River Portrait to construct a supreme cultivation platform for the young man.

When this news spread, countless people felt pain in their hearts. The woman of their dreams already had her heart captured by someone?

Many felt hatred. A mere immortal king. What qualifications does he have to obtain Ye Qianyu?

Hence, numerous immortal emperors started to issue challenge letters to this mysterious young man, telling him to scram out for a battle.

However, Qin Wentian didn't appear. Ye Qianyu got someone else to fight his battles for him instead. One emperor was fiercely beaten up after he issued the challenge letter. This incident caused countless people to sob in their hearts. What was going on in the world?

The number one beauty of Heavenly City, has she been possessed or something?

Could it be that the mysterious youth has a special ability to gain the favor of females?

This news spread wildly. Today, in the location outside Heavenly City, two figures met with each other. One of them was the Barbarian Emperor. As for the other, he was also an emperor-ranked expert.

"Are the rumors true? The palace mistress fall in love with an immortal king?" That immortal emperor's voice was cold.

"Palace mistress she…" The Barbarian Emperor clenched his hands and spoke with hatred. "The immortal king is named Qin Wentian and he has already stayed in palace mistress's immortal palace for over ten years."

The other immortal emperor froze before he sighed, "I want to meet with the palace mistress."

"It's useless, I've already persuaded her countless times but I have the feeling she loathes me more and more." The Barbarian Emperor's clenched fists emitted cracking sounds. "Qin Wentian has to die. Do things according to our plan and from now onwards, there should be no more contact between us. We will communicate directly using the messaging crystal."

The eyes of that immortal emperor flashed. He contemplated a moment before he nodded, "Alright."

Chapter 1556: Youhuang is in trouble?

Qin Wentian's life now was very simple. He would comprehend insights and cultivate with the aid of the emperor-grade cultivation platform. When he had more time, he would research forging methods and would do sculpting like the River Portrait Immortal Emperor, on emperor-ranked stones.

The River Portrait Immortal Emperor was a mid-stage immortal emperor and was also a grandmaster craftsman. Sculpting was his daily homework for Qin Wentian. This allowed him to get more familiar with the different law attributes of emperor stones and allow him to feel more at ease during forging. Qin Wentian understood this and he felt that sculpting was a good method to train his state of heart. During sculpting, he would be fully focused and his heart would be tranquil.

However, this was only possible because Qin Wentian was relatively wealthy now. If his wealth was the same amount back when he first arrived at the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, how could he be able to have such cultivation conditions, possessing emperor-rank stones for sculpting? This was simply too luxurious for ordinary cultivators. The plunder ten years ago resulted in a heavy harvest. He had gained many cultivation resources there and in addition to the fact that he had that supreme-grade cultivation altar, he usually wouldn't need to use his spare cultivation resources in any case.

At this moment, Qin Wentian was currently sculpting an emperor-ranked stone. Beside him, an excellent creature in white laid down, accompanying him. Other than Ye Qianyu, who else could it be?

Ye Qianyu stared at Qin Wentian's serious expression as a bright light flickered in her eyes. She was very fond of how focused Qin Wentian was when he was sculpting. He had no distractions in his heart. Despite her attempts at charming him, Qin Wentian's heart wasn't moved at all.

"Mhm?" Ye Qianyu's beautiful eyes suddenly flashed when she looked at the emperor stone in Qin Wentian's hand. Right now, he actually wasn't sculpting a divine weapon, but was sculpting someone instead. The stone was slowly sculpted into a human form. An elegant figure, long-flowing air, and an extremely beautiful face gradually appeared. The facial features were innocent and pure, a smile from this person was definitely capable of toppling empires.

"Who is she?" Ye Qianyu had a serious expression on her face when as she stared at the sculpture. Qin Wentian didn't stop. He continued carving lines, perfecting the sculpture, bringing it to life. After he was done, he took up another emperor stone and continued on. The second sculpture was in human form as well. When the facial features appeared, Ye Qianyu was sure that this was another supreme beauty. The second sculpture radiated an air of coolness, as well a sense of holiness. She was as flawless as a snow lotus on an ice mountain.

"Who are they?" Ye Qianyu's beautiful eyes flashed. She had seen Beiming Youhuang before. But these two maidens sculpted by Qin Wentian didn't resemble Beiming Youhuang.

Finally, the dagger of laws used for his sculpting disappeared, transforming back to astral light. He stared at the two sculptures as a look of warmth appeared on his face. Such warmth and gentleness was something Ye Qianyu has never seen before. When she saw that look, her heart couldn't help but to tremble involuntarily.

Were these two maidens the reason why Qin Wentian could resist her despite her charm after so long?

"They are my wives." Qin Wentian glanced at the sculptures as he spoke in a light voice. "I'm not someone from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. I came from the lower world, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Over there, I have so many enemies that they exist all over in that world. One day, experts from the vast majority of the major powers descended on the immortal empire my wife was in and forced me to show up. My friends and some seniors I'm close with, went with me, and an all-out war erupted. Sadly, I eventually died in that war. Hence, I'm someone who has already died once."

Ye Qianyu didn't disrupt Qin Wentian, she listened quietly.

"After that battle, one of my wife's hair instantly turned white. The other one became like a living zombie, her eyes like dead ashes. This lasted until I managed to revive myself due to some extraordinary coincidences before her eyes finally glowed with luster once more. After that, I came to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to seek more opportunities. As for the two of them, they are still waiting for me back in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms." Qin Wentian gently smiled, staring at Ye Qianyu.

"Is this the reason why your astral souls are all so extraordinary?" Ye Qianyu instantly understood.

"Mhm. My talent might be very ordinary if it wasn't for my rebirth. After knowing all of this, is palace mistress still willing to waste time on me?" Qin Wentian smiled.

Ye Qianyu was actually smiling at Qin Wentian. Her smile was no longer like that of before, trying to charm him. It was just a gentle smile now, "Can you help me to sculpt a figurine of me?"

"...." Qin Wentian instantly turned speechless. What was this woman thinking about?

Staring at Qin Wentian's eyes, Ye Qianyu giggled, "Maybe, I don't even mind if I have to become your concubine. Do you want to try it?"

"..."

"Qin Wentian stood up and fled in a miserable manner. He hurriedly sat on his cultivation platform, but a moment later, Ye Qianyu's laughter rang out, "Qin Wentian, are you not a man?"

...

Recently, Beiming Youhuang received a mission to temper herself.This mission was given to her personally by the Lifire Empyrean, telling her to venture into a secret realm. She naturally participated. This was a very important trial of the Lifire Palace and the participants cannot depend on any external items or communicate with others in the external world. Hence, the belongings of the participants, including interspatial rings, were all not allowed to be brought in. This naturally also included messaging crystals. Beiming Youhuang didn't feel anything strange about that. She has been in the Lifire Palace for some years now and knew that this was indeed the rules.

But just when Beiming Youhuang accepted the mission, the Jialan Monarch actually sent out an arrest warrant for Qin Wentian and said that they would kill a comrade of Qin Wentian one month later. This news circulated very quickly, the forces under the Jialan Monarch seemed to already know that Qin Wentian was one of the bandits who partook in the plunder ten years ago.

At this moment, Qin Wentian still had no idea about all of this. Until one day where he was about to head to the River Portrait Immortal Emperor's place, the Barbarian Emperor stopped him.

"Is something the matter?" Qin Wentian's attitude towards the Barbarian Emperor was no longer as polite as before. After that incident when the Barbarian Emperor tried to get Beiming Youhuang to fight him, he knew that the Barbarian Emperor hated him immensely in his heart.

"Look at it yourself." The Barbarian Emperor waved his hand. After that, an arrest warrant appeared before Qin Wentian. Upon seeing that, Qin Wentian's expression grew extremely unsightly. He turned and prepared to head back.

"You want to tell the palace mistress?" The Barbarian Emperor transmitted his voice over. "Do you think that she wouldn't know of this? If you tell her, do you think she will allow you to head to the emperor city? Or do you expect palace mistress would mobilize our forces due to your little lover and start a war to the death?"

Qin Wentian's footsteps halted. He slowly turned and icily stared at the Barbarian Emperor. "You are telling me this because you want me to court death by going to the emperor city?"

"I can't stop you or force you from going. You can decide what you want to do. In any case, only a few days are left. Naturally, from my perspective, your own life is naturally more important. Also, the palace mistress is fond of you. Why must you care so much about one of your lovers." The Barbarian Emperor coldly laughed before he departed.

"How would I know whether you forged this arrest warrant or not?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke, staring at the back of the Barbarian Emperor.

"How ridiculous. You can easily investigate to see if the warrant is real." The Barbarian Emperor directly left. Qin Wentian stood at his original location and took out his messaging crystal. He sent his immortal sense in and searched for Beiming Youhuang's as he spoke, "Youhuang are you there?"

"Nobody replied." He then continued, "Youhuang, things are extremely urgent. Get back to me immediately once you read this."

There was still no reply. Qin Wentian's expression turned pale. He lifted his foot and continued to head to the River Portrait Immortal Emperor's location but his entire person was clearly distracted. Throughout the day, he sent numerous message but Beiming Youhuang didn't reply no matter what he said.

Clearly, the words of the Barbarian Emperor were real. Beiming Youhuang was in trouble.

During the second day, Qin Wentian stealthily left Heavenly City alone. He naturally had a disguise on. Regardless of whether the news was true or false, he had to check it out.

He didn't inform Ye Qianyu. Even if Ye Qianyu was willing to go with him, he didn't want to implicate her in this.

After exiting Heavenly City, Qin Wentian sped up, moving with great speed towards a certain direction.

"Mhm?" On the way there, Qin Wentian suddenly frowned. His sharp senses told him that there were people tracking his movements. Although this feeling was very faint, his instincts told him that it was real.

However, he didn't bother with it and continued on his way. Finally, two figures appeared before him, quietly standing there as though they have been waiting for him all this while.

Behind him, the people tracking his movements no longer bothered to mask themselves. Very swiftly, four powerful experts at the immortal emperor realm appeared before him.

In addition, one of them was a mid-stage immortal emperor. They were all fully clad in armor, in the attire of bandits.

"Barbarian Emperor, this should be your killing move, right?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. One of the four immortal emperors here, was none other than the Barbarian Emperor.

"Qin Wentian, if you went to the emperor city and are captured alive, what would we do if you betrayed us? Leaving you alive is a source of trouble." The Barbarian Emperor icily spoke. It was none other than these four emperors who leaked Qin Wentian's identity as a bandit to the Jialan Monarch. However, the Barbarian Emperor only had a single intention. He wanted Qin Wentian to die. He naturally didn't wish for Ye Qianyu to be implicated within.

Although Ye Qianyu's treatment towards him was far inferior compared to Qin Wentian, he was still in love with her and has been so for many years. He only wanted Qin Wentian's death.

"You guys are also Ye Qianyu's subordinates? Barbarian Emperor was the one who incited you three to come and kill me?" Qin Wentian glanced at the other three emperors.

"The palace mistress is acting strangely recently. Us as subordinates, can only act in the shadows to help her recover." An immortal emperor coldly replied. "Although we might get punished for this, we are still willing to do so."

"If there's any punishment, I will endure them alone on my own. Regarding the Thousand Feathers Palace, that's the heart's blood of brothers. We must not let an outsider change things." The Barbarian Emperor's voice was extremely cold. He then continued, "Do it."

"Mhm." The others nodded. Four immortal emperors, including a mid-stage one. Such a powerful group was sent out just to kill a mere peak-stage immortal king. This was already heavily respecting Qin Wentian's strength. This naturally was the Barbarian Emperor's arrangement. He knew how strong Qin Wentian was and the fact that Qin Wentian could easily kill an initial-stage immortal emperor. He had no choice but to be more cautious.

A bright light flashed as resplendent light energy radiated from Qin Wentian. The radiance was so blinding that the emperors couldn't open their eyes. Simultaneously, the four emperors unleashed the power of their laws, causing beams of emperor light to descend from the sky as they resonated with their constellations. They stood in the four directions and directly launched attacks at Qin Wentian.

Chapter 1557: Attempt to Kill

A blinding light erupted forth from Qin Wentian, capable of destroying everything. Within that burst of light, numerous strands of golden vajra holy will circulated around him. But even so, the power of the four emperor's attacks was capable of destroying everything. Numerous attacks slammed into Qin Wentian's body.

However, how terrifying was Qin Wentian's defense? He had an undying body and even had a life-attributed astral soul now. His damaged body instantly regenerated. At the same time, numerous phantoms of Qin Wentian appeared in an instant as countless spatial gates manifested, filling this entire space. The phantoms of Qin Wentian all rushed towards the spatial gates located in different directions.

When the emperors saw this, one of them radiated an incredibly intense light filled with the power of thunder and lightning which enveloped this space. A giant web of electricity covered the area and bolts of thunder struck down mercilessly, destroying many of Qin Wentian's phantoms.

As for Qin Wentian's true self, he turned his gaze towards one of the immortal emperors. With just a single glance, a dimension formed from his eye-technique sealed the emperor light cascading down from that immortal emperor's constellation.

An icy killing intent erupted in Qin Wentian's eyes. With a punch, a sword of light formed, tearing through space. The other party couldn't even react in time at all. He howled as emperor laws revolved protectively around him, wanting to strengthen his defense. That sword of light could even twist and change directions in mid-flight. It flew over the emperor's head, did a complete turn, and targeted his back.

This ability to shift directions in mid-attack, was an innate ability named 'flexibility' granted to him by one of his astral souls - A life-attributed ancient tree astral soul.

The sword of light gleamed resplendently and after targeting several spots, it finally pierced into the target's body. That immortal emperor's body erupted with a blinding light. After that, he screamed in pain as his body disintegrated within the radiance, dead.

"BOOM!" The space trembled, Qin Wentian felt his body shuddering from the aura unleashed by the mid-stage immortal emperor. That mid-stage immortal emperor had an extremely icy look on his face. Four powerful emperors acting against a peak-stage immortal king yet in the blink of an eye, Qin Wentian had killed one of them. Boundless astral light gathered onto him as his law energy was magnified several times. Taking another step out, Qin Wentian only felt an incomparably heavy pressure pressing down on him. His body felt that it was on the verge of crumbling from the pressure of that step.

Numerous spatial gates appeared again. Qin Wentian wanted to lengthen the distance between them yet the mid-stage immortal emperor took another step forward, shattering the spatial gates into pieces. Another wave of terrifying pressure pressed down heavily on Qin Wentian.

The light of buddha and devil flashed. Qin Wentian was like half a buddha and half a devil. He had the golden vajra body, yet also the undying aspects of devils.

Numerous bizarre-looking eyes appeared behind Qin Wentian, incomparably huge. With a glance, he severed space and formed a dimension to seal everything, severing the source of emperor light resonance. However, the mid-stage immortal king merely punched out, using brute force to overcome all techniques. Despite the uniquely powerful law domains of Qin Wentian, they couldn't stand against the true strength of this mid-stage emperor.

The other two immortal emperors fled all the way at the back to observe the battle. They didn't participate. Just now, after Qin Wentian killed an initial-stage emperor with a single strike, they already felt fear in their hearts. If Qin Wentian could seize an opportunity, he definitely could kill them within a very short period of time. Hence, they felt that it was best to act more cautiously. They would rather watch as the mid-stage immortal emperor dealt with Qin Wentian.

What an irony, four immortal emperors came here to deal with an immortal king yet at the end, one of them died and two of the initial-stage emperors hid at the back and didn't dare to act.

All around Qin Wentian, an even brighter source of light radiated forth. His light-law energy was materializing countless swords which surrounded him protectively.

The eyes of the mid-stage immortal emperor gleamed with a terrifying light. With a single glance, it seemed that he could tear the world asunder. He punched out as light from the Great Dao flowed furiously like torrential flood waters, as well as with the speed of shooting stars, illuminating everything, wanting to bury everything within.

"Go!" Qin Wentian waved his hand as numerous swords of light whistled through the air. A region of swords and boundless light formed. The swords of light danced wildly about, shooting forward, aiming for his enemies. The sword might in the area was tyrannical to the extreme.

The Barbarian Emperor and the other initial-stage immortal emperor felt their hearts trembling when they saw Qin Wentian's attack. The killing intent in the Barbarian Emperor's eyes grew even more intense. As for the other immortal emperor, his heart pounded more rapidly. Was this the true reason why the palace mistress treated Qin Wentian so generously?

The attacks from the two of them collided together, causing devastating aftershocks. A bright light flashed in the mid-stage immortal emperor's eyes. He suddenly stopped attacking and retreated backwards, silently observing Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian also stopped, staring at his opponent. The strength of a mid-stage immortal emperor was much stronger compared to initial-stage ones. Their levels were simply beyond comparison. After stopping initial-stage immortal emperors from resonating with their constellations, he was able to kill them. But it wasn't going to be so easy if he wanted to kill a mid-stage immortal emperor.

"Do you really have to go there? If you return now, I can cease acting against you." That mid-stage immortal emperor suddenly spoke, causing the Barbarian Emperor's eyes to narrow as he asked, "What do you mean?"

The mid-stage immortal emperor didn't care about the Barbarian Emperor, he was staring at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian stared at him with a look of bewilderment. After that, he understood the mid-stage emperor's intention. He then spoke, "You can rest assured that I, Qin, am indebted to the palace mistress. Even if I was to land in Jialan Monarch's hands, I will never betray her and the Thousand Feathers Palace."

"After we plundered the two main mines under the Jialan Monarch's control, the Lifire Palace sent down many extraordinary experts. These people have mysterious abilities and methods and even if you don't want to betray us, it doesn't mean that you wouldn't be controlled. You should know that there are many methods to make someone talk."

"Regardless if you believe in me or not, I have to go." Qin Wentian didn't say anything more as he stared at the mid-stage immortal emperor.

That emperor fell silent. He simply stared back at Qin Wentian and the tension mounted in the air.

Finally, that mid-stage immortal emperor took a step to the side.

"WHAT ARE YOU DOING?" The Barbarian Emperor roared. Qin Wentian glanced at the Barbarian Emperor, instantly causing him to shut up.

Stepping out, Qin Wentian directly departed and soon vanished from the area. That mid-stage immortal emperor turned and coldly looked at the Barbarian Emperor. "If he dies, you will be responsible. Also, the consequences of this matter shall be borne by you alone."

The expression of the Barbarian Emperor stiffened, his countenance turning ashen.

Because of this incident, an immortal emperor among them died. But can this be blamed on Qin Wentian? The four of them wanted to kill him and he merely retaliated.

The Barbarian Emperor hid the matter of Qin Wentian's extraordinary talent from them. He only told them that their palace mistress was infatuated by Qin Wentian. After killing this peak-stage immortal king, the palace mistress will return to normal or they could stand at the side and watch the Thousand Feathers Palace crumbled apart. Hence, this was why the other three immortal emperors acted. But after they fought with Qin Wentian, it was clear that the Barbarian Emperor has lied.

The palace mistress heavily regards Qin Wentian, but this isn't because she was merely infatuated by him.

Once Qin Wentian broke through to the immortal emperor realm, he definitely would become someone with the capabilities to rule over an entire region and there shouldn't be any problems for him to kill a mid-stage emperor. To the Thousand Feathers Palace, such combat prowess was naturally a great aid. But because of the Barbarian Emperor's words, Qin Wentian might really die now when he headed there.

"Also, temporarily stop all operations. Let's hope that he will be fine." That mid-stage immortal emperor sighed. They weren't clear that Beiming Nongyue was actually not captured, and had no idea of the exact situation over at the Jialan Monarch's side. Even if the Barbarian Emperor wanted to harm Qin Wentian, there was no way he would collaborate with the Jialan Monarch. If he did so, he would simply be sending himself to death. He told others to spread the news about Qin Wentian's bandit identity and caused the Jialan Monarch to send out a warrant.

"Temporarily hide this matter from the palace mistress." The other immortal emperor spoke. Everyone nodded. It would be best to not tell anything to Ye Qianyu for now or things might be terrible if she decided to head to Jialan Emperor City too.

"You guys really think I'm a fool?" A voice suddenly rang out, causing their gazes to stiffen. They inclined their heads and stared in a direction only to see a beautiful figure with a small-size lion appearing.

"Palace mistress." That mid-stage immortal emperor froze.

"A`mun, I'm truly very disappointed with you." Ye Qianyu glanced at the Barbarian Emperor as she spoke.

The Barbarian Emperor trembled. He shielded his contorting expression from Ye Qianyu as he felt cold in his heart.

"You once asked me why you cannot compare to him. A`mun, let me ask you this now. Do you have anything that can be compared to him at all?" Ye Qianyu bluntly spoke. The Barbarian Emperor clenched his fists, feeling shame coursing through him.

"If you were not the disciple of my father, I would have already killed you right here and now for this matter." Ye Qianyu's voice was cold to the extreme. The Barbarian Emperor's actions had touched her bottom line. As a female, she controlled the bandit group in the dark and it was naturally an extremely dangerous thing. The Barbarian Emperor was part of the core group. If there were any individuals in the core group that had problems, that might affect the lives of everyone else.

In order to take revenge on Qin Wentian, the Barbarian Emperor attempted again and again to kill him. If Qin Wentian harbored hatred and leaked their whereabouts, wouldn't the entire core group of the bandit group die without a burial place?

"Pay close attention to him. I will decide his punishment after this matter is over. If he is defiant and refuses to comply, kill him without mercy. Also, if something happens to me, immediately disband our Thousand Feathers Palace and everyone else is to go on their own separate path." Ye Qianyu commanded.

"Palace mistress." The expressions of the mid-stage immortal emperor drastically changed. "Palace mistress, why must you take the risk? Why don't we directly capture Qin Wentian and stop him from heading there?"

"There are some things that are unstoppable. If not, if he hates me because of this, everything else would already have no meaning." Ye Qianyu sighed.

"Even so, why must palace mistress personally headover to take the risk? Is it really worth it?" That mid-stage immortal emperor asked.

"My identity wasn't exposed, and I will naturally act according to the circumstances. Also, with little lion here, if something really did happen, I would still be able to escape." Ye Qianyu smiled. After that, she turned and chased after Qin Wentian.

That mid-stage immortal emperor glanced at the vanishing back of Ye Qianyu. After that, he turned to the Barbarian Emperor as killing intent gleamed in his eyes. "If something really happens to the palace mistress, I will make sure that you get buried as well."

Chapter 1558: Trap

Qin Wentian had arrived in Jialan Emperor City. One of his astral souls was of the phantasm-type and was able to change his features, masking his aura with illusions.

The arrest warrant was real. The Barbarian Emperor didn't lie to him about that. Qin Wentian attempted to contact Beiming Youhuang again but he still received no reply. It was unknown how many times he had tried to do so. This further confirmed his theory that Beiming Youhuang really ran into trouble. The Barbarian Emperor had betrayed her.

Qin Wentian wasn't clear about the Lifire Palace's situation and had no idea about Beiming Youhuang's current status in the Lifire Palace. But he knew that everything he has seen so far has further ascertained his notion that Beiming Youhuang was in trouble. In fact, he even heard that tomorrow at noon, the Jialan Monarch and the punishment department of the city was going to execute Beiming Youhuang. Clearly, this was to draw him out. If not, the Jialan Monarch could easily have killed Beiming Youhuang after she was captured.

However, although he knew of the Jialan Monarch's scheme, he still had to come here. Him being a bandit had nothing to do with Beiming Youhuang. Even until now, the bandit they caught wasn't Beiming Youhuang.

During the second day, the punishment stage of Jialan Emperor City was extremely lively with many experts gathered. Under the harsh light of the sun, the people on the streets felt a little uncomfortable.

The punishment stage was in the southern area of the emperor city and had its back facing a mountain. It was extremely large and was blood-colored. Through history, many bandits, including those who broke the laws of the city, had been executed before on this stage. It can be said that its mere presence was able to cause fear in the hearts of the people here.

At this moment, a large black cage could be seen on the punishment stage. It was constructed with blackstones and was incomparably durable and tough. Immortal sense had no way to permeate it. Trapped within the cage, was naturally the person that was about to be executed.

Right now, many gathered below the stage. They heard that the prisoner was supposedly a supreme beauty and was a core figure in the bandit group who plundered the mines ten years ago.

Many people started to discuss, some of them silently sighed in their hearts at how unlucky the supreme beauty was and she would most probably die today.

Qin Wentian was within the crowd. His immortal sense permeated the surroundings and naturally discovered that the experts here were as numerous as clouds. On the stage, two immortal emperors guarding the cage could be seen. Also, there were quite a few more immortal emperors in the shadows. How could anyone attempt to cause trouble for such a powerful group?

The sun continued rising, its light growing brighter and brighter.

At this moment, a few figures flew through the air. The Jialan Monarch was also in this group, he personally arrived at the punishment stage.

Beside Jialan Monarch, there was also an extraordinary figure who had a very high cultivation base at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm. His name was Crow Immortal Emperor and was someone sent here by the Lifire Palace. He was here to cooperate with the Jialan Monarch's operation.

"Jialan, are you sure he will show up?" Crow transmitted his voice to the Jialan Monarch.

"That fellow and Beiming Youhuang have an extraordinary relationship. Even if he doesn't come to save her, he should still be here to take a look. In any case, even if our strategy fails, we will at most waste some time. At that time, I will compensate Mister Crow." The Jialan Monarch transmitted his voice in reply.

"Since this is the case, I'll wait and see then." Crow didn't say anything more. The Jialan Monarch then waved his hand as a powerful energy enveloped a certain radius, sealing everyone here. After that, a powerful regiment of troops appeared. Not only that, for all locations that could be reached by an immortal emperor's immortal sense, there were also guards stationed there.

The immortal emperors acting as guards today directly took out their emperor-ranked weapons which glowed brilliantly with light. In an instant, boundless emperor might swept through the eight directions, causing the crowd to be completely stunned as they watched this scene in a daze. What was going on?

"Everyone." At this moment, the Jialan Monarch spoke. His voice thundered through the vast area.

"Today, I, Jialan, am going to capture some bandits here. If I offended you guys with my actions, please forgive me. The bandits are running rampant and I cannot allow them to do so. Right now, I want everyone not to move from your original location or you will directly be deemed as a bandit and killed on the spot. If you are killed by mistake, don't blame me." The Jialan Monarch's voice suddenly turned cold and solemn. He then continued, "Naturally, if the investigation shows that you guys are not bandits, I will naturally free all of you. I only want your cooperation, as long as you comply with me, there's no need to worry about being killed by mistake. For this point, this Monarch can guarantee it."

The hearts of everyone trembled. This Jialan Monarch set up such a trap just to lure some bandits to appear? He sealed the entire space and was planning to check the people here one by one.

Within the crowd, Qin Wentian's heart trembled. His expression turned extremely unsightly.

This Jialan Monarch is truly ruthless enough. He arranged for such a trap. Was the Jialan Monarch gambling that he would show up?

If he didn't show up, wouldn't all his efforts in arranging this elaborate trap be for naught?

However, he still came. Despite knowing that the other party had schemes, he still came here because this matter has to do with the life and death of Beiming Youhuang. Maybe the Jialan Monarch would think that he was foolish but this was how he, Qin Wentian, has always been.

"Start the check." The Jialan Monarch commanded. The guards in the surroundings started to get the crowd to form lines and led them to immortal emperors for checking. The method of checking was very simple. From one's astral energy fluctuation, law attributes, astral souls. Although the facial features of people might be disguised, they won't be able to hide from such a detailed check.

Qin Wentian glanced at the cage on the punishment stage. Although he knew this was nothing but a sinister plot, he couldn't help but wonder if Beiming Youhuang was really inside there. He stared at everything with concern but the Jialan Monarch didn't seem to have any intentions of opening the cage.

The speed of the checking was very quick. Numerous people were already released. In this case, it would be Qin Wentian's turn sooner or later.

At this moment, a figure suddenly appeared in this sealed space. When the guards saw the person, all of them started but they didn't block that person, and allowed that person to continue proceeding forward.

"Why are you here for?" The Jialan Monarch frowned as he stared at the figure before him. It was actually his daughter, Jialan Mingyue.

"Father." Jialan Mingyue walked to the Jialan Monarch's side but an instant later, she suddenly took out a divine weapon and launched a sneak attack at the Jialan Monarch's eyes. This scene caused everyone to be stunned. Even the Jialan Monarch was stunned. A burst of violent emperor might erupt forth as Jialan Mingyue's eyes gleamed with a green light, shooting straight into the Jialan Monarch's mind.

"SCRAM!" The Jialan Monarch howled. Yet at this moment, Jialan Mingyue spoke in a voice unlike hers, "Jialan, you are so naive."

After that, the weapon in Jialan Mingyue's hand slashed towards her own throat. The Jialan Monarch's expression drastically changed. He struck out with his palm, knocking the weapon out of his daughter's hand but the soul attack on his mind increased in severity. A tiny lion could be seen in his mind's eye, fighting with a giant beast that had both the characteristics of a snake and a dragon.

"Jialan, your emperor palace is under attack." Another voice rang out in his mind. Jialan Monarch's expression turned ashen. This was a message transmitted by one of his wives, using her immortal sense to contact his in the messaging crystal.

His figure flashed, he knocked Jialan Mingyue unconscious before taking her with him as he soared up the sky. He then waved his hand, "Everyone, return to the emperor palace!"

The Crow Emperor's dark eyes flashed with uncertainty. After that, he smiled and spoke, "Things are getting interesting and this is an unexpected joy. Jialan, I will need a batch of guards to remain with me."

The eyes of the Jialan Monarch flickered, he instantly understood Crow's meaning. Maybe the bandits were trying to lure him away from here. They could have sinister plots, but so could the other party. However, since the bandits even controlled his daughter, things were clearly not so simple. It was an unexpected joy like what the Crow Emperor has said. Seems like they have not only lured Qin Wentian out, there must also be some other extremely important characters that were also lured out. Maybe, it was that leader of the bandit group herself.

But even so, he had no choice but to return as his emperor palace was under attack. After he gave the command for some of his guards to remain, he brought the others and sped back towards the emperor palace.

The eyes of the Crow Emperor coldly regard the surrounding. The Jialan Monarch's emperor palace was attacked at such an opportune timing? Clearly, this was a scheme to disrupt the Jialan Monarch's state of heart. However, the destruction of Jialan's palace had nothing to do with him. Hence, he was still very clear-minded. Why did the other party control Jialan Mingyue to come here instead of killing her off directly? Everything was done to mess with the Jialan Monarch's mind! There was only a single purpose for doing so. They wanted to cause chaos so the bandits who were lured out here today, would be able to seize a chance to escape! This means that there are definitely bandits among the crowd today.

Who would have thought that this plan by the Jialan Monarch would actually net someone more important than their original target? Things were truly getting interesting.

"Continue with the check. Do not miss out a single one." The Crow Emperor coldly laughed.

Qin Wentian, who was among the crowd, had a shocked look on his face. There actually was someone attacking the emperor palace to help him out? Other than Ye Qianyu, who else could there be? In the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, he was only acquainted with Beiming Youhuang and Ye Qianyu.

Upon thinking of her, Qin Wentian couldn't help but to sigh in his heart. He didn't understand. Why had Ye Qianyu come here?

In the air, night descended completely, blocking out the light from the sun. Everyone inclined their heads only to see a stretch of darkness engulfing everything.

"Leave now!" A voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. This was Ye Qianyu's voice. His silhouette flashed, as numerous spatial gates appeared in his surroundings. The phantoms he created all stepped through different spatial gates, heading off in different directions.

The Crow Emperor lifted his head. Black wings appeared behind him and his speed was as fast as lightning as he soared up into the air. A moment later, a thunderous boom rang out. Qin Wentian glanced over and knew that the Crow Emperor had engaged Ye Qianyu in battle.

Emperor light flashed, destroying the majority of Qin Wentian's phantoms. However, Qin Wentian himself continuously stepped through spatial gates with extreme speed. When all the phantoms had been destroyed, he had already come to the boundary of the sealed space. Before his eyes, an immortal emperor and a group of immortal kings were on guard here.

Chapter 1559: Sculpture

"It's him." The eyes of this group stared at Qin Wentian as they instantly flew over.

Qin Wentian radiated a resplendent radiance. In an instant, his laws of light enveloped everything, seeping into the bodies of his opponents. Every beam of light seemed to contain a supreme sword intent. The immortal kings were directly penetrated as their bodies disintegrated amidst their screams of pain and agony. They died one after the other.

The immortal emperor here had a look of great shock on his face. He only saw Qin Wentian taking a step forward as a spatial gate appeared. In the next instant, Qin Wentian had already arrived before him. With just a single glance, the immortal emperor sank into an eye-technique dimension as the swords of light rained down on him. He madly resisted but there was no way for him to escape. Qin Wentian's strength was absolutely enough to kill him. He could only watch in despair as the light disintegrated his flesh bit by bit.

With a loud boom! The immortal emperor disappeared and Qin Wentian passed by him. Everything happened within an instant.

A spatial gate flickered into existence, Qin Wentian stepped through and fled away. When he first came here to Jialan Emperor City, he thought he could depend on his abilities to conceal everything and act when there was an opportunity. It should be very difficult even if the Jialan Monarch wanted to capture him. However, he clearly had underestimated the Jialan Monarch, who was one of the nine monarchs under the Lifire Empyrean. There was no need for any reason at all when he did things. Even if there are wasted efforts, the Jialan Monarch didn't care and went ahead to arrange such a huge trap. As long as he did come, he would find it tough to escape even if given wings.

What Qin Wentian wanted to do was to escape this giant invisible web laid by the Jialan Monarch. As long as he could flee from this region, given his illusionary abilities, it was pretty much impossible for him to be found out in a sea of humans.

Beams of emperor light hurriedly shot towards Qin Wentian as violent bursts of law energy flooded the area around him. Qin Wentian wanted to use his spatial gate and escape but he directly slammed into a golden wall that suddenly appeared before him. After that, he saw an immortal emperor clad in golden armor, exuding an aura of invincibility, standing before him.

Qin Wentian lifted his fist. A moment later, the laws of light transformed into a resplendent beam of fist light that blasted explosively outwards. Shadows of the punches filled the sky, all of them aiming for that immortal emperor. The golden armor of that initial-stage immortal emperor exploded as he died in a single attack.

"How strong." The surrounding experts, who just got here, felt their heart trembling. What innate technique was that? The power unleashed was so shockingly great. The powerful fist of radiance illuminated the sky, destroying everything that came into contact with it. For such a punch, even initial-stage immortal emperors dared not block it unprepared.

Although Qin Wentian killed an emperor, the pursuers continued to chase him. Right now, two mid-stage immortal emperors with emperor-ranked weapons appeared before him. One of the mid-stage immortal kings slashed out with a green light that seemed extremely strange. It directly blasted into Qin Wentian's body.

In an instant, Qin Wentian felt his body growing numb as his body convulsed involuntarily. This was much more critical compared to direct attacks. He had an undying body and a life-attributed astral soul. Ordinary attacks might be able to crumble his body but he would soon be able to regenerate. However, this strike actually caused his entire body to turn numb. Even his soul was convulsing as well.

A giant axe descended, cleaving down at Qin Wentian. It brimmed with purple light, filled with the power of thunder.

"Bzz~" All of a sudden, two streaks of black lightning blasted towards the two mid-stage emperors. They inclined their heads and had a heavy expression on their faces. They could no longer bother with killing Qin Wentian, they had to retaliate to save their own lives. The darkness of the night filled the area. Ye Qianyu transformed into a thousand spirit bodies as she rushed to save Qin Wentian.

"Hmph." From behind, a surge of terrifying power bore down on everything, destroying the spirit bodies Ye Qianyu created. After that, a seal in the shape of a crow directly slammed into Ye Qianyu, who was still rushing towards Qin Wentian. This caused a streak of crow-black light to shine in Ye Qianyu's eyes as she started to exude death qi.

"Palace mistress!" Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed. The vines from an ancient tree entwined around Ye Qianyu as life-attributed law energy poured into her body madly.

"Silly guy." Ye Qianyu smiled, as charming as ever. However, the Qin Wentian now didn't feel that this smile was filled with charm and the intention to mesmerize. To him, the smile now was filled with poignant beauty.

"Palace mistress, why must you do this?" Qin Wentian transmitted his voice and asked. He didn't understand why Ye Qianyu would go all out and risk exposure for him, entering the tiger's den, coming here to Jialan Emperor City. Could it be she didn't know the person Jialan Monarch wanted to deal with the most, was her? She was the leader of the bandit group, Ye Qianyu!

The plan behind this entire scheme was clearly to capture Ye Qianyu. But even so, she came forth with no hesitation and exposed her identity.

Before this, although Ye Qianyu treated him well and tried to win him over, it could be attributed to his talent, and for him to help her out after he grew stronger in the future.

But now, she risked her life by coming here.

"Why did you come then? That's the reason why I came here too." Ye Qianyu smiled. A gentle force pushed Qin Wentian away. Ye Qianyu manifested numerous spirit bodies which all rushed out and fought with the enemy experts.

"If you don't leave now, I will be distracted having to be concerned about you and might affect my probability to escape." Ye Qianyu spoke in a light tone of voice, as charming as ever. Qin Wentian saw her blocking the Crow Emperor's attack on his behalf as he felt speechless in his heart. If he stayed here, he would really be nothing but a burden to Ye Qianyu.

"Swish~" Spatial fluctuations could be felt, Qin Wentian directly stepped into a spatial gate, into the void. Experts from all directions came to stop him, but with a roar of anger, his laws of light erupted forth, transforming into sharp swords that killed everyone below the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm. To him, these characters were of no threat at all.

He turned his head back for another glance, only to see Ye Qianyu being lashed by that bizarre whip. When he saw that, it felt like his heart was the thing being lashed at instead.

"Palace mistress!" Qin Wentian wanted very much to kill his way back. However, he was afraid that Ye Qianyu could have escaped but after he joined in, he might screw things up for her. Hence, he could only grit his teeth and kept manifesting spatial gates as he departed from the battlefield. On his way, he kept changing his features until the immortal senses of his pursuers could no longer track him.

When the battle intensified here, the Jialan Monarch's emperor palace was in chaos as well. The Evil Emperor ravaged through the palace and directly captured many of the Jialan Monarch's descendants. After that, when the Jialan Monarch returned, he actually avoided the fight and fled away. The Jialan Monarch chased after him frenziedly, the atmosphere of the entire emperor city was incredibly tense.

In the Emperor City, Qin Wentian, who had changed his facial features once more, kept waiting here for news about Ye Qianyu. However, no matter how long he waited, he didn't receive any. The end result of that battle seemed to be sealed, everyone was ignorant of it. Only those in the upper echelons of the emperor city knew that the bandit leader had appeared and it was actually a female with a very high cultivation base. Her strength was tyrannical and the Lifire Palace even sent out a few peak-stage immortal emperors to deal with her.

At night, the lonesome wind was filled with a cold intent as it breezed past Qin Wentian.

That stretch of beautiful lake waters was as prosperous and lively as ever. Despite the large-scale battle that recently occurred in the emperor city, it was still unable to obstruct the passion of those who came here to tour. Qin Wentian was sitting in a tiny boat, basking in the wind as he felt a little cold.

He came back to the place where he met with Beiming Youhuang then. This was also the same place where Ye Qianyu astounded everyone here with her dance. He glanced at that pavillion where she danced. That place basked in the moonlight, with zither music permeating the atmosphere. There were also other maidens dancing but they completely didn't have Ye Qianyu's charm. Her alluring dance, her beautiful figure and face, once again appeared in Qin Wentian's mind.

Just like what she had said. After that night, it was extremely difficult for him to forget her.

"Carry me then."

"If you like me, maybe I wouldn't reject it."

"Maybe, I don't even mind even if I become your concubine. Do you want to try it out?"

"Why did you come then? That's the reason why I came here too." Her voice reverberated in his mind. He did so because he cared for Beiming Youhuang. That was why he went.

Ye Qianyu did so because she cared for him. This was why she went.

Things happened so quickly without much time for him to react. Right now, in his mind's eyes, he didn't see Beiming Youhuang. Ye Qianyu was the one in his mind instead.

"What happened?" A voice suddenly rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. Qin Wentian was like he got struck by lightning and instantly froze there.

This was Beiming Youhuang's voice, transmitted to him through her immortal sense in his messaging crystal.

He took out the crystal and send his immortal sense in, "Youhuang, you weren't captured by the Jialan Monarch?"

"I took a mission given by the Lifire Palace and went into a secret realm. I was not allowed to bring any external items, including the messaging crystal." Beiming Youhuang replied. Qin Wentian's heart trembled fiercely as a look of pain appeared on his face.

"I understand." Qin Wentian replied. After that, no matter what Beiming Youhuang said, he didn't reply. It was just like how he tried to message Ye Qianyu, she didn't reply.

"Qin Wentian, what's going on exactly? Did something happen to you?" Beiming Youhuang's voice was filled with hints of worry. However, it was like Qin Wentian didn't hear it at all. He walked onto the boat and took out an emperor stone as he sat down and started sculpting, changing the form of the stone.

"Can you sculpt a figurine of me?" Qin Wentian recalled Ye Qianyu's voice.

A dagger formed from law energy continuously moved in an intricate fashion as a beautiful face gradually appeared. This sculpture was extremely vivid and life-like, and even exuded the charm of a supreme beauty.

As Qin Wentian immersed himself in sculpting, the law energy from his body started circulating unbiddenly. Faintly, a beam of resplendent astral light fell from the sky, he was bathing unconsciously in the starlight!

Chapter 1560: The Cold Lake

On the boat, the starlight cascaded down, lighting up the lake's water.

Numerous gazes shot towards the boat Qin Wentian was in as the people in the surroundings felt their hearts trembling in shock.

Starlight falling from the sky, sharing a resonance with one's constellation. This was an indication of the immortal emperor realm. The aura of that young man who was sculpting gradually rose as he underwent a baptism by the emperor light. The astral light radiating from Qin Wentian grew brighter and brighter as his understanding of laws grew stronger. He was in the midst of a transformation, in the midst of breaking through to the next realm.

"Breaking through using sculpting as a medium?" The hearts of many trembled. They had heard of many methods to break through before but it was very rare to hear that someone broke through while sculpting. Also, the stone in the young man's hand gradually took the form of a human. It was an extremely life-like woman whose smile could charm everything. Her eyes were filled with passion, a truly excellent creature indeed. Just a single glance at her would cause one's heart to stir.

"What a beautiful maiden." Many people felt their hearts trembling. Although it was just a sculpture, they could see the finer details and intricate lines of the maiden's face. This sculpture was already so stunning. Wouldn't her real person be even more breathtaking? Was this young man longing for her?

Or maybe, this young man has fallen out of love and failed to pursue the woman of his heart. Hence, he decided to pour out his emotions in sculpting and managed to break through under a series of lucky coincidences?

Nobody would know the actual reason.

However, the female sculpture was clearly extremely beautiful already but the young man didn't stop. He was currently carving minute details, trying to completely perfect it. The intricate lines made it seem as though the sculpture was alive. Her robes fluttered in the wind, her lithe and alluring figure, all of these factors that were mesmerizing to the extreme were captured perfectly. However, none of the crowd had any profane thoughts. They were content in watching this seemingly divine sight.

His actions grew slower as a smile lit up his eyes. Staring at the sculpture, his smile grew gentler.

The astral light grew stronger and stronger, enveloping Qin Wentian. The surrounding waters were all lit up so brightly that it felt like day. Countless people were naturally attracted over as they turned their gazes here. Although immortal emperors would occasionally appear on this lake as well, they were considered pretty rare.

Qin Wentian was completely immersed in his own world. He clearly had forgotten where he was and didn't even know his current state. His body was resonating with his constellation. This state was extremely miraculous and was a kind of epiphany.

"Can you sculpt a figurine of me?"

In Qin Wentian's mind, Ye Qianyu's voice continued to reverberate. Her passionate eyes and charming smile was able to mesmerize anyone. With her occupying his mind, he continued sculpting. A few moments later, the dagger formed of law energy gradually dissipated, transforming back into astral light. A radiant smile lit up Qin Wentian's face as he stared at this sculpture.

"The sculpture you wanted, I've already completed it for you." Qin Wentian smiled, as though he was talking to Ye Qianyu, Sadly, there was no reply. There was only silence in his surroundings.

At this moment, numerous experts with frightening auras appeared in the air above Qin Wentian, and there were quite a few immortal emperors among them. They were all coldly staring at Qin Wentian, as well as the sculpture in his hand. Was this the reason why the bandit lordess herself came?

Many people initially thought Qin Wentian wouldn't appear despite using Beiming Youhuang as the bait and it would be a waste of effort. However, they actually thought wrongly. Not only did Qin Wentian show up, even the bandit lordess herself and the Evil Emperor also appeared in the emperor city.

They didn't expect these people would be so foolish.

"Qin Wentian, as a person from the Jialan Monarch's territory, you initially had the chance to become a legitimate subordinate yet you actually chose to be a bandit. This crime is simply unpardonable. Now, you should return with me and on account of your strength, the Monarch will surely show mercy and spare your life, you would even able to clear your crimes by establishing more achievements." An immortal emperor spoke. Although Qin Wentian's features were disguised, how could they not know who this young man sitting in the boat was?

Qin Wentian didn't reply, he quietly sat there. That immortal emperor nervously stared at Qin Wentian. Although he looked calm externally, his heart was filled with trepidation.

Qin Wentian's combat prowess was too terrifying, able to kill immortal emperors when he was just at the immortal king realm. Now that he has broken through, resonating with his constellation, how could his strength have increased by merely a bit?

If it wasn't for him fearing Qin Wentian's strength, why would he waste the time to talk so much nonsense? He even said that Qin Wentian would be allowed to clear his crime by establishing achievements. In reality, he only wanted to delay Qin Wentian, the Jialan Monarch would personally rush here as soon as possible.

Not only him, but the experts in the surroundings also didn't dare to act recklessly. But the Jialan Monarch just commanded them through the messaging crystal to capture Qin Wentian. What could they do? They could only grit their teeth and come here but nobody dared to act.

"Where is she?" Qin Wentian's gaze was still on the sculpture. He asked in a soft voice, he didn't even look at the experts gathered here, or that emperor who just spoke. Maybe, all of these people were nothing in his eyes.

Everyone naturally knew who the 'she' in his words was referring to. That immortal emperor's expression changed. He didn't dare to disobey the Jialan Monarch's order, but since he wasn't confident that he could defeat Qin Wentian, he would do his best to delay as long as possible.

"You will naturally know after meeting the Monarch. Qin Wentian, come with me. I won't make things difficult for you." The voice of that immortal emperor was extremely calm, causing many people in the surroundings to feel that this man had quite an excellent demeanor. As expected of an emperor under the Jialan Monarch, he was truly extraordinary. Even when facing a bandit, he could be so magnanimous. From this, one could see how broad his heart was.

"Where is she?" It was like Qin Wentian hadn't even heard his words. He softly repeated what he said. Although the tone of his voice was incomparably calm, that immortal emperor could feel the weight it contained. His expression turned heavy and glanced at Qin Wentian, "You will be able to see her if you follow me back to the palace. In addition, you would even be able to see Beiming Youhuang."

As the sound of the immortal emperor's voice faded, the sculpture in Qin Wentian's hands vanished as he kept it. Qin Wentian slowly stood up and inclined his head, glancing at that immortal emperor.

With just a single glance, that immortal emperor felt the world changing around him as he fell into an illusion. This illusion made him appear on the punishment stage and he was trapped there with chains penetrating his body. It looked like he was prepared to accept the baptism of death.

"NO! This is an illusion!" His will struggled madly, telling himself this was a false scene and not reality. He mustn't believe in it.

However, it was useless. Although he knew everything was just an illusion, he still could not break free from it. Right now, it was like he was heavily injured and was on the verge of death. Even his strength had been sealed away and the only fate remaining to him was to wait for death,

A beam of light fell from the sky, this was like a sword of punishment. The immortal emperor howled loudly as a terrifying strength erupted forth from his body. But no matter what he did, he couldn't block this incomparably resplendent sword.

With a piercing sound, the sword slashed down. That immortal emperor only felt himself being chained to the stage. But at this moment, as though to specially mock him, the illusion from before had completely disappeared.

A slight wind gusted by but the immortal emperor had no mood to enjoy the feel of it. There was only despair and fear in his heart.

Although everything was an illusion, the sword of light that slashed down, was real.

As the sound of piercing echoed forth, the corpse of an immortal emperor fell inside the beautiful lake. Just not too long ago, many people felt that this immortal emperor's demeanor was extraordinary. But this scene which happened in the blink of an eye, caused all of them to feel their hearts tremble.

So it turned out that this immortal emperor was merely pretending to be calm. He had never dared to act from the start.

He was killed, by just a single sword attack.

A manifestation of a pair of terrifying eyes could be seen floating in the air. This exuded a bizarre energy and with just a glance at it, it was sufficient to cause people in the surroundings to sink into an illusion. The other people in the surroundings all fell into it. The innocent crowd became the spectators, staring up at the punishment stage. As for the other subordinates of the Jialan Monarch, they were all chained there like criminals, preparing to accept the punishment.

All the Jialan Monarch's subordinates had panic and fear in their eyes. Before this, they personally saw an immortal emperor dying of unknown causes. Most probably, their experiences now were what that immortal emperor had experienced before his death. The indication of this caused all of them to shiver in terror.

The reality was as they expected. When the sword of light slashed down, the thing they feared most, turned into reality. All the enemy experts turned into corpses that fell into the lake waters.

This time around, the Jialan Monarch's operation did reap great harvests as he managed to draw the bandit leader out. However, to his subordinates, this was nothing but a calamity. Even quite a number of immortal emperors had died, including the descendants of the Jialan Monarch. From this perspective, can it really be considered that the Jialan Monarch was victorious?

In addition, everything hasn't concluded yet. In the future, if everything could start over again, maybe the Jialan Monarch wouldn't dare to plan this operation.

At this moment, another gust of gentle wind blew by as everyone else woke up from the illusion. When they saw the corpses of the experts floating on the lake, they suddenly felt that the wind was cold, so cold that it pierced deep into the bones.

They turned their gazes over to the lonely-looking small boat drifting into the distance. At this moment, the young man who was sitting on it, was no longer present. It was like he has never appeared before.

Chapter 1561: Entering the Emperor Palace

The Jialan Monarch had arrived at the sky above the lake. He glanced at the fallen corpses as his face turned as unsightly as it could turn.

How long was that only? He had already rushed here with his greatest speed but he was still too late. Can an immortal king really be so powerful to this extent?

"Who can tell me what happened here earlier?" The Jialan Monarch swept his gaze towards the people on the dragon boats floating about on the lake.

"Reporting to your majesty, Qin Wentian has already broken through. He was sculpting under the moonlight and in that state of immersion, he broke through to the immortal emperor realm." Some of the people explained to the Jialan Monarch. The eyes of the Jialan Monarch gleamed with sharpness, how could this be?

The Jialan Monarch was one of the nine great monarchs under the Lifire Empyrean. He managed to occupy this position despite being just at the mid-stage emperor realm and hence, there was no need to doubt his strength and talent. Other than this, there was naturally support from his background too. The Jialan Monarch came from an extremely powerful sect. In the Lifire Palace, even the Lifire Empyrean might not be able to intimidate the Jialan Monarch's background.

Hence, one could tell that the Jialan Monarch's horizons were extremely broad and he has seen many geniuses before. However, Qin Wentian completely toppled his knowledge. When he first met Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian was only at the immortal-foundation level. After that when he learned about Qin Wentian being a bandit, Qin Wentian was at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm. At that time, he was already doubting whether the information was real. But the corpses of his subordinates in the water now undoubtedly verified everything.

Currently, Qin Wentian suddenly broke through to the immortal emperor realm?

Was this a joke?

Evidently, no one was laughing. No matter how great the guts of the people here are, they wouldn't dare to make such a joke before him, the Jialan Monarch. The gazes of everyone here had proved everything. Qin Wentian has truly reached the emperor realm.

He only took a mere twenty-plus years to break through from immortal-foundation to immortal emperor. Is this possible?

This should be impossible, but it actually happened. In that case, there was only one possibility. Back then, Qin Wentian in reality, was never at the immortal-foundation realm, but was already at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm. It was unknown what methods he used to conceal his cultivation base. Even he, a mid-stage immortal emperor, couldn't see through Qin Wentian's real cultivation. If that was the case, it would better explain the apprentice sibling relationship between Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian.

An immortal emperor, and a peak-stage immortal king.

"Convey my orders, return to the emperor palace." The Jialan Monarch waved his hand. He had more important things to do and had to request reinforcements from the Lifire Palace.

The identity of the bandit leader was already revealed. He couldn't allow the emperor city to be unguarded as the Evil Emperor and Qin Wentian were both still not captured. Hence, he chose to leave this place as fast as possible.

.....

Qin Wentian was actually still in the emperor city. He has been quietly waiting for news of Ye Qianyu. Only after several days did some news regarding her start to circulate around the city.

After that battle, Ye Qianyu was injured but she managed to break out of the siege of enemies eventually. Even so, she didn't manage to escape and was ultimately captured. Her identity was exposed then, the number one beauty of Heavenly City, also the palace mistress of the Thousand Feathers Palace.

Given the Jialan Monarch's background, there was naturally no way he didn't manage to investigate her. Hence, the Jialan Monarch requested reinforcements from the Lifire Palace and he wanted to rush to Heavenly City, preparing to uproot the Thousand Feathers Palace completely.

Ye Qianyu has been captured and her place of imprisonment was unclear. Most probably, these people would think up a scheme again centering around Ye Qianyu to draw the rest of the bandits out.

However, this time around, the Jialan Monarch didn't dare to act too recklessly. There was only one reason. The Evil Emperor captured many of his descendants and left instead of clashing head-on with him.

The tyrannical lion king, the Evil Emperor, clearly prepared a path of retreat in advance. This caused the Jialan Monarch to feel extremely anxious.

The Jialan Monarch even requested the Lifire Empyrean to use Ye Qianyu to exchange for hostages as they make up a plan to capture all the bandits. This suggestion was immediately shot down by the Lifire Empyrean. The Lifire Empyrean berated him for throwing the Lifire Palace's face, he couldn't do anything well and encountered plunders by bandits who did what they wished. Not only so, many subordinates of his were even killed. If it wasn't for him sending the Crow Emperor to suppress Ye Qianyu, the Jialan Monarch's city might even have been taken over. The Jialan Monarch was one of the nine monarchs ruling over an area. Even if he was incompetent, he actually even dared to bring up the point of using the bandit leader to exchange for his descendants where Ye Qianyu wasn't captured by him at all.

In any case, although the bandit leader has been captured, it had nothing to do with the Jialan Monarch. He wasn't the one to capture her and in addition, he had suffered heavy losses. Those who died were all his subordinates, and those captured, were none other than his family members.

The Jialan Monarch naturally felt extremely enraged but he was helpless to do anything and understood that he had to first steady his mind. He knew that the Lifire Empyrean has always been looking for an excuse to knock him down from his position and was just waiting for him to make a mistake. Although he was one of the nine monarchs under the Lifire Empyrean, he clearly understood how he obtained this position. It wasn't merely due to his strength, there were also many other factors in play.

Today, the Evil Emperor finally appeared. He sent a message to the Jialan Monarch telling him to bring Ye Qianyu to exchange for hostages or be prepared to suffer the consequences. The Jialan Monarch wanted to act but at this moment, the Lifire Palace took matters into their own hands and sent experts over. This made the Jialan Monarch extremely unhappy but he had no way to object. The Lifire Palace sent many experts to head to the place where the hostage exchange was to take place, but they didn't bring Ye Qianyu along.

Ye Qianyu, was no longer in the control of the Jialan Monarch.

After the Jialan Monarch left, Beiming Youhuang and many experts arrived within his emperor palace. Beiming Youhuang's aura was cold as a frosty expression appeared on her face. Compared to the past, her demeanor changed, turning even colder. Her cultivation also grew stronger and has broken through to the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm.

However, Beiming Youhuang didn't feel any joy at all. After she learned of what happened when she exited her seclusion, she only felt coldness in her heart. The Lifire Empyrean's perfect scheme of using her by sending her into a secret realm was the truth. But there was also no doubt he treated her very well to the extent where he didn't force her to do anything she was unwilling to. Everyone has already learned of Qin Wentian and knew that Beiming Youhuang was his senior sister. However, nobody mentioned anything about it.

Before this, when she went to meet the Lifire Empyrean, the empyrean didn't speak of his scheme that had succeeded as well. He merely smiled and showed concern for her cultivation. What could she do then? What could she say?

As the princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, as well as their number one talent, she has never been made use of by others before. From this, her perspective on the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms grew clearer. Superpowers sat at the peak of the world but within the territories they controlled, there would always be people fighting and scheming against each other, both sides using mutual deception.

"Beiming." In the Jialan Palace, the Crow Emperor glanced at her and smiled, "Congratulations on your breakthrough."

"Just the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm." Beiming Youhuang's expression was still cold, she didn't really care about the Crow Emperor.

Crow still smiled at her. Although he was a peak-stage immortal emperor of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, and had seen countless beauties before, a woman with Beiming Youhuang's beauty and demeanor was still considered extremely rare. No matter who it was, they would only feel joy in their hearts and admiration from their soul when they saw such beauty. No wonder the Jialan Monarch wanted her to become one of his guards before this.

Both her facial features and figure, were unquestionable, causing people to drool.

"Beiming, you've gained the appreciation of our empyrean, your future is sure to be boundless." The Crow Emperor smiled meaningfully.

"I will naturally engrave the kindness of the Lifire Empyrean in my heart." Beiming Youhuang coldly spoke. Crow simply smiled, after that he continued in a low voice, "You should know that our palace lord, the Lifire Empyrean, has always been very unhappy with the Jialan Monarch. Who knows that in the future, you might have the chance to replace the Jialan Monarch and become one of the nine monarchs."

Although the Crow Emperor was a peak-stage emperor, he knew his talent was inferior to the Jialan Monarch. All in all, there were only a total of nine positions under the Lifire Empyrean and each of the monarchs naturally had sufficient reasons to sit in that position. Although he was considered a direct subordinate of the Lifire Empyrean, how can his status be compared to a monarch that could rule over a stretch of territories?

Each of the nine monarchs had complete control and authority over the territories they were managing. It was considered an extremely lucrative position.

"If the palace lord has made the arrangements, I will naturally comply." Beiming Youhuang calmly spoke before she walked away. The Crow Emperor glanced at her beautiful back as a faint smile appeared in his eyes. This woman and that bandit lord he captured, both of them have different kinds of beauty. Sadly, he wasn't able to get his hands on either of them.

"Mhm?" At this moment, Crow's eyes gleamed with coldness, staring at a certain direction, at the boundary of the emperor palace. A meaningful smile then appeared on his face as his silhouette flashed. He didn't head in that direction but chose to fly towards the opposite direction instead.

Outside the palace, Qin Wentian's figure appeared. He didn't hide his features at all and came here out n the open. After he entered, numerous guards appeared before him, obstructing his passage, staring at him with nervousness in their eyes.

However, it was like Qin Wentian didn't see them at all. He directly stepped forward and sent his immortal sense to envelop this region, sweeping through the palace. Emperor might radiated from him, as well as the radiance from his laws of light. Everywhere that was inundated by the light, screams of misery rang out. Those guards disintegrated instantly.

The radiance was too resplendent. More and more experts came out from the palace and someone spoke, "Enemy attack, activate the grand formation of the palace!"

Rumbling sounds rang out as beams of light shot out in all directions. In the emperor palace of the Jialan Monarch, there would naturally be protective formations. However, their power wasn't as great as before. In the past, when the Evil Emperor swept through here, he had controlled the minds of many experts and directly used them to damage the formations internally.

In a certain location within the palace, a beautiful middle-aged woman glanced at the radiance from afar and immediately sent a message into her messaging crystal, contacting the Jialan Emperor. Beside her, another beautiful young lady could be seen. This was none other than Jialan Mingyue.

Jialan Mingyue also stared in the direction of the source of radiance. Was he here?

He... was he really that immortal-foundation fellow those years before?

In another direction, Beiming Youhuang also glanced towards the source of radiance as she sighed in her heart. Did he still came after all?

Chapter 1562: Unrivalled

Qin Wentian has arrived at the emperor palace.

Everywhere the radiance illuminated, the things there got destroyed. More waves of experts came but before they even arrived at where Qin Wentian was, their bodies instantly disintegrated from the pure radiance manifested by Qin Wentian's laws of light.

"Senior Crow!" Someone called out loudly but the Crow Emperor didn't seem to have heard it. Or more accurately, he wasn't in the emperor palace at all.

The screams rang out unceasingly. Qin Wentian continued into the depths of the palace as an immortal emperor finally appeared. He was in control of a formation and caused it to shoot a golden beam of destruction at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian glanced over and blasted out with his palms. A moment later, a manifestation of a thousand-armed buddha directly crushed the golden beam into nothingness.

The expression of that immortal emperor instantly changed. Although the formation was damaged slightly before this, the power of Qin Wentian's attack was truly terrifying.

He waved his hand as a golden beast lunged out, blotting out the sun, capable of lacerating everything. Qin Wentian glanced up, his eyes were emotionless. He lifted his hand and punched out the Warring Heavens Divine Fist, an innate technique learned from the tiny astral-being. The power it exuded was like ten thousand buddhas ascending to nirvana, filling the skies with buddic light. Thunderous cracking sounds rang out and that giant beast was directly penetrated through, disintegrating into nothingness.

Qin Wentian's long robes fluttered in the wind. He took a step forward and bypassed space, directly appearing before that immortal emperor.

With a glance at him, the radiance radiating from him flared up, casting its shine on his opponent's body. In an instant, that immortal emperor had no choice but to shut his eyes when facing that blinding light. Fresh blood seeped out of his eyes. After that, his body slowly began to disintegrate into motes of light as a scream of agony echoed from his lips. The eyes of that immortal emperor continued bleeding, staring with disbelief at Qin Wentian. He simply couldn't believe there would be such a disparity in strength when they were both at the same initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm.

Finally, he completely disintegrated, like he had never existed before. Qin Wentian directly bypassed him, continuing forward. The guards in the palace were already so frightened that they were trembling. Nobody dared to obstruct Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian continued and finally arrived at the core region in the emperor palace. If he continued heading in, he would then have arrived at the back area. At this moment, a powerful mid-stage immortal emperor appeared before him, staring at him icily.

"Where is she?" Qin Wentian asked.

"By slaughtering so many people here, could it be you want to implicate her even further?" That mid-stage immortal emperor icily spoke. Qin Wentian didn't reply and directly stepped forward. In the blink of an eye, his eye-technique sealed his opponent's resonance with his constellation. That mid-stage immortal emperor glanced up at the sky only to see a pair of eyes staring back at him there. Qin Wentian walked towards him calmly, his expression cold to the extreme.

"BOOM!" Qin Wentian was cloaked in emperor light. As he punched out, a brilliant radiance illuminated everything around him. That mid-stage immortal emperor hurriedly reacted but his defense was effortlessly destroyed by the blinding light. A look of despair appeared on his face and a few moments later, a tyrannical mid-stage immortal king was destroyed just like that.

From afar, Beiming Youhuang stood there. Her long hair fluttered and her beautiful eyes stared at the emperor light surrounding Qin Wentian. He has broken through to the immortal emperor realm and was more extraordinary than before, finally truly exuding a supreme magnificence. When facing mid-stage emperors, he was actually so domineering, able to sweep through everyone with invincibility. That innate technique in addition to the power supplied by his astral souls, made it that ordinary mid-stage emperors completely posed no threat to him.

She stood far away and didn't move. She believed that Qin Wentian had already seen her. But right now, how would they meet with each other?

Beiming Youhuang was considered someone from the Lifire Palace. As for Qin Wentian, he wasn't simply a bandit, he was someone who took the lives of numerous experts under the Jialan Monarch. On the surface, at the very least, the two of them couldn't appear to be too close together.

Beiming Youhuang didn't go to stop Qin Wentian too. She didn't say anything and just silently observed. Right now, she already knew the whole story. Qin Wentian came to Jialan Emperor City for the sake of 'saving' her, and fell into a devious trap. Ye Qianyu showed up to save him but was eventually injured heavily and captured. What reason did she have to stop Qin Wentian?

As for the guards within the palace, when they saw how domineering Qin Wentian was, nobody dared to act at all. Everyone was hiding far away as the stared at trepidation at the scene before them. Their eyes were filled with rage. The Jialan Monarch led his troops to deal with the bandits at Heavenly City, and the Lifire Palace sent the Crow Emperor and Beiming Youhuang here for protecting it. Yet, the two of them actually did nothing to stop this. Only the two of them was strong enough to stop Qin Wentian.

If the Jialan Monarch knew about this, it was unknown what reactions would he be. Most probably, he would lose his mind and head to the Lifire Palace in anger. But when these guards thought about the identity the Crow

Emperor and Beiming Youhuang had, all of them couldn't help but to tremble. Could it be that the Lifire Empyrean wanted to make use of Qin Wentian to destroy the Jialan Monarch?

Qin Wentian arrived at the back area in the emperor palace. This place was usually used by the imperial concubines for their residence.

When Jialan Mingyue and her mother, a concubine of the Jialan Emperor named Molan, saw Qin Wentian appear, their expressions drastically changed. Molan was calmer as she was an immortal emperor after all who had an extraordinary state of heart. Jialan Mingyue's expression kept changing from shock to disbelief as she looked upon the handsome features of Qin Wentian. This was the original face Qin Wentian had.

Qin Wentian was cloaked in light and radiated vitality due to his life-attribute astral soul. His demeanor was simply too outstanding and his looks were even better compared to before. Originally, it was also because of his good looks that Jialan Mingyue wanted to recruit him as a subordinate. However, Qin Wentian rejected her then, which led to everything that happened next.

Back then, Jialan Mingyue was gifted a city to rule by her father. How could she regard two unaffiliated cultivators highly? Even though Beiming Youhuang was an immortal emperor, she didn't really fear her because her father was the monarch ruling this area.

However, never in her wildest dreams did she imagine that everything could happen in the world, and changes that happened would actually be this swift. Right now, Beiming Youhuang is already considered someone from the Lifire Palace, someone that her father didn't dare to offend casually. As for Qin Wentian, he became a powerful bandit, depending on his cultivation base at the initial-stage of immortal emperor to kill his way into their emperor palace, standing before her. What irony was this?

"Where is she?" Qin Wentian's expression was cold to the extreme, staring at the two of them.

"Qin Wentian, back then you were originally a valued guest at our residence but you have actually fallen so far and became a bandit. If you are willing to change, I can persuade my husband to ignore everything that has happened. After all, your talent will definitely be highly valued by the Lifire Palace, they would heavily nurture a heaven-defying genius like you." The Molan Immortal Emperor's eyes were still maintaining their calm as she forced herself to speak gently.

There were no fluctuations to Qin Wentian's expression. If the Lifire Palace valued his talent and might ignore the casualties suffered by the Jialan Monarch, could the Jialan Monarch really be so big-hearted and forget the past?

Even if the Jialan Monarch could be so magnamious, he himself couldn't do so.

His cold and mocking gaze turned to Jialan Mingyue, gleaming with a bright light. Jialan Mingyue didn't dare to match his gaze but she still held herself upright and forced herself to stare at him.

"Valuable guest? Why did I fall so low to become a bandit? Are you guys not clear about this?" Qin Wentian's voice was filled with a touch of heavy sarcasm. If it wasn't for Jialan Mingyue, how could the scene today have occured?

Jialan Mingyue's expression turned incredibly unsightly. Everything that happened now was an after-effect of her intial actions. If she didn't send Qin Wentian into the mine, all the things that happened later, wouldn't have happened.

"What do you want to do? If you really kill us, my father will definitely use all methods at his disposal to kill you and that vixen." Jialan Mingyue's countenance turned wretched.

"Similarly, I will also use all methods at my disposal to kill your father." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. "I'll ask for the last time. Where is she?"

"She has been shifted away by the Lifire Palace and is no longer in this city. It is impossible for you to save her unless you can slaughter the entire Lifire Palace. This wasn't suggested by my husband, but an order given by the Lifire Palace instead. No matter if you kill us or not, you won't be able to change the current situation." The Molan Immortal Emperor glanced at Qin Wentian. She then continued, "I know you have a deep hatred against my husband. But at the very least as of now, you are still in a weaker position. If you kill us, it would only implicate that bandit leader. You best think thrice before acting."

The radiance from the laws of light unleashed. He glanced at Jialan Mingyue, "Your daughter, an initial-stage immortal king is already so crafty and unruly. If I allow her to live on, how many people would be harmed by her in the future?"

Qin Wentian remembered Yang Yun`er who was excavating the mine with him. She was precisely sent there because her family offended Jialan Mingyue.

The radiance then shone upon Jialan Mingyue, causing her expression to turn as pale as paper. She stretched out her hand, attempting to block the radiance as she screamed, "MOTHER, SAVE ME!"

The Molan Immortal Emperor erupted forth with might. Although she knew it was impossible for her to win against Qin Wentian, she still acted with no reservations when she saw her daughter being captured.

Qin Wentian waved his hand as a beam of light directly shot into the Molan Immortal Emperor. Her body froze as the terrifying laws of light bound her movements. As for Jialan Mingyue, she kept screaming as her body disintegrated bit by bit. Her facial expression contorted before she finally disappeared forever.

"Mingyue!" Molan had forgotten the pain she was enduring as she screamed when she saw her daughter vanishing. Her gaze was filled with hatred when she turned to Qin Wentian again.

Qin Wentian had no expression on his face. As one of the nine monarchs, the Jialan Monarch thought himself to be a lofty being who could control the fates of others. Jialan Mingyue was the same as well. How would they regard a minor character like him who just came to the Supreme Ancient Realms seriously? If it wasn't for Ye Qianyu, if it wasn't for him breaking through to the immortal emperor realm, he would long be squashed like ants by these people and he wouldn't even leave a mark in their hearts.

"Impudent bandit, how dare you kill your way into the emperor palace." A cold voice rang out. A current of destruction drifted over as the Crow Emperor's figure appeared. He truly came at the 'right' time!

Chapter 1563: Prisoner

Molan was controlled by Qin Wentian. Yet her eyes were gleaming with coldness as she stared at the Crow Emperor. Only appearing now? Didn't it mean that the Crow Emperor was silently consenting to Qin Wentian's action of slaughtering their entire palace?

Did the Lifire Empyrean want to deal with the Jialan Clan? This was such a distinct action.

The Jialan Monarch led his forces to wipe out the bandit remnants. If he knew all this after he returned, he would probably go crazy with rage, right?

"Release my brother's wife!" The Crow Emperor shone with a crow-black light as he arrived. Currents of destruction permeated the surroundings as his black eyes stared at Qin Wentian.

"Brother's wife?" Molan's eyes were bloodshot as she stared icily at the Crow Emperor. Crow glanced at her and continued, "What an audacious bandit, how dare you act so impudently."

Qin Wentian glanced at the Crow Emperor who was in the air. His eyes gleamed with intense killing intent. Back then, it was precisely this man who injured Ye Qianyu, leading to her eventual capture.

Boundless emperor light radiated from him, resonating with his constellation, bathing him in a powerful glow. A supreme surge of light-law energy engulfed him protectively.

"Release her and surrender." The Crow Emperor coldly spoke. What sort of character was he? Although his talent was inferior to the Jialan Monarch, his cultivation was very high, at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm. At this realm, every difference in level could result in a great disparity of strength. Although Qin Wentian's combat prowess was extraordinary and he could kill mid-stage emperors, there was no way he would be able to deal with the Crow Emperor.

Beiming Youhuang observed them. Her demeanor was as cold as ever. Was Qin Wentian able to resist the attacks of the Crow Immortal Emperor, someone at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm?

The Crow Emperor acted. Law energy gushed forth as a gigantic black crow manifested behind him. It was so large that it blotted out the sun, the eyes of the giant crow turned grey, filled with death qi as he glanced at Qin Wentian. At this moment, Qin Wentian felt a premonition of death. The eyes of death completely surrounded him, wanting to snuff his life out.

Just a glance was capable of killing people.

The laws of light and life flowed around Qin Wentian as boundless vitality radiated from him, fighting against the corrosion of the death energy.

The expression of the Crow Emperor was extremely cold as his law domain erupted forth. A grey-colored domain of death covered the area as crow-black currents permeated the atmosphere. In this area, rumbling sounds rang out as the black currents of energy transformed into countless black crows that radiated death energy, capable of devouring all lives.

There were simply too many. All those black crows shot towards Qin Wentian at this instant.

Qin Wentian's laws of light erupted forth to its maximum might. A giant ancient tree also extended outwards, manifesting behind him, infusing him with life energy, cleansing the surroundings.

In addition, the leaves of the ancient tree were even sharper than swords. They gleamed with light and shot out in all directions, aiming for the death crows, killing them one by one.

Piercing sounds rang out unceasingly but there were simply too many death crows, there didn't seemed to be a limit to their numbers. Qin Wentian waved his hand as swords of light slashed out, illuminating the area, clearing many of the death crows but he had no way to eliminate them all in a single strike, like he did against the attack of an initial-stage emperor. The defenses of these death crows were actually shockingly high.

Next, several ancient golden buddhas appeared in the surroundings, gleaming with a resplendent buddhic light that illuminating the surroundings, capable of delivering all living creatures from suffering. Thousands of giant buddha palms then blasted out, killing the death crows. Qin Wentian floated in the air, he stretched his palm out and activated God's Hand, the countless number of death crows had no way to get near him at all.

The Crow Emperor himself transformed into a Crow King. His eyes also turned grey as he stared at Qin Wentian. The surviving death crows gathered together and launched an increasingly ferocious attack. Their talons not only radiated death qi, there was also an aura of sharpness within, capable of slashing through everything.

Qin Wentian raised his hand and punched out with the Warring Heavens Divine Fist attack, causing light from it to engulf everything. It collided with the incoming attack and both of them dispersed from the impact.

However, the attacks from the Crow Emperor didn't stop. He blasted out numerous black death imprints and even before the death imprints landed, they already gave Qin Wentian a sense of crisis. If one was to be hit by the death imprints, they would undoubtedly die.

Blasting out with God's Hand, all his law energies were augmented as they clashed against the death imprints, shattering them upon impact.

The Molan Immortal Emperor, whose movements were still bound by Qin Wentian, had an ashen expression on her face. If it wasn't for Qin Wentian infusing life energy through the ancient tree into her, she would have already died. The Crow Emperor was actually held at bay by Qin Wentian, great waves rose in her heart and she couldn't help but to muse how good it would be if her daughter, Jialan Mingyue, hadn't offended Qin Wentian in the past. They could have pulled him closer and become friends with him. In the future, Qin Wentian may even become the strongest source of help for her husband, the Jialan Monarch, and he who is already at the initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm, could have already been fighting side by side. All this...might only have happened if her daughter didn't offend him.

However, such an extraordinary character along with Beiming Youhuang, was pushed to the opposite side. Right now, the Lifire Empyrean was paying close attention to this. He made use of Beiming Youhuang and it resulted in so many people of the Jialan Emperor Palace dying. The forces under the Jialan Monarch were almost all already wiped out. If he continued and accidentally made some mistakes, the Lifire Empyrean would most probably be able to casually find an excuse to kick the Jialan Monarch off his position.

What an irony this was. Her daughter Jialan Mingyue was too unruly, and her husband the Jialan Monarch was too lustful for beauties. Everything that happened now, was caused by they themselves. They had to suffer for their own sins.

The expression of Crow was extremely cold. His black eyes of death were terrifying to the extreme. An initial-stage immortal emperor was actually this strong? He could even fight against him to this extent?

The Crow Emperor snorted coldly as the death intent grew stronger, while the black crows attacked with crazy intensity.

Qin Wentian extended both his hands as boundless law energy flooded forth. His palms gleamed with golden buddhic light as numerous inscriptions interweaved before blasting outwards. Two terrifying palm strikes blasted out with lightning speed towards the Crow Emperor, arriving right before him in an instant.

"Scram!" The Crow Emperor howled, blasting out death imprints. But in just an instant, the death imprints all shattered and his body was actually forced back in retreat. This couldn't help but cause his countenance to grow colder. Qin Wentian's attack could actually ignore the limitations of space, as Qin Wentian's spatial energy was infused into his palm attacks. This caught him unawares and he narrowly avoided heavy injuries.

The eyes of the Crow Emperor turned terrifying. The giant black crow behind him spread its wings. He took out his divine weapon and it was actually a grey-colored banner. The moment the banner appeared, ghostly cries and monstrous howls filled the air, permeating the area with a thick death energy. The death crows actually grew larger in size and the death energy within them grew stronger and stronger.

"Enough." A cold voice rang out from behind. Crow turned his gaze over only to see Beiming Youhuang moving towards here. She swiftly arrived and floated in the air.

"Beiming, what do you mean by this?" The Crow Emperor coldly asked.

"You should understand." Beiming Youhuang replied. After that, she stared at Qin Wentian and transmitted her voice, "Leave quickly, you won't be able to win against the Lifire Palace. If you want revenge, come back in the future."

Qin Wentian glanced at Beiming Youhuang. He naturally understood that Beiming Youhuang was doing this for his own good. But could he really leave?

Ye Qianyu was captured because of him and now that her life and death was unknown, could he really leave just like that?

"Beiming, the Empyrean has always treated you well but you actually choose to side with Qin Wentian?" Crow stared at Beiming Youhuang as his death intent gushed towards her. An evil look gleamed in his eyes, he was prepared to take down Beiming Youhuang as well. Those black crows formed a group and madly lunged towards her.

Beiming Youhuang's eyes were extremely glacial. A formless aura radiated from her, causing her hair to flutter without wind. The group of crows went crazy and spiralled around her body relentlessly, but after a moment, they actually turned and shoot towards the Crow Emperor instead.

"You can control creatures of death?" The Crow Emperor narrowed his eyes.

"I said, enough." Beiming Youhuang coldly reiterated.

"Hehe, too late." At this moment, the Crow Emperor suddenly laughed coldly as another terrifying aura descended. Beams of light fell from the sky as a group of experts returned to the emperor palace. Qin Wentian glanced over as he stiffened.

He saw the Jialan Monarch. The expression of the Jialan Monarch was extremely ugly to behold as his killing intent surged forth unceasingly, glaring with hatred at Qin Wentian. However, he didn't act directly, there were some other powerful characters beside him.

Also, there was a prison behind him. The Evil Emperor was captured by them, including quite a few immortal emperors as well as the sedan carriers for Ye Qianyu. They were actually all captured, everyone was from the Thousand Feathers Palace.

Beiming Youhuang turned pale when she saw this scene. The Lifire Palace domineeringly acted. Clearly, the Jialan Monarch didn't have such strength. The people standing beside him were all peak-stage immortal emperors and Beiming Youhuang knew that they were direct subordinates of the Lifire Empyrean.

As expected, the Lifire Empyrean was the one behind all of this. He didn't even tell her anything. After all, she was originally already acquainted with Qin Wentian. The Lifire Empyrean wanted to make use of her to lure Qin Wentian out, how could he tell her about this?

Chapter 1564: The Empyrean’s methods

Even the Evil Emperor was captured. They made an arrangement with the Jialan Monarch and was prepared to swap hostages but their plan clearly failed. The experts from the Lifire Palace interfered and captured them all.

"ROAR~" A low-sounding roar echoed from Evil Emperor's mouth. His aura seemed extremely weak and his evil-looking eyes were bleeding. He was clearly heavily injured. When he saw Qin Wentian, he transmitted his voice over, "Leave now, quickly leave."

When Qin Wentian heard this, he saw the peak-stage emperors spreading apart, encircling him. The Jialan Monarch stepped forward and icily spoke, "Release her."

The 'her' in his words was naturally referring to the Molan Immortal Emperor. At this moment, the Molan Immortal Emperor was in a sorry state. Her aura was weak and she seemed that she could die at anytime. Her entire body reeked of death qi. In that battle earlier, although she wasn't the Crow Emperor's target, she was adversely affected too.

Qin Wentian turned his glance over, landing onto a person behind the Jialan Monarch. It was actually the Barbarian Emperor. The Barbarian Emperor wasn't imprisoned at all. His countenance was cold as he stared at Qin Wentian with intense hatred.

"You betrayed the Thousand Feathers Palace?" Qin Wentian icily asked, staring at the Barbarian Emperor.

"Qin Wentian, a wise man submits to the circumstances. The Barbarian Emperor has redeemed himself for his past crimes. I naturally will seek the Empyrean's guarantee to ensure that he doesn't die." A middle-aged immortal emperor standing behind the Jialan Monarch spoke. His cultivation base was very high, at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm and seemed imposing without being angry. He seemed to be one of the leaders in this current entourage.

"You all dare to accept a traitor who could betray his master?" Qin Wentian coldly glanced at the middle-aged emperor.

"Qin Wentian." The voice of the Barbarian Emperor was extremely cold. "I didn't betray Ye Qianyu. I served her for so long and even become a bandit for her. To think that in her heart, I couldn't even be compared to you. How ridiculous is this? I've known her for so many years, yet she repeatedly berates me for the sake of you. And now, all I can say that her ending happened because of one reason. Because of you, not me."

"You served her for so long and became a bandit for her?" Qin Wentian laughed mockingly. "Although I don't know what you guys experienced before, but I'm sure that without Ye Qianyu's father, the Night Empyrean, a person like you would have never been able to reach this level of cultivation today. You wouldn't have your current position at the Thousand Feathers Palace as well. It must have truly been 'tough' on you. Barbarian Emperor, you can go to hell now."

As the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, his eyes suddenly turned demonic. The Barbarian Emperor only felt himself falling into a dimension created by Qin Wentian's eye technique. He then howled loudly and retreated with explosive speed.

"Insolent!" That peak-stage immortal emperor angrily roared. He lifted his palm and blasted out as beams of terrifying emperor light manifested. However, it basically couldn't stop Qin Wentian. The Barbarian Emperor screamed as he was trapped within the dimension as terror painted his face.

"You are not worthy of living." Qin Wentian's voice rang out in his mind. These were the last words he heard. After that, the Barbarian Emperor's body was disintegrated by the radiance, turning into nothingness.

Qin Wentian was also forced back by the powerful beams. Wounds appeared all over his body but due to his undying and life law attributes, his wounds soon regenerated, causing the peak-stage immortal emperor to have a look of shock on his face.

With regards to the Barbarian Emperor's death, he didn't really give a damn about it. The Barbarian Emperor was just a traitor at the initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm. Since he died, so be it. It was good that Qin Wentian had cleaned things up.

"Qin Wentian, do you really want to die so badly?" That peak-stage immortal king coldly spoke.

"You want to kill me? Make your move then." Just as coldly, Qin Wentian sneered. But at this moment, Beiming Youhuang who was by his side, stepped out again, blocking in front of Qin Wentian.

"Beiming." That peak-stage immortal emperor glanced towards Beiming Youhuang.

Beiming Youhuang had a cold look on her face. She didn't say anything and used her actions to express herself.

"Beiming Youhuang dares to go against our empyrean, let's kill her together." The killing intent of the Jialan Monarch was extremely intense. However, the Molan Immortal Emperor was still in Qin Wentian's hands, he didn't dare to act recklessly. Also, what happened earlier caused him to feel extreme pain. The hostages captured by the Evil Emperor, have all been annihilated.

Because, the Empyrean sent his men not to negotiate, but to directly attack, ignoring the life and death of the Jialan Monarch's descendants.

To them, capturing the bandits were naturally the number one priority. All other things paled in comparison with it.

There was no need to mention how many casualties there were in his emperor palace. Right now, one could very well imagine how the Jialan Monarch was feeling. Right now, if he had enough strength, he would most probably kill his way to the Lifire Palace and rebel outright.

The empyrean actually borrowed the bandits and Qin Wentian as an excuse to wipe out all his forces. Although the empyrean was just doing things according to the situation, he was truly too ruthless. Although he knew that empyrean-level characters were all not simple individuals, he didn't expect that he would be the one personally taste how merciless the Lifire Empyrean can be.

"Impudent." The peak-stage immortal emperor coldly spoke. When the Jialan Monarch heard this, his eyes narrowed and gleamed with coldness. He was after all one of the nine monarchs. Although the peak-stage immortal emperor was a direct subordinate of the Lifire Empyrean, he shouldn't rebut him so directly, right?

As expected, the Empyrean wanted to deal with him. If he knew about this then, he wouldn't have fought for this position and wouldn't have caused the situation which happened today.

"Beiming's talent is extraordinary and our palace lord regards her heavily. Qin Wentian, although you are a bandit, our palace lord truly love talents, he might give you a path of survival, allowing you to work for him, using your achievements to atone for your crimes. What do you think about it?" The peak-stage immortal emperor calmly spoke. At this moment, the Jialan Monarch's body shuddered in incomparable anger.

"Protector, what do you mean by this?" The voice of the Jialan Monarch turned somewhat sinister. The person beside him now was a protector of the Lifire Palace. He is someone that's a direct subordinate of the Lifire Empyrean. His words, from a certain perspective, could say to represent the attitude of the Lifire Empyrean. If without the support of the empyrean, this protector would have never dare to make such a bold claim to recruit the bandits.

Qin Wentian was one of the bandits, the commotion they caused was extremely huge and they killed many subordinates of the Jialan Monarch, as well as harming his descendants. Right now, the Lifire Empyrean actually wanted to recruit Qin Wentian?

What a ridiculous scene this was. Right now, the Jialan Monarch only felt a cold chill in his heart. The Lifire Empyrean was far more venomous and ruthless than he had imagined.

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed sharply as he stared at the other party with some puzzlement. He didn't expect that the other party would say such a thing. Even Beiming Youhuang, who was standing beside him, didn't expect this. She stared with shock at this scene. The intentions of the Lifire Empyrean were so deep that it was terrifying.

However, given Qin Wentian's personality, how could he possibly agree?

"Can you all release Ye Qianyu?" Qin Wentian suddenly asked. Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes actually flashed with surprise before returning to normal. This does match with his personality. If it was to save Ye Qianyu, he should be willing to compromise.

However, that protector shook his head, "We still have our principles when doing things. Ye Qianyu is the leader of the bandit group, she naturally has to take responsibility for this. If not, even the Lifire Empyrean wouldn't be able to account for it if this matter blows up and the Lifelong Realmlord learned about it. But you guys are different, you guys were beguiled by the bandit leader and as long as you all are willing to turn over a new leaf, there's a high chance that our palace lord would give you all a chance."

This didn't merely include Qin Wentian, it also included the Evil Emperor and the others. The words spoken caused the eyes of the people in the prison to flicker with light.

What did the protector mean by this exactly?

"Beiming, you are acquainted with Qin Wentian. Why don't you persuade him? If he misses out on this chance, there's only a path of death for him. This choice should be easy to make, right?" That immortal emperor glanced at Beiming Youhuang.

"Qin Wentian." Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian. Right now, a hint of gentleness could be seen in her eyes. Although she didn't say anything, her gaze had already conveyed the message she wanted to tell him. She naturally didn't want Qin Wentian to die.

"If you want revenge, you can take revenge after you grow stronger. Right now, why don't you compromise first?" Beiming Youhuang transmitted her voice.

Qin Wentian's aura was still extremely cold. He didn't say anything. As for the Jialan Monarch who was not far away, he was already on the verge of going crazy. These people from the Lifire Palace were clearly smacking his face in public, one slap after another. So many deaths could be accounted for with just a single sentence? The Lifire Palace wanted to recruit Qin Wentian?

The lines of his face kept contorting. He resisted the impulse and was in a terrible mood.

"Qin Wentian, you were impulsive for me once and it led to such an ending. Is this still not enough? If you act impulsively again now, not only would you die, the people of the Thousand Feathers Palace will die, I will die with you as well. Do you really think I can stand by the side and watch neutrally? Do you want so many people to die alongside with you?" Beiming Youhuang walked in front of Qin Wentian, her beautiful eyes staring at him as she transmitted her voice, trying to persuade him.

Qin Wentian's heart trembled. Did he have to compromise?

He clenched his fist, staring at that immortal emperor as he asked, "What about Ye Qianyu? How do you all plan to deal with her?"

"I don't have the authority to 'deal' with her. We will have to see what is the intention of palace lord, the Lifire Empyrean. However, if you are willing to subordinate yourself to him, you can beg for mercy on her behalf. Palace lord is a benevolent man and will most probably give her a path of survival, although it would be impossible for him to free her. She caused too great a commotion here and is still the daughter of the previously notorious Night Empyrean." The protector of the Lifire Palace replied.

"The Night Empyrean's daughter and the Night Empyrean's subordinates. What does the Lifire Empyrean want to do exactly? Why would he dare to use them?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. If he could guarantee Ye Qianyu's life, that would mean there would still be hope in the future.

"I've been in the Lifire Palace for some years. The Lifire Empyrean is a very deep individual. He most probably would spare Ye Qianyu and use her to control all of you. He wants to use you, not only merely for the talent you displayed. From what I know, there's a high chance he wished to use you and the bandit troops to move against the Jialan Monarch's background. He wants all of you to become his chess pieces." Beiming Youhuang transmitted her voice to him. In order to persuade him, she spoke much more than usual today.

"Lifire Empyrean." Qin Wentian naturally already guessed at the other party's intentions. He couldn't help but to feel some awe in his heart. The Lifire Empyrean clearly wasn't worried that they would harbor hatred for him. His schemes ran extremely deep and he was exceptionally confident in himself.

"I agree." Qin Wentian spoke. He eventually still lowered his head. There was no way out of it, he had to learn how to compromise.

After all, this place is the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms!

Chapter 1565: Lifire Empyrean

"I don't agree."

An incomparably cold voice rang out, the Jialan Monarch's countenance turned incomparably sinister. He has been enduring this but right now, it seemed that his endurance has reached the limit. His forces were decimated, his descendants were slaughtered. These bandits who were responsible were actually all going to be recruited by the Lifire Empyrean Palace Lord? What did this mean? What did they treat him, the Jialan Monarch, as?

He naturally didn't agree. He wanted nothing more than to tear Qin Wentian and the others apart right now at this instant.

That peak-stage immortal emperor coldly glanced at the Jialan Monarch as he spoke, "Jialan Monarch, this matter won't be settled just because of your disagreement. I'm going to personally seek the palace lord's opinion and if he is willing to recruit them but you continue to insist on making trouble, bear the consequences yourself."

As he spoke, that protector took out his messaging crystal and sent his immortal sense into it. Although the Jialan Monarch already guessed the ending, his eyes were still glaring at that protector.

Not too long after, the protector spoke, "Palace lord orders me to bring everyone back to the Lifire Palace to meet with him."

Although the Jialan Monarch already guessed the ending, when he heard this, he couldn't help but to tremble in rage. He calmed himself and nodded, "Sure, I'll go with you all to meet with the palace lord."

He wanted to see how the Lifire Empyrean would really recruit the bandits that killed his forces and family.

"Sure." The protector nodded. He glanced at Qin Wentian, "Release her first then."

Qin Wentian waved his hand and released the Molan Immortal Emperor. The Jialan Monarch's figure flashed, appearing beside her, helping her to stand. The Molan Immortal Emperor glanced at the Jialan Monarch. As an immortal emperor, she at this moment felt extremely weak. Never in her wildest dreams did she imagine that they would end up like that.

Beiming Youhuang was still beside Qin Wentian, capable of protecting him at any moment. Although many experts have arrived, there was absolutely no need for them to lie to Qin Wentian. But even so, she still stood with him. If the Lifire Palace really wanted to act against Qin Wentian, she would fight them together with him.

Most probably, Beiming Youhuang herself didn't realize that this young man, whom she once used to view with hatred, their fates were actually so closely tied now.

"Move out." That protector spoke. After that, the group of experts here headed towards the teleportation array in the palace. In every realm, the realmlord naturally had access to all the nine world palaces. Each of the nine world palaces headed by the empyreans, would naturally also have access to the emperor palaces of the nine monarchs under them. This intricate web of relationships connected everyone closely together.

The lower-tiered powers had no way to command the upper-tier powers to do anything. But as long as the upper-tier powers sent a single command, all the lower-tier powers had to gather together within the shortest time.

The Lifire Palace was one of the ten main cities in the vast Lifelong Realm. These ten main cities, other than one being the residence of the Realmlord, the others were naturally given to the nine other empyreans. The Lifire Palace was precisely located in the Lifire Main City.

There were many teleportation arrays here, connecting to various areas, The array inside Jialan Monarch's palace led to the core region here. After they exited, the group of them sped into the distance, in the direction of the Lifire Palace.

As one of the places with the most authority in the Lifelong Realm, the Lifire Palace was like a heavenly castle whose peak reaches the sky. It was incomparably majestic and impossibly vast. Also, crimson lightning illuminated the area, causing the entire palace to exude a striking and imposing aura.

It was also rumored that there's a supremely grand formation under the palace named the Lifire Grand Formation. Its power was absolute, if there were any invaders, the palace lord could simply activate the formation and flames of heavenly fury would descend upon the attackers, engulfing the entire palace. However, no one in the palace has ever seen this before. After all, in the Lifelong Realm, how many people would really dare to invade one of the nine world palaces under the direct control of the nine empyreans?

Before reaching the palace gate, the stairways here were almost a thousand feet in height. The group of them ascended via the stairs, the motion of doing so gave off the feeling of making a pilgrimage to pay respects to the divinity.

Just the gate itself radiated a feeling of majesty. The guards around here were all immortal kings and above. When they saw Qin Wentian's group arriving, they bowed and greeted, "Protector Chen."

Protector Chen was none other than that peak-stage emperor. As a protector in the Lifire Palace, his status was naturally very high. He was a direct subordinate of the Lifire Empyrean as well, there was naturally no need to announce it when he wanted to bring people into the palace.

The group of them entered the Lifire Palace and came before a majestic hall with many guards outside. There were actually emperors among the guards. One could very well imagine how terrifying this scene was.

"Palace lord is currently inside waiting for protector." An immortal emperor nodded to Protector Chen.

"Mhm." Protector Chen glanced at everyone. "Let's enter then."

As he spoke, the group of them stepped into the ancient hall. There were many experts within but they were not standing around stringently like the guards outside. They were more casual and all of them deferred to a figure robed in black who sat in a throne above them. This black-robed man was medium height and had ordinary features but his eyes glowed with spirit. He was casually conversing with the experts in the hall and when he saw the group entering, only then did he turn to glance at them. With just a single glance, Qin Wentian felt as though all of his secrets were seen through.

"Paying my respects to Palace Lord." Protector Chen bowed.

"Jialan pays my respects to Palace Lord." Although the Jialan Monarch had hatred in his heart with regards to the Lifire Empyrean, he didn't dare to show the slightest bit of disrespect before him. He still bowed respectfully.

"Beiming pays my respects to Palace Lord." Beiming Youhuang and the others also paid their respects.

The Lifire Empyrean waved his hand and smiled, "Protector Chen, this trip must have been hard on you."

"This is something subordinates ought to do." Protector Chen calmly replied. "Palace Lord, I've already brought them here. Other than those who resisted and were killed, all the bandits are now here."

"ROAR!" An intense roar sounded from the prison. The eyes of the Evil Emperor were sinister to the extreme, staring at the Lifire Empyrean. The Lifire Empyrean was one of the two empyreans that acted against the Night Empyrean back then.

"Evil Emperor, the Night Empyrean has already died for so many years. You have also been a bandit for so long but to think that you are still so restless." The Lifire Empyrean smiled at the Evil Emperor, he clearly didn't mind the roar at all. With his cultivation level, why would he need to give a damn about a peak-stage immortal emperor?

"I heard Protector Chen saying that you guys are willing to submit to me. Is this true?" The Lifire Empyrean asked again. He naturally wouldn't say that he was the one who initiated this. The Jialan Monarch was present as well, although everyone knew the truth in their hearts, things still have to be done beautifully on the surface.

Qin Wentian turned and stared at the Evil Emperor in the prison. The eyes of the Evil Emperor clearly showed a struggle. He seemed to have sensed Qin Wentian's gaze and turned to him, matching his eyes. After that, he gritted his teeth and made a decision.

Even if he had to suffer humiliation, he would endure it. He had no choice but to wait. Even if there was no chance, he would still have to wait until a chance came about. Ye Qianyu was still in the Lifire Empyrean's hands. If they said no, they would just waste their lives and die like this.

"It's true." The huge eyes of the Evil Emperor closed, as though he was extremely reluctant. The Lifire Empyrean naturally understood that he was reluctant but he didn't care about it. He only wanted the ending to follow his will. He knew that although the Evil Emperor and the others wouldn't wholeheartedly submit, he didn't need them to do so. It was enough as long as he still had use for this group of people.

"What about the rest?" The Lifire Empyrean glanced at the others in the prison. Everyone reluctantly nodded their heads, deciding to comply.

"Protector Chen, unlock the prison." The Lifire Empyrean waved his hand. Protector Chen directly stepped out, releasing the Evil Emperor and the others.

"Palace Lord." At this moment, the Jialan Monarch stared at the Lifire Empyrean as he spoke. "These people killed my kin, I beseech palace lord to retract your order. We should destroy these bandits that are wicked beyond redemption and use them as an example to strike fear in the hearts of others."

The Lifire Empyrean glanced at the Jialan Monarch as he smiled, "Jialan, I know you are in a bad mood because your side suffered so many casualties. My Lifire Palace admires people of talent. If these people truly repent, I'm willing to give them a chance to make up for their crimes by performing meritorious deeds."

"Palace Lord, if bandits like these can waive their crimes by just submitting to you, wouldn't my losses be all for nothing? Wouldn't the other eight monarchs feel a chill in their hearts?" The Jialan Monarch bowed.

"Impudent." A peak-stage immortal emperor beside the Lifire Empyrean angrily berated. He glared at the Jialan Monarch, "Jialan, how dare you speak to Palace Lord in this manner. Are you trying to offend your superiors?"

"Your subordinate doesn't dare to." Jialan Monarch shook his head.

The Lifire Empyrean stared at him and slowly spoke, "Jialan, from your words, you seemed to be very against my will?"

This voice was extremely calm, but it caused the Jialan Monarch to feel chills all over his body. His head dipped even lower, "Your subordinate doesn't dare."

"This seat knows that not only were your forces decimated, you even lost many of your kin as well. I can understand this, hence, I didn't punish you. However, don't forget your identity. As one of the nine monarchs, two of your main mines were actually plundered before your eyes. What does this say of your capabilities? You even need this seat to send reinforcements to aid you. If I didn't do so, who can you capture?"

"This seat is very disappointed with your ability to handle things." The Lifire Empyrean calmly spoke, his words causing the Jialan Monarch's heart to tremble.

"This group of bandits is more capable than you."

The Lifire Empyrean added another sentence, causing the coldness in the Jialan Monarch's heart to surge towards the freezing point. He turned pale, he knew that the Lifire Empyrean would never change his plan because of his words.

The people in the hall all glanced at the Jialan Monarch with looks of mockery. They naturally knew why the empyrean was doing this. The other monarchs would feel cold in their hearts?

The other monarchs weren't like the Jialan Monarch who had an illustrious background that always set themselves against the Lifire Empyrean in the dark.

"Qin Wentian." At this moment, the Lifire Empyrean no longer looked at the Jialan Monarch. He directly turned to face Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian inclined his head and looked at the Lifire Empyrean, only to see the empyrean standing up from the throne and walking down towards him. He smiled at Qin Wentian, "I long knew that you have a good relationship with Youhuang. Also, given your talent, this seat truly admires you. Although you became a bandit, I know all this happened because the daughter of the Jialan Monarch, Jialan Mingyue, sent you into the mine to make things difficult for you. You had no choice in this matter, and nobody can rightfully blame you for it. Since you are willing to turn over a new leaf and submit to this seat, you can tell me directly what position you want."

The Jialan Monarch instantly stiffened when he heard that. Both his fists were clenched tightly!

Chapter 1566: Lifire Jail

Qin Wentian stared at the smile on the Lifire Empyrean's face. His gaze froze slightly. At this moment, the Lifire Empyrean wasn't the slightest bit of imposing at all and was smiling at him like how an senior smiled at a junior. There was no pressure from that of higher status and the smile felt sincere.

In the hall, many immortal emperors glanced at Qin Wentian with smiles on their faces. Protector Chen laughed, "Qin Wentian, such preferential treatment is truly rare. As a protector, even I have never enjoyed such treatment before."

"The young are promising. His talent is extremely outstanding, no wonder palace lord holds him in high regards." Another immortal emperor smiled, all of them seemed extremely friendly, nobody was bothered by the fact that he was a bandit. This caused Qin Wentian to be somewhat speechless, but he soon recovered from his daze. He naturally wouldn't be so foolish as to really request for a position. He politely replied, "Wentian thanks palace lord for your love. I'm still ignorant about the Lifire Palace, I'll follow all of palace lord's arrangements. However, may I be so bold to ask for a request?"

"As long as you don't request for me to release Ye Qianyu, anything else is negotiable." The Lifire Empyrean smiled, extremely carefreely. It was like the major incident in the Jialan Monarch's territory was nothing significant to him.

"I wish to meet with Ye Qianyu." Qin Wentian glanced at the Lifire Empyrean, he didn't know how he would reply. However, the Lifire Empyrean casually smiled, "No problem. I will get Protector Chen to bring you there later to meet with her. It's just that Ye Qianyu is still a bandit lord after all, and is even the Night Empyrean's daughter. It is impossible for me to release her. But naturally, if you manage to accumulate many meritorious achievements in the future, I might be able to give her better treatment. For example, she can roam freely in the Lifire City, it will be fine as long as she doesn't exit it."

Qin Wentian's eyes shone. The Lifire Empyrean laughed and turned about, returning to his throne as he sat down. "You've just arrived and it wouldn't be too good for me to give you the position of one of the nine monarchs. Also, although your combat prowess is strong, you are still lacking. If you break through to the mid-stage emperor realm in the future and have some achievements to your name, I will have the chance to confer you a monarchy then. At that time, you can help this seat to rule over a stretch of territories. For now, you can temporarily be the governor of the Lifire City's northern regions."

The eyes of many in the hall gleamed with sharpness. Back then, although the palace lord regarded Beiming Youhuang highly, he only let her stay at the side of the Jialan Monarch and didn't really give her any high position. But the moment Qin Wentian came, he who is only at the initial stage of the immortal emperor realm, was going to be a governor right off the bat? However, they soon had a meaningful look in their eyes. This move by the Lifire Empyrean was brilliant.

"Also, since Evil Emperor and the rest have submitted and they are familiar with you, I shall hand them to you and make them your subordinates. Naturally, if those fellows still dare to break the rules in the future and fail to cherish this chance, this seat will show no mercy and kill them." The Lifire Empyrean's voice suddenly turned grim and a powerful aura gushed towards the Evil Emperor, causing the Evil Emperor to lower his head. His large eyes gleamed with green light. For now, he could only temporarily endure this.

"Palace lord." At this moment, Beiming Youhuang who was at the side, suddenly spoke. The Lifire Empyrean glance at her, "Youhuang, you have something you want to add?"

"Palace Lord, I'm acquainted with Qin Wentian. Is it possible to arrange for me to go there too?" Beiming Youhuang spoke. Qin Wentian glanced at her in surprise when he heard that.

"Youhuang, I have other arrangements for you. You don't need to stay by Jialan's side anymore in the future. You can just obey my direct commands. However, I know your relationship with Qin Wentian isn't bad. Now, the two of you are in the Lifire City and can meet anytime you want to. There's no need to work together." The Lifire Empyrean smiled. Beiming Youhuang understood that her request was rejected and knew there was no need for her to mention again. Hence, she nodded, "Okay."

"Alright, Protector Chen. Since you are the one who brought these people here, I will leave the arrangements to you. Send Qin Wentian to meet with Ye Qianyu first before getting them to head towards the northern regions." The Lifire Empyrean commanded. Protector Chen nodded, "Your subordinate takes my leave."

As he spoke, he turned to Qin Wentian, "Brother Qin, let's go."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Protector Chen's referral of him suddenly became 'Brother Qin.'

Nodding his head, Qin Wentian shot a cold glance at the Jialan Monarch. The Jialan Monarch's expression was incredibly ugly but he didn't say anything. What else could he say? The Lifire Empyrean already arranged everything. He didn't even have the rights to speak.

Ridiculous, this group of bandits suddenly became officials in the blink of an eye. Also, they were sent to the northern regions. The schemes of the Lifire Empyrean were truly deep enough.

"Your subordinate will take my leave too." The Jialan Monarch bowed. The Lifire Empyrean faintly made a noise of acknowledgement and closed his eyes on the throne. The Jialan Monarch cast a deep glance at him before he turned around and left. This time around, he was truly played by the Lifire Empyrean. The empyrean made use of the bandits to cripple his forces thoroughly. However, what could he say? For his background, his clan members most probably would only feel that he is useless. If not, how could he be in such a miserable state just due to some bandits? The palace lord merely acted according to the situation. At the very end, the palace lord still sent reinforcements to aid him. If not, he basically wouldn't have a way to handle the bandits. If all these don't point to the fact that he is useless, what else could he be?

The Jialan Monarch's back view exuded desolation. However, after he walked out of the Lifire Palace, an icy light flashed in his eyes. The governor of the northern regions? In that case, he will definitely make these bandits suffer a life worse than death.

Although this place was the Lifire City and wasn't a part of his territories, so what of it? The authority of his clan was spread through many places. He will definitely take revenge for this.

Naturally, the Jialan Monarch also understood the Lifire Empyrean's intentions. But so what? Could it be that he couldn't take revenge?

As long as he has enough strength, he will even take revenge on the Lifire Empyrean himself. It's just that he was currently still too weak. The Lifire Empyrean was one of the nine empyreans that report directly to the Lifelong Realmlord. He absolutely wasn't someone easy to deal with.

Protector Chen, Qin Wentian, Beiming Youhuang and the Evil Emperor walked together. Protector Chen spoke to Qin Wentian, "Brother Qin, in the future since you will also be working for the palace lord, we should build better relations with each other."

"Protector Chen is too polite." Qin Wentian replied.

"Brother Qin's combat prowess is something that I have personally seen. In the entire Lifire Palace, supreme characters like you are extremely rare. No wonder the palace lord would favor you so much, directly conferring you a governor title. Such treatment is truly unprecedented. Usually, the leader of a region would have to be at least at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm." Protector Chen stated.

Qin Wentian merely nodded calmly. He didn't say anything, he only wanted to see Ye Qianyu as fast as possible. He wanted to see how she was.

Behind them, the expression of the Crow Emperor was similarly unsightly. He didn't expect that the Lifire Empyrean would have such a plan. Although he knew that the palace lord was making use of Qin Wentian, he still felt very uncomfortable. After all, the one leading the mission to deal with Qin Wentian and Ye Qianyu's group this time around, was none other than him. Qin Wentian would surely hate him.

In addition, the Crow Emperor also knew what the palace lord wanted to use Qin Wentian for. In that case, it means that he wouldn't do anything to Qin Wentian and might even help his cultivation base to improve, even giving him authority and power. If that was the case, things would really be awkward for him in the future.

However, he couldn't sway the Lifire Empyrean's decision. He deeply knew what sort of character the Lifire Empyrean is. Hence, he didn't say anything and kept his silence.

...

Ye Qianyu's cultivation base was at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm and she also had extraordinary combat prowess, alongside with being the bandit leader. Her imprisonment naturally was extraordinary. Ye Qianyu now was viewed as a serious criminal and was locked up in the Lifire Jail of the Lifire Palace.

The Lifire Jail itself was a supreme treasure. It had a separate dimension within and the atmosphere inside it was sinister and gloomy. When Qin Wentian and the others reached the outside, they could clearly feel a terrifying gloom settling over them. There were two experts guarding the jail and they were only immortal kings, clearly pitifully weak. However, there was simply no need for any guards for this prison. Nobody would be able to escape from within. There would also be no one daring to break into the jail to save the prisoners.

"You guys wait outside." Protector Chen spoke to the Evil Emperor and the others.

"Why can't we go in?" The Evil Emperor icily asked, not giving Protector Chen any face at all.

Protector Chen coldly stared at him. "Palace lord only agreed to let Governor Qin meet with her. You all have to remember that since you all are the Lifire Palace's subordinates now, you have to follow every command given by the palace lord."

The eyes of the Evil Emperor were extremely cold too. Qin Wentian glanced at him, "I'll head in then."

The Evil Emperor nodded and didn't say anything more. He simply watched as Protector Chen and Qin Wentian entered the jail.

The space within was extremely vast and the atmosphere was gloomy, dark, wet and a little eerie. As they entered, Qin Wentian realized that there was another jail within this Lifire Jail. As he headed deeper, numerous terrifying gazes were fixed on him. He saw many characters with disheveled hair looking towards him. Each of these characters was locked up in a single cell and their cultivation bases were all very high, at the immortal emperor realm. Despite so, they were all prisoners on death row.

"Protector Chen, how would the palace lord deal with these people?" Qin Wentian asked.

"That would have to depend on the circumstances. However, many people would be refined into death puppets or death warriors. Naturally, there would also be people willing to submit and work for him. There would always be some exceptions." Protector Chen seemed to be hinting at something. An unsightly expression flashed in Qin Wentian's eyes. Was this using Ye Qianyu's life to hint that he would always have to do the Lifire Empyrean's bidding in the future?

Finally, Qin Wentian saw Ye Qianyu. She was in a single cell, trapped within by iron bars. Her aura was weak and her cultivation base seemed to be sealed. When she saw Qin Wentian, a look of joy and surprise appeared on her haggard-looking face.

"Brother Qin, you guys can chat freely." Protector Chen smiled and left. Qin Wentian had guilt on his expression when he saw Ye Qianyu's appearance. His fists were tightly clenched.

However, he only saw Ye Qianyu flashing him a charming smile, filled with radiance and passion. She coquettishly stated, "Why? Are you not happy to see me?"

"It's me who has implicated you." Qin Wentian walked over, sighing as he stared at her.

Ye Qianyu walked to the entrance of the cell. She was still smiling, "Not bad, you have already broken through to the immortal emperor realm. As expected of the man I fell for. This mistress's judgement is as awesome as ever."

Qin Wentian saw that she was acting like how times were in the past, he felt even more pain in his heart. He stretched his hand out, wanting to gently caress that haggard-looking face yet he saw Ye Qianyu taking a few steps back, evading him as she smiled. "In the past, I gave you the opportunity but you didn't want it. Now, you finally want to take advantage of me?"

Chapter 1567: New Governor

Qin Wentian bitterly smiled at Ye Qianyu. He only saw her beautiful face also smiling right at him, it didn't seem that she was a prisoner at all. But the more she acted like she was not, the more pain he felt in his heart.

With a flash of light, a sculpture appeared in his hand. This sculpture was extremely beautiful, and upon seeing it, Ye Qianyu's beautiful eyes lit up. After that, she shot a glance filled with hidden resentment at Qin Wentian, her gaze mesmerizing to the extreme.

"Somebody is finally willing to sculpt a figurine of me."

"It only has a few hints of your charm, it is far inferior compared to your beauty." Qin Wentian compared his sculpture to Ye Qianyu.

A strange look appeared in Ye Qianyu's eyes as she stared at Qin Wentian in bewilderment, "When have you become such a sweet-talker? Could it be that you learned all this while wooing the little girl at the River Portrait Immortal Emperor's place?"

"...." Qin Wentian was speechless. Ye Qianyu giggled, "Then, are you giving this sculpture to me?"

However, Qin Wentian shook his head. "I naturally have to keep this by my side. In this case, I can see you every time I want to and this can serve to remind me not to forget that you are still in here."

Ye Qianyu's eyes flickered with a look of gentleness when she heard that, "Why didn't you talk like this to me in the past? Anyway, since you are able to enter the Lifire Jail, did the Lifire Empyrean get you to submit to him? There's actually no need to do so given your talent, you can head to other places and develop yourself, even joining the superpowers. It wouldn't be too late for you to take revenge for me then in the future. Why must you endure this because of me?"

After interacting with him for so many years, how could Ye Qianyu not understand what sort of person he was? He submitted to the Lifire Empyrean most probably because of her, wanting to protect her life. As long as he was willing to work for the Lifire Empyrean, the Lifire Empyrean would not kill her. In this case, he would have a chance to rescue her from jail in the future.

Although she wasn't very clear about the situation outside, it wasn't too difficult to guess, based on her intelligence.

Qin Wentian stared at her without speaking. Ye Qianyu continued, "Also, do you really think he will release me just because you are working for him? He only wants to use you, because you have the value to be used. And the more valuable you are to him, although he wouldn't kill me, he would definitely not release me. He will use me to control you. Your weakness is too obvious...you are very sentimental and would act blindly due to your emotions. Others can easily see through you and they will naturally use this to act against you."

Qin Wentian bitterly smiled and shook his head, how could he not understand Ye Qianyu's words?

"However, this cannot be considered a bad thing in your perspective. After entering the Lifire Palace, you will have a formal identity and can come into contact with the vaster world. In the future, you have to remember not to be ruled by your emotions. Before you have enough strength to sweep everything, you should learn more about how to use other methods to protect yourself and your loved ones." Ye Qianyu walked forward, staring at Qin Wentian through her cell door. Her beautiful eyes flashed with a gentle light as she smiled, "Enough, you should leave now."

Qin Wentian stretched out his hands once more, placing them on Ye Qianyu's beautiful face. This time, Ye Qianyu didn't evade, allow him to caress her face. Her beautiful eyes flickered with charm as she looked at him. Qin Wentian had a smile on his face as he softly spoke, "Wait for me."

After that, he directly turned and left the Lifire Jail, no longer turning his head back. However, his hands were still unconsciously clenched tightly.

Ye Qianyu stared at his departing back view that exuded determination. Her eyes flickered with a radiant smile and after Qin Wentian's silhouette disappeared completely, only then did she slowly turn and walked back into her cell. She leaned against the cold stone walls and sat down but the smile on her face didn't dissipate for a long time. "I once wildly hoped to change everything but I already long knew that it was nothing but a foolish dream. In this world dominated by supreme experts, strength is everything. Since I'm powerless to change things, I hope that one day, the person who dominates this world, would be the person I love."

"Are you daydreaming now?" Not far away, an icy voice rang out. It was another prisoner. He coldly continued, "Just with him? An initial-stage immortal emperor? You hope that he can dominate this world? Just this single Lifire Palace can ride above the heads of countless people. To the empyreans, the vast majority of people in the immortal realms are merely ants, let alone the fact that this is merely the Lifelong Realm alone. There are even stronger characters out there. To them, even ignoring immortal emperors like us, even empyreans and world overlords are also considered ants."

"That's true, the vast majority of living creatures are nothing but ants in the eyes of the strong. Ants should just follow the rules of the colony." Ye Qianyu mumbled. She then smiled and continued, "However, there are also existences that can break apart the heavens among ants. If not, where did those supreme characters who stand at the peak, originate from?"

...

The Lifire City was one of the ten main cities in the Lifelong Realm. It was naturally incomparably vast and large.

There were a total of five governors here, and their titles respectively are; Central Governor, Eastern City Governor, Southern City Governor, Western City Governor and the Northern City Governor. The city was split into five regions, and the five governors were responsible for everything that happened within their own respective regions. From this, one could see how great their authority was. Although their statuses weren't as high as the nine monarchs, but inside the Lifire City, they were just directly below the Lifire Empyrean. Even the nine monarchs dared not act too rudely and arrogantly before the five governors. In addition, the cultivation bases of the governors were also extremely high.

Currently, the Northern Governor was surnamed Meng. His cultivation was very high, at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm. He ruled the northern region and had great authority. Qin Wentian initially thought that Governor Meng would be unwilling to handover and would miss this position greatly. However, after Protector Chen brought him there, he realized that he was extremely wrong about it. Governor Meng was very excited to welcome him and handed over everything with no reluctance at all. It seems like this position wasn't an easy one but was a hot potato instead.

Also, Qin Wentian could see that Governor Meng was filled with joy, he clearly didn't want this position at all. This caused Qin Wentian to recall Beiming Youhuang's reminder. Could it be that the authority and influence of the Jialan Clan in the northern region were really so terrifying? Governor Meng actually wanted to give his position up so badly.

According to what Beiming Youhuang had said, in the northern region, this was where the Jialan Clan was based. Their influence here was extremely wide-spread and could even cover the sky with one hand if they wanted. In the past, Qin Wentian thought that no matter how strong the Jialan Clan was, they were still within the territories controlled by the Lifire Empyrean and wouldn't be able to suppress any of the Lifire Palace's subordinates. However, he only discovered that he was wrong after he came here.

"Youhuang, how much do you know about the Jialan Clan?" Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Beiming Youhuang who was beside him.

"Not much, I only know the Jialan Clan has great authority, especially in the northern region. I heard that a command from the Lifire Empyrean might not even weigh more than a command from the Jialan Clan." Beiming Youhuang replied. A look of intrigue appeared in Qin Wentian's eyes, seems like the Lifire Empyrean has long planned to place him in that position. Also, given the relationship the Jialan Monarch had with him, he would surely use his clan's authority to make things difficult for him. If he and the other bandits were too useless and were played to death by the Jialan Clan, the Lifire Empyrean probably wouldn't give a damn at all.

But then again if they could contend against the Jialan Clan, the Lifire Empyrean would most probably watch the situation with joy.

Hence, no matter what the ending was, it would only be beneficial to the Lifire Empyrean. It wouldn't really affect him.

After sending away Governor Meng, Protector Chen spoke to Qin Wentian, "Brother Qin, for future matters, Brother Qin has to work hard. The palace lord naturally hopes that you can handle the northern city well."

"Protector Chen, as the governor, what are my main responsibilities? What do I need to do?" Qin Wentian asked. He was completely ignorant with regards to the rules of the Lifire City.

"There's no way to explain clearly just using a sentence or two. There will naturally be a filing room in the governor's manor and there will be a butler and serving girls to help you run errands. They will brief you about it. I will bid my farewell now." Protector Chen smiled. Qin Wentian could see that Protector Chen had no intentions of staying. He nodded and sent him off.

The governor's manor was very large, including the internal and external area. The internal area was a residential location for the governor, while the external area was even larger compared to it. The external area was also used for residential purposes and was for the governor's subordinates.

However, Qin Wentian discovered that the place wasn't as lively as his imagined. It felt somewhat cold and cheerless.

At this moment, within the manor, a few figures walked out and appeared before Qin Wentian. One was an old man with a cultivation base at the immortal-foundation realm, the other two were serving girls who were also immortal-foundation characters. Both of them were weak, but their looks weren't bad and could say to be fresh and pure.

"We pay our respects to Sir Governor." The butler and serving girls bowed to Qin Wentian.

"In this governor's manor, there's only the three of you?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Sir, you might not know this. But in the northern regions of the Lifire City, not many people dare to take up the responsibility of working under the governor." The butler replied.

"Why?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Ever since the Lifire Empyrean became the Lifire Palace Lord, the governor of the northern region changes the fastest. Also, a majority of the northern governors either request to give up this position by taking the initiative to talk to the empyrean, or they…" The butler mumbled.

"Or they what?" Qin Wentian coldly asked.

"Or they...die." The butler lowered his head.

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed sharply. In the Lifire City, a governor would actually die? Also, according to the butler's words, it doesn't seem that there was only one governor who died in the line of duty.

What position did the Lifire Empyrean give him?

"Who killed them?" Qin Wentian thought of the Jialan Clan, but he still wanted to ask the question.

A look of fear flashed in the butler's eyes. However, he shook his head, "Your subordinate has no idea."

"Just speak freely." Qin Wentian commanded.

"Your subordinate truly doesn't know. Other than giving the death penalty to the few assassins that were discovered, even the palace lord himself has no idea how the other northern governors died." The butler lowered his head even more. In the Lifire City, the assassination of a governor was clearly a huge matter. If it was really done by the Jialan Clan, how could they leave any clues behind?

"How many subordinates do I have under me, and what are their positions?" Qin Wentian asked again.

"A total of three thousand people that reports directly to the three vice governors. Below the three vice governors, each of them has ten attendants that respectively control a hundred people each." The butler replied.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, "Help me to summon the three vice governors. Get them to see me."

"This…" The butler had a look of difficulty on his face. Qin Wentian frowned, "Speak bluntly."

"It has been a very long time since the three vice governors came to the governor's manor." The butler bowed. Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness, "As vice governors, they actually neglect their duty?"

The butler lowered his head even more, not daring to speak. This made Qin Wentian understand that this governor's position wasn't so easy to take on. There was even a risk of dying. How strong exactly was the power of the Jialan Clan?

Chapter 1568: Tough to Even Advance a Single Step

Qin Wentian stared at the butler and continued, "Bring me to the file room."

"Yes, Governor." That butler nodded. After that, he led Qin Wentian over. This room was very large and there were many scrolls of information within. Qin Wentian sat down as he quietly read on, his expression growing more and more unsightly as time went by.

Only then did he understand that this governor's position was just a nice-sounding title but it had no substance to it.

Lifire City didn't have the position of city lord. There was a grand governor and all the five governors were supposed to report to him. The grand governor was the direct subordinate of the Lifire Empyrean and he held immense authority and power.

The five governors were responsible for everything in their respective regions, including resource management. In Lifire City, every building was recorded as an asset. Even if someone bought it, the new owner still had to pay taxes every ten years as a tribute to the Lifire Palace. For example, the inns, restaurants, transaction grounds, auctions, etc... All of them had to pay even more tribute, and the timing was the same - once every ten years.

The five governors' main responsibilities are to protect the safety of the city. Nobody can commit crimes within here or the governors had the authority to deal with them according to the strict laws of the city.

In other words, it means that the five governors would be the one to blame if there was trouble in their region. Just the northern city region alone was incomparably vast. Qin Wentian casually flipped through the information scrolls and could already see countless powers formed of experts. In his manor, there were actually only three other people, a butler and two serving girls. There were also merely 3,000 subordinates out there, and the three vice governors weren't even here. This was simply a terrible mess.

Qin Wentian recalled some of the main cities in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. An example was the Southern Phoenix Immortal City, it did share some similarities with Lifire City. These main cities all prohibited killing and safety was their number one priority. This was the reason why many experts would feel at ease to settle their clans here and to establish businesses, causing the city to grow more prosperous, forming a cycle of virtue. The larger a city was, the more people would come to it. Eventually, after some generations, those powerful clans might even become aristocrats.

The Evil Emperor was here as well, he followed Qin Wentian into the file room and was in his human form. His sturdy figure contained an explosive strength. Before the Night Empyrean and Ye Qianyu, he had always appeared in his beast form. But now after the Night Empyrean's death and Ye Qianyu's capture, he was no longer subservient to anyone. Hence, he decided to be in human-form as it would be more convenient to move about.

"The Lifire Palace is truly wealthy. Hmph." The Evil Emperor snorted coldly. Ignoring the fact that the Lifire Palace had numerous stretches of territories under its control, just this Lifire City alone would have to hand over an astronomical amount of tributes every ten years.

The Lifire Palace was already so wealthy. One could very well imagine how rich the Realmlord was. However, as one grows stronger, their need for cultivation resources would also be magnified greatly. The stronger someone is, the more resources they would need. No wonder those supreme characters would contend against each other to gain control of a territory.

If one ascended to the Lifelong Realmlord's position, they didn't even need to do anything and simply had to wait for their subordinates to turn in the cultivation resources. That person who became a Realmlord, could just relax and concentrate fully on his cultivation.

"The responsibilities of being the governor are truly not so easy to fulfil. This is especially so for the northern region. I finally understand why Governor Meng was so eager to hand over his position." Qin Wentian commented faintly.

"How could there be such an easy thing in the world? For all tributes given by the powers in the northern region, you as the governor can retain 10% for your own personal storage, doing what you want to with it. You must know that for the plunder from ordinary bandits, their accumulated wealth from the heists they conducted, is all far inferior to the wealth of a single governor." The Evil Emperor replied.

"There are too many random and troublesome matters here. This territory is truly in chaos, and as the governor of it, how can I cultivate in peace?" Qin Wentian mumbled. He understood that the most important matter to him currently, was still cultivation. However, the Lifire Empyrean purposely gave him this position. Could it be that he didn't want Qin Wentian to have any peace and quiet to cultivate?

"That butler earlier seemed to know plenty of things but he is afraid to speak up. Let me ask him for you." The Evil Emperor cast a glance at the butler who stood outside the door. Qin Wentian knew about the abilities of the Evil Emperor. He nodded, "Sure, please help me to question him. It would be more direct if you do it."

A demonic gleam flashed in the Evil Emperor's eyes. Very swiftly, the eyes of the butler flickered with a green demonic light. His gaze turned vacant and the Evil Emperor started to ask questions. Very soon, Qin Wentian learned of many things he wanted to know as the expression on his face grew increasingly heavy.

The Jialan Clan actually had enough wealth to contend against the Lifire Empyrean. In fact, even the empyrean himself might not be as wealthy as them. The Jialan Clan owns countless businesses in the boundlessly vast Lifire City, they were controlling the businesses in the dark. Not only so, other than the north, they also had influence in the other regions, gaining huge amounts of profit through many transaction grounds and shops which they controlled. This resulted in experts being as common as the clouds in the Jialan Clan, they also recruited a countless number of guest elders, building up their strength.

In the northern city region, the Jialan Clan could do anything they wanted and many people in the governor's manor were long bribed by them. Whoever dares to go against the Jialan Clan, they would surely have many methods to play you to death. Nobody would be able to investigate. Everything in the Lifire Palace would be done according to the rules. Although everyone knows deep in their hearts that the deaths of some governors were done by the Jialan Clan, even the Lifire Empyrean couldn't touch them if there was no proof.

Also, given that the Jialan Clan were in control of many of the factions of power here, they could constantly hide in the shadows and wouldn't leave any clues. Sometimes, even if you found the true killer, all further connections would be severed at that stage. There was no way to link the investigation to the Jialan Clan.

But if this was merely the case, what capabilities does the Jialan Clan have to contend against the Lifire Empyrean? They were still within the Lifire Palace's territories.

According to the old butler, there are some rumors saying that the Jialan Clan even has some supporters who are very close to the Lifelong Realmlord standing behind them. In fact, there was one who once fought against the Lifire Empyrean for the position of the Lifire Palace Lord. Hence, the Jialan Clan and the Lifire Empyrean have always set themselves against each other. This was considered an open secret.

Using rules as a coverage, the Jialan Clan challenged the Lifire Palace countless times. As for the Lifire Palace, they wanted to borrow Qin Wentian and Ye Qianyu's bandit group to give a harsh lesson to the Jialan Monarch. Naturally, they did everything under the coverage of laws as well. The Lifire Empyrean could not possible openly take the initiative to act against the Jialan Monarch. If not, if his actions were reported to the Realmlord, what would the Realmlord think of him?

Hence, all conflict happened in the darkness, within the scope of the rules.

And now, he Qin Wentian entered this hidden battle, becoming a chess piece for the Lifire Empyrean who gave him the position of the northern governor.

Qin Wentian also understood why there were only three servants left here and all three of them were only at the immortal-foundation realm. Because there were no others who were willing to work for the governor.

After he gave leave for the butler to go, the one of the two serving girls came by to report their news. Qin Wentian summoned her in, "What's the matter?"

"Governor, there are some info reports from the external manor area saying that there are some people making trouble in the northern region and they are requesting help from our governor's manor." The serving girl spoke.

"What's the matter exactly?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Injury, theft, plunder, creating a disturbance...there are all sorts of issues." That serving girl lowered her head.

"Is there a need to report these minor matters to me? Don't the people below me knows how to handle them?" Qin Wentian glanced at the serving girl as he asked. If the people below him couldn't even handle such matters, why did he need them for? This would be akin to the nine monarchs being unable to handle the matters of their respective territories and told the Lifire Empyrean to handle their problems. If the Lifire Empyrean couldn't handle it too, does it mean that he would report upwards and let the Lifelong Realmlord handle it?

"They say they don't dare to act out of their own initiative and wish to consult with sir governor first. Also…"

"Just tell me what they say directly."

"Also, the time for tax collection is near. If things remain unsettled, those people might use these as excuses to avoid paying the tributes at that time." The serving girl spoke in a low voice. Qin Wentian nodded, "You can leave first. Help me to relay my command, summon the three vice governors to come and see me."

"Yes." That serving girl nodded and left. Coldness flickered in Qin Wentian's eyes. How fast did they move? He just assumed the governor's role and there are already so many matters waiting for him to settle. Clearly, his enemies are all well prepared.

"Evil Emperor, can I use the people from the Thousand Feathers Palace?" Qin Wentian glanced at the Evil Emperor beside him as he asked.

"Palace mistress is currently locked up. If it wasn't for your compromise, the Thousand Feathers Palace would have already been finished. Just give the order on behalf of her. It's just that, do you really plan to become an effective chess piece for the Lifire Empyrean? If you really think this is useful, I can tell you straight that he would never release palace mistress." The Evil Emperor spoke.

"But at the very least, as long as we are willing to be used by him, nothing will happen to Qianyu." Qin Wentian stared into the horizons, his eyes gleaming with coldness. He naturally understood that if he wanted to save Ye Qianyu, he cannot live under the control of the Lifire Empyrean forever. If not, there would forever not be a chance to rescue Ye Qianyu.

...

In one of the more lavish restaurants in the northern city, inside an ancient-looking hall, a group of females dressed in a provocative style was dancing while exuding elegance. A maiden in the center was robed in translucent white, playing the zither. Her snow-white skin was faintly discernible and the melody was exceptionally beautiful as well. There was a veil covering her face, but that only added to her sense of beauty.

Up ahead, there were many people sitting here, admiring the dance and music. One of them laughed, "Fairy Yu is getting more and more beautiful."

"Indeed." Another one laughed. "Oh, did you guys receive the report by our attendants? That new governor is summoning us to meet with him."

"Yes, I did receive it." The person next to him nodded. "What do you two plan to do?"

The man in the lead had eyes that glowed with spirit. He was still staring at the beauty playing the zither as a faint smile appeared on his face. It was like he didn't hear the question.

"Brother Zhao, what is your opinion?" One of the other two asked.

"There's no need to give a damn." Vice Governor Zhao laughed, his words causing the eyes of the person who asked to flash as that person continued, "The new governor's name is called Qin Wentian, he is someone sent here personally by the Lifire Empyrean. I heard that the Jialan Monarch suffered greatly in his hands. His combat prowess is extraordinary, able to kill mid-stage immortal emperors easily. Should we be more cautious? I feel it would be better if we respond to his summons."

"Vice Governor Lu, the people of the world love to spread rumors, greatly exaggerating the truth of matters. So what even if his combat prowess is high? If the three of us join forces, what can he do to us? Let's ignore him for a period of time until he really needs us urgently. At that time, he himself would personally come and seek us out. Now, he wants to summon us over with just a sentence? Does he really think that he is a real governor?" Vice Governor Zhao coldly laughed.

The third vice governor who was also the youngest one, had a faint smile on his face. He didn't say anything. Some things, it was enough for them to have a tacit mutual understanding, there was no need to put it into words. They have long received news from the Jialan Clan about this.

Chapter 1569: What crime are you guilty of?

It has already been three months since the new northern governor took over. During these three months, there wasn't much commotion.

The governor's manor seemed to become even more laid back and lazy. Before this, there were still some people in the northern regions acting cautiously but after these three months, the entire governor's manor was like a plate of loose sand. This new governor seemed to be the same as many of the old ones, ignoring everything, living his life quietly in peace until he was hopefully shifted away by the Lifire Empyrean.

Within the internal manor of the governor's manor, numerous beams of light brimming with emperor might shot out. Many people in the external manor area inclined their heads and stared over. Who was it that was forging emperor-ranked weapons?

Qin Wentian was within his own personal residence. A tiny lion sped over, entering the residence. Upon seeing the situation, his gaze froze. Right now, Qin Wentian was standing near a cultivation platform and had activated the formation inscribed on it. This was the source of the beams of light.

"This is a platform created by you?" The Evil Emperor glanced at him.

"Although the grade is inferior to the one created by senior River Portrait, it wouldn't affect the quality of my cultivation by too much. Evil Emperor, I have to thank you." Qin Wentian nodded at the Evil Emperor.

"The old cultivation platform was originally built for you by the palace mistress. After we dismantled it, the materials naturally belonged to you as well." The Evil Emperor replied. "Now, I can tell that your talent isn't simply on cultivation and combat. You are also highly talented in formations. With this ability, you would never need to worry about cultivation resources ever again. Even if you don't join any powers, there's no need to worry even if you remain an unaffiliated cultivator."

"It's still far from enough. I have to strengthen my abilities in this aspect." Qin Wentian didn't feel too much joy. He then continued asking, "Are the three Vice Governors here yet?"

The Evil Emperor shook his head. A faint smile appeared on Qin Wentian's face. "Since this is the case, let's go to the external manor area to take a walk."

"Right." The Evil Emperor nodded. After that, he followed after Qin Wentian, the two of them soared through the air and soon arrived at the training grounds of the external manor area. In front of them, this training ground could contain up to tens of thousands of people. There were nine-sided battle drums all around it. He stood in the air, his robes fluttering in the wind as he waved his hand, blasting his energy at the drums. A moment later, the power of the drum sounds reverberated the skies, transforming into terrifying sonic booms that resounded through the external and interior manor area.

At this moment, many people turned their attention over and several of them flew towards the training grounds. They saw Qin Wentian who was standing in the air. He exuded magnificence and had an incomparable demeanor. He didn't even glance at them. In an instant later, a formless pressure enveloped the entire training grounds. Those who came all stood below him and bowed, "We pay our respects to sir governor."

Qin Wentian continued standing in the air, not saying anything. More and more experts arrived and very swiftly, about a thousand experts had already come to the training grounds. All of them were bowing. The formless emperor's aura from Qin Wentian was sufficient to cause them to feel great pressure.

With a sweep of his immortal sense, Qin Wentian scouted the external manor area. However, out of the 3,000 subordinates, only a little more than a thousand had appeared. Not even half showed up.

"Zhao Yichuan, Lu Tong, Zhong Zihua. Where are they at?" Qin Wentian calmly asked, there were no emotions in his voice. Silence descended on the training grounds, nobody replied to him.

These three people were none other than the three Vice Governors. It has been a long time since they last appeared at the governor's manor.

Right now, no sound could be heard. The atmosphere was extremely tense.

"The three Vice Governors are all not present. In that case, I want their attendants to stand out." Qin Wentian spoke. A few moments later, the thirty attendants of the three Vice Governors were all supposed to step out. However, only twenty attendants were present.

"I will give you all half an incense worth of time to get into proper lines. Zhao Yichuan's subordinates to stand in the middle, Lu Tong's subordinates on the left, and Zhong Zihua's subordinates on the right. The ten attendants for each Vice Governor are to group your people into groups of ten." Qin Wentian's voice was as calm as ever.

There was no need for half an incense worth of time, in just a few moments, the groups and lines were formed. it was just that it wasn't uniform as the number of subordinates for each of the Vice Governors that were present, was different.

"I believe you all have your own methods to contact your Vice Governors. Attendants and subordinates, immediately relay my order to others. Within four hours, everyone has to appear here. For those who dare not to comply, they should know very well what the consequences would be." Qin Wentian flicked his sleeves. After that, he sat down in the air, closing his eyes in meditation.

Everyone took out their messaging crystals respectively, sending their immortal senses within. Although messaging crystals were very valuable, but those who could become subordinates of the governor's manor, would all be at the immortal king realm at least. All of them were issued a messaging crystal as it would be more convenient to execute missions.

Not too long after, more and more people hurried back. The experts gathered in the training grounds grew in number. After all, the majority of them still didn't dare to disobey a direct order from the governor. If not, who knew if this new governor would vent his anger on them to establish dominance?

But even so, there were still some that didn't show up. After four hours, a total of 2,500 plus people gathered here, there were still 400 plus people that didn't appear. Out of the thirty attendants, twenty-four appeared. There were six who didn't come. As for the three Vice Governors, none of them showed up.

Qin Wentian glanced at the group that was missing six attendants. With a wave of his hand, six beams of light shone upon six people. "From now on, the six of you will take over the positions of the six missing attendants."

The countenances of the six changed, one of them lowered his head, "Sir governor, us subordinates are incapable, we don't dare to take such a high position."

"Reporting to sir governor, the six attendants might be carrying out their missions outside and thus, they were delayed." Another person tried to explain.

The other four didn't say anything. Qin Wentian nodded, "Okay, I will respect both your viewpoints."

After speaking, he waved his hand again, "Two more beams of light shone upon two more people. "I command you two to take on the attendant positions. Are you both willing to?"

"I'm willing to." One of them clenched his fists and nodded. The eyes of the other person gleamed with sharpness before he bowed and nodded, "Your subordinate will comply with sir governor's order."

The two who spoke earlier both turned pale. This governor was simply way too decisive.

"After I took over, I have never issued any missions. No matter who it is, none of them should have anything to do. Even if they are patrolling the northern city region or doing other things, four hours is already enough time for them to return. All the attendants do a count of your numbers. For those who are not here, submit their names to me. I shall remove their names from the system."

"Your subordinates are late, we beg Lord Governor's for your forgiveness." At this moment, a voice rang out as three figures sped over. The man in the lead had an imposing look and was a peak-stage immortal king. He was one of the ten attendants under Vice Governor Lu Tong.

Qin Wentian glanced at him, "A moment ago, you were already expelled from the governor's manor. From now onwards, the three of you are no longer a part of the governor's manor. You all can leave now."

"Reporting to Lord Governor, we were truly tied down by some stuff. We were executing the mission given to us by Vice Governor Lu. There are some robbers that appeared in an auction and we were there handling the issue. Governor, you can check our words with Vice Governor Lu if you want to." That peak-stage immortal king attendant was still bowing. Although his manner appeared respectful, his words were hinting that he had the backing of Vice Governor Lu, he clearly didn't give a damn about Qin Wentian.

"This seat has already told the others to relay my command, telling everyone to come back within four hours. If you guys are outside handling an issue, you can inform Vice Governor Lu and get him to relay the information to me. I will naturally understand things. However, this seat did not receive any information report at all. Hence, let me repeat once again. From now onwards, the three of you are expelled from the governor's manor."

Qin Wentian glanced at them and coldly barked with a cold expression, "Scram!"

That peak-stage immortal king froze. He stared at the sharp look on Qin Wentian's face as his heart suddenly trembled. He was thinking why Vice Governor Lu hasn't appeared yet.

But at this very moment, a relaxed voice rang out, "Your subordinate Lu Tong, pays my respects to Lord Governor."

Only then did the three attendants heave a sigh of relief.

A moment later, Vice Governor Lu appeared in the air. He clasped his hands at Qin Wentian, "Lord Governor Qin, earlier, I was bogged down by a mission and didn't answer your summons. Today, seeing how Lord Governor is so frantically gathering people here, I immediately rushed over. Please forgive me for my tardiness."

Qin Wentian sat there, he inclined his head and cast a glance at Lu Tong. His expression was calm and he didn't make any reply, simply staring at Lu Tong.

Lu Tong was a mid-stage immortal emperor and wasn't anyone ordinary. His face still had a look of respect and he clasped his hands as he greeted Qin Wentian. There was no change to his expression.

"Are you speaking to our governor while standing in this position?" A green light flared in the Evil Emperor's eyes. Lu Tong was standing in a position in the air higher than Qin Wentian, peering down at him. What attitude was this?

"Governor, please forgive me." An awkward look appeared on Lu Tong's face. After that, he descended down to the training grounds and bowed, "Lu Tong came in a hurry and didn't think too much about minor details. Please pardon me."

"Vice Governor Lu, help this seat to ask when Vice Governors Zhao and Zhong can come here." Qin Wentian suddenly smiled. Lu Tong bitterly shook his head, "Governor Qin, right now, I, Lu, have no way to contact Vice Governor Zhao and Vice Governor Lu.

"Oh, is that so? This seat initially still wanted to drink a few cups of wine with the three of you. Who would have thought that it's so difficult to locate the three vice governors." Qin Wentian stood up and shrugged his shoulders helplessly. Lu Tong coldly laughed in his heart. Was this Qin Wentian trying to pull them closer to him? As for the three attendants of Lu Tong, all of them had looks of disdain on their faces now.

"Oh ya, I have already summoned the three vice governors once three months ago but I received no response at all. Is it because your subordinates are not doing their job and didn't relay my message to you? If this is the case, why would we still need those useless fellows?"

"Governor please don't blame them. Your subordinate knows about the summon but because I had something important to handle outside, I had no way to return. Please forgive me." Vice Governor Lu sighed and shook his head.

"But they are still guilty of insubordination. Vice Governor Lu, since you have already told them that you have an important matter to handle outside, they should immediately send a reply to me, yet they actually kept it hidden and caused me to wait blindly for three months. I cannot forgive them so easily." Qin Wentian glanced at the attendants under Lu Tong.

"Lord Governor, because I was simply too busy, I didn't manage to find the time to inform my attendants. This really has nothing to do with them." Lu Tong replied.

"Oh?" Qin Wentian laughed. His lips suddenly curled up in a cold smile. When Lu Tong saw his smile, a faint trepidation appeared in his gaze. He immediately bowed again, "Lord Governor, please forgive me."

"Forgive you? In that case, this means that Vice Governor Lu also knows that you are guilty?" Qin Wentian smiled wider. "Butler, according to the laws of the Lifire Palace, if a vice governor ignored the orders of his respective governor and even delayed his reply for three months, what crime is he guilty of?"

Chapter 1570: Iron-blooded Methods

The moment after Qin Wentian spoke, Lu Tong's expression instantly changed, becoming extremely ugly to behold.

In this case, Qin Wentian was just trying to lead him to say the words 'begging for forgiveness.' He all along already planned this out.

The people in the training grounds all felt their hearts trembling. With just a sentence, the atmosphere of this place changed completely. Earlier, Qin Wentian was smiling and his casual way of speaking caused Lu Tong himself to admit that he had received the summons three months ago and he didn't respond to it. Right now, it was already too late if he wanted to deny this.

The butler who had been standing behind Qin Wentian, felt his heart trembling madly as he lowered his head even more.

"I'm asking you a question." Qin Wentian's voice suddenly turned a few degrees colder. The butler replied in a low voice, "According to the Lifire Palace's laws, the governor can sever an arm from the guilty vice governor and expel him from the governor's manor before making a report to the Lifire Palace."

"Vice Governor Lu, do you understand your crime?" Qin Wentian then glanced towards Lu Tong.

"Governor Qin, this subordinate truly has an ongoing mission which led to delays. Lord Governor, please show mercy." Lu Tong lowered his head, his heart trembling with anger. Was Qin Wentian planning to use him to establish dominance? Earlier, he still thought that Qin Wentian wanted to use soft methods to pull him closer but who would have thought that things changed completely in the blink of an eye?

"Sever one of your arms and get lost from the governor's manor." Qin Wentian stood in the air with his hands behind his back. The calmness in his voice was so calm that it was terrifying. The entire training grounds were completely quiet, nobody dared to say anything. This new governor shut himself inside for three months, was he making back-up plans for this?

Lu Tong's expression was unsightly to the extreme. His long robes fluttered without wind as an aura belonging to a mid-stage immortal emperor gushed forth violently. He stared at Qin Wentian as he coldly spoke, "Governor Qin, are you planning to use me to establish your dominance?"

Qin Wentian's calm gaze suddenly gleamed with sharpness. Bolts of lightning shot out as he stared at Lu Tong, "Knowing your crime but refusing to admit it? You even dare to slander this seat. Seems like this seat has to act personally."

As he spoke, he stepped forward and blasted out a gentle-looking palm strike. Lu Tong's aura gushed forth as he roared in anger, "I, Lu, want to complain about this to the Grand Governor!"

As he spoke, he punched out, easily dispersing the gentle palm attack of Qin Wentian. A cold smile flashed in his eyes. An initial-stage emperor? Qin Wentian's attacking prowess was merely so-so. Seems like the rumors were false.

Qin Wentian took another step out, directly appearing before Lu Tong, exuding killing intent. Lu Tong punched out once more, with force sufficient to subdue dragons and tame tigers, his strength was even more domineering compared to demons, capable of blasting anything apart. His punch slammed into Qin Wentian's body. With a low groan of agony, Qin Wentian was forced back. Lu Tong coldly sneered, "Since Governor Qin wants to act this way, don't blame Lu Tong for being impolite."

"Butler, what crime is he guilty of for insubordination and daring to harm his superior officer, the governor?" Qin Wentian asked again. The butler was shaking from terror. He didn't dare to say anything but an instant later, when he felt a killing intent boring down on him, he immediately prostrated himself onto the ground and replied, "Death penalty."

Lu Tong trembled, after that, he saw a terrifying gaze fixed on him. In an instant, Lu Tong only felt himself sinking into the eye-technique dimension where the heavens and earth were both sealed. He had no way to resonate with his constellation. His heart pounded violently as he felt chills all over his body.

He was fooled!

Right now, he actually felt terror. Even if the rumors were not false, even if Qin Wentian's attacks weren't that weak, how could he possibly be this powerful? Also when they exchanged blows, Qin Wentian clearly couldn't even withstand a single strike. This meant that it was possible Qin Wentian allowed himself to be hit on purpose to pin him to the death penalty.

In the dimension, Qin Wentian stabbed out with his fingers, instantly materializing several swords of light which pierced forth. Lu Tong was simply helpless against them, his body was penetrated by the swords of light as his eyes flared with anger, glaring at Qin Wentian.

"Vile creature wanting to harm me…" Lu Tong had a look of despair. His heart was filled with reluctance, and as a mid-stage immortal emperor vice governor, he was actually killed by the new governor by such iron-blooded methods, all in the name of the law - his death became justifiable because he injured Qin Wentian.

With a bang, Lu Tong's body slammed onto the ground. His eyes were still wide open in death, filled with reluctance to accept this.

Staring at the cold corpse of Lu Tong, the people in the training grounds felt their hearts pounding violently. A mid-stage immortal emperor vice governor was actually killed just like that. This was too ruthless.

Only now did they understand that this new governor wasn't someone who could be bullied.

For a period of time, everyone only wanted to protect themselves, they didn't have any inclinations about the safety of others. The three attendants who came late earlier, were now all pale with fright.

"Lu Tong's crime is out in the open for all to see, he blatantly disobeyed this seat's order and even dared to injure this seat. I killed him because he deserved the death penalty for his crimes. Anyone has any objections?" Qin Wentian's eyes swept through the crowd as he asked calmly. How would there be anyone who dared to say anything? All of them shut their mouths and lowered their heads, not daring to reply.

"Since there are no objections, I will report this up to the Empyrean and remove Lu Tong's name from our system." Qin Wentian spoke. After that, he glanced at the three immortal kings in the air. The lead attendant had gone completely pale. He clasped his hands, "Your subordinates will leave right now."

Qin Wentian flicked his sleeves as a powerful palm strike blasted all three of them away. They coughed out blood, their inner organs trembled from the impact but they didn't even dare to look back. All three of them fled in a pathetic manner.

"All thirty attendants, including the newly conferred ones, better control your men well. Without my command, everyone better do your jobs and do them well. In the future, if there are any who dares to play around, I will immediately pronounce him guilty and mete out the punishments. For those who are not present today, take down their names and give it to the butler. If they show their faces here in the future, directly expel them. From now onwards, they are no longer subordinates of the governor's manor."

Qin Wentian gave the command. Everyone listened quietly, not daring to voice any objections.

"As for Lu Yichuan and Zhong Zihua, both of the vice governors have failed to comply with my orders, ignoring it for three months. They both have to sever an arm and will be expelled from the governor's manor. Relay my command, immediately order the arrest of Zhao Yichuan and Zhong Zihua. If they take the initiative to come to the governor's manor to plead guilty to their crimes, the punishment will be given as their original crime. But if they don't show up within three months, they will be deemed as traitors. I will report this to the empyrean and capture them myself before killing them with no mercy."

Qin Wentian's voice brimmed with killing intent, causing the countless people here to tremble. This time, he didn't merely use Lu Tong to establish his dominance. He wanted to finish all three vice governors in one go, expelling all three of them out from the governor's manor. Also, he wanted the two other vice governors to sever one of their arms and come here to plead guilty to their crimes. If not, they would be captured and killed with no mercy.

Too ruthless, this was simply not giving them any grounds to retreat. Now, even if Zhao Yichuan and Jiang Zihua wanted to come back, they wouldn't be able to do so now.

Everyone stealthily glanced at Qin Wentian's handsome face, but they all felt chills in their hearts. Closing himself in for three months, but coming out with such a huge bang, directly making a move towards the three vice governors. Before this, who was the one who said that the new governor was weak and only came here to waste his time, waiting for the empyrean to shift him away? Now, it was clear that the skies of the northern city regions were going to change.

The subordinates of the three vice governors that were present here, all felt their hearts trembling. They were worried Qin Wentian would find them for revenge in the future. This was especially so for some who had obtained benefits from the Jialan Clan. They were all panicking and were worried that their relationship with the Jialan Clan would be exposed.

Qin Wentian took another few steps forward, his imposing aura permeated the area, boring down on everyone's heart.

"On the order of the Lifire Empyrean, I took up the position as the northern governor. I'm unsure of what is going on before I came, and I don't care about anything you guys did in the past. Even if you committed a great crime, I can close one eye about it. But from today onwards, starting from now, if there's anyone who disobeys my orders or they dare to collude with outsiders, Lu Tong's ending will be the same as theirs." Qin Wentian coldly spoke, causing a heavy pressure to press down on everyone.

Qin Wentian didn't pursue the past, this was considered giving them a chance, telling them to be loyal to him now. Many of the attendants here were close subordinates to Zhao Yichuan and Zhong Zihua, they had an unbreakable relationship initially but now, as the situations changed, they immediately felt how hard it would be to handle things.

"You guys can return." Qin Wentian then waved his hands.

"Yes, governor." Everyone was taken aback. He actually didn't appoint new vice governors? But now, all of them felt like they had been granted a great amnesty. All of them then left one after another.

After they returned, everyone in the external manor area felt fear in their hearts, they no longer lazed about. Many of them had to make a decision but no matter which side they were on, there would be danger.

Things were different here compared to the other city regions. It was said that this new governor had a grudge with the Jialan Clan and it was unknown how long he would be able to sit securely in his position. If they really chose to submit to him, they would definitely be in extremely miserable states in the future if the situation changed.

After several days, the vice governor Zhong Zihua actually came back to plead guilty. This caused a great commotion that shocked the entire governor's manor. After that, Zhong Zihua was brought before Qin Wentian.

"Zhong Zihua pays my respects to Lord Governor." Upon seeing Qin Wentian, Zhong Zihua bowed.

"Zhong Zihua, do you know your crime?" A faint coldness radiated from Qin Wentian. The Evil Emperor followed behind him, his jade-green eyes staring at Zhong Zihua as well.

"Your subordinate knows. I'm willing to accept Lord Governor's punishment." Zhong Zihua bowed. "May your subordinate be so bold as to ask Lord Governor to give me a chance again? I don't wish to be expelled from the governor's manor."

"Hmph." Qin Wentian coldly snorted. In an instant, countless vines shot towards one of his arms, twining around it. The vines were as sharp as swords, piercing deep into his arm.

Zhong Zihua gritted his teeth, bearing the pain and agony as he silently endured.

"Why have you returned? Why are you willing to stay on?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Governor Qin, I know you have a grudge with the Jialan Clan and I have also learned what happened in the past between you and the Jialan Monarch. Truthfully speaking, following you is really not an intelligent choice. After all, even if you can contend against the Jialan Clan, your future would still be filled with danger." Zhong Zihua calmly spoke, his words causing an expression of interest to appear in Qin Wentian's eyes. He naturally understood this. Even if he could contend against the Jialan Clan now, who knows how long the Lifire Empyrean would have a use for him for?

"But, the command given by Governor Qin had simply severed any paths for me to retreat to. If I took on the name of a traitor, there would be no place for me in the vast territory controlled by the Lifire Palace. Even if I sought out the grand governor, he would surely support you at that time. After all, everyone understands that it was the Lifire Empyrean who gave this position to you directly. I don't have a choice." Zhong Zihua replied. "Also, the Jialan Clan definitely wouldn't dare to accept me in their ranks. If they did so, that would be tantamount to giving Lord Governor an excuse to move openly against them."

"You still had another choice." Qin Wentian coldly laughed.

"Naturally. Within the three months, I could assassinate Governor Qin, or I could also borrow the forces from the Jialan Clan to deal with you. But I feel this isn't an intelligent choice, hence I decided to voluntarily admit to my crime." Zhong Zihua shook his head.

This was true as after all, as long as Qin Wentian was killed within the timeframe he had given of three months, all his previous orders would be void, turning meaningless.

Chapter 1571: Soul Slaying Needle

Qin Wentian stared at Zhong Zihua's eyes before he laughed. After that, he retracted the vines that wound around Zhong Zihua's arm. He didn't sever the arm and he calmly smiled, "I will leave your arm alone. Return first and wait for my orders."

"Many thanks, Lord Governor." Zhong Zihua started, revealing a surprised expression as he bowed and retreated.

Qin Wentian stared at Zhong Zihua as he departed. After that, he waved his hand and set up an immortal sense isolation barrier and turned his eyes to the little lion in the corner.

"What do you think?" Qin Wentian asked.

"You are suspicious of him?" The Evil Emperor felt a little bewildered. "From what he has said, there doesn't seem to be any problems? It's truly a more suitable choice for him to plead guilty."

"Indeed, but he is also lying about something." Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

The eyes of the Evil Emperor flashed with a strange light but he didn't ask anything more about this. Since Qin Wentian said that he was lying, he must be lying. Since Qin Wentian knew about it, he would naturally be wary when he dealt with Zhong Zihua in the future.

After several days, the last vice governor Zhao Yichuan, also arrived. He directly appeared outside the governor's manor and was cursing Qin Wentian in rage, telling Qin Wentian to scram out to face him.

Hence, many experts gathered outside the manor, including many of Zhao Yichuan's subordinates from the governor's manor.

Although there were three vice governors in the governor's manor, Zhao Yichuan was always deemed as the leader of the three. His cultivation base was the highest, his qualifications were the oldest and he was the most powerful. Right now, he stood outside the manor, in the air, while radiating violent waves of emperor might which caused the people below to feel stifling pressure.

"Qin Wentian, you bastard. Just because this seat was busy handling some matters outside and was late to return, you actually sent out the order for arrest, wanting me to come and plead guilty, severing one of my arms before expelling me from the governor's manor. How dare you." Zhao Yichuan's anger rose to the sky, his aura was extremely shocking. "Just a captive of the Lifire Palace yet you dare to come here to ride roughshod over the people, even killing my brother Lu Tong. Today, I will kill you for sure."

"Vice Governor Zhao seems to be truly enraged." The people of the governor's manor mused silently. Zhao Yichuan has always been an extremely decisive person but he could also be calm and intelligent. This doesn't seem to be his style. Could it be he was truly provoked by Qin Wentian's actions?

Clearly this was the case. As a vice governor, he was pronounced guilty and an arrest order was sent out for him. Zhao Yichuan was after all a powerful immortal emperor, how would he have the face to face others in the future?

Although immortal emperors cannot be considered lofty supreme characters in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, they were still powerful experts and would naturally have pride. How would they stand for such humiliation?

Qin Wentian was clad in a long robe, he walked out from the manor and when the subordinates of the manor saw him, all of them bowed low, not daring to show any disrespect. The scene of how Qin Wentian killed Lu Tong was still fresh in their minds.

"Zhong Zihua?" Zhao Yichuan saw that Zhong Zihua was standing behind Qin Wentian. He coldly continued, "Zhong Zihua, you actually wagged your dog tail to beg for mercy from him. No wonder your arm wasn't severed. Seems like you must have knelt and begged him. Are you going to disregard the death of Brother Lu?"

"Vice Governor Zhao, stop your nonsense. If you plead guilty now, maybe Governor Qin will give you a chance." Zhong Zihua replied.

"Wanting me to submit to this captive?" Zhao Yichuan laughed as he pointed at Qin Wentian. "A captive that needs a woman to save his life actually came here to take the governor's position? Today, I shall prove to the Lifire Empyrean that he would also have times where his judgement isn't good. Qin Wentian, I, Zhao Yichuan, officially issue a challenge towards you. Do you dare to accept?"

Qin Wentian glanced over, his eyes were cold to the extreme. A pair of bizarre true-phantasm eyes appeared. Zhao Yichuan only felt the world around him changing as he was directly dragged into a dimension created by Qin Wentian's eye technique. He howled in rage as tyrannical might gushed forth from his body. With a wave of his hands, countless strands of his hair flared with a golden light, turning as sharp as swords. They also brimmed with the power of thunder as they blasted out with explosive might, wanting to shatter the dimension.

"Governor Qin, this Zhao Yichuan's combat prowess is extraordinary. Let us act together to deal with him." Zhong Zihua stepped forward, directly arriving behind Qin Wentian. A resplendent emperor light radiated from him as his right palm slammed out towards Zhao Yichuan. However, his left hand actually shot out a formless energy current, aiming for Qin Wentian's back.

An extreme coldness flashed in Qin Wentian's eyes. He turned his head and glanced at Zhong Zihua, radiance from the laws of light erupted forth, transforming into swords of light that pierced at Zhong Zihua. At the same time, an incomparably powerful law energy circulated around him, forming a defensive barrier. However, that formless energy current actually ignored the laws of light and Qin Wentian's defensive shield of law energy. It directly pierced through the defenses and landed on Qin Wentian's body. Despite Qin Wentian's powerful physical defense, that formless energy current took on the shape of a needle and effortlessly pierced into his body.

"Governor, what are you doing?!" Zhong Zihua roared, backing away as his expression changed drastically when he saw that Qin Wentian had also launched an attack at him. However, as the needle pierced in, Qin Wentian felt a piercing pain from his soul. That formless energy continued making its way into the depths of his soul, causing his body to convulse involuntarily, it was like he was on the verge of losing his ability to battle.

"BOOM!" On the other side, Zhao Yichuan finally broke out from the dimension. Emperor might bore down on everything. The him now didn't seem as infuriated as before, on the contrary, his expression looked cold and collected. He lifted his hand and a golden thunder law domain formed around him in an instant. Bolts of lightning and thunder swirled around him as they pierced towards Qin Wentian.

Clearly, Zhao Yichuan and Zhong Zihua long had a secret plot between them. They had joined forces, just for this single sure-kill strike. They wanted to take Qin Wentian's life.

Qin Wentian's soul was being invaded by that formless energy current. That terrifying needle wanted to destroy his soul. Right now, Qin Wentian's entire body turned stiff, he couldn't react as the bolts of lightning and thunder blasted into him. In an instant, many wounds appeared on his body as his blood flowed.

A gleaming golden spear capable of piercing through the heavens and earth appeared in Zhao Yichuan's hand. He directly stabbed towards Qin Wentian's head. Many people below felt their hearts trembling. Would the new governor, who killed Vice Governor Lu Tong in such a domineering fashion, die here today?

As expected, both Zhao Yichuan and Zhong Zihua weren't simple characters. Although the crowd didn't sense Zhong Zihua making a move, but since Qin Wentian suddenly acted against him, it should be evident that Zhong Zihua did something against Qin Wentian.

The Evil Emperor, who was standing behind, had also acted. His demonic gaze flashed with a fearsome jade-green light as he directly invaded Zhong Zihua's mind. He howled in rage and reverted to his true form, that of a demonic lion king. His sharp claws then directly slashed out at Zhong Zihua, Zhong Zihua hurriedly reacted, slamming out his left hand in response as a formless energy wave fluctuated as another formless energy current materialized into a needle which pierced through the Evil Emperor's claws, its power entering the Evil Emperor's soul. With an explosive bang, Zhong Zihua's body was then sent flying through the air from the impact.

In the time it took for sparks to fly off a flint, the golden spear of Zhao Yichuan had arrived before Qin Wentian, it was just a moment away from piercing into Qin Wentian's head.

But at this moment, Qin Wentian finally was able to move. Powerful spatial energy gushed forth, his body turned into an after-image as he appeared in another location. The rumblings of the thunder and lightning intensified as Zhao Yichuan launched another attack at him.

However, with another glance, Zhao Yichuan once again fell into the eye-technique dimension. The pair of eyes were terrifying to the extreme. Right now, countless rays of light shot into Zhao Yichuan's eyes, causing him to scream in misery. As he shut his eyes, trickles of blood flowed down, his screams of pain were so miserable that it caused many of the crowd to shudder.

Bzzz~ The powerful radiance from the laws of light shone upon Zhao Yichuan. His body slowly disintegrated under the glare of the radiance, heading towards death.

After that, Qin Wentian's gaze then turned over, staring at Zhong Zihua.

Right now, Zhong Zihua had a look of stark terror on his pale face. How can this be, the Soul Slaying Needle in addition to Zhao Yichuan's efforts, actually failed to kill Qin Wentian?

The Soul Slaying Needle by itself was already an extremely powerful treasure. Even for peak-stage demon emperors like the Evil Emperor, they would sink into a bitter and painful struggle for their soul. Qin Wentian was merely at the initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm and this alone by rights should already be sufficient to destroy his soul. Along with Zhao Yichuan's attacks, there was basically no way for him to fail.

But, he did fail! Hence, he paid a terrible price for it.

When the countless swords of light shot out by Qin Wentian pierced into his body, his cultivation base and organs were crippled but he didn't die. Zhong Zihua fell onto the ground helplessly, completely devoid of strength. Fresh blood dyed the ground around him red as he stared at Qin Wentian who slowly descended down from the air.

"Although I already knew you were up to no good, I didn't expect that you would launch a sneak attack like that. What is that treasure you used to attack?" Qin Wentian stared at Zhong Zihua as he asked. Although Qin Wentian's aura was still terrifying, it was clearly weaker than before. It was evident that he was injured.

His soul was injured. Earlier, he had to use the Undying Scripture to forcefully split his soul, shattering the portion of his soul that was damaged. This was the reason why he could recover his ability to battle. If not, he would surely have died.

"Could it be a Soul Slaying Needle?" The Evil Emperor spoke. his large eyes flashing with a hint of fear. "Luckily, this isn't the highest graded Soul Slaying Needle or we would have died here today for sure. But even so, even for this grade of Soul Slaying Needle, its price is already terrifyingly high. Let alone vice governors, even a governor might have to spend their entire wealth in order to procure one."

"Truly terrifying indeed." Qin Wentian's eyes flashed when he recalled that feeling earlier. He silently nodded in agreement. Even peak-stage immortal emperors would die if they encountered a sneak attack from an assassin using this treasure. This Soul Slaying Needle was truly extremely frightening, there was no need to doubt its price.

Since Zhong Zihua might not be able to buy such a treasure, this meant that it must have been someone who handed him this. Not only did they plan measures to deal with him, they even took the Evil Emperor into account. From this, one could see how meticulous the planning of their enemy was.

"I've already crippled him, I will hand him to you." Qin Wentian spoke to the Evil Emperor.

"Right." The Evil Emperor nodded his head. Luckily, he was proficient in soul energy as well or it would have been extremely difficult for him to recover.

He walked over, his eyes flared with a green light as he stared at Zhong Zihua, entering Zhong Zihua's mind.

Qin Wentian coldly watched on. The incident today caused chills in his heart. He had just established his dominance and it was just him dealing with his subordinates but he had already almost died. From this, one could tell how dangerous things were.

The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were truly much more dangerous compared to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. There actually was such a shocking treasure - the Soul Slaying Needle, here. Not only so, there should also be a lot more powerful treasures which he had no knowledge of in this world. Even if he fought with someone weaker than him, he had to be extremely careful and wary of them.

The hearts of the people in the surroundings trembled. For this battle, the situation kept changing, causing them to feel a roller coaster ride of emotions.

This battle once again made them realize what a terrifying character their new governor is!

Chapter 1572: The Five Governors

In the governor city of the northern regions, all three vice governors were killed. The grand governor of the Lifire City personally sent people here to question Qin Wentian but after they learned of what happened, they didn't say anything and left directly.

Lu Tong attacked Qin Wentian and injured him. Zhao Yichuan and Zhong Zihua actually joined forces, forming a sinister plot wanting to kill him. Although he killed them, Qin Wentian did everything according to the rules and no one could say anything. After that incident, his subordinates all had fear in their hearts, nobody dared to challenge Qin Wentian's authority again.

After several days, Qin Wentian nominated three new vice governors, all of them were bandits from the Thousand Feathers Palace. Other than the Evil Emperor, he nominated the bandits to key positions within the governor's palace. Although Qin Wentian temporarily couldn't take revenge, he still had to gain complete control of the governor's manor first. If it was like in the past where no one showed up when he gave an order, how would he even be able to accomplish things?

Naturally, Qin Wentian also didn't intend to do anything temporarily. The incident that day was truly dangerous to the extreme. Despite his powerful physical defense due to his undying body, he had almost died. That could be considered a lesson. After the Evil Emperor gained control of Zhong Zihua, although there was no way to prove that the Jialan Clan was behind this, they could ascertain that a mysterious man gave him the Soul Slaying Needles and even told him to join forces with Zhao Yichuan. Let alone Qin Wentian, even Zhong Zihua himself guessed that that mysterious person should be someone from the Jialan Clan.

Not only so, according to Zhong Zihua, there were plenty of attendants under the three vice governors that had received bribes from different powers before. Everyone had a tacit understanding and knew what would happen at the end but no one said anything. After all, their cultivation resources, other than the Lifire Palace giving some out once every ten years, the remainder would come from a percentage of the tributes offered to the northern governor by the powers here on tribute day. However, how much tribute would the northern governor be able to achieve? The people of the governor's manor here were truly extremely poor.

Qin Wentian got the Evil Emperor to find the butler. He also simultaneously went out to do an investigation and also checked the file room for records. At the end, he discovered to his shock that all the large businesses in the northern city regions were controlled by the Jialan Clan. They even had their shadow in the medium-sized businesses.

Before the Lifire Empyrean took over, the Jialan Clan had already laid down their roots in Lifire City. Among the many large clans in the northern regions, the Jialan Clan was the publicly acknowledged number one clan, all of the other clans also had very deep relationships with them. For example, many of the madams and mistresses of the various large clans, all originated from the Jialan Clan.

Not only were their foundations extremely deep, they even extended outwards, having some people beside the Realmlord. From this, one could tell how strong the Jialan Clan really was. This was why they had enough power to contend against the Lifire Empyrean.

Qin Wentian couldn't help but to have a feeling of unease. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, if you were wealthy and had control over a large number of resources, just a single sentence from you would entice immortal emperors to join you. This was much more attractive compared to the conditions the governor's manor was offering. Just because the Jialan Clan was wealthy enough, they were able to provide sufficient cultivation resources for the unaffiliated immortal emperors and even provide powerful weapons and valuable medical pills.

...

The day of tribute that occurred once every ten years, finally arrived. The entire Lifire City was extremely busy. Naturally, the people who are the busiest were none other than the five governors in the five city regions. To a majority of the people, it was just a day to pay tax, tribute day. Many powers in the city would take the initiative to pay the tributes.

However, for the northern governor's manor, the amount of powers that took the initiative to pay was extremely little. Almost none did so. From this point, one could see how bad the prestige of the northern city governor's manor was. All the powers completely didn't give a damn about it. Naturally, this was because in these ten years, the northern governor's manor didn't really provide much protection for the powers. When many conflicts occured, the powers were the ones who settled things themselves.

Today, the newly appointed three vice governors brought their subordinates to collect the tribute but things weren't so smooth for them. Some of the smaller powers unwillingly complied but for the larger powers, they weren't cooperative at all.

Vice Governor Xu Li had a mid-stage immortal king cultivation base. He was at the Ancient River Auction House and when he was collecting tributes, a major incident occurred. An expert who obtained a treasure from the auction house was killed and the treasure and his spatial ring was stolen away. Lifire City absolutely forbid such slaughter in the streets. For conflicts that couldn't be mediated, there were specially assigned areas for both parties to battle.

Xu Li glanced at the corpse on the ground and had an unsightly expression on his face. In front of him, an old man from the Ancient River Auction House stood there. He then spoke, "Vice Governor Xu, it isn't that my auction house doesn't want to cooperate. It's just that there has been many minor and major incidents that happened here at my auction house through these years. Right now, there's even someone who got killed at our doorstep. Had the governor's manor helped me to handle any of these matters at all? Now that tribute day has come, the governor's manor instantly became so proactive and came by wanting to collect tributes? This isn't too good, right?"

"That's right, we shouldn't have to pay if the governor's manor has not offered any help to us. Even if the Lifire Empyrean is here, he should understand our feelings." Someone clasped his hands to the air as he spoke, showing his respect to the Lifire Empyrean.

"The Ancient River Auction House is a great auction house, the experts here are as common as the clouds but there actually is such an incident appearing here on tribute day? This…?" Vice Governor Xu's expression turned cold. As a former bandit, what schemes has he not seen before? This was clearly a trick, they were deliberately going against the governor's manor.

"Vice Governor Xu, what do you mean by this?" The old man's expression instantly turned heavy. He icily continued, "My Ancient River Auction House has existed for many years, how could I tarnish my own reputation by doing this? It's just that Vice Governor Xu, there's such a major incident happening before your eyes and you refuse to investigate and is even hurrying us for the tribute collection, even doubting my auction house. Isn't this too ridiculous?"

"Actually to the northern city regions, the governor's manor can exist or not exist, it wouldn't affect anything at all. Why do we need them? They even still have the face to collect tributes from us every ten years? How laughable."

"That's right. In any case, my side won't be making any contributions anymore unless one day, the governor's manor can show their worth to us."

"Vice Governor Xu, this old man isn't the one saying these words. However, everyone else is filled with objections regarding the governor's manor, I can't do anything as well." The old man from the Ancient River Auction House calmly spoke. Xu Li glanced around, the number of experts the other party had was more than his own. If they couldn't handle such matters well, they could only report up to the Lifire Empyrean. But even if the empyrean acted then, it would still reflect badly upon the northern governor's manor for not being able to do their jobs well. These people were right, the governor's manor had done nothing for them through the years.

"Fine. I temporarily will not collect any tributes today. But the governor's manor will definitely investigate well about the death of this man." Xu Li coldly spoke.

"Since this is the case, we will have to thanks Vice Governor Xu for your understanding." The old man clasped his hands. Xu Lu flicked his sleeves and left.

Qin Wentian seemed to have long anticipated such a scenario would happen. Hence, he had already told his vice governors that if they couldn't collect any tribute, just forget about it. For the time being, it was best to avoid any open conflict. The Jialan Clan was observing them from the dark and was definitely looking for chances to deal with them.

Not only for Xu Li's side, the other two vice governors also encountered roughly the same thing, they only collected a pitiful amount of tributes.

Three months passed by in the blink of an eye, the amount of tributes collected from the northern city regions was truly pathetic. Qin Wentian brought the tributes and headed to the Lifire Palace. Regardless of the amount, he naturally had to first hand the tributes to the Lifire Empyrean.

Inside a courtyard, a few figures could be seen there. There were four males and one female, and were none other than the five great governors of the Lifire City.

The Central Governor Xia Hou, he seemed imposing without being angry.

The Eastern Governor Lin Ba, he was sturdy in build and perpetually seemed to have a fierce expression on his face. He also had long sideburns and radiated a dignified aura.

The Southern Governor Beauty Xiao. She was beautiful and extremely sexy, which caused her to have the title of 'beauty.' She was extremely narcissistic and hence, everyone referred to her as Beauty Xiao.

The Western Governor Yin Qiu, he had a fair face and his appearance resembled a scholar. His face was overly white, causing people to feel as though he was someone that indulged in debauchery. He also exuded a hint of demonic charm in his aura.

And last but not least, the Northern Governor Qin Wentian.

At this moment, Lin Ba and Beauty Xiao were both surveying Qin Wentian. Lin Ba had a look of interest on his face while Beauty Xiao smiled charmingly at him.

"Who would have thought that Governor Qin is so handsome. No wonder the Night Empyrean's daughter would put herself in danger for you, eventually ending up being captured." Beauty Xiao giggled, her eyes staring bewitchingly at Qin Wentian.

"Beauty Xiao, is he more handsome than me?" Yin Qiu felt a little reluctance when he heard that. He kept staring at Beauty Xiao. Beauty Xiao was clad in extremely revealing robes which gave everyone the impulse to give in to their lustful urges when they looked at her. Yin Qiu was barely able to suppress his desires, he really wanted to stretch his hands out to fondle her. All the governors here knew that Yin Qiu had wanted to get Beauty Xiao into his bed for a very long time.

"Ah, you little gigolo. How can you be compared to Governor Qin?" Beauty Xiao impolitely mocked. After that, she walked towards Qin Wentian as her fragrance washed over him. She was so close now that she appeared to be leaning against him.

Qin Wentian involuntarily took a step back, feeling speechlessness in his heart. Xia Hou and Lin Ba can still be considered relatively normal. But this Beauty Xiao and Yin Qiu were clearly weirdos yet they are actually governors as well.

"Governor Qin, tell me. Do you think I'm more beautiful or is Ye Qianyu more beautiful?" Beauty Xiao winked at Qin Wentian. Given his current proximity with Beauty Xiao as well as some angles of vision, he was able to see the parts of her body he shouldn't see. Beauty Xiao's dress sense was much more provocative compared to Ye Qianyu's. Beauty Xiao was clearly openly seducing him.

Qin Wentian bitterly smiled and shook his head, "Governor Xiao, please don't tease me."

"Beauty Xiao, why are you letting a pretty boy like me go but is concerned about a trash that can only hide under a woman's skirt? Isn't your judgement a little too lousy?" Yin Qui sinisterly spoke. Qin Wentian's eyes flickered with coldness as he glanced at Yin Qiu. However, Yin Qiu didn't care about that at all. His eyes were still fixed on Beauty Xiao, shining with an unmasked lust, as well as radiating an evil aura.

"Enough." Central Governor Xia Hou coldly spoke. He then turned to Qin Wentian. "Governor Qin, I heard that you immediately killed off your three vice governors the moment you took over?"

"The three of them plotted to kill me. I must naturally eliminated them." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Hmph, killing your own subordinates the moment you took on the position. Can't you use them properly instead? Do you think it's very easy to recruit three immortal emperors as subordinates? I'm sure your tribute collection this time around, ran into many problems." Xia Hou coldly spoke with a lecturing tone. Out of the five governors, he had the most experience and was naturally the most senior in standing. He was also the strongest one.

Qin Wentian felt somewhat unhappy. All of them were governors and they were at the same rank. However, the other governors here clearly didn't regard him as important. It could be said that they didn't give a damn about him at all.

Chapter 1573: Formations Grandmaster

Naturally, Qin Wentian could also understand why. After all, he was a bandit and right now, his bandit lord Ye Qianyu was even a prisoner, yet he himself became a governor.

It was fine that he became one and ruled a city region. But the moment he took on the position, he killed the old vice governors and replaced them with his own people, even doing so in the name of the law.

Hence, all the other governors looked strangely at Qin Wentian.

"There's no need for Governor Xia Hou to worry." Qin Wentian smiled, not bothering to fall out. His words were calm but his meaning was clear. He was telling Xia Hou that this has nothing to do with him.

Xiao Hou's brows twitched as he coldly spoke, "The matter of contribution will affect the palace lord, this matter even concerns the Realmlord. Your northern city region is clearly not giving your all. What would the Realmlord think? He would only feel that our Lifire City's governors are useless. Qin Wentian, use your brain when you do things in the future. Don't keep using barbaric methods like mindless slaughter."

Qin Wentian's gaze turned completely cold. Although he was a governor, his identity was extremely awkward. This was why he wanted to keep a low profile and not stir up matters. However, it didn't mean that he was afraid of conflict. This old governor Xia Hou kept setting himself against him and even insulted him.

"For the matter about the contribution, the palace lord and grand governor will be the ones in charge for it. If they want to place the blame, it would never even be your turn. You best just take good care of your own duty. You don't have the qualifications to give orders to me." Qin Wentian icily replied, not giving Xia Hou any face at all.

"IMPUDENT!" Xia Hou berated as a violent aura gushed forth from him. Qin Wentian matched his glare, and when Beauty Xiao saw this, her beautiful eyes flashed with a bright light. What a handsome young lad, he even had such a personality. This is the type of men she loves precisely, he is leagues above that little gigolo Yin Qiu.

"Enough." A calm voice rang out. Everyone turned about and stared in the air, only to see numerous figures walking over here. The man in the lead was none other than the Lifire Empyrean. Beside him, there was a middle-aged man that exuded a tranquil aura. This middle-aged man was dressed in simple robes yet he gave off a feeling of being extremely strong.

This man was none other than the grand governor of the Lifire Palace, Zhuge Xiong. He was an extremely powerful character and had a peak-stage immortal emperor cultivation base. He was a trusted aide of the Lifire Empyrean and he was the leader of the five city region governors. They reported to him directly.

Behind the Lifire Empyrean, there were two more serving girls with extraordinary auras too. Their cultivation bases were actually both at the immortal emperor realm and were exceedingly beautiful. These serving ladies actually could also be considered the Lifire Empyrean's women. Given the Lifire Empyrean's status, he naturally understood how he should enjoy life. How could he lack beauties around him? These two were not only beautiful, they were also powerful and extremely meticulous in their care for him. If not, it was impossible for the Lifire Empyrean to keep them beside him.

"We pay our respects to palace lord and the grand governor." The various governors bowed. As for the two serving ladies, they would just maintain a respectful attitude. But because they didn't really have any status after all, there was no need to pay respects to them.

"Mhm." The Lifire Empyrean nodded. "The time for tribute payment has come again. This time around, everyone must have worked hard."

"To work for palace lord, this is what we ought to do." Governor Xia Hou bowed.

"Good. The two of you bring all the tributes over and account for them. After that, take out 10% and give it to each governor respectively." The Lifire Empyrean spoke to the two serving ladies beside him.

The two serving ladies walked forward as the five governors immediately placed the tributes they collected on the ground. They bowed slightly indicating respect, they didn't dare to show the slightest arrogance in their attitudes.

The tributes were then recorded properly and by rights, there was no way for one to embezzle anything. If one dared to do so, the penalty would be death. There would be no tolerance on this matter. Because, if there was even a single case that went unpunished, what would happen if all the subordinates started to embezzle the resources belonging to the Realmlord?

"Reporting to palace lord, Qin Wentian is guilty." At this moment, Qin Wentian honestly spoke. The Lifire Empyrean glanced at him and asked, "What crime are you guilty of?"

"Because I was tidying up my governor's manor, I have delayed my control over the northern region. Many powers there are unwilling to pay tribute resulting in the fact that this time around, the tribute collected from the northern city regions are the least. As for the 10% reward for governors, this subordinate doesn't dare to accept it. If palace lord wants to punish me, this subordinate would have no complaints as well." Qin Wentian humbly spoke.

The Lifire Empyrean nodded his head, "For many years, the contributions from the northern city regions has always been the least. I naturally wouldn't not understand this point, since you just took over, it's critical that you tidy up your subordinates first. Also, the three ex-vice governors dared to plot against you, attempting an assassination? This is simply outrageous. To speak of it, placing you in that position is actually me pushing a heavy responsibility to you. How could you be guilty of any crimes?"

The eyes of the other four governors flickered when they heard that. The Lifire Empyrean was truly polite to Qin Wentian. But when they thought of the Empyrean's plan, the four of them understood. After all, the main purpose of him making Qin Wentian the northern governor wasn't because of tribute collection, it was to deal with the Jialan Clan.

However, tributes was definitely the trigger point. Hence, given how intelligent Qin Wentian was, he ought to know what to do in the future. If not, if he had no value to him, why would the palace lord still leave Ye Qianyu alive?

"Many thanks to palace lord for your kind understanding. I hope palace lord can give this subordinate some time. I dare to guarantee that the tribute collection of the northern city region will return to normal." Qin Wentian spoke. This was then what he wanted to say. What he needed now was time. The Jialan Clan was a major player, if he wanted to contend against them, he and his subordinates now are simply too weak.

"Oh?" The Lifire Empyrean had an interested expression on his face as he smiled, "Since you are so confident, let this seat ask you then. How much time do you want?"

"A hundred years. This subordinate guarantees that all the powers in the northern city region won't dare to pay an iota lesser of tributes." Qin Wentian bowed. He also didn't know how long he needed but he asked for a hundred years to give him a breather. In this case, at the very least the Lifire Empyrean wouldn't make a move against him within a hundred years. He wouldn't do anything to Ye Qianyu as well.

The Lifire Empyrean gazed at Qin Wentian, Zhuge Xiong the grand governor, suddenly spoke, "What if you fail to accomplish what you said given the time frame? What should we do?"

"Palace lord can deal with me however he like to." Qin Wentian bowed.

"Palace lord regards you so highly, how would he punish you? You are my direct subordinate but since you dare to make such a guarantee to the palace lord, in that case, if you fail to do what you say within a hundred years, I shall deal with Ye Qianyu. But if you manage to accomplish what you say, I will help her beg for mercy instead. What do you think?" Zhuge Xiong laughed.

Staring at Zhuge Xiong's intelligent eyes, Qin Wentian nodded, "Sure."

A hundred years to Qin Wentian was considered very long. He didn't wish to really use such a long time but he had to stretch it out as long as possible. And also, to the Lifire Empyrean, a hundred years wasn't really considered a long time, it was just ten times of tribute collection. To reach his current cultivation realm, he had experienced too many one hundred years.

"Since Governor Zhuge has already spoken, I shall be waiting with anticipation." The Lifire Empyrean laughed. After Qin Wentian was promoted, he had no contributions. But his killing of the three vice governors made the Lifire Empyrean very pleased. After all, that was what he wanted Qin Wentian to do. He wanted Qin Wentian to deal with the Jialan Clan's influence.

This in fact, actually caused the Lifire Empyrean to be pleased as his plan naturally was for Qin Wentian to do his best to help him deal with the Jialan Clan's influence.

The Lifire Empyrean soon left after meeting everyone. Given his status, there was naturally no need for him to remain here for too long. The two serving ladies passed the 10% worth of tributes to everyone, including Qin Wentian too. Qin Wentian naturally didn't reject it.

"Governor Qin, do you want to visit my place tonight?" Beauty Xiao winked coquettishly at Qin Wentian as her arm was placed around his shoulder. However, everyone here already knew what sort of character Beauty Xiao was, they didn't feel strange about it. Only Yin Qiu felt extremely unhappy. He knew that in truth, he and Beauty Xiao were considered people on the same dao path. He had always been drooling over her beauty.

"There's no need to. I still need to return and tidy up my governor's manor." Qin Wentian smiled as he rejected.

"Then would I have a chance to go to the northern city region to look for you?" Beauty Xiao giggled, she already knew Qin Wentian would reject her earlier request.

"If Governor Xiao has the interest to, you can naturally come anytime. I'm only afraid I, Qin, might not be able to provide a satisfactory reception."

"It's fine as long as you personally bring me around." Beauty Xiao leaned against Qin Wentian, while he took a step back slightly. Beauty Xiao giggled even louder before she soared through the air, revealing her fair white legs to everyone as she departed.

"Beauty Xiao, wait for me!" Yin Qiu hurriedly chased after.

"Hmph." Xia Hou coldly stared at Qin Wentian. With a cold snort, he too departed the area.

Lin Ba cast another glance at Qin Wentian. He smiled, nodding his head before he left. Only after everyone left did Qin Wentian soar into the air. He turned his head back and glanced in the direction of the Lifire Jail. He didn't dare to forget that there was still someone waiting for him inside there.

In that dark and gloomy place, she would definitely not be able to get used to it, right? Although she kept smiling during that day, Qin Wentian knew how bad the conditions of the jail's environment was.

...

Although Qin Wentian made the guarantee of a hundred years to the Lifire Empyrean, he didn't do anything after he returned to the northern governor's manor. He headed straight for the cultivation platform and shut himself in for closed-door seclusion.

Right now, the entire manor could already be said to be under Qin Wentian's complete control. Even if there were spies from the Jialan Clan here, at the very least on the surface, Qin Wentian had complete control. The northern governor's manor was still as low-profile as ever, causing the anticipation of the powers of the northern city regions to gradually diminish, as everything reverted back to their earlier calm.

In the past, when they collected tributes, many powers didn't give and the governor's manor didn't take any actions against them. Right now, none of the powers requested the governor's manor to handle anything for them. Their low-profile behavior seemed to have given the powers of the northern city region another reason to reject paying out tributes during the next tribute-collection time.

As time flowed by, everyone gradually forgot the iron-blooded methods the newly appointed governor adopted when he slaughtered the three ex-vice governors. It seemed that the Soul Slaying Needle incident had truly frightened Qin Wentian, which resulted in the governor's manor taking no further actions.

In the blink of an eye, another ten years passed and the tribute-collection date had arrived. The amount of tributes collected from the northern city regions was as little as the previous time. When he went to the Lifire Palace, Qin Wentian was naturally met with mocking looks from the other governors again. Beauty Xiao was still trying to seduce him, Governor Xia Hou still didn't like him but Qin Wentian's state of heart was incomparably calm, he didn't care about all of this at all. It was like his personality changed after taking on the governor's appointment. He became the same as many of the previous northern governors and was only concerned with protecting himself. He was so low-profile that many gradually forgot his existence. The Jialan Clan also didn't seem to be able to find any chance to deal with him. After all, they couldn't simply barge into the governor's manor to assassinate him, right?

There were no commotions in the governor's manor but something happened in the Lifire City. During recent days, an exceptionally powerful character appeared there.

This man was extremely proficient in formations, especially sealing-types formations. As long as someone entered, even an individual whose cultivation base was much higher compared to his, would realize that there was only a path of death the moment they stepped into it. For a period of time, many minor and major powers clamored and treated him as an extremely valuable guest!

Chapter 1574: Yan Clan

Right now, in a courtyard in the central city region that was in charge of by Governor Xia Hou, many people would come here to pay a visit. Because, that extraordinary formations grandmaster was temporarily staying in here.

At this moment at the entrance of the courtyard, quite a few experts were already here, all of them begging for an audience with the grandmaster. However, they were obstructed by a serving girl. Although the cultivation base of the serving girl wasn't high, only at the immortal king realm, there was no one who dared to show her any disrespect. Her looks could be considered outstanding, and she was very pretty.

"Fairy, all of us have something that we need the grandmaster's help with." The people outside the courtyard clasped their hands at the serving girl.

"Grandmaster Di is currently focusing on comprehending a formation. He doesn't have the time today. Everyone, please come again another day." The serving girl clasped her hands and replied.

"I wish to invite the grandmaster to help be inscribe a grand formation. I will definitely not be stingy in my payment. Would fairy please help to pass the message to the grandmaster?" A person persisted and spoke.

"Do you guys think that Grandmaster Di would lack cultivation resources? The serving girl smiled, causing everyone to be speechless. Indeed, how could a formations grandmaster be lacking in resources? Before this, this grandmaster has already proven his attainments in formations when he was roaming around Lifire City. Seems like his actions were all to prove his fame, attracting plenty of attention while also earning astronomical amounts of resources.

Right now, this grandmaster was already famous. In the future, he naturally wouldn't be lacking any cultivation resources.

"What arrogance." At this moment, a person in the crowd coldly snorted. Everyone turned and stared at that person, feeling a little bewildered. There was actually someone here creating trouble? Offending a powerful formations grandmaster wasn't an intelligent matter.

"It isn't the grandmaster being arrogant, it's just that he is really busy now. If sir wants to put it this way, there's nothing I can reply to it." The serving girl smiled as she shook her head. Even when facing an immortal emperor, her tone could maintain an attitude that was neither servile nor overbearing.

"Hmph." That person coldly snorted, "Although this grandmaster is strong, but he is merely an initial-stage immortal emperor. How much can he achieve with only one person? In this Lifire City, there are plenty of formations aristocrat clans."

Everyone curiously glanced at the person who spoke as expressions of interest appeared on their faces.

"What does senior want to say?" The serving girl was still as polite as ever, as she asked with a smile on her face.

"I come from the Yan Clan." That person continued, his calm tone was unable to mask his arrogance. The eyes of the experts in the surroundings flashed before smiles appeared on their faces as they clasped their hands, "So you are from the Yan Aristocrat Clan. Well met."

Many people walked up to curry favor. That person merely nodded, his face filled with pride.

The Yan Clan was an aristocrat clan that specialized in formations within Lifire City. There were many formations experts here and they all had supreme statuses in the city. Many formations inscribed on the buildings were done by them. When experts from the major powers needed formations, they would often pay a visit to the Yan Aristocrat Clan and paid high prices for a formation expert to help them.

And right now, a person from the Yan Clan actually appeared here. Everyone was very clear in their hearts. To think that an emperor-ranked formations grandmaster that just arrived actually caught the Yan Clan's attention.

"And?" The serving girl smiled.

"My Yan Clan plans to gather all the independent formations grandmasters in the central region of Lifire City to hold a discussion about the formation dao. When the time comes, my Yan Clan will give some good fortune to the better ones and invite them to become our guest elders. This is why I intentionally came here. Who would have thought I can't even enter to meet with him." The voice of that person tinged with pride and arrogance, causing a look of intrigue to flash through the eyes of many people.

On the surface, it was to discuss about formation dao, but in reality, it was a contest among formation grandmasters. In addition, the Yan Clan wanted to recruit elites and placed themselves in a higher position, believing that they were the orthodox ones. In truth, they did have such strength but their purpose for doing this was as clear as day. They wanted to tell everyone that they, the Yan Clan, was far above these independent formation grandmasters. They were the ones with the deeper foundations.

"Grandmaster Di wouldn't be bothered with such boring things like this." The serving girl didn't even return to ask. She directly smiled and replied. The people here were all intelligent, how could they not understand what she meant by that?

The eyes of that person from the Yan Clan gleamed with sharpness, "How dare you, do you know who was the one who issued the invitation? You are just a little lass, yet you dared to reject it and said that this event is a boring matter?"

"Senior please cease your anger." The serving girl wasn't frightened off. She merely bowed and humbly continued, "I understand Grandmaster Di's personality very well. To him, this is really a very boring matter."

"In that case, go and ask him to appear in front of me. I want to personally hear how he thinks that this would be a boring event." The person from the Yan Clan felt that his pride was being trampled. A newly famous formations grandmaster actually dared to act so high and mighty? Not even placing him from the Yan Clan in his eyes.

"Senior, why must you make things difficult for me?" The serving girl bitterly smiled.

"BOOM!" That person from the Yan Clan stepped out, unleashing a tyrannical aura, the impact causing the serving girl to groan in pain.

"Insolence." At this moment, a cold voice rang out from within the courtyard. That expert from the Yan Clan inclined his head and stared in that direction.

"Grandmaster Di, what do you feel about my invitation?" That expert from the Yan Clan directly asked.

"I'm not interested. You who is from the Yan Clan actually bullied my serving girl? Truly, knowing someone by their reputation can't compare to meeting them in person. Three days later, I will directly head to the Yan Clan and see how proficient the Yan Clan is in the dao of formations." The voice continued, causing the eyes of many to gleam sharply as their hearts trembled.

This Grandmaster Di not only rejected the Yan Clan, his words were basically provoking them. Simply too brazen.

The Yan Clan wanted to invite the independent grandmasters to gather to exhibit their lofty positions but this Grandmaster Di completely disregarded them, choosing to head there on his own terms.

Seems like this Grandmaster Di was the same as the rumors, someone who is extremely proud. But he did have the capabilities to be proud. However, were his words too careless?

The expression of that expert from the Yan Clan instantly turned extremely ugly to behold. In truth when his Yan Clan did this the previous times, many unaffiliated grandmasters were willing to participate to show the Yan Clan their standards. Because, if they could become a guest elder of the Yan Clan, it meant that they had a chance to gain the Yan Clan's approval and might even get some rare formation manuals. Their status would rise as well as being part of the Yan Aristocrat Clan. It was a win-win situation.

But this Grandmaster Di not only didn't want to give him face, he even spoke such brazen words.

"Overestimating yourself. You are not qualified yet." That Yan Clan's expert coldly spoke.

"Go back and report to them. Three days later, I, Di, shall head over. I welcome all the experts from Lifire City to go and spectate. You can scram now." The voice within impolitely issued an expulsion order.

"Kacha!" The Yan Clan's expert clenched his fists, causing light popping sounds to echo out. His expression was ashen. After that, he flicked his sleeve and coldly spoke, "Since you want to court humiliation, I'll wait for you."

After that, he directly departed.

"Grandmaster Di, will you really head to the Yan Clan in three days time?" Someone asked.

"I have something to discuss with you, can I request a meeting?"

"Everyone, just return for now. Three days later, I'll see all of you at the Yan Clan." A calm voice rang out from within the courtyard and everyone understood that they wouldn't have the chance to meet with this formations grandmaster anymore today. A grandmaster even dared to provoke the Yan Clan naturally would walk the talk. Hence, all of them respectively returned.

After everyone left, the serving girl entered the courtyard. There was a black-robed figure sitting cross-legged with a mask obscuring his features.

"Sir, are you really planning to go over?" That serving girl asked.

"Mhm." The figure in black nodded.

"The Yan Clan is an aristocrat clan that specializes in formations. If sir can defeat some grandmasters of the Yan Clan, you would become even more famous. At that time, many more major powers would want to invite you." The serving girl sweetly smiled. But what caused her to be slightly disappointed was that this mysterious expert, who once saved her life, had never once shown any interest towards her. In fact, he had never even properly looked at her beautiful features at all. Maybe, if he didn't need someone to help out with some minor matters, he wouldn't even have allowed her to follow him.

Sometimes, she would wonder what sort of character he was exactly. Under the mask, what sort of facial features would there be? She was very curious regarding this.

...

A piece of news soon circulated around Lifire City. Recently, a newly arrived formations grandmaster would head to the Yan Aristocrat Clan three days later to see how good the Yan Clan's grandmasters are. He was not there for a visit, he was there to challenge them.

For a period of time, many powers turned their attention there, feeling that things would be extremely interesting. The Yan Aristocrat Clan has been established for many years in Lifire City. They were famous for their proficiency in formations and had vast amounts of resources. They were also very strong in the martial path. To think that a grandmaster who just got famous actually dared to challenge them. Truly audacious indeed.

However, when many thought of the Yan Clan's status, they assumed that this grandmaster wanted to gain even more fame through this challenge, allowing more people to know of his existence. After all, it was very normal even if he lost in the challenge. Or to better put it, he would lose for sure. He just wanted to gain more attention.

One couldn't help but admit that for this chess game, the Yan Clan was manipulated like a chess piece by this grandmaster.

Hence, many people were waiting with anticipation.

Three days of time naturally passed by very quickly.

The grounds where the Yan Clan was located was extremely vast, it was truly a very powerful clan. At this moment, many people were already gathered here, all of them were extremely excited about the challenge issued by the newly famous grandmaster. Among these people here, there were many from major powers.

After all, even if the grandmaster lost, these major powers could still recruit him if he was good enough.

"He's here." At this moment, a voice rang out. From the distance, two figures appeared. One the master, the other the servant. The expression of the serving girl was very calm, her smile was beautiful but her state of heart was far from her calm-looking expression on her face.

As for the grandmaster in the rumors, he was as mysterious as ever. He had a mask on his face and his aura felt extremely cold. Long shoulder-length black hair could be seen as his entire person radiated a faint sharpness. Seeing how straight his back was, one could sense the pride that was carved into his bones.

Chapter 1575: Breaking Formation

For formations grandmasters, all of them were proud. Who asked them to have such lofty statuses? They were also unaffiliated cultivators but ordinary unaffiliated cultivators were dirt-poor, they had to source for resources all around. But for formations grandmasters, even if they were unaffiliated, the resources they need wouldn't be a problem. People would queue up to deliver the resources to them and they could join any major powers effortlessly, becoming valued guests.

Hence, nobody felt it was inappropriate about this mysterious Grandmaster Di's arrogance. On the contrary, they felt it was normal.

Since a grandmaster already had such status, one could very well imagine how high the status of an aristocrat clan that specialized in formations was.

The Yan Clan was precisely one such clan, how could they endure the blaspheme of others? They had once gathered unaffiliated grandmasters many times to exchange knowledge and even provide guidance to them. Only the elites out of the unaffiliated grandmasters could become their guest elders. Right now, a solo grandmaster actually dared to challenge them. How could their pride bear this?

Hence, outside the Yan Clan's entrance, a platform was already set up, emanating pressure from formations. As long as the formation here was activated, boundless power would flow through.

An old man with a white beard stood on the platform, spirit glowed in his eyes and he looked extremely vigorous. His cultivation was at the initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm and he was standing within the formation. Clearly, he was a powerful grandmaster. Right now, it seemed that he was guarding this platform, waiting for that mysterious grandmaster to arrive.

The surrounding people all knew who this man was. It was an expert highly proficient in formations, a grandmaster of the Yan Clan, Grandmaster Mao.

Upon seeing the two figures flying over in the air, Grandmaster Mao coldly spoke, "Name yourselves."

"Di Tian." The black-robed figure in the air replied in a tone just as cold as his. He glanced at the formation on the platform as he snorted, "Is this how the Yan Clan receives a guest?"

"I'm a guest elder of the Yan Clan, the Yan Clan is also an aristocrat clan that specializes in formations. Since you wish to challenge it, how can we let you enter in peace? There are many people who wish to make use of the Yan Clan's name to shoot to fame, you are not the only one. However, if you wish to enter, prove your worth first. The formation inscribed upon the platform was done by me. If you can break it, you would have the qualifications to enter. If not, you are just someone that has an undeserved reputation. If that's the case, stop embarrassing yourself and just get lost."

This Grandmaster Mao icily spoke, radiating a pure arrogance. In the past, he was one of those unaffiliated grandmasters that got recruited by the Yan Clan. He was one of the better ones and became a guest elder. However, this Di Tian was truly excellent, daring to directly reject the invitation and even mount a challenge. Wouldn't his actions cause these guest elders to feel that they have no face at all?

"Grandmaster Mao is right. Not everyone has the qualifications to enter my Yan Clan. This formation is just something casually created by Grandmaster Mao. If you can't even break this formation, just scram as far as you can." That expert who previously went to invite Di Tian was also here. He stood at the entrance of the Yan Clan with his arms behind his back, coldly regarding Di Tian.

The eyes of all the experts flashed. As expected, the Yan Clan clearly realized that this Grandmaster Di wanted to use them to make himself famous. Hence, they created a formation right outside the Yan Clan. If this Grandmaster Di cannot even break this formation, he naturally wouldn't be qualified to enter. At that time, the one who lost face would only be Di Tian. His reputation would be in tatters and it would elevate the Yan Clan's status instead, telling everyone that not any tom, dick and harry could gain the qualifications to enter their clan.

On the contrary, if Di Tian could break the formation, he would merely gain the 'qualifications' to enter the Yan Clan, he still couldn't prove anything. No matter how one looked at it, the situation was more advantageous for the Yan Clan. As expected of an aristocrat clan, how could they be so easily used by others?

Right now, everyone was waiting to see if Di Tian could break the formation.

Di Tian glanced at the expert who previously went to invite him as well as Grandmaster Mao. His countenance was extremely calm, he didn't continue to speak useless words as actions would prove everything.

"Will you be inside, controlling this formation?" Di Tian glanced at Grandmaster Mao.

"Is there a need to? The formation has been established, it can produce its own might, there's no need for me to control it." He coldly laughed and stomped down with his feet. With that stomp, the formation was activated. Countless strands of light converged, forming a resplendent beam that shot up to the nine heavens, resonating with a constellation in the heavenly layers. This was an emperor-ranked formation.

A startling destructive might erupted from the formation, permeating the atmosphere. Golden lines that seemingly could slice everything apart manifested. If one stepped on the platform, their bodies would instantly be ripped apart.

"What a powerful formation." The eyes of everyone flashed. As expected of a guest elder of the Yan Clan. Grandmaster Mao's formation was enough to kill an ordinary mid-stage emperor. As for Grandmaster Di Tian, he was merely an initial-stage emperor, although he had proven his strength in creating formations, but what about his skill in breaking formations?

The other party wasn't pitting their formation against his because the Yan Clan felt he wasn't qualified. They erected a platform with a formation on it and asked him to break it to prove his worth. One couldn't help but to say the Yan Clan was very intelligent. If this Grandmaster Di could not even break this formation, it would truly be too shameful.

"Grandmaster Di, please." Grandmaster Mao stretched his hand out in invitation, acting like he was very polite. However, his lips curled up in a cold mocking smile as his eyes flashed with disdain. Wanting to borrow the Yan Clan to shoot to fame? What a gross overestimation of oneself. Just this single formation was sufficient to crush Di Tian. After that, Grandmaster Mao walked off the platform and stood with the crowd. Just like what he said, there was no need for him to control the formation as it would produce its own might.

Di Tian glanced at the formation. He stepped forward and stretched out a palm. In the air, a gigantic heavenly hammer materialized. This hammer continued to expand as astral light from the skies poured into it. A few moments later, a resplendent glow covered the hammer as the light interweaved together, forming a runic formation.

Di Tian took another step forward and grabbed the hammer into his hands. His black hair fluttered in the wind as he smashed down with that heavenly hammer. The countless golden lines in the formation immediately surged forth, wanting to lacerate the hammer. Grandmaster Mao coldly laughed. It was like he already saw the scene of the hammer being destroyed.

At this moment, just as the golden lines were about to slash at the hammer, a gigantic web materialized from the runic formation engraved on the hammer. This web was a terrifying sealing diagram and it expanded outwards, covering the entire formation created by Grandmaster Mao. A few moments later, the platform no longer emanated any hints that it was covered by a formation.

Di Tian released his grip as the heavenly hammer vanished. He took another step forward and calmly stood upon the platform.

"This…" The rumbling sound continued to echo in the air. The eyes of everyone froze, as a fearsome sharpness gleamed in their eyes.

This method of breaking a formation... wasn't it a little too tyrannical and direct? It was like Di Tian was telling everyone that no matter how strong your formation is, everything would be sealed with a smash of my hammer. What do I care for the intricacy of your formation?

The heavenly hammer itself was branded by a runic formation which emanated a sealing aura. The sealing formation instantly appeared when Di Tian smashed the hammer down. It truly was too tyrannical.

Many people were still in a daze, only after some time did they recover and saw Di Tian standing on the platform. Some of these people have witnessed grandmasters breaking through formations before, but none of them had seen such a domineering method. So what if your formation is powerful? I'll simply seal it away. What do you still have to play with me?

Grandmaster Mao instantly paled. His original purpose for coming here today was to make Di Tian lose face and to cause him to lose his reputation. But after that hammer swing, Di Tian's fame would definitely explosively increase. Even if he was eventually defeated by some other grandmasters after he entered the Yan Clan, he had already achieved his purpose of using the Yan Clan to generate fame for himself. As for Grandmaster Mao, he became Di Tian's stepping stone. In the future when people talked about him, they would only remember how his formation was destroyed by a single swing of a hammer. His reputation would surely suffer, people would say that his formation was too lousy, so lousy to the extent where Di Tian could break through it with a single attack.

The expert from the Yan Clan, the one who mocked Di Tian before this, froze on spot. His countenance alternated between shades of green and white. That hammer attack was simply too face smacking.

Di Tian couldn't be bothered about the feelings of these people. He walked down from the platform and continued ahead, he didn't even spare a glance at Grandmaster Mao.

As he passed by him, Di Tian's footsteps suddenly halted. He spoke in a light voice, "The Yan Clan asked you to guard the entrance? Is it because there's no one else in the Yan Clan, or are you too useless?"

This voice naturally was ridiculing Grandmaster Mao. Just this sentence was enough to cause Grandmaster Mao's expression to turn ashen. He clenched his fists but was speechless, he had nothing to rebut. His formation was truly shattered by a single attack. That hammer strike also destroyed his reputation and his pride.

Although Qin Wentian's voice was very soft, everyone here was a cultivator and they naturally had heard it clearly. They were all musing silently that it was as expected of the pride of a grandmaster. The Yan Clan and Grandmaster Mao wanted to humiliate him but they were the ones being humiliated instead, answering them with the most tyrannical method.

"This formation is merely something casually created by Grandmaster Mao. Even if you broke it, what can it represent? It only means that you have the qualifications to enter my Yan Clan." That expert from the Yan Clan who went to invite Qin Wentian before this spoke coldly.

Di Tian inclined his head and matched his gaze. An unmasked look of contempt appeared in his eyes as he coldly smiled, "Lying to yourself despite the clear truth that can be seen by everyone? Do you treat everyone here like a fool? Before this, you once invited me to participate in the Yan Clan's gathering of the unaffiliated grandmasters and told me that only elites among them could become guest elders of the Yan Clan. But now, a guest elder of your Yan Clan merely had this level of attainment in the dao of formations? What a waste of time. Let me persuade you, in the future, stop doing things like this to throw your own face. You would only become a joke."

After speaking, he continued forward, ignoring the ugly looks on the other party's face as he directly walked through the Yan Clan's entrance.

Behind him, that serving girl of his quietly followed. Her figure stood straight, seemingly basking in pride and glory for being able to follow such a powerful grandmaster.

Chapter 1576: Challenge

After entering the gate of the Yan Clan, there was a straight passageway and there were serving girls leading the way. Although Di Tian came here to challenge them, they as an aristocrat clan, would still have to maintain a certain level of poise or people would surely mock them.

Let alone the fact that a guest elder of the Yan Clan was already humiliated outside. However, this most probably wouldn't affect anything. Their reputation wasn't built up in a single day but through the accumulation of the years. Since Di Tian wanted to challenge them, let's see how capable he was then.

There were some serving girls who went to the entrance to lead the spectators in. This caused many in the crowd to praise the Yan Clan. As expected of an aristocrat clan, they did things in style, they didn't even care when the crowd wanted to spectate.

Although Grandmaster Di Tian had a very high attainment in the dao of formations, he still ultimately couldn't compare to the Yan Clan, right? Now, they only wanted to see how far his strength could carry him.

As an aristocrat clan specializing in formations, the Yan Clan naturally had a vast training ground for establishing formations. Spectator stands could be seen in all directions and right in the center, numerous platforms could be seen. For the internal competition of the Yan Clan, the competition was held here as well. Right now, they led Di Tian and the spectators here.

The person in charge of receiving Di Tian was an elder named Yan Zhong. He was very powerful and had a cultivation base at the peak-phase of the mid-stage. He was only a step away from the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm. In addition, he had very high attainments in the dao of formations. This was why he could become an elder. Right now, he was sitting in the host seat and there were several other immortal emperors beside him. There were also some guest elders, as well as the Yan Clan's juniors. All of them were now looking at the masked figure in black.

"This person came here to challenge our Yan Clan, but the elder actually personally received him. From my perspective, it would be enough if we get someone else to toss him out." A very young female junior spoke unhappily. Given the status of their Yan Clan, when had an unaffiliated grandmaster ever been so arrogant to challenge them before? She felt that by sending out an elder to receive the challenger, it was actually a blow to their Yan Clan's prestige.

"What do you know? This is considered a show of force. Since he came here to challenge our Yan Clan, we shall show everyone how foolish his decision is." A relatively handsome young man who was standing at her side, spoke.

These juniors sat together, discussing in low voices. Those elders also didn't care about them, allowing the juniors to do what they wanted.

"Grandmaster Di, I wonder what is your purpose for coming to my Yan Clan today?" Yan Zhong glanced at Di Tian, asking the question despite knowing the answer in his heart.

"I heard that the Yan Clan is an aristocrat clan specializing in the dao of formations. I admire your expertise and hence, came by to seek guidance, wishing to take a look at how profound the Yan Clan's formations are." Di Tian calmly spoke, yet his tone contained a faint hint of coldness. Everyone knew that he came here to challenge them, why would there be a need to be overly polite? Yan Zhong was merely feigning civility or he wouldn't have arranged for Grandmaster Mao to obstruct him at the Yan Clan's entrance.

This was naturally unavoidable. If Di Tian couldn't even pass that test, it meant that he didn't even have the qualifications for the Yan Clan to feign civility towards him.

"Grandmaster Di, how do you want this challenge to be?" Yan Zhong asked.

"Formation Breaking, Martial Formation, Battle formation." Di Tian calmly replied, his words causing the eyes of everyone to gleam with sharpness. For contending against each other in the dao of formations, there were three methods and they were all listed out by Di Tian.

Formation Breaking was the same as what occurred outside the Yan Clan. Two grandmasters would set up their formations and they would then mutually try to break each other's formations.

Martial Formation was a type of warring formation, and the experts would directly spar against each other. However, during the sparring process, they were only permitted to borrow power from their respective formation and the usage of innate techniques and arts were forbidden.

Battle Formation was also a type of warring formation, but it was slightly different. The two grandmasters would first set up their formations and entered it for the sake of controlling it. The purpose was to see which of the two formations were stronger.

Out of all three methods, the requirements for the martial formations are in fact the highest. Ordinary grandmasters wouldn't be able to achieve the borrowing of power from their formations during sparring. One had to establish the formations they wanted with a single thought, this was something ordinary grandmasters couldn't do.

Di Tian came here for a challenge and directly listed out the three methods. From this, one could see that his attainments in the dao of formations were pretty deep and he could be considered skilled in all aspects. Just his earlier words alone were enough to cause the expressions of many to turn solemn. Seems like Grandmaster Di came here prepared.

Yan Zhong's gaze also turned slightly heavy as he cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian. This mysterious grandmaster didn't seem to be simple. They had to be serious about this challenge or if they really lost it, the prestige of the Yan Clan would sweep the ground. Everyone would feel that the Yan Clan was no longer as powerful as before.

"Since Grandmaster Di is so keen on this, we will naturally oblige." Yan Zhong replied. The other party has already listed out the ways he wanted the challenge so clearly, how could the Yan Clan reject it? That would be tantamount of dodging the battle if they really rejected it.

"It's just that our experts from the Yan Clan are each proficient in different aspects. Hence, for the three rounds of challenges, we would need to send up three different experts. If you want us to find a grandmaster that's proficient in all aspects, there's no problem as well. We will have to invite peak-stage grandmasters to act then and this wouldn't be fair to Grandmaster Di Tian. What do you think?" Yan Zhong asked. These words were somewhat shameless. After all, Di Tian was just alone and the Yan Aristocrat Clan was actually prepared to send out three different experts to deal with him.

However, Yan Zhong could be considered honest. He said that it wasn't that the Yan Clan doesn't have a grandmaster who is skilled in all aspects. They did have some, but these grandmasters were too powerful and would be considered as bullying Di Tian if they showed up for the challenge.

"Anything." Di Tian calmly responded, he didn't care at all. His casual words actually caused everyone to feel that the Yan Clan was too petty.

"Right. Grandmaster Di Tian, you are at the initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm. However, formations are different from the martial path. Hence, there's a possibility that the grandmasters we sent out might have a higher cultivation base than yours." Yan Zhong spoke, many people silently cursed at how unimposing the Yan Clan was. Although formations were different from the martial path, but the grand dao unites everything. Usually, the stronger someone was, the greater the power their formations would have.

Di Tian was just one man, it was fine even if the Yan Clan sent out three experts to deal with him, but they even wanted the cultivation base of the people they sent out to be higher? In that case, wouldn't this challenge be unfair?

However, the three challenges were suggested by Di Tian and the Yan Clan clearly didn't want to lose. Hence, although Yan Zhong knew that others would gossip about them, he still chose to do so for the sake of victory. After all, the victors would always be kings while the losers would be vilified. As long as their Yan Clan could crush Di Tian with an overwhelming advantage, no one would mention anything about this, they would only know that the formations of the Yan Clan were so powerful that they can stand up to all challenges.

"Up to you." Di Tian calmly replied, seemingly extremely confident. The pride he had in himself was unable to be masked.

"Fine. In that case, the order of the three challenges will be set by Grandmaster Di Tian then." Yan Zhong acted politely as he spoke, causing many to snort silently in disdain.

"Let the first round be formation breaking then." Di Tian spoke. Yan Zhong nodded, he then turned his gaze towards an old man at the side. That old man radiated an extremely sharp aura, akin to an unsheathed sword. He directly soared through the air and landed on a platform.

"Please." The old man stared at Di Tian.

Di Tian stood up and stepped forward, arriving at the platform in front of the old man.

"Let's get started." Di Tian spoke. In an instant, resplendent astral light cascaded down from the sky. He stomped on the ground as numerous divine inscriptions flashed, interweaving with each other, forming a diagram that directly engulfed the platform. Within, constant rumbling sounds rang out. No one could see clearly how Di Tian inscribed his formations. Even immortal senses were unable to penetrate the diagram.

The old man in front of Di Tian was engraving his formation as well. His formation was a killing-type one. Since the first challenge was for formation breaking, this meant that Di Tian had to break his formation. By setting up a killing formation, the meaning was clear. If Di Tian was killed while in the midst of the challenge, even the governor's manor could not do anything. This was a challenge that both sides agreed to.

If he died, there was naturally no need for the other two rounds.

Everyone quietly waited. After some time, the diagram vanished and Di Tian appeared, quietly standing on the platform. The old man had finished setting up his formation too. A fearsome sharpness containing slaughter energy could be clearly sensed radiating from it.

"Please." The old man spoke to Di Tian.

"Please." Di Tian replied. After that, the two of them stepped out, moving towards their opponent's formation. Since it was formation breaking, both would naturally carry it out at the same time. If the two of them had the ability to break each other's formation, they would then compete on who could do that the fastest.

However for the formation breaking battle, the old man from the Yan Clan would surely possess the advantage. After all, his cultivation base was at the mid-stage, higher than Di Tian.

But, would Di Tian care about such an advantage?

Di Tian came to the old man's platform. When he saw the destructive energy here, his eyes flashed with coldness. He then stretched out his hand as the heavenly hammer appeared once more, continuously expanding in size. With no hesitation, Di Tian directly flew into the air as his hammer smashed down.

Emperor light flashed as the slaughter energy gushed forth, enveloping everything. The slaughter energy transformed into a tight net of slaughter, wanting to envelop Di Tian within.

A moment later, everyone only saw a terrifying runic diagram manifest from the heavenly hammer. A wave of suppressive energy gushed forth, clashing against the destructive might, creating thunderous rumbling sounds that echoed through the area.

Di Tian's movements didn't cease. He continued to lift the heavenly hammer and smash down once more.

Upon seeing this scene, the expression of the old man from the Yan Clan changed, understanding that this formation was impossible to obstruct Di Tian. Hence, he directly entered Di Tian's formation and an instant later, terrifying waves of sword might bore down on everything as a thick killing intent permeated the atmosphere.

"Swish, swish, swish~" The sword formation inscribed by Di Tian seemed to have been angered. Countless swords blotted out the sky and when the old man inclined his head, he actually discovered that he had no way to sense any of the heavenly laws. His expression couldn't help but to turn heavy. This entire platform had been sealed off from the world. His fate was determined the moment he set foot within.

"BOOM!" On the other platform, Di Tian's hammer continued smashing downwards. With every smash, the destructive might would be diminished and suppressed.

The situations on the two platforms were drastically different!

Chapter 1577: Rising Fame

"The Yan Clan is going to lose the first round."

The eyes of the spectators flashed with sharpness, understanding in their hearts.

Yan Zhong and the other Yan Clan's experts could also tell. Di Tian's formation breaking methods were truly powerful, directly manifesting a heavenly hammer as he smashed down with it. This heavenly hammer seemed to be formed from his astral soul and could incorporate runic diagrams into its attack. And because Di Tian was proficient in sealing-attribute arts, he was extremely suitable for breaking formations.

And as expected, not too long after, the formation was sealed completely. For the first round, the Yan Clan lost the challenge.

For the formation inscribed by Di Tian, the old man from the Yan Clan was clearly no longer as relaxed. His emperor resonance was first sealed. After that, boundless sealing light seeped into his body, sealing his law energy. Even the astral energy circulating in his body began to be sealed. This caused his combat prowess to continuously weaken. Those outside the formation couldn't experience this personally, therefore they wouldn't understand.

"Grandmaster Di, victory and defeat is already determined. It should be enough, right?" Yan Zhong spoke, indicating that Di Tian should release the old man.

"He is deep inside the formation. Everything is too late." Di Tian spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, swords of sealing materialized one after another as they frenziedly stabbed into the body of the Yan Clan's expert. That mid-stage emperor was actually helpless to defend against it. After a few moments, his body fell onto the ground, dead.

At this moment, the entire atmosphere turned silent as everyone stared at Di Tian in shock. He actually killed the old man.

This Grandmaster Di Tian actually killed a mid-stage emperor from the Yan Clan who was also a grandmaster in the dao of formations. Also, he did so in the Yan Clan's territory. How truly audacious was this?

"How dare you!" The experts of the Yan Clan angrily roared, their expressions as cold as ice. In fact, several of them stepped out.

"Why? You guys can't afford to lose?" Di Tian swept his glance at them.

"Step down." Yan Zhong berated, blocking his clansman. The experts of the Yan Clan all had unsightly expressions, glaring at Di Tian.

"Grandmaster Di, you wanted to challenge us, I graciously invited you over. However, are you trying to make an enemy out of my Yan Clan by doing this?" Yan Zhong's voice turned cold. A mid-stage immortal emperor grandmaster to their Yan Clan, was also considered a great loss. Also, he was killed in public. From this, one could very well imagine Yan Zhong's current feelings.

"Real men don't sneak around, why must you act like a hypocrite? A few days ago I was cultivating at my residence, minding my own business but somebody from your Yan Clan came over to provoke me, even injuring my serving girl. I naturally had to come and seek justice for her. But even before I could enter the Yan Clan, there was already a formation outside the entrance waiting for me. After I entered, you guys said that we would be sparring, but the first round, you all actually created a killing formation? What does this mean?" Di Tian directly shot back. "If it wasn't so, I, Di, wouldn't have created a killing formation as well. If I was the one who died, I'm sure the Yan Clan wouldn't show any sympathy at all. You guys would only think I was overestimating myself and wanted to court death, right?"

Everyone felt their hearts trembling when they heard Di Tian's words. He was right, the truth was so. The Yan Clan was the one who first created the killing formation, their intent couldn't be more obvious. Sadly, their formation was broken by Di Tian, and the expert they sent to accept the challenge, died in Di Tian's formation.

Although the truth was such, but the Yan Clan was still an aristocrat clan. Di Tian's domineering reply was equivalent to smacking their faces, he was truly audacious.

Also, did Di Tian really come here just to seek justice for his serving girl?

Everyone knew it was not so simple but that serving girl of Di Tian couldn't help but to feel touched as warm currents flowed in her heart after she heard that. She had a faint look of pride when she stared at the back of her master.

Di Tian directly tore face, the Yan Clan had been completely shamed. All of them were radiating killing intent.

"Since you put it this way, don't blame my Yan Clan for being ruthless. How do you intend to fight the second round?" Yan Zhong coldly asked.

"Martial Formation." Di Tian calmly replied. Yan Zhong then called out, "Yan Mu, you will be the one to accept his challenge."

"Sure." A voice drifted over from afar. After that, a figure from the Yan Clan could be seen soaring through the air.

"Grandmaster Yan Mu." The eyes of everyone flickered. This Yan Mu was extremely famous with very high attainments in the dao of formations. He is a respected senior and clearly since he didn't appear here at the beginning, he had not planned to accept any challenges. Yet now, he was forced to accept the second round's challenge by Di Tian.

"Grandmaster Yan Mu's formations are truly very strong, he is able to instantly form a formation. Since he is the one representing the Yan Clan in the battle of martial formations, this Di Tian would surely be in danger. Why does the Yan Clan feel like they are being bullied?" Everyone mused silently but they naturally wouldn't dare to say anything. Since all cordial relations have already been severed, the Yan Clan naturally wouldn't be polite to Di Tian. It was understandable that they sent out an extremely powerful expert.

Yan Mu was very old, he had a head full of white hair, but his cultivation was undoubtedly strong. The aura gushing from him caused a faint pressure to bore down on the atmosphere. He stood in the air and the long robes he wore fluttered without wind. His spirited eyes stared at Di Tian, "A mere junior, yet you have no idea about how to keep a low profile? How can our Yan Clan, who has stood strong for so many years, be something you can provoke?"

The eyes revealed outside Di Tian's mask were exceptionally cold. He stared at Yan Mu, "You are already old."

These few simple words contained an immense contempt within. Yan Mu's expression grew colder. Resplendent emperor light cascaded from the sky down to him as he soared higher up into the air.

Di Tian similarly stepped out, astral light cascaded on him. Despite them being extremely high up in the air, everyone could still clearly see the two resplendent figures.

Yan Mu was similarly proficient in sword-attribute energy. Sword, controlled the aspect of killing. For grandmasters who were proficient in sword-law, their attacking formations naturally wouldn't be weak. Since this was a martial formation challenge, none of the challengers were allowed to use innate techniques. They had to cross blows using the might of their formations.

Yan Mu pressed his palm forward. Instantly, strands of emperor light interweaved, forming a runic diagram in the shape of a sword. Runic characters that represented the word 'sword', appeared in the surroundings, permeating the atmosphere with so much sharpness that they seemed to be able to tear the world apart.

The might of his sword formation was about to press down on Di Tian.

Around Di Tian, boundless light from sword-law energy cascaded down. His astral energy formed countless runes which arranged themselves into numerous gates of sealing. He sealed the space around him. And when the terrifying sword might slashed over, they actually failed to slash the sturdy gates of sealing apart.

Yan Mu naturally wouldn't waste time. He grabbed out with his hand as boundless runic light interweaved into a hole. A countless number of swords were formed within that hole in the void, their sword qi forming into a fearsome tempest that gushed towards Di Tian.

Di Tian's hands were busy folding incantation gestures. His constellation appeared behind him, as the area around him was flooded with light. From a certain angle, it looked like snowflakes were falling around Di Tian. They seemed powerless, yet they gave Yan Mu a sense of unease.

"Seal!" Di Tian spoke. The law energy that resembled floating snow instantly transformed into runes, establishing a formation. A fearsome sealing prison enveloped this entire battlefield, causing Yan Mu to stiffen. He had no way to sense the connection between him and his constellation. The entire space around him seemed to have been sealed, yet Di Tian was not under the same restriction. Was this because this seal was created by him? The astral light continued cascading down, reinforcing the sealing prison.

"BREAK!" The terrifying sword formation of Yan Mu formed waves of sword qi, trying to tear the prison apart. However, Di Tian actually walked out from the gates of sealing around him at this moment. He pointed his finger forward, the terrifying sealing prison actually shrank continuously as the energy within became even more concentrated as it shot towards Yan Mu.

Yan Mu's attacks simply couldn't destroy the seals. He roared in rage, he had completely forgotten the agreement that neither side was supposed to use innate techniques. He unleashed all his strength, but Qin Wentian's seals had already engulfed him.

"Yan Mu!" Yan Zhong's countenance changed. From afar, everyone only saw the prison directly shrank to the size of a pinpoint of light. With a rumbling sound, it completely exploded and Yan Mu disappeared along with the implosion of the sealing prison, most assuredly dead.

A famous grandmaster from the Yan Clan was killed in the battlefield by Di Tian.

Numerous powerful auras gushed forth from the Yan Clan as many peak-stage immortal emperors stepped out. Their killing intent soared up into the sky, their eyes were extremely cold as they stared at Di Tian.

Di Tian was just an initial-stage immortal emperor. Although he had some fame, the Yan Clan thought it was already sufficient if they sent out an elder to crush him. However, the person they sent out actually died. They consecutively lost two grandmasters.

Although the Yan Clan was a formations aristocrat clan, they also couldn't afford to bear such losses. This was especially so for the case of Yan Mu. He had an extraordinary status in the Yan Clan but he actually died during the second challenge round.

For the spectators, everyone felt their hearts trembling while a notion appeared in their mind.

Di Tian was truly going to be famous. Also, previously he was only slightly famous but after today, his name would definitely spread through the entire central city region. For such a powerful grandmaster, there was undoubtedly going to be many major powers keen to recruit him.

This Grandmaster Di did have the capabilities and he was also very confident in himself. Hence, was this the reason why he chose the Yan Clan to be his stepping stone?

Naturally, the person from the Yan Clan who went to his residence to tell him to come to the gathering, might have been overly rude, causing Di Tian to make this decision.

In any case, along with Yan Mu's death, Di Tian's rise to fame was no longer obstructable.

Despite there being three rounds of challenges, he had already won two. This can be considered that he had already defeated the Yan Clan. Also, he was only one man, yet he was confident enough to propose three rounds of challenges - formation breaking, martial and battle formations. From this, one could see how high his attainments in the dao of formations are. Wasn't it an irony that the Yan Clan wanted to invite him to participate in a gathering where only elites among the unaffiliated grandmasters could merely become their guest elders? No wonder Di Tian was angered.

Many of the experts from the Yan Clan then stepped out, wanting to surround Di Tian.

Di Tian's eyes flashed, his black eyes were like ice. The cold mask on his face actually caused everyone to feel a slight chill in their hearts.

He had truly come here because he wanted his fame to rise. As long as a powerful grandmaster became famous, he would naturally receive more attention, allowing himself to get better preferential treatment no matter where he wanted to go. At that time, he would easily become a valuable guest of the peak powers in Lifire City.

The Yan Aristocrat Clan, had truly rammed into a steel board this time!

Chapter 1578: True Gate of Sealing

Grandmaster Di would definitely be famous. However, if he died, there was no meaning for a dead person becoming famous.

Even if he failed in the three challenges, it wouldn't have affected his rise to fame. But what if he was dead? He consecutively killed two grandmasters from the Yan Clan and the hatred between both sides was set in stone. The Yan Clan would kill him for sure. Hence, for the last challenge round, Di Tian would surely be defeated because the Yan Clan would surely send out someone far above his league to crush him.

Before Di Tian challenged the Yan Clan, no one would have expected such an ending. Even the Yan Clan didn't imagine this. If not, they wouldn't have reacted like that, even allowing Di Tian to enter. After today, the name of their Yan Clan would surely become a joke in the eyes of others.

Staring at the surrounding Yan Clan experts, Di Tian's eyes were cold. Earlier when he killed the first grandmaster, the situation was already like this. But this time around, the killing intent by the Yan Clan was more intense. Two powerful mid-stage emperor grandmasters were truly a huge loss to the Yan Clan.

"Things are getting lively here, what's going on? I just coincidentally arrived and came to take a look." A straight-forward sounding voice drifted over. Somebody was flying through the air, heading towards this direction. His voice broke the silence, clearly he wasn't someone ordinary. Everyone including Yan Mu turned their eyes over, and many people could recognize this young man.

"Someone from the Mo Clan." The eyes of everyone narrowed. The Mo Clan was the same as the Yan Clan, they were an aristocrat clan that specialized in formations and were also located in the central city regions of Lifire City. Their clan was very strong, strong enough to contend against the Yan Clan. This man who just appeared, was an elder with a very high status of the Mo Clan, at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm.

"Mo Fei." Yan Zhong frowned when he saw this man. "What are you doing here?"

"Haha, I was just passing by and heard that there was a show to watch. Hence, I came in. No one from your Yan Clan stopped me, what a courteous host you guys are. To think that the moment I came, I had already witnessed such a fascinating battle." Mo Fei laughed. He glanced over at Di Tian and clasped his hands, "I've long heard that a mysterious grandmaster appeared in our central city regions and long wanted to meet with you. I'm Mo Fei from the Mo Clan, Grandmaster Di's attainments in the dao of formations truly cause one to be impressed."

Everyone had disdain in their hearts. Although the words were polite, if it wasn't for Di Tian's performance today, how could someone of Mo Fei's status wish to meet with him? But the truth was as such, if you wanted people to respect you, you had to show your capabilities or else, why would people waste time on you? Cultivators were all extremely busy people.

"Senior praises me too much." Di Tian nodded to Mo Fei.

"Not at all, your proficiency in formations is truly high. You are merely at the initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm yet you can already win against Yan Mu of the Yan Clan. If your cultivation base increases by another step, most probably no one would be your rival in terms of formations." Another voice suddenly rang out. The crowd then saw another person surrounded by his subordinates who just walked up on a platform. This caused many people to draw in a deep breath, it was another person from an aristocrat clan. Although his clan wasn't a clan that specialized in formations, the strength level of his clan was extremely high.

More and more experts appeared, sitting at the spectator stands. The guards from the entrance hurriedly came to report the arrival of more experts. Although they had reported it once earlier, but there were more and more people appearing, so much that they had no choice but to do so.

"There's even someone from the central governor's manor." There were some who gazed in a certain direction. Quite a few people with terrifying auras sat together, they were from the governor's manor. One of them was even a vice governor.

The governor's manor in the central city regions wasn't like the northern governor's manor which lacked imposingness and prestige in the eyes of others. With Governor Xia Hou leading, everyone in the central city regions didn't dare to antagonize them. Every time when tribute day came, the major powers would take the initiative to pay up. No one would dare to cause trouble at all.

The people of the governor's manor had arrived. Unless Di Tian died in the midst of the third challenge, in the battle of warring formations, if not, there was no way the Yan Clan could kill him. The Yan Clan wouldn't kill Di Tian before the eyes of the governor's manor just for revenge, or they would be breaking the city laws.

Death in the competition was something agreed upon by both sides. If one was killed, it would only mean that that person was useless.

The experts of the Yan Clan stepped back. It was no longer possible for them to kill Di Tian directly, and they could only depend on the final challenge round.

"Yan Feng, for the warring formation battle, you will represent us." Yan Zhong spoke. After that, a middle-aged person walked out from the Yan Clan. His eyes were spirited, terrifying to the extreme as killing intent radiated from him. When he stared at Di Tian, Di Tian could actually feel the fire of his eyes.

"The Yan Clan is truly shameless to send Grandmaster Yan Feng to accept the third challenge." Everyone felt speechless when they saw this.

Yan Feng could be said to be a pillar of the Yan Clan. He had a peak-stage immortal emperor cultivation base, two stages higher compared to Di Tian. Was it fair if they competed in warring formations?

This was basically bullying Di Tian.

"As expected, the Yan Clan wants Grandmaster Di to die." Everyone understood this point. Grandmaster Yan Feng himself stepped out for battle. From this, one could very well tell how strong the Yan Clan's determination to kill Di Tian was.

Many major characters who came here all quietly watched, not intending to interfere. This was, after all, a battle between Di Tian and the Yan Clan, something that both sides agreed to. In that case, no one could stop it. Di Tian had to fulfil his obligations, he could very well admit defeat if he felt that he was inferior.

"Grandmaster Di Tian, Yan Feng has a peak-stage immortal emperor cultivation base, it's only normal to lose if you fight him in warring formations. If you cannot persist on, just admit defeat directly. I believe with Yan Feng's strength and status, he wouldn't make things difficult for you." Mo Fei laughed, his words causing the people of the Yan Clan to look coldly at him. However, Mo Fei ignored them all with a smile on his face.

"Many thanks for your reminder. If I cannot defeat him, I will naturally concede." Di Tian's voice was very calm. He had black hair and was dressed in black, with a silver mask on his face that radiated a cold and sharp aura, as well as a faint hint of arrogance.

"Please." Although Yan Feng appeared polite, his voice was extremely sinister, filled with killing intent. He then stepped upon one of the many platforms here.

Di Tian's silhouette flashed, directly appearing on the platform in front of Yan Feng.

Warring formations were different from battle formations. They had to first create their runic formation before they competed with each other to see which formation was stronger.

Astral light cascaded down, raining upon Yan Feng and Di Tian. The light radiating from Yan Feng was extremely terrifying, boundless law energy circulated around him, flaring so brightly that they resembled heavenly fire. The light engulfed his platform, the divine inscriptions started to interweave together as a tyrannical aura gushed forth. Although he was just starting to inscribe his formation, a terrifying destructive might could already be felt from it.

Yet Di Tian didn't seem to notice. He was completely immersed in the formation he was inscribing.

He came here for the sake of becoming famous. As long as he defeated the Yan Clan, his reputation as a formations grandmaster would naturally circulate throughout Lifire City.

It was just that he didn't expect the Yan Clan would inscribe a killing formation right at the first round. Since this was the case, he already understood their intent. He then decided to pay them back in their own coin and killed his opponent.

Di Tian didn't mind creating a huge mess, blowing the matter out of proportions. At the same time, he also didn't mind his opponent having a higher cultivation base. The greater the disparity, the greater the amount of fame he would gain. It would only be extremely advantageous towards his cultivation in Lifire City in the future.

The atmosphere became exceptionally silent. Everyone was waiting patiently. Finally, rows of terrifying runes flowed around the platform Yan Feng was at. He stood up there and stared in Di Tian's direction. His spirited eyes flashed with an unmasked killing intent as though he wanted nothing more than to slaughter Di Tian immediately. He didn't want to waste any time.

Not too long after, Di Tian's formation had also finished. Boundless sealing power flowed on his platform as law energy cascaded down from the sky.

"Can we start the battle formations?" Yan Feng icily asked.

"Make your move." Di Tian nodded, he was already prepared.

As the sound of his voice faded, the platform Yan Feng was at produced balls of terrifying black-colored flames. Each of them contained a startling amount of destructive energy, and there was even thunder-attributed law energy mixed within. In fact, the law attributes of frost were inside as well. A flame with both the aspect of heat and chill actually appeared within a single formation. This was truly extremely terrifying.

Yan Feng waved his hand, the balls of flames started dancing in the air, they converged together, forming a fiery storm that engulfed everything, shooting straight for Di Tian. In just an instant, the tempest of flames completely engulfed Di Tian's platform.

Everyone's expression stiffened. This Grandmaster Yan Feng didn't even want to give Di Tian any chance, he wanted to incinerate him completely.

The gaze of many experts who came here later, stiffened in awe when they saw this. As expected of Grandmaster Yan Feng. Within his killing formation, even peak-stage immortal emperors would find it hard to survive. This Di Tian was too arrogant and he had underestimated Yan Feng. No one could tell if Di Tian was able to survive this or not.

As they sensed the destructive might permeating the area around Di Tian's platform, many of them believed that Di Tian would die for sure. What a pity.

When Di Tian saw the tempest of flames gushing over, he also felt shocked in his heart. Was this the capabilities of a peak-stage immortal emperor who was a formations grandmaster? Destructive balls of flames that contained heat, frost and thunder. Not only so, the excess flames even turned into white tigers, true dragons, horned snakes, as they lunged at him.

Di Tian still had a calm look on his face. With a stomp of his foot, numerous gates of sealing appeared one after another with unbelievable speed. The gates of sealing then shot towards different directions, converging together to form a perfect wall of defense. When the tempest of flames closed in, their energy was instantly sealed away as their power level weakened.

But even so, many of the sealing gates he created were destroyed in return. He wasn't able to completely seal off such a powerful killing formation.

Di Tian's hands moved about in the air, manifesting a countless number of sealing diagrams which soared into the air. All of them actually stacked with each other, forming a true gate of sealing that constantly expanded in size, becoming larger than the entire platform. Within this true gate of sealing, there seemed to be another dimension. When the destructive flame creatures lunged over, all of them were absorbed into it, turning into nothingness! That true gate of sealing was like a bottomless hole, capable of absorbing all destructive energies!

Chapter 1579: Recruit

"What a powerful sealing technique."

"This is a grand sealing formation and it simply could be said that it has reached great heights, proving Grandmaster Di's attainments in the dao of formations. Inside this formation, he can handle peak-stage immortal emperors as he wishes."

Everyone here was incomparably shocked when they saw this scene. All of them could feel how terrifying Yan Feng's formation was, but Di Tian actually managed to negate it. From this, one could tell how fearsome the sealing formation he created was. But the power of his formation was secondary. What was most important was his talent and potential. Right now, he could even contend against a peak-stage emperor in formation arts despite him merely being an initial-stage immortal emperor.

In that case, in the future after he grows in strength, breaking through to the mid-stage or peak-stage, wouldn't he be invincible? At that time, his status in Lifire City would surely be transcendent.

The expressions of people of the Yan Clan were extremely unsightly. They were an aristocrat clan that specialized in formations and naturally understood how high Di Tian's attainments were. But the more it was so, the more they wanted to destroy him. Hence, Yan Feng's attack grew more berserk. Although that true gate of sealing was like a bottomless hole, it didn't mean that it was truly without limit. After all, the phenomenon was sustained by this formation. When an attack's power reached a certain limit, he would still be able to destroy it.

Formations are extremely mystical. Without breaching their limit, no one would be able to break it, the true gate of sealing manifested by Di Tian's formation was able to last indefinitely.

Yan Feng's flames grew in intensity, he didn't want to give Di Tian any opportunity at all. Di Tian was completely focused on defense, his hands moved about in the air as more sealing diagrams flew out. In fact, right now, there were many pairs of terrifying eyes that appeared in his surroundings. These were all eyes of sealing, they were boundlessly deep and the light radiating from them was capable of sealing his opponent's attacks.

The space between the two platforms became a magnificent sight. This was especially so for the platform Di Tian was on. He merged attacking aspects into his defense and colors of all sorts flowed about, the amount of power radiating from the formation was sufficient to easily decimate a mid-stage immortal emperor and could even threaten peak-stage emperors.

"For this challenge round, I admit defeat." Di Tian suddenly spoke calmly, it was like he didn't mind conceding at all.

"Hu…" Many drew in a deep breath. Has he finally admitted defeat? But this ending was within their expectations. By being able to persist so long when fighting against Yan Feng's killing formation, it was already very excellent.

As for being defeated…?

Today, for this challenge, it was undoubtedly that the Yan Clan was the loser. One could even say that they lost very badly, they suffered a crushing defeat.

"The battle has yet to end, what do you mean by conceding?" Yan Feng icily spoke. He pointed his finger forward as the energy from his formation grew even more violent. He floated in the air above his platform, his entire body radiated a towering destructive might.

The eyes of many people flashed. Mo Fei from the Mo Clan laughed coldly, he then stood up, "Di Tian has already admitted defeat and the battle should be over. The Yan Clan is, after all, a famous aristocrat clan but your actions today are truly shameful, lacking of grace and elegance."

"What has the matters of my Yan Clan got to do with you?" An elder turned to Mo Fei. Both the Yan Clan and Mo Clan were formations-oriented aristocrat clans, there were naturally conflict and competition between them.

In addition, the Mo Clan wasn't like the other major powers of Lifire City, they didn't need to depend on the Yan Clan at all. They themselves were already proficient in inscribing formations, hence they didn't need to worry about offending the Yan Clan. The other powers here also felt the Yan Clan couldn't afford to lose, but many of them didn't dare to say anything. If not in the future, when they needed to depend on the Yan Clan, they might very well be ignored.

"Grandmaster Yan Feng's attainments in the dao of formations is truly formidable. It's just that it wouldn't be easy if you wish to defeat Grandmaster Di Tian. Since you cannot determine victory or defeat in a short time and Grandmaster Di has already conceded, the match should stop now." Another voice rang out. The people from the Yan Clan glanced over and saw the people from the governor's manor. The one who spoke was a deputy general under Central Governor Xia Hou.

Even the people from the governor's manor have spoken. The hearts of the Yan Clan sank. Seems like the governor's manor wanted to recruit this unaffiliated Grandmaster Di.

Indeed, for an outstanding formations grandmaster who was currently unaffiliated, there would be no lack of people wanting to pull him over.

"Yan Feng, enough." The old man from the Yan Clan spoke. Yan Feng's expression sank but he had no choice but to comply. The destructive might from him gradually dissipated as the flames vanished. His eyes were still coldly staring at Di Tian, his killing intent as sharp as ever.

However, Di Tian didn't care about that. He clasped his hands to the Yan Clan's experts, "Today's guidance has been truly beneficial, please forgive me if I had offended you all with my actions. The Yan Clan is truly an aristocrat clan that specializes in formations, I, Di, am deeply impressed. Let's forget all the unpleasant things that occurred between us. I believe that as an aristocrat clan, the Yan Clan would definitely be magnanimous enough."

Everyone stared at bewilderment at Di Tian. This fellow suddenly became polite?

The Di Tian earlier was extremely brazen, his tone filled with absolute arrogance. Right now, even the Yan Clan's people were taken aback when they heard him.

However after they thought about it, they instantly understood. Seems like they were right. Di Tian has already achieved his purpose, there was no longer a need to treat the Yan Clan as his enemies and if he could resolve the grudge between them, that would naturally be the best.

"Hmph." Yan Feng snorted coldly, feeling extremely unhappy. He wanted to resolve the grudge? After killing two Yan Clan's grandmasters and stomping on their reputation, he wanted to resolve everything with just a few words? This Di Tian might be thinking through things too simply.

The people of the Yan Clan were all coldly staring at Di Tian. When he saw this scene, Di Tian didn't feel it was strange, but he didn't care too much. Although he came here to borrow the Yan Clan to rise to fame, it was the Yan Clan who was disrespectful first. Since you don't want to respect me, why must I respect you? You want to inscribe a killing formation? I'll do the same as well.

Now the situation was the same as well. He was okay to bury the hatchet but if the Yan Clan didn't want to and tries to kill him in the future, he will simply pay them back in their own coin.

"Farewell." Di Tian clasped his hands and destroyed the formation he created as he turned and left.

"Grandmaster Di Tian. I, Mo Fei, am extremely impressed with Grandmaster Di's attainments in the dao of formations. My Mo Clan is also a formations-oriented aristocrat clan, if you have the time, please come for an exchange in our Mo Clan, we would both benefit from the experience." Mo Fei smiled, causing the faces of the Yan Clan to turn more unsightly. Before leaving their territory, their enemies already wanted to start recruiting Di Tian?

"Right, if I have the time, I'll head to the Mo Clan for a visit." Di Tian smiled.

"Brother Di, I'm someone from the Han Clan in Lifire City, if you are free in the future, you are very welcome to visit our Han Clan." Another person from a major power smiled, indicating his good will.

"Sure, I will." Di Tian nodded. Many of the powers here no longer care about the Yan Clan as they all spoke out, wanting to pull Di Tian closer to them. Di Tian replied amicably, accepting all requests. This caused everyone to feel that he was not as cold as they thought previously but was an extremely friendly individual.

After the spectators left, many experts of the Yan Clan had ashened expressions and were speechless.

"In the future, how should we deal with him?" Finally, someone asked, breaking the silence.

"This time, he made use of our Yan Clan to rise to fame, attracting the attention of the other major powers. If we deal with him now, the governor's manor would surely suspect us. Let's just observe for now." The old man from the Yan Clan sighed. It wasn't a simple matter to kill a grandmaster. Let alone such a famous one.

Just like what everyone expected, Di Tian rose to fame after the visit to the Yan Clan. Out of the three rounds, he won two and conceded one. Even the peak-stage emperor, Grandmaster Yan Feng, had no way to kill Di Tian in a short period of time.

A mere initial-stage immortal emperor actually reached such a stage just by borrowing power from his formation. From this, one could see how highly talented he was. In an instant, the residence where Di Tian was staying at was flooded by gifts sent by the major powers in Lifire City. All of them wanted to recruit him as a guest elder, or seek his help to inscribe formations.

Di Tian still stayed in the courtyard and was extremely busy day and night. So busy that even his serving girl felt extremely fatigued.

At this moment, in the courtyard, the serving girl brought out many interspatial rings and handed them to Di Tian. "Sir, there are so many gifts here. You truly refuse no one, and accepted everything they gave."

"They are all gifts that were given to me willingly are they not? Why shouldn't we accept them?" Di Tian inclined his head as a faint smile flickered in his revealed eyes. The serving girl stared at him in a daze, it was very rare to see such a smile in Qin Wentian's eyes.

"In any case, these people sent these gifts merely to indicate their sincerity, they are not really considered valuable gifts at all. If they think they can bribe me with these gifts, it would truly be an insult to their intelligence. They just wanted to show that they are friendly. By accepting these gifts, we are telling them that we are acquainted with them and they can look for me if they want to in the future. This is an ending both sides wanted." Di Tian explained.

"Seems like you have already thought everything through. Sir, you were already prepared to earn an astronomical amount of cultivation resources." The serving girl sat down in front of Di Tian, her hands propping up her chin. She stared at Di Tian as she softly asked, "Sir, can you remove your mask and show me your face?"

Di Tian looked at the little serving girl, "I'm too ugly, I will frighten you."

The serving girl shook her head, "I don't believe so. Sir should be young and very good-looking. You must be worried because your talent is too shocking, hence you wore the mask."

"You really know how to talk." Di Tian smiled.

"Central Governor Xia Hou is here for a visit to Grandmaster Di Tian." Outside the courtyard, a voice drifted over. Di Tian's eyes flashed and glanced over there with a smile, "Welcome him in."

"Governor Xia actually came personally." The serving girl was surprised and hurried out to welcome him in. Very soon, Governor Xia Hou was brought in as he sat down.

"Sir governor coming here personally truly brings light to my humble dwelling." Di Tian clasped his hands. His original self has met Xia Hou before and was even insulted by Xia Hou. He naturally would recognize who Xia Hou was.

Back then in the Lifire Palace, Xia Hou was arrogant to the extreme. But now, he actually came here personally, causing Di Tian to be surprised.

"You are too polite. I've long heard about Grandmaster Di's achievements. I'm really impressed." Governor Xia Hou smiled. "Today, I came here for a visit and I won't beat around the bush. Our governor's manor lacks talented people like you. Di Tian, if you are willing to join the governor's manor, I will directly make you a vice governor. You will even have the chance to come in contact with the Lifire Empyrean when the time comes. In the future, I can guarantee that out of the five governors in Lifire City, one of the positions will belong to you."

Chapter 1580: Di Tian’s Ambitions

Xia Hou's words were extremely direct, but he wasn't exaggerating. Given Di Tian's displayed attainment in the dao of formations, if he enters the mid-stage immortal emperor realm in the future, he would have the qualifications to become one of the five governors of Lifire City. Naturally, the prerequisite was that he had to obtain the Lifire Empyrean's trust.

"But, what benefits would that bring to Governor Xia Hou?" Di Tian asked.

"I precisely need talented subordinates to aid me. After all, it's impossible for me to stay in this position forever. I also wish to climb higher." Xia Hou replied, his style as direct as ever.

"I understand Governor Xia Hou's meaning. It's just that I, Di Tian, have already been used to this idyllic lifestyle, free and unrestrained. I don't like to be bound by restrictions and hence, I can only thank Governor Xia Hou for your kind intentions." Since the other party was so straightforward, Di Tian didn't wish to beat around the bush too. He directly rejected. What a joke, wanting him to be Xia Hou's subordinate?

His original self was the northern governor, someone of equal standings with the Central Governor, Xia Hou. Xia Hou wanted to recruit him with just the position of a vice governor?

"Di Tian, although your attainments in formations are high, you should understand that this place is Lifire City. Lifire City is in the Lifelong Realm, and the true hegemon here is the Lifelong Realmlord. Only by entering the governor's manor, can you be truly considered to have true authority, having a chance to rise up into the sky." Xia Hou persuaded.

"I have my own thoughts on this." Di Tian's expression didn't change.

"Each to his own then. Since this is the case, I won't persuade you any longer. Farewell." Governor Xia Hou stated.

After that, he directly turned and left, no longer as polite as he was when he first came. After all, his status was evident, he came and personally invited Di Tian yet he was still rejected. He would naturally feel a loss of face.

"Governor Xia Hou, have a good trip back." Di Tian spoke, sending Xia Hou away with his gaze while coldly smiling in his heart. As expected, a person's personality wouldn't change easily. His true self has already sensed Xia Hou's arrogance when they were at the Lifire Palace, how could that be masked so easily?

"Sir, you really plan to reject it?" The serving girl blinked. Governor Xia Hou personally came to invite him, wanting to recruit him as a vice governor yet Di Tian simply rejected like that despite the temptation.

"Vice governor?" Di Tian laughed, "Maybe, I would reconsider if he wanted to give me his position."

The serving girl froze when she heard that. After that, she heard Di Tian continue to speak, "Little Zhu, let's go out for a walk."

"Where to?" The serving girl asked.

"The Mo Clan has already sent people to visit me twice. We should return the greeting and head there for a visit." Di Tian smiled. The serving girl nodded. She was naturally happy given Di Tian's current status. In Lifire City, an initial-stage immortal emperor couldn't be considered a significant character and was very common. However, Di Tian was most assuredly a major character with many powerful sects and clans paying a visit to him.

She still remembered back then, that person of the Yan Clan came by and arrogantly told Di Tian to head to the Yan Clan for a gathering of unaffiliated grandmasters where only the elite among them could become the Yan Clan's guest elders. Right now, Di Tian was paying a visit to the Mo Clan, a clan on the same level as the Yan Clan and he is going there in the capacity of a valuable guest. The situation truly changed swiftly, but Di Tian still seemed extremely calm.

...

The Mo Clan naturally would welcome Di Tian's arrival. Mo Fei, an elder of the Mo Clan, personally came out to receive him and when Di Tian entered the entrance, a grand banquet was immediately arranged just for him.

In the banquet, many major characters of the Mo Clan arrived. The person in the host seat was naturally the Mo Clan's clan leader, Mo Ting.

Mo Ting looked below forty in age, he was extremely spirited and the lines of his face were very clear and deep. When he was younger, he must have been very good looking.

"Di Tian. Mo Fei thinks very highly of you. I really want to see what sort of character you are, being able to cause the Yan Clan to lose so much face when merely at the initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm." Mo Ting laughed, lifting his cup to toast Di Tian.

"Clan leader praises me too much, I'm only lucky. Yan Feng's attainments are truly high." Di Tian returned the toast as he smiled.

"What cultivation base does Yan Feng have? He is a peak-stage emperor and has already been famous for many years. As for you, although you are masked, I can tell that you should be very young. In the future, let alone Yan Feng, even the entire Yan Clan cannot compare to you. Naturally, it's the same for my Mo Clan." Mo Ting smiled. This was already a very high validation to Di Tian. The words spoken by their clan leader caused many in the Mo Clan to reveal expressions of startlement.

"Clan leader, you must be jesting. Right now, I still have much to improve on." Di Tian was as calm as ever, causing Mo Ting's smile to widen. Mo Ting then glanced at a girl beside him, "Junyi, are you not always very keen about learning the dao of formations and have always felt that us old fellows are not up to the mark? Right now, Di Tian is as young as you. I can tell he is definitely below five hundred years old. Why don't you seek guidance from him?"

Mo Junyi was Mo Ting's daughter. Her talent and beauty were both considered outstanding, and she reached the immortal emperor realm after cultivating for 500 years. Such cultivation speed, even in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, was considered extremely quick, proof of outstanding talent.

In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, because of the abundance of cultivation resources as well as richer experience from their predecessors, and having more powerful innate techniques and arts, those who were born with powerful backgrounds all far surpassed the cultivation speed of the people from the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. But even so, those here who could become immortal emperors within a thousand years were also considered geniuses.

"Let me toast Grandmaster Di." Mo Junyi lifted her winecup and walked to Di Tian's side as she sat down, draining the contents of her cup.

"Miss, you can just call me by my name." Di Tian raised his wine cup and smiled.

"Sure, in that case, you can also just call me Junyi." Mo Junyi smiled. "It's very tough to advance in the dao of formations. I'm very interested to learn but because I'm obsessed with the martial path, I don't really have enough time or energy to spend on learning formations. Di Tian, you are actually so outstanding in both areas, you are simply a monster."

"All the great daos are connected, in my perspective, both the martial path and dao of formations have no conflict between each other." Di Tian replied.

"What do you mean?" Mo Junyi curiously asked.

"I started comprehending divine inscriptions when I was at a very young age. The dao of divine inscriptions are actually the basis of the great dao of heaven and earth. To better put it, divine inscriptions are the true innate language of this world, capable of conveying the power of the law attributes. From my point of view, all innate techniques and arts were born from divine inscriptions." Di Tian smiled.

"The logic of the world explained by you sounds simple but if one really wanted to comprehend it, it's indescribably difficult. Since you are able to link them together and have such achievements, you are most assuredly a rare genius. Let me toast you again." Mo Junyi lifted her cup and gently smiled. Di Tian naturally wouldn't reject her. When the serving girl behind him saw this scene, her lips couldn't help but twitch. Her master was still too inexperienced with regards to the methods of females.

However, this couldn't be blamed on him. This Mo Junyi was a famous beauty in the central city regions. Regardless of her looks or demeanor, she can be considered the cream of the crop. The Mo Clan's clan leader, Mo Ting, decided to send her out to interact with Di Tian, it was no wonder that her master would be captivated by her.

"Di Tian, right now you are already famous in Lifire City. I'm sure many major powers must have invited you, right? I wonder what are your future plans?" Below Mo Ting's seat, the elder Mo Fei probingly asked as he looked at Di Tian.

"Elder, do you want to hear the truth?" Di Tian laughed.

"Naturally." Mo Fei started before nodding.

"In truth, before I went to the Yan Clan, I already wanted to kickstart my rise to fame. It was just that the Yan Clan just so coincidentally offended me or I wouldn't have gone to their place to challenge them. As for my intentions, they are very simple. I want cultivation resources. Everyone knows how difficult it is for unaffiliated cultivators to gain resources. As someone that understands the dao of formations, the natural path for me is undoubtedly to become a famous grandmaster, having my name resound through Lifire City."

Di Tian slowly spoke, Mo Fei's eyes flashed after he heard that. He then continued asking, "However, given your abilities, I'm sure no major powers would reject you if you wanted to join them."

"Becoming a vassal of a major power, even if it's a major power endorsed by the realmlord, how can it be compared to the amount of resources I would gain by being a famous grandmaster?" Di Tian laughed. "In addition, I'm already used to being unrestricted and carefree. I wouldn't want to be bogged down by responsibilities as a result of becoming a vassal."

"I initially still wanted to recruit you, but I can see that there's no chance now." Mo Fei honestly admitted with a smile. He naturally understood Di Tian knew what he was thinking about. There was no need to hide anything.

"I appreciate elder's kind intentions. Earlier, you asked me what are my future plans. Recently, I got acquainted with many major powers and I can foresee that I will be extremely busy in the near future. I will first accumulate resources and upgrade my strength. As for further in the future, I'm prepared to create divine weapons." Di Tian spoke.

"Weaponsmithing?" The eyes of many gleamed sharply, including the Mo Clan's clan leader, Mo Ting. He stared at Di Tian, "You are even proficient in the smithing of divine weapons?"

"Everything is connected in the great dao. A good weaponsmith first has to be a good formations grandmaster. I believe everyone here is more clear than me with regards to this point." Di Tian smiled. Weaponsmiths would gather cultivation resources even faster compared to formations grandmasters. After all, the requests for powerful divine weapons are almost endless. This is especially so if you can create excellent quality weapons. There's no need to worry about the lack of a customer base.

"Di Tian, if you need any help in the future, feel free to approach our Mo Clan." Mo Ting laughed. A genius cultivator, formations grandmaster and weaponsmith, even if he didn't join the Mo Clan, as long as their relationships remained good, it might be beneficial to them in the future."

"Many thanks, Clan Leader." Di Tian smiled as he nodded.

"Di Tian, there is still plenty of good stuff here in our Mo Clan. Why don't you rest here for a few days and I'll grant you access to our secret library." Mo Ting spoke.

"This…" Although Di Tian wanted to form a good relationship when he came to the Mo Clan, the Mo Clan's generous treatment now actually caused him to hesitate.

"I also want to consult you on a few things. Why don't you stay here temporarily?" Mo Junyi smiled warmly. Di Tian hesitated for a moment before he nodded, "Alright then."

The mouth of the serving girl behind Di Tian twitched again as a look of disdain flickered in her eyes.

Di Tian then stayed in the Mo Clan for several days. During these several days, the Mo Clan treated him extremely generously, allowing him access to their secret library which contained many unique formations. Mo Junyi also accompanied him everywhere. Such preferential treatment truly caused many to be extremely envious.

After he left, within a courtyard in the Mo Clan...

"Father, he is just an initial-stage immortal emperor. Do you really have to make me act like this?" Mo Junyi looked at her father, Mo Ting. An expression of being wronged appeared on her face. Despite her accompanying Di Tian for many days, that fellow didn't even remove his mask.

"I just want you to spend time and chat with him, and not to seduce him. What is so difficult about that." Mo Ting rolled his eyes at his daughter. He then smiled, "In any case, it's a good idea for you to interact with geniuses from the outside. If not, you might have no one in your eyes. Don't underestimate Di Tian, that fellow isn't a simple character."

"Even if he really can create divine weapons in the future, there's no way he can shake the position of our Mo Clan, right?" Mo Junyi asked.

"You don't understand. He might gain fame due to his attainments in the dao of formations, and he is also willing to venture in the field of weaponsmithing but it's clear that his ambitions don't stop here." Mo Ting shook his head.

He stared at Mo Junyi, "Junyi, you have to remember that you cannot judge people based on the surface. I believe that he is currently doing all this to set a foundation for himself. My estimation is that before a hundred years pass, another supreme major power would appear in the central city regions of Lifire City."

Chapter 1581: Challenge and Auction

After a formations grandmaster become famous, it was too simple for him to accumulate cultivation resources. This was especially true for such a famous grandmaster like Di Tian.

During these days, he forged relationships with many major powers and didn't exhibit any of his tyranny and brazen attitude when he went to challenge the Yan Clan. He was polite and humble, and when the major powers invited him to inscribe formations, as long as the price was right, Di Tian never rejected anyone.

At the same time, he also made many friends. An example was the Mo Clan. Mo Junyi would often visit him and invite him to her Mo Clan. He would also frequent transaction Pavilions to exchange for treasures. Unknowingly, the cultivation resources he gathered became more and more, he eventually bought a pretty large piece of land in the central city regions and after some modifications to it, that place became his resting place.

However, Di Tian also encountered some trouble. For example, there was a person who challenged him and this man was extremely famous. His name was Liu Feibai and he was the number one genius of an aristocrat clan.

Liu Feibai's martial talent was extremely high, he was already at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm despite him not cultivating for more than a thousand years. His combat prowess was extremely strong as well, that, coupled with his background, made him a very famous individual in Lifire City. Although those who were below a thousand years were considered youngsters, many old monsters who cultivated for countless years, wouldn't be able to defeat him at the same level.

This Liu Feibai challenged Di Tian, sending a challenge letter to Di Tian's location, a place now named Emperor Pavilion.

Emperor Pavilion was the name the serving girl chose. She felt that it sounded tyrannical and the word for 'emperor' was precisely Di Tian's surname. Di Tian naturally didn't object to it.

Many people guessed that since Di Tian was famous due to his formation arts, his strength in the martial path might not be that strong. Even if he could borrow power from his formations for battle, his might was most definitely limited. It was impossible for him to deal with Liu Feibai.

Could Liu Feibai have been invited to act on behalf of the Yan Clan? Wanting to kill Di Tian under the pretext of a challenge?

Di Tian was also thinking that it was so. However, after Mo Junyi found him and explained to him, he finally understood that the reason Liu Feibai wanted to challenge him was not because of the Yan Clan, but was because of Mo Junyi instead.

The Liu Clan hopes to form a marriage alliance with the Mo Clan. Liu Feibai and Mo Junyi were undoubtedly the most suitable pair. Liu Feibai was also very satisfied with Mo Junyi, but Mo Junyi seemed to be very close to Grandmaster Di Tian.

After knowing the reason, Di Tian was speechless. From the past until now, he had encountered quite a few of such incidents. Femme fatale indeed, he also didn't wish to bother with it. Mo Junyi also felt helpless and somewhat apologetic to Di Tian.

Hence, despite the anticipation of everyone, Grandmaster Di Tian actually conceded.

This caused many to be extremely shocked, even feeling speechless. Many cursed Di Tian for being too useless and had no guts to accept Liu Feibai's challenge, directly calling him a coward. Seems like other than his high attainments in the dao of formations, his talent was ordinary in the martial path.

Naturally, there were also others who supported Di Tian. After all, although Liu Feibai was famous, his fame was far from being able to compete with Di Tian. Saying Di Tian was a coward? Did everyone forget that he slaughtered his way into the Yan Clan for the sake of a serving girl? Causing the Yan Clan's reputation to be tarnished. In addition, Di Tian's formations were all extremely powerful, would he really be weak in terms of combat? Don't forget that he once killed Grandmaster Yan Mu when they were competing in battle formations. He conceding was merely because he disdained to accept Liu Feibai's challenge.

In any case, there was all sort of voices. Di Tian ignored them all and was focused on his own matters.

Liu Feibai didn't stop because of this. He sent another challenge latter, and Di Tian rejected it again, directly conceding. This caused another round of clamor where the people insulting Di Tian grew in number, saying that he was only proficient in formations.

Just when voices of discussion in the outside world reached an extremely high intensity, a piece of news suddenly circulated from the Emperor Pavilion which shocked the entire central city regions.

Grandmaster Di Tian has finished forging an emperor-ranked divine weapon and he would be auctioning it away three days later. For those who wish to participate in the auction, the location would be set at the Emperor Pavilion.

For a period of time, the entire central region was in a clamor once again. Not long ago, it was because of Liu Feibai's challenge and many voices were calling Di Tian a coward. But now, the Emperor Pavilion released news saying that Grandmaster Di had forged a divine weapon and wanted to auction it away three days later.

To think that Grandmaster Di Tian also actually knows how to forge divine weapons? This meant that he wasn't simply proficient in formations, he could very well be a grandmaster weaponsmith as well. For a period of time, Di Tian's fame rose higher than ever. Many people were wondering what sort of quality weapon could he forged.

Three days later, the atmosphere at the Emperor Pavilion was lively to the extreme. Many experts came, including aristocrat clans and the other major powers.

Although land and buildings in Lifire City were very expensive, their size was usually extremely vast. An example was the Emperor Pavilion, Di Tian spent a huge amount of fortune before he could purchase it.

Outside a grand hall of the Emperor Pavilion, there was a stairway leading up to it. Below the stairway, there was a vast empty ground. The people who arrived were all currently gathered here.

There was no banquet and no one to wait upon them because in the Emperor Pavilion, other than Di Tian, there was only his personal serving girl. There was simply no way for a person to wait on so many. For this point, those who came here naturally understood. After all, their purpose here wasn't to attend any banquet, they wanted to see the divine weapon Di Tian created.

"Mo Fei, your Mo Clan is very close to Grandmaster Di. Do you know some inside news? What sort of divine weapon did he create exactly?" The crowd asked immediately when they saw people from the Mo Clan arriving. Mo Fei and Mo Junyi were both present as well.

"We have no idea. This fellow Di Tian has always been mysterious. I received the news at the same time as the rest of you." Mo Fei laughed. Although Di Tian had already told them he would be walking this path those years ago at the banquet in the Mo Clan, when this day arrived, he still was extremely interested to find out what sort of weapon Di Tian created.

"Grandmaster Di is highly proficient in the dao of formations. Now that he is forging a weapon personally, it would definitely be of the extraordinary-grade. I'm filled with anticipation." Someone laughed.

"Mhm, I once invited Grandmaster Di Tian to help me inscribe a formation. That formation is truly exquisite and profound."

"A bunch of bootlickers." A mocking voice rang out. The gazes of everyone turned over. Among the crowd, they saw several figures from the Yan Clan, and the person in the lead was actually Yan Feng.

"I heard your Mo Clan is trying to use the beauty trap, making Mo Junyi seduce Di Tian? How can it be that you don't even know what weapon it is? Are you deliberately acting mysterious?" Yan Feng coldly mocked.

Mo Fei frowned, "Yan Feng, you best not talk nonsense."

"Nonsense? Even Liu Feibai cannot bear it any more and challenged Di Tian because of it. Since your Mo Clan dares to do it, why do you not dare to admit it?" Yan Feng's aura was extremely sharp as a fiery energy permeated the surroundings around him.

"Seems like you felt ashamed after Grandmaster Di Tian walked out alive after challenging your Yan Clan those years ago. Now, you are actually taking the initiative to come here? How ridiculous." Mo Fei coldly spoke. Mo Junyi beside him also icily stared at Yan Feng.

"Back then if it wasn't for Di Tian fearing for his life and conceding to me in the middle of our match, he would already have died. Why would I be ashamed? As to my purpose for coming here today, I want to see how he would make a fool out of himself. What sort of weapon can he create?" Yan Feng coldly spoke. "In any case, Grandmaster Xuanming, what do you think?"

"Grandmaster Xuanming?" The eyes of everyone gleamed sharply after they heard that. All of them turned their gaze to a man wearing a cloak with a conical bamboo hat shielding his features that stood beside Yan Feng.

Was this man the great weaponsmith whose fame shocked Lifire City many years ago? Grandmaster Xuanming?

The Yan Clan actually invited him here. Were they planning to humiliate Di Tian?

That mysterious figure lowered his head and took off the bamboo hat. He inclined his head again, revealing an aged and wizened face, but his eyes were still as bright as ever.

"Grandmaster Xuanming." Mo Fei's eyes flashed. The Yan Clan had really invited him over.

Seems like they came with unkind intentions.

"A junior forging a weapon actually caused such a huge commotion? Right now, for the world of weaponsmithing, has its level been downgraded so much?" Grandmaster Xuanming slowly spoke, causing everyone to turn their gazes onto him, feeling shocked in their hearts.

Grandmaster Xuanming had not appeared in the public's eye for a long time. Someone said that he was already recruited by the Lifire Empyrean, there was also somebody who said that he was in closed-door seclusion, preparing for his breakthrough. But there was no doubt that he is truly extremely famous in the weaponsmithing world in this city region those years ago. Every time he forged, the creation would be a high-quality emperor-ranked weapon. It was unknown how many people begged him to forge weapons for them, and his popularity was far superior compared to formations grandmaster. After all, divine weapons could be used to directly increase one's combat prowess. Who didn't want them?

"Grandmaster Xuanming might not know this. Di Tian is extremely famous in Lifire City, especially in the dao of formations." A group of people walked over and one of them casually smiled.

"So what? Although formations can be said to be the base of weapon forging, it's not so easy to forge a good weapon just because of that. Also, he actually wants to auction the weapon away and gather so many experts here?

What a vulgar claptrap design to please the crowds." Grandmaster Xuanming mocked coldly, instantly causing many people to feel awkward.

They also noticed the person who spoke earlier. It was actually someone from the Liu Clan. The young immortal emperor Liu Feibai was precisely standing beside the person who spoke. He glanced at Mo Junyi and nodded lightly.

"Grandmaster Xuanming might have no idea, this man not only loves to put on a show designed to boost his fame, he is also a coward that dodges battle. Liu Feibai of my clan challenged him numerous times but he has never even accepted once. He even took the initiative to concede, there's no pride belonging to the holy title of grandmaster radiating from him at all." That elder from the Liu Clan shook his head. He then continued, "Mo Fei, you best don't let Junyi get too close to such a coward. He's nothing but a hypocrite."

"I don't need you to teach me what to do." Mo Fei coldly replied. He felt somewhat depressed, it was one thing that the Yan Clan came to make trouble, but your Liu Clan had no grudge with Di Tian and only wanted a marriage alliance with us. Why must you implicate this onto Di Tian? After all, although they were close to Di Tian, they didn't really have any plans to marry Mo Junyi to Di Tian. It was good enough that they were friends.

"You guys are truly ridiculous. My master wants to hold an auction but he didn't specifically invite anyone to come. Those who came did so out of their own good will, wanting to support my master, yet you people are so filled with contempt? Why did you all come here then if you feel that this is nothing but a farce to boost his popularity? Did anyone tell you to come at all?" Di Tian's serving girl who was at the top of the stairway, couldn't bear it any more as she told them off.

Chapter 1582: Creating Trouble and Divine Weapon

"Impudent." Yan Feng's gaze turned cold. Terrifying currents of heat shot out from his eyes, causing the serving girl to exclaim in shock as she hurriedly closed her eyes.

"Yan Feng, bullying a serving girl? Are you not lacking in terms of your bearing?" Mo Fei coldly spoke.

Yan Feng snorted coldly, "Didn't you hear how she spoke to an elder? Grandmaster Xuanming is here, who the hell does this little lass think she is? Actually daring to talk so much here. If it wasn't because we are not allowed to kill people in the city, she would already be dead."

"If the laws of the city permitted killing, you would definitely not be able to walk out of my courtyard alive." A cold voice rang out. Yan Feng's eyes gleamed. After that, he saw a figure walking out from the hall up the stairway. Other than Di Tian, there could be no one else.

At this moment, Di Tian still had the mask on. His black hair was like ink, casually draping around his shoulders. His eyes were extremely cold as he stared at Yan Feng, "Which old dog is this? Did I invite you here? Why are you barking at my place?"

"BOOM!" As the sound of Di Tian's voice faded, an extremely cold aura gushed forth from Yan Feng. His anger could clearly be felt and the robes on him fluttered without wind. His gaze seemed to be burning, and was about to emit flames.

Di Tian insulted him, calling him an old dog that was barking here?

"What did you say?" Yan Feng stepped forward, causing the ground to shake.

"Are you deaf?" Di Tian turned his gaze to Yan Feng, his cold eyes had no respect at all. Back then after he left the Yan Clan, he had already made things very clear. If the Yan Clan was willing to wipe the slate clean, he had no problems. However, the Yan Clan clearly didn't intend to spare him, even coming to his Emperor Pavilion today to insult him and even threaten his serving girl. This was simply outrageous.

"You came to my place and insulted me. Did I invite you guys over?" Di Tian continued. He turned his gaze to Grandmaster Xuanming, "I don't care who you are old fool. If you came here with sincerity, you will be my guest. But if you came here to create trouble, scram immediately."

"HOW DARE YOU!" Grandmaster Xuanming's countenance changed but he wasn't the one who roared. It was an expert from the Liu Clan who berated Di Tian. "Do you know who you are speaking to?"

"You are the same as well. If you are unwilling to be here, scram." Di Tian flicked his sleeves and spoke in an extremely domineering manner. The gazes of everyone froze as they stared at everything that was happening. This Grandmaster Di Tian truly had personality. Who cares who the hell you are? Grandmaster Xuanming? Experts from the Liu Clan? If you want to create trouble here, just scram.

However, the truth of the matter was as such. Although Grandmaster Xuanming had a very high status and the Liu Clan was also a powerful aristocrat clan, this place was after all Di Tian's territory. You guys came to the territory of others and started barking nonsense? Even a man made of mud would have three points of fire in him, let alone this Grandmaster Di Tian who dared to kill his way into the Yan Clan. How could a prideful person like him stand for other people acting so insolently in his territory?

"A junior actually dares to show no respect to his seniors, this is simply unprecedented. My horizons have been broadened." Grandmaster Xuanming stared at Di Tian. He slowly continued, "I swept unchallenged through the weaponsmithing world for many years and naturally have seen many arrogant individuals. However, I've never met someone like you who purposely makes such a huge commotion just for the sake of auctioning a single weapon that you just forged. Do you think that you can forge a treasure? You are simply the shame of the weaponsmithing world."

"Relying on your seniority to talk big?" Di Tian's serving girl mumbled. Di Tian coldly smiled as he replied, "Even if the weapon I forged is trash, me being willing to auction it, is none other than my business. My friends want to support me by coming here, I naturally feel honored by that. Did I force anyone to come? Did I even invite you? As for you being a senior, you are merely just someone older. Are you even worthy of the title senior? Also, you keep harping on about the weaponsmithing world. Can you represent that world alone? How shameless can you be?"

Each of Di Tian's words were like swords cutting into people's heart. If people respected him, he would respect them. But if they came to make trouble, why would he need to give them any face? Since you insult me, why would I still have to be polite to you?

"Too impudent, too insolent…" Grandmaster Xuanming trembled, his eyes flared with killing intent after being insulted by Di Tian like this.

Yan Feng, who stood at the side, was the same as well. His body radiated a terrifying aura. He then spoke to Grandmaster Xuanming, "Grandmaster, I'm in the wrong. I invited you here today, but I didn't expect this scum to humiliate you like this."

"Lord Vice Governor." At this moment, Di Tian spotted a figure in the crowd. It was none other than one of the vice governors of the governor's manor whom Di Tian met before.

"Mhm." The vice governor nodded.

"There are people who invaded my residence without invitation. Do I have the power to evict them?" Di Tian asked.

"Naturally." That vice governor nodded.

"If they refuse to leave and resist, do I have the right to kill them?" Di Tian asked again.

"Invading a private territory and even daring to resist, refusing to leave? The owner of this place can do what they need to do according to the situation." That vice governor calmly nodded, he wasn't purposely siding with Di Tian, these were the laws set by the governor's manor. After all, every land and building in Lifire City had to be purchased by a large amount of fortune. After buying, they can be considered private property and the governor's manor naturally had the obligation to set laws to protect the owners.

"Everyone. My Emperor Pavilion doesn't welcome you all. Please leave." Di Tian swept his gaze at Yan Feng, Grandmaster Xuanming and those from the Liu Clan and didn't hesitate to issue the expulsion order. He didn't care what their identities were. As long as they came here to make trouble, sorry, just get the hell away.

"Impudent!" Grandmaster Xuanming's anger burned. No matter where he went, there would be no lack of people respecting him. But today, he was actually told to scram. How could there be such a thing?

"Grandmaster Xuanming is highly respected in this field and his attainments in weaponsmithing are extremely profound. Grandmaster Di, shouldn't you speak to him more humbly?" A person reminded. Di Tian's eyes flashed, as he stared at that person. He coldly laughed, "Since Grandmaster Xuanming is so respected in your eyes, you can scram together with him. I won't send you two off."

The expression of that person sank. "Di Tian, although you are a formations grandmaster, you have yet to prove yourself in the field of weaponsmithing but you are already so arrogant and despotic. Doing this will be of no benefit to you. And as for the challenge issued by the Liu Clan, don't think that you can just forget about it."

"I told you to scram." Di Tian coldly spoke. "Today, everyone came here initially in the capacity of guests. However, there simply has to be some people who view themselves as lofty existences. If there are some here who cannot stand I, Di, just scram together with this bunch of half-wits. The divine weapons I create most probably wouldn't be able to be up to your standards. Don't waste my time."

"Di Tian." At this moment, a calm voice rang out, with no joy nor anger within. Di Tian glanced over. The person who spoke was Liu Feibai, none other than Mo Junyi's admirer who sent him a challenge letter twice.

"I challenged you twice but you rejected both times. Right now, in front of you, this is the third time I'm issuing a challenge to you. Do you dare accept?" Liu Feibai's expression was calm.

The eyes of everyone gleamed sharply, staring at Di Tian. Only to see Di Tian directly replying, "Not free."

"He rejected again. This Di Tian, it seems like he is really weak in the martial path." Everyone silently mused.

"Coward." The experts from the Liu Clan coldly laughed. After that, Liu Feibai continued, "Let's go, since Grandmaster Di doesn't welcome us, let us leave then. We can only hope that Grandmaster Di will accept my challenge honorably one day."

"Sir, I heard that Liu Feibai has a cultivation base at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm. When he issued a challenge to you, he still acted in such a righteous manner. When you ignored it, the people of the Liu Clan still had the gall to think so highly of themselves, exhibiting immense arrogance. Why doesn't sir challenge an immortal king from their Liu Clan? Let's see if there's any peak-stage immortal kings there who dares to fight against an initial-stage immortal emperor like you." The serving girl beside Di Tian spoke in a light voice, her words causing those from the Liu Clan to freeze as they turned their heads back. They only saw Di Tian smiling mockingly, "Ah, who could be as shameless as them?

The expressions of the people from the Liu Clan once again turned extremely ugly when they heard this. They coldly snorted and continued to head outside.

"Grandmaster Xuanming, let's leave then." Yan Feng spoke with a glacial tone.

"We will wait and see outside. Let's see what joke creations would he bring up to embarrass himself." Grandmaster Xuanming coldly spoke.

"Since you all want to see it so badly, I will grant your wish. Alright, there's no need for you guys to scram. I will permit you all to remain here." Di Tian suddenly changed his mind, his words causing those from the Liu Clan to halt. Grandmaster Xuanming and the Yan Clan's people also started, as they turned to look at Di Tian.

"Mhm?" Many people had bewildered looks on their faces. Seems like Di Tian was very confident in the weapon he forged.

"I'm waiting with anticipation." Grandmaster Xuanming icily stated.

"Look clearly then, see how trash the weapon I forged is." Di Tian stared at him. With a wave of his hand, bright light flashed as a sword instantly appeared in his hand. This sword was actually black in color and didn't have any sharp edges to it at all. It was dim and didn't emit any luster or radiate any power. From a single glance, it truly seemed like a trash product.

"Are you playing with me?" Grandmaster Xuanming coldly spoke.

"What do you mean?" Di Tian coldly laughed.

"This is also a divine weapon?"

"Naturally." Di Tian affirmed.

"This old man has forged countless weapons and seen even more of them. I can tell this is trash with just a glance, you made such a huge commotion in the city, wanting to hold an auction just for this piece of crap?" Grandmaster Xuanming pointed at Di Tian,

"That's precisely the reason why I said you are already old. An old man should venture out less lest they embarrass themselves, becoming a joke in the eyes of others." Di Tian lightly stroked the sword as numerous runes lit up. It appeared as though a lock was opened. Crisp sounds could be heard, although the sword still had no sharp edges, a brilliant beam of light cascaded down from the sky, causing it to resonate. Clearly, this was an emperor-ranked divine weapon.

"Sealing? You sealed the sword energy just to shock us with that beam of light?" Grandmaster Xuanming coldly asked, he completely didn't speak about his earlier mistake.

Di Tian mockingly glanced at him. Runes flowed unceasingly around the sword as the light falling from the sky grew brighter and brighter, illuminating the area. A terrifying aura radiated from the sword, at this moment, everyone could clearly tell the grade of this divine weapon.

A moment later, the crowd who sensed the might of this weapon all froze, including Grandmaster Xuanming who had an ugly look on his face!

Chapter 1583: Complete Loss of Face

Emperor-ranked weapon. Not only was it an emperor-ranked weapon, from the aura it radiated, it was a high-grade emperor-ranked weapon!

Di Tian, an initial-stage immortal emperor, could actually forge a high-grade emperor-ranked weapon.

Weaponsmithing was different from inscribing formations. Knowing formations was just the base of weaponsmithing. Weaponsmithing was much more complicated in comparison.

High-grade emperor-ranked weapons were able to boost a peak-stage immortal emperor's combat prowess. If an emperor had a weapon like that, their strength would explosively increase. From this, one could very well tell how valuable such weapons are. Although there were many emperors in the vast Lifire City, peak-stage emperors were still considered upper echelon characters.

From this, one could tell how highly sought after weaponsmiths were who can create high-grade emperor-rank weapons.

This was why Grandmaster Xuanming was so highly esteemed, even Yan Feng had to call him grandmaster. That was why even in Di Tian's territory, there were still people speaking up for Grandmaster Xuanming. There were no other reasons, the only reason was because he could forge high-grade emperor weapons. Even peak-stage immortal emperors needed to defer to him. And as for mid-stage and initial-stage emperors, any casual creations from Grandmaster Xuanming would have them going crazy, treating the creations as treasures. Who wouldn't respect such a grandmaster? Who didn't want a good relationship with such a grandmaster?

But right now, Di Tian actually also could create a high-grade emperor-ranked weapon.

For a period of time, everyone turned silent as their hearts pounded. They knew that from this moment onwards, the status of Grandmaster Di Tian would be different from before.

Grandmaster Xuanming and Yan Feng both had extremely ugly looks on their faces. Even the people of the Liu Clan had froze.

Only Mo Fei from the Mo Clan felt joy. His heart pounded rapidly, this was a high-grade emperor weapon! Seems like building up a good relationship with Di Tian was a correct decision on their part.

Mo Junyi, who was standing behind him, had a bright light flashing through her eyes. This fellow was so powerful?

"Grandmaster Xuanming. Is this, a trash product?" Di Tian pointed the sword in his hand towards Grandmaster Xuanming as he coldly mocked. Xuanming's expression turned ashen. Not too long ago, he was insulting Di Tian, saying that the weapon he created was trash. What treasures could an initial-stage emperor forge? Everything was just a farce.

But in the blink of an eye, Di Tian actually took out a high-grade emperor weapon. How face smacking was this?

"Not respecting my seniors?" Di Tian didn't intend to spare his opponents at all. Since this Grandmaster Xuanming came here voluntarily asking for his face to be smacked, he will do the same as he did to the Yan Clan and trample on Grandmaster Xuanming to prove his weaponsmithing abilities. In that case, the fame gained would surely be even higher.

"Full of insulting words, only knowing how to depend on your seniority. Do you really feel that you are worthy of the title 'senior'?" Di Tian asked.

"Arrogant. So what even if you can forge this emperor weapon? This is merely the simplest high-grade emperor weapon. Grandmaster Xuanming could already do this many years ago, what qualifications do you have to boast in front of him? You are truly ignorant." Yan Feng was now already mounted on the back of a tiger, it was difficult for him to dismount and hence, he can only continue on despite knowing how shameful things looked for them. He wanted to use Grandmaster Xuanming's name to suppress Di Tian.

"The simplest of all high-grade emperor weapons?" Di Tian mockingly smiled. "Fine, I'll use this weapon to attack. You are a peak-stage immortal emperor, do you dare to test my might?"

"Why wouldn't I dare?" Yan Feng icily spoke. At this moment, how could he step back? Let alone the fact that he was very confident in his own strength. Given Di Tian's initial-stage immortal emperor cultivation base, so what even if he borrowed the aid of a high-grade emperor weapon? How could it threaten him?

With a flash, Yan Feng directly soared into the air. Boundless resplendent astral light cascaded down on him. Right now Yan Feng, who was immersed in the starlight, looked like he was a divinity of fire. Wisps of flames crackled violently around him, giving off an extremely powerful pressure.

Di Tian brandished the sword. His silhouette flashed and he soared into the air. Yan Feng glared at him, his burning gaze seemed to be capable of incinerating everything and there was a hint of killing intent within. He clearly wanted to use this opportunity to kill Di Tian and prevent all future trouble. After all, Di Tian was the one who proposed this fight. Even if he killed him, the governor's manor probably wouldn't do anything.

"Kill!" Di Tian didn't let Yan Feng think too much. He directly pierced out with his sword and in an instant, resplendent emperor light gushed forth. That black sword with the unsharpened edges suddenly gleamed with a burst of sealing might, enveloping the surroundings, including Yan Feng.

The astral light cascading down suddenly stopped. Yan Feng's entire person was shrouded by the sealing light, the law energy around him all seemed to be sealed off as well, he actually couldn't control them to his will.

His countenance instantly turned unsightly. He howled with rage as he punched out a fiery fist imprint, wanting to destroy everything. The waves of power he unleashed started to cause the sealing light to diminish in brilliance.

"Go!" Di Tian waved his hand. The black sword shot through the air, clashing directly against the fist imprint. From the sword, ferocious sealing pressure gushed forth, actually managing to completely seal off Yan Feng's attack. Not only so, although Yan Feng's law energies were sealed, the black sword could absorb astral light to strengthen its sealing abilities. It continued slashing towards Yan Feng. Yan Feng was actually helpless against it, and for a period of time, he was trapped by it.

Everyone felt immense shock when they saw this. The black sword vibrated, although it had an unsharpened edge and appeared to be a trash product at first glance, all of them knew how terrifying this sword was at this instant.

"Return." Di Tian called. The sword then flew back to his hand. After that, he descended from the air and landed on his platform as the waves of sealing might dissipated. Yan Feng finally stepped out, his expression extremely ugly to look at. He, Yan Feng, was a peak-stage immortal emperor but he was trapped by a mere sword. Although the situation only lasted for a few moments, it didn't change the fact that he was helpless to do anything. Not only that, the law energies he was capable of using, were all sealed as well earlier.

"Sir, this sword is truly an extremely simple creation. It actually failed to kill him." The serving girl spoke in a depressed manner, causing Yan Feng to be so angered that he almost spat out blood.

This sword was simple? This was something Yan Feng said personally earlier. But what about now? He had completely lost all his face. A simple sword actually managed to seal him.

And now, even that serving girl was mocking him.

Everyone exchanged mutual glances, feeling shocked in their hearts. This sword, as long as the sword user was slightly more powerful, there was no problems to kill Yan Feng.

This situation was the same when Di Tian entered the Yan Clan back then. He appeared calm and peaceful but when he wanted to create a blast, it would surely be an explosive one that shocked everyone.

Di Tian glanced at the little lass at the side while smiling in his heart. Her words might be sufficient to cause Yan Feng to be so angry that he died.

"Grandmaster Di's attainments in the dao of formations are already extraordinarily high. To think that his talent in weaponsmithing is at the same standard as well." Someone sighed in admiration.

"Just based on the sealing might produced by this sword, Grandmaster Di's fame is enough to rock the entire Lifire City."

"What's even more shocking is that Grandmaster Di is only at the initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm. In the future, after your cultivation base grows stronger, wouldn't your formations and weaponsmithing abilities go up by another notch? At that time, would you still have any enemies left?"

Many voices rang out one after another within the crowd, they were all from major powers that had a good relationship with Di Tian. Before this, the Yan Clan invited Grandmaster Xuanming here, and with the Liu Clan on their side, all of them felt awkward to say anything. But now, after Di Tian displayed his talent, his fame already wasn't something that could be suppressed by the Yan Clan and Grandmaster Xuanming. It was no exaggeration to say that with this high-grade emperor weapon and his attainments in the dao of formations, his current status already exceeded Grandmaster Xuanming.

If they didn't express their attitudes now? When would they express them?

Although Grandmaster Xuanming was highly respected, it has been a very long since anyone saw him in public. As for Di Tian, his Emperor Pavilion was just right here, he also maintained good relationships with many major powers and was a grandmaster in both formations and weaponsmithing. At this moment, everyone here naturally felt more inclined towards Di Tian.

Many people spoke out one after another. Grandmaster Xuanming and the others were completely being ignored. The expressions of people from the Liu Clan were the ugliest. This was especially so for the person in the lead. He now felt regret, they initially had no grudge with Di Tian but they had managed to completely offend Di Tian today. Such a powerful weaponsmith grandmaster would surely have very high achievements in the future. It was most probably impossible for them to ask him for help in forging weapons anymore.

"Let's leave." Grandmaster Xuanming flicked his sleeves and led the way, departing the area. He didn't need Di Tian to chase him away because he no longer has any face to remain here. He felt some vengeance in his heart towards the Yan Clan. If it wasn't the Yan Clan who invited him here to humiliate Di Tian, he wouldn't have lost this much face.

Yan Feng and the others left as well, the killing intent in their hearts grew even stronger.

The people of the Liu Clan also silently left. Liu Feibai cast a deep glance at Di Tian before glancing at Mo Junyi. He also left after that.

Formations Grandmaster, Weaponsmithing Grandmaster... Even if the Mo Clan didn't have any intentions to marry Mo Junyi to Di Tian, they might have that intention now.

"Di Tian, you are truly a miracle." Mo Fei smiled as he walked over.

"Elder Mo Fei praises me too much. I still have to thank you for showing up to support me." Di Tian's manner became humble again as he smiled back.

"What are you talking about. With such a powerful weapon in an auction, how can I not show up? If the people of Lifire City knew about this weapon, I'm afraid your place wouldn't be able to hold that many people. Haha." Mo Fei laughed.

"Grandmaster Di Tian, are we still proceeding on with the auction? The rest of us can barely hold our anticipation." An expert from a major power laughed.

"Sure, since this is the case, let's get started. If everyone likes the sword, just feel free to give a price." Di Tian replied.

"I'll pay a thousand high-grade emperor stones." Someone spoke.

"You want to get such a treasure just for a thousand high-grade emperor stones? I'll triple that." Another person smiled. Everyone drew in a deep breath as their hearts pounded. Even Di Tian's heart couldn't help but to tremble. A powerful divine weapon was simply like a treasure. A high-grade one can fetch a heavenly price. Ordinary peak-stage immortal emperors wouldn't even be able to afford it.

"Our Mo Clan has to get this weapon for sure. Everyone, please give me some face and don't snatch with me for it." At this moment, Mo Fei smiled and walked up the platform. "Di Tian, I have a treasure here. I'm willing to use this treasure plus 3,000 high-grade emperor stones to exchange for the black sword."

After he spoke, he took out a giant cauldron. Within the cauldron, there actually were inextinguishable flames that emitted a fearsome power. It seemed that the flames were capable of refining everything.

Di Tian's eyes flashed, he knew this was truly a treasure when he glanced at it. It was a treasure made for refining items.

"How about it? Are there still anyone that wants to contend with me?" Mo Fei smiled. Many people were taken aback. This cauldron was also considered a high-grade emperor artifact. Mo Fei was not only planning to use it for an exchange, he even topped up another 3,000 high-grade emperor stones. Such a price was something most of them couldn't afford.

Seeing that no one else was upping the bid, Di Tian laughed as he glanced at Mo Fei. This fellow probably came prepared, right? He even prepared such a treasure for exchange. Di Tian couldn't help but to be curious if the black sword was a mid-grade emperor weapon instead, would Mo Fei still take out the cauldron to exchange for it?

Chapter 1584: Expansion of the Emperor Pavillion

The sealing sword was won by Mo Fei, everyone naturally congratulated him. Di Tian glanced at the others and smiled, "Today, other than this auction, there's actually another thing I wish to announce."

"Oh?" The crowd turned to Qin Wentian, feeling somewhat curious.

Could it be that there are some other joyous matters?

"Everyone should have already seen this, the amount of land my Emperor Pavilion covers isn't small and can hold many people. Hence, I decided to turn the Emperor Pavilion into a transaction ground. If there are any friends willing to come here to do a transaction between parties, or just selling it to me, I will not earn a single cent from it and will provide the Emperor Pavilion as a venue to do free trading. Also, for the tax needed to be paid to the governor's manor from the transactions, my Emperor Pavilion will bear the cost of it." Di Tian smiled.

Mo Junyi's eyes flashed. Her father's words to her years ago seemed to be pretty accurate.

Di Tian's ambitions truly don't simply lie in weaponsmithing. He actually wanted to open a transaction ground. This ought to merely be the first step in his grand scheme of plans.

After the matter today spread out, Di Tian's fame will definitely increase explosively. An initial-stage immortal emperor able to create high-grade emperor-ranked weapons, how could it not shock the entire city? Once news about this spread, many people would definitely come to this place on account of its reputation and start transacting here.

"In order to manage my pavilion, I still need to hire some experts to help me. I don't dare to say that their benefits would be extremely good, but it will at least be equal to the pay offered by the governor's manor. As long as there are people willing to trust I, Di, I will definitely not mistreat any of them. As for the period of time the contact will bind them for, let it be ten years. After every ten years, the hired employees can renegotiate their benefits and they can leave if they are unhappy about it. I will not obstruct them." Di Tian continued, the beautiful eyes of the serving girl beside him blinked. Was Di Tian finally planning to expand?

"Lastly, at this date every month, I will take out an emperor-ranked weapon to auction. At this date every year, I will take out a high-grade emperor-ranked weapon to auction. If everyone likes it, I welcome everyone to participate at the auction that will be organized." Di Tian smiled. Everyone was shocked by his message, their hearts pounding rapidly. Everyone had personally seen the power of the black sword that was auctioned away earlier. That sword contained a sealing ability that could seal the law energy of the sword-user's opponent. It was extremely effective in combat.

Given Di Tian's fame, his future auctions would definitely be filled to the brim.

"Alright, that's all I have to say. I hope everyone can help me pass the message around and advertise a little. In addition, I also welcome you guys to frequent my place." Di Tian clasped his hands to everyone as he laughed, his manner extremely polite. Everyone started to bid their farewells and departed. There were some major powers who remained behind, exchanging some words with Di Tian before they left. Mo Fei smiled at Di Tian, "This move of yours is truly ruthless. Let's hear it, are your plans for the Emperor Pavilion being a transaction ground only a temporary one? Your final plan is to become an auction house, right?"

"Elder Mo Fei is truly intelligent. It's just that auction houses and transaction grounds share no conflict, right? One is to sell treasures, the other is to procure treasures." Di Tian laughed.

"Good idea, but you will need time to consolidate everything. Even if you can grow your wealth quickly, you would need endless treasures to support the cycle of an auction house. You also need to gain the trust of others so they are willing to bring their treasures here to be auctioned away. In that case, you will need good human-flow and from that perspective, this piece of land you own, is actually considered a little too small." Mo Fei stated.

"That is why before we start being an auction house, I will only auction away my own creations. This is also why I want to make the Emperor Pavilion into a transaction ground where people can transact and trade for free. As time passes, the fame of my place will spread and it will naturally generate more human-flow to the extent where this piece of land would become one of the more prosperous transaction grounds. At that time, if this place is really too small, we can always purchase another larger piece of land." Di Tian smiled.

"Seems like you have it all planned out. In that case, I shall wait to see with anticipation." Mo Fei looked at Di Tian as he spoke.

Mo Junyi's beautiful eyes flickered with a gentle smile. "You are really such a strange person. I truly wish to see the face under the mask."

"Since I'm a strange person, I naturally am extremely ugly." Di Tian laughed. Mo Junyi rolled her eyes, "Why don't I believe you at all?"

"Alright. Let me head back to report to my clan leader first." Mo Fei bid farewell and left.

"Sir." After everyone left, the serving girl glanced at Qin Wentian, wanting to say something but she hesitated.

"What's the matter?" Qin Wentian asked.

"After the Emperor Pavilion is expanded, there would surely be many people around sir. Little Zhu…" The serving girl weakly spoke. Di Tian laughed and looked at her, "Little Zhu, after the Emperor Pavilion is expanded, you will hold the position of the grand supervisor."

"Many thanks Sir." The serving girl happily smiled. "I don't need the position of the grand supervisor, I just want to take charge of all the other serving females."

Di Tian's face filled with black lines, glancing at the little lass. There seemed to be several possible meanings in her words.

Little Zhu also understood that she might have said the wrong thing. Her eyes showed signs of evasion and she directly sneaked away, causing mirth to appear in Qin Wentian's eyes.

...

The news of the Emperor Pavilion quickly circulated out with shocking speed, throughout the entire Lifire City.

A formations grandmaster was already enough to be extremely famous. For a formations grandmaster that can smith high-grade emperor-ranked weapons, his fame was enough to break out of the central city regions and throughout the boundlessly vast Lifire City.

Weaponsmiths were after all, important characters that major powers paid much attention to.

This is especially so because Di Tian's rise to fame now was after he trampled on Grandmaster Xuanming.

Grandmaster Xuanming was a character that was famous long ago. This time, he intially wanted to humiliate Di Tian but his face got smacked instead. Not only him, the Yan Clan and Liu Clan had thoroughly lost face together. This incident was already sufficient to cause a huge commotion. No wonder Grandmaster Di Tian refused to accept Liu Feibai's challenge. It wasn't that he was weak. It was because Liu Feibai was simply not qualified to be his opponent.

Although Liu Feibai can be considered a talented genius, but what sort of character was Grandmaster Di Tian? He was someone that can create high-grade emperor-ranked weapons and his status wasn't something Liu Feibai could compare to.

Hence, the Emperor Pavilion became extremely lively in the span of one night. Many experts came here, showing interest to be employed. There were many unaffiliated immortal kings willing to serve the Emperor Pavilion. Given Grandmaster Di Tian's capabilities, his earnings in the future would definitely be immeasurable and he shouldn't mistreat them. Little Zhu, then recruited a few female immortal kings to help her work for Di Tian. These female immortal kings were all from minor clans in Lifire City. Since they could serve such a prestigious grandmaster, their clans naturally had no objections.

What made Di Tian feel like laughing was that the way Little Zhu recruited people, was very strange to watch. She would choose beautiful females, but they couldn't be too beautiful. At the very least, she had to be more beautiful than them...

But even so, the number of customers coming here to transact was still not too many. After all, there were several other transaction grounds in Lifire City. When many people wanted to trade, they would naturally prefer places with the most people. Although Di Tian was now very famous, the Emperor Pavilion still didn't have enough fame as a transaction ground yet. What was the point of coming here to trade their treasures if there were no people to trade with?

After all, the Emperor Pavilion was just newly established, it wasn't 'mature' enough yet.

But another piece of news soon circulated out. The Mo Clan actually allied with the Emperor Pavilion. An elder of the Mo Clan, Mo Fei, would become the grand supervisor of the Emperor Pavilion, and Mo Junyi the daughter of Mo Clan's clan leader, Mo Ting, has also joined the Emperor Pavilion. She would be in charge of all future auctions for the weapons that Grandmaster Di creates. Also, the two of them sent out news saying that they would hold these positions for a hundred years. This meant that for the next hundred years, Mo Fei and Mo Junyi could be considered the Emperor Pavilion's people.

Mo Fei was an elder of the Mo Clan, and Mo Junyi could be considered a 'princess' character of the Mo Clan. Both of them had very high statuses but they were willing to work for the Emperor Pavilion. For a period of time, the external world was shaken by this commotion, this even caused two immortal emperors to express their will to join as they signed a ten-year contract. During these ten years, they would follow the Emperor Pavilion's orders while Di Tian will pay them remuneration equal to their services.

Right now in the Emperor Pavilion, Di Tian, Mo Fei, and Mo Junyi were all present. Di Tian took out an interspatial ring and handed it over to Mo Junyi, "These are some of the divine weapons I forged during these days. It should be able to sustain quite a few years worth of auctions. Junyi, you can arrange the auction schedule by yourself. I will hand the responsibility of this fully to you."

"You trust me so much?" Mo Junyi gently smiled, winking at Qin Wentian.

"In the future, the development of my Emperor Pavilion will depend on you. How can I not trust you?" Di Tian laughed.

"I don't have such great capabilities." Mo Junyi's lips twitched.

"Who says you don't? Just based on your beauty alone, as long as you are present, the profits of my Emperor Pavilion would definitely jump many times upwards." Di Tian joked. Mo Fei and Little Zhu both laughed. Mo Junyi couldn't help but to glare at Qin Wentian.

"Elder Mo Fei." Di Tian called out.

"Pavilion Lord, you should refer to me as the grand supervisor instead. At least, for the next hundred years." Mo Fei smiled.

"Alright, grand supervisor. In the future, the responsibilities of the Emperor Pavilion will be handed to you fully as well. I'm planning to focus on cultivation for a period of time, you are solely in charge of all minor and major matters for the Emperor Pavilion." Di Tian smiled.

"What? The Emperor Pavilion just got established and you are already prepared to 'abandon' it?" Mo Fei was dumbfounded.

"Who asked you to take the initiative to ally with me? Hahaha, in any case, there are many matters with managing a business that I'm not as proficient in as you. Since you and Junyi are here, along with Little Zhu, I can rest easy. Just remember to help me buy more rare materials, I will just be in charge of forging more divine weapons." Di Tian laughed. He had already planned to outsource management to others, it was just that he didn't expect the Mo Clan would take the initiative to help him out.

He naturally understood the Mo Clan's intentions. As long as the Mo Clan helped him to expand, he would naturally not forget about them in the future.

"Truly ruthless decision-making indeed." Mo Fei speechlessly said.

"Haha, it's settled then." Di Tian laughed. After speaking, he really turned and left. Mo Fei and Mo Junyi both stared at his back speechlessly.

A month after Di Tian's first auction, the Emperor Pavilion auctioned it's second created emperor-ranked weapon.

The Emperor Pavilion was filled with people, it was unknown how many experts attended. All of them came here because of Di Tian's fame and because they wanted to view Di Tian's creation personally. Hence, many people also chose to transact here today.

The auction went very smoothly, it was also another weapon with sealing attributes. Although it was a mid-grade emperor weapon, many people were keen to purchase it. There were also many transactions done here today, many even thought that the Emperor Pavilion had become a matured transaction ground. Sadly, after the auction day ended, many people shifted their businesses elsewhere again.

Hence, the grand supervisor Mo Fei couldn't help but add a rule. For those who wish to attend the auction but didn't successfully bid for the item, they had to sign a one year contract with the Emperor Pavilion. Out of one year, they have to transact their items here for at least a hundred days. If not, they shouldn't expect to be able to come here again for the other auctions in the future due to the massive number of people attending.

Such a method was actually effective contrary to many initial objections about it. Next, many people signed the one-year contract with the Emperor Pavilion and its reputation as a transaction grounds slowly rose and more and more people participated!

Chapter 1585: Xia Hou Complicating Matters

A new power, the Emperor Pavilion appeared in the central city regions of Lifire City. It gradually became more and more prosperous, but the pavilion lord Di Tian slowly faded out from the vision of the crowd.

As time flowed by, the Emperor Pavilion became increasingly prosperous. It underwent reconstruction and expanded further. Right now, when many people thought about transacting treasures, they would involuntarily think of the Emperor Pavilion.

Although Di Tian rarely showed his face now, and there were not many people who talked about him, it didn't represent that his fame had lessened. It was on the contrary, as time flowed by, Di Tian's reputation grew more and more, gradually seeping into the hearts of everyone. Right now, their impression of Di Tian was no longer the young upstart that just recently rose in fame. Their impression of Di Tian's extraordinary status was further deepened by the monthly auctions. Although his person has vanished, the divine weapons he created were still of high-quality and sold without fail monthly. How could his fame not be great?

Before he got famous, many people could seek Grandmaster Di Tian out to inscribe formations. But after Grandmaster Di Tian produced high-grade emperor weapons, it was extremely tough for people even to meet with him. Even many major powers couldn't get an audience with him. After all, an elder and the daughter of Mo Clan's clan leader, was working in the Emperor Pavilion.

Of course, it was understandable as Di Tian's fame was far superior to before. How could anyone manage to invite him? He was a character that can create high-grade emperor weapons, why would he waste his time on inscribing some minor formations for you? Clearly, it was impossible.

Today was the day of tribute once again. The Emperor Pavilion was the same as many other powers and needed to pay the tax. The amount payable was determined by the scale of the business and because this was the first time the Emperor Pavilion was paying tax, the grand supervisor Mo Fei personally led people to the governor's manor to pay. However, Mo Fei seemed extremely unhappy when he returned from there.

"Grand supervisor, what's wrong?" The serving girl Little Zhu couldn't help but ask when she saw Mo Fei's black face.

"Did pavilion lord offend the Governor's Manor before?" Mo Fei asked.

"Not to my knowledge. It's just that back then when Governor Xia Hou personally came by to invite Grandmaster Di to become a vice governor, Grandmaster Di rejected him." Little Zhu replied.

Mo Fei's eyes flashed. After that, he coldly continued, "This Xia Hou is truly arrogant to the extreme and his methods are extremely tyrannical. The scale of our business cannot be considered great but he actually categorised us as a top-tier power and set our tax bracket to the highest. His actions are simply too overbearing."

"How much did we have to contribute?" Mo Junyi asked.

"Little miss, you have never participated in such matters before, hence you are somewhat unclear. There are nine tiers of tribute contribution, for those peak powers, they belong to the first tier and have to pay the highest amount of tax, and it's also a constant. Secondly, the second-tier powers, followed by the other lower tiers. According to scale, our Emperor Pavilion can barely be counted as a third-tier power. Yet the Governor's Manor said that because we have me, a peak-stage immortal emperor, as well as the fact that Grandmaster Di can create high-grade emperor-ranked weapons, in addition to the fact that there are many people who always transact at our place, we should be considered as a first-tier power, equal to those grand auction house. This meant that the amount of tax we have to pay is naturally of the first-tier too. How ridiculous this is?"

Mo Fei's voice turned cold. Mo Junyi's expression also grew unsightly. She then coldly spoke, "Is there no one that can resolve this?"

"In the central city regions, Governor Xia Hou is like a hegemon with immense authority. If we refuse to pay the tributes, he can cause our Emperor Pavilion to cease functioning. Unless our Emperor Pavilion relocated to the other city regions." Mo Fei spoke. "It wasn't easy for us to accumulate enough popularity and fame. I'm unsure how much losses we would have to endure if we relocated. Xia Hou clearly must have foreseen this."

The popularity and fame of the Emperor Pavilion were slowly accumulated through time, if they relocated now, they had to start anew and their losses would be immense.

"The governor of a region is truly overbearing." A voice rang out. A moment later, Di Tian's figure walked over, his eyes flickering with a cold light.

"You've come." Mo Fei bitterly smiled. "We have no choice in this. Governor Xia Hou wants to bully us but we can only choose to endure. Usually, the governor's manor doesn't need to follow the rules when they do things. Clearly, he harbors hatred for your rejection back then and now that the Emperor Pavilion is rising up, he felt extremely unhappy about it.

"A more critical point is that as the governor, there's no need for him to depend on you to procure emperor weapons. He can easily find other grandmasters to forge weapons for him. This is why he dared to do this."

"Mhm." Di Tian nodded, his eyes flashing with coldness. "The first-tier tax bracket, how much would we lose?"

"It's about a hundred times higher compared to the tax bracket of a third-tier power. Roughly half of our profits from auctions will be paid as tribute to the governor's manor." Mo Fei spoke. After all, although their Emperor Pavilion was developing well, the real profits still came during the auctions held each month. For the Emperor Pavilion providing its venue as a free trading ground, they earned nothing from that at all.

A hundred times the tax bracket of third-tier powers was truly a terrifying concept. How could anyone accept it so simply?

"Since Governor Xia Hou takes such good care of us, let us expand to a real first-tier power then." Di Tian coldly spoke. "Release news that I will appear in the next auction. I've recently created an extremely unique divine weapon and will stake my reputation on it."

"Are you prepared?" Mo Fei's eyes flashed sharply.

"Mhm, announce it. Also, although we are also doing auctions, our profits are 50% fewer compared to the other auction houses. By announcing that, we can attract more people to use us as a platform to auction their treasures away. Other than that, also spread the news saying that from now on, on our auction day every month, my Emperor Pavilion will take out only the best treasure to be auctioned away. Spread the news through the entire city, I want everyone to know about this." Di Tian spoke.

"It's a good technique." Mo Fei praised. Mo Junyi's beautiful eyes flashed, staring at the masked Di Tian. How did this fellow's mind work? He was actually so intelligent as well.

...

The news about Di Tian personally appearing in the next auction, and that he would take out a unique treasure he recently forged, instantly caused many of the major powers in Lifire City to pay attention to this.

Back then when Di Tian first acted, he immediately took out a high-grade emperor-ranked weapon to harshly smack the faces of Grandmaster Xuanming and the Yan Clan. After that, Di Tian rarely appeared in public. Right now, he was going to be high profile again? In that case, the treasure he will take out will definitely be an extraordinary one. How could the major powers not pay attention to it?

The news swiftly circulated around. Not only the central city region, the other four city regions of Lifire City also learned about it and sent experts over, wanting to participate in the auction. All of them were extremely curious what that unique treasure was going to be.

Today, in the new grounds in the Emperor Pavilion that were built to hold an auction, many people had already gathered. Experts were as common as clouds and the space was filled to the brim. Even so, there were many figures floating in the air. All of them waiting with anticipation for Di Tian to start the auction.

The transactional booths here were all packed. Because of the number of people, there would naturally be many customers keen on exchanging or buying items. This caused the transactors who signed a contract with the Emperor Pavilion to grin widely, feeling gratitude to Di Tian. Despite after expanding the pavilion, he still didn't collect any fee from them to use his venue. Even the tax portion of their transactions was borne by the Emperor Pavilion.

When the auction was about to start, the transactors all sent their more valuable treasures up the auction stage. The grand supervisor of the Emperor Pavilion Mo Fei, appeared. He thanked everyone for their arrival, coming from afar just for this auction.

After that, Mo Junyi and Di Tian also appeared, seemingly like a couple. This caused Liu Feibai who was in the crowd, to have an unnatural expression on his face. This time around, the people of the Liu Clan came as well.

Not only the Liu Clan, the Yan Clan and Grandmaster Xuanming all arrived too. However, they all kept a low-profile today, and were mixed in with the crowd. In fact, Grandmaster Xuanming even had a conical bamboo hat and mantle on, wrapping himself up entirely, not wanting to reveal his identity.

"Grandmaster Di!"

"It has been many years since we last met, but Grandmaster Di's glorious aura is way more overwhelming than before." Some of the more familiar people with Di Tian stood up and greeted him. Di Tian nodded to express his acknowledgement before walking up the auction stage with Mo Junyi.

Di Tian's gaze roamed the crowd. He naturally saw the people of the Liu and Yan Clans. He also saw the Mo Clan's clan leader Mo Ting who came here personally today.

Other than that, Di Tian noticed the people from the central governor's manor in a certain location. Xia Hou was in the center of the group of them. Other than him, Lin Ba, Beauty Xiao and Yin Qiu, the three city governors of the other regions were present as well. This meant that out of the five governors, four actually came here today. From this, one could see how great his current fame was. The entire Lifire Palace knew about him.

"Is he Grandmaster Di Tian? He has such a presence, I'm sure he must be very handsome." Beauty Xiao's eyes were like silk, filled with amorous passion. Today, she wore an alluring and provocative dress designed to reveal the best parts of her figure. Her fair white thighs were faintly discernible through the material, causing many to sneak looks at her. But because she was seated together with Governor Xia Hou, many thought she was his subordinate and no one dared to go too far with their actions.

"You even assume he is handsome with a mask on? Are you struck with starry-eyed infatuation?" Yin Qiu rolled his eyes at her.

"How can my judgement ever be wrong? This Di Tian is most assuredly young and handsome, yet his aura is so stable. He's already this famous despite only having a cultivation base at the initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm. If there's a chance, I must invite him to my governor's manor to 'play.'" Beauty Xiao's smile stirred the hearts of many who glanced at her. Yin Qiu coldly spoke, "Beauty Xiao, why have you never invited me before?"

"You?" Beauty Xiao glanced at Yin Qiu mockingly, "You are neither a male nor female."

"Beauty Xiao, there's no need to put me down like that, right?" Yin Qiu spoke in a depressed manner.

"Alright, the auction is starting. Let's see what sort of treasures can he forge." Xia Hou quietly spoke, interrupting the two of them. A moment later, they turned their gazes to the auction platform.

"Once again, a big welcome to everyone who came to attend this auction. I know everyone is already impatient and wants to see what unique treasure Grandmaster Di has forged. This little lass will cut to the chase and invite Grandmaster Di Tian to show everyone the treasure then." Mo Junyi laughed. Beauty Xiao's eyes narrowed to slits, as she commented, "Hmm, although this girl is beautiful, she isn't suitable to host the auction. She lacks sufficient charm. If I was the one hosting, things would surely be perfect."

"You? Do you believe that the palace lord will remove your governor's position?" Lin Ba laughed. "In addition, according to what I know, this female is considered the great young mistress of a powerful clan in Xia Hou's territory. Being able to do things to such an extent, she is already not bad. But of course, if it wasn't to get close to Grandmaster Di Tian, I'm sure that aristocrat clan wouldn't have chosen to do this, sending their young miss to work at the Emperor Pavilion."

Chapter 1586: Lifire Empyrean’s Attention

After all, Mo Junyi was the daughter of the Mo Aristocrat Clan's Clan Leader. Just like what Lin Ba has said, if it wasn't because Di Tian could forge high-grade emperor-ranked weapons, it was impossible for her to be sent to the Emperor Pavilion. Mo Fei wouldn't come here to become the grand supervisor as well.

Before this, Mo Junyi was truly a little unwilling. But now, she gradually got used to it. Although it wasn't really elegant for the young miss of an aristocrat clan to work outside her clan's business, she could sufficiently cause the crowd's excitement to stir for every auction. This caused her to feel some pride. Also, for the divine weapons she auctioned off, each of them had fetched a heavenly price.

At this moment, her beautiful eyes glanced at Di TIan who was beside her. Di Tian took a step forward and smiled, "In order to test the might of this emperor-ranked weapon, I need a peak-stage immortal emperor character to cooperate with me. I wonder if there are any among the crowd willing to try it?"

"Let me do it." Before the crowd could react, a racy figure directly soared through the air. Everyone turned their gazes over only to freeze. They only saw a pair of lanky snow-white legs that exuded immense charm. Just looking at the figure of this person alone was enough to cause their blood to surge. She truly had a devil-like figure.

"Grandmaster Di Tian, how about allowing me to cooperate with you?" This figure was actually none other than Beauty Xiao. When Di Tian saw her appearing before him, he was stunned as well. After that, he nodded, "Sure."

The crowd was fixated on Beauty Xiao. Her beauty somehow could stir up a primal desire in men, and she had no qualms about dressing provocatively, revealing the most blood-stirring parts of her body to everyone.

"She must be Governor Beauty Xiao of the Southern City Regions." Those of the major powers could recognize her. Their eyes flashed with brightness, this Beauty Xiao had always done things strangely and had a bizarre personality. To think that she would actually appear here today because of Grandmaster Di's auction.

Di Tian soared into the air. Beauty Xiao was immersed in astral light, which further increased her charm. She smiled at Di Tian, "Grandmaster Di, where is the divine weapon?"

Di Tian waved his hand as a black gate appeared. This was a physical gate of sealing, there were many runes inscribed on the gate, forming a mysterious diagram that was capable of absorbing astral light. The gate also clearly emitted a terrifying sealing might which caused the space itself to tremble.

"You have to be careful okay?" Beauty Xiao had an enticing smile on her face. Emperor light flared as her powerful law domain took form. In an instant, only the beautiful images of Beauty Xiao filled the area. Each of the images were actually a true body, and were all making provocative movements designed to fill their target's heart with lust. The crowd below was instantly stunned as they felt their consciousness growing blurry, their wills being trapped. In their vision, only that impossibly alluring figure remained.

Di Tian's hands waved as beams of light radiated from the sealing gate. It spun about madly and under the shocked gazes of the crowd, the images of Beauty Xiao were all trapped inside sealing diagrams, unable to move anymore. As the sealing light brightened, all the images were completely sealed away.

Beauty Xiao's true self appeared. She stretched out a finger and a rainbow-colored light that was brimming with a supreme destructive might, capable of destroying everything appeared. It was simply inconceivable to imagine such a beautiful woman was able to unleash such a fearsome attack.

"Phantasm Kill Finger, Beauty Xiao is actually willing to really make her move against him." Lin Ba's eyes flashed, staring at the air filled with finger light. The power that radiated forth was enough to sever space.

But at this moment, the sealing diagrams manifested earlier all converged into a gigantic version. Regardless of the power of the finger stab, the gigantic sealing diagram absorbed all the attacking energy within.

"So tyrannical?" Beauty Xiao smiled. She continued unleashing more finger strikes. The Phantasm Killing Finger was extremely powerful, she intended to tear the spatial diagram apart, wanting to push Di Tian's emperor-ranked weapon to its limits.

As she attacked, Beauty Xiao's charming smile never faded. The sealing gate spun frenziedly, shimmering with a resplendent glow, wanting to seal this entire space completely. After some time, the sealing light produced by the gate actually slowly forced the finger imprints to dissipate as its glow shone upon Beauty Xiao. Beauty Xiao's figure flashed, an instant later, she appeared at her original location before the fight started. Her smile was as charming and mesmerizing as ever.

"What a powerful treasure." Her eyes gleamed with a bright light. After that, she returned to her seat. Everyone in the crowd had expressions of excitement on their faces. They naturally could feel how terrifying that sealing gate was. It was actually able to produce a law domain of its own, simply too powerful.

"Anyone else who wants to try it out?" Di Tian asked.

"There's no need to. Grandmaster Di, how much for this emperor-ranked treasure?" Someone asked.

"Haha, such a supreme treasure is truly rare. Grandmaster Di's forging abilities are much stronger compared to the past."

The expression of Grandmaster Xuanming, who was among the crowd, sank when he heard that. Right now, the strength of the emperor-ranked divine artifacts created by Di Tian was something he couldn't forge.

"I will hand over matters regarding the auction to Junyi." Di Tian laughed and landed on the auction stage, placing the sealing gate beside Mo Junyi.

Mo Junyi rolled her eyes at him. After that, she smiled at the guests, "I believe everyone is already impatient to get started. The starting bid for this treasure will be set at 10,000 high-grade emperor stones. If anyone wants to use other treasures in addition to stones for the trade, the treasures offered can be counted as stones as well."

A truly terrifying price.

The hearts of the crowd trembled but this was within their expectations. Such a powerful treasure could be used directly to fight against a peak-stage immortal emperor. As evidenced by earlier, although Beauty Xiao's attacks were powerful, they were all negated by this treasure. If a peak-stage immortal emperor was the one using this treasure, he would undoubtedly become a tiger that is given wings.

However, even among peak-stage immortal emperors, there weren't many who could afford this price.

"20,000 high-grade emperor stones." Beauty Xiao smiled, directly doubling the bid. Many people sighed in their hearts, they could only spectate.

Di Tian was very calm, watching the bidding price rising higher and higher. Eventually, this emperor-ranked treasure, the sealing gate, was sold away for 53,000 high-grade emperor stones, bought away by Beauty Xiao. Many were shocked by her generosity, but those who knew of her identity didn't find it strange. As the governor of the southern city regions, Beauty Xiao was naturally extremely wealthy.

After that, the grand supervisor of the Emperor Pavilion Mo Fei, walked up the stage and announced that they were formally becoming an auction house, as well as everything Di Tian wanted him to say. This news instantly caused a commotion. So it turned out that this was the true purpose of the Emperor Pavilion.

By doing auctions and being a transaction ground, as long as the crowd keeps coming for the unique treasures forged by Di Tian, the Emperor Pavilion would become a brand new first-tier power sooner or later.

However, many major powers have already guessed it, they didn't feel this was strange.

After everyone left, the news here naturally swiftly circulated around. Di Tian and the sealing gate once again became the topic of interest for many in Lifire City. For a period of time, his name was like the sun in the sky. Who could forge such a terrifying emperor-ranked treasure at the initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm?

Everyone then knew that Grandmaster Di Tian's future, was boundless.

...

Not long after the auction at the Emperor Pavilion ended, the five governors of Lifire City finished tribute collection and once again gathered at the Lifire Palace.

According to the usual rules, the Lifire Empyrean and Grand Governor Zhuge Xiong personally met with the five of them. Qin Wentian was naturally here as well.

The five governors handed over the tributes collected, and the two serving ladies of the Lifire Empyrean returned 10% to them. After that, they silently transmitted a message to the Lifire Empyrean which caused him to smile as he glanced at Qin Wentian. "Qin Wentian, what are you busy with these few days."

"I've been busy with my cultivation." Qin Wentian replied.

"Is the pressure very great in the northern city regions?" The Lifire Empyrean seemed to be very concerned about him. Qin Wentian shook his head, "Your subordinate is ashamed, after taking on this role for twenty-plus years, yet I still made no contributions. Many people are even saying that this subordinate didn't even dare to step out of my governor manor, how can I say that I'm pressured?"

"Oh? So you know about it?" Xia Hou coldly snorted. "I heard that the situation in the northern city regions is still the same as before. Many powers are unwilling to pay tax and you kept closing one eye. Are you really up for it to take on the position as a governor?"

"Xia Hou, the palace lord has given him a time period of a hundred years around twenty years ago. It has merely been one-fifth of the time, I believe Governor Qin will know what to do." Zhuge Xiong smiled at Qin Wentian, yet Qin Wentian lowered his head and didn't reply. This governor who killed three of his vice governors the instant he took over back then, was actually so low-profile now, staying in closed-door seclusion for his cultivation, not giving a damn about the tribute collection situation in the north. Qin Wentian now seemed like a puppet head and was merely idling away.

"Grand Governor is right, it's just that I disapprove of some people." Xia Hou coldly gazed at Qin Wentian.

"Xia Hou. After all, Wentian only became the governor of the northern city regions for twenty years. He is not like you whose foundation is already stable. In any case, I heard that a grandmaster in the arts of formations and weaponsmithing by the name of Di Tian has appeared in your central city regions? In fact, even Beauty Xiao personally went to the auction to purchase a treasure. Was there such a matter?" The Lifire Empyrean smiled as he asked. The eyes of Qin Wentian, who had lowered his head, flashed with sharpness. However, he merely silently listened on as he stood there quietly.

This matter drew the attention of the Lifire Empyrean so quickly?

"Palace lord, there's really such an incident. However, the story is somewhat exaggerated." Xia Hou replied.

"Oh?" The Lifire Empyrean smiled. "Anyway to recruit him?"

"Palace lord, this subordinate long wanted to recruit him, I even offered the position of a vice-governor to him should he agreed to join but he still rejected the offer." Xia Hou replied.

"Xia Hou, you should know that there's always a lack of weaponsmiths, even for my Lifire Palace, we are lacking in such talents. Put in more effort and try again. You can hint to him that there might be a position equal to a governor prepared for him. If you really need to, you can just say that this seat is interested in him." The Lifire Empyrean smiled. Xia Hou nodded, "This subordinate understands and will do my best to get him to join us."

"Good." The Lifire Empyrean waved his hand in dismissal. "You guys can return first."

"Yes, Palace Lord." The five of them bowed and retreated, departing the area.

Chapter 1587: Conspiracy

Since the Lifire Empyrean personally gave the command, Xia Hou naturally immediately complied with it.

Although Xia Hou was extremely unhappy with Di Tian's rejection and basically had no thoughts of inviting Di Tian despite him being a grandmaster weaponsmith, he had no choice but to do so after the Lifire Empyrean spoke.

This time, Xia Hou didn't arrive personally. He sent a vice governor to the Emperor Pavilion instead.

Mo Fei knew that Xia Hou sent someone here. Hence, he looked for Di Tian. Di Tian also understood what was going on as he coldly laughed in his heart. The Lifire Empyrean told Xia Hou to recruit him, yet Xia Hou merely sent a vice governor here?

Not long ago, Xia Hou just ruthlessly stabbed a blade into the Emperor Pavilion, treating them, who was a third-tier power, as a first-tier. Now, Xia Hou actually wanted him to personally head to the governor's manor?

"Tell him I'm not free."

Di Tian spoke to Mo Fei. However, Mo Fei frowned, "Di Tian, do you want to go and smooth over the relations? After all, the central city regions is considered Xia Hou's territory."

"There's no need to. He wishes to invite me to join the governor's manor and this is something I won't agree to. Since I've already offended him, and I would have to continue offending him in the future, there's no need to give him face." Di Tian replied. As long as they didn't break the city laws or do anything to antagonize the governor's manor, even if Xia Hou was the central governor, he could do nothing to them.

Mo Fei fell silent. After that, he nodded, "Alright then."

He then relayed this to that vice governor. The vice governor had an unsightly expression after he heard that, this was the second time Di Tian rejected them. The first time, Governor Xia Hou came personally yet he was rejected. This time, it was a vice governor who came but he couldn't even get to meet with Di Tian. As expected, things changed after one becomes a grandmaster. After he got famous, he doesn't even want to give face to the governor. Truly arrogant enough indeed.

After returning to the governor's manor, after Xia Hou learned that his subordinate got rejected and couldn't even meet with Di Tian, he instantly slammed his palm down and broke a table near him. He then stood up, "I want to see how much face he has exactly."

After speaking, Xia Hou personally headed to the Emperor Pavilion.

The Lifire Empyrean has spoken, he had to accomplish this even if he didn't want to. Even if he failed at the end, at least he had to try his best. If not, if the Lifire Empyrean knew that he didn't take this matter seriously, things wouldn't be too good.

Since Xia Hou personally came and Di Tian didn't wish to shred all pretence of cordiality completely, he showed up and invited Xia Hou to enter his residence for a chat. He then smiled, "Governor Xia Hou's presence brings light to my humble abode."

"Right now, Grandmaster Di Tian's fame resounds throughout the entire Lifire City and you must be extremely busy. It's difficult even if one wishes to meet with you." Xia Hou seemed to be hinting at something.

"I'm really busy. Look at how small my place is? It's just the start of my business but lord governor truly regards my Emperor Pavilion highly, classifying us as a tier-one power. How can I not work hard?" Di Tian smiled, the two of them clearly had meanings hidden within their words.

Di Tian coldly laughed in his heart. You came here to recruit me, yet you still have such a lofty look on your face? Do you really think I have to give you face? You even stabbed me in the back not long ago, do you really feel that I'll speak to you humbly?

As expected, Di Tian's reply caused Xia Hou to frown as unhappiness flickered in his eyes. "There was no choice, you are simply too famous. In any case, I came here today because I have a piece of good news to share."

"Oh?" Di Tian smiled, he still asked despite clearly understanding, "Lord governor please guide me."

"During the tribute collection this time around, I recommended you to the Lifire Empyrean. Palace Lord wants you to be my assistant after learning about your existence. You can join my governor's manor and I will nurture you as a future governor. Such a chance is truly rare to the extreme." Xia Hou stared at Di Tian as he spoke, the look on his face was that Di Tian ought to be thanking him on bended knees for giving him such a wonderful opportunity.

Di Tian started, staring at Xia Hou with a look of puzzlement. This arrogant governor could actually be so shameless to this extreme? Xia Hou was the one that recommended him to the Lifire Empyrean? The empyrean wanted him to be Xia Hou's assistant?

All these points were false. It was the Lifire Empyrean who sought interest in him and said that a position equivalent to the five governors would be prepared should Di Tian chose to join. Yet, in Xia Hou's words, no such things existed.

"What a sinister Xia Hou." Di Tian silently mused. Was this considered him issuing an invitation on behalf of the Lifire Empyrean? If he doesn't agree, when Xia Hou reports to the Lifire Empyrean in the future, he would definitely say that Di Tian didn't know what was good for him, rejecting the kind intentions of the Lifire Empyrean despite him, Xia Hou, personally coming here for the invitation.

Di Tian could easily guess at Xia Hou's plan but his expressions didn't change. He smiled, "Di Tian is truly thankful and filled with gratitude for the kind intentions of the Lifire Empyrean. I also must thank Governor Xia Hou for your recommendation. However, it's true that I'm already used to being free and unrestricted. I only want to create some good results with my Emperor Pavilion. I hope that lord governor won't blame me for my refusal."

"Each to his own, this governor naturally won't force you. I will report back to the Lifire Empyrean about your refusal." Xia Hou nodded. "Since this is the case, I'll bid my farewell first."

"Governor Xia Hou, enjoy the trip back." Di Tian couldn't even be bothered to reply politely and directly stood up to send him out.

Xia Hou smiled as he walked out. But after exiting the pavilion, his expression instantly sank as coldness flickered in his eyes. It was an extremely terrifying look. He naturally could feel that Di Tian didn't want to give him face at all.

Outside the Emperor Pavilion, there were a few passersby who noticed Xia Hou's expression. But because the Emperor Pavilion has recently been extremely lively, with floods of people entering and leaving, no one would pay extra attention to passersby. Hence, no one noticed Xia Hou.

After returning to the governor's manor, Xia Hou naturally informed one of his vice governors to inform the Lifire Empyrean. Naturally, the report he sent was modified by him. The report stated that he had emphasized the Lifire Empyrean's favor and high regards but Di Tian disdained everything.

...

After several days, numerous people came to the governor's manor to pay their respects to Governor Xia Hou.

The people who came all had extraordinary identities. Xia Hou personally received them.

Within the great hall, Governor Xia Hou sat at the highest position with the three vice governors below him. Under them were many powerful peak-stage immortal emperors who were the guests. Clearly, their statuses were extraordinary.

Grandmaster Yan Feng was among them. Also, Yan Feng was seated below an old man from the Yan Clan. This indicated that Yan Feng's status in the clan was inferior to this old man.

It turned out that that old man was actually none other than the Yan Clan's clan leader.

As for the other two groups, their status and influence weren't inferior to the Yan Clan.

They came from two first-tier powers in the central city regions and were leading characters of their respective clans. In addition, their main businesses were auction houses and transaction grounds as well.

Right now, the Emperor Pavilion has gradually started to threaten their positions.

The territory in the central city regions was like a pie. Each portion was already split and fixed. But the rise of the Emperor Pavilion was like the snatching of their piece of pie that was long already fixed. Because the Emperor Pavilion grew more popular, more and more people would head there to use their transaction grounds and participate in their auctions, resulting in fewer people patronizing their businesses, affecting their revenue.

Hence, all of them grouped together and even brought the Yan Clan along, as they headed to the governor's manor. After all, the Yan Clan had a grudge with Di Tian. This was something everyone knew about.

These two other powers were the Han Clan and the Wei Clan respectively and were considered ancient aristocrat clans. They had developed in the central city regions of Lifire City for many years or they wouldn't be able to do auction houses and transaction grounds. Both of their clans actually controlled a huge amount of resources.

Inside the hall, the group of them chatted idly and hadn't entered the main topic. It was only until the Han and Wei Clan's clan leaders glanced at the Yan Clan's clan leader did the Yan Clan's clan leader speak, "Lord governor, what is your opinion with regards to the Emperor Pavilion?"

Xia Hou smiled and glanced at him, "What do you mean?"

"This Grandmaster Di Tian is way too arrogant. Back then before he was famous, he entered my Yan Clan and killed two of our grandmasters, he simply has no one in his eyes, not even the laws of the governor's manor. Right now after he became famous, his arrogance became even more extreme, he simply has no regard for anyone." The Yan Clan's clan leader coldly spoke, his words clearly pulling the governor's manor in with him.

However, no one exposed him. The people here were all scheming old foxes.

"That's right. Lord governor, the Emperor Pavilion started a transaction ground and even began to organize auctions without telling any of us. This means that he completely has no respect for us seniors who were long in this business."

"Also, didn't you all see how he humiliated Grandmaster Xuanming? Now, Grandmaster Xuanming doesn't even dare to show his face in public."

The group of them continued speaking, with an expression of righteous indignation like they were angry at injustice.

"This Di Tian is truly capable though. Anyway, let's have a drink while we chat." Governor Xia Hou laughed. The people here all silently cursed him for being a wily old fox, his words were as good as not saying anything.

They had all received information that Governor Xia Hou recently left the Emperor Pavilion with an ugly expression on his face. Today, they came here for a visit because they wanted Xia Hou to promise them that the governor's manor wouldn't act when they joined forces to deal with the Emperor Pavilion. It would be good if the governor's manor can close one eye. Naturally, such words need not be directly spoken, it was fine enough as long as everyone understood this in their hearts. A hint would usually be sufficient.

However, Xia Hou didn't make any mention of it at all, he also didn't express any attitude. No matter what they said, he merely smiled and drank his wine.

"Lord governor, recently there's some fun-to-play with treasures that appeared in my auction house. They are interesting but lacks any value, please take them as my gifts to you." The Han Clan Leader took out an interspatial ring and passed it over to Xia Hou. When Xia Hou's immortal sense entered the ring, he understood clearly what they wanted. He laughed loudly, "Truly there are some interesting treasures within."

The vice governors who were at the side all cursed silently in their hearts at how Xia Hou was continuing with his act. However, they naturally wouldn't say anything. Such incidents happened very frequently. Even if the Lifire Empyrean knew about it, he wouldn't say anything. The other two clans also presented their gifts as Governor Xia Hou accepted them all.

The banquet continued proceeding in a very lively manner and after it ended, Xia Hou commanded his vice governors to send these important guests out.

The clan leaders and their subordinates nodded, but they couldn't help but to feel some unhappiness. They already paid a visit personally and even gifted so many treasures but they received no concrete reply.

"Everyone, do you know that recently, the Lifire Empyrean is quite unhappy? This Di Tian is truly capable, even rejecting Governor Xia Hou when he headed there personally to invite him. The Empyrean personally said that he wanted to recruit Grandmaster Di, yet Grandmaster Di didn't even have him in his eyes. Tell me, since Grandmaster Di even dares to reject the Lifire Empyrean, how could he give you guys any face?" A vice governor had a smile filled with meaning on his face as he sent them off.

The eyes of the clan leaders here flashed with sharpness. Rejected the Lifire Empyrean and the Lifire Empyrean was very unhappy?

"Oh, I see. This Grandmaster Di Tian is truly capable indeed." A crafty smile appeared on the Han Clan Leader's face.

"I understand. No wonder." The Wei Clan Leader also laughed. All of them exchanged mutual glances and left here satisfied, obtaining the answer they wanted.

Just this sentence was enough for them!

Chapter 1588: Ruthless Method

The auctions of the Emperor Pavilion grew more and more prosperous. Many came because of its fame and were willing to hand their treasures to the Emperor Pavilion for them to auction away. Although because the Emperor Pavilion just recently rose up, the quality of treasures people sent here wasn't that high, but they were slowly accumulating popularity bit by bit.

In addition, the Emperor Pavilion would take out a treasure personally forged by Di Tian to auction away every month. The crowd discovered that these treasures forged by Di Tian were all extraordinary and have been so for many months. Eventually, everyone concluded something. Valuable treasures would definitely appear every time Grandmaster Di's items are within the auction. Hence, during then, the Emperor Pavilion would always be exceptionally lively.

Although usually there wouldn't be many people, Mo Fei wasn't worried. As long as they continued down this path, he believed that the Emperor Pavilion's auctions would grow more and more prosperous. Right now, their transaction grounds were expanding too as more and more people were keen to use it as a trading venue.

Everything was developing in the right direction.

He and Mo Junyi will be here for a hundred years. They believed that the Emperor Pavilion can definitely be developed into a major power.

Today, it was auction day for Di Tian's personal creations once again. It was a mid-stage emperor weapon and was a stone monument. This stone monument was created from special materials and had terrifying runes engraved on it. The moment it unleashed its might, it was able to suppress one's enemies with an absolute sealing force. Right now, everyone knew that Grandmaster Di Tian's forging ability grew stronger and stronger and there were more varieties of treasures being created. He was truly a rare genius.

It was only unknown how long Grandmaster Di Tian had cultivated for and what he looked like. Right now, there was no one who has seen Di Tian's face before. Even Mo Junyi and his serving girl Little Zhu, had never seen his features before. Naturally, both of them wanted very much to see it.

After the auction ended, everyone felt that it ended too fast but had no choice and had to accept reality as they left respectively.

After the auction today ended. Mo Fei and Mo Junyi also heaved a sigh of relief. Mo Fei smiled, "The Emperor Pavilion is continuing its expansion. I'm worried that with our current number of employees, we might not be able to handle future operations. Let's hope that more people will express their will to join us after seeing how prosperous the Emperor Pavilion has gotten."

"Mhm." Mo Junyi nodded lightly.

"Little miss, it has been tough on you." Mo Fei glanced at Mo Junyi.

"I'm alright." Mo Junyi casually smiled. Mo Fei cast a deep glance at her as he laughed, "What a pity, Grandmaster Di Tian is really like a piece of rock in terms of emotions."

"Grand supervisor." At this moment, a figure hurried over. It was an immortal emperor contracted to the Emperor Pavilion.

"What's the matter?" Mo Fei saw the look of panic on the emperor's face and involuntarily asked.

"Something happened. The person who successfully bid for pavilion lord's personally forged treasure was injured and robbed by someone after the auction ended. Not only so, for those who successfully bid for the other treasures today, their gains were all plundered away too." That immortal emperor spoke. Mo Fei instantly sat up as he felt a chill in his heart.

As an elder of the Mo Clan as well as his cultivation base at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm, Mo Fei was someone who had seen many things before. He instantly felt that something was wrong.

His eyes flashed with terrifying coldness as he clenched his fist, "There's someone deliberately targeting our Emperor Pavilion."

"Grand supervisor, you mean that this incident isn't a simple case of robbery? It's a case of deliberately targeting our Emperor Pavilion?" That immortal emperor had some doubts.

"Given how ruthless this plan is, and the scale of the plunder, ordinary powers would never be able to accomplish this. One has to know that the experts who successfully bid for treasures were all extremely powerful, all of them are immortal emperors. How could their treasures be stolen and they were even injured? Clearly, this is a detailed plan that's targeted at our Emperor Pavilion."

The look in Mo Fei's eyes was extremely cold. "After this news circulates out, I'm afraid many people would start to doubt our integrity, saying that all the treasures auctioned by us to the customers would be robbed away. Although no one would be foolish enough to say that we are the ones who did it, this incident would undoubtedly affect their trust."

"We have to take drastic measures to handle this." When that immortal emperor heard Mo Fei's explanation, he also felt that Mo Fei's guess was right.

"I'm just thinking how could our development be so smooth and there are no commotions at all from our competitors. Right now, the thing I fear has finally arrived. The moment they act, they did so in such a ruthless manner, wanting to sever our future path of development." Mo Fei's eyes gleamed sharply. Mo Junyi then asked, "Who do you suspect?"

"Our Emperor Pavilion should have obstructed the profits of some businesses, they should be the ones targeting us from the dark." Mo Fei spoke. "Also, only those major powers had the ability to do such a thing."

"Go and make a report to the governor's manor immediately and get them to investigate fully." Mo Fei spoke to the immortal emperor. That person nodded before turning and departing, speeding straight towards the governor's manor.

After he left, Mo Fei was still frowning.

"Little miss, I feel somewhat worried." Mo Fei mumbled. Mo Junyi glanced at him, "What are you worried about?"

"I'm afraid that the governor's manor might have given silent approval for these powers to act." Mo Fei glanced at her, his words causing Mo Junyi's expression to change. "The governor's manor is responsible for the law and order here. They shouldn't do such a thing, right?"

"You might not know, but Di Tian has offended Xia Hou before. Although it's something that cannot be avoided, you must know that Xia Hou always has a tyrannical and arrogant personality. He might harbor hatred in his heart. If those major powers were to do something, it's very possible that Xia Hou might close one eye to them. In this case, our Emperor Pavilion would find it hard to rise up and might even close down." One couldn't help but to say that Mo Fei's guess was quite accurate.

"Since this is the case, we can only temporarily wait and see." Mo Junyi spoke.

"Mhm, let's look at the governor's manor's attitude." Mo Fei nodded lightly.

Di Tian soon learned of this news and was extremely unhappy about it. Just like what Mo Fei anticipated, their enemies must have planned it out, they couldn't even find out who was the mastermind after their investigations.

The governor's manor sent a response saying that they were currently investigating the matter but there were no leads yet.

Right now in the Emperor Pavilion, Di Tian, Mo Fei and Mo Junyi were all present.

"How are the recent auctions?" Di Tian asked.

"The number of people is fewer compared to the past." Mo Fei replied.

"What about the situation over at the governor's manor? Any news from them?"

"Mhm, everything in the governor's manor seemed to be usual. They did not capture anyone for questioning and the number of people they sent to investigate this case seem to be non-existent." Mo Fei replied. Di Tian turned silent. His fingers drummed on the armrest of his chair as he slowly closed his eyes.

"Everyone, do you all have any ideas?" Di Tian asked but no one replied. Only after a long time did Mo Fei replied, "If it's the governor's manor silently abetting them, leaving aside the fact that even we could find some clues, everything would be useless. Their authority is greater compared to us."

"In that case, let things be like this for now then." Di Tian stood up and left the grand hall directly. Mo Fei silently sighed. Such incidents were common in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the other party need not clash with you head on and can let you die without a burial place, turning your many years of effort into dust.

The Emperor Pavilion carried on business as usual. After that, more and more of such plunders occured. In truth, Mo Fei had already sent more guards there but there were simply too many who came to the transaction grounds. It was impossible for the guards to protect everyone.

Gradually, news unfavorable to the Emperor Pavilion started spreading around Lifire City. The Emperor Pavilion has encountered trouble, it would be best to be more cautious whether you are participating in an auction there or using the venue as a transaction grounds. This news was undoubtedly fatal to the profits of the Emperor Pavilion and it caused the human flow to lessen. Once again, after someone successfully bid for a treasure forged by Di Tian, he was injured and robbed after he departed the Emperor Pavilion. The Emperor Pavilion was instantly engulfed by a storm of negative rumors.

If this continued on, although everyone clearly knew how good Di Tian's creations were, no one would dare to head to the Emperor Pavilion for the auctions.

The number of people patronizing the Emperor Pavilion would grow fewer and fewer and this, to a business, was undoubtedly a path of destruction.

Today, in the governor's manor of the southern city regions, a special guest came to visit. This person was extremely famous and many in Lifire City heard of his name before. Even their southern governor had bought a treasure, which he forged, in an auction.

Hence, after learning of his identity, Beauty Xiao naturally personally received this guest.

In the elegant courtyard with the beautiful scenery, Beauty Xiao was dressed even more provocatively compared to the last time. Her clothing was so thin that they were almost translucent. Her devil-like figure was faintly discernible through her clothing, causing lust to stir the hearts of men who saw her.

"Grandmaster Di, why are you so free to pay me a visit?" Beauty Xiao smiled charmingly. The two of them sat by the lake with a table filled with delicacies before them. All the serving girls were already sent away by Beauty Xiao.

The pavilion by the lake, the false mountains and peach blossoms. Such scenery coupled with an alluring woman like Beauty Xiao, was truly captivating. This was especially so when Di Tian looked at the soul-stirring eyes of Beauty Xiao, even someone with his iron will felt distracted. But after a few moments, he regained self-control and spoke, "Recently, I encountered a troublesome matter and wish to ask Governor Xiao for some advice."

"Oh?" Beauty Xiao smiled. "Grandmaster Di, you can directly call me Beauty Xiao. I wonder, what's the matter?"

Asking people to refer to her as Beauty Xiao, this Beauty Xiao was truly narcissistic enough.

"Some time ago, Governor Xia Hou came to my pavilion and told me a piece of news. He said that he recommended me to the Lifire Empyrean and the Lifire Empyrean was very pleased with me, telling him to grant me the position of a vice governor. Xia Hou wants me to join his governor's manor and close down my Emperor Pavilion, I can only forge weapons solely for the governor's manor in the future and I still needed to create more treasures to give as tributes to the Lifire Palace." Di Tian slowly spoke. "With such conditions, how could I agreed to him? The Emperor Pavilion was established solely by me and I'm long used to being free and unrestricted. This is the reason why I took the risk and rejected Governor Xia Hou's invitation, despite knowing that the Lifire Empyrean might be unhappy."

There was no change to Beauty Xiao's expression, she smiled at Di Tian, causing Di Tian to silently marvel that she wasn't a simple character.

"After that, Governor Xia then ruthlessly told me that if I don't obey the Empyrean's order, just be prepared and wait for my Emperor Pavilion to close down. I, Di, am completely speechless, I didn't think that the Lifire Empyrean would make a move to deal with a minor character like me. However, recently, my Emperor Pavilion encountered many plundering incidents, those who won treasures from auctions were all robbed and the governor's manor ignored all my requests for help. Even those who use my venue as a free trading ground would run into trouble. This is extremely unfair, my Emperor Pavilion is, after all, classified by Governor Xia Hou as a first-tier power and when tribute collection day comes, we contributed plenty of resources. Yet now, we are actually receiving such a treatment? I, Di, feel a chill in my heart. Hence, I want to ask Beauty Xiao if it's really the case that there's no place for me in this vast Lifire City?"

Chapter 1589: Scandalous Rumors about the Governor’s Manor

Di Tian spoke frankly, his tone was filled with grievance and he had exaggerated some matters. Back then, Xia Hou did want him to become a vice governor but Xia Hou had not mentioned anything about closing down his Emperor Pavilion or that he could only forge weapons for the Lifire Palace in the future. His words dragged Xia Hou into it, even dragging the Lifire Empyrean into it.

However, Di Tian didn't feel that this was wrong. Xia Hou was clearly already making things up when he came by to recruit him, even lying saying that he was the one who recommended him to the Lifire Empyrean. After that, it was also true that the governor's manor wanted his Emperor Pavilion to die off. Di Tian knows even without thinking that Xia Hou must have reported negatively about him after he returned, saying that he was disrespectful to the Lifire Empyrean.

Since this was the case, he naturally also wanted to pull the Lifire Empyrean into it. After all, the purpose of why he came, was to use Beauty Xiao to spread his words back to the Lifire Palace.

If the Lifire Empyrean knew that Xia Hou was the one who wanted to deal with him, defying his will, he would definitely be extremely unhappy. Xia Hou showed outward devotion but inner opposition, clearly only paying lip service to the Lifire Empyrean.

As for whether the empyrean would believe this or not, even if he doesn't believe, he would also have some doubts in his heart. And as long as he investigates, he would learn that the Emperor Pavilion had really encountered trouble.

Beauty Xiao smiled at Di Tian, "And then?"

Di Tian stared at the alluring vixen as he sighed, "If this is really the case, I, Di, can only choose to leave. I'll head towards the territories outside the Lifelong Realm."

"You want me to pass the message for you?" Beauty Xiao looked at him, instantly guessing Di Tian's objective. In truth, Di Tian actually wanted her to know his objective. He then took out an interspatial ring and passed it to her, "Beauty, these are the high-grade emperor stones you paid for the treasure at my auction in the past. How would I really want it? Please take them back."

Beauty Xiao didn't accept them. If she accepted them, it would have meant that she agreed to help Di Tian settle his problems.

"I only want to see your face." Beauty Xiao revealed a mesmerizing smile.

"Because of some special reasons, it's not suitable for me to reveal my features." Di Tian shook his head.

"Can't these stones make you remove your mask?" Beauty Xiao was still smiling, feeling more and more curious. An initial-stage immortal emperor, a grandmaster in formations and weaponsmithing, the founder of the Emperor Pavilion and this man was now preparing to engage Xia Hou in opposition. She really wanted to see the face under the mask, what sort of facial features would such a man have?

Di Tian still shook his head, his eyes staring right at Beauty Xiao.

However, the more he was like this, the stronger the curiosity Beauty Xiao felt. She then laughed, "Since this is the case, Grandmaster Di, please return."

Di Tian smiled and nodded, "Governor Xiao, I have disturbed you. After our farewell today, I'm afraid it's difficult for us to meet again. I'll take my leave then."

After speaking, he prepared to get up.

"You would rather give up the Emperor Pavilion that's developing so well than to let me see your face? What sort of character are you exactly?" Beauty Xiao asked.

"Even if I have to restart everything again, given my ability in formations and weaponsmithing, I'm sure it wouldn't be too tough for me to rise up even if I'm not in the Lifelong Realm. Right now, my cultivation might be slightly weaker. But the day I break through to the mid-stage, regardless of my combat prowess or weaponsmithing, they would both be strengthened by many times. At that time, when I encounter a governor like Xia Hou again, I wouldn't give a damn about him anymore."

Di Tian calmly spoke. The humble attitude and politeness he exuded earlier completely vanished. Right now, there was only the pride and arrogance from a grandmaster in both formations and weaponsmithing.

Maybe, the him now, was then the real him.

Beauty Xiao's pretty eyes flashed with a bright light, staring at Di Tian. Such a Di Tian seemed more to her taste, she truly was extremely fond of such character.

Beauty Xiao then stood up, moving forth with the grace of lotus flowers as she arrived before Di Tian and sat down beside him. She, who was wearing such provocation clothing, actually paid no mind to it. Her alluring body directly laid down, leaning against his thigh. Given how close he was to that sexy figure, Di Tian's heart trembled as his expression kept changing. What a vixen.

As long as he wanted to, he could touch places he shouldn't touch the moment he stretched his hands out.

Staring at the expression changing in the eyes of Di Tian, Beauty Xiao giggled, fully blasting out the charm of an alluring beauty, seemingly allowing Di Tian to do whatever he wanted.

"Do you want to take me? If you do so, I'll become your woman. I'll naturally follow your instructions then." Beauty Xiao's alluring voice rang out. A smile flashed in Di Tian's eyes. He stretched his hands out and stroked her soft skin, dishonestly roaming around. "Beauty, your identity is a governor. I initially didn't dare to be disrespectful to you, yet you are so blatant in seducing me. Even if my state of heart is extraordinary, I won't be able to endure much longer and will eat you up for sure. But I'll make things clear first. I already have a family, even if I ate you up, I won't be responsible for you. Don't try to kill me then."

A strange gleam of light flashed through Beauty Xiao's eyes as she smiled, "Sure, if you are really extremely handsome, I won't suffer any disadvantage even if you eat me up. Let me see your true face. If you are handsome, I'll comply with all your wishes."

Di Tian's hands continued roaming, moving around her smooth skin. His hand even slipped into places that were forbidden but Beauty Xiao smiled even wider, grabbing hold of his hand and holding it an inch away before he touched her twin peaks.

"You haven't shown me your face yet." Beauty Xiao then stretched her other hand outwards, wanting to take off Di Tian's mask, but before she could do so, Di Tian also grabbed hold of her hand and smiled while shaking his head, "No deal, I cannot endure for much longer. Let's do the important things first."

As he spoke, his hand exerted force and pushed against Beauty Xiao's hand, shifting to her chest area. This caused Beauty Xiao to let out a slight moan that further stirred the fire in Di Tian's heart. The look on her face showed that she also wanted more, yet her hand grabbed his even firmer. After that, with a twist of her body, she slid out of his touch. She stared at him, "You are truly audacious, you want my body even without showing me your face?"

"Governor, you should know how much charm you have. If it wasn't for my state of heart being stable enough, I wouldn't have been able to resist it since long ago." Di Tian laughed. "In any case, I'll leave these emperor stones with you. Regardless of whether you help me out or not, that treasure already belongs to you. Just take it that my earlier actions were taking advantage of you. After I return, I will temporarily close the Emperor Pavilion for three months. If this matter still isn't settled after three months, I can only leave Lifire City then. Farewell."

After speaking, Di Tian stood up and departed.

Beauty Xiao laughed as she watched Di Tian walking away. She walked to the side of the lake and stared at her reflection as her hands stroked her hair. "Is my body so lacking in terms of alluringness? I can't even get him to remove his mask."

She naturally knew that Di Tian was retreating under the guise of an advance, wanting to intentionally probe her bottom line. She was wondering that if she didn't stop him, would Di Tian really dare to take her?

Her hands were then placed at the side of her clothing and with a gentle pull, a stunning sight that would cause the blood pressure of every man to rise was revealed. After that, she slowly stepped forward, wading into the lake. This scene was too beautiful.

...

Just like what Di Tian told Beauty Xiao. After he returned, he temporarily closed the Emperor Pavilion and sent out an announcement to Lifire city.

Recently, those customers who came to the Emperor Pavilion were all ambushed. There were major powers deliberately targeting the Emperor Pavilion and the Governor's Manor didn't manage to investigate anything at all. In order to protect the interest of the pavilion's customers, the Emperor Pavilion decided to close shop for three months. Within these three months, if the governor's manor still failed to find the mastermind of these incidents, the Emperor Pavilion shall be closed forever and might even be relocated to elsewhere.

If the governor's manor can find the masterminds, on the day when the Emperor Pavilion reopens three months later, Grandmaster Di Tian would take out three unique treasures he forged for an auction.

At the end of the announcement, the Emperor Pavilion stated that although they were classified as a first-tier power, their actual strength was much weaker than that. They hoped the governor's manor would put in their best efforts to seek out the masterminds on account of the astronomical amounts of tribute they had paid.

This announcement seemed relatively calm but many sighed in their hearts after they learned of it. By doing this, the Emperor Pavilion was cutting off their means of retreat, there were many hidden messages inside the announcement.

The announcement didn't blame the governor's manor at all, but the spearhead was definitely pointed to them. For example, they were treated as a first-tier power and had to offer first-tier contribution rates. Another example was that many incidents have occured, yet the governor's manor couldn't even find out any clues at all? They even say it plainly that they hoped the governor's manor would put in their best efforts.

There wasn't a single word in the announcement that blamed the governor's manor, hence, there was no way they could refute.

Right now, many in Lifire City could already see that the major powers acting against the Emperor Pavilion must have obtained the silent approval of the governor's manor. By doing this to deal with a major power in their own territories, forcing the Emperor Pavilion away? This was simply too shameless, they even forced the Emperor Pavilion to pay first-tier taxes and they still did such a thing in the dark.

For a period of time, many scandalous rumors against the central governor's manor circulated around Lifire City. This was especially so from the major powers who had a good impression of Grandmaster Di Tian and had cooperated with him before. The Mo Clan was one of them. They even assisted in the dark, intending on blowing this matter up.

Hence, this announcement swiftly took the entire Lifire City by storm, alongside with the scandalous rumors.

As the storm raged fiercer, many people were silently impressed by the Emperor Pavilion's methods, they were actually advancing in the guise of a retreat. If the Emperor Pavilion didn't temporarily cease operations, it would only gave rise to more panic and affect their human flow and popularity.

But now, after the announcement was out, many people started to pay closer attention to the Emperor Pavilion. If they failed to tide over this, the Emperor Pavilion will move away and the governor's manor would definitely have a stain on their reputation. If the matter is resolved, given how much attention people were paying to the Emperor Pavilion, there was no need to worry that their popularity would dip when they reopened three months later.

Right now, inside the central governor's manor, Xia Hou was raging. Killing intent gushed forth from him and he wanted nothing more than to send subordinates to tear the Emperor Pavilion down. However, from the start until now, the Emperor Pavilion didn't even say anything against them. Even if he wanted to pin a crime on the Emperor Pavilion, he had no way to do so. Also, he did classify them as a tier-one power and place them in the tier-one tax bracket. He had no choice but to admit that.

"Di Tian, you even dare to reject me and even want to counter-attack? In that case, I will wait three months later for you to scram!" Xia Hou raged.

Chapter 1590: Purple Moon Immortal Emperor

The news about the Emperor Pavilion was circulated fervently. Many people were silently discussing this. Although the governor's manor has great authority, they couldn't control the mouths of other people.

But even so, the governor's manor took no action at all, completely ignoring the investigation for the Emperor Pavilion.

Because, there was simply no way to investigate. Governor Xia Hou himself clearly knew who were the ones who did it and the major powers who were the culprits only did so because they received his silent approval. How to investigate? Could he arrest himself?

Naturally, Xia Hou had to find a scapegoat to give an answer to the Emperor Pavilion to smooth the scandalous rumors and allow the Emperor Pavilion to reopen. If he did so, the amount of people cursing him would be lessened and in the future, no one else would dare to deliberately target the Emperor Pavilion or Xia Hou would have no face at all.

But Xia Hou wasn't even willing to do this. The arrogant him wanted the Emperor Pavilion to scram. In fact, he even wanted Di Tian's life.

An initial-stage immortal emperor, even if his dao of formations and weaponsmithing skills are heaven-defying, so what of it? As long as his strength was weak, there was always a way to kill him. At that time, he would be able to depend on these major powers to clean Di Tian up.

Time flowed by, many people were silently musing that this time around, the Emperor Pavilion might truly be finished. The governor's manor was determined to crush the Emperor Pavilion. Seems like Grandmaster Di must really have offended Governor Xia Hou or such a thing wouldn't have happened.

This exact same day two months later, although the Emperor Pavilion closed their auction and transaction grounds, they weren't completely shut down. At this moment, a female immortal emperor came knocking on their doors.

Mo Junyi received her at the entrance. This female immortal emperor had an extraordinary aura and her eyes glowed with spirit. There was even a sense of nobility radiating from her. She looked at Mo Junyi and asked, "Is Grandmaster Di Tian in?"

"Pavilion lord is currently in deep contemplation due to the current worrying circumstances." Mo Junyi smiled.

"I wish to invite Grandmaster Di Tian to forge a divine weapon for me. Can you help me pass the message to him?" That female immortal emperor asked.

"This…" Mo Junyi hesitated before she eventually nodded, "I'll report this to him and see if he is currently busy or not."

"Right." That female immortal emperor nodded. After that, Mo Junyi left and after Di Tian received the news, he extended his immortal sense outwards. When he saw the visitor, his eyes flashed with a bright light and he then smiled at Mo Junyi, "Please invite her in here."

Mo Junyi initially thought Di Tian would reject. She had a look of puzzlement on her face but she nodded her head. A moment later, she brought the female immortal emperor into the courtyard of Di Tian's residence.

"Grandmaster Di." The female immortal emperor nodded her head lightly when she saw Di Tian, she didn't really express her respect and merely exchanged a simple greeting.

"I heard that you are keen for me to forge you a weapon. I wonder what type of weapon do you need?" Di Tian asked.

"Grandmaster Di is proficient in forging emperor-ranked weapons with the sealing attributes. In that case, I want one of them too. Just a mid-grade emperor-ranked weapon would do. I have no particular preference towards the type of weapon." The female immortal emperor replied.

"I have a few already forged emperor-ranked weapons, you can choose one of them." With a wave of his hand, quite a few emperor-ranked weapons appeared. The eyes of the female immortal emperor flashed as she stared at the weapons as she silently mused that the rumors about Grandmaster Di's talent were real. It seemed that it was very simple for him to create emperor-ranked weapons, there would be auctions for his creations every month and a high-grade emperor-ranked weapon every year. It was like as long as he wanted to, he would be able to forge many powerful divine weapons.

The female immortal emperor chose a sword-type weapon. She then asked, "What is the price for this sword?"

"Five hundred high-grade emperor stones." Di Tian replied.

"As expected of a creation from Grandmaster Di. This mid-stage emperor-ranked weapon is actually valued with high-grade emperor stones." The female immortal emperor laughed. After that, she took out the five hundred emperor stones and passed them to Di Tian.

Di Tian bitterly smiled, "The Emperor Pavilion is about to be closed down permanently. In the future, I can only roam about aimlessly and can only depend on forging more divine weapons to earn cultivation resources."

"Speaking of which, I feel really curious. Right now, rumors are all around Lifire City. Grandmaster Di, how did you offend Governor Xia Hou? Is there no chance of the situation reversing?" The female immortal emperor asked with a smile.

"If there's a sliver of chance, I wouldn't have temporarily closed my Emperor Pavilion's auctions and transaction grounds. I feel there's no hope at all." Di Tian sighed as he shook his head. "I didn't merely offend Governor Xia Hou alone."

"Ah, what do you mean?" The female immortal emperor asked.

"Forget it, it's better not to say anything or there might be trouble." Di Tian waved his hands in dismissal.

"Grandmaster Di, I'm really curious after hearing all this. Please tell me why, I guarantee that I won't spread this around." The female immortal emperor urged.

"Sigh, since I'm someone that's about to leave, I guess there's no harm that I tell you this. It's the empyrean. I've offended him, how could I still have any chance to reverse the situation?" Di Tian's revealed eyes flickered with a desolate look.

"The Lifire Empyrean has always been in the Lifire Palace, it's very rare for outsiders to interact with him. How could Grandmaster Di have offended him?" The female immortal emperor felt even more curious as she continued to ask.

"The ignorant man is not guilty, but a person's talent might invoke envy in others. The Lifire Empyrean felt that my skills in forging weapons should be used solely by him. Hence, he got Governor Xia Hou to threaten me, telling me to join him as a vice governor and my creations will be gifted as contributions to the central governor's manor and the Lifire Palace in the future. If I don't agree, I should be prepared for my Emperor Pavilion to close down. Although I, Di, am not really that talented, I still have a streak of pride in me. How can I endure such coercion? I rejected Governor Xia Hou and as expected, I must have offended the Empyrean by doing so. As for the end result...you can already see it yourself."

Di Tian sighed with sorrow, appearing even more desolate.

"Given the sort of supreme character the Lifire Empyrean is, how could he be bothered by this with regards to you? Maybe everything is a misunderstanding?" The female immortal emperor frowned, but it only served to add to her beauty.

Di Tian stared at her appearance as he marveled silently in his heart. As expected of a woman by the side of the Lifire Empyrean, she truly has an extraordinary aura. In addition, the judgement of the Lifire Empyrean is truly not bad, he was able to nurture such a serving lady to wait on himself.

So it turned out that this female immortal emperor was none other than one of the two serving ladies of the Lifire Empyrean. Qin Wentian had met them several times, so how could Di Tian not recognize her?

But of course, he pretended to know nothing about her. He continued to sigh, "I initially also thought this way, how can a supreme character like the empyrean hold it against a minor character like me? But you have also seen reality. If it wasn't for the Lifire Empyrean expressing his will, how would Governor Xia Hou act so audaciously? He completely ignored the scandalous rumors and wishes for the Emperor Pavilion to close down completely. Why would he push me so far? I don't have any death grudge with Governor Xia Hou."

"The human heart is unfathomable. Di Tian doesn't know what the future will hold. It's best that I don't guess at things randomly or I may accidentally slander the Empyrean." The eyes of the female immortal emperor flickered with a faint arrogance when she heard that. Di Tian's eyes flashed, he stared at the female immortal emperor and asked, "Who are you exactly?"

"Grandmaster Di, do your best. Farewell." The female immortal emperor turned and directly soared through the air. Mo Junyi's beautiful eyes flashed, she was somewhat unhappy with that female immortal emperor's attitude and wanted to speak up many times earlier but was stopped by a voice transmission from Di Tian. This caused her to be extremely bewildered.

"This female immortal emperor is so proud of herself." Mo Junyi softly spoke.

"She's a woman of the Lifire Empyrean, how can she not be proud of herself?" Di Tian laughed. Mo Junyi froze as she stared puzzledly at Di Tian.

That female immortal emperor was actually the Lifire Empyrean's woman who came here for an anonymous visit? It seems that Di Tian must have purposely said those things to her.

It's just that Mo Junyi felt very curious. Why would a woman of the Lifire Empyrean come here to settle stuff? She must definitely not be the official wife and should be someone that's frequently around the empyrean instead. In that case, not many people would know of her identity or she wouldn't have strolled up to their entrance and entered the Emperor Pavilion so openly.

But how did Di Tian know of her? Mo Junyi was now extremely curious about Di Tian's true identity.

...

The serving lady of the Lifire Empyrean flew straight towards the central governor's manor after leaving the Emperor Pavilion.

Xia Hou naturally personally received her. He felt somewhat puzzled as he asked, "Fairy Purple Moon, why are you so free as to visit my governor's manor?"

"Why? Can't I come here?" There was a cold expression on the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor's face as she spoke to Xia Hou.

"I didn't mean it this way. It's just that Fairy Purple Moon would frequently accompany palace lord, this is the reason why I felt puzzled." Xia Hou shook his head. "Please, come in."

Although Xia Hou was one of the five governors, but this Purple Moon Immortal Emperor was the woman of the Lifire Empyrean. He, as a subordinate, although he has vast authority, how would he dare show disrespect to the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor? If he did so, wouldn't that be smacking the Lifire Empyrean's face?

"No need. I will leave after saying a few things." The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor coldly continued, "Are you involved in the Emperor Pavilion's troubles?"

Xia Hou's eyes flashed, he didn't understand the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor's meaning. Would such an incident startle the Lifire Palace?

"Xia Hou is frightened. Does the palace lord have any orders?" Xia Hou asked.

"The palace lord doesn't have any direct commands but you actually misspoke his intentions and used his name to do whatever you want, serving your own purpose?" The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor coldly snorted, causing Xia Hou to bow hurriedly. "Xia Hou doesn't dare to."

"You really don't dare to?" The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor coldly stared at Xia Hou. She then asked, "You best honestly answer my questions or be prepared to bear the consequences. Firstly, are you involved with the Emperor Pavilion's current troubles?"

Xia Hou's back instantly pesperied cold sweat. He didn't really care for the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor but her words might represent the Lifire Empyrean's will. He couldn't help but to take this seriously. He then asked, "I obeyed palace lord's command and went to invite Di Tian but that fellow was extremely arrogant and didn't even want to give the palace lord any face. He was simply way too brazen. As for this matter, I'm not involved in it, I only close one eye, wanting to give Di Tian some punishment."

"Let me ask you another question. When you went to recruit Di Tian, did you follow the palace lord's will? Did you tell him that should he agree, the Lifire Empyrean would give him a position equal to the five governors. You best answer me honestly." The voice of the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor turned serious. Although her cultivation base was inferior to Xia Hou, her aura was naturally extraordinary from spending time around the Lifire Empyrean.

She wasn't a fool and wouldn't believe Di Tian so simply just from what she heard. This was why she came here to question Xia Hou. As long as she compared their version of the story, she would be able to judge who was speaking the truth.

"Or more accurately, did you only tell Di Tian that he can be your subordinate? A vice governor?" The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor continued to probe upon seeing Xia Hou not answering the question. Xia Hou's expression kept changing and at this moment, the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor finally understood the truth.

Seems like this Xia Hou has been too used to having power and felt that he is a lofty existence. Di Tian must have offended him before and he wanted to use this chance to deal with Di Tian. Seems like he really was paying lip service to the empyrean.

"My lady, please spare me. Xia Hou was only too keen on helping the Lifire Palace gain a valuable subordinate. I intended to accept him under me so as to properly groom him so that he could put all his efforts in the future to aiding our Lifire Palace in forging divine weapons." Xia Hou bent his waist, feeling some terror.

"What a great governor Xia Hou." The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor icily spoke. "You better settle this matter cleanly. The palace lord doesn't wish to hear any more gossips or scandalous rumors about the central governor's manor."

After speaking, she directly flicked her sleeves and left. Governor Xia Hou's face was extremely ugly to behold. Even now, he was still sweating cold sweat.

Chapter 1591: Reversal of Situation

The news about the Emperor Pavilion still continued to spread. It was about to reach the end of the three months and it was very possible for the Emperor Pavilion to leave Lifire City. This caused even more people to be extremely unhappy. A territory would only grow stronger if there were constantly new blood joining it. If everyone acted like how Governor Xia Hou did, in the future, who would still dare to set up a new major power in Lifire City?

In addition, everyone could clearly see Grandmaster Di's capabilities. Many people still wanted to buy the treasures he personally forged. But right now, Grandmaster Di was going to be forced away by Governor Xia Hou, this was naturally something many didn't wish to see. Hence, the scandalous rumors spread even fiercer.

But everything seemed hopeless now, there was no way the situation could be reversed. The three months was about to be up but there was still no news from the governor's manor. In any case, the power wielded by the governor's manor is overwhelming, public opinion alone was unable to affect them. The arrogant Governor Xia Hou wouldn't care at all. In this strength-oriented world, as long as you are powerful enough and have enough authority, so what if others cursed at you? He, Xia Hou, was the king of the central city regions.

If Xia Hou wanted the Emperor Pavilion to disappear then it would disappear. Many of Di Tian's acquaintances even went to the Emperor Pavilion to offer their consolations to Di Tian. There were also major powers inviting him to become a guest elder. Even if his business, the Emperor Pavilion was no longer able to exist, Grandmaster Di Tian was still extremely popular.

But at this moment, the governor's manor actually acted. They used iron-blooded methods and directly captured a group of people. After that, they announced to the central city regions that they had completely captured everyone involved in the matter regarding the Emperor Pavilion and had imprisoned them. They also told the Emperor Pavilion to rest at ease and feel free to reopen. There was no need to worry about future trouble.

After this piece of news from the governor's manor was circulated out, countless people in the central city regions felt a little dumbstruck. This sudden reversal made them completely not understand what was going on.

The governor's manor had compromised?

Amidst the many scoldings and discussions, the governor's manor actually acted finally? They even caught the masterminds and told the Emperor Pavilion to be at ease to go ahead and resume with their business. What was going on?

In addition, these actions taken by the governor's manor were extremely mysterious. They didn't announce who the masterminds were. For this point, many people guessed that the water behind these affairs, must definitely be extremely deep.

But at the very least, this incident could be considered resolved.

The three months deadline was reached and the Emperor Pavilion did reopen. Because of the previous scandalous rumors about the governor's manor, as well as the fact that Di Tian did say that should the Emperor Pavilion manage to reopen he would take out three unique treasures for the auction. Thus, today the Emperor Pavilion was packed to the brim. It was unknown how many experts came. Roughly, the amount of people here was ten times more than what they had when their business was at their peak in the past. This amount of people made those transactors who signed a contract with the Emperor Pavilion to go wild with joy.

The grand supervisor Mo Fei and Mo Junyi were both so busy that they almost couldn't cope. The entire Emperor Pavilion was filled with life and laughter. So it turned out that the governor's manor was intentionally helping the Emperor Pavilion? This was the thought of many in the crowd. If Governor Xia Hou was to learn of this, one could only wonder if he would be so angry as to cough out blood.

Xia Hou's emotions were naturally not so good. Contrasting to the lively atmosphere at the Emperor Pavilion, the atmosphere within the governor's manor felt extremely cold. Other than the governor's manor, the Yan Clan, Han Clan and Wei Clan were extremely unhappy as well. Right now, their clan leaders were gathered in the governor's manor.

"Governor Xia Hou, didn't you say that Di Tian has offended the Lifire Empyrean? Why are you capturing our men?" The Han Clan Leader asked, his tone filled with unhappiness. In the past, they had already gifted Xia Hou with treasures and received his silent approval. But now, Xia Hou actually ordered for the arrest of many of their immortal emperors? What was going on?

"That's right. Governor Xia Hou, we only did so because the governor's manor had approved of it in the past. Now that you are doing this, are you not going too far?" The Wei Clan Leader was also extremely unhappy. They came here today because they wanted to get their immortal emperors back, but Xia Hou actually forbid the three clan leaders from getting their men back. Hence, their tones naturally changed. Although Xia Hou was the central governor and had immense authority and power, they were all from aristocrat clans that had extremely deep foundations. Xia Hou couldn't bully them as he wished.

One must know that in the northern city regions, there already was a Jialan Clan that even the Lifire Empyrean could do nothing about, let alone the governor of a city region. Although these three clans were far inferior to the Jialan Clan, they were after all, still considered ancient aristocrat clans. If they joined forces, Governor Xia Hou would truly face many troubles.

"When did this governor grant you all any silent approval?" Xia Hou's expression turned black upon being questioned like that. His eyes were extremely cold as he stared at the three clan leaders.

The three clan leaders seemed to have felt his anger. Their eyes flashed and almost coughed out blood when they heard that. They clearly remembered that during their meeting then, Xia Hou really didn't express his attitude clearly but as they were leaving, a vice governor came to them and hinted that the governor's manor silently approved of their actions. Although this wasn't something said by Xia Hou, it could be considered a very clear hint, right?

"The tone of you three clan leaders is truly overbearing. If this seat refused to set the immortal emperors free today, are you all planning to act against me?" Xia Hou had a sinister look on his face.

"Lord Governor must have misunderstood. We are only anxious." After the Han Clan Leader started for a moment, his tone turned slightly more harmonious.

"Governor Xia Hou, the people you captured are all immortal emperors. We naturally hope that nothing will happen to them, but we have no intentions of being overly forceful." The Wei Clan Leader spoke.

"Hmph." Xia Hou coldly snorted. "Since you all want the answer so badly, this seat will tell you guys. This matter caused a great deal of commotion that made the Lifire Empyrean extremely unhappy. He wants me to silence all the scandalous rumors so I can only do this and capture your men. I will naturally think of methods to free them but if you three want to force me, don't blame me if I investigate everything to the end."

"This…" The Yan Clan Leader started. Xia Hou was clearly threatening them. The faces of all three clan leaders turned extremely unsightly but they still chose the soft approach, "Lord governor, don't be so hasty. We naturally understand that lord governor will settle this matter. Since this is the case, we will step back and allow you to handle this fully."

Xia Hou didn't say anything. After that, the three clan leaders bid farewell and departed. The moment they exited the governor's manor, their expressions all instantly turned extremely unsightly. Similarly, inside the governor's manor, Xia Hou's eyes flashed with a cold light. He was extremely unhappy about this.

How in the world did Di Tian manage to reverse the situation?

Why would the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor come all the way here to investigate this?

Is it really because of the overwhelming public opinion? Also, the questions asked by the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor were straightforward and to the point, asking if he did follow the palace lord's instruction completely to offer Di Tian a position equivalent to the five governors.

For this to happen, something must be brewing within the shadows.

...

The Emperor Pavilion was growing more and more in terms of popularity. After it reopened, the three aristocrat clans no longer dared to act recklessly. Right now, they were at the center of a storm and the governor's manor kept delaying, refusing to release their subordinates. How would they dare to stir up more trouble? Only after several days did Governor Xia Hou visit the Lifire Palace and ensure that the Lifire Empyrean wouldn't pursue this any longer did he finally secretly release the prisoners.

This matter didn't attract the attention of others. The Emperor Pavilion didn't make a fuss too, as though they have already forgotten it. The Emperor Pavilion naturally understood that it would be the best for them if they could continue developing in peace and quiet.

Also, the Emperor Pavilion further expanded after this matter and recruited many guest elders. In fact, they spared no expenses to recruit talent. Di Tian and Mo Fei believed that as long as their development continued at this pace, they would sooner or later be rewarded by nurturing so many talents. To Di Tian, it didn't matter if he temporarily earned less. What he wanted wasn't brief profit. His sights were set much further into the future.

Hence, Di Tian once again went to the southern city regions to pay a visit to Beauty Xiao. He came by this time around to express his thanks. He naturally wouldn't assume that a serving lady by the side of the Lifire Empyrean would be so free to pay a visit to the central city regions just for him. Clearly, someone was helping him in the shadows.

Di Tian was brought to an elegant-looking room as he waited for Beauty Xiao. After some time, a marvelously attractive figure walked into the room. This was naturally none other than the southern governor, Beauty Xiao.

At this moment, she only had a bathing robe wrapped around her body, obstructing the view of her twin peaks that would cause many to fantasize. However, there was just a simple knot linking her bathing robes together. She was barefooted and showed no restraint, freely revealing her beautiful legs for Di Tian to admire. Clearly, she just finished bathing.

Beauty Xiao exuded a natural fragrance, her slightly wet long hair draped around her shoulders, and her charming smile was truly mesmerizing to the extreme. Di Tian was already sweating, he then spoke, "Do you want me to come again later?"

"You've already seen my current state, what's the point in coming again later?" Beauty Xiao giggled as she stared at Di Tian. "Why? Are the troubles your Emperor Pavilion is facing all settled?"

"Mhm, I came here specially to thank you." Di Tian nodded.

"Oh? How do you want to thank me? Why don't you help me change my clothes?" Beauty Xiao smiled. Di Tian replied, "Beauty Xiao, don't you know that you would cause people to commit crimes by acting the way you are now?"

"Oh? I really want to see how you would commit the crime." Beauty Xiao's smile turned even more charming.

"As long Beauty Xiao is willing, I'm clear that I won't suffer a disadvantage." Di Tian slowly moved forward. Beauty Xiao laughed, "Still the same conditions. Remove your mask for me first. If not, I won't even know what you look like and you would have already seen me naked. I would suffer too much of a disadvantage then."

"Let's forget about it then." Di Tian shook his head. "Beauty, this time the troubles with regards to my business have been resolved. Many thanks, if you need me to do anything for you in the future, you can just directly pass on a message to me. This is my messaging crystal."

Beauty Xiao laughed and sent a strand of her immortal sense in. After that, she took out her own messaging crystal and Di Tian also left his immortal sense inside it.

"I'll bid farewell first. If I keep looking at you, I might not be able to control myself." Di Tian laughed. After that, he turned and departed. Beauty Xiao's smile grew even more charming, she has never met someone so interesting before. This fellow, what did he look like exactly?

"Qin Wentian of the northern city regions, Di Tian of the central city regions. Both their names have the character 'Tian.' How interesting. Before this, I was only interested in Qin Wentian but right now, that fellow is so low-profile that it's frightening. To think that a fellow like Di Tian would appear in Xia Hou's central city regions. The situation in this Lifire City is definitely going to be extremely interesting in the future."

Beauty Xiao mumbled to herself, unconsciously comparing Qin Wentian and Di Tian. Qin Wentian was famous due to his exceptional combat prowess, able to slaughter his way into the Jialan Emperor Palace and fight against many peak-stage immortal emperors.

As for Di Tian, he was famous because of his capabilities in formations and weaponsmithing. He was able to forge high-grade emperor-ranked weapons with ease.

Between these two, which of them would be the more interesting one?

Chapter 1592: Nibblesun Mine

After this calamity, the Emperor Pavilion was completely revived, their popularity shot up through the roof and Di Tian's fame grew even further due to the rumors surrounding the governor's manor. Right now, there was no one in Lifire City that didn't know of the Emperor Pavilion. As time flowed by, the Emperor Pavilion's development also grew stronger and stronger.

The people in the central city regions all predicted that another brand new supreme power would soon rise up. In addition, they rose up by relying on their transaction grounds and had no aristocrat clan acting as their backing. There was only one man supporting this, he was Grandmaster Di Tian.

Time flowed by, the Emperor Pavilion expanded again and more and more experts joined it. Their territory grew by ten times, and right now, when one stared down from the sky, they could see rows of majestic buildings dotting the landscape which was controlled by the Emperor Pavilion. The human flow was endless and many people came here to participate in transactions. The atmosphere was extremely lively, but the events that drew the most people, were undoubtedly the auctions held there.

Currently, countless people came to the Emperor Pavilion daily to seek out treasures.

Today, Di Tian was walking through the transaction grounds and he had a faint smile on his face underneath the mask when he saw the bustling crowd. He also didn't expect the development to go this well. In just a few short ten years, the Emperor Pavilion had already reached this scale. In fact, he could already stand equal to some auctions organized by peak powers in the central city regions. The popularity of his business wasn't inferior to the Han and Wei Clan's auctions.

"During these years, it has been tough on you and the grand supervisor." Di Tian spoke in a light voice. There was a beautiful woman walking beside him, it was none other than Mo Junyi.

During these years, the main operations were run by Mo Fei with Mo Junyi as an assistant. As for himself, he spent the majority of his time on cultivation and weaponsmithing. He wasn't really involved in the management or operations.

"Don't need to thank me. If you are not at the back supporting the Emperor Pavilion, it would be impossible for the Emperor Pavilion to have developed up till this scale today." Mo Junyi smiled. Her beautiful eyes had a hint of reverence in them when she looked at Di Tian. She was truly impressed by him. Right now, the divine weapons forged by Di Tian wasn't restricted merely to sealing-types. There would occasionally be other unique divine weapons forged, all these would maintain the anticipation of the customers with regards to their Emperor Pavilion's auctions.

That rule set by Di Tian in the past, the strategy of auctioning high-grade emperor-ranked weapons periodically, was extraordinarily effective.

"Hahaha, I left all the hard work to you two." Di Tian self-mockingly laughed.

"Don't forget, back then those years ago when our Emperor Pavilion encountered danger and was about to close down, we actually reversed the situation when everyone felt that we were helpless. Although I don't know what you did, but you pulled strongly against a crazy tide and we managed to find a path of survival in the end. I'm sure that the serving lady of the Lifire Empyrean came here because of your efforts." Mo Junyi laughed. After that incident, she and Mo Fei had many guests but they still couldn't be sure of what Di Tian did exactly.

"Alright, you guys should stop overly praising me. Let's hope the business of our Emperor Pavilion will be better and better." Di Tian smiled.

...

The Lifire Palace, was one of the nine world-palaces within the Lifelong Realm. Under the Lifire Empyrean, there were still nine monarchs helping to manage the territories as well as to control the cultivation resources.

However, the Lifire Palace itself also directly controlled some cultivation mines. In addition, the ones under their control were the most important ones, much higher grade compared to those under the nine monarchs control. If not, the Lifire Empyrean wouldn't have bothered to control them.

The Nibblesun Mine was one of the main mines under the direct control of the Lifire Palace. The Lifire Empyrean would only use those he trusted to supervise the collection when the mine opened. The Nibblesun Mine was located within a mountain range at about ten thousand miles away from the border of Lifire City. The landscape here was extremely complex and the entire mountain range was heavily guarded with many protective formations. If there were people who dared to barge in, they would definitely die without a burial place. Just the power of the formations alone was sufficient to ensure that immortal emperors can enter, but they cannot exit.

As for bandits, even for those supreme great bandits, they didn't dare to casually make a move against the Nibblesun Mine. Not only were the defensive fortifications extremely strong, there was also teleportation arrays connected to the Lifire Palace. Bandits who dared to target this place were simply courting death.

Also, despite the strong defensive aspects, there were also many immortal emperors acting as guards here. The leader of the guards was someone that the Lifire Empyrean had absolute trust in, he was the Lifire Empyrean's wife's younger brother.

In the mountain range, there naturally were also secret spatial gates that led directly into the mine.

The airspace above the Nibblesun Mine was like a stretch of starry skies, flowing with terrifying law energy. The entire atmosphere was tinged a dark red and radiated heat. The temperature here was very high and could be considered extremely dangerous because only characters who were immortal kings or stronger were permitted to enter here.

If one stood in the air and glanced downwards, they could see a vast dark red ground with black flames occasionally appearing from the earth. There would also be frequent bursts of resplendent light that shot up into the skies. These were all emperor lights, the indication that emperor-ranked stones had appeared.

In this mine, emperor-ranked stones were considered common. Nothing was rare about them appearing.

Currently, Qin Wentian was in the air space above the Nibblesun Mine.

The Nibblesun Mine wasn't the same as the mines controlled by the Jialan Monarch, where one could only enter once every ten years to collect the harvest. This mine was opened once every year because the resources within were simply too valuable. The yearly harvest had an extremely terrifying value and no mistakes were permitted to occur. Hence, Qin Wentian need not worry about missing the once-per-ten-years tribute collection gathering at the Lifire Palace even if he came here.

In truth, during these tens of years, other than using iron-blooded methods to slay the three vice governors, he was extremely low profile in all other aspects. There were even people saying that he was the same as the past governors, mediocre and only wanted to live out his tenure peacefully as he didn't want the Jialan Clan to make trouble for him. This was why he was constantly in closed-door seclusion within his governor's manor.

In truth, he did spend the vast majority of his time and effort on his cultivation during these tens of years but it wasn't completely true that he spent all his time in closed-door seclusion. He would often head out to temper himself. This was precisely the reason why he was here today, he wanted to enter the Nibblesun Mine as today was the opening day. Naturally, he didn't come here with his true identity, he was using a false one.

Right now, he was walking about in the airspace above the mine. Whenever he saw the bursts of emperor light, he would speed there to seize the emperor-ranked stones. His entire being radiated an extremely cold aura.

"Mhm?" At this moment, Qin Wentian felt something. He inclined his head and glanced in a direction only to see a resplendent beam of light shooting up into the sky. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed and shot through space with incredible speed as he soon arrived at the area.

The beam of light was dark red, but it was extremely bright. Up ahead, he could see a piece of dark-red stone that was absorbing the essence of the heavens and earth. This was none other than the source of light he spotted earlier. The power of the terrifying light it emitted was enough to destroy everything, akin to energy currents flowing from hell.

More and more experts moved towards this direction but they all maintained a respectful distance from it as no one dared to get near. Those who approached the stone earlier, had all already turned into dust.

"BOOM!" A powerful immortal emperor stepped out, moving towards the zone of destruction where the dark-red stone lay in the center. A tyrannical burst of law energy enveloped his body as he resembled an indestructible rock. Emperor light cascaded unceasingly from the sky. He brimmed with confidence and moved closer and closer to the stone.

With a flash of light, the dark-red glow from the stone shone against his indestructible body of laws. A strange projection of a dark-red flower imprint immediately appeared, piercing right through his body. That immortal emperor roared in pain and wanted to retreat, but how could he still have a chance to escape? The flames produced from the dark-red glow instantly shrouded him. In a mere instant, black smoke rose up into the air. The body of the immortal emperor had already vanished completely.

Nobody dared to get any closer. They were all staring at that dark-red stone as though it was a devil.

Qin Wentian also had a face full of shock. Was this a supreme mine in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? Many unusual treasures would be born occasionally, so terrifying that it caused people to despair. An immortal emperor expert that has cultivated for countless years actually couldn't even be compared to a single stone. He was destroyed so easily.

"It must be an empyrean stone!" Someone at the side spoke as his heart pounded rapidly.

Qin Wentian's gaze was filled with heat. He had to obtain that for sure.

However, this terrifying treasure clearly would cause even interspatial rings to melt from the heat. How could he obtain it?

There was an expert who blasted out a palm imprint, wanting to use law energy as a coating to take the stone away. However, the palm imprint instantly got destroyed the moment it neared the stone.

With an intention of his will, spatial energy gushed forth from Qin Wentian, moving towards the reddish zone of destruction around the supreme emperor stone. He wanted to separate the stone from its surroundings but the moment his spatial energy got into contact with the stone, it was also directly dissipated.

More and more experts gathered in the airspace above the mine. These people were the guards of the Nibblesun Mine and they were all clad in dark-red armor, appearing extremely imposing. There were immortal emperors whose eyes glowed with a terrifying light.

"Should we inform the outside?" Someone asked.

"Let's try to get the empyrean stone first. If we are unable to do so, it wouldn't be too late to inform the palace lord." The man in the lead had a sharp expression on his face. He stared at the terrifying zone of destruction that seemed akin to an apocalypse. The reddish light from the zone around the stone continuously expanded, corroding everything. Such a stone was extremely tough to obtain, only existences on the level of the Lifire Empyrean would have the qualifications to enjoy such cultivation resources. For people like them, they couldn't even tell what was the grade of this stone!

Chapter 1593: Great Commotion in the Northern City Regions

Qin Wentian stared ahead. The entire surroundings had turned into a dark-red hell with red liquid flowing about, corroding the mine. If he lowered his head and looked, the surroundings began to look like an ocean of blood that radiated a terrifying aura of destruction.

"Seems like the area around the stone has long been scorched and burned," Qin Wentian mumbled. He then asked, "Is this empyrean stone recently discovered? How could the energy that it radiated go undiscovered before this?"

"Empyrean stones need unique conditions before they form. If we compare them to humans, it's akin to breaking through from the emperor realm to the next level. Since the stone broke through to the empyrean-rank, this was why it unleashed such a terrifying aura of destruction. As for before, it most likely hasn't completed its evolution yet." An immortal emperor at the side explained, his eyes staring ahead.

"This should be the reason why many supreme characters refused to excavate everything in a mine in one shot, choosing to proceed slowly instead." Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Mine stones are able to absorb the essence of the heavens and earth and they would gradually evolve, how truly wondrous.

"In that case, this stone should have no fate with us, right?" Qin Wentian asked in a low voice.

"The attacks unleashed by this empyrean-ranked stone are too powerful. No immortal emperors can bring it away." An expert by the side nodded. Qin Wentian didn't say anything, he found a spot and sat down while extending his immortal sense outwards, quietly contemplating the energy radiating from the empyrean stone. He didn't try to take it, although his strength was extraordinary, Qin Wentian didn't feel that his power would be stronger compared to all the immortal emperors here. Such a destructive force was something he still cannot come in contact with.

He quietly contemplated the wondrous energy for very long, even after a year has passed, the Lifire Empyrean didn't appear here, allowing the empyrean stone to unleash its startling aura. To an empyrean, he had too many places under his control. Even when such a special stone appeared, it wasn't sufficient to warrant him coming personally. If this was the case, wouldn't he be very busy and not have any time to cultivate himself?

Although empyrean stones were rare, they would still occasionally appear. As long as the Lifire Empyrean knew about it, he would just get someone to record it down and come in the future to take a batch of empyrean stones away.

Qin Wentian continued to stay in the Nibblesun Mine for many years before he eventually left. Although he could only take 10% of his harvest away, it was still considered quite a fortune. Naturally, this can't be compared to the amount of resources gained by Di Tian. By excavating mines, one had to pick up stones piece by piece and even might have to encounter life-threatening danger. How could that be compared to a steady business ran by a grandmaster in formations and weaponsmithing? However, to Qin Wentian, the important thing wasn't excavating, but rather to temper himself and gain more experience.

He silently returned to the northern governor's manor. This manor that has been desolate for over tens of years, was as quiet as ever. It felt like a non-existent entity and it was gradually neglected and disregarded by many major powers in the northern city regions. The influence and authority the northern governor's manor held was just too weak, so weak that even some small powers refused to comply with the tribute collection. Even when they personally went to knock on the doors of the various powers, it was also difficult for them to collect any tribute. The name of the governor's manor naturally remained, but in reality, it no longer had any prestige.

Right now, the tribute collection day that occurred once every ten years arrived again. However, the governor's manor was completely empty, no one came to take the initiative to pay the tribute. It was so quiet that the atmosphere felt tense. However, the people of the governor's manor had long grown used to this.

Right now, within the file room of the governor's manor, Qin Wentian silently read through a few scrolls. He then glanced at the butler beside him, as well as the serving girls and the Evil Emperor.

"All these should have been settled. There are no mistakes, right?" Qin Wentian asked.

"There are no mistakes. During these years, according to sir's orders, we probed and investigated in the dark. Because the various major powers no longer feel any wariness towards our governor's manor, their actions grew more and more audacious and there were holes everywhere as they failed to cover up properly. This is why we can easily check up on everything the Ancient River Auction House is up to." The butler replied.

"It's not that they are not wary of us. More accurately, they completely disregard the existence of our governor's manor.," Qin Wentian laughed, seemingly self-mockingly. However, the butler's heart couldn't help but to tremble when he looked at that handsome face.

During these years, it was very rare for him to interact with Qin Wentian. This new governor who took over, other than the time when he used iron-blooded methods to kill the then three vice governors, it was very rare for Qin Wentian to show up in his vision. But everytime Qin Wentian showed up, he gave off an intense pressure and the butler would always vividly recall the deaths of the three vice governors in the past. Such a character actually kept a low-profile for so many years and he simultaneously ordered people to gather information about the dark deeds and current net worth of the various major powers. The moment when he acted, the moment when he erupted forth, what sort of situation would it be?

The butler shivered when he imagined this. Most probably, there would be many people that would be unlucky soon. They might even see blood painting their respective territories red.

"The loopholes are the most obvious when it comes to the Ancient River Auction House. Evil Emperor, what do you say if we use them to show our might?" Qin Wentian's voice was low, like he was speaking about an insignificant matter. The butler's heart pounded even more violently when he heard that. He spoke out in a low voice, "Governor, the major power behind the Ancient River Auction Hall is very terrifying, their true owners might even be the Jialan Clan."

"Did I ask you a question?" Qin Wentian's eyes swept over to the butler, causing him to shiver in fear. He kept quiet as his body trembled, not daring to say anything more.

"If we act against the Ancient River Auction House, we can truly save ourselves some trouble. The other powers will be able to see it as well and we don't need to waste time to act against the smaller ones one by one." The Evil Emperor nodded lightly, agreeing with Qin Wentian's point of view.

"Get vice governor Xu Li to gather his men and move out." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The heart of the poor butler trembled even fiercer, Qin Wentian was truly going to act?

"Right." The Evil Emperor didn't say anything more and turned about as he departed.

...

The Ancient River Auction House is an extremely large auction house situated in the northern city regions. This auction house was already in 'mature' development. There were many transaction buildings in the area and a large number of people would come here to trade every day.

"Look, the people of the governor's manor are here again." At this moment, someone stared in a direction where a group of experts wearing the governor's manor's uniforms could be seen moving over.

"I almost forget that the tribute collection day is here. These people from the governor's manor are so useless usually, but they actually put in so much effort when it comes to tribute collection day?" Someone laughed.

"Well, they only have this little bit of capabilities. Even their governor Qin Wentian is keeping a low profile now, what can the others do? Qin Wentian must have been frightened silly by that soul slaying needle years ago."

The crowd mumbled to themselves. Just as they were speaking, vice governor Xu Li brought his men and came over. Their eyes flashed with coldness and soon arrived before a transaction pavilion. The boss of this pavilion smiled at Xu Li, after that, his gaze swept to other directions, completely disregarding Xu Li, treating him like air.

Xu Li entered the pavilion and calmly spoke, "The governor's manor is here to collect the tribute."

"Vice governor Xu, we have not prepared fully yet. Can you give us some time to gather the resources and temporarily head to the Ancient River Auction House to collect first?" The boss of this transaction pavilion smiled. Many in the surroundings were stifling their laughter when they heard that. Go and collect from the Ancient River

Auction House first? When did the governor's manor ever dare to do such a thing? They had never done so throughout all these years.

"This is the criterion. In the past, your transaction pavilion was classified as a fourth-tier power but recently, you all have been expanding and can now be considered a third-tier power. According to the tribute collection standards, you have to pay the tax up immediately." Xu Li took out a piece of paper as he placed it in front of the boss.

The boss's gaze froze, his smile also turned stiff. He lowered his head and stared at the notice for him to pay tribute. The difference between a third-tier and a fourth-tier power's tribute collection, was roughly ten times in terms of the numbers.

"Vice governor Xu, what is the meaning of this?" The expression of the pavilion's boss face turned cold, he was extremely unhappy.

"Pay up immediately." Xu Li couldn't be bothered to waste words. He directly spoke with a tone of ice.

"During the past ten years, my transaction pavilion has encountered plenty of troubles but I have never disturbed the governor's manor before as we handled it ourselves. The scale of our business also didn't change, why does vice governor Xu wish to classify us as a third-tier power suddenly? Isn't this somewhat inappropriate?" The boss coldly spoke.

Xu Li waved his hand and his subordinates stepped forward, directly surrounding the boss. The boss's expression instantly turned extremely unsightly. Xu Li continued with a glacial tone, "I'll give you an incense worth of time. If you still refuse to pay your share of tribute, we will seal this entire transaction pavilion."

"You…" That boss pointed at Xu Li in anger. His body trembled due to how infuriated he was. This Xu Li clearly came here prepared. Was the governor's manor planning to use him to establish their dominance?

His eyes glanced at the various major powers near his transaction pavilion. At this moment, many people felt that something strange was going on. Other than Xu Li, the other two vice governors were doing the same thing at two other transaction pavilions as well, demanding that they pay the tribute.

Many experts speed over, observing the situation. Something strange was definitely going on.

The Ancient River Auction House was right in front of these transaction pavilions. Flows of humans came and went, and the atmosphere was very lively. At this moment, many people from the auction house crowded over, staring at the situation with interest. What was going on with the governor's manor? Seems like something big was about to happen.

Only to see an immortal emperor exiting the Ancient River Auction House. He brought some subordinates with him and glanced around before asking, "What's going on?"

"Old He, these people from the governor's manor actually want to classify us as a higher-tier power, we have to pay ten times more tribute." One of the pavilion's bosses spoke to that immortal emperor.

"Vice governor Xu, these transaction pavilions exist only because they depend on my Ancient River Auction House. If you all make such a big commotion, you will undoubtedly affect my auction house's business." That old man spoke in an unhappy tone.

Xu Li turned his gaze over and didn't say anything. And at this moment, a group of experts flew through the air as a burst of power flooded the area. The man in the lead was actually none other than the Evil Emperor.

Upon seeing the group of experts all wearing the governor's manor uniform, at this moment, everyone could definitely tell that something big was going to happen.

Was the governor's manor planning to deal with the Ancient River Auction House today?

"What does the governor's manor mean by this?" Old He's gaze turned chilly as he coldly spoke. Could it be that they were really planning to make a move against his auction house?

Chapter 1594: Blood Flowing, Dying the Ground Red

At this moment, the Evil Emperor was in human form. He stepped out and moved towards Old He. "Today is the tribute collection period. A few months later, Governor Qin will head to the Lifire Palace to pass it. We are naturally here to collect what you ought to pay up."

"Collecting tributes?" Old He coldly laughed. He stared at the Evil Emperor. "How many things has the governor's manor done for the northern city regions? A customer of my auction house was killed and his treasures plundered, there were even cases of people making trouble before. I've also sought help from the governor's manor but when did the governor's manor ever do anything for me?"

"That's right. It's one thing that the governor's manor refuses to be concerned for our matters, you guys are actually putting in so much effort when it comes to collecting resources from us? Also, my transaction pavilion has always paid up on time but right now, your governor's manor reclassified us as a third-tier power, this means that we need to pay ten times more tributes. What do you mean by this? Are you guys intentionally making things difficult for us?" The pavilion boss where Xu Li was speaking to, coldly spoke now.

With the Ancient River Auction House at their backs, this boss was naturally extremely confident.

"That's right, it's the same for my place too. I really want to know on what grounds are the governor's manor forcing us to pay ten times more tax. Even the Lifire Empyrean would understand us." Another boss from the other transaction pavilion spoke loudly. More and more experts gathered here. After all, these were an extremely popular transaction grounds. Now that such an incident occurred, a chain reaction naturally would easily happen. All the experts in the surroundings stopped by to spectate.

Some were merely watching a show, there were others mocking the governor's manor, standing on the side of the Ancient River Auction House and planned to join forces with them to resist the pressure from the governor's manor.

"Understand you?"

Xu Li walked up, his eyes flickering with coldness. "Governor Qin has been benevolent, to care for your business, he always tries not to collect tributes whenever he could, letting you all be exempted. Has the Ancient River Auction House paid up even once during these tens of years? However, do you know that when Governor Qin was in the Lifire Palace for the tribute transfer, he has to stand up to the questioning of the other governors and he had to do so alone. You bunch of thankless wretches actually felt that it's your privilege?"

"Hahaha…" Everyone started laughing when they heard Xu Li's words.

"Qin Wentian is benevolent?" Zhang Kuang, another pavilion boss laughed out loud. "A figure who domineeringly killed three of his vice governors when he just assumed office but was scared off into hiding after a single battle. You actually say that he is benevolent? You are making my teeth fall out from laughter."

The Evil Emperor's gaze turned cold as he turned to stare at the person who was speaking. It was a young immortal king from the Ancient River Auction House. He stood beside a powerful immortal emperor as he laughed blatantly.

"Openly slandering his excellency. According to the rules of the city, what punishment does he deserve?" The Evil Emperor stood in the air as he asked.

"He will be whipped." Someone behind answered. The Evil Emperor then waved his hand, "Capture him."

Numerous experts stepped out, all of them from the governor's manor and surrounded the opponents, preparing to capture that immortal king.

"IMPUDENT!" Old He's eyes grew cold as his emperor might gushed forth. His thunderous voice caused the hearts of everyone to tremble. He stepped forward, as though he was intending to block a thousand soldiers with himself alone as he icily spoke, "What place does the governor's manor treat this to be? Disrupting my business in this manner, is this something the governor's manor ought to do?"

"You dare to obstruct our governor's manor from executing our duties?" The jade-green eyes of the Evil Emperor stared at him.

"What a good sentence, saying that we want to obstruct the governor's manor from executing their duties." At this moment, numerous figures walked out from the auction house. They were all experts at the immortal emperor realm. There were so many of them that it caused the crowd to silently sigh with admiration, musing that the Ancient River Auction House was truly wealthy and was indeed one of the largest auction houses in the northern city regions. The number of immortal emperors they had wasn't any fewer compared to the governor's manor.

The moment they came out, powerful waves of might engulfed the surroundings, as they stood in opposition to those from the governor's manor.

"This old man has never heard of such a rule before. If casually having an opinion about the governor means that one has to be whipped, I wonder how many people in the northern city regions ought to be whipped. Do you not know how people are evaluating Governor Qin out there? Also, which of the words these people spoke are false?" An old man at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm coldly spoke. He was one of the leaders of the Ancient River Auction House.

"The governor of each region can freely add rules if they want to. This is undoubtedly a rule by the northern governor's manor. If you have any questions, you can head to the Lifire Palace and consult the palace lord. If anyone dares to obstruct us again, the punishment won't be a simple whipping anymore." Xu Li sinisterly spoke.

This Ancient River Auction House was truly domineering, they actually brought out so many immortal emperors to stand in opposition to the governor's manor.

Seems like the governor's manor has been too low profile for too many years. These people only had complete disregard for them. If not, no matter how strong they are, they would dare to act like this openly. One mustn't forget that behind the governor's manor, it was the Lifire Palace backing it up. The entire Lifire City was the territory of the Lifire Palace.

The atmosphere was tense, it felt like a loud sound could set off a series of unstoppable eruptions. Although there were countless people in the crowd, all of them were extremely quiet now. They were all silently observing the situation. The governor's manor abruptly came by and was clearly extremely unified, exuding imposingness. They came with unkind intentions for sure. The Ancient River Auction House wasn't willing to show weakness and directly challenged the governor's manor publicly.

"Fine." The voice of the old man turned cold. "Even if this is a rule of the governor's manor. I want to ask, which of the words spoken by the immortal king is considered slandering the lord governor? A person that killed three of his vice governors the moment he assumed office...don't forget that he was once a bandit. He gave you bandits official positions the moment he took over to consolidate his strength. Is this considered slander too? Don't tell me everyone in the northern regions cannot have their own opinions and speak out regarding Governor Qin's actions."

"Well spoken. How can such words be considered slander? They are nothing but the truth." One of the transaction pavilion's bosses spoke confidently as he laughed coldly. He wanted to see how the governor's manor would get off the stage today.

These people really felt that the northern city regions were the territory of the governor's manor. Ultimately, the Jialan Clan still had the greatest authority here. Only the Jialan Clan could control everything and the Ancient River Auction House's backer was none other than the Jialan Clan. Since the governor's manor wanted to make things difficult for them, they shall teach the governor's manor a lesson today.

Xu Li frowned, his gaze was extremely cold. But at this moment, a calm voice rang out, "He naturally did slander me."

This voice abruptly rang out, causing the eyes of people here to flash as they stared in its direction. They only saw the group of experts from the governor's manor now splitting into two rows as they shifted to the left and right respectively, opening up a pathway. From this, one could see how high the status of the person walking right in the center was.

Although he was held in contempt by the outside world for many years, but no one in the governor's manor dared to show him the slightest disrespect given how domineering he was when he killed the three vice governors back then.

The current governor Qin Wentian, has he finally appeared?

Many people stared at him. To the northern city regions, many people have never seen how Qin Wentian looked like before. Right now, they only saw an extremely handsome figure radiating a wondrous light that filled them with a sense of holiness. Regardless of males or females, people from both genders couldn't help but to praise silently in admiration. What a good-looking fellow with such an extraordinary aura.

He slowly stepped out, moving towards the front of the crowd. Even for the Evil Emperor and Xu Li, both of them retreated to the side, allowing him to walk to the front.

"We pay our respects to lord governor." Many of the experts from the governor's manor bowed as they greeted, their voices as one and their tones solemn. In just an instant, the hearts of many people involuntarily trembled. Was this Qin Wentian?

"Governor Qin?" The old man from the Ancient River Auction House continued standing in the air, he had the appearance of peering down with disdain at those below him.

"That's right." Qin Wentian replied.

"This old man wants to seek guidance. How can his words be considered slander?" The eyes of the old man flashed with sharpness, staring at Qin Wentian.

"He said that this seat was so scared that I went into hiding, not daring to come out. But now, isn't this seat here?" Qin Wentian slowly spoke.

"Hehe." That old man laughed, he stared at Qin Wentian as he spoke, "His words mostly can only constitute disrespect, it isn't equal to slandering you. Sir, you are the governor of the north, wouldn't people take you for a joke if you started saying that they are slandering you due to a few disrespectful words?"

"Since you put it this way, I can forget about it." Qin Wentian smiled casually as though he didn't mind it at all. He continued. "However, your auction house obstructed my governor's manor from tribute collection. What do you mean by this?

"In addition, my purpose here today, is to collect tribute from your Ancient River Auction House."

"It's only natural for the governor's manor to collect tributes. It's just that these transaction pavilions are dependent on my auction house for their survival and their income and profit isn't high at all. Now, the governor's manor wants them to pay ten times their normal tax? How can they bear this? As for my auction house, there has been so many troublesome incidents that happened during the years but did the governor's manor do anything for me? Lord governor wouldn't not understand, right?"

The two of them sounded very calm, with no hints of anger in their voices at all.

"During these years, I am apologetic that the governor's manor had no major accomplishments. Hence, this seat came here today. Other than to collect tribute, I have one more purpose and that is to investigate all those 'accidents' and 'incidents' that happened those years ago. Next, I will be conducting a stringent check, please pardon and bear with us." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. He then continued, "Spread this seat's order, immediately seal the Ancient River Auction House, we will conduct a full-scale investigation before we unseal it. Other than those customers who are here for the auction, all internal personnel of the Ancient River Auction House cannot leave. You all will stay here and cooperate with my investigations. For those who defy the order, you will be summarily executed.

This calm voice was like a shocking bolt of thunder. Many people felt their minds trembling as their hearts pounded.

Those who defied orders shall be executed?

This voice reverberated through the air, the calmness within it contained an unquestionable authority, exuding Qin Wentian's dominance.

The people of the governor's manor felt their blood coursing through their veins intensely. At this moment, they couldn't help but to recall the scene where Qin Wentian killed the three vice governors back then. His aura was infectious - whoever blocked him, shall die.

"Qin Wentian." That old man coldly snorted.

"How dare you. Who dares to act?" Staring at the experts from the governor's manor rushing into the auction house, Old He directly sped over, wanting to block them.

"Qin Wentian, do you know what you are doing?!" Old He raged. However, he only saw a pair of cold eyes looking right at him. A resplendent beam of sword light erupted forth, causing Old He to scream in pain as his eyes bled. After that, another beam of sword light shot out, beheading Old He. In just an instant, his head was lopped off as his blood caused the surrounding ground to be dyed red!

Chapter 1595: State of Mutual Hostility

Old He's corpse landed on the ground, his head separated from his body. Countless gazes turned over, all of their hearts trembling as they stared with terror on their faces at this sudden scene.

Qin Wentian acted directly, slaying an immortal emperor.

"Little He!" That old man who was one of the auction house's leaders cried, staring at the ground dyed red with blood. His eyes flashed with terrifying killing intent. Many experts from the auction house stepped forward, staring at Old He's corpse as their intent to fight soared up into the sky.

Qin Wentian actually dared to kill? How the hell did he get the guts to do this?

The spectators around were all frightened silly. This was especially so for the transaction pavilion owners. Right now, it was like cold water was being poured onto them as they instantly awoke. They finally understood what level of conflict this was. And as for them, were they even qualified to participate in this?

Old He was an immortal emperor from the Ancient River Auction House, yet Qin Wentian killed him just like that, without even wasting words. Old He wanted to obstruct the people from the governor's manor, but Qin Wentian reacted instantly, in proof of his earlier words. Those who defied orders shall be executed!

Although they were the owners of the transaction pavilions, what do they count for? Qin Wentian even dared to kill Old He and did so in the face of the Ancient River Auction House. Right now, how could they still not understand that the governor's manor was planning to make a move on the Ancient River Auction House, using them as an example to warn the people of the northern city regions. Just when everyone was gradually forgetting about the existence of Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian appeared.

When everyone felt that the governor's manor was a symbol of uselessness, the people from the governor's manor actually came in such a domineering manner to the Ancient River Auction House.

"Everyone from the governor's manor listen up. Immediately execute my orders, those who dare to obstruct us from our investigation, execute them directly." Qin Wentian barked out another command, his tone much heavier compared to earlier.

"Yes, governor." The experts from the governor's manor replied together. During these years, although they feared Qin Wentian, they all knew that many people looked down on their governor's manor outside. Their reputation was very low, the other governor's manors in the other regions were all extremely imposing. Only their northern governor's manor was severely lacking, everyone dared to antagonize them and when they collect tribute every ten years, it felt like they were begging the powers to pay up instead of the powers voluntarily paying. Not only so, these powers in the northern regions also liked to make things difficult for them.

They had long suppressed this breath of resentment for way too long, over tens of years. Now, their lord governor was finally going to act. When they smelled the scent of blood, they understood that when they saw Qin Wentian killing the three vice governors long ago, he was nothing but a beast in human form. Although he had remained low-profile for many years, he finally revealed his sharp claws and fangs.

The experts from the auction house turned their gazes to the old man, one of the leaders of the auction house. At this moment, the old man looked exceptionally calm. He merely glanced at the corpse on the ground before coldly speaking, "Let them investigate."

Evidently, he also understood that Qin Wentian was truly making a move against them. If they obstructed him, it meant that their auction house wanted war.

In addition, the other party had sufficient reason to do this. As for the Ancient River Auction House, they had already sent out hidden messages to their allies for help but none of their allies arrived yet. Even if they wanted a war, they had to first ensure they had more experts on their side. Currently, Qin Wentian's forces were stronger and they would lose for sure if they clashed head-on. At that time, they would already have lost their lives, what would be the point for everything else then?

Hence, what they needed to do now, was to endure.

Their faces were filled with rage, as they clenched their fists. The experts from the auction house wanted nothing more than to slaughter their way over but they didn't do so and all chose to obey the old man's order.

The old man didn't hide any of his actions. He took out his messaging crystal in front of Qin Wentian and sent a strand of his immortal sense within. Everyone understood what he was trying to do. Qin Wentian naturally understood as well but he simply watched quietly.

Today, it was useless no matter who came.

The various immortal emperors from the governor's manor, chained up and lock several important locations of the Ancient River Auction House. The experts from the governor's manor then entered and began their search. Qin Wentian and the Evil Emperor stood outside, calmly watching everything.

"Governor Qin, my Ancient River Auction House is still considered to have some status in the northern city regions. By doing this, have you thought about the consequences?" The old man calmly asked, his eyes staring at Qin Wentian after he sent the message.

"Isn't the Ancient River Auction House the one who wanted this seat to investigate all those 'incidents' years ago? Now that this seat is doing so, you actually say such a thing. What do you mean by this exactly?" Qin Wentian stood with his hands behind his back, coldly looking at the old man.

"Governor Qin truly knows how to act. Everyone knows that you were once a bandit and also understand why you were put in this governor's position. Hence, I honestly recommend that before the governor's manor does anything, you guys best think of the consequences or be prepared." The old man continued, his tone was calm and wasn't filled with anger at all. Yet, even so, there was no denying that his words were extremely threatening.

A cold light flashed through Qin Wentian's eyes. Threatening him? Very well.

Very swiftly, a person was escorted by the governor manor's guards outwards. This was a peak-stage immortal emperor. He icily stared at Qin Wentian as he asked, "Lord governor, what do you mean by this?"

Qin Wentian swept his glance over but he didn't say anything. He quietly continued waiting.

After that, more and more people were escorted out by the guards. Upon seeing this scene, the face of the old man finally changed as a strange light flashed through his eyes.

So it turned out that the governor's manor has planned for this day for a very long time.

Today, they truly came prepared.

From afar, more and more experts came over. Gradually, the area around the Ancient River Auction House was filled to the brim, there were crowds standing both on the ground and in the air.

Although the Ancient River Auction House was a major auction house in the northern city regions, its human flow had never been as high as it was today.

The governor's manor has been keeping a low-profile for so many years but the instant they acted, they were making a move against the Ancient River Auction House whose backer was the Jialan Clan. How could this fail to attract attention? Also, this seemingly affected the benefits and interests of various major powers. After all, in the past tens of years, it was very rare for people to pay their tributes. Hence, this had another meaning in it. Many people wanted to see what changes would this current situation evoke.

In the air, there were a few major powers who arrived with many experts. There were even several immortal emperors among them, including peak-stage ones. They directly stood beside the Ancient River Auction House the moment they arrived and the location they were at was the closest to the center of the storm. All of them were staring balefully at the people from the governor's manor.

Clearly, these people came with unkind intentions.

However, Qin Wentian didn't even incline his head to look at them. He stood with his arms behind his back and quietly stood there. He even closed his eyes as though in meditation. That handsome face was extremely attractive and many young female cultivators all had bright light flashing through their eyes as they stared at him with admiration.

Young, strong, handsome, iron-blooded methods. It has been many years since the northern city regions saw such a dazzling governor.

Finally, after many experts of the auction house were escorted out by the guards, the people from the governor's manor returned to their original positions. The old man from the Ancient River Auction House coldly spoke, "Lord governor, what are you planning to do exactly?"

"Evil Emperor, I'll hand them to you." Qin Wentian's eyes remained close as he spoke.

"Mhm." The Evil Emperor nodded. His eyes flared with a strange light as he took a step forward.

"Hold on." The old man roared. "Lord governor, what do you want the Evil Emperor to do?"

"I naturally want to investigate the incidents." Qin Wentian replied.

"Investigate? Then why must you capture the people of my auction house?" The old man coldly asked.

"Maybe, all of them have some problems but your auction house didn't discover anything. Since my governor's manor said that we would investigate the incidents that happened those years ago, we will naturally put in our best efforts to do so. Why are you trying to obstruct me?" Qin Wentian opened his eyes as a resplendent light shot out. This light was sharper compared to swords and directly shot into the eyes of the old man.

The old man felt his heart shaking but he icily continued, "Qin Wentian, don't go too overboard."

"Evil Emperor." Qin Wentian disregarded the old man. He waved his hand, the Evil Emperor's eyes gleamed even brighter with a green light as he stared into the eyes of one of the captives. The eyes of the person reflected the green light as his expression turned wooden, like he was in a daze.

"Twenty years ago, do you know anything about the incidents of plundering and robbery that happened to the Ancient River Auction House?" The Evil Emperor asked.

"I know." That person nodded as he replied.

"Tell me the exact details." The Evil Emperor spoke.

"The date of tribute collection had almost arrived then. In order to avoid paying tribute, our auction house put up a grand show." That person replied.

"Shut up!" That old man screamed, his voice like a thunderbolt, causing the soul of that person being questioned to shake. After that, the green light in his eyes dissipated, he stared at the old man as his expression paled.

"Evil Emperor, continue." Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

"Mhm, Zhu Yan. Eight years ago I heard that you once spoke about an incident that happened ten years before, that incident was about a person being assassinated at the doorstep of the Ancient River Auction House. Was that assassination carried out by one of the experts of the Ancient River Auction House?" The Evil Emperor directly asked.

"Yes. That target was someone our auction house wanted to kill since a long time ago. Just so coincidentally, the date for the tribute collection then had arrived and we used this chance to kill two birds with one stone, finishing off that target. After that, we made a report to the governor's manor, but how would they be able to even trace it back to us? Not only for that incident, every time when the date of tribute collection neared, even if we don't want to pay the tax, we have to find an excuse. The governor's manor's people are all cowards, it's fine even if they knew about it. They are just a bunch of trash." Zhu Yan's mouth curled up in a mocking smile as he revealed the truth.

The entire space turned silent. The old man's chest heaved up and down, he was so angry that his entire body was shaking. His eyes slowly turned over and landed on the Evil Emperor, "That should be enough. Who doesn't know about the Evil Emperor's ability? He can make them say whatever he wants to. This is a clear case of using my people to frame my auction house. What despicable methods."

"Despicable methods?" The Evil Emperor glanced at that old man. "Your Ancient River Auction House is the one who used all types of shameless methods, yet you still have the face to say such a thing?"

"Hmph. It's pointless to argue with you." The old man glanced at Qin Wentian. "This is why I was asking what Governor Qin plans to do exactly. It's fine that you want to deal with my auction house, but why is there a need to use such a method to frame me?"

"I heard that because the northern governor failed in collecting sufficient tributes during these years, he would be held in disdain everytime he gathers at the Lifire Palace every ten years. Is this the reason why Governor Qin did this?" Another voice rang out. Everyone turned their heads over, the person who spoke was actually from a major power. Right now, there was a mocking expression on his face. Clearly, he was here to help the Ancient River Auction House!

Note

Dear all, do note that I'll be going for my honeymoon from 16th march to 1st april, hence, the chapter release timing will be affected. I'll post whenever I can find the time to do so, but do not worry, the number of chapters will remain the same. Sorry for the inconvenience and thanks for reading!

Also, I'm really sorry... For those asking for mass releases, it's really not possible for me with my workload. (A job + 3 novels) I've been spacing the releases out alternating them 1 chapter to 2 chapters per day during the first three weeks and more of 2 chapters during the last week of the month. I understand how great this story is...just hold your horses and wait for the roller coaster that's about to come! Thank you for your patience ^^

Chapter 1596: Tyrannical Governor

The tone of this person was extremely mocking. Clearly, he was against Qin Wentian. Sarcastically hinting that Qin Wentian wasn't able to collect enough tributes and couldn't answer to the palace lord and this was the reason why he used such 'despicable' methods to act against the Ancient River Auction House. Although he didn't clearly say this, how could people not know what he was hinting at?

Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at the person who spoke. A faint smile appeared on his handsome face, "You are?"

"It's not important who I am. What's important is that you, as the lord governor, how can you use such methods to deal with honest businessmen like us in Lifire City? It truly makes our hearts go cold. Although people like us are often alone and weak, although we cannot be compared to the governor's manor, there's no way we will sit around to wait for death when the governor's manor uses such methods against us." The tone of the person who spoke turned more domineering as he continued speaking.

"Oh?" Qin Wentian glanced at that person who spoke. It was a peak-stage immortal emperor with several other emperors around him. Such a power was weak? Just based on the number of immortal emperors alone, his governor's manor might not even be compared to this.

"That's right. We are all honest businessmen in Lifire City and it isn't easy for us to develop. Since the governor's manor cannot provide a guarantee of safety to us, we naturally have no need to pay any tributes. But, your governor's manor actually resorted to such underhanded methods, it truly causes our hearts to turn cold." Another expert from a major power spoke, all of them seemed to be on the side of the Ancient River Auction House.

"Xu Li, who are these two? Have they ever paid their tributes properly?" Qin Wentian turned to vice governor Xu Li as he asked.

"The pavilion lord of the Crimson Moon Pavilion and the sect leader of the Sky Incense Sect. Both are considered first-tier powers and have businesses on an extremely huge scale within our northern city regions. But if we were to check from the date sir assumed office, these two powers have never paid any contributions before." Xu Li replied.

"The governor's manor is so useless and does nothing yet you still want us to pay tribute? Are you guys fools?" The Crimson Moon Pavilion Lord continued.

"You all say that the governor's manor did nothing after you reported trouble. Because we are unable to investigate this clearly in the past, you guys used it as an excuse to reject paying contributions. For this point, this seat has to admit it that there's nothing wrong with your actions." Qin Wentian stared at everyone as he slowly spoke. "But now, I came here in all sincerity to set an example to solve the previous 'incidents,' yet you guys say that I'm trying to slander and intentionally want to harm you all? In that case, no matter what my governor's manor does, you guys are clearly not intending to pay any contributions."

"Governor Qin, you are intentionally misinterpreting my meaning. If you truly have the heart to investigate, why would you send people to investigate the internal staff of my auction house and capture my people? You should know very well what you are trying to do." The old man from the Ancient River Auction House coldly spoke.

"The Lifelong Realm is above us, below the Lifelong Sovereign, the nine world palace empyreans control the boundlessly vast territories. Lifire World Palace is controlled by the Lifire Empyrean and the city is split into five city regions, given to each of the five governors. I, Qin Wentian, as one of the five city governors, I have authority over everything in the northern city regions. Since this seat wishes to investigate the truth, all of you must cooperate with me. If you are unhappy about my actions, you can go straight and report this up to the Lifire Empyrean."

Qin Wentian's voice turned solemn and extremely cold. "Today, the truth is out for everyone to see. It's useless if you all try to prevent it. For anyone else who dares to obstruct my governor's manor from doing its duties, we will kill all without mercy."

A fearsome chill wind seemed to have breezed past, everyone only felt somewhat cold. Earlier, Qin Wentian said such a sentence and he immediately executed Old He of the Ancient River Auction House.

Right now, he had also put it extremely plainly. Whoever dares to obstruct the governor's manor shall all be killed without mercy.

The voice was so calm and cold, emitting his killing intent. It was like no matter who came today, no one would be able to stop him from making his move against the Ancient River Auction House.

The experts of the Crimson Moon Pavilion were here, there were several immortal emperors and even their pavilion lord came personally. The experts of the Sky Incense Sect came as well, with just as many immortal emperors, and their sect leader also personally showed up. They, in addition to the Ancient River Auction House, was sufficient to form an extremely powerful group of experts. If war really began, even if their opponent was the governor's manor, the governor's manor wouldn't be able to win against them, right?

"Lord governor, think thrice before acting." Another expert spoke, it was the boss of one of the larger transaction pavilions near the Ancient River Auction House. His cultivation base was at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm. At this moment, many people involuntarily stood in the same camp as the Ancient River Auction House. It wasn't because they were in some alliance but rather, this affected their benefits.

This battle was extremely critical. Once the governor's manor took down the Ancient River Auction House, it meant that the governor's manor had reversed the situation and in the future, when the governor's manor collects tributes, would they dare not to pay up?

"Governor Qin, please think carefully." Another person reminded, but his tone had no hints of kindness at all. He spoke coldly like he was threatening Qin Wentian.

"If lord governor really plans to act so recklessly and unfairly, we can only join forces. If the palace lord sends people down to blame us, we will also do our best to contend against them. It's Governor Qin who refuses to give us a path of survival." The old man from the Ancient River Auction House slowly spoke, his eyes flickering with terrifying killing intent.

Qin Wentian knew that the old man wanted to kill him. But he also knew that if he didn't cause any damage to the Jialan Clan's influence and was killed by their cronies instead, this means that he had no value at all in the eyes of the Lifire Empyrean. After he dies, the Lifire Empyrean definitely wouldn't stand up for him. It would only have meant that he was useless. What the Lifire Empyrean needed was a useful Qin Wentian.

As for the Jialan Clan, there was no need to say anything about them. The moment he took on the office and acted against his vice governors, he already encountered an assassination attempt by two of them using a soul slaying needle. As long as the Jialan Clan finds an opportunity, they would definitely move in for the kill. And right now, Qin Wentian was planning to give the Jialan Clan an opportunity. A glaring opportunity that they cannot afford to miss.

Regardless of the Lifire Palace or the Jialan Clan, both had their own schemes. Qin Wentian was sandwiched in the center and was in an extremely pitiful situation. However, he had no path available to retreat.

"The 3,000 soldiers of my governor's manor listen to my command." Qin Wentian coldly commanded.

"We are here!" A terrifying thunderous voice echoed through the air. After that commotion back then, the governor's manor had recruited new batches of experts and right now, there were precisely 3,000 soldiers under his control. Right now, all of them were gathered here in the Ancient River Auction House.

"In order to avoid paying tributes, the Ancient River Auction House plotted against themselves, wanting to damage the reputation of the governor's manor. From the time I assumed office till now, they had never once paid any contributions. From now on, the Ancient River Auction House shall be sealed away and closed down. Instantly begin the cleansing operation, all their assets will belong to the governor's manor to make up for the lack of contributions through these years."

Qin Wentian's voice was extremely cold as he gave the order. He directly seized the ownership of the business, transferring assets to the governor's manor.

"QIN WENTIAN, YOU DARE?" The old man howled in rage as a terrifying aura erupted forth. Destructive bolts of lightning could be seen flashing through the sky.

"Those who obstruct my governor's manor from carrying out duties shall be executed with no mercy." Qin Wentian coldly repeated. Instantly, the 3,000 soldiers all unleashed their auras, causing the atmosphere to be extremely tense. Violent waves of energy gushed everywhere, causing the hearts of many in the crowd to tremble.

Given the strength of immortal kings and immortal emperors, the size of the Ancient River Auction House was still considered small. Many in the crowd started to retreat, especially so for some innocent spectators. All of them hurried away as they were worried that they might be injured due to the aftershocks from the battle.

"Seems like lord governor is truly prepared to be a tyrant." The Crimson Moon Pavilion Lord coldly spoke. His men also unleashed powerful auras as killing intent flickered in their eyes.

The leader of the Sky Incense Sect was the same, leading his experts to step out, wanting to surround the 3,000 soldiers from the governor's manor.

"All of you want to bear the weight of their crimes for the Ancient River Auction House? In that case, I want to see if you all truly have the capabilities to bear the weight or not." Qin Wentian slowly rose up in the air, resplendent emperor light flashed as an intense light illuminated the area, so blinding that many couldn't help but to close their eyes against the glare.

"Mid-stage immortal emperor?" Many people felt their hearts shaking. The rumors claimed that Qin Wentian's cultivation was only at the initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm. But now, he actually broke through to the mid-stage. No wonder he would act against the Ancient River Auction House, his strength had just explosively increased.

"Let me repeat this one last time. Those who obstruct my governor's manor from doing its duties, shall all be executed with no mercy."

Qin Wentian took another step forward. The Evil Emperor waved his hand, "Move!"

The 3,000 soldiers exploded into action, sealing the entire Ancient River Auction House.

"BOOM!" The Crimson Moon Pavilion Lord soared into the sky as a fiery energy erupted towards the Evil Emperor. The experts from the Crimson Moon Pavilion also acted as they moved towards the 3,000 soldiers.

"ROAR!" The Evil Emperor howled in rage, violent waves of demonic energy rocked the area as countless spectators in the crowd retreated with frenzied speed. The battle was about to start, who would still dare to get near?

"Scram!" The Crimson Moon Pavilion Lord blasted out a terrifying red-colored palm imprint that covered the skies. Even before the attack landed, the berserk aura and the chaotic energy flow had already forced many immortal kings back. After that, the giant palm imprint slammed against the Evil Emperor as an explosive boom thundered.

"Governor Qin, you have forced us too far." The old man from the Ancient River Auction House released his emperor might. The experts around him stood in a row, ready to attack. On the other side, the experts from the Sky

Incense Sect as well as experts from a few other powers, all unleashed their auras as well, preparing for a war against the governor's manor.

"This time, things are getting crazy." Many people felt their hearts trembling. It has been many years since they saw such a scene. The governor's manor was actually warring against the major powers.

The northern city regions were considered the Jialan Clan's territory, even the Lifire Empyrean could not control the things here fully. Hence, many major powers here were under the Jialan Clan's influence and acted very domineeringly against the northern governor's manor. In the past, there were also tyrannical and domineering governors but all of them had died and the Lifire Empyrean took no actions to avenge them.

Right now, an even more brutal and tyrannical governor compared to his predecessors has appeared. Qin Wentian, someone who was once a bandit.

Today, this tyrannical governor Qin Wentian, was he going to finally die after keeping a low-profile for so many years?

The northern city regions of Lifire City have always been a pool of muddy water. It was not so easy to change the situation here!

Chapter 1597: Under the Light

This entire space started to turn bright. Those spectators all retreated to extremely far away, not wanting to be involved.

Numerous immortal kings and emperors erupted forth with dominating might. The soldiers of the governor's manor were blocked by the enemy experts and couldn't advance. The Evil Emperor and Xu Li roared loudly as they ferociously led the charge.

Qin Wentian floated in the air as the light radiating from him grew more and more brilliant. Has he gone crazy?

Since he chose to act today, he naturally wouldn't fail.

Roughly about fifty years ago after he took over, other than killing his three vice governors, Qin Wentian had never made any moves in the northern city regions. He has either been in closed-door seclusion or he has been out tempering himself. Until today, only after his cultivation base broke through to the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm, did he chose to make his move. He wanted to tell all the major powers in the northern city regions that held him in contempt that it's time to account for the debt that has accumulated for the past fifty years.

A blinding light illuminated the area, many people couldn't open their eyes due to the glare. The Ancient River Auction House, Crimson Moon Pavilion and Sky Incense Sect and the other smaller powers who participated in this, only felt a bright light enveloping them. They became separated from the others, all of them trapped within this domain of light.

A mid-stage immortal emperor from the Ancient River Auction House began to radiate forth with terrifying emperor light. Law energy danced wildly around him, yet he couldn't help but to lift his hand up to shield his eyes. The piercing glare from Qin Wentian's domain of light effortlessly seeped through his defenses and shone onto his body. As time flowed by, the light from him was actually submerged within the light from Qin Wentian's domain, he glowed brighter and brighter as though he wanted to become one with that light.

"NO!" He roared in rage and misery. How could this be? How tough was it for him to reach the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm? How many trials and tribulations did he have to overcome to reach his current status? But now, was he going to die just from being trapped in a light domain? He was filled with reluctance to accept this.

But no matter how he struggled, he was unable to break free. He eventually became part of the light and completely disappeared without a trace.

Not only him, all enemy mid-stage and initial-stage emperors caught within the domain of light, had no way to escape as well. Their bodies vanished one after the other and became part of the light. Those spectating from afar couldn't even see anything due to how glaring the produced light was.

Although no one could see anything, they could still hear sounds from within the domain of light. Every voice was filled with anger, with sorrow, with reluctance and despair. The spectators couldn't help but tremble when they heard that.

When the radiance finally faded, when everyone inclined their heads and stare into the air again, they felt their souls trembling as they perspired cold sweat. When they looked at the handsome figure in the air, they felt respect from the depths of their soul.

Cowardly and useless, a governor that only knows how to hide?

He didn't dare to collect tributes because he feared assassinations?

Just a blast of light from his domain was enough to cause everything to turn topsy turvy. The Ancient River Auction, Crimson Moon Pavilion, Sky Incense Sect and the other powers that participated in the battle, the vast majority of their immortal emperors died. Only their peak-stage emperors remained and they were all forced to retreat. Clearly, the screams echoing out earlier was from them. All the mid-stage and initial-stage emperors have all died.

The surviving peak-stage emperors were all panting as they stared in terror at Qin Wentian. Why was he so powerful to this extent? He could slaughter a group of emperors with just a blast of light from his domain? This was simply inconceivable, it was just too terrifying. Didn't this mean that before Qin Wentian, all group attacks are useless?

As for the soldiers of the governor's manor, the look in their eyes when they stared at Qin Wentian, was like they were seeing a god. This was truly a godlike figure. Qin Wentian domineeringly killed the three ex vice governors the moment he assumed office, he didn't die under the sneak attack using the soul slaying needle and right now, just a blast of light from his domain killed a group of immortal emperors. How imposing was this?

Weren't the people from these major powers very arrogant? They looked down on the governor's manor and actually wanted a war against the governor's manor. Before this, all of them purposely made things difficult for them. Right now, the governor's manor finally could look up in pride.

From afar, those transaction pavilion bosses, who had the backing of the Ancient River Auction House, were all so frightened that their expressions drastically changed. They kept sweating as panic filled their hearts. Earlier, they even dared to mock Qin Wentian. When they thought of this, they only felt terror nibbling away at their hearts, the sensation was extremely terrifying.

This time, a major thing was definitely about to happen.

With the joining of forces from so many powers, they even dared to join the fight when their opponent was the governor's manor. Before this, it wasn't that they didn't dare to do this, but it was because the previous governor had never once been able to unite his subordinates fully. However, today, a person finally did it. The new governor, Qin Wentian, although his cultivation base wasn't high, his combat prowess was extremely terrifying.

He united his subordinates and led them to the Ancient River Auction House, when he did so, he had already planned it all out, making arrangements in the case where the other major powers might join forces against him. By targeting the Ancient River Auction House, Qin Wentian wanted to flush out everyone that wanted to kill him.

But so what even if he did so? So what even if he had to fight against multiple major powers? In front of absolute strength, all schemes and plots were useless.

Qin Wentian, who has broken through to the mid-stage, undoubtedly had enough strength to be as tyrannical as he wanted to. He could disregard all the plots from the various major powers, he could disregard group attacks consisting of numerous enemy immortal emperors. Those who blocked him would simply be killed.

"Qin Wentian, as the governor of the northern city regions, are you sure you are going to act in this manner towards the major powers here?" The old man from the Ancient River Auction House didn't sound as confident as before.

"There's no need to place a hat on this seat's head. You still know that this seat is the northern governor? During these years, who has ever respected me? You guys know very well how you treated my subordinates when they went to collect tributes. There were so many schemes and plots, intentionally making things difficult for my governor's manor, even trying to find excuses earlier. You guys wanted to bully my forces because you have greater strength? Didn't you all earlier announce war against my governor's manor, wanting to kill this seat? But why the sudden change in the situation? Why am I the one bullying you all now?"

Qin Wentian's voice was domineering to the extreme, he swept his gaze through the air, "Earlier, this seat already gave the order to execute those who obstruct my governor's manor from carrying out their duties. Right now, the Ancient River Auction House refused to accept their punishments. The Crimson Moon Pavilion and Sky Incense Sect also have never paid any contribution during the past tens of years and even chose to join forces with the Ancient River Auction House now to fight against my governor's manor. These are unforgivable crimes, and from now onwards, I shall seal the businesses of the Crimson Moon Pavilion and the Sky Incense Sect that's in the northern city regions. All the assets you own shall be transferred to my governor's manor to make up for the fact that you lot failed to pay any contributions for the past tens of years."

As the sound of his voice faded, countless people felt their hearts trembling. This was too crazy. This time around, not only for the Ancient River Auction House, the Crimson Moon Pavilion and the Sky Incense Sect were all going to have their businesses and assets taken away. This time around, the governor's manor initially only wanted to use the Ancient River Auction House to establish their dominance. But because the two other major powers wanted to join in, they too, became the targets of the northern governor's manor.

"Yes, governor!" The subordinates of the governor's manor roared.

"Xu Li." Qin Wentian called out.

"Here." Xu Li replied.

"Other than the three major powers, there are other immortal emperors from the smaller powers participating earlier. Do you recognize them?" Qin Wentian asked.

"I do." Xu Li nodded.

"Good. Since they dare to obstruct our governor's manor from doing things, go and confiscate all their assets. Lead your men over and for those who dare to resist, kill them all without mercy." Qin Wentian gave the command.

"I hear and obey." Xu Li nodded. He then roared, "Brothers, come with me!"

The power structure of the governor's manor was still the same. Each vice governor was in control of a thousand subordinates. Right now, all of Xu Li's subordinates stepped out, departing the area with him.

"Evil Emperor." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Here." The Evil Emperor replied.

"Lead a thousand men over to the Crimson Lord Pavilion and the Sky Incense Sect. Confiscate the businesses and assets under them. If they have more experts and dare to resist, temporarily delay them first and wait for me." Qin Wentian continued.

"Right." The Evil Emperor nodded. With a wave of his hand, another thousand subordinates followed him as they rushed towards the businesses of the Crimson Moon Pavilion and the Sky Incense Sect.

"Qin Wentian, don't go too far." The Crimson Pavilion Lord started to panic. His pavilion was considered a first-tier power. He naturally had to resist it once the Evil Emperor went to confiscate his businesses. However, given Qin Wentian's iron-blooded attitude, as long as he dared to resist, it meant that he would have a crime of rebellion pinned on him and he would be killed with no mercy.

"Go too far?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed. "The killing intent you had towards me earlier, why has it vanished now?"

"Let's go." The Crimson Moon Pavilion Lord spoke. The Sky Incense Sect Leader nodded. Both of them stepped back, actually wanting to leave. They didn't dare to fight against Qin Wentian who was merely at the mid-stage, despite them having several peak-stage emperors around them.

Qin Wentian's combat prowess was too terrifying. Earlier, he only used a single attack from his law domain to destroy so many emperors, leaving them with an extremely deep impression. Given his power, even peak-level emperors like them didn't dare to resist. They didn't have the absolute confidence that they would win.

"Since you guys have already entered the war against my governor's manor, do you think you can leave here so easily today?" Qin Wentian laughed coldly, causing the hearts of everyone to tremble. He wanted to stop all the peak-stage immortal emperors from leaving.

Numerous experts stepped out, soaring through the air, preparing to flee. However, Qin Wentian's eyes turned exceptionally terrifying at this moment. A pair of gigantic demonic eyes appeared in the sky, with just a glance from it, the entire space changed. The Crimson Moon Pavilion Lord and the other peak-stage immortal emperors were all brought into an eye-technique dimension, the phantasm world Qin Wentian was in.

"I already said it before, since you guys wanted a war, let's all remain behind then." Qin Wentian's voice seemed to have come from the void. After that, he materialized in the air, before the peak-stage immortal emperors. He was dressed in white, his hands were clasped behind his back, exuding a magnificence that would last through the generations. Although his cultivation base was only at the mid-stage, he gave off an aura of invincibility to these immortal emperors.

As the sound of his voice faded, radiance from his laws of light illuminated everything, piercing the eyes of his enemies. Boundless light flared, containing destructive might within. Qin Wentian then punched out the fist of a divinity, aiming for the old man of the Ancient River Auction House. The old man frenziedly resisted but the fist of light penetrated everything, there was nothing that could block it!

An instant later, a hole appeared in the chest of that old man, penetrated through by Qin Wentian's attack.

The old man lowered his head, staring at the hole in his chest with disbelief. His eyes were filled with boundless despair and terror!

Chapter 1598: The Skies of the Northern City Regions Are Changing

In the airspace above the Ancient River Auction House, the pair of demonic eyes finally vanished as the tense atmosphere regained its earlier calm.

Everyone inclined their heads only to see Qin Wentian quietly standing in the air. As for the several other peak-stage immortal emperors, they have already vanished.

At this instant, the hearts of many people once again pounded violently, like they suffered some sort of impact. Those vanished experts were all peak-stage immortal emperors! Even in the powerful Lifire City, peak-stage immortal emperors can be considered the lord of an area, they are the main pillars within major powers.

However, earlier not too long ago, the various peak-stage immortal emperors from different powers were all destroyed by Qin Wentian, transformed back into nothingness.

"Hu…" Many people drew in a deep breath. They knew that the skies above the northern city regions were going to change. The once seemingly weak and useless governor that has been suppressed by the major powers, had expressed their tyrannical attitude for the first time in thousands of years. The peak-stage immortal emperors from the various major powers were all wiped out. In the future, who else would dare to be the ones who stood out?

The people from the Ancient River Auction House were all filled with trepidation. Their bodies trembled as great waves rose in their hearts. They knew that the Ancient River Auction House was finished.

Qin Wentian used the power of the governor's manor to seal and confiscate their assets, no one would be able to say anything. In addition, those who understood the grudge between the Lifire Empyrean and the Jialan Clan also knew that the Lifire Empyrean precisely needed such a tyrannical person acting as the northern governor. He would only reward Qin Wentian. After all, Qin Wentian was doing this with a just cause.

Let alone the fact that the victors would always be the king.

If Qin Wentian died, the situation naturally would be completely different, developing in an opposite direction.

The people of the governor's manor stared at the magnificent figure in the air. They only felt boundless reverence from the depths of their hearts.

"Go, confiscate the auction house." A voice rang out, it was a vice governor. Everyone else woke up and rushed right into the Ancient River Auction House to carry out their duty. All the customers were told to leave as the place got sealed. The soldiers of the governor's manor then stood on guard here. From today onwards, this auction house would become a business owned by the governor's manor. They naturally would be able to start auctioning again.

"Lord governor, in the past, these people from the transaction pavilions have also slandered us before and they didn't pay any contribution too. How should we deal with them?" At this moment, a vice governor coldly spoke. A moment later, the bosses of those transaction pavilions all felt their hearts trembling fiercely as they stared with fear at Qin Wentian who was in the air.

"Since they didn't pay any contributions at all, as well as them being on the side of the Ancient River Auction House wanting to resist our governor's manor, the crime was originally for us to confiscate their assets as well. However, this seat doesn't wish to push things too far and affect you guys from doing business in the northern city regions. Hence, other than upping you all to third-tier powers, you guys have to contribute five times more than the usual rate. Any objections?" Qin Wentian's tone was cold, sweeping his gaze over to them.

"We willingly receive our punishments." The transaction pavilion's bosses all nodded in fear. At this moment, by not punishing them further, Qin Wentian was already considered polite. How would they dare not to obey him? If they really caused Qin Wentian to be enraged, he just needed to find a casual excuse to take away their businesses.

"Also, for those present here today, many businesses belong to the various powers. This seat is the northern governor and naturally hopes that all your businesses will be smooth. This seat has assumed office for fifty years, and I hereby apologize to everyone for my lack of actions in the past. However, all that is already over. From now onwards, if there's anyone who dares to create trouble in the northern city regions, this seat will personally deal with him according to the laws of the city. I won't show mercy."

Qin Wentian stood in the air and continued, "For everything that has happened in the past, no matter if your actions are glorious or not, everything shall be wiped clean. This seat graciously thanks those powers who have been contributing taxes through all these years and I hopes that everyone can cooperate with my governor's manor and pay the contributions on time. Do not follow what the Ancient River Auction House did, scheming left and right just to avoid paying contributions. Other than this, for those powers that have not paid contributions in the past fifty years, this seat will not take any actions to punish you all for that. However, since this seat has already set my heart to properly manage the northern city regions, I hope that you all can have the self-awareness to pay up what you have not been paying through the years."

These people immediately understood Qin Wentian's intentions. I will not punish you for everything that's in the past, but it's best that you all have some self-awareness and pay up what you ought to have paid. If not, when something happens again in the future, don't blame me for showing no mercy.

His words sounded calm but they held enough threatening power. There was no other reason than the fact that Qin Wentian was powerful enough to sweep through the Ancient River Auction House, the Crimson Moon Pavilion and the Sky Incense Sect with impunity. One must know that these three were all major powers, but he could kill so many peak-stage immortal emperors by just depending on himself. Who else dared to step out and provoke him?

"I've said enough. This seat will take my farewell first." Qin Wentian directly departed after speaking, leaving this place for his subordinates to handle. He was now heading towards the Crimson Moon Pavilion and the Sky

Incense Sect's headquarters. After all, these two were first-tier powers and had deep foundations. Even if the Evil Emperor personally led his subordinates there, he might not be able to handle things. Hence, Qin Wentian had to head there to provide support.

…

The northern city regions were shaken by an earthquake-level commotion. The tremors it caused swiftly spread throughout the northern city regions and even extended to the other parts of Lifire City.

The incident about the Ancient River Auction House was just too shocking. It was a symbol in a certain perspective. From this, one could imagine the storm this would cause. For a period of time, everyone in the city was discussing about this.

Naturally, there were also many who were paying attention to the Jialan Clan. Although the Jialan Clan had never clashed head-on directly on the surface with Governor Qin, everyone understood that the reason why the previous governors of the northern regions were so low-profile was because they feared for their lives and the influence of the Jialan Clan. The strength of the Jialan Clan was so great that it cast a formless pressure on the governor's manor. There was even no need for them to personally act.

Just like that battle that occurred soon after Qin Wentian assumed office. Although no one managed to investigate where the soul slaying needle came from, everyone clearly knew the answer in their hearts. If Qin Wentian was weaker, he would have already died those years ago. How would he have lived on until today?

Hence, this symbol-like battle where he seized the Ancient River Auction House, the Crimson Moon Pavilion and the Sky Incense Sect, was considered his announcement for a war against the Jialan Clan. He used his victory to harshly smack the face of the Jialan Clan.

Next, what would the Jialan Clan do to retaliate against Qin Wentian?

The case of the three major powers being taken over and their businesses confiscated caused many other powers in the north to be shocked.

The end result of the governor's manor action was soon revealed. After that day, the governor's manor became extremely lively. Many people from the various powers all respectively came by to hand over their tributes, they no longer dared to delay things. Also, for those powers who have not handed over anything for the past fifty years, all of them paid up every single bit of tribute they ought to have paid. In fact, for some powers, other than the tributes they owed, they even paid more. According to the rules of Lifire City, these extra tributes were all supposedly given to the lord governor of the respective region privately. There was no need to hand them over to the Lifire Empyrean.

Clearly, these powers were worried that Qin Wentian might take revenge. This was why they employed such methods, hoping that he would accept it. After knowing about this, Qin Wentian naturally accepted all. Since people were willing to give him extra resources, why would he reject it? Only by accepting would these powers feel at ease. If he returned them, the businesses owned by those powers would surely be in fear every day.

This made Qin Wentian realize that having authority was truly excellent. This was especially so for those who had thick enough skin. They can directly use their authority to gain more cultivation resources.

…..

The Jadewave Pavilion was a transaction ground for divine weapons. An aristocrat clan was behind them, the aristocrat clan was considered powerful and belonged to a power that focused on forging weapons. They were extremely wealthy and had many emperor-ranked weapons.

And, the Jadewave Pavilion was precisely the place where this aristocrat clan used to sell their weapons away in exchange for cultivation resources and various forging materials.

At this moment, an old man appeared at the Jadewave Pavilion. The supervisor in charge of this place immediately moved over and respectfully greeted, "I pay my respect to clan leader."

"Where is the young master?" The old man coldly asked.

"Young master he…" The supervisor's eyes showed signs of evasion as he hemmed and hawed.

"Did you guys head over to the governor's manor to pay tribute yet?" The old man continued asking.

"No, not yet. Young master said that no one is allowed to disturb him." The supervisor was filled with trepidation.

"Do you know what happened to the Ancient River Auction House?" The old man asked again.

"Mhm." The supervisor nodded. Right now, other than those experts who were in closed-door seclusion, how could everyone else not know of such a major matter?

"Then why didn't you tell the young master to head there and pay the tributes?" The old man asked again, the supervisor was completely sweating now.

After that, the old man bypassed him and directly walked towards the backyard of the Jadewave Pavilion. This place blocked immortal sense, he forcefully barged in and a moment later, a voice cried out in rage, "WHO DARES TO BE SO IMPUDENT?"

"BANG!" The door to the room exploded as screams rang out from within. The old man stepped into the room and after that, he only saw a mess of clothing on the floor and a few naked young girls staring with fear at him. Their bodies were fair and charming, and in the center of this bevy of girls, a young man with a cultivation base at the immortal king realm could be seen. At this moment, he was so frightened that he turned pale, "Father, why have you come here?"

"The date for tribute collection has arrived, why are you not going over to the governor's manor to pay up?" The old man calmly asked.

"Father, I still thought that there's something important. The governor's manor is full of trash, do we even need to pay any contributions? In the past, every time they came by to collect, your son would throw them out. If they come again this time around, I'll directly chase them off." The young man silently heaved a sigh of relief as he spoke. He still thought that something big had happened. So it turned out that it was for such a minor matter.

A violent aura gushed forth from the old man. He took a step forth, causing a rumbling sound to ring out as the wooden bed the young man was lying on shattered apart. The young girls all landed on the floor as they screamed in fear. All of them could feel the cold intent radiating from the old man.

"ALL OF YOU GET OUT!" The old man roared in rage. They hurriedly grabbed their clothes and ran away in a pathetic manner. Because they didn't have time to wear their clothes, them running away like this gave many people outside a visual feast.

After that, a scream of pain rang out from within the room. The supervisor closed his eyes. This young master of his had lousy talent in cultivation. The clan leader got him here to manage the Jadewave Pavilion but he only cared about enjoying himself with women. He would never amount to anything.

Not long after, a team of experts headed out from the Jadewave Pavilion, bringing with them a huge amount of contributions that included the contributions they missed out on paying for the past tens of years as they headed to the northern governor's manor.

Not only for the Jadewave Pavilion. This similar scene also happened in the various major and minor powers of the northern city regions.

That battle alone completely changed the past situation of the northern city regions. There was no one else who dared to not pay the contributions. For a period of time, the number of powers taking the initiative to head to the governor's manor to pay up, had even surpassed the other city regions!

Chapter 1599: Head-on Clash

For the following period of time, Qin Wentian stayed in the governor's manor and didn't go out. The various major and minor powers of the northern city regions all took the initiative to come and pay up the contributions that they owed for the past tens of years. There was basically no need for the people of the governor's manor to head out to collect tribute. In fact, Qin Wentian even gave the order for them not to head over for tribute collection. In this way, it actually increased the pressure the powers in the northern city regions was feeling. Nobody dared to not come and pay up.

In the manor, Xu Li came by to make a report. He stood before Qin Wentian, feeling a thousand sentiments in his heart as he stared at the handsome young man before him. Back then, he once heard the Barbarian Emperor saying that he wanted to kill Qin Wentian. Now, tens of years have passed and Qin Wentian was already so strong to this extent. He was like a divinity at the immortal-emperor realm. Even the Evil Emperor admitted that he wasn't a match for Qin Wentian, he was far inferior.

If the Qin Wentian in the past had such combat prowess, maybe Ye Qianyu wouldn't have been captured and the Jialan Monarch would have already become a dead man.

Let's hope Qin Wentian can continue to grow, only when he reaches the level of the Lifire Empyrean would he have a chance to save Ye Qianyu.

"How is it?" Qin Wentian asked.

"The various powers of the northern city regions have finished paying contributions, the amount of contributions they didn't pay during the past tens of years, were included as well." Xu Li replied. The threatening power of that battle was simply too strong. Over twenty immortal emperors had fallen during the fight, including many peak-stage ones. Who would still dare to resist?

"Oh?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, "Did 'those' powers pay up?"

"Mhm, the powers that were owned by the Jialan Clan on the surface have also paid up fully, including the contributions they didn't pay for the past tens of years. They didn't cause any trouble." Xu Li nodded.

"Jialan Clan." Qin Wentian mumbled. a cold light flickered in his eyes. Such an enemy was then the terrifying one. They wouldn't do anything to you on the surface and wouldn't give you any excuse to deal with them. But in the shadows, their killing intent was everywhere but you can't even find a hint of their shadow.

"Be more careful about the Jialan Clan in the future." Qin Wentian instructed.

"Mhm." Xu Li nodded. He naturally understood how dangerous the Jialan Clan was. The Jialan Clan was like a venomous serpent. As for the contributions they paid, it wasn't really considered anything considering the wealth of the Jialan Clan.

"The number of subordinates we have is too little. Should we recruit more?" Xu Li asked. Although currently, the prestige of the governor's manor was very high, how could Xu Li not understand that Qin Wentian was the person that made all this happen? If he wasn't strong enough, would the current situation be like this?

The battle at the Ancient River Auction House caused Xu Li to feel that the governor's manor current number of experts were just too little. They were simply too weak. Just any first-tier power would have enough strength to contend against their governor's manor. The number of immortal emperors they had was by far fewer. Once Qin Wentian left, the governor's manor would have no more threat. He might as well take this chance to expand the governor's manor, increasing its strength.

"Indeed." Qin Wentian nodded, but he soon frowned. He then continued, "But there's no hurry. Wait for me to return from the Lifire Palace, we should make the recruitment announcement after the Lifire Empyrean grants me 10% of the tributes. Those with high cultivations are not fools, they naturally understand that if they entered the governor's manor now, it wouldn't be as safe as it looked to be on the surface. Cultivation resources are the only things that can attract those powerful experts."

"There's also one point. The Evil Emperor has to be present when you are recruiting people. Do you understand my meaning?" Qin Wentian spoke.

Xu Li's eyes flashed, he then nod his head. "I understand, it's easy for spies to infiltrate us, but many people will definitely be unwilling to allow the Evil Emperor into their minds."

"We will only be asking a single question and we can make a vow saying that we will not probe their other secrets. If they refuse to accept this, we might as well not recruit them." Qin Wentian spoke. Xu Li nodded. After that, he turned and left.

Qin Wentian had a look of contemplation on his face after Xu Li left. He not only needed to be wary of the Jialan Clan, he also had to think about the situation in the Lifire Palace. If the northern governor's manor expanded in strength, what if one day, the Lifire Empyrean wanted to deal with him? With just a command, the spearhead could be pointed to him and his men. What should he do then?

All these matters have to be thought of and be prepared in advance.

...

In the Lifire Palace, the five governors once again gathered in the beautiful courtyard of the Lifire Empyrean's residence. Beautiful female servants were all around them.

However, the thing that was different now, was that the atmosphere was somewhat strange.

In the past tens of years, the northern governor Qin Wentian was so low-profile that it was terrifying. He didn't really appear and every time he came here, he would hear mocking voices speaking ill of him. This was especially so with regards to central governor Xia Hou. He showed no mercy every time when he mocked Qin Wentian.

However this time around, the other four governors obviously had already learned about the situation in the northern city regions. Qin Wentian alone swept his way through so many immortal emperors with invincibility. Although they didn't personally witness the battle, they could imagine how tyrannical Qin Wentian must be. In the past, Governor Xia Hou has always looked down and insulted Qin Wentian. After news of the incident in the north circulated out, it was like smacking his face. Even if Qin Wentian didn't say anything, the atmosphere now still felt a little strange.

The five governors sat in their respective locations, away from each other. Qin Wentian was clad in white, he quietly enjoyed the taste of his tea while Xia Hou drank wine. Xia Hou didn't say anything, but the lines of his face were scrunched up, it looked like he was very unhappy.

Xia Hou naturally had a reason to be unhappy. During the past tens of years, the incident of the Emperor Pavilion caused his central governor's manor to be riddled with scandalous rumors. The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor, one of the personal handmaidens that followed the Lifire Empyrean, personally told him to clean things up. After that, the development of the Emperor Pavilion became unstoppable and had now become one of the largest transaction grounds and auction houses in the central city regions. Things were extremely prosperous for Di Tian, and every time he heard people saying that Grandmaster Di Tian forged another divine treasure for auction, Xia Hou would feel extremely unhappy.

Right now Qin Wentian, who had always been insulted by him, had finally risen up. It was rumored that all the tributes that he missed out on collecting in the past tens of years, were all collected in one-shot this time. No powers in the north dared not to pay up. He only used fifty years to do so and right now, he had also broken through to the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm.

Beauty Xiao propped her chin up, her beautiful eyes staring fixedly at Qin Wentian as she smiled, "You are growing more and more handsome."

In the past, whenever she praised Qin Wentian, Yin Qiu would start to insult him. But this time around, Yin Qiu merely silently sipped his tea as he glanced at Qin Wentian.

"I've invited governor Qin for tens of years, why have you never once come to my southern governor's manor to pay me a visit?" Beauty Xiao's eyes flashed with gentle charm, easily capable of stirring the souls of others.

"I've been busy with my cultivation during these years. Governor Xiao, please don't take offense." Qin Wentian smiled.

"You are now already at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm, you should have finish busying yourself, right? When will you be free to come over?" Beauty Xiao smiled wider, not discreet at all.

"If there's a chance, I will definitely head over." Qin Wentian smiled.

"If you are willing to come over, you can treat my place like your own home." Beauty Xiao giggled, her voice containing an extremely obvious hint that Qin Wentian could do whatever he wants to with her. Yin Qiu turned pale, he glanced at Qin Wentian unhappily. This cheap slut kept seducing Qin Wentian on her own initiative. As for him, he put in all his efforts to get her but Beauty Xiao had always ignored him.

"Governor Qin, you can come to my city region to take a walk too if you are free." Lin Ba laughed.

"He merely did something he ought to have done. Also, he actually used a total of fifty years to do so. Do you all need to act in this manner?" Xia Hou coldly spoke, his tone filled with dissatisfaction. Lin Ba started, he cast a glance at Qin Wentian, smiling and not commenting on Xia Hou's words.

Beauty Xiao and Yin Qiu smiled as they glanced at Qin Wentian, only to see him sipping his tea before slowly placing the teacup down. A mocking smile curled his lips, regardless of him or his avatar Di Tian, this Xia Hou gave no face to the both of them. In the past, he wanted to keep a low-profile and didn't wish to stir things, but this Xia Hou was still as arrogant as ever.

"How regretful. I, Qin, have too low a cultivation base and had to spend an entire fifty years before I could aid the palace lord in settling the northern city regions. Given Governor Xia Hou's imposingness, I'm sure you could already rule your city region unchallenged when you had a mid-stage immortal emperor cultivation base. The northern regions have always been chaotic but the palace lord didn't want to send Governor Xia Hou there. It must be because he feared that he would waste Governor Xia Hou's great talent." Qin Wentian sarcastically spoke, everyone could hear what he really meant by his words.

Xia Hou swept his gaze at Qin Wentian, "Stop speaking so ambiguously. This is just the beginning, if you are so easily satisfied, how can you accomplish greater things?"

"How can I be compared to Governor Xia? In the central city regions, you have control over everything. What can you not accomplish? Even during that year when the Emperor Pavilion was established in your central city regions, Governor Xia Hou was so lofty that he didn't even give a damn about it."

With a crisp sound ringing out, the wine cup in Xia Hou's hand shattered, crushed by him. His eyes were icy to the extreme as he slammed his palm onto the table. "Are you provoking me?"

"Bang!" Qin Wentian also slammed his palm onto the table as a cold intent radiated from him. "Governor Xia Hou has mocked and insulted me for many years but I didn't take it to heart. Now, I can't even speak a single sentence to you? By speaking, it means that I'm provoking you? Governor Xia Hou, who the hell do you think you are?"

"What do you want?" Xia Hou's gaze flashed with coldness.

Qin Wentian narrowed his eyes, an evil smile with charm flickered within. "Governor Xia, you have always disliked I, Qin. Why don't we have a battle? The loser will quit his position as a governor and scram out of Lifire City."

The people present all started, the light in Beauty Xiao's eyes grew even brighter. Qin Wentian was getting more and more handsome from her perspective.

Lin Ba and Yin Qiu also stared at Qin Wentian. This fellow actually dared to challenge Xia Hou.

Xia Hou's expression turned sinister. A mid-stage immortal king actually challenged him. The fact that this happened was already considered a face-smacking incident for him. It meant that Qin Wentian clearly held him in disdain.

"I'm happy to oblige." Xia Hou coldly spoke.

"Have you guys talked enough nonsense?" A voice filled with the tone of scolding rang out. After that, everyone saw Zhuge Xiong walking into the hall.

"Grand governor." Everyone stood up and clapped their hands to Zhuge Xiong.

"You two truly have guts to cause trouble here in the palace lord's residence." Zhuge Xiong snorted coldly.

"It's good to have some anger in you. In addition, this time around, Qin Wentian has rendered great merit. If he doesn't have some anger in him, how could he settle the northern city regions for me?" The Lifire Empyrean's voice rang out. After that, he entered the hall with his two personal handmaidens with him!

Chapter 1600: Prison Visit

Qin Wentian and the other governors instantly stood up when they saw the Lifire Empyrean as they greeted, "Your subordinates pay our respects to palace lord."

The Lifire Empyrean waved his hand. He smiled at Qin Wentian, "Qin Wentian, that's really a job well done in the northern city regions. I'm sure your harvest this time around must have been great."

"Reporting to palace lord, the various powers of the northern regions all voluntarily paid up the tributes they have not been paying for the past tens of years. Also, several powers privately gave me extra resources." Qin Wentian reported honestly, he had no intentions to hide anything.

"Since they privately gave you the resources, there's no need to report it up. As long as the contributions have no problems, things will be fine. To think that you broke through to the mid-stage so fast, your cultivation speed truly shocks me. In the future, you would definitely have greater accomplishments." The Lifire Empyrean wasn't stingy with his praises. "Do you have any requests? Let me see if I can fulfil them."

"This is considered something your subordinate ought to do, how would I dare to have any requests?" Qin Wentian politely spoke. He then continued, "It's just that it has been many years since this subordinate met with Ye Qianyu, might I hope for palace lord to grant me your permission to pay her a visit?"

"It has been so many years but you are still so attached to emotions, it's truly rare to see a man like you. I naturally won't obstruct you. Later on, I'll get Protector Chen to bring you there." The Lifire Empyrean smiled and nodded, it was like he didn't mind at all. No one could guess at the Lifire Empyrean's thoughts.

"Everyone please feel free to sit. Just pass the tributes to my handmaidens and that will do." The Lifire Empyrean laughed. The five governors then passed the interspatial rings they collected over to the two serving ladies. It was very rare for the Lifire Empyrean to chat idly with them. In the midst of chatting, he suddenly turned to Qin Wentian, "Wentian, your demeanor is extraordinary. Right now, you should continue to temper yourself in the northern city regions for another period of time. In the future, if you want the position of one of the nine monarchs, I can also give one to you."

The nine monarchs under the Lifire Empyrean were all rulers of their own territory, they had many mines under their control and their authority was even greater compared to one of the five governors. In addition, the cultivation resources they could gain was far more compared to what a governor could get.

Qin Wentian also didn't know if the Lifire Empyrean truly wanted to recruit him or if he was just making use of him. But no matter what the truth was, at the very least, the Lifire Empyrean can be considered extremely benevolent towards him on the surface.

"Your subordinate dares not to have too much hope, I will follow all palace lord's instructions." Qin Wentian was still extremely polite, as low-profile as ever when in front of the Lifire Empyrean. The Lifire Empyrean laughed as a flash of deep intent flickered past his eyes.

After the two handmaidens finished calculating, they passed 10% of the cultivation resources to the governors. The governors then started to leave one by one. Governor Xia Hou didn't forget to shoot a cold glance at Qin Wentian, his eyes as sharp as swords.

Qin Wentian didn't leave, he followed Protector Chen, the man who brought him in here in the past, to the Lifire Jail.

After all the governors were gone, the Lifire Empyrean sat down on a sofa. The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor laid down and leaned against him as she spoke, "Palace Lord, back then Qin Wentian was only at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm. Right now, only slightly more than fifty years have passed yet he is already a mid-stage immortal emperor. You have to be on your guard against this man."

"Oh? You think that he would be of trouble to me?" The Lifire Empyrean smiled.

"It has been fifty years but he still cannot forget Ye Qianyu, not hiding his affection and requesting to meet with her. Clearly, she has always been in his heart. However, Ye Qianyu is palace lord's enemy. Qin Wentian has never truly submitted to you. If he grew strong enough, he would definitely have rebellious thoughts." The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor spoke softly.

"Haha, do you think the Jialan Clan is so easy to deal with? I actually hope that he will grow stronger and stronger because if that's the case, as long as Ye Qianyu is in my hands, he would continue to fight against the Jialan Clan. At that time if he is really beyond my control, it wouldn't be too late to deal with him. Let alone the mid-stage, even if he is at the peak-stage, as long as he is in the immortal emperor realm, this seat can crush him easily." The Lifire Empyrean laughed. Purple Moon didn't say anything. The palace lord has a vision much wider than hers.

...

Inside the dark and sinister jail where Ye Qianyu was imprisoned, she was currently combing her hair. Despite her dreary conditions, she still tried her best to maintain her appearance. Even her cell was considered very clean.

"It has been fifty years, are you not tired?" In the opposite cell, a figure with dishevelled hair spoke with a low and hoarse voice.

Ye Qianyu couldn't be bothered with him, she didn't reply.

"But it's fine since you are a feast for my eyes. Such a beautiful and sexy woman like you, I wonder how can the Lifire Empyrean really bear to confine you here? Given your beautiful face and figure, what a pity we are not cellmates, if not..hehehe."

"Can you shut your filthy mouth?" Ye Qianyu calmly spoke but a flash of coldness could be seen in her eyes.

"Hahahaha, it was just too boring here in the past. Luckily there's a beauty like you to tease now, hence I'm speaking a lot. Why do you doll yourself up everyday? Do you really think that that ant can bring you out of this jail?" That prisoner coldly laughed. "Let me advise you to stop dreaming. Since the Lifire Empyrean confined you, there's no way he would allow that brat to soar up into the skies."

"The Lifire Empyrean." Ye Qianyu coldly smiled as she continued, "He is too overly confident. As the Lifire Palace Lord, he naturally is a lofty existence. This may be the reason why he assumes he could control everything. But when he finally discovers how wrong he is one day, he might regret the fact that he chose to use me to control Qin Wentian."

"Oh? If we were to say that the Lifire Empyrean has made a mistake, the mistake would be that he didn't shut us two together in the same cell. If not, we wouldn't have to be so lonely, HAHAHA!" That prisoner started to laugh in a crazed manner. Ye Qianyu's eyes flickered with a hint of killing intent.

"Tap, tap, tap…" A crisp sound rang out. That crazed laughter stopped as the prisoner turned his gaze towards the distance. Within the darkness, a white-robed figure could be seen drawing closer.

Gradually, a handsome face appeared in their vision. When she saw this, the coldness in Ye Qianyu's eyes instantly dissipated, replaced by a warm and gentle smile. She quietly watched as the handsome figure drew nearer. As for the prisoner in the opposite cell, his eyes narrowed as he watched on.

The white-robed figure walked closer step by step. His eyes shot out a beam of resplendent light as he cast a glance at the prisoner who was disrespectful towards Ye Qianyu. A moment later, that prisoner screamed as a red liquid flowed from his eyes.

Qin Wentian no longer bothered with the prisoner. He continued walking towards Ye Qianyu's cell. Ye Qianyu smiled and spoke softly, "You've come."

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded, trying his best to maintain his smile. "Palace mistress, you are still as beautiful as ever."

"You only know that I'm beautiful now?" Ye Qianyu laughed as she looked at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian awkwardly smiled. This woman was as though she wasn't currently in a jail. Or maybe, she would only be like that in front of him.

"You only came here once after fifty years. Have you gained some achievements for the Lifire Palace?" Ye Qianyu asked.

"Currently, I'm assigned the position of the northern governor, the place where the Jialan Clan is located. Not too long ago, I just cause a commotion in the northern city regions." Qin Wentian calmly said, summarizing the events that happened for her. Ye Qianyu nodded lightly after she heard the story, "You have to be more careful."

She knew that regardless of the Lifire Palace or Jialan Clan, neither were easy to deal with. Qin Wentian was sandwiched in the center, one could very well imagine the pressure he was under.

"I will." Qin Wentian seriously nodded. He then spoke, "Palace mistress, can you come closer?"

"Why? You want to take advantage of me?" Ye Qianyu charmingly smiled. She then giggled, "No way."

Qin Wentian had a face filled with black lines. After that, he sat down on the damp ground and took out a large piece of emperor stone. After that, a dagger was formed from his law energy as he started to sculpt.

Ye Qianyu stared at his actions only to hear Qin Wentian saying, "Back then after you helped me, I completely lost all news about you. After that, I went back to the beautiful lake and started sculpting a figurine with you in my mind. It was then when I first broke through to the immortal emperor realm. Now that I've broken through to the mid-stage, let me sculpt another figurine of you."

"Okay." Ye Qianyu smiled. She laid on the ground, leaning back and showing her beautiful legs that were crossed atop each other. She ran her fingers through her hair as her face took on a charming expression, "Sculpt me in this position."

"..." Qin Wentian was somewhat taken aback. He glanced at the excellent creature before him for a few moments before nodding his head.

Starlight flashed, the emperor stone slowly took on the form of a beautiful woman, exuding charm and alluringness.

"It's completed." Qin Wentian passed the finished sculpture to Ye Qianyu for her to look. Ye Qianyu nodded, "Alright you can return. If you miss me in the future, you can take the sculpture out and look at it."

"Do you really hate to see me so much?" Qin Wentian bitterly smiled.

"In the past, were you not the one constantly avoiding me? I'm worried that you would be charmed by me." Ye Qianyu revealed a devilish smile. Qin Wentian felt some guilt as he sighed, "Wait for me."

"Mhm." Ye Qianyu gently nodded, "Remember, you must always keep a low profile. Even when you feel that you have enough strength, you still have to keep a low-profile unless you are confident that you can achieve a sure-kill with one strike."

"I understand." Qin Wentian seriously nodded. He knew who Ye Qianyu was referring to.

Qin Wentian once again glanced at Ye Qianyu. After that, he turned and left. He didn't say anything to the prisoner he blinded. That prisoner also endured the pain and didn't dare to say anything. Sometimes, staying alive was more important than pride. Even if he was living an unbearable life in the Lifire Jail, it was still better compared to being dead.

Ye Qianyu glanced at the blinded prisoner in the opposite cell as a smile lit up her lips. Sadly, the blind prisoner would never be able to see her face again.

Maybe, this was the reason why Qin Wentian blinded this prisoner!

Chapter 1601: Emperor Pavilion Expanding Into the Northern City Regions

In the northern city regions, Qin Wentian split the share of his 10% to his 3,000 subordinates, causing many to sigh with admiration at his generosity. Although they suffered plenty through the years, everything was worth it. This lord governor was truly generous, in the future, who else would dare to say that the northern governor manor was the poorest?

Because of the commotion the previous incident caused, even an insignificant matter such as this started spreading around, causing many people to speculate that it seemed Qin Wentian truly had a very large harvest this year. If not, how would he be so generous? However, this was still to be expected. He had in one shot collected fifty-years worth of tribute, in addition to some resources which the various powers gave him privately. How terrifyingly astronomical was his harvest exactly?

After that, the governor's manor started to officially recruit people, including positions for vice-governors and attendants. The governor's manor underwent a huge expansion and with the previous incident blowing up their fame, there were numerous experts heading over for the interview for a period of time. Right now, the northern governor's manor was completely different from the past. Before this, they were viewed with contempt but after that battle, who would dare to show any disrespect to the governor's manor?

Naturally, there were many who were still considering. The Jialan Clan was still around after all. As long as the Jialan Clan was present, the governor's manor shouldn't think too much. Who knows when conflict would erupt forth?

In addition, after arriving at the governor's manor, when some immortal emperors heard that they had to undergo an inspection by the Evil Emperor if they wanted to become vice governors or attendants, many proud individuals rejected immediately, choosing to leave instead.

The recruitment drive resulted in the governor's manor being expanded to a total of 5,000 subordinates. There were now five vice governors and fifty attendants.

The vice governors all had mid-stage immortal emperor cultivation bases, attendants had initial-stage immortal emperor cultivation bases. Such a group of experts were now equal to the power wielded by the other governor manors.

Right now, there were at least tens of immortal emperors in the northern city regions. At the very least, they wouldn't come up short if they had to contend against a first-tier power again in the future.

After several days, a piece of shocking news circulated around the northern city regions. The pavilion lord of the Emperor Pavilion in the central city regions, Grandmaster Di Tian, came and pay a visit to the northern governor.

Once this piece of news was circulated out, many people started to pay attention to the situation here. After that, more information was spread saying that before this, Grandmaster Di Tian had already visited the eastern governor Lin Ba, southern governor Beauty Xiao, western governor Yin Qiu and the person he visited was none other than the northern governor Qin Wentian.

Out of the five governors, Di Tian only didn't pay a visit to the central governor Xia Hou. Many people involuntarily started to chat about the scandalous rumors from the last fifty years. It should be then that the relationships between Grandmaster Di and Governor Xiahou broke down.

Since Grandmaster Di Tian had paid a visit to so many governors, his visit this time around most probably was just a casual greeting.

However, when many people thought that everything was normal, another piece of news spread from the governor's manor.

The northern governor Qin Wentian had already passed the Ancient River Auction House to Grandmaster Di, allowing Di Tian to manage it. During these days, Grandmaster Di brought the experts of his Emperor Pavilion over and restructured the Ancient River Auction House. After that, he was planning an auction on a grand-scale and during the day of the auction, Grandmaster Di would take out treasures he personally forged, allowing interested parties to bid for them.

Naturally, everything was an exchange. By obtaining the Ancient River Auction House, Grandmaster Di has paid up many emperor-ranked stones to Qin Wentian and even gave him many powerful peak-stage emperor-ranked weapons.

This news caused a huge commotion in the northern city regions and countless were shocked.

Although the Ancient River Auction House was currently sealed off the public, the transaction pavilions outside its entrance were still open. Although they lost some popularity, but the commotion of this incident was too great, resulting in the fame of the Ancient River Auction House shooting up to an unprecedented height. If everything near it was truly sealed away, the popularity would surely gradually fade as everyone slowly forgot about it.

But now, since the Emperor Pavilion was coming in to take over, how could people not be excited? The fame of the Emperor Pavilion of the central regions was far greater when compared to the Ancient River Auction House.

One could definitely foresee that after Grandmaster Di Tian restructured the Ancient River Auction House, its popularity would surely shoot up through the roof.

At the same time, the governor's manor sent out more news saying that Governor Qin needed two protectors to assist him in handling things. The contract will last for a hundred years, and other than be able to receive rewards from the Lifire Palace, Governor Qin will still take out a peak-stage emperor-ranked weapon given to him by Grandmaster Di Tian and bestow it to the two protectors. This news immediately attracted the attention of many peak-stage immortal emperors.

What sort of combat prowess did Qin Wentian have? He killed tens of immortal emperors in a single battle, including several peak-stage ones. He also had the assistance from the peak-stage demon emperor the Evil Emperor. Right now, he wanted to recruit protectors and not vice governors and he would even bestow onto them peak-stage emperor-ranked weapons. There was no need to directly say things out loud, everyone was clear that Qin Wentian was only keen on accepting peak-stage immortal emperors or why would he even need to hire protectors? If he needed mid-stage ones, he already had five vice governors under him.

...

The date when the Ancient River Auction House reopened, Grandmaster Di Tian personally came by. However, the auction house was no longer named the Ancient River Auction House, it was now renamed the Emperor Pavilion.

Today, the Emperor Pavilion set up a grand and official opening. The pavilion lord Grandmaster Di Tian, the grand supervisor Mo Fei, and the young miss of the Mo Clan, Mo Junyi, all came by to support the opening ceremony. Naturally, there were many guests of high statuses, including aristocrat clans among them as well. The Mo Clan Clan Leader also came by to show his support.

As the Emperor Pavilion expanded, the Mo Clan Leader felt that his earlier decision was the right one. In the future, Grandmaster Di Tian's achievements can only be described with the words 'sky high.'

Just like right now, his weaponsmithing capabilities were already so strong that many peak-stage grandmaster weaponsmiths sighed at their inferiority in comparison to him.

The facilities in the auction house were all ready. Back then after this place was sealed, the Emperor Pavilion simply came by and took over. The grand hall and spectator stands that could seat tens of thousands including three levels of VIP seats and the auction stage were all already set up. The auction stage was right in the center and could rise up from below, sending the auctioneer up directly. This was something the Emperor Pavilion in the central regions couldn't compare.

Today, the seats were naturally fully filled. Even those walking around in the corridors were packed to the brim, even those who couldn't enter chose to remain outside to partake in the lively atmosphere. They were all extremely interested to see what sort of treasures the Emperor Pavilion would take out for auction. The popularity naturally boosted business for the transaction pavilions outside. The atmosphere was extremely lively, far more so compared to the Ancient River Auction House before.

This caused many people to silently muse that the Ancient River Auction House was truly finished, everyone would soon forget about them. Naturally, this was because the Emperor Pavilion's fame was just too high. If it was some other major powers taking over, the situation might not be as explosive as it was now.

As expected of Grandmaster Di, he didn't disappoint anyone. The treasures he forged were all peak-stage emperor-ranked weapons and were as exquisite and unique as ever. Many people competed in bidding for them and the treasures were finally sold for an astronomical amount. Other than this, there were also other extremely rare treasures up for auction, causing many to be filled with excitement. In the entire auction, the atmosphere was extremely lively. This caused many to nod in admiration, the reputation of the Emperor Pavilion wasn't just for show.

After the auction, the fame of the Emperor Pavilion instantly increased as word of it spread through the northern city regions. This Emperor Pavilion which originated from the central city regions, truly lived up to its reputation. Those lucky enough to attend the auction were all in very high spirits, praising the Emperor Pavilion and Grandmaster Di Tian unceasingly.

And right now, in the backyard of the past Ancient River Auction House, there were many people currently present. These people were all here to pay Di Tian a visit. Other than people from the Mo Clan, and powers from the northern city regions, the other visitors were from major powers that hailed from the central city regions.

After the banquet started, Di Tian sat in the host seat. With a mask on, he gave off a sense of mystery to everyone. He then raised his wine cup and smiled, "Many thanks for everyone rushing here to support me. I, Di, am really thankful for everyone's supportive spirit. In the future, in the northern city regions, I still hope that everyone would be able to take care of my small business."

"That's only natural. As part of first-tier powers in the northern city regions, we are all doing business here and should take care of each other. We should even form an alliance to prevent ourselves from being bullied." An expert laughed, his words causing a strange look to appear on Di Tian's face. "Being bullied? Are your words too serious? Everyone here is from first-tier powers, is there anyone else in the city that can bully you all?"

"Haha, can't Grandmaster Di guess it?" That person laughed and flashed a meaningful smile at Di Tian. "This Ancient River Auction House was also once a first-tier power."

The eyes revealed by Di Tian's mask froze as sharpness gleamed within. The Ancient River Auction House?

The spearhead of this sentence seemed to be pointed at the governor's manor, pointed at Qin Wentian. When he thought of this, Di Tian couldn't help but to feel mirth. Most probably, with regards to the expert who just spoke, even in his wildest dreams he would never imagine the person he was referring to was currently seated right before him.

"I heard that the Ancient River Auction House refused to cooperate and pay the tributes, openly rebelling against the governor's manor. This is the reason why Governor Qin sealed this place. Could there be some more things hidden that I don't know about?" Di Tian pretended to be ignorant as he asked with a look of puzzlement on his face.

"Haha, Grandmaster Di. Truth to be told, this northern city regions are much more complicated and chaotic compared to the central city regions. If the governor's manor can protect us all, we will naturally pay the tributes every ten years. However, in the past tens of years, the governor's manor didn't even do a single thing for us. The moment they made a move, they instantly destroyed a few major powers, including first-tier ones. After that, they then started to collect tributes from all the various powers in the north. How can this be considered efficient? The governor's manor is clearly using the threat of force." That person shook his head.

"Ai, the governor's manor just grew stronger and they are already so tyrannical. Our hearts grew cold when we saw what Governor Qin did." Another person joined in. Di Tian glanced at everyone here and instantly understood what they wanted in their hearts. The wine lover's heart wasn't really in drinking wine. These people all had ulterior motives and weren't here simply to pay a visit and gift him congratulatory gifts.

"But when I went to the governor's manor back then and asked Governor Qin to allow me to manage the Ancient River Auction House, Governor Qin didn't make things difficult for me?" Di Tian pretended to be very surprised. He wanted to wait for these people to reveal all their cards. What did they want exactly?

"The governor's manor just finished their restructuring, they naturally wouldn't be in a hurry to act. Right now, they are focused on developing their own strength, expanding constantly. I wonder what will happen in the future." The person continued. "Grandmaster Di Tian, although we temporarily cannot tell what the future might be, but it's always best to be safe than sorry. All of us should be prepared in case some things really happen."

Chapter 1602: Jialan Clan's Invitation

Di Tian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. He stared at that person and smiled, "Preparations? What do you mean?"

"Grandmaster Di Tian has been in Lifire City for many years and you should know a bit about the situation here in the northern city regions, right?" That person asked.

"Mhm, I heard that the Jialan Clan has great influence in this city region. The Lifire Empyrean arranged for Qin Wentian to come here because Governor Qin had a very deep conflict with the Jialan Monarch." Di Tian nodded and spoke bluntly, he didn't pretend to be ignorant.

"That's right. The Jialan Clan's authority in the northern city regions is extremely immense and can be said to be the backbone of all the major powers, they can basically replace the governor's manor and there would be no difference. However, Governor Qin's recent actions caused me to feel fear in my heart. I have no idea what consequences would there be for his actions, hence, we need to make preparations. If Governor Qin treats us well, everything would be fine. But if Governor Qin wants to screw us, there's no way we will sit around and wait for our death."

Di Tian felt somewhat shocked. There were many major powers present here, including many from the central city regions yet they didn't hide their intent with words at all in this situation. From this, one could see how terrifying the influence the Jialan Clan had in the northern city regions. The scope of their influence and authority was far vaster than his imaginations. In that case, those here who came from the northern city regions should all be in support of the Jialan Clan.

Naturally, although this man spoke bluntly, there was nothing too over the top in his words. They only said that they wanted to prevent Qin Wentian from acting against them. Even if this was spread out, it was impossible for Qin Wentian to do anything to him. There was no justification.

One can only say that these people basically didn't fear Qin Wentian knowing their stance. Or in other words, their stance was already extremely obvious, fully in support of the Jialan Clan.

"The implications of this matter is too big. I came from the central city regions and I'm sure everyone knows that I'm here to expand my Emperor Pavilion. I'm unwilling to be embroiled in this storm. After all, I also know that this doesn't simply involve the governor's manor, it even has implications that reaches above that. If Governor Qin was to collect tribute, I'll naturally pay up. I don't think the governor's manor would do anything to me." Di Tian calmly replied.

Everyone laughed, they weren't angered by Di Tian's words. That was a natural response. Who would dare to easily declare their stance when caught between the palace lord and the Jialan Clan? After all, Di Tian came from the central city regions and his main base wasn't here, he wasn't under the control of this region specifically and it was naturally best that he didn't want to be embroiled within the storm. This was the best choice.

"We all understand Grandmaster Di Tian's intentions. This is a little token of my appreciation, I hope Grandmaster Di Tian will accept it." A figure stood up and took out an interspatial ring, passing it to Di Tian's serving girl, Little Zhu, who took it and then passed to Di Tian.

"Sir, you are?" Di Tian asked.

"Jialan Chen." That person smiled and nodded. Di Tian instantly understood, he received the interspatial ring and sent his immortal sense within as he spoke, "These gifts are too valuable, I, Di, truly dare not accept them. Brother Jialan, I hope you won't blame me for my refusal."

After that, he passed the interspatial ring to Little Zhu as she returned it to Jialan Chen. Jialan Chen casually smiled and kept the interspatial ring, "Since this is the case, I won't bother Grandmaster Di Tian then."

"We all shall bid our farewell too then." Everyone stood up respectively and departed. Very quickly, the lively banquet turned to a quiet one, only those major powers from the central city regions remained. Those from the northern city regions actually all left.

Staring at the empty tables, Di Tian's eyes gleamed sharply. This influence was truly terrifying.

"Di Tian, you most probably have offended the Jialan Clan with your earlier words." The Mo Clan Leader, Mo Ting, spoke out.

Di Tian nodded, "Is the influence of the Jialan Clan in the north so terrifying?"

"They have very deep roots. After all, they have been here for many years. Their shadow is behind many major powers in the northern city regions." Mo Ting nodded. "This Qin Wentian is truly audacious, actually daring to use such a method to stir things up. I think that the Jialan Clan would surely retaliate against him. As for you, although you rejected them, there is no hatred between you. The Jialan Clan might make a move against you, but they wouldn't be too ruthless. It's best to be more careful."

"I understand." Qin Wentian nodded.

For the next several days, the Emperor Pavilion in the northern city regions was still extremely busy. However, Mo Fei discovered a small problem. Many transaction pavilions in the Emperor Pavilion's surroundings all closed up one after the other, as though they were all in tacit agreement. As time flowed, more and more transaction pavilions in the surroundings closed shop.

One must know that in order to boost the popularity of a place, the businesses there must all cooperate together. Now that all the large transaction pavilions closed one after another with only the Emperor Pavilion remaining, it was no wonder that its popularity would dip.

What made Mo Fei feel even more shock was that those people who were willing to send their treasures here for the Emperor Pavilion to auction, had also lessened in number, they already reached a point where they couldn't support the normal operations of the Emperor Pavilion. If this continued on, unless Di Tian took out his own treasures every day for auction, the Emperor Pavilion would close down sooner or later.

Di Tian stood in the air outside the Emperor Pavilion, staring at the surroundings that grew more and more desolate with time. More and more transaction pavilions were closing down, even if they knew the damage their actions would cause to the Emperor Pavilion, they all seemed to have come to a mutual agreement. This caused Di Tian to feel a chill in his heart. There were those who saw Di Tian standing in the air, and the eyes of these people couldn't help but to flash with hints of sympathy.

Borrowing the commotion of the Ancient River Auction House being handed over, the Emperor Pavilion's opening was extremely grand. However, in a short one month, the popularity dipped to the freezing point. They naturally knew the reason behind this. Everyone in the northern city regions knew.

The governor manor's opponent had made their move.

Since the governor's manor wanted to hand the Ancient River Auction House for Di Tian to manage, they would make sure the popularity in this entire area died off then.

"What should we do?" Mo Junyi had appeared beside Di Tian some time earlier. In the central city regions, the Emperor Pavilion can be considered stabilized and was extremely popular. They initially came to the north because they thought they would be able to develop very quickly. Who would have thought that the Jialan Clan would make such a move.

"Let's wait, there naturally would be people looking for us." Di Tian calmly spoke. Mo Junyi's eyes flashed with a strange light, "How do you know?"

"Since the Jialan Clan could be so strong to this extent, they naturally had some reasons behind it. This time, they just want to give us a punishment and isn't intending on offending us to the end. Also, this area is so vast, since they forced the other transaction pavilions here to close down, the Jialan Clan must be responsible for taking care of the losses the business owners suffered. If not, why would all the transaction pavilion's bosses side with the Jialan Clan? If they truly wanted to make this entire area die off, the expenses might even make the Jialan Clan cough blood." Di Tian analysed. Mo Junyi seriously listened and nodded her head in agreement.

As expected of Di Tian's analysis. Several days later, a person came by to pay a visit and brought with him the interspatial ring which Di Tian didn't accept back then. This time around, Di Tian accepted it.

Both parties seemed to be in silent agreement not to mention anything about the incidents that happened in recent days. They merely exchanged conventional greetings before the envoy from Jialan Clan departed.

The day after that, the various major transaction pavilions started to open again and people continued to send their treasures to the Emperor Pavilion for them to be auctioned off. After the people in the northern city regions learned about it, they seemed to have understood something. More and more people came by as the popularity slowly climbed back upwards.

For the following period of time, things were very calm. Nobody came by to look for Di Tian and the Emperor Pavilion didn't encounter any trouble. Everything was back to normal.

Until one day, an invitation was sent to the Emperor Pavilion, inviting Di Tian to attend the birthday celebration of a young miss of the Jialan Clan.

...

The Jialan Clan was in the central area in the northern city regions. Their location was even better than the northern governor's manor and the land size of their territory was at least ten times larger when compared.

Looking from the outside, one could see many elegant pavilions and majestic halls. In fact, just even the Jialan Clan's entrance gate was already incomparably imposing.

In the entire Lifire City, only a place could be comparable to the Jialan Clan - the Lifire Palace.

From this point, one could very well imagine how strong the Jialan Clan was.

Today, many carriages came by unceasingly to the Jialan Clan. There were either slaves pulling the carriage or terrifyingly powerful demon kings. Regardless of mid-stage of peak-stage emperors, all of them would descend from the air and exit their carriage before walking through the Jialan Clan's gate to indicate their respect.

For those who came, it was either they had high cultivation bases, or they had strong backgrounds behind them. Today, they came here because of the Jialan Clan's invitation.

Di Tian stood outside the Jialan Clan. When he saw such a majestic sight before him, he had a clearer understanding of the Jialan Clan's strength. Just a young miss of the Jialan Clan actually caused so many experts to come for her birthday celebration. From this, one could see that the Jialan Clan did put in the effort to develop the major powers in the northern city regions that allied with them. Only so would the major powers be willing to follow them wholeheartedly.

"Grandmaster Di Tian, long time no see." A person walked over and greeted Di Tian. It was none other than the person from the Jialan Clan who had attended the banquet on the Emperor Pavilion's opening day. A meaningful smile appeared in his eyes. This Grandmaster Di Tian whose fame shook the entire Lifire City still had to bow his head when he came to the northern city regions. Unless he didn't plan to do business in the northern city regions, if not, if he didn't lower his head, the Jialan Clan would ensure that all your plans would only lead to failure.

"Long time no see." Di Tian smiled in reply.

"Grandmaster Di Tian, let's go in together. This time, it's a birthday celebration of a famous young miss from the Jialan Clan. Although she rarely shows herself in public, she can also be considered a famous beauty. Later on, Grandmaster Di will surely be able to feast your eyes on her beauty." This immortal emperor laughed.

Di Tian nodded with a smile. "In that case, I'm truly extremely curious. Please."

The two of them entered the Jialan Clan together and handed over their invitations. A serving girl then ushered them in. Each serving girl here was robed in elegant clothing that accentuated their figures. Every one of them could be considered rare beauties and just them alone was sufficient to dazzle the eyes of the guests.

They followed after the serving girl and could see how majestic and prosperous the Jialan Clan was every time they turned their gazes. Di Tian couldn't help but to compare this place with the Lifire Palace. After all, his true-self has gone to the Lifire Palace many times, he naturally had seen the interior of the Lifire Palace before.

Even when compared to the Lifire Palace, the Jialan Clan wasn't in anyway inferior!

Chapter 1603: Jialan Qiuyue

Di Tian was led towards a splendid-looking public square. The banquet tables were already set up and the experts here were as common as clouds. Today, there were actually several hundred guests who came today.

Also, every one of the guests had extraordinary auras. Other than those serving girls, more than half of the guests were at the immortal emperor realm. This was simply terrifying.

Di Tian and many others arrived and there immediately was more servants stepping out to welcome them.

"Grandmaster Di Tian!" At this moment, a young man called out as he walked over. Although this young man had never met Di Tian before, Di Tian's mask was simply too conspicuous. Those who heard of him would recognize who he was with just a single glance.

"My name is Jialan Jun, I've long heard about Grandmaster Di's name. Today, being able to meet you is truly an honor for me." Jialan Jun's tone of voice was sincere and polite. As a young immortal emperor of the Jialan Clan, Di Tian actually couldn't sense any hints of arrogance from him, there was only a sense of humbleness.

This made Di Tian muse silently. The Jialan Clan could last for so many years and was comparable to the Lifire Empyrean, there truly must be many reasons behind this. The upbringing of their scions made Di Tian feel that they are truly extremely outstanding.

"Brother Jialan is too polite." Di Tian nodded his head lightly.

"Grandmaster Di, please follow me." Jialan Jun bowed slightly and acted like a junior leading the way, he didn't express any unhappiness at all with regards to Di Tian's initial rejection of their Jialan Clan's friendship. He then led Di Tian to a table very near the host table as he smiled, "Grandmaster, please be seated."

Many people turned their gazes to Di Tian, their eyes gleamed with sharpness as they watched on. Seems like the Jialan Clan heavily regarded this Grandmaster Di.

But this should be expected. Even ignoring Di Tian's strength and just rating him based on his capabilities in formations and weapon forging, as well as the Emperor Pavilion he set up, it was already sufficient to gain the respect of everyone here. It was only natural that such an outstanding weaponsmith was respected. Many would clearly want to gain Grandmaster Di Tian's friendship.

Hence, many experts from the various major powers all toasted Di Tian, walking over to his table to greet him and introduce themselves.

"Grandmaster Di." In front of Di Tian, someone called out. Di Tian glanced over and saw two figures smiling at him. One was a middle-aged man and the other was a young man with spirited eyes. The middle-aged man was a peak-stage emperor while the young man was at the initial-stage.

"I'm Zhou Zou, this is my son Zhou Yan." The middle-aged man laughed.

"Uncle Zhou is the clan leader of the Aristocrat Zhou Clan in the northern city regions. The previous generations of the Zhou Clan had marriage relations with our Jialan Clan." Jialan Jun who was by the side smiled. Di Tian nodded, his true-self Qin Wentian already knew that the influence of the Jialan Clan in the north couldn't simply be because they possessed enough strength. There were many marriage alliances among the great aristocrat clans, further reinforcing their statuses. The Jialan Clan has been in the northern city regions for too many years and generations after generations, many females of the Jialan Clan were married into the various powers of the northern city regions. Since they were allied by marriage, the Jialan Clan would naturally also put in their best efforts to nurture those they were allied with, allowing everyone to grow stronger and stronger.

It has already been so for multiple generations. One could very well imagine how wide the scope of the Jialan Clan's influence reached.

"I greet senior Zhou." Di Tian smiled and nodded. In the Jialan Clan, he naturally understood that he should maintain a humble attitude. Right now, he was after all, someone who has accepted the Jialan Clan's gift. At the very least, on the surface, he was someone that was already on the Jialan Clan's ship.

"Grandmaster is too polite. Given your status, you can just call me directly by my name." Zhou Zou laughed.

"Brother Zhou." Since that was the case, Di Tian also wasn't too overly polite as he laughed.

"In that case, wouldn't I automatically become a junior?" Zhou Yan who was at the side, spoke in a depressed manner. "That can't do, I will still refer to you as Grandmaster Di."

"Haha, Brother Zhou Yan, just feel free to call me whatever you want." Di Tian smiled.

"Grandmaster Di Tian, there's naturally no need for me to give praise with regards to your forging abilities, everyone in Lifire City knows how awesome you are. However, what is your current cultivation base? I actually can't tell." Zhou Yan curiously asked.

"I'm not as passionate with regards to the martial path when compared to weaponsmithing. I think I'd rather not talk about that." Di Tian laughed. He had used a sealing technique to seal the fluctuations of his current cultivation base.

"Actually, I feel somewhat puzzled. Since Grandmaster Di Tian has such extraordinary achievements in weaponsmithing, I believe that your talent in the martial path must definitely be very strong as well. Although Grandmaster's status isn't something Liu Feibei could compare to, why didn't you teach him a lesson when he challenged you in the past?" Zhou Yan smiled as he asked, causing many people to turn their gazes over.

If one was to say that there was a black mark on Grandmaster Di Tian's reputation, this should be the one. Although he didn't have any reason to accept the battle, it was a fact that he had evaded it, ignoring Liu Feibai's challenge.

"Maybe, things are just as rumored. Although my capabilities in weaponsmithing are not too bad, my combat prowess is simply too weak and has no way to win against Liu Feibai. That is the reason why I evaded the battle." Di Tian clearly didn't mind as he casually laughed.

"Oh?" Zhou Yan's eyes gleamed sharply. "Why don't I believe it?"

"Zhou Yan, you are not allowed to be rude," Zhou Zou berated. Zhou Yan then looked at Di Tian with an apologetic look on his face. He then smiled and did not continue speaking.

Di Tian casually glanced at the surroundings. When he saw a figure, his gaze abruptly froze as his eyes narrowed, flickering with a cold light.

The Jialan Monarch seemed to have sensed something. He turned his head back and looked over, only to see Di Tian's revealed eyes calmly looking at him. Upon seeing the Jialan Monarch turning his head, Di Tian nodded to him lightly.

The Jialan Monarch also smiled and nodded back before shifting his eyes away. However, he felt some bewilderment in his heart. His senses have always been extremely sharp. Earlier, he felt a cold intent targeted at him but that cold intent vanished in an instant. Could it be that his instincts were wrong?

Or had he offended this man before in the past?

Although he was stationed outside of Lifire City, the Jialan Monarch has heard of Di Tian's name before. He could be very sure that he has never offended someone who was proficient in sealing abilities and was even a weaponsmith grandmaster. He had even never interacted with any character like this before.

Di Tian casually glanced over a few more times. If he could do so, he wanted nothing more than to tear the Jialan Monarch apart. Since he met him here now, he would naturally take the chance to observe the Jialan Monarch more.

As one of the nine monarchs under the Lifire Empyrean, the Jialan Monarch naturally had great authority. However, his status in the Jialan Clan didn't seem to be too high. At the very least, there were some in the Jialan Clan who don't seem to respect him.

"That's my uncle. He is one of the nine monarchs that takes orders from the Lifire Empyrean." Jialan Jun spoke in a low voice when he saw Di Tian looking at the Jialan Monarch.

"As someone of the Jialan Clan, why would he submit to the Lifire Empyrean and work under him?" Di Tian curiously asked.

"Naturally, someone in the upper echelons pulled some strings." Jialan Jun laughed. Di Tian started, the upper echelons? Did it mean that someone with a status higher than the Lifire Empyrean?

"I'm sure the Lifire Empyrean would have some misgivings about this." Di Tian laughed.

"That's only natural. My Jialan Clan has always been powerful. Even in Lifire City, the entire northern regions are under our control. As for the nine monarchs…" Jialan Jun had a meaningful smile on his face and didn't continue on the topic. After a few moments, he laughed, "Grandmaster should know this, my Jialan Clan had once tried to contend against the Lifire Empyrean for the position of the palace lord. We naturally wish to seize this position."

Di Tian nodded lightly. Although this Jialan Jun had a humble attitude, there was still a feeling of arrogance and pride from him when he spoke about the Jialan Clan.

"As for my uncle, we paid quite a huge price to elevate him to his current position. It's good enough as long as he can sit in that position stably and give no excuses for the Lifire Empyrean to act against him. However, tens of years ago, he made a mistake and almost lost his position. Hence, many in my clan look down on him, feeling that he wasted the clan's efforts in pulling him up."

Jialan Jun transmitted his voice and didn't say the words publicly. He naturally had to care about the Jialan Monarch's reputation. Seeing that Jialan Jun could say these words to him, Di Tian was silently impressed. If he was just an ordinary grandmaster weaponsmith and wasn't Qin Wentian's avatar, he might really have felt goodwill towards the Jialan Clan.

"My elder sister has just come out." At this moment, Jialan Jun suddenly spoke. Di Tian turned his gaze over only to see a group of people walking over. His eyes instantly landed on a person. This was a female that was robed in white, she possessed a transcendent aura and exuded nobility and elegance. Bright light shone in her eyes, she had exquisite facial features and ruby red lips. Her skin was like jade, she truly resembled a fairy from the heavens.

"Is she beautiful? My sister is known as the number one beauty in the northern city regions. Even in the entire Lifire City, almost no one can stand side by side with her." Jialan Jun laughed when he noticed Di Tian focusing his attention on his sister.

"Truly beautiful indeed." Di Tian nodded, he didn't hide anything. This female was truly beautiful, no one could deny that.

"Fairy Qiuyue is truly more and more beautiful, like a celestial maiden from the nine heavens." Someone involuntarily praised.

"Jialan Jun, does your sister still need you to promote her beauty?" Zhou Zou also laughed.

"Mhm, in the entire Lifire City, Fairy Qiuyue has peak-level talent in terms of her cultivation and is also an exceptional beauty. This is something known to everyone." Another person nodded with a smile.

"Jialan Qiuyue, Jialan Mingyue." Di Tian mused silently, Jialan Mingyue should have been considered as this Jialan Qiuyue's younger sister. Although they weren't blood siblings, they must have been closely related.

"Today is Qiuyue's birthday celebration. Everyone, we are filled with gratitude that you can take out time from your busy schedules to attend." Beside Jialan Qiuyue, a middle-aged man laughed as he spoke to the crowd. He was Jialan Qiuyue and Jialan Jun's father, Jialan Cheng. He was also the eldest son of the current generation clan leader of the Jialan Clan. Behind him, there was also an elderly-looking figure of the Jialan Clan. This elderly-looking figure was none other than the Jialan Clan Leader, Jialan Yuntian.

"Qiuyue is the grand-daughter I like the most. Since everyone came, it means that you all are giving me face. I won't speak further, let the banquet be started, there's no need to feel restrained." Jialan Yuntian laughed. He then moved to the host table and allowed Jialan Qiuyue to sit beside him. He had many descendants, even more in Jialan Qiuyue's generation. However, Jialan Yuntian didn't mask his liking at all, announcing to everyone that his favourite granddaughter was none other than Jialan Qiuyue. From this, one could see how much he dotes on her!

Chapter 1604: Suing for Peace

Jialan Qiuyue glanced at her grandfather, "Grandpa, we still have some guests that have yet to arrive. Shouldn't we wait?"

"There's no need to. They would have already arrived if they wanted to come. Let's get things started." Jialan Yuntian casually spoke. Di Tian lowered his head slightly, his black eyes gleamed with a hint of sharpness. He naturally understood who Jialan Yuntian was referring to. He was speaking about his true-self, the governor's manor had also received the Jialan Clan's invitation. Most probably, this birthday celebration was prepared for Qin Wentian to see.

"Mhm." Jialan Qiuyue gently laughed, she was graceful and dignified, an exceptional beauty indeed.

"Qiuyue, today is your birthday banquet. Uncle didn't really prepare much, I hope you accept this gift from me." Zhou Zou, who sat opposite to Di Tian, smiled as he took out an interspatial ring. Although everyone didn't know what was in it, there was no doubt that valuable treasures must be within. Given Jialan Qiuyue's status, she would have countless ordinary treasures if she just stretched her hand out to ask for them.

"Thank you Uncle Zhou." Jialan Qiuyue smiled and accepted the ring. After that, the guests all sent up their congratulatory gifts one after another, clearly having prepared for it. Although Di Tian didn't prepare for this specifically, it didn't mean that he wouldn't be able to take out a valuable treasure. With a wave of his hand, an emperor-ranked weapon appeared as he passed it over, "I didn't really prepare anything, I hope miss Jialan will accept my humble gift."

Jialan Qiuyue smiled at Qin Wentian and accepted the gift. "I've long heard of Grandmaster Di's fame and finally have the honor to meet with you today. It's Qiuyue's honor to be able to obtain a personally-forged weapon from Grandmaster Di Tian."

"Miss Jialan is too polite." Di Tian nodded his head lightly.

"Grandmaster Di Tian, you can just call me by my name, there's no need to be so polite. In the future when I need to refine or forge a weapon, can I invite Grandmaster Di to help me out?" Jialan Qiuyue smiled as she asked.

"Naturally. If Miss Qiuyue has any need for weapons, you can just come to the Emperor Pavilion and look for me directly." Di Tian nodded.

"Grandmaster Di, this lass is too playful. Don't promise her so fast or she might irritate you to death." Jialan Yuntian laughed. As the clan leader of the Jialan Clan, he had no airs at all when he faced Di Tian and looked extremely amicable. This truly made Di Tian view him in a new light. As an existence that could rival the Lifire Palace Lord, the Jialan Clan was truly extraordinary.

"Grandpa, why are you talking ill of your own granddaughter?" Jialan Qiuyue rolled her eyes at her grandpa with mock resentment. As an immortal emperor and an exceptional beauty, this attitude that she showed, was truly extremely tempting.

"Haha, did I say something wrong?" Jialan Yuntian laughed loudly, there were no hints of imposingness that one would surely think the leader of a great clan would exude. From this, one could tell that the relationship between the grandparent and child was truly exceptional.

"Governor Qin of the northern governor's manor has arrived!" At this moment, a voice rang out from outside. A moment later, numerous gazes turned in that direction as the eyes of everyone flashed with sharpness.

Has Qin Wentian finally arrived?

From afar, two figures could be seen walking over. The man in the lead was robed in white, he was extremely handsome and possessed an extraordinary demeanor. Although this was the first time many had seen him, all of them couldn't help but to praise silently in their hearts. No wonder the Lifire Empyrean would use such a character, he was truly a terrific individual.

Qin Wentian brought a person with him, the other person was actually a serving girl. It was like he didn't worry the Jialan Clan would deal with him at all. But of course, everyone understood that with his status as a governor, since the Jialan Clan could invite him here today, there was no way the Jialan Clan would be foolish enough to do anything to him here. If they did so, that would be tantamount to announcing war against the Lifire Palace, or challenging the prestige of the Lifelong Realmlord.

Jialan Yuntian stood up, after that, the guests here all stood up as well. Although Qin Wentian was a junior before Jialan Yuntian, he was still the northern governor on the surface. And as the clan leader of the Jialan Clan, Jialan Yuntian still had to ensure that he showed politeness on the surface.

"This old man is truly grateful that Governor Qin managed to come." Jialan Yuntian smiled at the approaching Qin Wentian, "Please be seated."

Qin Wentian clasped his hands, "Since senior Jialan has invited me, how would junior dare to not show up? I only hope that clan leader won't blame junior for being late."

"Why would I?" Jialan Yuntian laughed. "Please be seated, I still thought Governor Qin wouldn't show up today."

"Okay." Qin Wentian nodded. He walked towards a seat beside Grandmaster Di Tian and spoke to the person seated there. "Sir, can you change your seat?"

That person started, glancing at Jialan Yuntian. Jialan Yuntian lightly nodded in response. Only then did that person stand up, "Governor Qin, please."

After Qin Wentian sat down, his serving girl stood behind him. He glanced at Di Tian beside him and laughed, "Oh, Grandmaster Di isn't in your Emperor Pavilion? Why have you come here?"

Everyone had an expression like they were watching a drama as they saw this scene. Before this, Di Tian just headed to the governor's manor to meet with Qin Wentian to discuss taking over the Ancient River Auction House. Who would have thought that Di Tian would be on the Jialan Clan's side so quickly after that. Most probably, Qin Wentian wasn't feeling too comfortable in his heart.

Di Tian had an embarrassed look on his face, he smiled, "Lord Governor, I came to pay a visit here as I received an invitation from the Jialan Clan."

"I see." Qin Wentian nodded. A servant here then came over and helped Qin Wentian pour wine. Qin Wentian lifted his cup to Di Tian and laughed, "In that case, let me first congratulate Grandmaster Di in advance for your brilliant future prospects."

"Many thanks Lord Governor." Di Tian awkwardly touched his cup with Qin Wentian's. Upon seeing this scene, Jialan Yuntian naturally felt happy. He laughed, "Today, the two most outstanding geniuses in the northern city regions that appeared within the past tens of years are both gathered here in my Jialan Clan. This can really be considered a matter of honor for me."

His words weren't too much of an exaggeration. Through these fifty years, Qin Wentian and Di Tian both rose to the top. Qin Wentian was famous for his combat prowess, not long ago, he used a single battle to stun everyone in Lifire City and everyone knew how domineering he could be. As for Di Tian, he rose to the top with his proficiency in formations and weaponsmithing, slowly becoming the number one weaponsmith in Lifire City. Even if one was to mention a time period of hundreds of years, these two would still be the most outstanding geniuses that had appeared.

However, most probably no one here expected that the two of them who were now in opposite camps would actually be the same person. The true-self was famed for his combat prowess while his avatar was famed for being a grandmaster weaponsmith.

"Not long ago, Governor Qin's fame shook the entire Lifire City with that battle. Now that we have met, I can tell that Governor Qin truly deserves his reputation. Let me, Jialan Qiuyue, first offer a toast to Governor Qin." Jialan Qiuyue's eyes flashed sharply as she lifted her cup.

Qin Wentian glanced at her. Although Jialan Qiuyue's beauty was exceptional, the expression on Qin Wentian's face was as calm as ever. He casually replied, "Since today is your birthday celebration, this seat will give you some face. Please."

As he spoke, he drained the contents of his cup in a single gulp. His words sounded somewhat impolite, causing a strange light to glimmer in Jialan Qiuyue's eyes. She then too, drained the contents of her cup as she continued, "It's a matter of regret for me that I failed to witness that legendary battle that day. Now that Governor Qin has graced our humble residence with your appearance, I wonder if I can get Governor Qin to provide me with some guidance?"

"You are not my match." Qin Wentian calmly glanced at her, not giving her face at all.

Jialan Qiuyue's expression turned stiff. What sort of character was she? There never has been anyone who dared not to give her face before. But even so, she managed to curb her emotions and continued to smile, "Governor Qin, are you not too overly confident in yourself?"

"Let alone the fact that our cultivation bases are similar, even if you had a higher cultivation base than me, you still wouldn't be my match." Qin Wentian's tone didn't hide any of his tyranny at all. His eyes then turned to a figure at the banquet as he icily continued, "But if the Jialan Monarch is willing to spar with me, this seat will be happy to accept it."

The Jialan Monarch's eyes were as sharp as swords, staring venomously at Qin Wentian. Ever since Qin Wentian arrived here, his eyes had never left Qin Wentian. He naturally knew that Qin Wentian's hatred for him was bonedeep but didn't he also wish to kill Qin Wentian right now? It was because of Qin Wentian that he lost so many descendants and had to endure great pressure from the Lifire Palace, which resulted in him losing prestige in the eyes of his own clan.

The eyes of the Jialan Monarch were ice-cold. Although the hatred between the two of them was very deep, he actually felt much fear towards Qin Wentian. Back then when Qin Wentian was merely at the initial-stage of the immortal emperor ream, he already dared to barge his way alone into the Jialan Emperor Palace, fighting against the Crow Emperor. And now, he who has broken through to the mid-stage, crushed numerous immortal emperors during the battle at the Ancient River Auction House. Hence, the Jialan Monarch didn't dare to fight this man whom he once held in disdain. Back then when he brought Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian into his palace, Qin Wentian was just a minor character. But now, this minor character had already grown to such a stage.

"Governor Qin, this old man invited you here today but I believe many people might have misunderstood my intentions. The Jialan Clan has been stationed in Lifire City for many years but we don't have many enemies. This isn't because we are afraid of stirring up trouble, it's just that our Jialan Clan isn't willing to offend people. Your conflict with him is understandable. Although this son of mine was in the wrong for some areas, you and Ye Qianyu were ultimately still bandits. Even if it was a different monarch in power, that monarch would still have acted against you two. In addition, the one who made a move back then was none other than the Lifire Palace. Hence, it isn't so easy to resolve this conflict but we can still try." As the voice of Jialan Yuntian faded, everyone had looks of shock and surprise on their faces, staring puzzledly at Jialan Yuntian.

Even Qin Wentian had a look of surprise on his face. As the Jialan Clan Leader, Jialan Yuntian actually invited him here for the sake of suing for peace?

Naturally, Qin Wentian wouldn't believe it with just a sentence. After a few moment, he recovered and laughed, "Will the Jialan Monarch agree?"

Back then, it was he that caused the Jialan Monarch to suffer grievous losses. The hatred between them was bone-deep. How could it be so easily resolved?

"Naturally, as long as Governor Qin is willing to give up on this grudge, I can guarantee that my Jialan Clan would not deliberately target any of your operations. As for Ye Qianyu, I can also understand the situation. You should know very well what the real reason is that the Lifire Empyrean chose to imprison her. If Governor Qin is willing to become a friend of my Jialan Clan, we will do our best to try and get her out." Jialan Yuntian laughed, wanting to pull Qin Wentian over to his side.

"Leaving aside all other things, can I even believe in clan leader's words?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed.

"I can make the decision, and even arrange a marriage between us, allowing one of my grand-daughters to be married to you with the status of your concubine. Also, regardless of her beauty or status in the clan, both of them wouldn't be lacking." Jialan Yuntian stated, causing the hearts of everyone to tremble. Even Qin Wentian was silently impressed, as expected of the leader from an extremely powerful clan.

"But...I want the Jialan Monarch to die." Qin Wentian's voice was cold, his words made it so that there was no room to save this situation. Given the current situation, Ye Qianyu was still imprisoned and with the Jialan Monarch here, it was impossible that he shifted his allegiance!

Chapter 1605: News from Beauty Xiao

Jialan Yuntian's expression sank. Everyone turned to stare at him and someone spoke up, "Governor Qin, don't go too far. The Jialan Clan Leader has already given you sufficient face and is even willing to marry a young miss of the Jialan Clan to you. Why must you be so forceful?"

"The conflict between me and the Jialan Monarch most probably cannot be resolved. Hence, one of us must die. Isn't that right?" Qin Wentian smiled at the Jialan Monarch.

The icy look in the Jialan Monarch's eyes was obvious to the extreme as he stared at Qin Wentian. If he knew that Qin Wentian would have such status today, he would have spared no expense to kill him back then.

"Since this is the case, this old man shall not speak on this further. Governor Qin, you can consider my words well after you return. My Jialan Clan will definitely not make any moves against you. I hope that the Jialan Clan's concession will be able to win Governor Qin's friendship." Jialan Yuntian stared at Qin Wentian as he spoke. "Let's forget about this matter temporarily. Come, I'll toast Governor Qin."

"Please." Qin Wentian lifted his cup, the two of them then drained the contents within.

Because of Qin Wentian's existence, the atmosphere of the banquet was no longer as relaxed as before. After drinking a few more cups of wine, Qin Wentian spoke, "There are still some matters I need to handle in the governor's manor. I, Qin, will take my farewell first."

"Right. Since this is the case, please feel free to return. Qiuyue, help me send Governor Qin away." Jialan Yuntian spoke.

"Yes Grandpa," Jialan Qiuyue stood up and walked to Qin Wentian's side. "Governor Qin, let me send you to the entrance."

"You are too polite, I can go there alone." Qin Wentian rose up from his seat, but Jialan Qiuyue merely smiled and continued following beside him, leading him out. Qin Wentian's serving girl quietly followed behind them.

"Governor Qin, why must you not be so amenable to reason? My Jialan Clan has been in Lifire City for far too many years. At that time, the palace lord wasn't even the Lifire Empyrean. My grandpa treats you so well but it isn't because he's afraid of stirring up trouble, he was merely respecting you for your character. In fact, he was even willing to forgo revenge for my uncle." Jialan Qiuyue softly spoke, one couldn't say that beauties would truly always have an advantage, this was especially so for exceptional beauties. Jialan Qiuyue's words didn't cause Qin Wentian to feel any sense of disgust at all.

"For some things, it's good enough if Miss Jialan understands it in your heart. If back then the daughter of the Jialan Monarch, Jialan Mingyue, was the same as you, maybe there wouldn't have been this hatred today." Qin Wentian smiled as he replied. Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes flashed with contemplation before she smiled, "I hope Governor Qin can think things through."

Only after sending Qin Wentian out of the Jialan Clan did the main character of today's celebration, Jialan Qiuyue, return. Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. This Jialan Clan was truly something exceptional.

This invitation had a few key points to it. Firstly, they wanted him to see the Jialan Clan's strength. Secondly, they wanted to cause a gap to appear between him and Di Tian. Sadly, they had no idea he was Di Tian and Di Tian was him. Thirdly, a most important point that was somewhat obscure but was extremely terrifying - the Jialan Clan took the initiative to invite him and wanted peace but he directly rejected. If this matter spread to the Lifire Empyrean, what would he think about it? Would he feel suspicious?

After Qin Wentian left, many people in the banquet expressed rage for Qin Wentian's attitude and hoped that the Jialan Clan would act against him. However, Jialan Yuntian didn't express any stance and didn't speak about this matter any longer. After Jialan Qiuyue returned, the atmosphere slowly returned to normal as everyone enjoyed the banquet.

After several months, a guest came to the northern governor's manor looking for Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian immediately met with this guest.

"Governor Qin, how is the current situation of the north?" The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor smiled. This person was none other than the personal handmaiden of the Lifire Empyrean, the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor. Her beautiful eyes flickered with a smile, exuding an extraordinary elegance.

"Everything is good. Recently, there has not been much commotion here, the Jialan Clan is also temporarily very quiet." Qin Wentian laughed. The two of them then sat down together as they sipped at the prepared tea.

"Oh?" The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor laughed. "But I heard that not too long ago, the Jialan Clan held a birthday celebration for Jialan Qiuyue and had invited Governor Qin over."

Qin Wentian's heart trembled. As expected, the Lifire Empyrean had sent the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor here to inquire about this matter.

However, he still had some doubts. Even if the Lifire Empyrean had some suspicions, there was no need for him to do things so clearly, right?

"Mhm." Qin Wentian calmly nodded. "Also, the Jialan Clan is extremely cunning, even wanting to arrange a marriage alliance by sending a young lady from their clan to be wed as a concubine to me."

As he spoke, even Qin Wentian himself also shook his head.

"Such a good deal, why did Governor Qin not agree to it?" The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor warmly smiled, exuding alluringness. Qin Wentian saw the look of passion in the eyes of the elegant and dignified Purple Moon's face as he silently mused that the Lifire Empyrean truly knows how to enjoy life. He smiled and replied, "Leaving aside the possibility that this might be the Jialan Clan's scheme, even if it is not, is it possible that I would agree?"

The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor's beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian and Qin Wentian calmly matched her gaze. The look of passion in her eyes intensified and Qin Wentian bitterly smiled, "Fairy, if you look at me like that, I won't be able to endure it for much longer."

"Oh? How would you not be able to endure it?" The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor teased, as a playful look appeared on her face.

"Don't. The palace lord would kill me." Qin Wentian shifted his eyes away as the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor started laughing. Her eyes gleamed with light, how would there be any woman in the world that didn't want people to admire her beauty? Let alone the fact that Qin Wentian was only admiring and wouldn't dare to profane her at all. She naturally wouldn't mind it.

"Let's get to serious business. Governor Qin, the palace lord told me to make a trip here to pass you a message. If, in the future, when Governor Qin accomplishes deeds of great merit, it's possible for him to allow Ye Qianyu to leave the Lifire Jail." The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor spoke, causing Qin Wentian's eyes to flash as he stared at her. He then nodded, "In that case, Fairy, please help me to pass my thanks to palace lord for his great kindness."

"Mhm, I still need to go to some other places. I'll take my farewell first." The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor stood up.

"Let me walk you to the entrance." Qin Wentian also rose and sent her out. After she left, a look of pondering appeared on his face. At this moment, a voice rang out in his mind. He immediately took out his messaging crystal and asked, "Beauty Xiao, is there something you need to look for me for?"

"Hehe, Governor Qin, you promised to come by my southern governor's manor when you have the time. So, are you free now?" Beauty Xiao's voice that carried hints of enticement rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. He laughed and replied, "Beauty Xiao, I'm temporarily unable to leave the northern city regions."

"Oh? What if I tell you I just received a very important piece of news?" Beauty Xiao seemed to be very confident, she was still laughing as she spoke. "This is a news regarding Ye Qianyu."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, important news about Ye Qianyu?

He inclined his head and stared at the back view of the departing Purple Moon Immortal Emperor as his eyes narrowed. "Beauty Xiao, can you tell me what is it exactly?"

"Come to my governor's manor first. I'll tell you then." Beauty Xiao giggled. Qin Wentian kept his messaging crystal as his figure flashed, soaring into the distance.

...

At this moment, Qin Wentian entered the southern governor's manor. A serving maid led her into a beautiful garden that was beside a lake. This wasn't the first time he came here. Although previously, it was his avatar that came, he naturally knew about it as their memories were linked.

"Governor Qin, please wait here for a few moments, our governor will be here shortly." The serving maid bowed and smiled. After that, she turned and left the area, leaving Qin Wentian here alone.

The atmosphere of the garden felt tranquil, there was also arranged a pot of good tea on the table here. He lifted his teacup and quietly enjoyed the taste of it.

Fifteen minutes passed but Beauty Xiao wasn't here yet. His immortal sense extended outwards, drifting to the place by the side of the lake where Di Tian and Beauty Xiao went to before. The lake's waters were clear and crystalline. Inside the lake, a beautiful woman was currently bathing. Her inky black long hair were tinged with wetness, the upper body that was revealed had skin so soft that it felt that the gust from a breeze would break it. Her face was flawless, her smile filled with endless charm.

Qin Wentian speechlessly retracted his immortal sense. A moment later, he heard Beauty Xiao's charming voice drifting over, "You've already seen it, what's the point of retracting your immortal sense now? Governor Qin, do you want to bathe together? The temperature of the water is extremely comfortable."

"Beauty Xiao, you should know why I'm here." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Come closer and I'll tell you." Beauty Xiao giggled. Qin Wentian stood up. With a flash of his silhouette, he swiftly appeared at the lake as he quietly watched the beauty bathing in the lake's waters.

"Can you tell me now?" Qin Wentian calmly regarded her as he asked.

Beauty Xiao slowly began to make her way back by wading through the water. Her figure was gradually revealed. Her snow-like skin was drool-inducing and her piece of clothing so translucent that it might very well not exist. Even Qin Wentian's heart stirred when he saw that.

Beauty Xiao was stroking her hair. She then swept her hair to the back, causing her charm to increase in intensity.

Walking towards the shore, Beauty Xiao then stood beside Qin Wentian, exuding seductiveness as she smiled, "Governor Qin, do you wish to hear the news now or do you want to wait for me to change my clothes?"

"I'll wait here for you then." Qin Wentian calmly spoke, but his state of heart wasn't calm at all. With such a scene before them, how could any man remain calm? However, his state of heart could be considered extraordinary given his cultivation base. His self-control was naturally extremely strong.

"Alright, Governor Qin wait for me then." Beauty Xiao's eyes were capable of hooking souls away from mortals. She brushed past Qin Wentian, leaving behind her fragrance. Qin Wentian then walked towards the nearby pavilion and sat there, quietly waiting. Not long after, Beauty Xiao appeared, wearing a nightgown like she was ready for bed. Her fair skin had hints of the redness of health within. Despite her change in attire, it did nothing to diminish her charm.

"Beauty Xiao, can you tell me now?" Qin Wentian pressured.

"Why are you in such a hurry. Could it be that before your eyes, I'm not charming at all?" Beauty Xiao spoke with some resentment.

"Beauty Xiao, can it be that you don't know how strong your charm is? It's just that you should know the person imprisoned in the Lifire Jail should have been me instead of Ye Qianyu. I naturally would be very concerned with news regarding her. I truly hope Beauty Xiao will tell me." Qin Wentian bitterly smiled.

"Hug me, I'll whisper in your ear." Beauty Xiao charmingly smiled. Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines. He looked at how Beauty Xiao was looking at him and knew that she wouldn't rest until he did so.

Walking up to her, Qin Wentian pulled her into an embrace and spoke lightly, "Can you tell me now?"

Beauty Xiao also embraced him, leaning fully against his body. She leaned closer and breathed into his ears before whispering softly, "I received news that the Lifelong Saint Hall wants to move Ye Qianyu away from the Lifire Jail."

Chapter 1606: Throwing Herself into His Arms

Qin Wentian's body trembled when he heard Beauty Xiao's words. He gently pushed her away, his dark eyes gleamed with sharpness as he spoke, "Is this news real?"

Beauty Xiao glanced at him with eyes filled with hidden resentment. "Don't you know your actions are very hurtful?"

"Beauty Xiao, you should know how important this news is to me." Qin Wentian stared straight at her.

"Ai, is the disparity between me and Ye Qianyu so great?" Beauty Xiao sighed. Her jade-like hands stretched out, cradling Qin Wentian's face as she smiled, "This news is naturally real. Can it be that I called you over just to lie to you?"

"Why would the Lifelong Saint Hall interfere in this?" Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed sharply.

Beauty Xiao smiled as she replied, "Did you collude with the Jialan Clan?"

"Jialan Clan?" Qin Wentian narrowed his eyes, suddenly recalling the visit from the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor. Before this, he already had some doubts. Although the Jialan Clan publicly invited him, the palace lord wouldn't act so obviously, sending the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor to personally check up on him even if he was suspicious of him.

However, only after he heard Beauty Xiao's words did he realize that things weren't as simple as he imagined. The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor might have been there to probe him, seeing if he knew about this matter where the Lifelong Saint Hall wanted to move Ye Qianyu away. If he inadvertently revealed something and was discovered by the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor, his 'collusion' with the Jialan Clan would then become a reality.

When he thought of this, Qin Wentian couldn't help but to perspire cold sweat. If the Jialan Clan truly was behind this, it means that the Jialan Clan was simply too terrifying. Not only was their background fearsome, their methods were fearsome as well. Just a simple invitation to a birthday celebration actually had so many plots behind it. He didn't really take it seriously when the Jialan Clan tried to sue for peace. What's terrifying was that they had many ways to follow up with their actions the moment he accepted the invitation to head to the birthday celebration event.

The Lifire Empyrean could control Qin Wentian because there was a variety of reasons. Other than strength, what is his other greatest assurance? Undoubtedly, it was Ye Qianyu. As long as Ye Qianyu was safely imprisoned in the Lifire Jail, Qin Wentian would be loyal to the Lifire Empyrean, helping him to deal with the Jialan Clan. But if the Jialan Clan made a move against Ye Qianyu, pulling the carpet under, how would the Lifire Empyrean view Qin Wentian?

If this was in the past, the Lifire Empyrean might not really care about this. Placing him on the northern governor's seat was just a test of his abilities. After all, the Lifire Empyrean had placed many people on the northern governor's seat before him and all their endings had been miserable. If Qin Wentian was weak and died to the Jialan Clan, the Lifire Empyrean wouldn't care too much about it.

However, it just so happened that Qin Wentian used a mere fifty years to control the northern regions, making all the powers there pay up tributes obediently, fully displaying his prowess. Even the Jialan Clan wanted to use him and was willing to wipe the slate clean for all previous grudges, ignoring the Jialan Monarch's attitude despite the Jialan Monarch being a Jialan Clan member.

"What are you thinking about?" Beauty Xiao involuntarily asked when she saw the expression on Qin Wentian's face constantly changing.

"Will the Jialan Clan be successful in moving her away from the Lifire Palace?" Qin Wentian asked. Right now, this was the crux of the question. If the Lifire Palace suspected him, it would be impossible for them to allow Ye Qianyu to be moved.

"The battle between characters at the upper echelons isn't something I'm that clear of. I also have no idea how things would turn out." Beauty Xiao smiled. She then continued, "I've already told you such important news, how are you going to thank me?"

"In the future, you can ask me for help for whatever matter you might need help for." Qin Wentian replied. Since Beauty Xiao could receive such news, her backing shouldn't be simple. He had to maintain this level of relationship with her. After all, although he had temporarily tamed the northern city regions by using iron-blooded methods, he was still 'blind' when it comes to the situation inside the Lifire Palace. He needed Beauty Xiao to update him on the happenings within there.

Beauty Xiao's eyes were like silk. Her alluring body pressed into Qin Wentian and Qin Wentian could clearly feel her full figure. She then stretched out a jade-like hand and placed it against his chest while softly speaking, "Could it be that you still have no idea what I want?"

"Beauty Xiao, I'm no gentleman. You should understand that given your exceptional beauty, if I can have a night of passion with you, it's not of any disadvantage to me. It's just that I, Qin, feel some regret for you should I do this… Given your status and beauty and I believe you would surely be able to find a good dao companion in the future. You shouldn't be defiled by me." Qin Wentian directly spoke, his words causing a bright light to flash through the beautiful eyes of Beauty Xiao. She had a tender expression on her face as she placed her hands around Qin Wentian's neck, continuing to press her body against his as she whispered, "I'm willing to be defiled by you. You are so handsome, it's still not known who would be the one suffering a disadvantage."

Qin Wentian instantly felt a nefarious heat coursing through his loins when he heard that. Beauty Xiao's entire person was already lying against him. Her figure was so soft and full, he stared at her charm-filled eyes as his heart stirred. He then hoarsely whispered, "Have you thought things through clearly?"

"You are so naggy." Beauty Xiao giggled, exuding boundless charm. Her entire body already seemed to be stuck permanently to him.

Qin Wentian glanced at her only to see Beauty Xiao smiling at him, "Just take me already. Don't tell me you are afraid that I would eat you up?"

"..." Staring at the mock contempt in Beauty Xiao's eyes, Qin Wentian was completely speechless.

"Are you a man or not?" Beauty Xiao's voice was filled with rapture, as though she could no longer control herself. Her nightgown slipped off, Qin Wentian involuntarily lowered his head, staring at her twin peaks.

"You better not regret this." Upon staring at that perfect body, Qin Wentian's eyes turned slightly red. He directly carried her and walked towards her bed chambers. Beauty Xiao's smile grew more and more radiant. She leaned in closer and whispered in his ears, "Go to the garden, the scenery is more beautiful there."

Qin Wentian only felt his entire body heating up. The truth was like what he has said. As long as one was a man, it was extremely difficult to resist the boundless seduction and charm of an exceptional beauty like Beauty Xiao.

The scenery of the garden was truly extremely outstanding, improving the ambience.

After a period of fondling and teasing, their bodies finally connected, both of them lost in mutual enjoyment. Flower petals made up their bed as Beauty Xiao's womanly fragrance permeated the surroundings. Her devil-like figure huddled together with Qin Wentian as she squirmed in pleasure. Right now, it was unknown how mesmerizing she was. She gently bit his earlobes as she whispered, "In the future, why don't I follow you and be your concubine?"

Qin Wentian glanced up at the sky, "Regretting it now?"

"Regret?" Beauty Xiao giggled. "Do you really think that I want to be your concubine? Do you not know how terrible your current circumstances are? You are sandwiched between the Lifire Palace and the Jialan Clan, who knows when you would lose your life. When we are out of here, I do not wish for anyone to know about our relationship. In any case, since I've 'gotten' you, I'm not at any disadvantage at all. It's well worth it for telling you about the news."

"Beauty." Qin Wentian glanced at the vixen beside him, "Since you've already taken advantage of me, help me out in the future by paying attention to news inside of the Lifire Palace."

Beauty Xiao looked at him with a smile that was not a smile. "I thought that I was already very cheap, taking the initiative to throw myself into your arms. Who would have thought that you are even more shameless than me. After bedding me, you still want me to help you to do things?"

"However, seeing how comfortable you made me and how much enjoyment you gave me, I'll help you pay attention to the news, allowing you to have a chance to save your little lover Ye Qianyu." Beauty Xiao then looked into his eyes and continued, "How would there be another woman like me in this world? Although I clearly know that you are making use of me, only bedding me because you want my help, I don't feel any resentment towards you."

"Making use of you?" Qin Wentian mumbled, maybe she was right.

After a few moments, he then spoke, "Beauty, if there's a conflict between me and the palace lord one day, which side would you be on?"

"I will be on the side of whoever possess the advantage." Beauty Xiao charmingly replied. "Don't assume that I'm your woman just because you bedded me. However, if you really want the Lifire Empyrean's position, let me remind you that strength alone is insufficient. Even if you really have enough strength to defeat the Lifire Empyrean one day, you might not be able to take his position. The Lifire Empyrean is the controller of one of the nine world palaces that are directly under the Lifelong Realmlord. If you killed him, that would be direct insubordination, the Realmlord would surely send people to hunt you down. If everyone dares to act so insolently, how would the Realmlord be able to manage the Lifelong Realm? The only option remaining is that you obtain the favor of the Realmlord and he is willing to give you a fair chance to compete for the position."

Qin Wentian glanced at her with a puzzled look. This woman's mind was extremely sharp and very intelligent. Even for matters between males and females, she could be so open in her mindset. It was impossible to get her to be completely on his side, opposing the Lifire Empyrean. However, it was evident that she had a more favorable impression of him compared to the palace lord, she would be willing to silently help him out in the future.

"Then, what do you think I should do now?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Regardless of the Lifire Palace or the Jialan Clan, both have the ability to crush you. However, the Lifire Empyrean wished to use you as a chess piece and find a way to move against the Jialan Clan. Hence, he doesn't really want you to die. But as long as he discovers that you have truly thrown in your lot with the Jialan Clan, he would definitely ensure that you die a miserable death. You must never take this step no matter what. As for the Jialan Clan's side, they can also kill you. But now, immortal emperors would already find it very difficult to kill you and if they really wanted to do so, they would surely have to pay a huge price for it. Not only that, after they killed you, they would be conveniently providing the Lifire Empyrean with an excuse to openly move against them. Hence, unless they are truly forced by the circumstances, they wouldn't act against you. This is why the Jialan Clan would rather forget all past grudges and attempt to recruit you, even trying to sow discord between you and the Lifire Palace now."

Beauty Xiao analysed the current situation for Qin Wentian. "Hence, what you need to do now is continue to apply pressure on the Jialan Clan on the surface, but don't move too fast or do things too forcefully. You can only hope for your survival by not making any wrong moves. At the same time, you should strengthen yourself and try to gain the Realmlord's attention. Only then, would you truly have a chance to survive."

"I completely have no way to interact with the Lifelong Realmlord." Qin Wentian frowned.

"The chance will come soon." Beauty Xiao's eyes were like silk, she stared at Qin Wentian and continued, "For the Lifelong Saint Hall, they would hold a gathering once every hundred years for the nine empyreans, as well as their monarchs and governors. The gathering place is always set at Lifelong City and right now, the hundred-year mark is soon approaching. Hence, your chance would soon be here."

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness, but Beauty Xiao soon giggled, "However, it's a fact that the Lifelong Saint Hall wants to move your little lover away and the palace lord is already suspicious of you. If Ye Qianyu is truly shifted away, I'm afraid that you won't have the chance to go to Lifelong City this time around. The Lifire Empyrean would definitely prevent you from going."

Chapter 1607: Lifelong City

A strange light flashed in Qin Wentian's eyes. The Lifire Empyrean might prevent him from going?

He knew that it was possible that Beauty Xiao's words were real. If Ye Qianyu was moved away, the Lifire Empyrean would surely be suspicious of him and wouldn't give him any opportunities to shine and display his prowess especially so in front of the Lifelong Realmlord.

Standing up, Qin Wentian cast a glance at the excellent creature lying before him. "I'll return first. Inform me if you learn anything, okay?"

As he spoke, he got dressed and walked away. Beauty Xiao slowly sat up, staring at his back. Her beautiful figure trembled slightly as she stared at Qin Wentian with hidden resentment. This bastard was truly bastardly enough. Was he leaving just like this?

However, she soon giggled after a few moments, exuding boundless charm. Slowly standing up, her devil-like figure was sufficient to cause countless females to hold her in envy. She wrapped her hands around herself, as a soul-stirring smile appeared on her face. Sadly, no one was able to see her current alluring appearance.

After Qin Wentian left, he didn't really think much about what happened between him and Beauty Xiao. That was purely an unexpected albeit pleasant distraction. He had no feelings towards her and that tryst was initiated by Beauty Xiao in any case. He didn't feel that he had lost out in any way.

After several months passed, an order came from the Lifire Palace. The palace lord wanted to bring the nine monarchs and governors to head to Lifelong City. However, because the northern city regions were still in a state of unrest, Qin Wentian was supposed to stay here and stand guard. The Lifire Empyrean would bring him to pay a visit to the Lifelong Realmlord a hundred years later.

As to why the palace lord would inform him about this was because by rights, the palace lord should have brought Qin Wentian along. There was no way to hide this, so the Lifire Empyrean chose to tell Qin Wentian directly.

After this command circulated out, Beauty Xiao sent over a piece of information - Ye Qianyu was shifted away from the Lifire Jail to the Lifelong Realm. As for the exact situation, Beauty Xiao wasn't too clear as well.

After learning about all this, Qin Wentian felt even more that time was tight.

….

Today, Di Tian came to the Jialan Clan to pay a visit.

Jialan Cheng from the Jialan Clan personally received Di Tian. Jialan Qiuyue was present as well.

"Grandmaster Di why are you free to pay a visit to our Jialan Clan?" Jialan Cheng smiled as he asked. His voice was extremely friendly to hear.

"I heard that the grand event of the Lifelong Realm that occurs once every hundred years is about to begin. The Lifire Empyrean would invite the monarchs and governors under him and head to Lifelong City. Similarly, many major powers of the Lifelong Realm would also head there to participate in the event. I wonder if the Jialan Clan would go there?" Di Tian asked.

"Oh?" Jialan Cheng's eyes flashed with sharpness. "Grandmaster Di is right. Is Grandmaster Di interested in this?"

"Mhm, Lifire City is just too small. I wish to go out and explore and see if there's a chance to expand my Emperor Pavilion to Lifelong City." Di Tian slowly spoke. Jialan Cheng stared at Di Tian. "I didn't expect Grandmaster Di would have such ambitions. Since this is the case, why don't you go there together with us? My Jialan Clan has a teleportation array that leads straight to Lifelong City. In the entire Lifire City, only the Lifire Palace and the Jialan Clan has this."

"Since this is the case, I, Di, would really have to thank you." Di Tian nodded.

"Grandmaster Di, don't forget your promise to me oh." Jialan Qiuyue gently spoke with a smile. The dignified and elegant Jialan Qiuyue had a completely different feeling when she smiled.

"Miss Qiuyue, feel free to come and find me anytime you want to forge a weapon." Di Tian laughed.

"Okay!" Jialan Qiuyue's smile grew sweeter. Di Tian said his farewells and after he left, Jialan Cheng spoke to Jialan Qiuyue, "Qiuyue, how do you feel about Di Tian's personality?"

"He's extremely mysterious and exceptionally intelligent. He seemed casual and harmless but is in fact, a truly dangerous character. There's naturally no need to mention anything about his smithing capabilities, but I'm truly very curious about Grandmaster Di Tian's true combat prowess. He had only once displayed his strength at the Yan Clan and that time, it was still a sparring match between formations grandmasters. Back then, he could already suppress an expert at a higher level compared to himself. It's very hard to measure his true strength level."

Jialan Qiuyue slowly spoke. With regards to Di Tian's combat prowess, many people would neglect it due to their habits. His weaponsmithing capabilities were too dazzling that ordinary people didn't realize this. Although he had once rejected Liu Feibai's challenge, causing that incident to become gossip, would his combat prowess really be weak?

"Being able to rise up using such a short time, how could he truly be a harmless individual? When he first appeared, he used the identity of a formations grandmaster and helped all the major and minor powers to create formations, accepting all requests. When the time was ripe, he stepped into the Yan Clan and shot to fame with a single battle, causing the prestige of the Yan Clan to be swept to the ground. After that, even when Xia Hou wanted to deal with his Emperor Pavilion, Di Tian managed to resolve that. After the Ancient River Auction House was sealed, he instantly moved into the northern city regions with extreme speed, his timing and sense of opportunity was so great that even I'm astonished." Jialan Cheng stated. "Qiuyue, this man and Qin Wentian are both characters that are truly extraordinary. If they can mature and grow, they would surely be able to summon the wind and rain in the Lifelong Realm in the future."

"Father, you gave both of them such high evaluations?" Jialan Qiuyue was somewhat taken aback. She then asked, "Don't you feel Qin Wentian is too brazen and arrogant?"

"He instantly killed three vice governors the moment he assumed his position. And during the battle at the Ancient River Auction House, he also killed a group of emperors, including several peak-stage ones, shocking the entire northern city regions. Leaving aside that he truly has the capabilities to be arrogant due to his strength, just by the fact that he could stay low-profile for fifty years, enduring all these before exploding with a bang, is already something not many people can accomplish. He did everything to show the Lifire Empyrean that he can be useful. Although you, Qiuyue, are considered someone with extraordinary talent, your father me has no choice but to say that both of them are far more outstanding than you."

Jialan Cheng laughed, "It's still unknown whether Qin Wentian is a friend or foe. As for Di Tian, don't assume that he has already truly sided with us. These two characters are people truly worthy for us to recruit. Qiuyue, if you like either of them, maybe your grandpa would be agreeable."

"Father, what nonsense are you talking about." Jialan Qiuyue glared at her father. Jialan Cheng laughed, "Alright, I won't speak anymore regarding this topic. You naturally can choose your own dao companion. In all honesty, your father feels that among the younger generation in Lifire City, there won't be anyone else more outstanding than the two of them.

Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes flashed. Many people flashed through her mind, and after a few moments, she mumbled, " Lifire City might not have any, but what about Lifelong City?"

A gleam of sharpness flashed through Jialan Cheng's eyes when he heard his daughter's words. Lifelong City? Indeed, that was a place where true geniuses gathered. All the truly supreme powers were located in Lifelong City, many of them were existences equal to their Jialan Clan.

...

The Jialan Clan can be considered a peak power of the Lifelong Realm and had even fought against the Lifire Empyrean for one of the nine world palace lord positions before. Their strength naturally wasn't limited only to Lifire City. If not, how could they contend against the Lifire Empyrean?

Although the Jialan Clan appeared to have their roots in Lifire City, there was also another Jialan Clan in Lifelong City. The Jialan Clan there had developed for countless years and was already extremely powerful.

Inside Lifelong City, the teleportation array of the Jialan Clan lit up resplendently as a group of figures appeared. This group of people was none other than Jialan Yuntian and the other juniors from Lifire City.

"Clan leader."

Many people were respectfully waiting here. When they saw Jialan Yuntian appearing, all of them bowed and greeted.

"Big brother." An imposing looking middle-aged man walked over and called out to Jialan Yuntian. This man was the second brother of Jialan Yuntian's generation. He is named Jialan Yunhai and was extremely powerful. Right now, the Jialan Clan in the Lifelong Realm was managed by him and his branch.

"Uncle!" Many immortal emperors beside Jialan Yunhai respectfully greeted Jialan Yuntian.

"Qiuyue is growing more and more beautiful." Jialan Yunhai smiled as he glanced at Jialan Qiuyue.

"Qiuyue pays my respects to second grandpa." Jialan Qiuyue bowed.

"Mhm, you are already at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm. Your grandpa often praises you, and now that I've seen you again after such a long time, you are truly getting more beautiful and you did not neglect your cultivation. It's about time to find someone with a good background and arrange a marriage." Jialan Yunhai laughed. Jialan Yuntian frowned slightly, the people beside him also revealed strange expressions after they heard that.

"Let's go, the banquet is already prepared. Big brother, it has been a long time since we drank wine together." Jialan Yunhai laughed. "This time around, I prepared many varieties of good wine for big brother as a welcoming reception. I even invited some valuable guests as well."

"Mhm." Jialan Yuntian nodded. "Is our father still well?"

"That old man is busy with his cultivation. The divine dragon always only reveals its head but not its tail, even I would find it hard to contact him. Big brother, you should know how important taking the next step is for him." Jialan Yunhai spoke. Their father was none other than the person who fought against the Lifire Empyrean for the position of the Lifire World Palace's palace lord.

"Mhm." Jialan Yuntian didn't say anything. Behind Jialan Yunhai, a young man glanced at the person standing beside Jialan Qiuyue and asked, "Little sister Qiuyue, this man seems unfamiliar, he shouldn't be someone of our Jialan Clan, right?"

"He is Grandmaster Di Tian, a guest of our Jialan Clan. Since we have the same endpoint in mind, he decided to tag along with us and come here together." Jialan Qiuyue replied.

"Grandmaster?" The young man laughed. "The title of Grandmaster isn't so easily proclaimed. I wonder what sort of Grandmaster this Grandmaster Di Tian is?"

"He is a grandmaster in formations and weaponsmithing." Jialan Qiuyue calmly replied, her tone filled with slight unhappiness. After all, she already said Di Tian was her guest but the words spoken by this young man seemed to be filled with contempt.

"Oh? In Lifire City, are those who know a little about formations and weaponsmithing already considered Grandmasters?" That young man laughed. "In our Lifelong City, only those truly extraordinary individuals can have the title Grandmaster."

"What do you mean by this?" Jialan Qiuyue frowned as she asked coldly.

"Sister Qiuyue, don't be angry. I'm only casually speaking and didn't mean anything by that. In any case, among the guests invited by Grandpa today, there are some weaponsmithing grandmasters. At that time, I'm sure they can seek out this 'Grandmaster' Di Tian for some guidance." That young man laughed.

Qin Wentian who was standing beside Jialan Qiuyue had a thoughtful look in his eyes. His eyes gleamed sharply, it seemed that the internal factions of the Jialan Clan weren't as united as he thought they would be.

Naturally, his target now was not the Jialan Clan but was the Lifelong City instead.

The him now who was masked, was in fact his true-self - Qin Wentian! As for his avatar Di Tian, he had already swapped positions with his true-self and removed his mask. Qin Wentian now had Di Tian's mask and was wearing his style of clothing. There were also many sealing-attribute treasures that sealed the fluctuations of his aura. As long as he himself doesn't remove the seal and release his aura fluctuations, no one would be able to discover this!

Chapter 1608: Peak Powers of Lifelong City

Qin Wentian quietly stood there, silently observing. Although Jialan Yuntian was the clan leader, he knew that the true authority belonged to Jialan Yuntian's father, an ancestor-level character of the Jialan Clan. It was this man who once contended against the Lifire Empyrean for the position of the Lifire Palace's palace lord. If there wasn't a character like this existing, how could the Jialan Clan even be qualified enough to contend against the Lifire Empyrean?

Jialan Yuntian was the eldest son and he was stationed in Lifire City. As for the second son, the Jialan Ancestor placed him in Lifelong City to stabilize their foundations. Hence, Qin Wentian faintly could guess at the origin of conflicts within the internal factions of the Jialan Clan. Maybe, Jialan Yunhai's branch was already not very satisfied at how Jialan Yuntian could be the clan leader.

He who was a guest of Jialan Yuntian's group, became the poor target which the spearhead was pointed to. These people didn't find it convenient to say such words to Jialan Yuntian's group, hence, they all targeted him - a mere guest. However, with regards to the bantering by the juniors, Jialan Yunhai acted as though he didn't hear anything.

A hint of anger flashed through Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful face. She emitted a cold intent, "Jialan Skywolf, Grandmaster Di is ultimately still a guest. Please be more respectful."

"Little sister Qiuyue, you must be mistaken. It's very normal for grandmasters to exchange pointers, where is there any disrespect in that?" The young man casually spoke. He then stared at Qin Wentian, "Grandmaster Di, what do you think?"

He purposely emphasized on the word 'Grandmaster,' in a seemingly mocking manner.

The eyes revealed outside the black mask worn by Qin Wentian were extremely cold. He glanced at Jialan Skywolf and replied, "Are you talking to me?"

Jialan Skywolf started before he smiled, "Grandmaster, you are so interesting. I'm naturally speaking to you."

"Oh." Qin Wentian nodded. "In that case, we would have to see who is the one seeking pointers from me. Just like what you said, it isn't anyone who could be proclaimed as a grandmaster. Hence, not everyone is qualified to seek guidance from me and also, in addition to that, not everyone is qualified to speak to me."

As he spoke, he cast a glance at Jialan Skywolf before shifting his gaze away. It was evident that his gaze contained an ice-like mocking intent within.

Jialan Skywolf stiffened, he was actually stunned by Qin Wentian's words. When he recovered, a strange smile appeared on his face, "I've long heard that some grandmasters have weird personalities but all of them are arrogant to the extreme. Now that I've met one, they truly live up to their reputations. However, this 'Grandmaster' is merely someone who came from Lifire City."

After speaking, he coldly laughed and no longer looked at Qin Wentian.

Jialan Qiuyue didn't bother with him. She glanced at Qin Wentian and transmitted her voice, "Grandmaster Di Tian, my apologies."

"Don't worry about it." Qin Wentian smiled at her. Jialan Qiuyue's flawless countenance attracted many of those from the younger generations to look over. Although those from the Jialan Clan here had blood relations with her, they also couldn't help it and snuck a few more glances. Jialan Qiuyue, who had the title of the number one beauty in Lifire City, was truly an exceptional one that lived up to her reputation.

Not long after, everyone came to a vast grounds where the banquet was already set up. Many people had already been seated and these were all extremely powerful individuals. With a glance, it seemed that everyone here was at the immortal emperor ream. Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed sharply, he mused silently that this was as expected of the most prosperous city in the Lifelong Realm. This place was the true core region of the Lifelong Realm. There was no way for ordinary immortal emperors to feel proud or arrogant at all in here.

As they entered, numerous gazes instantly turned towards them. Those from the older generations cast their gazes at Jialan Yuntian, while those from the younger generations instantly locked on to Jialan Qiuyue. Beautiful women would always attract attention. This was especially so for someone as pretty as Jialan Qiuyue.

"Big brother, today, I've invited some experts from the peak powers of the Lifelong Realm to come here as well. The Xuanyuan Clan are seated here, they are an ancient aristocrat clan of the Lifelong Realm and their ancestor even fought together with the Realmlord before. Right now, the Xuanyuan Clan controls countless large-scale auction houses and transaction grounds, along with many other businesses. In fact, they are ranked one in terms of transaction grounds in the entire Lifelong City. This man seating near the front is an elder of the Xuanyuan Clan, named Xuanyuan Hao."

Jialan Yunhai gestured to a middle-aged man as he introduced him to Jialan Yuntian. Jialan Yuntian started slightly, as he nodded to Xuanyuan Hao. Although he has always been in Lifire City, controlling the foundation of their clan, but as the clan leader, how could he not know of the Xuanyuan Clan? The Xuanyuan Clan was undoubtedly a supreme aristocrat clan. To think that Jialan Yunhai actually had a connection with them.

"Elder Xuanyuan." Jialan Yuntian politely greeted. However, Xuanyuan Hao merely sat there and inclined his head in response. Di Tian instantly understood the disparity in status between the Jialan and Xuanyuan Clan. This place was as expected of the number one city in the Lifelong Realm. The aristocrat clans here were all so powerful that they would cause people to be stifled. Just a mere elder of the Xuanyuan Clan was already qualified enough not to give face to Jialan Yuntian.

"There's a Xuanyuan Palace among one of the nine world palaces. Could it be that that has something in connection with the Xuanyuan Clan?" Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Jialan Qiuyue as he asked.

"Mhm, the Xuanyuan Ancestor once fought together with the Lifelong Realmlord in a team. The Xuanyuan world palace of the nine world palaces is none other than a position granted to them by the Realmlord. The position of the Xuanyuan Palace Lord is something passed on through the generations and their strength isn't something the Lifire Palace Lord can compare against." Jialan Qiuyue replied as her brows furrowed. Jialan Yunhai actually even had connections with the Xuanyuan Clan? This made her feel a sense of unease.

There was a young immortal emperor beside Xuanyuan Hao. His eyes shone with light and kept staring at Jialan Qiuyue with no reservations at all. Jialan Qiuyue calmly glanced at him and nodded slightly, but the young man wasn't embarrassed at all. He revealed a strange smile that caused Jialan Qiuyue to feel somewhat uncomfortable.

"These are the people from the Sword Spirit Sect, I'm sure big brother has heard of them before." Jialan Yunhai pointed to a major power as he smiled.

"The Sword Spirit Sect that's the number one in sword control." Jialan Yuntian spoke as he nodded. An old man of the Sword Spirit Sect laughed as his eyes flashed with extreme sharpness, "That's us."

Jialan Yunhai smiled and pointed to another location, "These are people from the Heaven Punisher Sect."

Jialan Yuntian's expression froze again. Yet another peak power? Today, Jialan Yunhai invited three peak powers of Lifelong City to come here. His intent must definitely not be simple.

The Jialan Clan who came from the Lifire City all felt something strange was going on. Although they've met people from three peak powers of Lifelong City, they didn't feel relaxed at all.

"Yunhai, your elder brother's granddaughter Jialan Qiuyue is truly a beauty capable of toppling kingdoms and she even has extraordinary cultivation talent. Before this, this seat was still filled with some disbelief but now that I've seen her, it's true that what you said before is right." The elder from the Xuanyuan Clan, Xuanyuan Hao, smiled at Jialan Qiuyue. His gaze was like staring at a daughter-in-law.

"During these years, the Jialan Clan has gotten stronger and stronger. Let alone here in Lifelong City, even at Lifire City, there are quite a few extraordinary individuals among them." The old man from the Sword Spirit Sect laughed. Qin Wentian discovered an extremely interesting phenomenon. By the sides of these people, there were quite a few young immortal emperors and all of them had looks of passion in their eyes when they stared at Jialan Qiuyue.

In that case, the hidden meaning of this banquet was here. Jialan Yunhai wasn't organizing a banquet just to provide a reception for Jialan Yuntian. In truth, he was preparing blind dates for Jialan Qiuyue.

The expressions of Jialan Yuntian's group all changed. They only heard Jialan Yunhai laughing, "Big brother, quickly be seated. The banquet will start soon."

Qin Wentian's gaze flickered. These people were all here for Jialan Qiuyue. There was no need for him to be involved in this pool of muddy water. Hence, he smiled and clasped his hands at Jialan Yuntian, "Since we've already arrived at Lifelong City. I'll bid my farewell first, Senior Jialan."

Jialan Yuntian, Jialan Qiuyue and the rest all started, but they didn't say anything. After all, Di Tian made it clear that he was tagging along only to come here to Lifelong City. Now that their internal factions had conflict, it was only normal that he wanted to leave.

"Grandmaster Di, why don't you exchange pointers with some grandmasters here about the dao of weaponsmithing? In the Xuanyuan Clan, a supreme grandmaster weaponsmith is currently present. Why are you leaving so quickly?" Jialan Skywolf swept his glance towards Qin Wentian as he spoke.

Qin Wentian frowned. This Jialan Skywolf actually wanted to stir trouble?

"Grandmaster Di Tian, the Xuanyuan Clan is considered one of the strongest powers at the peak. Although I'm confident in your weaponsmithing abilities, it's best that you do not involve yourself in this. After all, it wouldn't be too good if you offended the Xuanyuan Clan." Jialan Qiuyue's voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind, privately reminding him.

"Farewell." Qin Wentian responded, as he cast a look of contempt at Jialan Skywolf before turning and preparing to leave.

"Jialan Skywolf, what's going on?" A person from the Xuanyuan Clan asked.

"Nothing much. Before this, that man claimed that he was a grandmaster. I told him that in Lifelong City, only extraordinary existences can have the title, not everyone could earn the qualifications. Hence, when met with a challenge, that man decided to flee with his tail between his legs. I wonder where little sister Qiuyue knew him from." Jialan Skywolf casually explained.

"Jialan Skywolf, don't go too overboard." Jialan Qiuyue frowned, she was extremely unhappy about Jialan Yunhai's arrangements. This was simply making use of her. Once the descendants of these peak powers took a fancy for her, Jialan Yunhai would surely use the excuse of strengthening their Jialan Clan to force her into an arranged marriage.

Also, although these people were from peak powers, they were merely the descendants of elder-level characters. Clearly, this didn't fit into her own criteria of choosing her dao companion.

"Am I wrong?" Jialan Skywolf started. After that, he turned and smiled at Qin Wentian who had yet to leave. "Grandmaster...Di Tian. What do you think?"

A mocking smile appeared under the mask covering his face. Qin Wentian changed direction and slowly walked towards Jialan Qiuyue. Under the astonished gazes of everyone, Qin Wentian actually stretched his hand out and placed it around Jialan Qiuyue's waist. At this instant, Jialan Qiuyue's body suddenly trembled but for some reason, she didn't resist it and allowed Qin Wentian to hug her. A soul-stirring smile than appeared on her face as she lightly leaned against Qin Wentian.

At this moment, the gazes of everyone froze, staring at the alluring Jialan Qiuyue!

Chapter 1609: Seed of Love, A Budding Heart

Jialan Qiuyue was undoubtedly an exceptional beauty. She had the title of the number one beauty in Lifire City and even when in Lifelong City, she was also considered one of the peak-level beauties here. She, who is elegant and dignified, now completely had a cute and dependent look on her face. Her eyes sparkled brightly as a charming smile filled her face. Her current appearance was completely capable of toppling empires.

"Hmph." Xuanyuan Hao abruptly snorted as his expression turned extremely unsightly. He coldly shot a look at Jialan Yunhai. The experts from the Sword Spirit Sect and the Heaven Punishment Sect, all had ugly looks too. Jialan Yunhai, who was also caught by surprise, also had a drastic change to his expression. Today, he said that it was a welcoming reception for Jialan Yuntian's group on the surface but in truth, he wanted to make use of Jialan Qiuyue's beauty, using her to form a marriage alliance.

If people from the three peak powers took a fancy to Jialan Qiuyue, he would simply ask their father for her. Jialan Yuntian would have no way to protect her if his own father agreed to his second brother's proposal. Jialan Yuntian's influence would gradually weaken and the clan leader's position would eventually be Jialan Yunhai's.

"Big brother, when was Qiuyue betrothed?" Jialan Yunhai glanced at his brother Jialan Yuntian as he asked.

Jialan Yuntian coldly looked at his brother, "Qiuyue's marriage partner is something that she decides on her own. What do you mean by the word 'betroth'?"

"Mhm." Jialan Yunhai had a calm look on his face as he continued asking, "This Grandmaster Di Tian, why have I never hear brother mentioning anything about him before this? Which peak power is he from?"

"Grandmaster Di Tian is a peak-tier weaponsmith, he established his own power, the Emperor Pavilion. He is not from any peak powers." Jialan Yuntian coldly replied.

"A power established by a mid-stage emperor?" The young man sitting beside Xuanyuan Hao laughed.

"There are many grandmasters in my Xuanyuan Clan, including many peak-level weaponsmiths. Earlier, I heard Jialan Skywolf saying that you wanted to seek guidance in an exchange of pointers?" Xuanyuan Hao also spoke out. He who was seated there, exuded a sense of arrogance, there was cold disdain in his eyes when he glanced at Qin Wentian.

"That was from someone who is too self-opinionated. I didn't say anything about an exchange of pointers and also don't intend to come here and prove anything to the Xuanyuan Clan. How boring is that?" Qin Wentian calmly replied. But the young man beside Xuanyuan Hao stood up and laughed, "Oh, but I feel this would be extremely interesting. I have a divine weapon with me now and this is something created by a grandmaster from my Xuanyuan Clan. Since you proclaim that you are a grandmaster as well, why don't you take out the creation you are most satisfied with and compare?"

As the sound of his voice faded, he didn't wait for Qin Wentian to reply. A terrifying aura gushed forth, the young man from the Xuanyuan Clan had a nasty smile on his face as he took out a divine weapon. Emperor light flared, as astral light cascaded down from the sky. Instantly, an aura capable of cleaving the heavens and earth could be felt from the emperor-ranked divine weapon. However, the thing that appeared on the hand of the young man, was actually merely a ring. After that, he wore the ring on one of his fingers.

He took a step forward and smiled as he looked at Qin Wentian. "Grandmaster Di Tian, how is this divine weapon?"

As he spoke, he stretched his finger and pointed it at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian smiled. He took out a glove-type divine weapon and similarly, a terrifying sealing light erupted forth, forming a resonance with the astral light cascading down from the sky. Powerful sealing energy emanated forth as he wore the glove. He stretched his hand out as a burst of sealing might formed a palm imprint that grabbed out, directly sealing away the entirety of energy fluctuations radiating from the ring.

The smile on the young man's face instantly vanished. His body froze as well. Qin Wentian laughed as he continued to exert force, causing the sealing palm imprint to grab even fiercer. The young man's body trembled violently, feeling a formless pressure boring down on him.

"The might from your ring isn't too bad. A casual divine weapon you took out already possess this level of power, and even needed a divine weapon forged personally by this seat to negate the might from your ring. The Xuanyuan Clan truly lives up to their reputation." Qin Wentian replied. Although there was nothing but praise in his words, the young man felt a hot sensation on his face, he had been completely shamed.

The people in the surroundings all revealed gleams of sharpness in their eyes. As for Jialan Qiuyue, she stared in astonishment at Qin Wentian as bright light flickered in her eyes. This fellow had took out so many treasures to auction away in Lifire City. But it seems like there were even much better stuff which he didn't bear to auction away.

"Grandmaster's reputation is truly well deserved. Was this glove forged by you?" Xuanyuan Hao suddenly stood up as his eyes gleamed. The Xuanyuan Clan had the largest transaction grounds and Xuanyuan Hao naturally could be considered as an expert in grading treasures. If this glove was truly forged by Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian would undoubtedly be a terrifying weaponsmithing genius.

"Naturally. His weaponsmithing abilities are without equal in Lifire City." Jialan Qiuyue spoke.

"Mhm, if grandmaster has some time in the future, you can come and pay a visit to my Xuanyuan Clan." Xuanyuan Hao instantly became more polite. After that, he swept a glance at his son, "Quickly apologize to Grandmaster Di and step back."

The expression of that young man froze. His expression was unnatural, but upon seeing the sharpness of his father's gaze, he bowed and said, "Grandmaster Di, I apologize if I've offended you earlier."

"Don't worry about it." Qin Wentian casually said, silently musing that no one here was a simple character.

Jialan Yunhai's expression continuously changed. He took a step forward and forced out a laugh, "Why is everyone still standing about? Grandmaster Di Tian, please be seated."

Qin Wentian glanced at Jialan Yunhai as he coldly laughed in his heart. He then calmly replied, "It's fine. I, Di, still have something I need to do. I won't remain here then. Farewell."

"This…" Jialan Yunhai's expression changed again. Qin Wentian couldn't be bothered with him and directly turned and left. Jialan Qiuyue was actually still holding on to his hand. She spoke lightly in an affectionate manner, "Let me send you off then."

The two of them then began to walk towards the exit yet a voice suddenly rang out at this moment, "Hold on."

Qin Wentian turned his head only to see a terrifying pair of eyes staring right at him. Formless swords seemed to materialize, shooting into Qin Wentian's eyes, piercing into his soul.

The Sword Spirit Sect, they were unrivalled in their ability to control their swords. Using a spirit sword to slay souls, they could kill from a distance and no one would know who did it.

Qin Wentian's eyes suddenly turned extremely terrifying. With a glance over, his holy sword will shot out, crushing all his opponent's attack. A scream of misery rang out as that expert from the Sword Spirit Sect who attacked clutched his eyes. There were actually blood flowing down.

Qin Wentian coldly snorted before continuing to walk away. The people of the Sword Spirit Sect stood up, only to hear Xuanyuan Hao saying, "You guys can't afford to lose?"

The leader of the Sword Spirit Sect stiffened, before slowly sitting down again. He glanced at the young man beside him. This young man was naturally the person who attacked. He finally took his hands away, but trails of blood could be seen flowing from his eyes. If it wasn't for Qin Wentian showing mercy, he would have already been blinded.

"That man is also proficient in soul attack techniques." The young immortal emperor's voice quavered abit. Earlier at that instant, he had experienced an extremely terrifying thing. Jialan Yuntian's eyes gleamed with a bright light. This Grandmaster Di Tian was truly mysterious. Seems like the things that happened today might not necessarily be a bad thing.

He stared at the direction of Qin Wentian's departure. When he saw Qin Wentian and Jialan Qiuyue holding hands and walking side by side, a faint smile appeared in his eyes.

As for Jialan Skywolf, he had long turned ashen. Only now did he know that that character whom he had been mocking, was someone far superior to him. In terms of weaponsmithing, Di Tian could suppress the Xuanyuan Clan, in terms of soul attacks, he also exceeded the Sword Spirit Sect. As for he himself? Di Tian had never treated him seriously at all. The glance which Di Tian shot him, only now did he know that that was filled with boundless contempt.

...

Jialan Qiuyue walked with Qin Wentian to outside the Jialan Clan before she released his hand. She smiled sweetly and stared at him, "Grandmaster Di Tian, have you taken enough advantage of me?"

"I did that in order to help you. In that situation, if it wasn't for me, how awkward would you feel?" Qin Wentian shrugged.

"Mhm, in that case, you mean I have to thank you, right?" Jialan Qiuyue rolled her eyes at him.

"Sure." Qin Wentian seriously nodded.

Jialan Qiuyue didn't expect Qin Wentian to be so shameless. She glared at him with her beautiful eyes before smiling, "In that case, how does Grandmaster Di Tian want this little lady to thank you? How about I offer myself in marriage?"

Qin Wentian had a bizarre expression on his face. He smiled at Jialan Qiuyue, he didn't expect that the number one beauty of the Jialan Clan who was always so composed and dignified to have such a mischievous side to her. Seems like the facade everyone displayed out in the open might not necessarily be their true self. People would only show their true face when their states of heart were wavering. At that instant earlier, Jialan Qiuyue actually had no trepidation in her heart with regards to him. If not, it was impossible for her to make such a joke.

This made Qin Wentian feel somewhat strange. What if she learned that he was only using her in the future. What would she think?

"Such a beauty like you. In that case, I would rather comply than to go against your wishes." Qin Wentian laughed. Jialan Qiuyue harshly glared at him, but she had a smile on her face. She surveyed him before saying, "You have so many secrets on you. Liu Feibai challenged you but you refused to accept. Right now, an immortal emperor from the Sword Spirit Sect actually cannot even withstand the power of a single glance from you. From this, one can roughly tell how powerful you are, and given your capabilities in weaponsmithing...how many secrets do you actually have?"

"My greatest secret might be that I'm plotting to get close to you and gain your trust." Qin Wentian laughed.

"Oh, is that so? In that case, you have succeeded." Jialan Qiuyue smiled. "However, if you want me to trust you more, why don't you remove your mask and show me your true appearance?"

"Wouldn't you be afraid that I'm too ugly?" Qin Wentian laughed. "But don't worry, if you really manage to see my face, I won't be an old man. Maybe, I would even be more good looking than you imagined. You will definitely be shocked.

"Oh?" Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes gleamed. "You refuse to show me even after taking advantage of me? Isn't this a little unfair?"

"There's no one who has ever seen the face beneath my mask. If you wish to be the first, that is still not enough." Qin Wentian flashed a smile at her. Jialan Qiuyue felt taken aback when she heard his words. She blushed slightly, actually feeling some shyness but this only caused her beauty to be even more apparent.

"Haha, I'm leaving first." Qin Wentian laughed loudly. After that, he turned as his silhouette flashed, soaring into the air.

Staring at his departing back, Jialan Qiuyue stood there in a daze. After that, a bright and beautiful smile flickered in her eyes, further increasing her beauty!

Chapter 1610: A Governor of Lifelong City

Lifelong City was extremely vast. As the center of authority in the Lifelong Realm, the place where the Lifelong Realmlord was residing, one could very well imagine how prosperous the place is. There was no suspense that this city was the largest one in the entire Lifelong Realm.

Every hundred years, the Lifelong Realmlord would gather the nine world palace lords to Lifelong City. This was also the time the nine world palace lords handed over the collected tributes. For the nine world palace lords, the territories under them had to pay tributes every ten years. As for the Realmlord, he collected the tributes once every hundred years.

Every hundred years, there would be a grand event organized. Not only for experts of the nine world palaces, some of the peak powers in the Lifelong Realm would gather here as well to enjoy the banquet.

As for the date of the grand banquet, it shall begin seven days later.

Because of the soon-to-come grand banquet, Lifelong City was extremely lively during these days. All the various powers in the surroundings came here to present gifts, wanting to use this chance to form connections. After all, only truly powerful clans and sects would have the right to participate. For minor powers and minor characters, they didn't even have the ability to cross the vast distances to come here. They also didn't have enough resources to borrow the use of a teleportation array.

The various governor manors of Lifelong City also got busy. This city was divided into four regions, each with nine prefectures, making it a total of thirty-six prefectures. The governor of each prefecture was the strongest out of all peak-stage immortal emperors. As long as they improved by another step more, they would have the ability to contend against the nine world palace lords for their positions.

The four overseers of the four regions were known as the grand governors. The nine prefecture governors per region had to report to them. Their cultivation bases are all extremely terrifying and were all at the empyrean-level. It was impossible for the Realmlord to be so free and manage everything. These four grand governors were the ones dividing the burden of command, providing help to the Lifelong Realmlord. After all, if the four grand governors weren't strong enough, how could they intimidate and control their subordinates?

For powers that can be referred to as peak powers, this meant that they had an empyrean existing within their ranks. Such characters were above emperors and below world overlords, they can be considered half-step world overlords and were given the title of empyreans. There were also people referring to them as true saints.

From the Celestial Phenomenon Realm to Immortal-Foundation, one had transcended mortality. Regardless of king or emperor, both were immortals. But if one transcends the emperor realm, it would mean that that person will be a step above immortals, entering the path of true supremacy.

Qin Wentian walked on the prosperous streets of Lifelong City. He was dressed in a simple white-colored robe. He removed his mask and showed his true appearance.

At this moment, a terrifying aura gushed forth, causing the air to shake. Qin Wentian glanced over only to see a group of experts exuding an overwhelming tyrannical aura in the distance. They also exuded a sense of sharpness as their eyes gleamed with terrifying light. They were all in silver armor and were mounted on flying demonic beasts. Those who were near them all moved to the side, opening up a pathway for them.

"What an imposing army." Qin Wentian silently mused. The weakest soldiers in that group were at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm. There were also several immortal emperors within. Such troops could be considered impressive in Lifelong City. If this army appeared in a smaller city like Lifire City, it would definitely shock everyone.

As this army neared Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian stepped to the side as he inclined his head to stare at them. He only saw a pair of eyes exuding icy sharpness looking back at him. This gaze was extremely terrifying, it was like a bolt of lightning that wanted to pierce into Qin Wentian's eyes, as fearsome as an unsheathed sword.

Qin Wentian felt a surge of energy gushing towards him. He frowned and resisted it. The other party narrowed his eyes in surprise, but didn't do anything as the army passed Qin Wentian by.

"Wow, these troops are truly arrogant." Qin Wentian glanced at their back and mumbled.

"They are the troops of Governor Xiao, they naturally have the qualifications to be arrogant." A person appeared by his side and laughed in a low voice. Qin Wentian glanced over, it was an old man at the initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm.

"Old sir, the Governor Xiao you are referring to, is he Governor Xiao Yu?" Qin Wentian smiled as he asked.

"Naturally. Governor Xiao is the youngest governor here in Lifelong City. He is a peak-level genius nurtured wholeheartedly by the peak power, the Sword Spirit Sect. His arrogance is famous in Lifelong City but he truly has the power to back it up. Even the Grand Governor regards him highly. This Xiao Yu doesn't even need to give the Grand Governor Face. The Realmlord has also praised him in the past. That's the reason why the troops led by him were all as arrogant as him."

The old man laughed. It was like he also felt proud to have such a peak-level genius appearing in Lifelong City.

"But I heard that this governor Xiao Yu is not only arrogant, but he is also extremely lustful with many beauties around him. In the past, didn't he force a clan to marry their young miss as a concubine to him?" Qin Wentian laughed. Evidently, he did some research on the powers in Lifelong City, as well as the governors after he came here.

Out of the 36 governors, the news about Xiao Yu gave him the deepest impression. This was a genius from the Sword Spirit Sect. The Sword Spirit Sect nurtured him fully, pushing him to a governor's position but it was clear the ambitions of the Sword Spirit Sect didn't stop here. They wanted the position of one of the nine world palace lords and this wasn't impossible for them. Throughout history, many major powers of Lifelong City had contended for one of the nine esteemed positions and many of them had succeeded before.

"Governor Xiao is a very young genius, even the Realmlord took notice of him. It's only natural that he would have beauties surrounding him. The various powers were all willing to send their daughters to him, even if their daughters would only have the status of a concubine. Most probably, Governor Xiao wouldn't place ordinary beauties in his eyes. As for that matter in the past, Governor Xiao took the initiative to pursue her and although there were some conflicts in the middle, the other party eventually agreed. There was nothing inappropriate about his actions." The old man laughed.

"Seems like old sir admires Governor Xiao a lot." Qin Wentian didn't say anything else, he merely smiled.

"Naturally, before he obtained the position, Governor Xiao had challenged all 36 governors and he only lost three rounds. At that time, Governor Xiao had just broken through to the peak-stage of the emperor realm and already could have such a radiant battle achievements. His deeds shook the entire city for a period of time and even caused the Lifelong Saint Hall to notice him. You must know that all 36 governors of Lifelong City are all extremely powerful peak-stage immortal emperors." The old man sincerely praised. "It's unknown when an existence like Governor Xiao Yu would appear again. In any case, right now, out of the nine prefectural governors in the northern city regions, Governor Xiao is undoubtedly the number one."

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded, "Extraordinary indeed."

As he spoke, Qin Wentian turned to leave. The old man glanced at his back and laughed, "Young man, don't feel reluctant to accept facts. You might feel that you are an extraordinary individual but given how vast Lifelong City is, how many people can be equal to Governor Xiao?"

"I have remembered old sir's words." Qin Wentian laughed as he walked away.

...

After several days, a commotion rocked the nine great prefectures of the northern city regions in Lifelong City. There were three governors that were issued challenges by a single man. Not only that, all three governors lost.

The challenge was someone dressed in white. He was handsome and confident, what was even more terrifying was the fact that he was only at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm.

When he challenged the first governor, that governor was filled with disdain and got a vice governor to accept the battle, preparing to drive him away. However, that vice governor was instantly dominated and helpless to do anything. He got insta-killed within a second. After that, the governor had no choice but to step out, The challenger easily suppressed him all the way until his defeat.

When this news circulated out, quite a huge commotion was created. The mysterious challenger than continuously challenged two other powerful governors. There was no suspense, he dominated both of them.

For a period of time, everyone in the northern city regions was stunned.

There were numerous immortal emperors in Lifelong City, although peak-stage immortal emperors were powerful, they weren't considered rare. And those characters who could obtain the governor's position were all monsters at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm. Yet three of them actually lost to a single challenger and that challenger was merely a mid-stage emperor? Also, this news rang out before the grand banquet of Lifelong City started. How could it not cause a huge deal of commotion?

Many people were guessing that this mysterious character that suddenly appeared was most likely doing this to gain fame.

His intention was very simple. He wanted to gain the attention of the Realmlord and the Lifelong Saint Hall. If he could do so, he would instantly soar up into the clouds.

Just when everyone was digesting this news, a challenge letter was sent the number one governor's manor of the northern regions - the governor's manor of Governor Xiao Yu.

When this news spread, an earthquake-level commotion shook the northern city regions.

Only know did the people understand that this mysterious challenger's target was never the three governors he defeated. He was here for Xiao Yu.

The peak-level genius of the Sword Spirit Sect Xiao Yu, back then in the past, he was like this mysterious challenger and obtained his position by challenging powerful individuals, gaining the attention of the Lifelong Saint Hall before he managed to climb up.

Now, there was someone who defeated three governors consecutively and had even challenged Xiao Yu. The purpose of the mysterious challenger was as clear as day.

Today, outside the governor's manor of Xiao Yu, many people gathered here. They all wanted to spectate when the mysterious challenger fought with Xiao Yu.

The doors of the governor's manor were wide open. Many people could see Xiao Yu sitting within, surrounded by a bevvy of beauties that exuded a seductive aura yet there was a hint of nobility within. They were all extraordinary females that were Xiao Yu's concubines. They might be alluring but they still had elegance in their manner. Many people silently mused at how this governor truly knew how to enjoy life.

Up till now, Xiao Yu had not taken an official wife yet. He only accepted concubines. In his perspective, he was still far from his peak. In the future, his wife truly had to be a transcendent beauty.

"This Xiao Yu is truly confident." The people outside all mumbled when they saw how he was enjoying himself.

"Mhm, Xiao Yu might be confident, but that's only because he has the strength to back it up. Although the challenger is mysterious, it would be extremely tough if he wants to defeat Xiao Yu." Everyone was exchanging their views as they discussed wildly.

And at this moment, a white-robed figure could be seen flying through the air from afar. This person had his hands behind his back and exuded a carefree aura. He was extremely handsome and exuded an extraordinary air. His bearing wasn't in anyway inferior to Xiao Yu at all!

Chapter 1611: Sword Sage Astral Soul

"He's here." Many people turned their gazes towards Qin Wentian who was approaching. They couldn't help but make comparisons about him and Xiao Yu.

Xiao Yu was one of the top elites among the younger generations. He has surpassed many seniors and now, not many in his Sword Spirit Sect could exceed him in terms of strength. He had a sword-angled brow and a demonic charm to his demeanour. Although he knew Qin Wentian has arrived, he still didn't look up. He continued drinking with his concubines, as though he didn't give a damn about this challenge at all.

As for this mysterious challenger. Even until now, no one knew his name or which power he came from. It was like he appeared from thin air, suddenly showing up all of a sudden in Lifelong City, wanting to use Xiao Yu to shoot to fame.

The truth was also as they have speculated. Qin Wentian was precisely attempting to use Xiao Yu to become famous. He checked up on the background of all 36 governors, this Xiao Yu was a peak genius that was nurtured heavily by the Sword Spirit Sect. Xiao Yu didn't let down the expectations of his sect and managed to climb to the position he had today. His character was extremely arrogant and lustful, putting on airs everywhere he goes. He already has over ten concubines and all of them were young misses from major powers that were extremely beautiful as well. He felt that ordinary beauties weren't worthy to even become one of his concubines.

All these clearly were his flaws, but they were all masked by the radiance of his halo. This supreme genius of the Sword Spirit Sect, this youngest governor of Lifelong City, to everyone else, it was only normal that he should be arrogant and have many beauties around him. No one would care about these 'flaws' at all. From the conversation Qin Wentian had with the old man, this point could clearly be seen.

Qin Wentian continued forward step by step, walking towards the governor's manor. As he stared at Xiao Yu, his aura gushed forth, his intent to battle was evident.

Among the crowd, an old man stared at Qin Wentian with astonishment. He walked out and mumbled, "It's actually you?"

Qin Wentian glanced over and smiled at that old man. So it turned out that it was none other than that initial-stage immortal emperor old man whom he once had a conversation with.

"Old sir, how are you?" Qin Wentian laughed.

The eyes of the old man flashed, staring at Qin Wentian as he spoke, "Little fellow, you might be talented enough to win against three other governors consecutively but it's best that you know when to stop. You should apologize to Governor Xiao Yu and he might choose to spare you."

Challenging governors wasn't a fun thing to do. A governor's manor was after all, the representative of authority in a certain area. It was fine if you won, but if you lost the challenge, no one would say anything if the governor chose to slay you. After all, the challenger was the one who took the initiative, he naturally has to pay a price. If not, what happens if everyone started issuing challenges just because they had nothing better to do?

Such incidents had occurred many times before in the history of the Lifelong Realm. If the challenger won, they would gain fame but they wouldn't really dare to do anything to the governor. But if they lost, the best scenario would be that they got heavily injured, even being crippled or killed was a common consequence.

"Many thanks for your advice, but I still wish to give it a try." Qin Wentian nodded to that old man. That old man stared at him as he sighed. "Why must you do this. You young geniuses have already broken through to the immortal emperor realm at such a young age. Is fame really that important to you all?"

Qin Wentian smiled but he didn't say anything. Fame? What he needed most now was none other than fame. If he had enough fame here, the Lifire Empyrean definitely wouldn't dare to intentionally target him. Since the Lifire Empyrean refused to bring him here, he could only come here himself. If not, he would always be in a passive position, trapped in the palm of the Lifire Empyrean.

"There are many who wish to use me as a stepping stone to rise to fame, you are not the first one. As to why I'm sitting here waiting for you, it's purely because you defeated a few other governors, you have the qualifications to meet with me." Xiao Yu inclined his head and stared at Qin Wentian, his voice tinged with cold arrogance as he continued, "Now, I will give you two choices. The first is because you challenged the governor's manor's prestige, you have to kowtow three times. If you do that, I will treat it as nothing has happened and you are free to leave here."

"What about the second choice?" Qin Wentian asked.

"You will die." Xiao Yu calmly spoke, his tone ringing with unquestionable authority.

"As arrogant as the rumors stated." A smile appeared on Qin Wentian's face. "Maybe, there's a third option. You lose."

A cold and mocking smile curled Xiao Yu's lips as he laughed coldly. He lose?

A mid-stage immortal emperor wanted to challenge him who was a peak-stage emperor that had no equal? This sounded like an extremely funny joke. Most probably, the vast majority of the spectators felt that this was a joke as well.

Only to see Xiao Yu standing up at this moment. Both his arms were wrapped around two women as the three of them soared into the air. These two concubines of his were immortal emperors as well. Although immortal emperors couldn't be considered people with high statuses in Lifelong City, being the concubines of a governor was not too bad.

"The third option? You want to use me as a stepping stone?" The mocking smile on Xiao Yu's face widened. "To me, this is nothing but an amusing diversion. But to you, it's a path that will lead you to death."

As the sound of his voice faded, he released his hold on his two concubines as he stepped out. "Killing you? I can do it in an instant."

"Governor Xiao, please provide me with some guidance then." Qin Wentian calmly glanced at Xiao Yu with a faint smile on his face. His carefree attitude made his words seem laden with absolute confidence. The more he acted this way, the more no one dared to underestimate him. This young man should also belong to an extraordinary power, right? If not, how would he have dared to do such a thing?

However, the person he was challenging now, was Xiao Yu!

Xiao Yu's aura suddenly changed. In just an instant, the atmosphere became extremely tense as everyone felt a stifling pressure pressing down on them. The surroundings around him changed together with his aura. This ability was too terrifying. He hasn't even moved a single step but the surrounding area around him had already become so heavy.

His eyes blinked, all of a sudden, two bolts of lightning appeared in the air, shooting through space, aiming for Qin Wentian's eyes, wanting to slay his soul.

At this moment, Qin Wentian only felt the force of the soul attack slamming into his soul. It felt like he was a rock in the midst of raging oceanic waves, enduring the intensity of a storm of energy that was repeatedly slamming at him. Xiao Yu's eyes seemed to have been imprinted in his soul.

Only a very minor amount of cultivators were proficient in soul attacks. It was even rarer to meet someone who was so powerful executing a soul attack. If his opponent was an ordinary immortal emperor, his opponent would probably die in an instant with his soul snuffed out. However, Qin Wentian was also proficient in soul energy. In that instant, his soul became a blade of grass, fluttering wildly, standing tall in the midst of that raging torrential energy storm. Despite the power of Xiao Yu's attack, it was unable to slay Qin Wentian's soul.

Qin Wentian's eyes also changed, turning somewhat demonic as spirals appeared within his pupils. In an instant, Xiao Yu only felt himself being teleported into a separate dimension. In here, swords of light filled the skies, imbued with Qin Wentian's soul energy. This wasn't just a soul attack, it encompassed a material component capable of causing physical harm to Xiao Yu as well.

The immaterial and the material, both aspects were fused together in a perfect manner.

Xiao Yu narrowed his eyes. He didn't expect Qin Wentian to be so powerful and had such a strong soul. In fact, Qin Wentian was even skilled in soul energy attacks.

However, he merely laughed coldly and took a step forward, causing the skies to change color. Boundless sword might radiated from him as he forcefully broke free out of the dimension.

After that, a supremely powerful sword domain manifested. Silhouettes of sword sages could be seen everywhere, each brimming with an overwhelming might as they rushed towards Qin Wentian. For an instant, the space around Qin Wentian rippled with lacerating energy, wanting to rip him apart.

Qin Wentian gushed forth with immense spatial might, his body seemed to only exist in another dimension. His own sword domain manifested, the humming melody of ten thousand swords could be heard as they flew towards each silhouette of the sword sages attacking him.

For a period of time, the area between them transformed into a violent world of swords. A scream suddenly rang out, one of the spectators that were too close to it, had one of his arms torn off from a strand of sword intent. Everyone revealed expressions of fear as they hurriedly retreated. They discovered that the area outside of the governor's manor was already completely permeated with sword intent. Those who got too close to it would all be torn into pieces.

"Bzzz~" Xiao Yu's silhouette vanished, as he integrated with one of the sword sages. That sword sage directly appeared before Qin Wentian as he cleaved out with a powerful strike that was akin to a bolt of thunder. This thunder sword strike was capable of killing gods and buddhas. The sword sage astral soul was too terrifying, at this moment, Xiao Yu was like a true sword sage that has been reborn.

Boundless radiance gushed forth from Qin Wentian as swords of light shot out unceasingly, crushing everything that got near him as he chose to collide head-on with his opponent. When the glare of the radiance shone upon the sword sage's body, the sword sage actually disintegrated.

However, things were yet concluded. Xiao Yu gave up on the body and chose to integrate with another sword sage. As he stepped out, his sword might grew even stronger, capable of toppling space around him.

Qin Wentian directly soared into the air, appearing before Xiao Yu. He punched out tyrannically, causing a chain of fist imprints radiating immense radiance to link together, crushing yet another sword sage's body.

However, the sword sages in Xiao Yun's domain seemed to be endless. It seemed that he would only stop after he killed Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian radiated emperor light as he resonated with his constellation. With a roar, he unleashed God's Hand, as thousands of golden palm imprints blotted out the area. Buddhic chants could faintly be heard in the air, each of his attacks actually held the same level of power.

Rumbling explosive sounds rang out continuously, space seemed to be almost shattered. All the sword sages had been obliterated by now. The spectators all felt their hearts trembling as they watched on.

This mysterious challenger was actually truly more than capable enough to fight against Xiao Yu!

Chapter 1612: Knocked Off His Divine Pestedal

The fight grew more and more intense. Xiao Yu was able to integrate with sword sages and used their strength. To many people, this was the first time they personally saw how strong Xiao Yu was. Many people sighed in admiration for him. As expected of a supreme peak-level genius of the Sword Spirit Sect. Who would be able to obstruct him?

However, what was even more shocking was Qin Wentian's strength. This mysterious challenger that had defeated three governors truly had the power to challenge Xiao Yu. Each of his attacks was laced with boundless radiance, he was like a divinity of light. Not only that, he seemed to have a buddha-type astral soul that gave him a transcendent aura.

Also, the fist of light he punched out was able to split themselves into more filaments, transforming into millions upon millions of strands of fist light. Each of the split attacks actually had the same degree of power as the original one, capable of crushing all the manifested sword sages.

Everyone could very well tell that Qin Wentian's cultivation base was lower compared to Xiao Yu. He was only at the mid-stage of the emperor realm and was actually so tyrannical to this extent. How terrifying was this? This meant that if he broke through to the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm, it was possible that Xiao Yu would be defeated and the possibility of this was very high. From a certain perspective, this meant that in terms of combat prowess and talent, this mysterious challenger was even stronger when compared to the supreme genius of the Sword Spirit Sect, Xiao Yu.

Despite continuous.y clashing, Xiao Yu had no way to take down Qin Wentian. The light in his eyes gleamed brighter as he launched more soul attacks. However, Qin Wentian's eyes similarly shone with their own light, he wasn't afraid to match Xiao Yu's stare. Regardless of soul attacks or material attacks, Xiao Yu had no way to take down his opponent. This caused him to feel a sense of shame. A mid-stage emperor was capable of fighting him to this degree? How would the others view him?

As he thought of this, his killing intent grew even stronger. In the air, boundless star light cascaded down as the manifested sword sages all fused into one before they integrated with Xiao Yu as one entity. At this moment, Xiao Yu's aura started to skyrocket. He was undergoing an intrinsic transformation. His eyes shone brighter, his aura was more violent as the pressure around him increased substantially. His sword intent alone seemed capable of tearing the skies asunder.

Swishing sounds rang out as screams echoed in the distance. The spectators were all extremely fearful and hurriedly stepped back even further. At the same time, they unleashed their energy to defend against sword intent in the area. Just this random strand of sword intent was already enough to kill bystanders. There were now multiple people with their arms severed or their bodies being pierced through. This was simply because they suffered the aftershocks of the battle, the two participants in combat didn't intend to do this. One can only say that Xiao Yu no longer had a way to fully control such an immense burst of power which resulted in strands of his sword intent leaking out.

Xiao Yu stepped out, his entire person seemed to transform into a shadow. At this moment, Qin Wentian stepped into a domain filled with swords. It was like he was trapped in an illusory world. Xiao Yu slowly approached, a giant face appeared before Qin Wentian as the energy of this world transformed into boundless slaughter intent, slamming into Qin Wentian's body. It was impossible to defend against, such an attacking method was way too domineering.

Qin Wentian inclined his head, the Xiao Yu currently seemed to be a sword sage incarnate. Right now, a golden light cloaked his body in layers, as Qin Wentian radiated the vajra holy will. In addition to the undying attribute he controlled, he had a truly undying and indestructible body. He allowed the fearsome slaughter intent to pierce him, but they did nothing to hinder his movements. His eyes gleamed with sharpness as giant palm imprints imbued by the power of radiance shot through the air, slamming towards Xiao Yu's gigantic body.

But at this moment, Xiao Yu seemed to have melted into nothingness. Those powerful palm imprints simply passed through him, unable to hit their target. This scene caused Qin Wentian's expression to turn heavy. No matter how powerful his attacks were, what use were they of if he couldn't hit his target?

"This must be Xiao Yu's void body, it's too powerful. The mysterious challenger might be terrifying but it is still impossible for him to win against Xiao Yu." Although the spectators were in some danger, no one could bear to leave. The fight had completely exceeded their imaginations, no one had thought that they would witness such a fascinating battle today. As expected of a battle between two superstrong experts, they felt that they have not made this trip in vain.

"HOW CAN YOU WIN AGAINST ME?" A voice layered with tyranny thundered from Xiao Yu. He pointed his finger and stabbed towards Qin Wentian. In an instant, numerous sword rivers formed as the surrounding space was torn apart. When the sword rivers slammed into Qin Wentian, his golden body started to crack and crumble from the impact, but an immensely strong source of vitality from his Ancient Tree Astral Soul granted him an insane recovery speed. He stood there, enduring his opponent's attacks with ease.

"Tell me how can you kill me then." The radiance from Qin Wentian's body was as bright as ever, illuminating the skies and earth. Countless swords of light formed as they shot towards Xiao Yu.

"There's no such thing as a truly undying body. As long as you are human, you will die." Xiao Yu's voice rang out thunderously, as tyrannical as ever. He walked step by step closer to Qin Wentian, the killing energy from the void grew more intense the closer he was to Qin Wentian. He wanted to shred Qin Wentian's body into pieces, completely killing him.

So what if Qin Wentian had an undying body? He could still kill him.

Qin Wentian's white robes fluttered in the wind. When facing the tyrannical Xiao Yu, his aura didn't weaken in the slightest and actually became stronger instead as the radiance radiating from him grew more brilliant. Finally, Xiao Yu appeared before him, stabbing his finger aiming for the center of his forehead. At this moment, the power of numerous sword sages gushed forth from Xiao Yu's finger attack, it was capable of eradicating all existences. No one could block such a strike.

RUMBLE~ Terrifying sonic booms rent the air. Xiao Yu's attack had landed, causing the hearts of the spectators to tremble. This time around, Qin Wentian would die for sure. No matter how strong his undying body was, it was impossible to block such a tyrannical attack.

"You are right, there's no one who can truly escape death. Even for a body of void that you possess, you can still be killed." Qin Wentian's voice was calm. He grabbed out in the air, augmenting his technique with the power of God's Hand. A fearsome devouring vortex appeared in the air, enveloping Xiao Yu. Xiao Yu's body melted into the void once more, but Qin Wentian wasn't aiming for his body. He was aiming for the part of the void Xiao Yu disappeared into.

In this area, even if you are in the void, you would still be destroyed.

The vortex transformed into a terrifying storm of destruction that ravaged the void. Xiao Yu gritted his teeth as he started trembling. A few moments later, he was forced out from the void as his body gradually appeared. His eyes shot out beams of killing energy, wanting to tear Qin Wentian apart.

"BOOM!" The storm of destruction grew fiercer, the power of the laws of light, of devil, of space, everything was fused together.

"ARGH!" A voice ragged with pain rang out. Xiao Yu's body gradually turned corporeal as his entire being kept shaking like he was under a terrifying pressure. He felt like he was on the verge of an explosion.

"Governor Xiao, you have lost." Qin Wentian spoke. With a blast of his palm, Xiao Yu was sent flying away like a kite with a broken string. Fresh blood leaked from his mouth, the energy of sword sages completely dissipated and his aura was far weaker than before, no longer appearing like the tyrannical governor he was.

When Xiao Yu slammed into the ground, everyone was still lost in shock, with the scenes of the earlier battle replaying in their minds.

Defeat.

The supreme peak-level genius of the Sword Spirit Sect, the youngest governor of Lifelong City, was actually defeated today. He was defeated by a young and mysterious challenger who only had a mid-stage immortal emperor cultivation base.

The Xiao Yu currently, was already someone ranked within the top three among the 36 governors in Lifelong City. He was actually defeated by a mid-stage immortal emperor young man. If this was before, this would simply be unbelievable. However, the reality was as such. Xiao Yu was completely defeated.

Two of Xiao Yu's beautiful concubines rushed to his side to help him up. However, Xiao Yu pushed them away and spoke in a low voice, "Scram."

Xiao Yu at this moment, all his pride and arrogance had completely shattered. The two beautiful concubines paled. They understood what this battle meant to Xiao Yu. As one of the supreme geniuses nurtured by the Sword Spirit Sect, when had Xiao Yu ever suffered such a huge defeat before?

All his glory, reputation and pride vanished completely with this defeat. From this point, it was evident just from the look in everyone's eyes when they looked at him now.

The number one governor of the northern city regions in Lifelong City, had fallen from his divine pedestal in such a pitiful manner.

When everyone turned their eyes to Qin Wentian again, their gazes were already different. Before this, all of them thought that Qin Wentian was just an ignorant fool wanting to court death by using Xiao Yu as a stepping stone to shoot to fame. But now, they finally knew that this challenger was no ignorant fool. He truly had the power to rise to the top.

As for that old man who spoke to Qin Wentian before, his heart pounded violently. He was still in a daze, he had no way to regain his calm.

Qin Wentian actually won, defeating Xiao Yu.

His gaze remained fixed on Qin Wentian. After that, he only saw Qin Wentian turning around as he departed, not even leaving his name. The challenger was as mysterious as ever, coming and going like the wind. Nobody knew of his identity and where he came from.

...

The northern city regions, Lifelong City, as well as the Spirit Sword Sect. All of them were completely shocked.

The youngest governor of Lifelong City, the peak-level supreme genius of the Sword Spirit Sect, someone who got famous by challenging others, Xiao Yu was actually defeated by a mysterious mid-stage immortal emperor.

This mysterious challenger had already challenged four governors consecutively and won every battle. This caused many other governors to feel trepidation in their hearts, they were worried that this mysterious challenger would suddenly appear in front of them before the grand banquet starts. If the mysterious challenger challenged them and won, their reputations would all go down the drain.

However, that mysterious challenger seemed to have vanished completely. He didn't appear all the way until the grand banquet started. He didn't challenge anyone else, but there were countless people hoping for him to appear again. All of them wanted to know who he was and where he came from.

Chapter 1613: Lifelong Saint Hall

Lifelong City grew more and more lively. As the date of the grand banquet approached, Qin Wentian's domineering defeat of Xiao Yu also gradually become dull with time. Many people started discussing about the soon-to-happen grand banquet and which characters would rise to prominence there.

Naturally, there were also many who guessed that the mysterious challenger who defeated Xiao Yu would appear again in the grand banquet. After all, his reason for challenging Xiao Yu was clearly to rise to fame and attract the Lifelong Saint Hall's attention. If he was good enough, even the Realmlord might pay attention to him.

Xiao Yu was after all a genius that had been praised by the Realmlord before. What glory was this? But now, since he was defeated by someone, the Realmlord might have also heard of this matter.

The date of the banquet finally arrived. In the location of the Jialan Clan where the Jialan Yuntian's branch members were residing, Jialan Yuntian had a look of shock as he stared at the masked young man before him. "Grandmaster Di Tian, why have you came back here from Lifire City?"

"Several days ago, I had an urgent matter to settle hence I rushed back to Lifire City. However, the expenses to come back here again was too high, I could only head to the Jialan Clan there and trouble them to activate the teleportation array for me. I, Di, am truly filled with endless gratitude for your help." Di Tian smiled. How could Jialan Yuntian know that this Di Tian who appeared before and after, were completely different? The first time was Qin Wentian, but now, it was the real Di Tian.

"When did you become so polite? Previously, someone was extremely dishonest." Jialan Qiuyue who was at the side of Jialan Yuntian, smiled brightly. Her eyes, that were staring at Di Tian, gleamed with a different light.

Di Tian had an awkward look on his face. Earlier, he did tease Jialan Qiuyue and the aftereffects were clear and easy to see. Right now, this Jialan Qiuyue felt no wariness towards him at all. Most probably, she would soon treat him like her man.

"Fairy Qiuyue, previously I truly couldn't stand that group of people. That is the reason why I said and did those things and might have offended you. Please forgive me." Di Tian smiled.

"Hmph, that would have to depend on Grandmaster Di Tian's future performance." Jialan Qiuyue smiled. She, who was normally dignified and elegant, actually had such a radiant smile on her face now, truly mesmerizing to the extreme. Her beautiful eyes stared at Di Tian as she silently mused at how this fellow was acting now. Di Tian had been extremely daring during their interactions before this.

Jialan Yuntian had a meaningful smile on his face when he heard the conversation between the two of them. He regarded Di Tian extremely highly. This weaponsmithing genius wasn't just simply outstanding. Now, they might have obtained his friendship but friendship cannot be considered solid and would disintegrate once some special situations occurred. But if Di Tian was together with Jialan Qiuyue, things would be different then.

The crucial thing was that Jialan Qiuyue herself seemed to be fond of Di Tian. That, in addition to Di Tian's weaponsmithing capabilities as well as the strength he displayed when he faced that attack launched by an expert of the Sword Spirit Sect, Jialan Yuntian felt that Di Tian was truly extraordinary. If the two youngsters really got together, Jialan Yuntian was definitely supportive of it.

"Let's go. Grandmaster Di Tian must be here for the grand banquet. Let us move out then." Jialan Yuntian spoke.

"Grandpa, will we head there alone?" Jialan Qiuyue asked.

"We will head there together with your second grandpa. Although there are some conflicts between us, our Jialan Clan still has to show an united front to the outside and there can be no signs of falling apart. If not, given the huge number of peak powers in Lifelong City, how can our Jialan Clan continue to exert dominance and develop here? If your second grandpa really reached a certain height, even if he wants the position of clan leader, I'll give it to him with no conditions." Jialan Yuntian spoke, his words filled with spirit.

Jialan Qiuyue wanted to say something but didn't say anything. She merely nodded her head lightly. After that, Jialan Yuntian gathered their people and met with Jialan Yunhai's group.

Upon seeing the appearance of Di Tian, Jialan Skywolf's expression immediately turned extremely ugly. Before this, it was him who kept mocking Di Tian, wanting to make things difficult for him. However, later on, the divine weapon that Qin Wentian took out caused the people of Xuanyuan Clan to be stunned. All of them started to treat him very politely. The soul attack of an expert from the Sword Spirit Sect also could do nothing to him and was almost blinded himself.

"Grandmaster Di Tian." Jialan Yunhai walked over and nodded to him. "In the past, my grandson might have offended you, please do not take that matter to heart."

As he spoke, he beckoned to Jialan Skywolf, "Hurry and come over to apologize to Grandmaster Di."

Jialan Skywolf paled, he glanced at his grandfather only to see the strict look on Jialan Yunhai's face. He then walked towards Di Tian and spoke, "Grandmaster Di, please forgive me for my ignorance in the past."

Di Tian had a calm look on his face. This Jialan Yunhai was truly not an ordinary character. He then glanced at Jialan Skywolf and calmly spoke, "Don't worry about it. It's just that the Jialan Clan is a peak power and I, Di, have always been very respectful in my manner and words. I just couldn't help but feel some disappointment at what I saw that day."

"Although our Jialan Clan has some status, there are simply too many peak powers here in Lifelong City. In order to ensure that we don't decline, we have no choice but do so some things like that." Jialan Yunhai laughed. "But then again, if I knew Qiuyue was already engaged, I wouldn't have tried to act smart to organize those blind dates at the welcoming banquet, hoping for her to meet someone she fancies."

Although Jialan Qiuyue felt no good will towards Jialan Yunhai, she couldn't help but blush when she heard these words. Clearly, the incident back then caused Jialan Yunhai and the others to misunderstand. She stealthily shot a glance at Di Tian as shyness was apparent in her eyes, extremely soul-stirring.

When Di Tian saw this scene, how could he not understand that everything was just a misunderstanding? But since Jialan Yuntian and his group didn't explain, it wasn't suitable for him to say anything. Hence, he merely smiled as he nodded.

"Big brother, let us set off." Jialan Yunhai spoke to Jialan Yuntian. Many experts of the Jialan Clan were already gathered here. All of them then soared into the air and flew in the direction of the Lifelong Saint Hall.

In the air, more and more experts appeared. The majority of people were heading towards the same direction, to the core of Lifelong City - the Lifelong Saint Hall.

"As expected of a once-per-hundred year grand banquet, I wonder how many heroes would appear this time around." Jialan Qiuyue mused. There were always some young immortal emperors who had supreme combat prowess that would appear in the grand banquet, all of them were extremely terrifying.

"That's right, given how vast the Lifelong Realm is, the experts within are as common as clouds. Even for the number one governor of the northern city regions Xiao Yu, he is definitely an extraordinary heaven-defying genius. In the past, he was even praised by the Realmlord but recently, I heard that he was defeated by a mid-stage immortal emperor. This caused a huge commotion throughout the northern city regions. I think that mysterious challenger might show up at the grand banquet today." Jialan Yunhai spoke.

"Although we have no idea who that person was, he is definitely one of the young heroes here. Qiuyue, his cultivation base is the same as you at the mid-stage, you have to work hard in cultivation." Jialan Yuntian spoke to his granddaughter with a hint of anticipation in his tone. Although Jialan Qiuyue's talent was good, there was still a distance between her and Xiao Yu. Xiao Yu was a famous character in Lifelong City, but even for someone like him who was praised by the Realmlord, he was defeated by a mid-stage emperor who jumped levels to crush him. From this, one could see how many true geniuses Lifelong City has.

"Mhm." Jialan Qiuyue seriously nodded. She has also heard of that battle. The mysterious challenger who defeated Xiao Yu was now extremely popular, with his story being circulated everywhere. She glanced at Di Tian beside her and laughed, "Di Tian, that mysterious challenger also has the same level of cultivation as you. It's also rumored that he is extremely handsome. What do you think of him?"

"Eh…" Di Tian didn't know how should he reply. Should he praise himself or disparage himself?

Yet Jialan Qiuyue thought Di Tian was too embarrassed and didn't know how to reply. She couldn't help but to laugh softly.

...

The Lifelong Saint Hall was the place that controls the Lifelong Realm. It was a towering building that resembled an ancient and majestic city.

There were flights of stairs leading up to it that were about ten thousand meters in height outside. The statue of the Lifelong Realmlord could be seen outside as countless people paid their respects. Occasionally, there would even be people prostrating themselves, as though the statue of the Realmlord was a statue of their god.

As the lord of a realm, the Lifelong Realmlord naturally possessed supreme authority in the Lifelong Realm. He was unrivalled here and was the target of reverence for countless people. In this strength-oriented world, the Lifelong Realmlord was like a god in the realm he controlled.

Today, below the stairways of the Lifelong Saint Hall, countless people gathered there. No one stood in the air, those who flew here had already descended before they arrived and walked on the ground. They could only incline their heads to stare at the Realmlord's statue, this was a mark of respect to the Realmlord.

Outside the Lifelong Saint Hall, ten tall platforms could be seen. The nine platforms were each located facing the nine directions, and they were roughly about 9,000 meters in height. Above each of the platforms, a treasured throne could be seen. These seats were naturally for the nine world palace lords, it was to show others their esteemed statuses.

In the center, there was another separate platform that was extremely large. This platform could easily accommodate tens of thousands of people, it even resembled a training ground.

Right now, it was unknown how many experts were gathered below the ten platforms. Their eyes were filled with heat as they stared into the distance. Today, they would truly have the chance to see some peak characters in their Lifelong Realm. All those hegemons that governed the territories on behalf of the Lifelong Realmlord, would all gather here today.

The people of the Jialan Clan also arrived. They stood below with the crowd. Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes flickered with light as she spoke in a low voice, "Did they recently construct these ten towering platforms?"

"Naturally, these ten platforms don't exist usually and would only be constructed once every hundred years. However, to supreme experts, it isn't a difficult task to construct them." Jialan Yuntian spoke. Di Tian's eyes gleamed when he heard that, marveling at the amount of effort. However, he knew Jialan Yuntian was right. For some people who have unique law attributes, it wouldn't be a difficult task for them to construct such a towering platform. It was evident that the Lifelong Saint Hall has no lack of such people.

"The people of the Xuanyuan Clan have arrived too." Jialan Yunhai spoke. In a certain direction, many experts from the Xuanyuan Clan could be seen. They were crowding around an imposing figure, and even the Xuanyuan Hao whom Qin Wentian met in the Jialan Clan before, was present as well. However, today, Xuanyuan Hao was just a character by the side. That person being surrounded by many, was none other than the Xuanyuan Empyrean, the world palace lord of the Xuanyuan Palace, one of the nine subordinates directly under the Lifelong Realmlord.

When he arrived, he swept his gaze through the crowd. A slight disdain flickered in his eyes. After that, he turned his attention to the Lifelong Realmlord statue and bowed. As one of the nine world palace lords, he still acted in a very sincere manner, like he was paying respect to a god.

For the world palace lords and the Realmlord, although only a step separates them, the distance of that step was incomparably vast. Only people on their level would understand how vast the distance between an Empyrean and a World Overlord was!

Chapter 1614: The Nine World Palace Lords

Other than experts from the Xuanyuan Clan around the Xuanyuan Palace Lord, there were also many leaders of major powers. They came here together with the Xuanyuan Empyrean and when they saw him bowing to the Realmlord's statue, all of them did the same as well. A pious devotedness could be seen in everyone's eyes. At the very least, it was so on the surface.

At this moment, a person walked down step by step. He actually walked down the flight of stairs. He held his head high with his chest out and exuded an aura of arrogance. This was a young man that had an extraordinary demeanor. He had his hands behind his back and looked calm and composed. As he faced the crowd below, pride could clearly be seen on his face as he walked down the stairs step by step.

"Skyair Empyrean." Beside Di Tian, Jialan Yuntian spoke. "This man is a personal disciple of the Realmlord and is extremely outstanding. He was sent to take charge of the Skyair Palace, one of the nine world palaces."

Di Tian silently nodded. No wonder this man had such spirit. After the Skyair Empyrean descended, there were instantly many experts who rushed forward. Clearly, these people were all from the Skyair World Palace and the major powers in his territory. All of them were extremely arrogant, like they were basking in glory. Their Palace Lord was a personal disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord after all. He was doted upon by the Realmlord and was naturally different from the rest.

"Xuanyuan, you are here so early." The Skyair Empyrean nodded to the Xuanyuan Empyrean.

"You are early too." The Xuanyuan Empyrean smiled and nodded.

From afar, the sound of sonic booms rang out. A group of people were flying over with great speed. Many people instantly moved to the side, and after that, two groups of experts from the crowd joined together as they went up to welcome them. Although these two groups of people looked different, their auras were similar and all of them radiated an intense battle will, like they were born battle fanatics.

"Gemini Empyrean." Jialan Yunhai spoke. "The Gemini Palace always has two people in charge of it. The two standing in the lead are both the Gemini Palace Lords."

"It's rumored that the Gemini Palace Lords are the disciples of that person. I wonder if this is true?" Jialan Yuntian asked in a low voice.

"According to father's understanding, it should be true." Jialan Yunhai replied. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, who was 'that' person?

Jialan Yunhai saw the puzzled look on Di Tian's face, he continued to explain, "In the Lifelong Realm, there is still one other World Overlord existence. Although he didn't establish any power and prefers roaming the world, there's no need to doubt his tyrannical strength. It's said that that person is a good friend of our Lifelong Realmlord. As for the exact relationship between them, no one is really clear about it. However, it's rumored that two of his disciples were stationed by the Lifelong Realmlord in one of the nine world palaces. The Gemini Palace Lords are none other than the rumored disciples of that man."

Di Tian nodded, yet another World Overlord existence.

"The Saddledragon Empyrean is here." Another group of extraordinary characters appeared. They were all riding on demonic dragons and caused a huge commotion wherever they passed by. The crowd hurriedly stepped to the side and opened up a path for them. The person in the lead was clad in armor, he was naturally none other than the Saddledragon Empyrean. When he arrived, he glanced at the other palace lords and nodded to them.

"The Saddledragon Palace is the same as the Xuanyuan Palace, their ancestors fought together with the Lifelong Realmlord before this realm was established. The current palace lord is a descendent of the Lifelong Realmlord's close friend." For each empyrean that appeared, Jialan Yunhai would briefly introduce them. Although his actions seemed casual, it seemed like he was intentionally introducing them to Di Tian.

"There's one more world palace, the Scarlet Origin Palace. These three world palaces were established the moment the Realmlord gained control of this realm. However now, the palace lords of the Xuanyuan and Saddledragon Palaces are descendents of the Realmlord's old friends, but it's different for the Scarlet Origin Palace. Back then, the first-generation palace lord who was a friend who fought together with the Realmlord, he committed a grave mistake and angered the Realmlord. The Realmlord crippled him but didn't exterminate his clan due to old sentiments. He even allowed the Scarlet Origin Palace to retain its name. If not, maybe there wouldn't be a Scarlet Origin Palace now."

Jialan Yunhai continued to speak, and as he spoke, his gaze turned to another group of people who just arrived. "Speak of the devil, the Scarlet Origin Palace's people just arrived."

"The Lifire Empyrean is here too." Jialan Yunhai laughed. Di Tian turned his gaze to a certain direction and saw the Lifire Empyrean leading the experts under him over. The Grand Governor Zhuge Xiong, Governor Xia Hou, Lin Ba, Beauty Xiao, Yin Qiu, Protector Chen and the other protectors were here too. Not only so, the Jialan Monarch and the eight other monarchs under the Lifire Empyrean was among the group too. Out of all of them, only Qin Wentian was missing.

Clearly, the Lifire Empyrean felt some wariness towards Qin Wentian. This was especially so given the fact that Ye Qianyu was suddenly moved away. It was impossible for him to allow Qin Wentian to gain any limelight and appear in the Lifelong Realmlord's vision. After all, he was very clear on how high Qin Wentian's talent was. If it wasn't for Qin Wentian being capable enough, he wouldn't have used him to suppress the Jialan Clan in the northern city regions of Lifire City.

"The foundation of the Lifire Palace is considered one of the weakest ones out of the nine world palaces. Other than the Lifire Palace, there's still the Kanwater Palace and Gengmetal Palace. These three palaces are located in the same general region and are neighbors, they had the weakest foundations out of all the nine world palaces. The Xuanyuan, Saddledragon and Scarlet Origin Palaces have the deepest foundations. For the last three world palaces, the Gemini Palace has a World Overlord behind them, the Skyair Empyrean is the personal disciple of the Realmlord and the last palace, the Desolate Heaven Palace, is the strongest out of all nine world palaces."

Di Tian silently nodded, memorizing these facts. As time passed, this place grew more and more lively as more experts appeared.

The Desolate Heaven World Palace has also arrived.

The Desolate Heaven Empyrean was extremely imposing, he stood there, exuding an air of dominating the heavens and earth. He was in the center of all the empyreans. The other empyreans present were all extremely polite to him, including the Skyair Empyrean who was a personal disciple of the Realmlord. It felt like the Desolate Heaven Empyrean was the leader of the nine. From this, one could tell how strong his palace was.

"Doesn't the Desolate Heaven Empyrean have any powerful backgrounds?" Di Tian curiously asked.

"It's precisely because he has no background that he is so terrifying. From the beginning till now, he depended on his own power to climb up. Even the Realmlord respects him and once, wished to accept him as a personal disciple. However, the Desolate Heaven Empyrean rejected. Although he was very respectful and revered the Realmlord, their cultivation paths were different. He had his own path to walk and will use his own strength to climb up to the peak, reaching the World Overlord level." Jialan Yunhai spoke.

"But he rejected the Realmlord, is he not afraid that the Realmlord would be displeased?" Di Tian asked. This Desolate Heaven Palace Lord was truly tyrannical, even if the Lifelong Realmlord's cultivation path was different from him, it was still a good idea to become his disciple and receive the occasional pointers from the Realmlord to aid him. Not only that, his status would definitely shoot up once he agreed to become a personal disciple of the Realmlord. But even with all these benefits, he still steadfastly chose to reject.

"The Realmlord controls countless territories, how can his heart be so narrow? The Desolate Heaven Palace Lord was someone that he admired a lot and was his subordinate as well. Even if he rejected becoming a disciple, there's nothing to it. I heard that the Realmlord even laughed in approval when he heard the words spoken by the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord."

"Mhm." Di Tian nodded lightly. After that, the world palace lords led their people to their respective places as they waited quietly.

Finally, right ahead in the direction of the Lifelong Saint Hall, more and more people appeared. Two women stood at the forefront, not only were their cultivation bases extremely strong, their beauty was also exceptional.

"How beautiful." Beside Di Tian, Jialan Qiuyue couldn't help but praise them. As one of the peak-level beauties of Lifire City, there was no need to doubt Jialan Qiuyue's beauty. But when she saw these two women, she couldn't help but to feel stunned. Their auras were transcendent and exuded a feeling of nobility.

"They are the Realmlord's women. They naturally would have to be beautiful." Jialan Yuntian laughed.

"We pay our respects to the two fairies." The nine world palace lords greeted. Other than the Desolate Heaven Empyrean who just slightly nodded his head, the other palace lords all bowed to show their respects. Even the Skyair Empyrean was bowing.

Di Tian was stunned when he saw this scene. What sort of character were the palace lords? They all had esteemed statuses and ruled over everyone save for the Lifelong Realmlord. However, they had to bow to these two women? What glory was this? Di Tian naturally understood that it wasn't because these two women had a high cultivation base or they were exceptional beauties. It was because they are simply the women of the Lifelong Realmlord.

Beside him, Jialan Qiuyue took note of Di Tian's expression as she smiled, "What's up with you?"

Di Tian glanced at her, his sharp eyes gleamed with light as he laughed, "I'm thinking that in the future, my woman must definitely become someone like the two of them. Lofty and high up, receiving respect from the multitude of my subjects."

Jialan Qiuyue stared at his bright eyes as she felt her heart tremble. She actually involuntarily felt a sense of nervousness. But she saw Di Tian shifting his gaze away from her which caused her to feel some disappointment.

That sentence, who was he speaking it to? Was it to her?

Jialan Qiuyue actually felt somewhat distracted. It was very difficult to imagine that someone like her would feel this way just because of a single sentence from an outsider.

"Father has arrived." Just at this moment, Jialan Yuntian spoke. After that, Jialan Qiuyue recovered from her gaze and stared in the direction of the ten thousand meter tall platform in the center. Many peak-level experts in Lifelong City were all moving towards there, but none of them dared to ascend to the platform. They were all looking for their own seats on the steps of stairs that led upwards to the platform.

And among them, the true spiritual character of the Jialan Clan was there. He was the strongest expert in the Jialan Clan.

"Let us go over there as well." Jialan Yunhai spoke. As a peak power in Lifelong City, they did have the qualifications to sit on the steps of the stairway. For the major powers that came here following their respective palace lords, they each would find seats on the stairways leading up to the nine other tower platforms built for the palace lords.

As for ordinary people, they could only gaze upwards from below.

"Di Tian, shall we go together?" Jialan Yuntian glanced at Di Tian and asked.

"Sure." Di Tian nodded. Upon seeing this scene, Jialan Yuntian smiled. One must know that the Lifire Empyrean would be here as well. If Di Tian went together with them, the meaning behind it was extremely clear.

Many people started to climb the stairs, all of them were experts from the various major powers. The palace lords also headed to their respective platforms and sat on the thrones prepared, it was truly an extremely imposing sight.

Di Tian followed the Jialan Clan and they were seated at the highest point, just on the steps below the towering central platform, seemingly on par with the nine other towering platforms. Only people from the truly supreme peak powers of the Lifelong Realm were able to be seated here!

Chapter 1615: Red Dust Immortal Palace

The two brothers Jialan Yuntian and Jialan Yunhai walked towards an old man as they respectfully greeted, "Father."

"Mhm." That old man was none other than Jialan Jiangshan. He was at the Empyrean Realm, a half-step World Overlord and had once fought against the Lifire Empyrean for the Lifire Palace Lord's position. Although he failed, there was no need to doubt his strength. His influence was extremely great as well, this point could be seen from how he could manage to get the upper echelons in the Lifelong Saint Hall to transfer Ye Qianyu over from the Lifire Jail. Although he had failed to obtain the Lifire Palace Lord's position, his ambitions were evidently not sated yet. If there was a chance to, he would definitely fight for it again.

"Grandfather, Great Grandfather!" Many people in the Jialan Clan all greeted. Jialan Jiangshan smiled and nodded to them. After that, his gaze turned to Di Tian as he asked, "You are?"

This group should be a gathering of the scions of his Jialan Clan. However, he didn't recognize Di Tian, hence he asked the question.

"Father, Grandmaster Di Tian is a supreme weaponsmith. Right now, he recently established the Emperor Pavilion in Lifire City." Jialan Yuntian replied for Di Tian.

"Junior Di Tian pays my respects to Senior Jialan." Di Tian nodded slightly to Jialan Jiangshan, in a neither servile nor overbearing manner.

"Father, Grandmaster Di is truly exceptional. Just that day, the emperor-ranked weapon he took out, wasn't in any way inferior to the emperor-ranked weapon forged by the Xuanyuan Clan. This little lass Qiuyue also admires him a lot." Jialan Yunhai laughed.

"Oh?" Jialan Jiangshang's eyes flashed. He naturally knew about the dispute between his sons. However, they knew how to act within the norms, regardless of the ill-feelings they felt towards each other, their ultimate goals were to ensure that the Jialan Clan gains in strength. At this moment, his two sons actually praised the same young man. This meant that this mysterious masked Di Tian was surely truly capable.

"Little lass Qiuyue is all grown up now." Jialan Jiangshan smiled at Jialan Qiuyue, causing Jialan Qiuyue to feel a little bashful at his words. She didn't reply to that, although she was very close with her grandfather Jialan Yuntian, she wasn't that familiar with her great grandfather Jialan Jiangshan. However, she knew of his imposingness.

"Grandmaster Di Tian." At this moment, a voice drifted over. Di Tian glanced over to a certain platform, only to see the Lifire Palace Lord and his subordinates there. The person who called out to him, was none other than the governor of the central city regions of Lifire City, Xia Hou.

"Grandmaster Di, you are someone of our Lifire City. The Emperor Pavilion is also considered a power of Lifire City. But Grandmaster, why did you not group with us to come here together but chose there instead?" Xia Hou coldly spoke, his voice filled with a hint of sowing discord.

As expected, the Lifire Empyrean turned to gaze at Di Tian's direction. A red light flashed within his eyes, even the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor beside him was also icily staring at Di Tian.

Those years ago when the Emperor Pavilion was rocked by scandalous rumors in the central city regions, it was her who personally headed there to stop Xia Hou, allowing the Emperor Pavilion to continue existing. To think that Di Tian actually became a Jialan Clan's supporter now. She didn't know if the palace lord would blame her for not doing things well.

"It's a long story. Back then, because of governor Xia Hou's 'kind' actions, my Emperor Pavilion almost closed down. In order to avoid any cases like that from happening again, I can only try to pick some other paths. I got acquainted with the Jialan Clan when I expanded to the northern city regions and now, I'm not here as a representative of the Emperor Pavilion. I'm here in the capacity of a friend of the Jialan Clan." Di Tian calmly replied. These words undoubtedly checkmated Xia Hou's accusation. His meaning was that he was now with the Jialan Clan because he was forced by Xia Hou. He wanted to see how the Lifire Empyrean would react.

The Lifire Empyrean really did glance at Xia Hou after he heard this. This caused Xia Hou's expression to stiffen as the look in his eyes grew even colder when he stared at Di Tian.

"Di Tian of the Emperor Pavilion pays my respects to palace lord." Di Tian nodded to the Lifire Empyrean. The Lifire Empyrean coldly looked at him but didn't reply. Who doesn't know about the relationship between him and the Jialan Clan. Does this mean that Di Tian has chosen his camp?

When he saw the Lifire Empyrean's expression, Di Tian's eyes gleamed. Seems like after he returned, the Emperor Pavilion can truly be completely shifted over to the northern city regions. If there were any variables, the Jialan Clan should be willing to bear it for him. It was impossible to play against two powers when one was sandwiched between. Right now, his true-self was in the open while he was in the dark. The best solution for him was to further worsen the conflict between the Jialan Clan and the Lifire Palace.

"Grandmaster Di, how have you been?" At this moment, another voice rang out in a different direction. Xuanyuan Hao from the Xuanyuan Palace's location called out. Di Tian turned over and nodded.

"Senior Xuanyuan." Di Tian could be polite and low-profile if he needed to be, he didn't choose to be as overbearing as Qin Wentian. On the contrary, he maintained his humble attitude.

"Grandmaster Di is too polite. You can just call me by my name, Xuanyuan Hao. After that day, Grandmaster Di's gloriousness still remains fresh in my memory. If there's a chance for Grandmaster Di to agree to pay my Xuanyuan Clan a visit, that would truly be a joyful thing." Xuanyuan Hao spoke.

"If I have some free time in the future, I, Di, will definitely head there to pay a visit." Di Tian smiled. This Xuanyuan Hao truly gave him enough face. Choosing to speak out at this moment was undoubtedly a veiled warning to the Lifire Empyrean. Although the words spoken were simple, he did help him on the surface. These old fellows truly know how to act.

As expected, the Lifire Empyrean's gaze changed slightly. Although both of them were part of the nine world palaces, the Lifire Empyrean's position was extremely shaky. If he made a wrong move, he might lose it all. If not, the old thing of the Jialan Clan, Jialan Jiangshan, wouldn't have fixed his sights so closely on the palace lord's position. However, who could do anything to the Xuanyuan Clan? The position of the Xuanyuan Palace Lord was an inherited one, passing on from one generation to the next and their foundations were something incomparable. This Di Tian actually managed to gain the Xuanyuan Clan's favor. From this, one could tell that Di Tian was truly capable.

The various powers of Lifelong City arrived one after the other. The experts here all gazed in the direction of the throne at the central platform. At this moment, a dazzling light suddenly flashed, seemingly cascading down from the sky. A moment later, a faint shadow appeared on the throne, gradually growing corporeal, as it eventually took on the form of a handsome-looking young man. This person looked to be only around twenty-plus years of age, with magnificence that could last through the generations. He sat there calmly, smiling at everyone.

Everyone started. After that, the young man on the throne laughed as his features changed, returning back to the Realmlord's original features. He looked about fifty-plus years of age and had a celestial air to him, with an extraordinary bearing.

Everyone respectively stood up, including the nine world palace lords as they stared at the figure before the throne. Countless people bowed and greeted in unison, "We pay our respects to the Realmlord."

The Realmlord slowly sat down, before he spoke, no one dared to raise their head.

"Be seated." The Realmlord waved his hands and laughed. After that, everyone then inclined their heads, "Thank you, Realmlord."

As the sound of his voice faded, everyone sat down, feeling somewhat speechless. This Realmlord had the appearance of a young man when he first appeared. One could only wonder what he was doing right before this grand banquet started. It seems like he had rushed here in a hurry. However, none of them dared to question him. What cultivation base did the Realmlord have? He naturally would spend the majority of his time outside, why would he be cooped inside the Lifelong Saint Hall?

As for the matters happening in the Lifelong Realm, his subordinates, the nine world palace lords, naturally would help him to manage things.

"A hundred years passed by in the blink of an eye. It has been tough on the palace lords, helping me to manage all the minor and major things in my territories." The Lifelong Realmlord spoke. The Skyair Empyrean, as his personal disciple, took the initiative to reply, "This is something we ought to do, it might be tough, but we are happy to take the responsibility for it."

"The Skyair Empyrean is right." The other palace lords all respectively spoke.

"Although I'm the Lifelong Realmlord, the matters of the realm have always been handled and managed by you guys on behalf of this seat. No matter what, I have to show my gratitude. Men, bring out the wine." The Lifelong Realmlord smiled. After that, many beautiful serving girls appeared behind him as they started to serve the banquet.

At this moment, music suddenly permeated the atmosphere. After that, a group of veiled maidens in white appeared. As the skies above them turned dark, flickering with starlight. They were flying in the airspace above the central towering platform.

"The dance of the fairies from the Red Dust Immortal Palace has always been breathtaking. Today, I can finally admire them again." The Realmlord laughed. The Red Dust Immortal Palace was a first-tier peak power, formed of extremely beautiful women. Not only was their strength supreme, their sense for music and dance was beyond comparison. If one wanted to invite them for a dance, that person would have to pay an exorbitant price.

Although these maidens were veiled, the indistinct feeling of beauty in addition to their alluring figures and the way they moved their bodies, made everyone feel that they were beautiful to the extreme.

Even Di Tian involuntarily praised silently. What a beautiful dance, what beautiful music.

Everyone silently admired, their eyes flashing with emotion. The starlight was exceptionally resplendent but for some reason, Di Tian suddenly felt a faint hint of familiarity from their dance.

At this moment, a beam of moonlight suddenly cascaded down from the starry skies. Under the moonlight, an extremely alluring figure appeared. When the light of the moon fell on her, that figure was like a fairy from the nine heavens. Although she simply stood there silently, everyone was already awestruck.

At the moment she moved into motion, just that simple movement was enough to cause the hearts of all the spectators to tremble.

"Beautiful. The Red Dust Immortal Palace truly lives up to their reputation. Simply too beautiful." Someone involuntarily praised.

However, Di Tian's body stiffened as he stared wide-eyed at the figure dancing in the air.

No wonder he felt the dance earlier was so familiar. Right now, that beauty under the moonlight dancing now was none other the same person who danced this same dance back in the luxurious lake of Lifire City. Up until now, he had never been able to forget that beautiful scene under the moonlight.

Now, he finally saw it again.

The eyes of the people from the Jialan Clan flashed. Even Jialan Qiuyue was staring at the dancer. "Grandpa, is she really someone from the Red Dust Immortal Palace?"

"Mhm, if it wasn't for the fact that someone recorded her dancing in Jialan City those years ago, I wouldn't have known about this. But it was precisely because of this reason that we had a chance to move her out of the Lifire Jail, allowing her to make up for her mistakes with meritorious deeds. The Red Dust Immortal Palace was implicated and they also apologized for her actions." Jialan Yuntian didn't dare to speak out directly, he transmitted his voice to Jialan Qiuyue.

Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes flickered, when she saw Di Tian staring unblinkingly at the alluring figure in the air, her lips curled into a smile as she prodded him lightly, "Sinking into a daze the moment you see a beautiful girl?"

Di Tian's eyes flashed, only to hear Jialan Qiuyue asking, "Do you know who she is?"

Di Tian shook his head. Jialan Qiuyue transmitted her voice, "Her name is Ye Qianyu. In the past, it was none other than her and Qin Wentian that caused that large commotion in Lifire City. After that, she was captured and imprisoned by the Lifire Empyrean, the Lifire Empyrean was using her to threaten Qin Wentian, causing him to come to the northern city regions as the governor. The Lifire Empyrean wanted to use Qin Wentian to deal with my Jialan Clan but to think that today, that arrogant Governor Qin actually isn't here at all. I believe it's because the Lifire Empyrean didn't wish for him to come here."

Chapter 1616: Di Tian Participating?

Di Tian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. Ye Qianyu was moved away from the Lifire Jail. The Lifire Empyrean naturally didn't want Qin Wentian to come here.

"Isn't Ye Qianyu a bandit? How did she become someone of the Red Dust Immortal Palace?" Di Tian pretended to be curious as he asked.

"There are some famous dances that originated from the Red Dust Immortal Palace. [Descending into the Mortal World] and [Beauty under the Moonlight] are two of their most famous dances, where ordinary people wouldn't have a chance to see this. If these two dances were performed by the maidens of the Red Dust Immortal Palace, they have the ability to mesmerize a multitude of living things. Back then after the Night Empyrean was killed, nobody knew that he had a daughter. It should have been at that time then when Ye Qianyu used her astonishing talent and beauty to join the Red Dust Immortal Palace." Jialan Yuntian murmured in a low voice.

"Don't belittle the dances of the Red Dust Immortal Palace. These dances are able to allow them to unleash an unique energy that can dazzle the hearts of those watching it. They are extremely powerful."

"Mhm." Di Tian nodded lightly. The beautiful dance gradually ceased, the other Red Dust Fairies all knelt with one knee on the ground, including Ye Qianyu who was in the center. All of them then respectfully greeted, "The Red Dust Immortal Palace begs for Realmlord's forgiveness."

"Oh? Such a beautiful dance, what is there to forgive?" The Lifelong Realmlord laughed as he asked.

"My Red Dust Immortal Palace once accepted a disciple named Ye Qianyu but we had no idea that she was the daughter of the legendary great bandit, the Night Empyrean. In addition, about tens of years ago, Ye Qianyu herself became a bandit lord and caused trouble in the territories governed by the Lifire Palace. Right now, we specially let Ye Qianyu present her dance to seek forgiveness from the Realmlord." One of the fairies spoke gently. The Lifelong Realmlord smiled, "I didn't think that one of the fairies from the Red Dust Immortal Palace would become a bandit. This is such a novel thing. I wonder which is Ye Qianyu?"

"Junior Ye Qianyu, apologizes for my offense to the Realmlord." Ye Qianyu lowered her head as she spoke out.

The Lifelong Realmlord glanced at her and smiled, "You guys can temporarily retreat first. After the banquet, come to the Lifelong Saint Hall. Let me understand the matter first before I make a decision."

"Yes, Realmlord." The various fairies of the Red Dust Immortal Palace stood up as they gracefully retreated.

"It has been a hundred years since I last met with all of you. Are there any characters who managed to break through to the empyrean realm?" The Realmlord laughed as he glanced around.

"Realmlord, our Xuanyuan Clan has one. Xuanyuan Mo has reached the empyrean realm." A voice rang out, the person who spoke was none other than the Xuanyuan Palace Lord. He was also considered a soul character of the Xuanyuan Clan but because he was busy with his duties, he wasn't the direct leader of the Xuanyuan Clan in Lifelong City. But even so, his status within the clan was also extremely high.

"Oh, the grand elder of the Xuanyuan Clan broke through?" The Realmlord turned his gaze towards a person as a smile appeared on his face.

"Realmlord's radiance bestows luck and fortune onto me, that's the reason why I was able to make a breakthrough." Xuanyuan Mo stood up and bowed to the Lifelong Realmlord.

"Hahaha, don't paste gold on my face. What has your breakthrough got to do with me?" The Lifelong Realmlord joked. "Feel free to be seated, there's no need to feel restrained."

"Many thanks Realmlord." Xuanyuan Mo sat down. After that, an expert from the Sword Spirit Sect also spoke up, saying that someone among their ranks also managed to break through and entered the empyrean realm. The Lifelong Realmlord stroked his beard gently and appeared very happy. He asked, "What about Xiao Yu? I remembered that that little fellow of your Spirit Sword Sect is truly very talented. Right now, he is one of the 36 governors of Lifelong City, right?"

The gazes of everyone froze, the people from the Sword Spirit Sect fell silent. Initially, being able to be remembered by the Realmlord was a matter of great glory. However, just a few days ago, Xiao Yu's defeat had already been circulated through Lifelong City.

Xiao Yu stiffened. If it was before, he would stand up arrogantly. But today, not only did he himself feel that he had no face left, he could even sense the strange attitudes of his fellow members from the Sword Spirit Sect.

"Your subordinate is here." But since the Realmlord was speaking of him, Xiao Yu eventually still stood up with his head lowered.

"Xiao Yu why do you seemed so down?" The Realmlord smiled and asked.

"Reporting to the Realmlord, a few days ago, a mysterious expert appeared in our Lifelong City and consecutively defeated four governors, with Xiao Yu included within." The sect leader of the Sword Spirit Sect replied. The eyes of the Realmlord flashed but there was still a smile on his face as he spoke, "Oh, which power is that mysterious challenger from? Is he here today?"

"We have no idea who he is and where he came from. He doesn't seem to be here today." The sect leader of the Sword Spirit Sect spoke.

"Interesting." The Realmlord laughed. "Seems like there are many extraordinary emperors appearing during these years in my Lifelong City. Although I'm the Realmlord, the minor and major matters have always been handled by my respective palace lords and I'm not very clear about them. I might as well take the chance today to see the capable elites of my Lifelong Realm. The old rules shall stand. Today, those who come here can enter the emperor-level battle to spar against each other and fight for the top ten. I will heavily reward the winners."

Many immortal emperors instantly felt their hearts stirring with excitement. This grand banquet only occurs once every hundred years. The Lifelong Realmlord would gather all the subordinates under his empyreans and the other major powers together. The main purpose was for him to bond with his subordinates while enjoying good food and wine at the same time, as well as choosing good seedlings.

As this was a strength-oriented world, one's height in the martial path was naturally the thing held in highest expectations by everyone. This was especially so if one could perform well in front of the Realmlord. Leaving aside the huge rewards, this was a rare chance to make an impression on the Realmlord. A chance that comes only once per hundred years.

All of them understood that this wasn't just the chance for a simple spar. For those true elites, they might have a chance to be used by the Realmlord. Currently, many people with high status in the Lifelong Saint Hall, including the various palace lords and governors, were all discovered through this once-per-hundred years opportunity.

The Lifelong Realm also wouldn't intentionally make movements to spot for geniuses. This once-per-hundred-years grand banquet was already a good enough platform with the highest probability of true elites emerging. As long as one was a genius, there was no way they would miss this chance. Also, the participants were all at the immortal emperor level. Once they were selected, they would be given high positions by the Lifelong Realmlord, helping him to manage his territories or be in charge of other matters.

"For those who wish to participate, ascend to the platform now." A figure walked out. This man was a protector of the Lifelong Realmlord and had extraordinary strength. Although his authority wasn't as great as the world palace lords, he was often by the Realmlord's side and his status wasn't in anyway inferior to theirs.

Instantly, numerous figures soared into the air as they appeared on the platform. The vast majority were peak-stage immortal emperors.

Many of them were from the various major powers of the Lifelong Realm, as well as some experts from the territories managed by the nine world palaces. They came all the way here to fight for a chance, if they could enter the top ten, not only would they be rewarded by the Realmlord, they even had the opportunity to be selected for some official positions. Even if they didn't manage to get into the top ten, as long as they were outstanding enough, they still had a chance to make an impression on the Realmlord and who knows, the Realmlord might truly give them some heavy responsibilities in the future.

"Is anyone from our Jialan Clan participating?" Jialan Jiangshan glanced at his clansmen and asked. "The various powers already sent their experts. You guys better not disappoint me."

As the sound of his voice faded, five experts instantly stood up from the Jialan Clan as they flew towards the platform. All of them were peak-stage emperors.

Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes flashed as she stared at the experts from the various locations ascending the platform. She felt a stir in her heart, she also felt like participating.

"Qiuyue, your cultivation base is somewhat too low. You can attempt this in the future after you break through to the peak-stage of the emperor realm." Jialan Yuntian spoke to his granddaughter. It wasn't so easy to jump levels and win, this was especially so considering the experts participating today. Many of them were supreme characters among peak-stage emperors, including quite a few dazzling existences from Lifelong City.

Leaving aside Jialan Qiuyue, with regards to the five from Jialan Clan who flew up, it would be considered a miracle if one of them could make it to the top ten.

"Yes Grandpa." Jialan Qiuyue had traces of disappointment in her eyes. She then glanced at Di Tian beside her and winked, "Seems like we can only be spectators this time around."

"Oh?" A bright light flashed through Di Tian's dark eyes. Jialan Qiuyue suddenly spoke, "Oh, you still have not told me your purpose in coming to Lifelong City. Is it to take a look at this once-per-hundred-years grand banquet?"

"Nope." Di Tian shook his head.

"Then what is your purpose in coming here?" Jialan Qiuyue had a puzzled look on her face.

"I'm here to participate in the emperor-level battle." Di Tian laughed. After that, he stood up, causing Jialan Qiuyue to start as a strange look appeared on her face. "Di Tian, you wish to participate?"

Jialan Yuntian also turned his gaze to Di Tian. His eyes gleamed with sharpness, Di Tian wanted to participate?

"Mhm, I want to participate in the battle." Di Tian nodded.

"Grandmaster Di, you rose to fame due to your weaponsmithing abilities. But this is a contest of the martial path. In addition, there are many peak-stage emperors participating and their combat prowess is definitely exceptional. They stand at the peak of the immortal emperor realm and although I don't doubt Grandmaster Di Tian's combat strength, it's a fact that your cultivation base is one stage lower than them. Do you want to reconsider?" Jialan Yuntian tactically advised. Although this was supposed to be a 'sparring' battle and the match would stop once the victor was decided, it was inevitable for there to be accidents, leading to injuries and death. Di Tian was just a mid-stage emperor, even if he could retreat safely, it would still be a blow to his self-esteem if he participated and lost.

"Di Tian, are you serious?" Jialan Qiuyue stared at Di Tian. This fellow might have extraordinary abilities in weaponsmithing but he was ultimately the same as her, a mid-stage immortal emperor. In this fight, divine weapons were prohibited. How would he contend against those peak-level geniuses?

"You don't believe in me?" Di Tian laughed.

"It's not that I don't believe in you. Although your abilities in weaponsmithing are unrivalled, but…" Jialan Qiuyue didn't know what to say.

"I'm going." Di TIan didn't say anything else. With a flash of his silhouette, he soared into the air and landed on the battle platform.

The appearance of Di Tian caused the people from the Lifire Palace sit up. The eyes of many people gleamed. The major powers of Lifire City naturally knew of Di Tian's name. Experts from the Yan Clan, Liu Clan and Mo Clan were all here today.

Back then, Di Tian refused to accept the challenge issued by Liu Feibai but today, he actually stepped upon this supreme battle platform. Liu Feibai sat among the crowd from the Liu Clan as his expression flickered with uncertainty.

"Is he courting death?" The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor, who sat by the side of the Lifire Empyrean, coldly spoke. She felt extremely unhappy that Di Tian had chosen to throw in his lot with the Jialan Clan.

"Let's take a look at his abilities then." The Lifire Empyrean calmly spoke.

Chapter 1617: Eyes of Sealing

Di Tian was always famed for his weaponsmithing skills in Lifire City. There was no one doubting his abilities as a weaponsmith but up until now, he had never once shown his strength other than the time in the past when he went to the Yan Clan to fight in the formations. After that, he rejected Liu Feibai's challenge and had never displayed his prowess externally. Hence, nobody in Lifire City knew how strong he was exactly.

Right now, several hundreds of experts were already on the battle platform, all of them were supreme immortal emperors from the various major powers of Lifelong City or the other nine world palaces. Even for ordinary peak-stage emperors, they wouldn't dare to head up. From this, one could already tell how brutal the fights would be. In such a situation, even though the people from Lifire City might regard Di Tian's strength highly, they didn't feel it was possible for him to be ranked within the top ten. A mid-stage emperor was none other than cannon fodder.

On the contrary, they hoped to see a person heading over to the platform. That mysterious challenger who defeated Xiao Yu and three other governors should be here today by right, but he was nowhere to be seen.

"For the battle today, it's enough to stop once victory is determined. As long as one side concedes, the battle must cease. The rules for this is very simple, all of you will stand at the boundary of the platform, and can step out if you wish. Those who step out can challenge whoever you want to, and the remaining ten on the battle platform at the end will naturally be ranked the top ten." The Realmlord's protector stared at everyone as he spoke.

Even without him saying, everyone was clear of the rules. Such combat rules were considered very 'free' and not that serious. Under the eyes of the Realmlord and the major experts, nobody would dare to try out any tricks. It was very easy for them to tell who was strong and weak. Other than the top ten who will need to be specially ranked, the other participants were simply to make up the number. If they cannot win, they would be eliminated.

On the vast central platform, a resplendent light suddenly lit up, illuminating the surroundings. A formation was activated, enveloping the entire area. This formation would prevent the aftershocks from reaching the spectators. For battles between immortal emperors, any of the aftershocks produced would surely be devastating, it would naturally have to be controlled.

At the boundary, many circular rings of light that could envelop an entire person appeared. Those participants could rest in there when they stopped fighting, and can spectate the battle in safety.

Everyone on the platform then proceeded into the circular rings, the several hundreds of experts all entered.

"This fellow Di Tian, why must he do this?" Jialan Yuntian sighed. "He is only a mid-stage immortal emperor and would surely become the target of others. The moment he fought, it's highly possible for him to be defeated. Why did he chose to participate?"

"Maybe there might be a surprise?" Jialan Yunhai laughed.

"Maybe, he might be able to jump levels and fight, but that's only with regards to fighting ordinary peak-stage immortal emperors. The experts here are all supreme peak-stage emperors, how can he possibly jump levels to fight them?" Jialan Yuntian shook his head. It wasn't that he was underestimating Di Tian. In fact, he was already very confident about Di Tian. If this battle platform was a stage for mid-stage immortal emperors, he would definitely put his money on Di Tian ranking within the top ten. But sadly, this was not.

On the platform, a person stepped out. This person was a peak-stage emperor and was an expert from the Sword Spirit Sect. Di Tian had once met him before in the Jialan Clan of Lifelong City.

After he stepped out, he actually turned his gaze to Di Tian.

Back then in the Jialan Clan, there was someone who sent out a strand of sword intent, attempting to act against Di Tian but that attacker was almost blinded, and ended up bleeding from his eyes. Now that he met with Di Tian here, he might as well bring that matter to an end and seek revenge for one of his fellow apprentice members.

Although that day, it was Di Tian's true self who faced that attack, there was no difference to him at all. Hence, when he saw the gaze of this expert from the Spirit Sword Sect, he understood the first battle was about to start.

"Since you are a weaponsmith, why must you appear on this battle platform? This place isn't suitable for you." That peak-stage emperor from the Sword Spirit Sect coldly spoke, his gaze terrifying to the extreme, akin to sharp swords that could pierce the soul.

Qin Wentian had once crossed blows with two experts from the Sword Spirit Sect before. One of them was naturally Xiao Yu. Di Tian also understood what type of energy the Sword Spirit Sect was proficient in. His revealed eyes were extremely calm, Di Tian quietly spoke. "Suitable or not, it isn't something you can judge just by using your mouth."

"This fellow…" Jialan Yunhai mumbled. "The person challenging him is Xiao Mo from the Sword Spirit Sect. Xiao Mo is extremely strong, although he is weaker compared to a supreme character like the governor Xiao Yu, there's no doubt he is strong enough to defeat ordinary peak-stage immortal emperors."

Jialan Qiuyue had a trace of worry in her gaze. Jialan Yuntian smiled when he saw that, "Don't worry, even if Di Tian is defeated, he won't be in any life-threatening danger. He will know when to concede."

"Who is worried?" Jialan Qiuyue blushed as she denied it.

Jialan Yuntian merely smiled and didn't say anything, turning his gaze back to Di Tian on the towering platform. Several hundreds of experts were standing at the boundary of the platform, only Xiao Mo from the Sword Spirit Sect and Di Tian were currently standing in the center.

Xiao Mo's eyes were like swords, he had an icy smile on his face as he stepped forward. His soul burst forth with sword intent, directly piercing into Di Tian's eyes, aiming to annihilate his soul.

Qin Wentian had cultivated the Undying Scripture. His avatar, Di Tian, naturally also cultivated that. The Undying Scripture was a cultivation system for the soul, soul energy wasn't considered a type of law-attribute energy. Because Qin Wentian and Di Tian were one to begin with, there was naturally no problems at all. Xiao Yu couldn't deal with Qin Wentian, so how could this Xiao Mo deal with Di Tian?

He similarly shot a glance over. The holy sword will he possessed transformed into a burst of sword intent and directly shot into Xiao Mo's eyes as well. In the space between their stares, two streams of fearsome energy collided.

"BANG!" Xiao Mo's gaze flashed as resplendent light radiated forth. He took a step forward as another strand of sword intent rushed towards Di Tian. Sword sages actually formed in the area, each containing a different type of sword might. Although he wasn't stronger than Xiao Yu, he was still extremely terrifying to fight against.

Di Tian's black robes fluttered in the wind, his eyes suddenly changed, becoming exceptionally terrifying as an inky black vortex of sealing appeared.

"BOOM, BOOM, BOOM!" The inky black vortex suddenly expanded, sealing all the sword sages. The sword sages struggled valiantly, but the vortex only grew increasingly fearsome. It was like a pair of eyes appeared within that vortex, constantly supplying sealing energy that strengthened the sealing effect, negating the struggle from the sword sages.

The entire space trembled. The area around Di Tian gradually transformed into a sealing domain, a world of his own. He didn't seek to simply seal the sword sages, he also wanted to seal the energy in Xiao Mo's body. When the sealing light shot into Xiao Mo, the sword light radiating from Xiao Mo grew increasingly resplendent as though in an effort to resist. However, the burst of might soon diminished and Xiao Mo's body itself was gradually being sealed bit by bit. If this continued on, Xiao Mo's entire person would be sealed into the dimension inside the terrifying vortex.

"I CONCEDE!" Xiao Mo roared thunderously. He already couldn't sense the astral energy from his constellation and his resistance was getting weaker and weaker. Di Tian, on the other hand, grew stronger as time went by. If this continued on, the consequences would be unimaginably dire for him.

Di Tian waved his hand as the sealing law domain gradually dissipated. Everything returned to its normal calm. Xiao Mo's expression was like dead ashes. From the start until now, Di Tian hadn't really truly attacked. He only unleashed his law energy via his eyes and he was crushed just like that. What a miserable defeat.

What was even more terrifying was that his opponent was merely a mid-stage immortal emperor. This simply caused him to have no face to continue on.

With a flash of his silhouette, Xiao Mo lowered his head and retreated out of the battle platform, he didn't have the face to see anyone right now.

The gazes of the people from the Sword Spirit Sect all stared at Di Tian, they had unsightly expressions on their faces. A disciple from their sect, Xiao Mo, took the initiative and started the first battle. Yet, he was actually defeated in such a miserable manner? It was naturally very hard for them to feel good will towards Di Tian.

"Not simple at all." The crowd mused silently in their hearts. As expected, one mustn't have any contempt for any geniuses at all. A mid-stage immortal emperor directly used just his law domain to suppress a genius of the Sword Spirit Sect, Xiao Mo.

The people from the Jialan Clan were all completely stunned. Jialan Yuntian was dumbstruck, he thought that he had already regarded Di Tian very highly. In his heart, he did faintly hope that Di Tian could be victorious but such an end result still ultimately caused him to be dumbstruck. Xiao Mo, in the face of Di Tian, actually couldn't even withstand a single attack. Such disparity in strength, whose cultivation base was the actual higher one?

Is Di Tian really just a genius weaponsmith grandmaster?

How ridiculous, even if the status of a grandmaster weaponsmith was taken away, Di Tian was undoubtedly a character at the peak, easily able to display his radiance.

"Seems like I still have underestimated him." Jialan Yuntian sighed. He cast a deep glance at Jialan Qiuyue who was beside him. Let's hope that she would really get together with Di Tian.

Jialan Qiuyue's gaze was also frozen there. When she thought of Di Tian's words before he flew up to participate, she suddenly got more and more curious about seeing Di Tian's face. His strength truly caused her to be surprised. Could his appearance really be like what he told her? Extremely handsome?

The people from the Jialan Clan were all casting mocking glances in the direction of the Lifire Palace. As expected, the Lifire Empyrean had an unsightly expression on his face, and so did his subordinate, central governor Xia Hou.

"Just winning a single round, it counts for nothing." Xia Hou coldly spoke. Beauty Xiao who was by the side smiled but she didn't say anything. Xia Hou was definitely feeling extremely unhappy.

Liu Feibai who wasn't far away from them, had an even uglier look on his face. In the past when he challenged Di Tian, Di Tian rejected it and his clan spread the news that Di Tian was a coward. But now, from the looks of things, was Di Tian really afraid of fighting against him back then?

Or maybe, Di Tian simply disdained from accepting his challenge. From the start to now, this Di Tian had never placed this genius of the Liu Clan into his eyes. When he thought of this, Liu Feibai's fists clenched tightly, feeling a gush of humiliation.

Di Tian didn't have the time to care about the feelings of others. He returned to a circular ring and rested. Very quickly, another expert stepped on to the platform and issued a challenge to others. After that, numerous fascinating matches unfolded, revealing the extraordinary characters.

There were quite a few supreme characters from the peak powers who can be said to be unrivalled in the immortal emperor realm. Their combat prowess was extremely terrifying and they could achieve insta-killing their opponents should they want to do so. This was simply tyrannical to the extreme. Even Di Tian felt the waves of pressure boring down onto him!

Chapter 1618: Seeking to Suffer

Because Di Tian had already had a victory against a peak-stage immortal emperor, no one else challenged him next. After all, nobody wished to meet with such a powerful expert this early.

Although Di Tian won that fight, many of them didn't feel that he was powerful enough to defeat them. But there shouldn't be a problem for him to rank within the top hundred. But because there are several hundreds of participants and everyone would only challenge opponents that they were sure they could defeat, Di Tian can be considered temporarily safe.

Unless there are others wanting to intentionally target him.

Time slowly flowed, Di Tian kept spectating. He saw many powerful characters that were worthy for him to regard them highly.

Although people from the various governor manors didn't participate in this battle, one couldn't hold any of the participants in disdain. After all, many of them were from major powers of the Lifelong Realm.

Finally, many figures at the boundary were already gone as the violent battles continued one after another. Only a few hundred people were left now. As for mid-stage immortal emperors, there were only three remaining. All three of them had supreme combat prowess or they wouldn't have been able to last until now.

When only a hundred participants were left, a short pause occurred. None of the participants stepped out.

This battle was one that could be considered extremely lax in terms of the rules. The participants could choose not to fight, or can casually challenge any others. If you are too weak, you won't be able to escape. But if you are too strong, no one would dare to challenge you. Even if there are, you could also crush the challenger.

Now, for those who still remained, were all supreme elites. All of them didn't want to easily walk out to challenge others whom they had no confidence in winning against. This was what led to the current situation.

"The three mid-stage immortal emperors should leave already. Are you waiting for people to dominate you?" A tyrannical voice rang out. The person who spoke was from the Allheaven Sect, a peak power in Lifelong City. He was extremely powerful, he had a sturdy and muscular build and looked akin to an invincible battle god. Before this, he had won two victories.

For the two fights he had, he used a single move for one and three moves for the other, heavily injuring his opponents who were two peak-stage immortal emperors.

"He's the Blackhand Immortal Emperor, a supreme emperor character from the Allheaven Sect. His strength should be sufficient to rank within the top thirty. He spoke out to break the stalemate, seems like he wants to force the three mid-stage immortal emperors out." Someone spoke in a low voice.

"Since the Blackhand Immortal Emperor has spoken, I think it's impossible for the three mid-stage immortal emperors to avoid being eliminated now."

Di Tian's eyes flashed, he glanced at the Blackhand Immortal Emperor. As for the other two mid-stage emperors, their eyes also flickered with coldness. One of them spoke out, "Who says that we have to leave just because our cultivation bases are slightly lower?"

"You guys being able to reach this point given your cultivation bases, is already a sign that many people gave you all face. When you all step into the peak-stage, maybe you would then have a true chance to display your prowess on this stage. But now, you guys are still far from sufficient." The Blackhand Immortal Emperor icily spoke. The other mid-stage immortal emperor laughed coldly, "Since this is the case, I'll have to ask you, Blackhand, to provide me with some guidance."

As the mid-stage immortal emperor spoke, he stepped out, actually issuing a challenge to the Blackhand Immortal Emperor.

The eyes of the Blackhand Immortal Emperor were extremely cold. He stepped out and stretched his hands out, and they actually turned black in color as numerous phantom black arms appeared behind him, radiating a fearsome ghastly might. In the air, bolts of black lightning manifested, cracking with intensity, causing the hearts of everyone to shiver.

"The Allheaven Saber Art of the Allheaven Sect that is infused with devil-path energy. It's truly tyrannical." The hearts of everyone pounded rapidly. That mid-stage immortal emperor had an incomparably heavy look on his face. Although he couldn't bear the slight and stood out to challenge Blackhand, he knew how strong Blackhand truly was. When he saw the phantom black hands blotting out the skies, he felt like he was looking at a scene of the apocalypse.

"Are you sure you want to fight?" The Blackhand Immortal Emperor's voice was like ice. The millions of black hands filled the skies, like a heavenly net that enveloped everything. The black bolts of lightning all brimmed with saber-law energy, devastating the area around them, capable of tearing apart all existence. That mid-stage immortal emperor stood there with an ugly look on his face. His body trembled, regretting his earlier impulsive action. Only when he truly faced against the Blackhand Immortal Emperor did he understand how strong his opponent was.

"I admit defeat." It was like he made a very tough decision, the mid-stage immortal emperor was trembling when he spoke. The destructive might in the air slowly dissipated like they had never appeared before. The Blackhand Immortal Emperor then glanced at Di Tian and the other mid-stage immortal emperor as he coldly spoke, "What about you two?"

The expression of the other mid-stage emperor changed, turning extremely unsightly. Di Tian frowned and coldly spoke, "You like to interfere in the matters of others too much."

The Blackhand Immortal Emperor glanced at Di Tian, his eyes gleamed sharply as he barked, "Scram out here."

Di Tian narrowed his eyes, he then stepped up the platform. Everyone who saw this could only sigh on behalf of Di Tian. Seems like the Blackhand Immortal Emperor wanted to expel the three mid-stage immortal emperors from this venue first.

"Mid-stage immortal emperors are still ultimately, slightly weaker in terms of their cultivation bases and would be easily targeted. Even if Di Tian had domineeringly defeated Xiao Mo of the Sword Spirit Sect, leading to the fact that no one challenged him after that, he eventually still couldn't evade being eliminated." Jialan Yuntian shook his head.

"Maybe, there would be a surprise?" Jialan Qiuyue spoke in a light voice. Before this, she also felt it was impossible for Di Tian to last too long on this dazzling stage. But that earlier battle Di Tian fought, had increased her confidence in him by a lot. Hence, she couldn't help but to fantasize what if he actually won.

"It's difficult. The Blackhand Immortal Emperor isn't Xiao Mo. He has the strength to be ranked within the top thirty." Jialan Yunhai spoke. He clearly understood more about the various characters of the Lifelong Realm. This Blackhand Immortal Emperor was a very powerful character from the Allheaven Sect, how could he not know that Blackhand was much more powerful compared to Xiao Mo? One could even say that Blackhand and Xiao Mo were simply people of different levels. If Xiao Mo could rank within the top hundred, Blackhand would surely have the capability to be ranked within the top thirty. The disparity was too great.

Jialan Qiuyue's mouth twitched. She stared at the battlefield only to see that the Blackhand Immortal Emperor had already made his move. The phantom black arms resembling a heavenly net, blasted out. It looked like an impenetrable offense, nothing could escape it. It seemed like Di Tian's earlier words have offended the Blackhand Immortal Emperor and he wanted to crush him ruthlessly, not even giving Di Tian a chance to concede.

Xiao Hou coldly laughed when he saw this. Di Tian came here with the Jialan Clan in hopes of getting famous? How can things be so easy?

Di Tian inclined his head as a dazzling light gleamed in his eyes. His terrifying eyes of sealing flickered with boundless sealing light as his domain of sealing manifested around him, locking down this space. When the black hands brimming with saber might slashed down, they slammed into the wall of sealing energy, causing many seals in the domain of sealing to shatter one after the other.

Di Tian continued moving forward, countless runes flashed as they manifested around him. Very swiftly, Di Tian's entire person was covered in a shimmering circle of light. When the Blackhand Immortal Emperor finally broke through the domain, he rushed towards Qin Wentian with no hesitation.

At this moment, the black bolts of lightning blasted down, yet there seemed to be a wall between Di Tian, separating him from reality. All the lightning bolts were absorbed into the void. Di Tian waved his hand as a true gate of sealing manifested, brimming with astral light as it sealed the remnant destructive energies unleashed by Blackhand.

"Go." Di Tian gestured, the true gate of sealing shot into the Blackhand Immortal Emperor's domain as it continuously expanded, sealing away all attacks.

The eyes of the Blackhand Immortal Emperor flashed. He gathered boundless astral energy, exuding a devil might that towered up into the sky. He slashed out with another stance of the Allheaven Saber Art, the destructive might unleashed was capable of even shattering a particle world. He knew that there wasn't a technique that was truly invincible. Although this gate of sealing seemed terrifying, he would still be able to break it if he unleashed enough power. The Blackhand Immortal Emperor didn't doubt this at all.

Just like what the Blackhand Immortal Emperor expected, his powerful strike blasted the gate of sealing into pieces. However, this had yet to end. Di Tian's eyes turned extremely terrifying, directly looking at him. Countless strands of sword holy will pierced forth, imbued with his soul energy, blasting into Blackhand. The Blackhand Immortal Emperor trembled but all he could see in his vision were those terrifying eyes of sealing. Di Tian's attack also contained the sealing aspects, resulting in the sealing energy in them invading his body.

He howled thunderously, unleashing vast amounts of devil might as he cleaved with his saber art once more, wanting to kill everything. However, Di Tian easily sidestepped, avoiding his attack. Di Tian's eyes stared fixedly at him, causing the energy in the Blackhand Immortal Emperor's body to weaken continuously.

"DOMAIN!" Di Tian roared. The eyes of sealing he possessed manifested a dimension, trapping the Blackhand Immortal Emperor within, severing his link with the astral energy from his constellation. The Blackhand Immortal Emperor turned pale. Di Tian wanted to fight a war of attrition with him, slowly sapping his strength away.

"RUMBLE!" The Blackhand Immortal Emperor utilized the entirety of energy inside his body as the phantom black hands in the air all blasted forward, causing black lightning to cover the entire area.

But at this moment, a terrifying demonic might radiated from Qin Wentian, it was like he was an ancient primordial demonic beast. The phantom of a Xuanwu Turtle appeared, enveloping him protectively, disregarding all the attacks blasting into it. His eyes of sealing continued to shoot attacks, weakening the Blackhand Immortal Emperor.

"Puchi~" The Blackhand Immortal Emperor suddenly screamed, his defenses disintegrated as he bled from his eyes. The sword intent that gushed from Qin Wentian, ravaged his body as bloody wounds appeared one after the other,

"I CONCEDE!" The Blackhand Immortal Emperor screamed miserably. Di Tian retracted the attack and after that, Blackhand's body slammed onto the ground as he trembled in pain from the impact.

"Why must you act cool and take the lead to stand out?" Di Tian calmly glanced at the Blackhand Immortal Emperor who was lying on the ground. After that, he turned and returned to his protective circle at the boundary, like nothing has happened at all. However, the scene of the Blackhand Immortal Emperor's defeat brought a huge rush of impact to everyone who was spectating. This battle indicated that Di Tian had enough strength to be ranked within the top thirty. In fact, he even has a sliver of chance to be in the top ten.

For the next several battles, it was definite that no one else would easily challenge Di Tian!

Chapter 1619: One Step Away From the Top Ten

The Blackhand Immortal Emperor was in pathetic straits. He was an extremely famous supreme peak-stage immortal emperor from the Allheaven Sect but was now stumbling down the platform with heavy injuries. His attitude now was markedly different from how he behaved earlier.

The victor, Di Tian, was as calm as before, it felt like to him, defeating the Blackhand Immortal Emperor was just an insignificant matter and nothing worthy to be proud of. He had his eyes closed in meditation, ignoring all external matters. At this moment, the gazes of everyone changed when they looked at him. They knew that this man wasn't someone easy to bully.

The people of the Jialan Clan, Lifire City, were all long dumbstruck. Too strong, so overwhelmingly strong that it exceeded their expectations. Was this really the grandmaster weaponsmith that didn't dare to accept a challenge? His prowess on the martial path was actually so strong to this extent.

"Grandpa, do you think he can rank within the top ten and gain the reward given by the Realmlord?" Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes flashed even brighter as she asked Jialan Yuntian. Jialan Yuntian was speechless, he didn't even know what to say. To get into the top ten was naturally extremely difficult. There was still over ten to twenty terrifying characters from the peak powers still remaining and they were all popular choices for the top ten. A mid-stage immortal emperor to contend against all these monsters? How difficult would that be?

However, he was already wrong on two counts. Could he really treat Di Tian like an ordinary mid-stage emperor? Every time he felt that it was impossible for Di Tian to make it, Di Tian would give him an intense surprise, proving himself with absolute strength. For that battle earlier, the Blackhand Immortal Emperor looked to win for sure. He was a supreme immortal emperor from the Allheaven Sect, no matter how Jialan Yuntian looked at it, how could any mid-stage immortal emperor win? But what was the end result?

Right now, he already couldn't be sure. He couldn't help but smile bitterly, "I've no idea."

The battles continued, other than Di Tian. The other mid-stage immortal emperor was eliminated very swiftly. Other than Qin Wentian being at the mid-stage, the remaining participants were all peak-stage immortal emperors. There were quite a few supreme existences that could be said that it's almost for sure they would be within the top ten.

For example, Xuanyuan Dipper from the Xuanyuan Clan. His Dipper Protection Technique was incomparably ferocious, granting him supreme attacking and defensive prowess. He could even manifest thousands of weapons to attack, and was like an undefeatable battle god. Although his strength was enough that no one dared to challenge him, he had stepped out and showed his prowess a few times earlier and had completely suppressed all his opponents.

There's also the Skydragon Saint Child of the Divine Dragon Cult. He's extremely terrifying, able to summon heavenly dragons to battle for him. He was akin to an invincible existence with boundless might.

Also, Sword Ion of the Spirit Sword Sect, this man was someone whose fame was equal to Xiao Yu back then. His combat prowess is extraordinary, but because his age was far greater compared to Xiao Yu, he didn't have the title of a genius.

Purple Yang Immortal Emperor, Poison Saint's disciple, Lord Heartseize, Young Master of the Sunmoon Mountain Manor, Saint Child of the Setting Sun Institute, etc. All of them were extremely powerful. There were immortal emperors who were already famous long ago. There were also extremely talented geniuses among the younger generations among them. Each of them undoubtedly has the strength to be ranked within the top ten. If one wanted to reach there, they would have to trample on all these monsters. The difficulty of doing so could very well be imagined.

Di Tian's domineering victory over the Blackhand Immortal Emperor made it so that no one challenged him. Gradually, the participants grew fewer and only thirty remained.

However at this moment, the battles have reached a climax. Each battle that occurred on the platform, was extremely intense. If it wasn't for the protective formation sealing the fluctuations and aftershock within, the shockwaves released would be able to effortlessly decimate an extremely vast area.

"Top thirty." Jialan Qiuyue had a look of nervousness in her eyes. Di Tian only used two battles to step into the top thirty. If one participant was eliminated for every battle fought, fifteen would remain after the next clash, and at that stage, it would only be one step away from the top ten. Unless the current participants locked their attention onto someone and constantly challenged that target because they felt he was weak, everyone should have an equal chance.

Another intense battle occurred and only twenty-nine remained on the platform.

At this moment, a sturdy and imposing figure stepped out. His build was extremely large and was like a giant. His eyes shone with a terrifying white light and with every step he took, the platform trembled.

A gatekeeper of the Ancient Sacred Tomb.

In Lifelong City, there is a mysterious Ancient Sacred Tomb Sect where experts were as common as clouds within. They usually stayed in the tomb and only ventured out extremely rarely. But today, because of the grand banquet, someone from that sect actually appeared.

The eyes of the gatekeeper flickered, he gazed at Di Tian and spoke, "You, come out."

The eyes of everyone flashed. Among the remaining participants, Di Tian can be considered the weakest if one viewed things on the surface. His cultivation base was the lowest, only at the mid-stage and if he still remained uneliminated, it would truly be a miracle.

Right now, the gatekeeper has challenged him. It should be about time this mid-stage immortal emperor, Di Tian, left the platform, right?

When the crowd thought of the power possessed by the gatekeeper, all of them had looks of interest on their faces. What would happen if this man fought against Di Tian's sealing abilities?

Di Tian stepped out. The gatekeeper didn't say anything more. His eyes turned a complete white as emperor light cascaded down, achieving a resonance with his constellation. The white light directly transformed into boundless petrification energy. In an instant, everything in the atmosphere turned heavier. Di Tian felt his body growing stiffer and stiffer as he was about to be petrified.

Terrifying law energy circulated around Di Tian, shielding him from the petrification might. However, the entire space around him seemed to be already petrified. The borders of a gigantic rock enveloped Di Tian. The gatekeeper's strength was simply too terrifying, he was even able to turn the surrounding space to stone.

Rumbling sounds rang out. The gatekeeper soared into the air. He lifted his gigantic palms and blasted towards the petrified space. With a single attack, the entire space shuddered, the shockwaves of destruction generated within swept over Di Tian, wanting to crush him completely. How tyrannical was this?

Jialan Qiuyue gradually turned pale. Earlier, she still had high hopes that Di Tian could create a miracle and slaughter his way into the top ten. But only when she saw the gatekeeper's strength did she realize how terrifying the remaining participants were. Right now, she only hoped that Di Tian could survive.

That strike of his was capable of shattering the petrified space, including Di Tian's body.

The petrified space crumbled apart, the law energies rumbled violently. From within, a figure gradually appeared. This figure was protected by a sealed space, he was in a separate dimension after sealing himself within. The crumbling impact didn't seem capable of breaching it.

The eyes of the gatekeeper widened. The white light gleaming from his eyes, glowed even brighter as it shot towards Di Tian. A terrifying pair of eyes of sealing appeared behind Di Tian, absorbing boundless astral energy before shooting out sealing energy, as the laws of petrification and the laws of sealing, collided with each other midair.

Cracking sounds rang out unceasingly, the area of petrification expanded in a circle, wanting to petrify Di Tian. However, the sealing energy kept changing forms, it was like a sealing formation that could contend equally against the petrification law.

The gatekeeper could do nothing to Qin Wentian. He stomped on the ground and punched out, wanting to settle everything with overwhelming force. He then grabbed out with his hand which formed a gigantic spirit imprint that grabbed towards Di Tian. Everywhere the spirit palm passed by, was turned into stone instantly.

Di Tian's law energy blasted forth as a gate of sealing capable of swallowing everything into its own dimension appeared. It sealed away the spirit palm while flying towards the gatekeeper. At the same time, another terrifying sealing diagram flew from him, absorbing astral light from his constellation as it expanded into a world sealing diagram that covered everything. This sealing diagram was like a supreme emperor-ranked treasure, capable of creating a separate dimension that could isolate the gatekeeper from his petrification law energy.

"Mhm?" The gatekeeper inclined his head and roared in anger. The volume of his roar shook the skies, blasting into the diagram. However, the terrifying vibrations from his roar were also sealed away.

The world diagram unleashed boundless sealing light that propagated further as it expanded. Very swiftly, the gatekeeper realized that it was tougher and tougher for him to draw upon his law energy. All other types of law energy in this space was gradually being sealed away.

With a thunderous roar, he rushed towards Di Tian. He clearly knew that he had to end things fast or things would be extremely disadvantageous for him if he chose to drag on.

But how would Di Tian give him this opportunity? The sealing gate appeared once more, flying towards his opponent, wanting to seal the gatekeeper within its sealing dimension. The gatekeeper showed no fear and launched his attacks in a frenzy, forcibly shattering the gate of sealing. However, the sealing light cascading down grew stronger and stronger and had already invaded his body. He drew upon more of the petrification law energy that was available but he was unable to block Di Tian's momentum.

"The gatekeeper is going to lose." Many silently mused when they saw this, while great waves of shock arose in their hearts. Di Tian's sealing abilities were just too strong, so strong to this extent. Even the tyrannical gatekeeper could do nothing to him.

Just like what the spectators had speculated, despite the overwhelming might of the gatekeeper's attack, Di Tian was in no hurry at all. He patiently delayed and after a long time, the gatekeeper gave up and admitted his defeat in an extremely dispirited manner.

Di Tian was ultimately still the victor. A mid-stage immortal emperor once again displayed his overwhelming combat prowess that seemed even superior to his weaponsmithing talent.

Xia Hou's heart trembled. Even the Lifire Empyrean was shocked. Di Tian was so powerful. If his continued on, he might really be in the top ten.

Next, intense battles continued, with a participant being eliminated after every round. Di Tian's victory against the gatekeeper caused many to be stunned. Unknowingly as the battles continued, only fifteen participants were left. As long as five more were eliminated, the top ten would arise.

Jialan Yuntian's heart trembled as he spoke in a low voice. "Maybe, he only needs one more battle to step into the top ten."

"Top ten?" Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes gleamed. Next, more battles occurred, to the surprise of the people from the Jialan Clan, there was actually no one who challenged Di Tian. In the blink of an eye, only eleven participants were left. All the participants fell silent, nobody took the initiative to step out now. As long as one more was eliminated, the top ten would appear.

If no one else challenged Di Tian now, his entry into the top ten would be set in stone!

Chapter 1620: Domineering Suppression

Only eleven participants were left on this vast platform. The atmosphere fell silent again.

The situation now was that those remaining were either supreme geniuses or extremely famous peak-stage immortal emperors whose name rocked their respective regions a long time ago. If one were to say who had the lowest amount of fame among the eleven, it would undoubtedly be the mid-stage immortal emperor Di Tian. But even for Di Tian, he was extremely famous in Lifire City.

Other than Di Tian, all of the other ten were experts heavily nurtured by the major powers from Lifelong City. There were no exceptions.

From this, one could tell that Lifelong City was absolutely the central core of the Lifelong Realm. How domineering were they? Over here, the strongest sects and clans were gathered. Naturally, the strongest geniuses were also produced here.

The remaining participants were all extremely proud and confident in themselves. However, they weren't overly arrogant, all of them knew how strong their remaining opponents were. Other than a few characters who had ego high enough to believe that they didn't need to battle because no one would challenge them, the remaining ones didn't have the absolute confidence that they would win if they challenged others. Right now, they were only a step away from reaching the top ten. They only needed to eliminate one. At this moment, they naturally preferred things to be stable, no one wanted to rock the boat.

The 10th and 11th might only be a rank in difference but the meaning behind them were completely different. This grand banquet was set up for the purpose for seeing who would be in the top ten. The Realmlord would also only reward the top ten. As for the ranked #11, that person would be nothing but a failure, destined to be forgotten by everyone else. Even if his talent is noted by the Realmlord, his name would still eventually be lost in history. This grand banquet that occurs once every hundred years wouldn't have his name at all.

After a period of silence, there was actually no one breaking the balance. At this moment, Xuanyuan Dipper spoke out, "Silence is not an option. There would ultimately have to be a fight between two more participants. Or could it be you guys really want me to step out to challenge someone? If that's the case, don't blame me for whoever I choose."

This voice was direct and tyrannical. Clearly, Xuanyuan Dipper was extremely confident, believing that it was impossible for him to be eliminated. In truth, he was also considered one of those standing at the absolute peak of immortal emperors, possessing terrifying prowess. The majority of people here understood that if Xuanyuan Dipper chose them, they had an 80% to 90% chance of being eliminated. Hence, it was best that Xuanyuan Dipper didn't step out to challenge. Nobody knew who he would choose.

"That's right. The weak ones should just leave now." Sword Ion from the Sword Spirit Sect also spoke. His eyes were closed but his words were filled with tyranny, giving off a feeling of extreme confidence.

"Out of the eleven, the one with the lowest cultivation base should step out and issue a challenge. If he wins, he will be in the top ten, if he loses, he will be eliminated." The saint child of the Divine Dragon Sect spoke. Although he didn't specify who he was speaking about, how could people not understand his words?

Out of the eleven here, only one person was at the mid-stage. The one with the lowest cultivation base was naturally referring to Di Tian. He wanted Di Tian to step out and issue a challenge to the remaining ten.

Di Tian's closed eyes opened as he swept a glance at the Skydragon Saint Child. "Why don't you step out yourself to challenge people. Wouldn't that settle things? If you want to challenge me, I don't mind playing with you."

These words were clearly provocating. The Skydragon Saint Child's expression turned ashen. His eyes turned livid, resembling something draconic before he barked, "I wanted to give the initiative to you, but it seems that you don't know what is good for you?"

"Since that is the case, I'll have to thank you then." Di Tian coldly laughed. "Before this, there were already many who thought that those with lower cultivation bases should be eliminated. But what was the end result? Right now, you actually still didn't learn any lesson? In that case, I'll grant you your wish."

As he spoke, Di Tian stepped out from his circle of light and said, "Let my opponent be you then."

The eyes of the Skydragon Saint Child gleamed with a terrifying demonic light. Among the other ten participants excluding Di Tian, the Skydragon Saint Child wasn't the weakest among them. He believed that Di Tian would be able to tell as well. Both Xuanyuan Dipper and Sword Ion had already spoke. He merely added on to their words and insinuated that Di Tian should step out. But he didn't expect Di Tian would be so impulsive, directly choosing to challenge him.

Could it be he doesn't know how dangerous his choice was?

Or maybe, he doesn't care about the top ten at all?

"Grandmaster Di Tian is truly too proud." Jialan Yunhai sighed.

"Mhm." Jialan Yuntian nodded. He suddenly frowned, like he was thinking about something. He naturally knew Di Tian an extremely prideful person. For this point, he could already tell from the commotion created in Lifire City. Even Xia Hou's forceful actions back then didn't get Di Tian to bow. Di Tian's retaliation was so strong that Xia Hou almost couldn't handle it.

Next, his Jialan Clan acted to suppress the Emperor Pavilion, finally making Di Tian compromise, standing on their side. At that time, he still felt exceptionally satisfied, and that in addition to Di Tian's friendship and the relationship between him and Jialan Qiuyue, both caused him to gradually forget how they forced Di Tian to be on their side. But now as his understanding of Di Tian deepened, as well as the strong martial prowess he displayed and genius in weaponsmithing, Jialan Yuntian suddenly felt that something was wrong.

It was too easy. Back then, Di Tian compromised too easily. He shouldn't have acted like this given his personality.

Such a prideful individual with both overwhelming combat prowess and is an extreme talent in weaponsmithing, he could join any supreme powers he wanted to even if he came here to Lifelong City. If he did so, he would be instantly treated like a core disciple, heavily nurtured and given the best environment to grow. Even if he abandon the Emperor Pavilion, there's nothing to it. There was absolutely no need for him to lower his head to the Jialan Clan unless there was an extremely important matter he needed to do in Lifire City and this matter was so critical that he had to do it himself.

When he thought of this, Jialan Yuntian's frown deepened. He glanced at Jialan Qiuyue beside him and spoke, "Qiuyue."

Jialan Qiuyue was currently focused on the battlefield. When she heard Jialan Yuntian calling her, she turned her head over and asked, "Grandpa, what's the matter?'

Staring at the bright light in Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes when she looked at Qin Wentian, Jialan Yuntian could sense that his granddaughter has almost already completely fallen for Di Tian. Let alone for Jialan Qiuyue, even he himself has almost fallen into the trap. When he thought of this, he suddenly felt fear. As the clan leader of the Jialan Clan, he shouldn't have lost his most basic powers of judgement.

"Nothing, let's watch the battle." Jialan Yuntian hesitated before deciding not to say anything.

"Mhm." Jialan Qiuyue nodded lightly. Although she felt somewhat puzzled, she quickly forgot about this. Her gaze started to be filled with worry as she stared at the platform. Over there, towering amounts of demonic qi radiated from the Skydragon Saint Child as numerous fearsome demonic dragons were summoned by him, blotting out the sky.

Di Tian also released his astral souls, causing astral light to cascade downwards. There were many types of greater demons being summoned as well, all of them extremely powerful ones. True dragon, vermillion bird, kirin, great roc, hundun, divine elephant, etc. For a period of time, this entire space was trembling from the powerful auras.

The Skydragon Saint Child narrowed his eyes. Di Tian could actually also summon demons for battle. He snorted coldly as a demonic dragon raked out with its golden claws, slashing towards Di Tian.

The summoned greater demons surrounded Di Tian protectively. The eight supreme greater demon unleashed their demonic might which fused together, manifesting a fearsome demonic domain that could swallow everything. The power of the domain was channelled into a vortex of absolute darkness. The vortex shot up, eating its way through the claw attack before ingesting the demonic dragon away amidst its pitiful roars. A few moments later, the demonic dragon disappeared into nothingness.

Di Tian had a terrifying super-grade demonic bloodline. Blood-colored light covered him now, he was seemingly unexcelled in this world. His entire being now was like a demon god, and his masked features made him even more mysterious and terrifying.

With his bloodline avatar ability of demon god protection activated. Di Tian's silhouette flashed, directly vanishing from sight. A sealing gate flashed by, containing a separate dimension within that sought to seal the Skydragon Saint Child away.

The Skydragon Saint Child howled in rage as the fearsome dragons around him launched their attacks, clashing with the greater demons around Di Tian. A fearsome storm of power generated from the impact, sweeping through their surroundings, devastating everything.

Di Tian's eyes gleamed. unleashing a soul attack that pierced into the Skydragon Saint Child's eyes. He imbued this soul attack with the power of his holy wills and sealing abilities, resulting in it being much more tyrannical than before. His entire person seemed to have changed, growing stronger and stronger. The Skydragon Saint Child roared in anger, feeling an intense sense of peril. He was actually at a disadvantage.

Astral light flashed, the Skydragon Saint Child's body expanded, resembling a dragon. However, the light from Di Tian's eyes grew more and more terrifying. His sealing-attribute astral soul appeared, capable of sealing away all existences. The demonic dragons were slowly being sealed away, and so were the law energies that existed in this space around them. Even the energy in the Skydragon Saint Child's body was slowly being sealed. He resisted in a frenzy but the sealing light gushed forth unceasingly with increasing momentum. Nothing could block it.

Di Tian's gaze was extremely terrifying. The eight supreme greater demons revolved around him, tyrannical to the extreme. He stepped out and punched forth with ruinous might, capable of crushing everything. With a thunderous bang, the Skydragon Saint Child screamed as blood flowed out, as he was flung directly through the air.

After blasting the Skydragon Saint Child away, Di Tian swept his gaze towards the other participants and spoke, "Anyone else still dissatisfied that I could stay on because of my lower cultivation base? Speak up now, I'll immediately issue you a challenge."

The tyrannical words caused everyone to freeze, they were all speechless. Even a powerful individual like the Skydragon Saint Child was domineeringly suppressed. This Di Tian was actually so strong, like a bottomless black hole of potential. Nobody knew how strong he truly was. The other participants naturally didn't want to antagonize him casually.

Seeing that no one spoke out, Di Tian retracted his aura and returned to his circle of light at the boundary of the platform. He silently mused, "I was too impulsive. Although this place is the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it's still better to be more cautious."

All the abilities and powers he released were all identical to Qin Wentian's before Qin Wentian died once. If this place was the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, he would definitely be discovered. But now, the path his true-self took, was already completely different from his. This was especially so for the current astral souls his true-self had. The purity and intensity of powers from astral souls were clearly of a higher-grade now, even if he had similar law attributes to the past, they are all much stronger now in comparison. Maybe if he removed his mask now, no one would even believe that he and Qin Wentian were the same person.

Luckily, no one in the Supreme Ancient Realms knew about him. Hence, it didn't really matter even if he exposed himself once. He just had to take notice and be more cautious in the future!

Chapter 1621: Top Three

As that battle concluded, the top ten were revealed.

Di Tian, domineeringly crushed his way into the top ten with a cultivation base at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm.

The Lifelong Realmlord smiled as he spectated, an expression of interest could be seen on his face. He spoke to those beside him, "From the discussion below us, this man doesn't seem to be a person from one of the major powers of my Lifelong City, right?"

"Realmlord, Di Tian is someone who came together with the Jialan Clan. He originates from Lifire City. Before this, there was a governor of Lifire City who had a conflict with him because of their interactions. Earlier, I've also paid attention to the discussions of the crowd. This Di Tian is actually a grandmaster weaponsmith, even the people from Lifire City had no idea he was so strong in the martial path." Someone at the side spoke lightly.

The Realmlord smiled and nodded. "What rank do you think he can get?"

"Mhm, he doesn't seem to have put in his all yet. Maybe, he might be able to get within the top three."

"Let us watch on then." The Realmlord laughed. He didn't expect that someone so interesting would come from Lifire City. When he glanced at the Lifire Empyrean, the empyrean didn't seemed too happy. Seems like his conflict with the Jialan Clan was still the same as the past.

Jialan Yuntian didn't feel happy because of Di Tian's victory. He was in deep contemplation of the issue he thought about earlier. Why did Di Tian give in so easily to their Jialan Clan? He could even win against the Skydragon Saint Child. Given his talent, what was his true purpose in remaining in Lifire City?

Jialan Qiuyue, who was beside him, was completely ignorant. A smile could be seen in her beautiful eyes. Di Tian won again, he was simply a miracle, slaughtering his way into the top ten, gaining the Realmlord's attention.

For the top ten, regardless of their eventual rankings, the participants would all obtain a reward given by the Realmlord. From this, one could see that they have already succeeded in leaving behind an impression. The Lifelong Saint Hall would also regard them highly, even using them in the future. This, would prove to be of immense benefits to Di Tian's future.

"This Grandmaster Di Tian isn't a simple character." In the direction of the Xuanyuan Clan, Xuanyuan Hao spoke in a low voice. Di Tian also had such terrifying talent in weaponsmithing. He was simply a monster.

Not only were the spectators sighing in admiration, even the remaining participants were shocked by that earlier battle. The tyrannical attitude expressed by Di Tian refreshed their memories once again. He said that he would directly challenge those who are unhappy that he was still here because of his mid-stage cultivation base. How imposing was that? Clearly, no one else could treat him like a mid-stage immortal emperor any more.

Despite the top ten already appearing, the battle still had to continue. The rules remained unchanged, one could freely challenge who they wanted. The first to be eliminated would naturally have the highest rank. Those who could last until the end would then have a chance to enter the top three. Although the rule was slightly unfair, this battle was just a means to spark excitement for the atmosphere of the grand banquet. It would ultimately still depend on the strength of the participants.

The Purple Yang Immortal Emperor walked out, he challenged another supreme immortal emperor who had cultivated for over tens of thousands of years. The Purple Yang Immortal Emperor released his law domain, crushing his opponent's defenses with his strongest attacks, causing the #10 ranker to appear.

After that, the expert from the Setting Sun Institute challenged the young master of the Sunmoon Mountain Manor and succeeded in defeating him. The #9 ranker then appeared.

And even later, the Poison Saint's disciple defeated one more, revealing the #8 ranker.

Battles continued to erupt, no one was able to shift their eyes away due to the intensity of the battles and excitement in the atmosphere. None of those participants who were eliminated were weak. It was just that they were slightly unlucky, encountering opponents who were slightly stronger than them or had a slight advantage over them.

Sword Ion also stepped out. He glanced at Di Tian but he ultimately didn't choose Di Tian to be his opponent. He chose Lord Heartseize as his opponent instead. As the two of them fought, sword qi ran rampant and law energies filled the sky. In the end, Sword Ion depended on his experience and his shocking swordplay to gain victory, leading to the fact that Lord Heartseize became the #7 ranker.

The ones remaining all struck fear in the hearts of the spectators.

These six were respectively Xuanyuan Dipper, Sword Ion, Purple Yang Immortal Emperor, Poison Saint's disciple, Setting Sun Institute's student and Di Tian.

Another bout of silence occurred. None of the following six participants took the initiative to step out. It was like they were waiting for others to initiate the challenge. Right now, even if they didn't participate, their goals were already achieved. Their strengths were also proven. If you were weak, it was impossible for you to remain up until now, others would have already eliminated you.

Why would Di Tian be able to remain until now? Because, he domineeringly crushed everyone who suspected his qualifications to remain, including the Skydragon Saint Child. If you are not capable, you will naturally be eliminated. Luck wasn't enough of a factor to help you if you are too weak. Di Tian could remain until now purely because of his strength.

"Six of us remains, we just have to fight one battle each and the top three would appear." Xuanyuan Dipper intentionally spoke. He wanted them to split into three teams of two, and eliminate three more.

Nobody spoke. Di Tian took the lead and stepped out, his gaze landing on the Poison Saint's disciple. The other party instantly knew of his intentions and walked out to accept the challenge.

The Poison Saint's disciple was robed in white, there wasn't any hint of poison aura from him and he actually looked like an elegant gentleman. No matter how you viewed him, you wouldn't feel that he was a top-tier poison expert. However, the moment you let your guard down, that would be instantly fatal.

As for this battle, Di Tian was extremely confident. The reason why he chose this opponent was very simple. He was impervious to the vast majority of poisons.

A formless air current flowed towards Di Tian, seemingly indiscernible. When facing an expert like the Poison Saint's disciple, one must not blindly assume that poison qi would definitely be black in color. If not, you wouldn't even know how you died.

His poison qi was traceless and formless, it could invade into his target's body without them knowing, or even seep deep inside their soul.

At this moment, Di Tian's expression changed. He felt a sense of numbness, even his blood seemed to stop flowing. The flowing energy within his body felt like he was trying to circulate it through mud. Evidently, the poison had already invaded his system.

"You challenged me yet you dared to be so careless?" The Poison Saint's disciple stared at Qin Wentian. As he spoke, a fearsome miasma radiated from him, the entire atmosphere became sinister and gloomy, becoming a world of poison. The Poison Saint's disciple grinned, he could sense that his poison has already seeped into Di Tian's body.

He saw Di Tian's face turning dark. He laughed and blasted out a palm, manifesting terrifying black-colored palm imprints. He then stepped out, instantly arriving before Di Tian, bringing with him a surge of toxic gas as he unleashed his attacks. In an instant, a myriad of poisons were all released, seeping into Di Tian. The Poison Saint's disciple couldn't help but believe his luck. This powerful and arrogant mid-stage immortal emperor was actually so careless, allowing him to gain victory in a single move?

But at this moment, the Poison Saint's disciple suddenly felt something was wrong. A pure holy white light radiated from Di Tian, burning away all toxins. The poisons that had invaded Di Tian had all evaporated in an instant. His face regained its normal color, after that seeing that the Poison Saint's disciple was so close to him, Di Tian blasted out with two palms. channelling his sealing energy into his opponent's body, sealing away everything.

A moment later, the Poison Saint's disciple's expression grew extremely ugly.

"Since you knew that I took the initiative to challenge you, why would you dare to be so careless?" Di Tian returned his opponent's words back to him. His eyes gleamed sharply as sword qi gushed forth, piercing into the Poison Saint's disciple's body. The disciple coughed out blood and retreated hurriedly while shouting, "I concede!"

With a thunderous boom, as the two words 'I concede' rang out, his body was blasted through the air. Upon slamming on the ground, the Poison Saint's disciple's face was pale. He icily shot a glance at Di Tian before standing up and returning to his original position.

The #5 ranker has appeared.

If things really proceeded according to what Xuanyuan Dipper said, two more people would be eliminated among the other four participants who had yet to fight. This meant that Di Tian has already entered the top three.

This battle seemed to be the most relaxed one for him. But it was precisely because of this battle that he entered the top three.

Di Tian went back to his circle of light and closed his eyes in meditation. The next battle would be the most dangerous one.

Sword Ion's silhouette flashed as he stepped out, choosing to challenge the disciple from the Setting Sun Institute. This scene caused the Purple Yang Immortal Emperor's expression to stiffen. Sword Ion seized the initiative, he had initially also wanted to challenge the Setting Sun Institute's disciple because it was easier compared to fighting against Xuanyuan Dipper. Sword Ion clearly had the same thoughts as him, and was faster than him in his reactions.

The Purple Yang Immortal Emperor was cursing silently. This Sword Ion was truly cunning. While he was still in a daze with regards to the results between Di Tian and the Poison Saint's disciple, Sword Ion instantly stepped out and issued his challenge.

Their battle was exceptionally intense. Sword qi and study scrolls filled the air, illuminating the area with astral light. Numerous sword sages from the primordial era manifested, while the study scrolls seemed to contain the myriad will of the Great Dao, exuding boundless strength. Although quite a few people wanted the Setting Sun Institute's disciple to be their opponent, how could the scholar be weak? The two of them fought frenziedly but ultimately, Sword Ion was the victor.

This battle was the most shocking one from the beginning up until now.

After this battle, the scholar became the #4 ranker.

And following that, Xuanyuan Dipper stepped out, as did the Purple Yang Immortal Emperor. He had to fight even if he didn't want to. This was a matter of honor now.

Another violent clash occurred, the battle was more tyrannical compared to the previous one. However, it was clear both were not evenly matched. Right from the start, Xuanyuan Dipper possessed the advantage and kept suppressing the Purple Yang Immortal Emperor. Eventually, the Purple Yang Immortal Emperor was defeated, Xuanyuan Dipper entered the top three in a dominant fashion.

The remaining three participants were Xuanyuan Dipper of the Xuanyuan Clan, Sword Ion of the Sword Spirit Sect and Di Tian from Lifire City.

The first two didn't cause the spectators to feel any surprise. Xuanyuan Dipper was a supreme genius in Lifelong City and his strength was widely acknowledged. As for Sword Ion, he was already extremely famous long before this and had equal status to the number one governor of Lifelong City's northern city region's, Xiao Yu. But as for Di Tian, he was a mid-stage immortal emperor that no one has heard of before. He actually managed to reach this step. This truly caused everyone to be shocked. What a miracle.

Being able to reach the top three was something that he can already feel extremely proud of. The crowd felt that he wasn't in the top three, but rather, his rank was already fixed at number three. There should be no way for him to defeat any of the other two, right?!

Chapter 1622: Getting Stronger the More Powerful His Opponent Is Xuanyuan Dipper, Sword Ion, Di Tian. The three of them each stood in a different location.

Two more battles are required and the actual ranking for all top ten would be revealed.

"You can leave now." Sword Ion swept a glance at Di Tian. His eyes gleamed with sharpness, flashing with his sword intent.

Di Tian looked at him. The abilities of this Sword Ion were similar to Xiao Yu. Before this, Qin Wentian had already experienced it when he fought with Xiao Yu. Di Tian coldly smiled and spoke. "You are not my opponent. If you are not willing to get off the platform so early, you can challenge him instead. You might have a chance then."

"Eh…" Everyone was stunned when they heard Di Tian's words. This fellow was simply too brazen? Sword Ion told him to concede but he actually said that Sword Ion wasn't a match for him and told him to challenge Xuanyuan Dipper instead. This was simply crazy.

Sword Ion narrowed his eyes, a cold light could be seen flickering within. He stepped out as boundless sword might capable of lacerating everything gushed forth. He stared at Di Tian, "Since you put it this way, I can only show you reality with my actions."

Di Tian also stepped out. Seems like he still needed to fight.

"Are you prepared?" Sword Ion glanced at Di Tian.

"Make your move." Di Tian nodded. Sword Ion's eyes were like sharp swords, directly piercing into Di Tian's gaze. He waved his hands, causing a sword to manifest as it slashed through the air with the speed of lightning, aiming for Di Tian. The power of this strike was tyrannical to the extreme, even space itself seemed to be cut apart. Although Sword Ion's words and manner were arrogant, he was truly capable enough to back it up. He wouldn't show mercy and wanted to finish Di Tian off with a single strike.

Di Tian's eyes gleamed with a terrifying light, he matched his opponent's stare, not willing to be in the weaker position. His sword qi transformed into a holy will that was imbued with the power of his soul energy as he clashed against his opponent. Earlier, he dared to say Sword Ion wasn't his opponent because he understood Sword Ion's abilities. He was able to counter him. At the very least, in terms of soul power, Sword Ion wouldn't gain any advantage over him.

As for the surging tyrannical sword might gushing towards him, Di Tian wasn't worried at all. A terrifying screen of demonic light revolved protectively around him. The attack from Sword Ion slammed into him, breaking his defenses but failing to injure him.

However, after that sword strike, Sword Ion didn't hesitate. His silhouette flashed and appeared above Di Tian. Wielding his sword with both his hands, he slashed down, causing numerous sword sages to manifest as they rushed Di Tian. The sword aura they exuded created a pressure that bore down on the platform.

Di Tian's sealing arts were unleashed. A gigantic illusory giant appeared, its eyes shone with sealing light as it stomped towards the sword sages.

"Myriad Soul Sword Art!" Sword Ion's body turned into a shadow that shot through space. Astral light flashed, his entire person turned illusory, as tens of thousands of sword sages mirrored his actions. These sword sages all unleashed his sword arts, generating boundless amounts of sword might that permeated the area. There was simply no way to hide, Di Tian had to endure this tyrannical attack head-on.

Di Tian's hands folded ancient seals, the constellation behind him grew brighter and brighter as an increasingly powerful sealing might bore down on everything. The sealing light and sealing diagram expanded, providing Di Tian with torrential amounts of sealing energy which he used to manifest a gigantic palm imprint of divinity that slammed out with ruinous force, sealing away all the sword sages.

"Hmph." Sword Ion's gaze turned heavy. A transcendent sword sage from the primordial era appeared before him as he merged together with it. The sword intent radiating from him skyrocketed, sweeping through the battle platform. His entire hair spiked up, resembling sharp swords, radiating an endless flow of sword might.

When Di Tian saw this, the constellation behind him grew even more terrifying. The astral light cascading down from the sky all converged together, forming resplendent swords of the great Dao that hummed with power.

"Go." Di Tian pointed out. In an instant, ten thousand swords launched forth. These swords of sealings manifested from sealing law attribute energy directly shot through space, piercing themselves into the ground around Sword Ion, locking down the space around him.

Sword Ion's eyes gleamed with a resplendent sword light. His hair fluttered in the wind as he roared loudly, summoning a burst of sword intent, wanting to break through the sealing swords.

The sealing swords were destroyed, but they seemed endless in number. A few short moments later, the power they radiated actually fused together as one, becoming the power of the Great Dao. They were like a sealing formation formed of swords, the formation then congregated all the sealing might, giving birth to a world of sealing that slowly sapped away at the energy of the sword sage.

Di Tian didn't slow down. More and more swords of sealing manifested, perfecting the world of sealing. Sword Ion was completely trapped within, he had no way out.

"I said it before. You are not a match for me." Di Tian calmly spoke and blasted out with his palm. The sword of sealing contracted, causing Sword Iron to pale. Although the sword intent radiating from him was still incomparably strong, he knew that he had already lost this battle. He couldn't reverse the situation.

"I CONCEDE!" Sword Iron howled, becoming extremely depressed. In an instant, the sharp aura from him actually dulled. The light in his eyes was gone as a blank look could be seen on his face.

A top-tier supreme expert of the Sword Spirit Sect was actually defeated before he even had a chance to unleash his sword arts. This was so shocking that everyone was dumbfounded.

Could it be that this mid-stage emperor from Lifire City wanted to contend for the position of top ranker?

Di Tian waved his hand, the seals dissipated, releasing Sword Ion. Sword Ion was incomparably dispirited.

Di Tian directly turned and stared at Xuanyuan Dipper, "There's still one more battle."

Xuanyuan Dipper stepped out. He had a look of surprise as he stared at Di Tian. He then laughed, "I also didn't expect that at the very end, the person fighting against me would actually be a mid-stage immortal emperor."

"Things in the world are hard to predict. If everything happens according to expectations, wouldn't that be too boring?" Di Tian calmly replied. The spectators all silently agreed. The end result of this battle was truly out of their expectations, but many of them were silently egging Di Tian on. They all liked nothing more than to witness the rise of a genius. If Di Tian became a major character in the Lifelong Realm in the future, this battle he just fought would then become the start of his legend, the legend that propelled him to fame.

However, some people within the crowd had grim looks on their faces. For example, the people of the Lifire Palace, Xia Hou, the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor, etc. They were not happy that things didn't happen according to their expectations.

Given Di Tian's strength, if he was in Lifire City, no one else would be a match for him other than the Lifire Empyrean.

"Haha, well spoken. Since this is the case, you best be careful about the following battle. I'll make an all-out effort to defeat you." Xuanyuan Dipper stared at Di Tian, releasing his domineering aura. The resplendent astral light cascaded from the sky and in an instant, terrifying gales appeared around Xuanyuan Dipper, capable of ripping through everything. The violent wind energies actually became a supreme protection ability, invulnerable and impenetrable.

The sealing might in the atmosphere was still present from the time he duelled Sword Ion. Right now, he made use of his constellation and slashed out with the swords of sealing.

Xuanyuan Dipper pushed out with his palm. His entire being glowed with a golden light and an instant later, all varieties of divine weapons appeared in the air, clashing against the swords of sealing. The impact of the collision caused the weapons of both sides to shatter, giving rise to a burst of blinding light between the two of them.

A rumbling sound shook the space. Di Tian saw Xuanyuan Dipper unleashing a chain of golden fist imprints that gathered the power of the divine weapons within them. This attack could crush heaven and earth, sweeping through all obstacles with impunity.

"Burning Rebellion!" Di Tian's bloodline powers started to churn as a terrifying demonic qi filled the area. Xuanyuan Dipper's attack was too strong, capable of destroying his swords of sealing. He had to resist it with the entirety of his strength. Upon activating his bloodline, his aura immediately climbed up, causing everyone spectating to be stunned. How many trump cards did this fellow have? He was growing stronger upon meeting stronger opponents.

Di Tian also punched out, but the power of his fist imprints was augmented by supreme demons instead of divine weapons. The two streams of fist imprints then clashed with each other as a deafening bang echoed out, causing spatial cracks to appear. A powerful sealing might from Di TIan's attacks gushed into Xuanyuan Dipper's body but at the same time, a stream of divine power from the divine weapons of Xuanyuan Dipper, had also invaded Di Tian's body.

Di Tian's eyes turned terrifying. The constellation behind him continuously manifested swords of sealing and transformed into its true form, that of a powerful sealing diagram.

Xuanyuan Dipper's aura was tyrannical to the extreme. With a wave of his hand, a fearsome divine weapon law domain appeared. All the divine weapons he manifested transformed into a terrifying whirlpool that sought to absorb Di Tian, wanting to destroy him.

Di Tian continued folding seals, manifesting sealing gates. This time, it was no longer just a single gate of sealing, but a row of them

After that, Di Tian pressed his palms together, fusing all the sealing gates together, forming a gigantic true gate of sealing. The boundless sealing light radiating from it easily sealed away the power of the whirlpool threatening him.

"RUMBLE~" A thunderous sound echoed out. Di Tian sent the gate of sealing flying towards Xuanyuan Dipper. Xuanyuan Dipper roared thunderously and cleaved out with his Sky Decimation Great Axe, yet it was also sealed away by the true gate of sealing. Regardless of the attacks used, there seemed to no way to destroy the gate.

Xuanyuan Dipper had a grim look on his face as he retreated with explosive speed. However, he only saw Di Tian stretching out his hand. With an intention of his will, the giant sealing gate was fixed on the gigantic palm of divinity from before. At the next instant, the palm shot out with explosive speed towards Xuanyuan Dipper, not giving him any opportunity to flee!

Chapter 1623: The Realmlord's Reward

That terrifying palm was like the hand of a god, capable of destroying everything. It emitted power of the Great Dao. That giant sealing gate had the ability to seal away everything and when the countless number of divine weapons blasted towards the palm imprint, they were all swallowed into a different dimension and sealed off. Nothing could block it.

Xuanyuan Dipper could only retreat with lightning speed. However, at this moment, the shadow of a great roc appeared behind Di Tian, spreading its wings, granting him immense speed. Di Tian traversed through space, the palm imprint easily caught up to Xuanyuan Dipper, enveloping him within.

Xuanyuan Dipper roared, a boundless slaughter intent gushed forth as countless divine weapons manifested, slamming frenziedly against the giant palm imprint. That palm imprint was like a bottomless pit, capable of sealing all existences, capable of annihilating gods and buddhas. It mercilessly smashed towards Xuanyuan Dipper.

Xuanyuan Dipper's protective ability was unleashed to the max, it contained an incomparably terrifying destructive laceration might that could tear everything into pieces. When the palm imprint came in contact with it, that seemingly invincible palm actually started to crumble. But not only that, Xuanyuan Dipper's protective ability clearly grew weaker as well.

At this moment, Di Tian actually slammed out another palm imprint. Xuanyuan Dipper felt despair when he saw this. He could only sigh and softly speak, "I've lost."

As the sound of his voice faded, the second palm imprint halted in the air before disappearing. Di Tian's silhouette flashed, returning to his original location as he nodded to Xuanyuan Dipper, "I won by luck."

"A victory is a victory, there's no need to save face for me. In truth, you are only at the mid-stage, from a certain perspective, I've already lost right at the start. This isn't a fair battle at all. I'm really curious about who you are." Xuanyuan Dipper straightforwardly spoke. He had always believed himself extraordinary and felt that his talent was very high. He can be considered among the strongest individuals at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm within the Xuanyuan Clan. Even in the entire Lifelong City, not many immortal emperors could defeat him. Only a few supreme ones could stand equal to him.

He truly didn't expect that he would be defeated by a mid-stage immortal emperor.

"Di Tian, Lifire City."

Di Tian calmly answered, not saying anything more. Overly being humble would be considered an extreme form of arrogance. Since he was the victor, there was no need for him to say too much.

As Xuanyuan Dipper had lost, this mini-competition finally concluded. The earlier quiet crowd all burst into excited discussions. The protective light barrier disintegrated as the formation was no longer needed. They were all staring up at the masked figure on the platform, feeling admiration and disbelief in their hearts. A mid-stage immortal emperor actually became the top ranker. This was truly a miracle.

Even Xuanyuan Dipper and Sword Ion lost to him respectively. Regardless of his identity, as long as he could become the top ranker, it meant that there was no luck involved. Everything depended on his absolute strength.

This meant that this Di Tian of Lifire City, he who was a mid-stage immortal emperor, was already standing at the peak of the immortal emperor realm. It was very difficult for anyone to contend against him.

"Grandpa, he got the top ranker's position!" Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes flickered with a smile, as though she was the one who has gotten the first position. Jialan Yuntian sighed in his heart, he couldn't help but to silently admire at how fearsome Di Tian was. A mid-stage immortal emperor who had already stood at the peak-stage due to his weaponsmithing abilities. But now, it was discovered that even in his martial path, Di Tian also stood at the peak of the immortal emperor realm. Even if it was he himself, he wouldn't be a match for Di Tian.

However, if this was before, he would definitely feel very excited. But now, he only felt a large rock in his heart. Without first being clear of Di Tian's actual motives, he would never feel at ease.

"Not bad, who would have thought that Grandmaster Di Tian would have such a high level of talent. Our Jialan Clan doesn't even have anyone in the top ten. How regretful." Jialan Yunhai spoke.

"Make sure that we maintain our good relationship with Di Tian." Jialan Jiangshan instructed. Jialan Yuntian nodded with a heavy look on his face.

Over at the Lifire Palace's location, the Lifire Empyrean had an unsightly expression on his face. This grandmaster, who had chosen to side with the Jialan Clan, actually displayed such startling talent today. Why didn't Di Tian chose to stand with him?

When he thought of this, he shot a cold glance at Xia Hou, causing Xia Hou to shiver as his face turned pale. The Lifire Empyrean was blaming him? Using him to vent his anger?

Xia Hou felt a chill in his heart as he stared at Di Tian on the platform. This bastard was actually so strong.

Beauty Xiao at the side had a smile on her face. The look in her eyes was extremely soul-stirring, shining with light. She didn't expect Di Tian to be so powerful. Most probably, Di Tian's strength wasn't any weaker when compared to Qin Wentian.

The Realmlord stroked his beard and smiled. He stared at Di Tian and spoke, "A supreme genius has appeared in my Lifelong Realm. To think that the most outstanding character in the battles today, is actually a mid-stage emperor. This has truly broadened my horizons. Di Tian of Lifire City, right?"

"That's junior alright." Di Tian nodded.

"I said it before. The top ten would all receive rewards today. As for you, I've naturally already prepared it. But after seeing your performance, I decided to ask you instead if you have any request? What kind of reward do you want?" The Realmlord smiled at Di Tian.

"Junior has a presumptuous request, I don't know if should I speak up or not." Di Tian replied.

"Feel free to speak with no worries." The Realmlord nodded.

"Although junior obtained the top ranking today due to my talent in the martial path, but in truth, I've always been more interested in weaponsmithing. In addition, I've established a power named Emperor Pavilion in Lifire City. The main objective is to forge weapons before auctioning or transacting them away. However, in the midst of my development, I encountered many obstructions. In fact, the governor's manor even made things difficult for me multiple times with no reason. This truly cause junior to feel pain in my heart."

Di Tian slowly spoke, and as the sound of his voice faded, Xia Hou felt his body trembling as his countenance paled. This bastard, was he trying to make a complaint to the Realmlord?

"Oh? Something like that actually happened? A governor of Lifire City did this? How did he make things difficult for you?" The Realmlord asked.

"In the past, a certain governor of Lifire City told me that I have to forge weapons solely for him and kept making things difficult for me when I refused. At that time, mysterious sources of powers created trouble daily at my Emperor Pavilion, the governor's manor didn't give a damn about it, almost causing my Emperor Pavilion to be closed down. Now that I look back in hindsight, I couldn't help but to feel fear. In any case, this junior isn't here to make a complaint, I only hope that I can focus my efforts on properly developing the Emperor Pavilions and won't encounter any more unreasonable difficulties." Di Tian politely spoke.

When he heard this, Xia Hou wanted nothing more than to tear Qin Wentian apart. This, wasn't this clearly a complaint?

The Lifire Empyrean narrowed his eyes. Although Di Tian's words didn't implicate him directly, but as long as the Realmlord thought deeper, it was easy for him to connect the dots. Was Di Tian doing this intentionally or not?

"You already have such talent in the martial path, yet you still say that you are more interested in weaponsmithing? Your words might have mocked many unknowingly." The Realmlord laughed. Everyone nodded silently in response. This fellow knew how to posture too much, yet he did so with such a straight-face. However, those from Lifire City knew that Di Tian's weaponsmithing capabilities were truly extremely strong as well.

"This time around, I should have rewarded you heavily. But since you brought this matter up, I'll help you settle everything. From this moment onwards, within my Lifelong Realm, the development of your Emperor Pavilion shall be smooth and unimpeded. If there's someone who dares to make trouble, you can directly look for the Lifire Empyrean. In addition, to compensate for the suffering you endured, your Emperor Pavilion has no need to pay any tax forever." The Lifelong Realmlord calmly spoke. His words causing the hearts of many major powers here to tremble. As expected of the Realmlord, what a heavy reward this was.

A single sentence from him guaranteed that the Emperor Pavilion would face no obstacles no matter how it expanded. Also, it was exempted from paying contributions. For the Emperor Pavilion now, the ten-yearly and hundred-yearly contributions might not be considered much. But what about thousand-yearly and ten thousand-yearly? What if the Emperor Pavilion became a supreme first-tier power? The amount of contributions then would be at an astronomical amount. This sentence far exceeded the reward Di Tian ought to have gotten in the first place. But naturally, it was still considered nothing much to the Realmlord. As long as the Realmlord was happy, this bit of contributions was considered nothing but a single hair from the bodies of nine oxen.

This Di Tian, was truly intelligent.

Jialan Yuntian's expression turned stiff when he heard that. With the Realmlord as his backer, even if Di Tian fell out with them, the Jialan Clan wouldn't dare to do anything to make things difficult for him. This can be considered a death-avoiding token.

"Also, I'll give you the title, supervisory commander of Lifire City. In the future, if a thing like you mentioned happens again, if the governor manors have the audacity to make things difficult intentionally for people below them and neglect their proper duties, you can directly report this to the Lifire Palace Lord. If the Lifire Empyrean won't handle it, you can report it up to the Lifelong Saint Hall."

The Realmlord spoke again, his words causing everyone to be stunned. Right now, Xia Hou's face was extremely ugly. With this sentence from the Realmlord, all the governors in Lifire City had to tread carefully around Di Tian and not offend him. If not, if he found out about the slightest misdeeds, he might jump over the Lifire Empyrean and report directly to the Lifelong Saint Hall. This authority was truly transcendent.

"Seems like the Realmlord is treating Di Tian so well because he wants to use him in the future. The Realmlord is paving a path of development for Di Tian by granting him the position of the Supervisory Commander now." Everyone was very clear that this meant Di Tian would become a major character in the Lifelong Realm in the future.

"After today, Di Tian's future is boundless."

Many people felt high hopes about Di Tian's future. His performance today has already gained the Realmlord's attention. In the future, as long as his cultivation base made a breakthrough, he would surely soar up into the skies, becoming a major character in the Lifelong Realm.

Jialan Yuntian felt another rush of impact. He himself didn't know what the situation would be like after Di Tian returned to Lifire City. Right now, most probably that even for the Lifire Empyrean, he would have to be extremely courteous to Di Tian.

"Many thanks, Realmlord." Di Tian bowed.

"In that case, do you accept this?" The Realmlord smiled.

"Di Tian naturally wouldn't let down the high hopes your lordship has for me." Di Tian smiled. If he rejected such a good deal, he would have to be a retard. The words spoken by the Lifelong Realmlord earlier was sufficient for him to do whatever he wanted to in Lifire City. No one would dare to offend him.

Chapter 1624: Battle between the World Palaces

The truth had also verified everyone's guess. Among the top ten, other than Di Tian, although the other nine received rewards as well, none of them received the preferential treatment Di Tian received. Even Xuanyuan Dipper had never received such treatment before.

What sort of character was the Realmlord? He is the overlord of this boundlessly vast realm, someone who stands at the absolute peak. He himself was already a supreme character, what geniuses has he not seen before? So what if you are a supreme-tier immortal emperor? It's already a matter of great honor that you could obtain his rewards. There definitely wouldn't be many people who can receive his admiration.

This Di Tian suppressed all the participants with his cultivation base at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm and obtained first in the rankings. He was also a grandmaster weaponsmith. No wonder the Realmlord treated him so differently. If he didn't use such a talent, who else could he use?

After that battle, Di Tian's name will definitely resound through the entire Lifelong City. In fact, it was possible that his fame might even spread to all the territories controlled by the nine world palace lords, especially for the Lifire Palace, they would definitely get this news and the commotion that would be caused would surely not be a little one.

After receiving their rewards, all of the participants returned to their seats. Di Tian returned to the Jialan Clan's location. Jialan Qiuyue was smiling widely at him, "Grandmaster Di, you truly hid extremely deeply."

She purposely emphasized on the word 'Grandmaster.' Her eyes shone with a bright smile, beautiful and lascivious, extremely soul-stirring.

"I've never hidden at all." Di Tian laughed and sat down. Jialan Yuntian wasn't as excited as the others. His heart sank but he still maintained a smile on his face as he spoke, "Grandmaster Di, after this battle, the Emperor Pavilion will soar into the sky. In the future, if you need our Jialan Clan's help, just feel free to speak."

Before this, the Jialan Clan wanted to control Di Tian. But now, they naturally wouldn't dare to have such thoughts. From now on, no one could control Di Tian. The Lifelong Realmlord had already spoken so clearly, not even the Lifire Empyrean would dare to do anything to Di Tian.

"Mhm, since this is the case, I would have to trouble the Jialan Clan in the future." Di Tian naturally understood the intentions in Jialan Yuntian's words, he also sensed the slight change in Jialan Yuntian's attitude when he was facing him. But even so, he pretended that nothing has happened, like he didn't know anything.

"No worries, our Jialan Clan and Grandmaster Di are already so close. In addition, there's also a layer of connection from this little lass Qiuyue." Jialan Yuntian laughed, his words causing Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes to flash. She stared at Jialan Yuntian, "Grandpa, what nonsense are you talking about."

"Oh? Earlier, who was the one who stood up in excitement, ignoring her face as the young miss of our Jialan Clan?" Jialan Yuntian laughed, causing Jialan Qiuyue to blush. She, who was already originally beautiful, had a certain charm to her now when she blushed. She even shot a gaze filled with mock resentment at Jialan Yuntian.

Di Tian smiled. This Jialan Yuntian wanted to stick with him, using Jialan Qiuyue as an obvious opening gambit. His intent couldn't be any clearer.

"Seeing the glory of the immortal emperors of my Lifelong Realm, this seat feels truly gratified in my heart. Let me toast all the heroes here." The Realmlord lifted his cup and laughed. A moment later, everyone raised their cups back and had smiles on their faces as they drank the wine.

"Although the battles earlier might have been fascinating, the true transcendent-level immortal emperors of our Lifelong Realm have yet to act. Does everyone feel that this is right?" An elder laughed. He was the leader of a major power, an existence on equal grounds compared to the palace lords. He was at the empyrean realm.

"That's right, things would be much more fascinating if those experts had participated." Someone else supported.

"If those emperors had joined, I'm afraid only a relative few in the top ten would still be able to remain."

Everyone laughed, they naturally understood the elder's words. In the battles earlier, many immortal emperors had chosen not to participate and many were transcendent-level emperors. For example, those immortal emperors that reported directly to the Lifelong Realmlord, didn't participate earlier at all.

"Haha, seems like you guys want nothing more than to see their strength." The Realmlord laughed.

Those people nodded their heads. Someone among them spoke. "Realmlord, things should be even more fascinating if those people fought. It has been so for every one of the past grand banquets."

"Realmlord, please allow us to broaden our horizons."

"Sure." The Realmlord laughed and nodded. "My Lifelong Realm consists of several boundless territories. Other than Lifelong City, the other territories are managed on my behalf by the world palace lords, which led to the Lifelong Realm being increasingly prosperous. I would only gather everyone here once every hundred years. We might as well take the chance to see the strength of elites of our realm. The palace lords should have no objections, right?"

The world palace lords all spoke out at the same time, "We will comply with Realmlord's orders."

"Mhm, although you guys understand the strength of your subordinates well, you all can take this chance to see the disparity in strength level between the world palaces. It can also be an impetus to cause your subordinates to increase their strength, to better manage the territories under you all." The Realmlord then continued, "Come, all the governors and monarchs of the Nine World Palaces can participate. Let me see the glory of this generation's heroes."

"Yes, Realmlord!" Many people roared in excitement. To those strong experts, they knew their chance to perform has come. If they could leave a good impression on the Lifelong Relamlord, their future would definitely be extraordinary. As for those weaker ones, they felt some trepidation. After all, experts were as common as clouds under the world palace lords, if they failed, they would lose face and might even be replaced.

"I'm sure everyone already knows the rules. The world palace lords will send their subordinates out. Begin." The Lifelong Realmlord calmly spoke. After that, the world palace lords glanced at each other, their eyes all gleaming with sharpness. This time, it was a competition between the different world palaces. None of them would naturally want to lose face before their peers in front of the Realmlord.

Di Tian sat there quietly. He glanced in the direction of the nine world palaces and saw some experts standing up. After that, nine figures could be seen flying through the air, arriving at the central towering platform where he fought earlier.

These nine world palaces would send different experts to fight each other multiple times to see who would be victorious and their rankings would be determined at the end.

The one from Lifire City was actually the Jialan Monarch.

"He is planning to give up the first battle, right?" Di Tian's eyes flashed. Although the Jialan Monarch was a supreme immortal emperor and could fight peak-stage immortal emperors while at the mid-stage as well, it has to be known that the other immortal emperors from the world palaces were not ordinary ones. Their cultivation bases were all already higher, at the peak-stage, and their combat prowess was extraordinary as well. With regards to the Jialan Monarch, he was already at a disadvantage considering his cultivation base.

"Desolate Heaven Palace, Mo Kaishan, governor of Desolate Heaven City."

"Xuanyuan Palace, Monarch Xuanyuan Yu."

"..."

The participants reported their names and origins. These nine experts each stood in a different location and started to take turns fighting.

For the first battle, Governor Mo Kaishan of Desolate Heaven City challenged the Jialan Monarch right away, as though wanting to bully the Jialan Monarch for having a lower cultivation base. Although the Jialan Monarch was strong, he couldn't endure Mo Kaishan's domineering attacks and was directly defeated.

For the second battle, Xuanyuan Yu also challenged the Jialan Monarch. This caused everyone to be stunned. Seems like this was truly a case of bullying the one with the weakest cultivation base. The end result naturally was that Xuanyuan Yu was victorious.

For the next battles, the crowd speechlessly discovered that everyone chose to challenge the Jialan Monarch. This caused the people of the Jialan Clan to feel a loss of face. The Lifire Empyrean also had a dark look on his face. The immortal emperors of the other world palaces didn't want to give any face to his Lifire Palace at all.

For this battle, he sent the Jialan Monarch because he wanted the Jialan Clan to lose face. It can be considered that he was throwing away the first round of battles. But even so, he didn't expect things would be so face smacking. Now, it wasn't simply the Jialan Clan losing face. Even he had lost face as well.

The battles here all stopped once the victor is determined. They didn't injure the Jialan Monarch. The rules also allowed them to challenge the same people. Hence, the ending was that the Jialan Monarch lost all eight battles and was eliminated. The Lifire Palace was now at the bottom of the rankings, having lost all face but the Jialan Monarch still had to stand at the boundary of the platform to watch the battles of others.

The Realmlord cast a glance at the Jialan Clan's direction but he instantly shifted it away.

The battles continued. Such chaotic fights naturally would be fascinating. This was especially so when supreme experts of the Desolate Heaven Palace, Xuanyuan Palace and Skyair Palace fought. Their battles were heaven-shaking and their strength seemed to exceed the top three of the previous competition.

Ultimately, Mo Kaishan of the Desolate Heaven Palace won eight victories and was ranked first.

The supreme immortal emperor of the Skyair Palace won seven victories and obtained the second ranking.

The supreme immortal emperor of the Xuanyuan Palace won six victories and obtained the third ranking.

The Lifire Palace was ranked last. Right from the start of the first battle, Di Tian could already see clues stating the strength level of the experts from the nine world palaces. Other than the strength of their respective empyreans, the strength of their subordinates can be an indicative factor too.

The first round of battles was concluded, the nine emperors returned to their original locations as another nine experts flew over and started the second round. Similarly, the rules were the same, the ranking would be determined based on the number of victories one obtained.

The second round of battles were similarly violent and fascinating. Di Tian didn't recognize the experts from the other world palaces, but the Lifire Palace actually sent out the Central Governor Xia Hou. Xia Hou was tyrannical and proud but his combat prowess was undoubtedly strong. He could be classified as a supreme immortal emperor. At the end, he managed to win four victories and was ranked #5. With this ranking, although it was nothing glorious, he didn't cause the Lifire Palace to lose any face.

For the second round, the Skyair Palace obtained first ranking with a total of eight victories. The battles that occurred were naturally explosive and extremely intense.

As the battles continued, everyone fell into its rhythm and spectated earnestly while they discussed.

"This time, the Lifire Palace is in for it. It's most probably impossible for them to get first." Jialan Qiuyue spoke in a low voice. It was very difficult to get first, a world palace had to have an existence capable of suppressing the transcendent-level immortal emperors. Sadly, the Lifire Palace didn't have such a character.

"This is also very normal. The Desolate Heaven Palace, Skyair Palace and Xuanyuan Palace are all extremely powerful. The immortal emperors from there would naturally be stronger as well. The Lifire Palace would find it as tough as ascending to the heavens if they wanted to obtain first. They don't have a governor or monarch strong enough to suppress all the other supreme and transcendent-level emperors." Jialan Yuntian spoke.

"Do you feel that that governor who didn't come, would he be able to achieve it?" Jialan Qiuyue suddenly thought of that handsome and arrogant northern governor Qin Wentian as she asked.

Chapter 1625: The Miserable Lifire Palace

Jialan Yuntian naturally knew who that person Jialan Qiuyue was referring to. In truth, the reason why they shifted Ye Qianyu from the Lifire Jail, was also because of that person. Although the Lifire Palace had tried to hide news about Ye Qianyu, it was evident such things wouldn't be easily hidden. After these people returned to Lifire City, news about Ye Qianyu should reach that person's ears.

As for that governor that was stopped by the Lifire Empyrean from coming, Jialan Yuntian naturally knew how strong he was. That man killed several peak-stage immortal emperors at the Ancient River Auction House with just a cultivation base at the mid-stage, creating a huge commotion throughout Lifire City, incomparably glorious. Given his talent, he should be able to hold himself against the other experts in this battlefield.

Jialan Yuntian couldn't help but to compare Di Tian and that governor. Di Tian, a peak-level weaponsmith grandmaster with a peak-level combat prowess, obtaining the position of the top ranker for the martial-path competition. It felt like Di Tian was a hair more outstanding compared to that person.

"Even if it's that person, he might not be able to accomplish it. For that battle that occurred in the Ancient River Auction House in the past, although he killed many peak-stage immortal emperors, they were still ordinary immortal emperors after all. As for these experts before our eyes, they are the leading transcendent-level immortal emperors from the nine world palaces. All of them have absolute strength. As the central governor, is Xia Hou powerful? But with all his strength, he only managed to obtain the #5 ranking here. From this, one can tell how terrifying this battlefield is."

Jialan Yuntian spoke in a low voice. The battle between the nine world palaces was much more intense compared to the competition earlier. All of the emperors participating now were definitely true elites.

"Big brother, who are you all talking about?" Jialan Yunhai, who was at the side, laughed.

"There's one more governor in Lifire City. The Lifire Empyrean captured Ye Qianyu because he wanted to control that governor to deal with our Jialan Clan. This time around, we shifted Ye Qianyu over here because we wanted that governor to have conflict with the Lifire Empyrean." Jialan Yuntian transmitted his voice over in response.

"For a mere governor? Is he that powerful?" Jialan Yunhai curiously asked. Lifire City already has a Grandmaster Di Tian. There's also a similarly powerful governor?

"He's very powerful. With a mid-stage immortal emperor cultivation base, he killed tens of peak-stage immortal emperors in a battle. As for how strong he is exactly, I have no idea. He has never unleashed his true strength before."

"Interesting." Jialan Yunhai laughed. "With your judgement, which world palace do you think will get the highest rank?"

"If there are no unexpected situations, things should be the same as the past. The Desolate Heaven Palace will probably place the first. After all, they are the strongest world palace and has obtained the first ranking for the past three hundred years." Jialan Yuntian spoke in a low voice.

"That's right. The Desolate Heaven Palace is too strong. Leaving aside that the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord is the strongest out of the empyreans, he also has very strict requirements with regards to his subordinates. The governors and monarchs under him would first have to have peak-level combat prowess, they have to be personally tested by him. If stronger individuals appeared, they would all be replaced. Under such a competitive environment, his subordinates would naturally be stronger than the others."

"However, that disciple of the Realmlord seemed to be very unhappy with him. This time around, that person must have come here prepared, intending on showing the Desolate Heaven Palace who's the strongest one." Jialan Yunhai laughed.

"The Skyair Palace's performance this time around is truly dazzling. The Xuanyuan Palace isn't weak as well."

"The Gemini Palace and Dragonsaddle Palace also aren't here to play around. Look at the experts they sent out, all of them are very powerful. Seems like the Lifire Palace, Kanwater Palace and Gengmetal Palace are the weakest." Jialan Yuntian laughed. These three world palaces have the shakiest foundations, the positions of their palace lords aren't that stable as well.

Their Jialan Clan has always been eyeing the position of the Lifire Palace Lord. However, for the Desolate Heaven Palace, Skyair Palace and the other world palaces, they didn't dare to covet them at all. Even for the Dragonsaddle, Gemini and Scarlet Origin Palace, the Jialan Clan didn't dare to target them.

...

The battles continued, one round after the other, all extremely intense.

For this competition between the nine world palaces, each palace could select fourteen experts to participate and all of them were either governors or monarchs under the empyreans. Hence, there would be fourteen rounds of battle.

When the eighth round ended, the Desolate Heaven Palace already had three #1 ranks, two #2 ranks, two #4 rank, one #5 rank. Such a terrifying achievement undoubtedly proved their strength as the number one palace. The second place currently was the Skyair Palace, followed by the Xuanyuan, Gemini and Dragonsaddle Palaces.

The Lifire Empyrean's expression kept sinking, turning extremely unsightly. Although he already knew it wasn't optimistic to get a high ranking for this competition, he still didn't expect that his Lifire Palace would perform so badly. The performance this time was even worse compared to the past. In this situation where the Realmlord was watching, how could he still bring himself to smile? He could only have a heavy look on his face.

In addition, Di Tian had already snatched the limelight before this, obtaining the first ranking in the martial-path competition with a mid-stage emperor cultivation base. It would be strange if the Lifire Palace felt happy.

The battles continued on and halfway during the ninth round, the Lifire Empyrean spoke out.

"Zhuge Xiong, you will participate in the next round and see if you can obtain the first ranking." The Lifire Empyrean spoke in a low voice to the grand governor of his Lifire City. As the grand governor, he was the direct head of the other five city governors. Zhuge Xiong's strength was naturally extremely powerful.

"Your subordinate will do my best." Zhuge Xiong replied.

The Lifire Empyrean nodded his head. He glanced in the Realmlord's direction, there was no change to the Realmlord's expression and he still had a smile on his face when he watched the competition between his subordinates. This competition between the nine world palaces could be considered as the Realmlord reviewing the strength of his troops. The Realmlord would naturally pay more attention to this, compared to the marital-path competition earlier. After all, the nine world palaces and their subordinates were naturally the people whom the Realmlord depended on the most.

After the ninth round, the first ranking went to the Gemini Palace. That governor of the Gemini Palace was truly extremely powerful. Right now, the Gemini Palace already has two #1 rankings under their belt. They were on par with the Skyair Palace, causing many people to be surprised.

As the nine experts went down, another nine experts went up the platform. For the Lifire Palace, Zhuge Xiong was the one representing it.

The Lifire Empyrean arranged Zhuge Xiong to appear in the tenth round because he wanted to catch the other palaces off guard. The other world palaces tried their best to get a good ranking at the start and the experts they sent out in the later rounds, should naturally be weaker ones. This was why he sent out his grand governor at this time.

However, as the battles unfolded, the Lifire Empyrean's expression soon drastically changed. Clearly, for the other four world palaces that didn't manage to obtain a single #1 ranking, all of them had the same thoughts as him, sending out their most powerful individual for this round. Eventually, Zhuge Xiong was defeated by a supreme immortal emperor from the Scarlet Origin Palace. That immortal emperor was extremely powerful, the strongest emperor in the Scarlet Origin Palace.

And as expected, the #1 ranking for the tenth round was seized by the Scarlet Origin Palace.

Right now, only the Lifire, Kanwater and Gengmetal Palace has not managed to obtain any #1 ranking. The expression of the three palace lords were all extremely unsightly. Only four rounds of battles were left. If they couldn't even get a single #1 ranking out of the fourteen rounds of battles, that would truly be extremely embarrassing. Things would be better if they could at least get one #1 ranking.

Zhuge Xiong got down the platform, he came to the Lifire Empyrean's side and bowed, "Your subordinate has disappointed the high hopes palace lord had for me."

The Lifire Empyrean waved his hands, "This can't be blamed on you. Return to your seat."

Zhuge Xiong nodded, he felt a little depressed. He was actually defeated. He went up for this round hoping to get the #1 ranking.

"Palace lord." The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor and the other handmaiden of the Lifire Empyrean both looked at him with furrowed brows. With the failure of this round, it should now be extremely tough for the Lifire Palace to obtain first in the overall rankings.

"Yin Qiu, go on up." The Lifire Empyrean waved his hand. For the eleventh round of battle, Yin Qiu only managed to get the #6 ranking, it was a very bad ranking. As for the #1 ranking, it was obtained by the Kanwater Palace. The Lifire Empyrean glanced at the Kanwater Empyrean. The gloominess on the face of the Kanwater Empyrean had completely dissipated, replaced by a radiant smile. He was happily praising his subordinate who obtained the #1 ranking. He had at the very least, managed to obtain one #1 ranking, and things wouldn't be so embarrassing for him now.

The expressions of the Lifire Empyrean and Gengmetal Empyrean grew uglier and uglier. The two of them were left, they were the only two who have yet to obtain a #1 ranking and was now extremely conspicuous.

For the twelfth and thirteenth round, the Lifire Empyrean sent out two powerful monarchs for battle but both of them failed. What made the look on the Lifire Empyrean's face grow uglier was the fact that during the thirteenth round, the Gengmetal Palace obtained the #1 ranking. Right now, out of the nine world palaces, only the Lifire Palace has yet to obtain a #1 ranking.

As for the last round, for the sake of face and making it a memorable one for the next hundred years, all the strongest world palaces would definitely seek to do their best. Hence, they would all send out their strongest subordinate for the last round. The Lifire Empyrean understood that his Lifire Palace stood no chance for the last round of battle.

Many people had either sympathetic or mocking looks when they glanced at him. Especially so for those other palace lords, the disdain in their eyes was clear for all to see.

"Ye Kong. You have to win the final round." The Skyair Empyrean spoke. He then continued speaking to Ye Kong as he cast a glance at the Lifire Empyrean. "You only have a few opponents. After all, some of the other participants for the final round are only there to make up for the numbers."

As the sound of his voice faded, the look on the Lifire Empyrean's face grew even more unsightly. But he had no way to refute anything.

"Ye Kong is going to participate? A hundred years ago, he was already a very dazzling character. It's true that the Lifire Palace's experts are only here to make up for the numbers." Some peak powers spoke in a low voice.

"I remember that in the last grand banquet a hundred years ago, the Lifire Palace didn't manage to obtain any #1 ranking. Who would have thought that things would be the same this time as well?" Jialan Jiangshan mockingly laughed, causing the Lifire Empyrean's gaze to turn sinister.

The participants from the world palaces started to fly up to the platform. These were mostly transcendent figures, not only did the Skyair Palace send out their strongest character Ye Kong, the Desolate Heaven, Xuanyuan and the other world palaces all sent out their strongest emperor as well. The Lifire Empyrean glanced at them and sighed helplessly in his heart. Beauty Xiao had not participated yet, he glanced at her and spoke in a low voice, "Beauty Xiao, it's up to you now."

"Yes, Palace Lord." Beauty Xiao bowed and flashed a charming smile. She didn't seem to mind being used to make up for the numbers at all. Being able to contend against the other experts from the world palaces can be considered a good experience. She wouldn't lose out in any case.

Some people glanced at Beauty Xiao and laughed. "Lifire Palace Lord, are you planning to use the beauty trap to win the #1 ranking for the final round?"

"Hahaha!" Many started laughing. their gazes sweeping towards the sexy figure projected by Beauty Xiao. Beauty Xiao's expression changed slightly, she frowned but didn't say anything, and continued to fly towards the platform.

"Beauty Xiao, wait a moment." At this moment, a voice rang out, causing Beauty Xiao to slow as she halted her steps. Her beautiful eyes turned over, glancing at the person who spoke. After that, her beautiful eyes flashed with a mesmerizing light.

That fellow actually came!

Chapter 1626: Seeking Permission to Fight

In the crowd, a figure stepped out. He was dressed in white and his black hair was as dark as ink.

His eyes were boundlessly deep, shining with starlight. He was extraordinarily handsome and radiated a magnificence that would last through the generations. Just standing there was sufficient for him to give off a transcendent aura. With a glance, one could easily tell that this was not an ordinary character. His bearing was too outstanding.

Beauty Xiao had a smile in her eyes as she stared at the figure who just appeared. The smile on her face grew increasingly radiant.

This fellow really chose the right time to appear. He actually came here. One must know that the Lifire Palace Lord didn't bring him along, intentionally telling him to stay at Lifire City. But he still chose to come and appeared now at such a critical moment.

The Lifire Empyrean's eyes flashed when he looked at the person who appeared. Unhappiness could be seen on his face as his expression turned somewhat cold. This man actually defied his orders and came to Lifelong City of his own volition.

The gazes of people from the Jialan Clan also froze as they looked at the man who just appeared. Jialan Qiuyue's eyes gleamed with sharpness. That arrogant fellow actually truly came here.

"Who is he?" Jialan Yunhai asked.

"Qin Wentian, a governor of Lifire City. He's the figure we were speaking about earlier." Jialan Yuntian replied. This man was precisely none other than Qin Wentian.

At the towering stairway in the direction of the Lifelong Realmlord, many figures had sharp looks in their eyes. In fact, quite a few governors from Lifelong City were trembling, their auras exploded outwards like they wanted to rush out now. Among them, the number one governor of the northern city regions Xiao Yu, was the one affected the most. His eyes were terrifying, shooting out electric sparks, as a fierce sword intent radiated from him.

"It's him." How could Xiao Yu not recognize this man? This was the mysterious challenger who had defeated him domineeringly, causing him to lose all face. To think that he actually came here today.

Among the crowd, there were also people who had personally witnessed the mysterious challenger's fight in the northern city regions. Many people were mumbling to each other as they discussed, causing the competition between the nine world palaces to come to a temporary halt. The appearance of this man seemed to have affected several people.

"Who are you? How dare you disrupt the competition between the nine world palaces." A cold voice rang out from Ye Kong of the Skyair Palace, he was already on the towering platform.

"Is the Lifire Palace still intending to fight? If you are not, just retreat. The Lifire Palace is only good for filling up the numbers, it's of no importance whether you all fight or not." An expert from the Dragonsaddle Palace mocked, his words causing the Lifire Empyrean's expression to turn extremely ugly. He stared at Qin Wentian and asked, "I commanded you to stay behind at Lifire City to guard your territory well and to suppress all troubles. Who gave you the guts to come to Lifelong City? How dare you defy my orders!"

Qin Wentian saw the coldness in the Lifire Empyrean's eyes. He naturally understood that the Lifire Empyrean captured Ye Qianyu because he wanted to control him. But now, Ye Qianyu was already shifted to Lifelong City, if the Lifire Empyrean had no way to control the fate of Ye Qianyu, he would surely be worried that Qin Wentian might try something. Let alone the fact that this event now, was the grand banquet of Lifelong City. The Realmlord was watching everything and if Qin Wentian became another Di Tian, dazzlingly displaying his prowess and attracted the Realmlord's attention, there would be nothing the Lifire Empyrean could do to him.

The Lifire Empyrean naturally didn't want to see Qin Wentian slipping out of his control.

"Reporting to Realmlord, I've already settled everything back in Lifire City. I heard that the Realmlord had personally set up a grand banquet to welcome the heroes of Lifelong City and Nine World Palaces, I felt curious and envy in my heart and decided to come and take a look. Please pardon me." Qin Wentian bowed, appearing extremely humble. He then continued, "I didn't expect that after I arrived here, I saw the experts from the other world palaces bullying our Lifire Palace. I, Qin Wentian, humbly request for palace lord to send me in the place of Beauty Xiao. For this round of battle, your subordinate is willing to fight for our Lifire Palace's honor."

Qin Wentian spoke, his words instantly enlightened others on his identity. So, he was a governor of Lifire City and wished to participate in the battle.

However, this governor was just a mid-stage emperor. What could he do? The experts on the towering platform all had mocking expressions. This mid-stage governor simply didn't know what was good for him. As expected, the Lifire Palace was truly only good for filling up the numbers.

"Nonsense. You are just at the mid-stage, stop making a fool out of yourself and come here and sit down. This battle will be handled by Beauty Xiao." The Lifire Empyrean berated, he didn't want to give Qin Wentian and chance to perform.

"Although your subordinate is not that strong, I can't stand seeing these people humiliating our Lifire Palace. Qin Wentian is seeking permission to participate in this round, Palace Lord, please grant me my wish." Qin Wentian spoke, exuding a heroic manner.

"Lifire Empyrean, your subordinate is truly interesting." The Skyair Empyrean calmly spoke.

"Are all governors from the Lifire Palace so weak? In the past rounds, the Lifire Palace only obtained a single #2 ranking. Right now, a mid-stage emperor stepped out to save face for the Lifire Palace, it felt as though the situation would be extremely bad without him. How ridiculous." Someone sarcastically commented.

"Most probably, there's no one else left in the Lifire Palace." The other palace lords were all extremely unhappy by the fact that Qin Wentian disrupted the competition.

"I once challenged four governors in the northern city regions of Lifelong City and I won all four battles. Although no governors from Lifelong City have participated in the competition between the nine world palaces, you guys can ask yourself this question whether you all can win against Lifelong City's governors. How dare you underestimate others and act so arrogantly? So what if I'm a mid-stage immortal emperor. Have you all forgotten the cultivation base of the person who obtained first in the martial competition earlier?"

Qin Wentian flicked his sleeve and domineeringly spoke. Instantly, the eyes of many people gleamed with sharpness. The volume of the discussion among the crowd also grew louder, creating a loud commotion.

"So he is that mysterious challenger who defeated four governors in the northern city regions back then?"

"This man even won against Governor Xiao Yu. He is extremely powerful, I've personally witnessed his might."

Many voices rang out, causing the eyes of everyone to turn sharp. Countless gazes turned to Xiao Yu. Even the people of the Lifire Palace were shocked when they heard that. They all turned to glance at Qin Wentian. This fellow actually already arrived at Lifelong City earlier and had consecutively defeated four powerful governors of Lifelong City, including the number one governor of the northern city regions, Xiao Yu.

Xiao Yu had an ugly expression on his face. The numerous gazes turning towards him caused him to clench his fists tightly, feeling extremely ashamed.

"Do you dare to fight again?" Xiao Yu's gaze pierced through space as he looked towards Qin Wentian. His gaze flickered with coldness as he stood up. His actions undoubtedly verified that this Qin Wentian was truly the mysterious challenger who had defeated four governors back then.

What was more shocking was the fact that he was actually the only governor from the Lifire Palace with a cultivation base at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm.

Why did the Lifire Empyrean not want to let such an expert fight in the last round of the competition?

"How can it be him?" Jialan Qiuyue froze. Not long ago, Di Tian obtained the top ranking in the martial competition. At that time, she felt that Qin Wentian was definitely inferior to Di Tian. Di Tian was a grandmaster weaponsmith and had displayed shocking talent in the martial path with a cultivation base merely at the mid-stage of the emperor realm.

However, Qin Wentian appeared now and he had defeated four powerful governors of Lifelong City, including Xiao Yu. Before the Jialan Clan came here, they were still discussing about this matter.

That mysterious challenger was actually the arrogant northern governor of Lifire City whom she loathed.

Jialan Yuntian's expression changed as well, feeling extremely shocked. No matter how high he set his sights in the past, he discovered that he had ultimately still underestimated Di Tian, as well as Qin Wentian.

"Bastard!" The Lifire Empyrean cursed silently in his heart. Other than feeling shocked at Qin Wentian's strength, he also felt a sense of unease. This Qin Wentian seemed to have already made his preparations extremely long ago. Today, he would display his prowess before the Realmlord for sure or he wouldn't have challenged Xiao Yu and the other three governors.

He could already sense that Qin Wentian was gradually walking out of his control.

Xia Hou, Yin Qiu, the Jialan Monarch and the others all had ugly looks on their faces. None of them felt any goodwill towards Qin Wentian and many had conflicts with him.

Only Beauty Xiao felt joy. When she heard the news, the light in her eyes gleamed even brighter when she looked at Qin Wentian. This fellow actually defeated four powerful governors of Lifelong City.

"No need. It's pointless to fight anymore with you. If I've offended Governor Xiao before, please don't hold it against me." Qin Wentian calmly rejected, causing Xiao Yu's expression to turn even more unsightly.

"Palace Lord, Qin Wentian is seeking permission to fight for our Lifire Palace's honor." Qin Wentian bowed towards the Lifire Empyrean.

The Lifire Empyrean glanced at everyone. He saw the Realmlord looking at him and he understood that if he still didn't allow Qin Wentian to participate in this situation, things would be illogical.

"Qin Wentian, seems like your strength has improved. In that case, go on and win some glory for my Lifire Palace" The Lifire Empyrean's expression changed to a gentler one as he smiled. Since he already made his decision, he might as well go all the way.

"Many thanks, Palace Lord. This subordinate will do my best." Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed as he flew towards the central platform. When he passed by Beauty Xiao, Beauty Xiao's eyes stared charmingly at him as she transmitted her voice, "You are so gutsy."

Qin Wentian didn't reply and passed her by. By defying the Lifire Empyrean's order and coming here, was truly a risky action. The Lifire Empyrean would surely feel unhappy in his heart. Also, since the Lifire Empyrean lost control over Ye Qianyu, he didn't know what attitude the Lifire Empyrean would have when they interacted in the future.

But since he had personally seen Ye Qianyu appearing here, he had to take the risk. Although he had already made some preparations earlier, he was in truth, taking things step by step. Since the Lifire Palace had suffered so miserably, choosing to stand out at this moment was undoubtedly the best opportunity.

When Qin Wentian arrived at the platform, the transcendent-level emperors from the eight other world palaces all turned their gazes towards him. Although earlier they felt contempt for him because of his lower cultivation base, but after they heard he defeated Xiao Yu, they couldn't help but to take him seriously. They were all cursing silently in their hearts. Before this, a mid-stage immortal emperor monster Di Tian had already appeared and obtained first in the martial competition. Right now, another monster appeared in this competition between the nine world palaces? Also, both of these freaks originated from Lifire City. What was going on in Lifire City?

At a remote corner, a group of females could be seen there. Ye Qianyu was among them, she had a radiant light in her eyes and was extremely beautiful at this moment. She simply silently looked at that figure.

"Is it him?" A maiden at the side asked Ye Qianyu in a light voice.

"Mhm, it's him." Ye Qianyu nodded. The fairies of the Red Dust Immortal Palace all gazed at Qin Wentian. So it was this young genius that caused Ye Qianyu to be imprisoned in the Lifire Jail? They all wanted to see how high his talent is.

"What sort of person is he?" Someone asked.

Ye Qianyu blinked, she felt gratified in her heart that Qin Wentian was now still the Qin Wentian she knew. She then broke into a bright smile, "I initially thought that he had changed, I didn't expect him to be as silly as before."

Chapter 1627: Five Consecutive Victories

On the towering platform, nine figures could be seen, each standing in a separate location. Every one of them was an immortal emperor standing at the absolute peak.

This was the last round of battle, the one that everyone would remember. The Desolate Heaven Palace, Skyair Palace and the other powerful world palaces, all sought to get the first ranking for this final round. They wanted to end things beautifully, hence, the experts they sent out now, would definitely not be weaker compared to the experts they sent out for the first battle.

For this battle, everyone needed to fight with the other eight and the end results would be tabulated to calculate the ranking.

This meant that nothing was left to luck. Everyone would have to fight eight battles, until the last.

The nine experts each reported their positions and name.

Qin Wentian, northern city governor of Lifire City. Very swiftly, everyone clearly knew of his identity and where he came from. The mysterious challenge that caused a storm of commotions was from the northern city regions of Lifire City.

In addition, this northern governor of Lifire City actually defeated the number one governor of Lifelong City's northern city regions Xiao Yu. It does sound a little like irony.

Lifelong City was governed by the Lifelong Saint Hall. The direct subordinates of the Lifelong Saint Hall were definitely true elites. Even if they didn't participate in the competition between the nine world palaces, their statuses would be supreme. It was normal if the weakest governor in Lifelong City was weaker than a governor from the nine world palaces, but Xiao Yu was the number one governor in the northern city regions of Lifelong City. Could he really not be comparable to a subordinate by the Lifire Empyrean who had lost all face earlier? It shouldn't be the case, right?

Is the number one governor of Lifelong City's northern city regions, Xiao Yu, weak or is the Lifire northern governor Qin Wentian too monstrous?

Most probably, the truth would soon be revealed. They would soon be able to see the strength of this mysterious governor.

"Since Governor Qin of the Lifire Palace has such an amazing battle achievement record here in Lifelong City, let me take the lead and seek guidance from you." A voice rang out. A monarch from the Gengmetal palace challenged Qin Wentian. Everyone had to fight against everyone. Since this was the case, considering that he was really curious about Qin Wentian's strength, he might as well take the chance to fight him now at the first battle. He wanted to see how capable this governor from Lifire City is.

"Please." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The other seven participants temporarily stepped back, allowing them to have the battlefield. The Gengmetal Palace's monarch radiated the law energy of metal. Resplendent golden light illuminated the area as astral light fell from his constellation, gently infusing him. In the air, a golden cloud layer formed, it radiated beams of golden light which manifested into golden lances that shot explosively through the air, aiming for Qin Wentian.

Upon sensing the terrifying might, Qin Wentian radiated boundless light. This supreme brilliance was even more dazzling than the light of the sun. Each mote of light from the laws Qin Wentian commanded transformed into a sword of light. The majority of the crowd couldn't open their eyes in the face of this radiance.

The golden lances clashed against the swords of light. With an explosive boom, the golden lances were overpowered, the swords of light continued slashing forth, crushing the golden cloud layer completely.

Under the radiance from his laws of light, no other law energy could exist.

Qin Wentian's entire person was basking in the radiance, he was like a divinity of light. His entire person seemed perfect and flawless. Upon stepping out, he punched out as boundless light gathered into a fist of radiance that blasted towards the Gengmetal Palace's monarch.

The Gengmetal Palace's monarch gathered his metal law energy to form a gigantic golden fist as he punched out with it. The golden fist arced through the skies, leaving behind a series of fist shadows, colliding against the fist of radiance blasted forth by Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's attack only just started now. He moved closer and closer. Every step he took caused the pressure radiating from him to increase. His powerful spirit could cause the wills of others to collapse. He no longer launched a single fist of radiance but chains upon chains of them instead, blotting out the sky. He was like the god of light, in control of everything, illuminating everything under the sky.

A fearsome aura gushed forth from the Gengmetal Palace's monarch. Clones formed from metallic energy appeared behind him. All of them attacked together, the boundless might congregated and formed a fearsome-looking golden ancient shield. It spun around rapidly, attempting to block Qin Wentian's attack.

However, how could one manage to block light? Light is something that's extremely pervasive. Qin Wentian's attacks transformed into curved lines that evaded the shield and continued on, aiming for his opponent's body.

The entire body of the Gengmetal Palace's monarch seemed to be plated in gold. His defense was absurdly strong, the clones formed from his metallic energy all merged together with him, granting him a temporary boost in his defense. Qin Wentian continued to chain his fist of radiance together, causing them to streak through the air, slamming into his opponent in an extremely tyrannical manner.

Under the light, the Gengmetal Palace's monarch had no way to endure for too long. He retreated after sometimes and conceded the match.

The eyes of other participants who were spectating all gleamed with sharpness. From the start until the end, Qin Wentian only used a single kind of attack - the fist of radiance. With a single innate technique, he defeated a supreme immortal emperor from the Gengmetal Palace. From this, one could tell that him defeating Xiao Yu wasn't a matter of luck, he truly had the strength. This caused the expressions of the other participants to turn slightly more heavy.

"Next, which other two participants will fight?" The governor of the Desolate Heaven Palace asked.

"There's no need to waste time. Since I came here for the sake of being number one, I just have to win all eight battles, right? Earlier, many people insulted and humiliated my Lifire Palace. Since I'm up here now, there would be no meaning if my Lifire Palace doesn't get the top ranking." Qin Wentian's white robes fluttered gently in the wind as he spoke. "So, just let the second battle commence. I'll be here all the way. The monarch from the Kanwater Palace, let's not waste time. Just come at me."

As the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, the crowd was completely stunned. The sharpness in the eyes of the other participants grew more intense. Qin Wentian wanted to conclude this last round straightaway by winning eight battles in a row?

Was he treating them as non-existent?

Before this in the martial competition, even that mid-stage immortal emperor Di Tian, wasn't so brazen, right?

Now, are all transcendent-level mid-stage immortal emperors so arrogant?

On the battle platform, the supreme characters of the Desolate Heaven Palace, Skyair Palace and Xuanyuan Clan were still present.

However, they were all completely disregarded by Qin Wentian. He was prepared to fight them all, one after the other.

Since the Kanwater Palace's monarch was named, he stepped out with a cold expression on his face. He is a very powerful monarch of the Kanwater Palace, yet Qin Wentian still seemed extremely calm. It was like Qin Wentian didn't even treat him as an opponent.

"In that case, I truly want to seek guidance from Governor Qin. Show me your strength then." The Kanwater Monarch radiated icy energy as frost covered Qin Wentian's surroundings. A stifling coldness suddenly descended on the atmosphere, causing the temperature to plunge.

Qin Wentian's eyes shot out a terrifying light. A pair of phantasm eyes appeared as his phantasm domain enveloped everything. In the next instant, the Kanwater Palace's monarch felt himself being dragged into an eye-technique dimension. Countless Qin Wentian's phantoms could be seen floating in the air, each of them radiating a brilliant radiance of the laws of light as they attacked him.

The expression of the Kanwater Palace's monarch turned ugly. He unleashed a terrifying underworld frost energy, causing ice to form in his surroundings, freezing everything. Qin Wentian's millions of phantoms were frozen solid. This was the power of absolute frost, he was like the frost king of a generation, unexcelled in the world.

"You have no hope." A voice rang out from the void. After that, numerous phantoms of Qin Wentian appeared once more, radiating a brilliant light. Those frozen phantoms all caused the frost energy to dissipate, the glare from the boundless laws of light melted everything. Under the radiance, not only did Qin Wentian's phantoms not lessen in number, they even increased.

The Kanwater Palace's monarch knew this to be an illusion as he had entered Qin Wentian's law domain. But although he knew it was an illusion, he had no way to break it. The ending of this battle seemed to have been already decided.

He was actually trapped by the law domain of a mid-stage immortal emperor.

"Just concede." Boundless swords of light were unleashed, no one could distinguish the real from the illusory ones. The monarch from the Kanwater Palace didn't know which sword would turn into a real sword of slaughter. He was always used to be in a lofty position, a supreme immortal emperor. Yet at this moment, a dispirited expression could be seen on his face. He shook his head and spoke, "I'm defeated."

The law domain dissipated. The Kanwater Palace's monarch stared ahead. Qin Wentian stood there like he has never moved before at all, but he still managed to trap him.

"Were those a reality or illusion?" The Kanwater Palace's monarch asked.

"The truth is false, but the false can be also true." Qin Wentian replied. That Kanwater Palace's monarch nodded and retreated.

The gazes of many stiffened. This battle seemed even more relaxed for Qin Wentian compared to the last one. Qin Wentian had won two more victories.

"Will the Scarlet Origin Palace's governor provide guidance for me?" Qin Wentian continued, challenging one after another. He didn't even need to rest.

The governor from the Scarlet Origin Palace walked out. At this moment, there was a heavy expression on his face as he looked at Qin Wentian. Two world palaces have already been defeated. This undoubtedly proved Qin Wentian's strength, how would he dare to be careless?

The phantasm eye appeared again, there was simply no way to resist the eye-technique dimension from drawing you in. One could only break free by using an overwhelming amount of law energy attacks. However, one must know how powerful Qin Wentian's astral souls are. Although he's at the mid-stage, his law attributes were of a higher-grade and were much more powerful when compared to others. In addition, this eye-technique dimension was a part of the domain he had comprehended. How could it be broken so easily?

Hence, in the eye-technique dimension, the governor from the Scarlet Origin Palace was bombarded by Qin Wentian's endless attacks. He couldn't resist it for long and was easily defeated.

After that, the expert from the Dragonsaddle Palace lost, as did the expert from the Gemini Palace.

The experts from five world palaces all lost consecutively to Qin Wentian.

He won five victories in a row. Qin Wentian had no intentions to halt. Although earlier, there were quite a few experts who obtained the stellar achievements of eight wins and zero losses, no one achieved it in the same manner as Qin Wentian did. He completely ignored the fight between others and wanted to fight the experts of the other eight world palaces continuously without pause.

Before this, many felt it was impossible. But as the battles continued, the defeat of the experts from the five world palaces, caused the hearts of the crowd to shake.

Right now, only the Desolate Heaven Palace, Skyair Palace and Xuanyuan Palace were remaining. However, these three were the strongest of all the world palaces.

Qin Wentian wanted to win three more battles consecutively against the experts of these three world palaces? It most probably wouldn't be that easy, right?

Chapter 1628: Invincible Posture

The palace lords and their subordinates were all taken aback as they spectated.

Earlier, everyone thought that it was a given for the Lifire Palace to be ranked at the bottom. The participating monarchs and governors of the Lifire Palace were only qualified to make up for the numbers. The eventual winner of the final, most dramatic round naturally would go to one of the three most powerful world palaces.

However, this truly was a dramatic scene, capable of branding itself into the memories of all the spectators. A mid-stage governor from the Lifire Palace had achieved five consecutive victories after he stepped up the platform, crushing his opponents with domineering might in an extremely relaxed manner. It looked like he wouldn't stop until he obtained all eight victories.

The Lifire Empyrean felt extremely conflicted now. He didn't want Qin Wentian to come to Lifelong City because firstly, he didn't want to let him know that Ye Qianyu was already here. Secondly, he didn't want Qin Wentian to display his prowess here and attract the Realmlord's attention so he could feel more secure in his control over Qin Wentian. However, Qin Wentian still came here and not only that, his performance was far more impressive than what the Lifire Empyrean had initially imagined.

Qin Wentian just so coincidentally appeared during the time where the Lifire Empyrean lost the most face and helped the Lifire Palace to gain back some face. He could still remember the mocking looks the other palace lords shot him. If Qin Wentian really could gain eight victories and obtained the top ranking in a domineering fashion, his Lifire Palace would surely gain a lot of face.

Hence, he felt conflicted in his heart. He was wondering how he should treat Qin Wentian in the future.

The look on Xia Hou's face was more sinister than ever before. It was the same for the Jialan Monarch. The insignificant character in the past was now so much stronger than him. Not only for the two of them, the Crow Emperor was present here as well, seated behind the Lifire Empyrean. He had an ugly look on his face. Those years ago, it was precisely him who acted against Qin Wentian and Ye Qianyu. If Qin Wentian really managed to come into power, it would surely be a bad thing for him.

The people of the Jialan Clan were frowning as well. Back then, Jialan Yuntian invited Qin Wentian to Jialan Qiuyue's birthday banquet and wanted to sue for peace. However, Qin Wentian actually replied that as long as the Jialan Monarch didn't die, it was impossible for them to have peace. This was why the Jialan Clan shifted Ye Qianyu away from the Lifire Jail. They wanted conflict to occur between Qin Wentian and the Lifire Empyrean. Now, it can be considered that their plan had succeeded. There truly was conflict between Qin Wentian and the Lifire Empyrean now and both were on guard against each other. Qin Wentian even openly defied the Lifire Empyrean's order and came to Lifelong City.

However, Jialan Yuntian wasn't as happy as he thought he would be. Because, Qin Wentian's performance was just too outstanding, even surpassing that of Di Tian. It was very possible that he would gain the Realmlord's recognition and favor.

Right now on the platform, only experts from the Desolate Heaven Palace, Skyair Palace and Xuanyuan Palace remained, blocking Qin Wentian from his quest to obtain the top ranking.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze to the Xuanyuan Palace's governor as he spoke, "Please guide me."

Before this, Di Tian had fought with Xuanyuan Dipper of the Xuanyuan Clan. This governor of the Xuanyuan Palace was also of the Xuanyuan Clan. The types of law attributes he was proficient in, should be similar to Xuanyuan Dipper.

The Xuanyuan Palace's governor stepped out, staring at Qin Wentian. In an instant, an extremely sharp aura gushed forth as a fearsome law domain of divine weapons formed. Divine weapons could be seen blotting out the area, their power converging together and transforming into a fearsome vortex that could destroy everything.

The Xuanyuan Clan controls the largest auction house and transaction grounds of the Lifelong Realm. They had many grandmaster weaponsmiths within their ranks and the law attributes they were proficient in were usually of the control type. The Xuanyuan Clan's members were like kings of all weapons, able to control any kind of divine weapon and transformed that into their own attack.

The vajra holy will radiated from Qin Wentian. Buddhic light flashed, his entire person seemed akin to an ancient buddha, possessing an invulnerable buddhic body.

"Buddha law attribute energy." The eyes of many people gleamed sharply. This Qin Wentian was also so skilled in buddha-path techniques? He was truly immeasurably deep.

"KILL!" The Xuanyuan Palace's governor coldly roared. The divine weapons all shot towards Qin Wentian but at this moment, a golden buddha body manifested, shining with the resplendence of buddhic light, blocking the weapons. However, under the assault of endless waves of weapons, the buddhic light faded bit by bit and the attack went through.

But at this moment, there seemed to be boundless hands stretched out behind Qin Wentian, he was like a thousand-armed arhat and each of his arms were radiating with golden light, flowing with different types of law-attribute energy. Each palm then unleashed a multitude of different innate techniques as they clashed against the attack blasting towards him.

"This…" Many people had a look of shock on their faces. This was a gigantic dharma body and the different innate techniques unleashed could all actually fuse together into a zone of slaughter comprising of a myriad of laws that exploded forth with overwhelming might. The divine weapons all shattered, blasting apart the divine weapon domain.

Qin Wentian's body glowed with light. He had his eyes closed and stood there unmoving. The gigantic dharma body's millions of arms continued launching attacks. The might unleashed was devastating to the extreme, the Xuanyuan Palace's governor defended frenziedly, but things were useless. Qin Wentian's attacks were too tyrannical, he blasted his way through the governor's defense and with a thunderous boom, the Xuanyuan Palace's governor was forced back with injuries. Qin Wentian calmly stared at his opponent, his dharma body was still glowing brilliantly as he spoke, "Ye Kong from the Skyair Palace. You are next."

Ye Kong glanced at Qin Wentian, his expression was a little stiff now. He, who was originally extremely confident in his strength, was no longer as confident now.

This fellow was too insanely strong. That buddhic dharma body was extremely terrifying, it was formed from a super strong buddhic art that was infused with Qin Wentian's buddha-type astral soul. The Myriad Laws Convergence used by Qin Wentian earlier was simply too monstrous, no one knew how had he managed to cultivate that.

"If Governor Ye isn't confident enough, why don't you join forces with the governor from the Desolate Heaven Palace? In this case, I can save the time and effort needed for one extra battle." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The governor from the Desolate Heaven Palace and Ye Kong started as their expressions turned unsightly when they heard that.

A mid-stage immortal emperor actually wanted to challenge the two of them at the same time.

The crowd drew in a breath, as shock and amazement appeared on their faces. This fellow was truly way too brazen. But it was a fact that this Governor Qin of the Lifire Palace is truly very powerful. Even Di Tian who obtained first in the martial competition earlier might not be stronger than him.

Even up until now, Qin Wentian's full strength was unclear. Just this buddhic dharma body before their eyes was capable of all different kinds of law attacks. The Myriad Laws Convergence was an attack no one had an answer for, the true epitome of the word 'tyranny.'

"Since he has spoken, the two of you should just join forces. If he is defeated, I will count it as both of you have each won one battle." At this moment, the Realmlord laughed. His gaze was as calm as ever, immeasurably profound.

Everyone knew it seemed that the Realmlord also wanted to see how strong Qin Wentian was exactly. Clearly, Qin Wentian had already caused the Realmlord to feel interest or the Realmlord wouldn't have spoken.

Both of them glanced at each other and stepped out. The Realmlord has already spoken, they naturally wouldn't disobey him.

Their gazes turned extremely terrifying. The governor from the Desolate Heaven Palace was named Fuzhan. Fearsome bolts of lightning crackled around him, so loud that many people felt their eardrums trembling. Just by standing there, the sound waves eruption from him were already capable of killing ordinary immortal emperors should he wish it. Even Qin Wentian's buddhic dharma body was trembling from the sound wave vibrations.

As for Ye Kong, a supreme sword intent radiated from him in a manner akin to unceasing torrents.

The two of them then launched their attacks simultaneously. Fuzhan stepped out, expanding to over a hundred meters in size. He was like an ancient battle god from the desolate wilderness, terrifying waves of sound-based attacks shattered everything. Many of Qin Wentian's dharma body's arms actually crumbled from the attack.

Ye Kong's movements were as fast as a shooting star. His swordplay and movement speed was completely in sync, as he slashed off many of the arms, leaving behind afterimages of himself. In an instant, plenty of the dharmic body's arms were destroyed, but to the amazement of the crowd, the regeneration rate seemed to be extremely fast, powered by an unending lifeforce. The arms that were destroyed, were replaced by new arms after an instant, it felt like the dharma body was simply undying and indestructible.

The multitude of arms converged together and formed terrifying gigantic buddha palm imprints as they blasted out in all directions, brimming with boundless might.

Fuzhan howled, black-colored lightning congregated into the form of palm imprints that brimmed with the might of destruction as he slammed out with it.

As for Ye Kong, he moved with lightning speed, drilling his way through the palm imprints as he made his way towards Qin Wentian's true body. When the dharma body's arms blocked him, Ye Kong directly stepped into the void, bypassing the obstacles. He then appeared in front of Qin Wentian and slashed out a beam of devastating sword light.

"Fuzhan's attacks are domineering while Ye Kong's speed is extremely quick. The two of them are simply invincible when working together." Some of the crowd commented. Fuzhan's attacks could crush through everything and Ye Kong had already appeared in front of Qin Wentian's true body. All this happened in an instant, the two of them were truly extremely terrifying when they joined forces.

At this moment, Qin Wentian's true body opened his eyes. With a single glance at Ye Kong, Ye Kong felt himself sinking into the eye-technique dimension. He didn't hesitate and slashed out with all his might, wanting to split apart the sky. However, Qin Wentian was no longer in front of him. There was only a countless number of buddha arms twining themselves around him.

Ye Kong radiated a supreme sword might, empowering his lightning sword arts as he tore open a hole and fled from there. He howled in anger and channelled the entirety of his strength, breaking out of the dimension as he retreated with explosive speed and reappeared beside Fuzhan. Both of them floated in the air as they stared at Qin Wentian.

This Qin Wentian was too tough to deal with. How could it be so difficult to deal with a mid-stage immortal emperor?

"Both of your strength isn't too bad. But you two are destined to fail on this battlefield. I will definitely get the top ranking for my Lifire Palace." Qin Wentian arrogantly spoke. In an instant, a thousand-arm domain manifested. The millions of arms fused together into a giant palm, sealing away this space. At this instant, astral light from the nine heavens had no way to seep through, this space was completely isolated. Fuzhan and Ye Kong's expressions both turned extremely heavy.

The giant palm imprint of this domain actually radiated many different kinds of law energy. Boundless destructive might could also be felt in the air. This giant buddha palm was like a supreme formation and was blasting towards Fuzhan and Ye Kong, preparing to unleash sure-kill techniques.

Chapter 1629: Questioning

Fuzhan and Ye Kong had a depressed look on their faces when they glanced at the gigantic palm blasting towards them.

Clearly, this was a buddha palm imprint, yet they could clearly feel different law attributes within. Brilliant swords of light slashed out, manifested from the palm, along with a spatial storm of wind and lightning. This giant palm was like a supreme slaughter formation that comprised of many different types of attacks.

The two of them might be transcendent-level immortal emperors, standing at the true peak of the immortal emperor ream. But even so, they still felt despair and terror at this moment.

The spectators were all deeply shocked. This Governor Qin Wentian from Lifire City was actually so overwhelmingly powerful. The thousand-arms of the dharma body were fused together into a gigantic buddha palm imprint that blotted out the skies. Not only was the palm capable of unleashing different law-attributed attacks, it could even sever Fuzhan and Ye Kong's resonance with their constellations, forbidding them from borrowing the boundless astral energy from their constellations.

"RUMBLE~" Fuzhan clenched his fists. His body expanded in size, completely transforming into an ancient battle god of the desolate wilderness. Fearsome destructive might gathered at his fists, churning with intensity as sonic booms could be heard. Fuzhan soared into the air as he howled in rage. Both his fists blasted out. sending two streams of destruction aiming for the boundaries of the space sealed by the buddha imprint. The impact was so great that the entire sealed space trembled violently.

However, the sounds of buddhic chants rang out. The terrifying buddha palm imprint kept transforming, manifesting a spatial gate that swallowed up Fuzhan's attacks, transferring it out somewhere. There was no effect at all.

This scene caused Fuzhan to feel utter despair. Qin Wentian had too many methods, he was simply a perfect existence. He was proficient in all types of innate techniques and secret arts, able to do whatever he wants.

Ye Kong soared into the air. He directly slashed his sword down at the palm imprint, manifesting a countless number of sword shadows that sliced at the palm imprint, wanting to cleave it apart. If they continued to fight in this sealed space, both of them would be defeated sooner or later.

The palm imprint generated a burst of ruinous might. Ye Kong could not sustain his attacks. His sword domain manifested, with millions of swords swirling around him, incomparably resplendently. However, with the pressure from the giant palm, the swords around him all fell to the ground, the space around him becoming a grave for swords.

Ye Kong had no choice but to break out from that area and flee backwards, appearing beside Fuzhan again. The two of them glanced at each other as a helpless look appeared on their faces. They were trapped completely in this space and had no way to break out from it.

"Just concede." Qin Wentian's voice rang out. After that, countless arms were manifested from the palm imprint, launching endless attacks at them. The two continuously defended, destroying the attacks but right now, the giant palm was already extremely close, brimming with a crushing might, about to slam down into them.

Staring at the approaching giant palm, Fuzhan and Ye Kong closed their eyes. Fuzhan sighed, "I've lost."

"You won." Ye Kong also spoke out. A moment later, the giant palm halted as it slowly dissipated. When his constellation vanished, the pressure in the area completely faded as well. Only a white-robed figure could be seen calmly standing there, exuding boundless magnificence.

He, with the strength of him alone, continuously defeated the experts of the other eight world palaces. Not only so, his last battle was simultaneously against two and he even managed to force the two to admit defeat.

Such a radiant battle achievement record truly held an air of dominance, suppressing all previous rounds of battle. This was truly unprecedented and right now, none of the experts of the other eight world palaces challenged the other. All the glory was focused on the white-robed figure.

This man was a governor from the Lifire Palace, Qin Wentian.

Today, at the Lifelong Realm's grand banquet, there would surely be two people whose name will resound through the Lifelong Realm.

One of them was the top ranker in the martial competition, Di Tian. He was also a genius weaponsmith grandmaster, as well as being extremely strong in combat despite having only a mid-stage immortal emperor cultivation base.

The second person was none other than this governor of Lifire City. He was also at the mid-stage but he tyrannically swept through the supreme and transcendent immortal emperors from the other eight world palaces with impunity, achieving complete victory.

Ye Qianyu was incomparably beautiful. Her beautiful eyes held a radiant and sparkling light as she looked at the white-robed figure standing on the towering platform.

The Lifire Empyrean glanced at Qin Wentian, huge waves arose in his heart. This Qin Wentian was way too outstanding. Back then when he made use of Qin Wentian, although he knew Qin Wentian was powerful, he didn't expect Qin Wentian's talent to be so extraordinarily high. If he knew that, he might have used gentler and softer methods to deal with Qin Wentian and truly nurtured him into a trusted aide.

Right now, Qin Wentian had obtained the top ranking in the competition between the world palaces, allowing the Lifire Palace to gain face but the Lifire Empyrean no longer cared too much about that. Right now, he was thinking how he should treat Qin Wentian in the future? But naturally, the prerequisite was that the Realmlord wouldn't take the initiative to ask Qin Wentian to work for himself instead.

"Palace Lord. This Qin Wentian will definitely harbor hatred in his heart for matters of the past." The Crow Emperor transmitted his voice to the Lifire Empyrean. The Lifire Empyrean frown and glanced at the Crow Emperor. He naturally understood what the Crow Emperor was thinking. Back in the past, the person he sent to the Jialan Emperor City was none other than the Crow Emperor. It was also the Crow Emperor who injured and captured Ye Qianyu.

If Qin Wentian comes into power, the first people he would deal with, would undoubtedly be the Crow Emperor and the Jialan Monarch.

When the Jialan Monarch saw the look on the Lifire Empyrean's face, he instantly knew what the Crow Emperor was saying. However, he didn't interject. Back then, the Lifire Empyrean had truly caused him to be in extremely dire straits. Although he was working for the Lifire Empyrean on the surface, everyone knew what their relationship was truly like. It wasn't his turn to speak.

"This Governor Qin isn't simple. Palace Lord, if you can gain his loyalty, he would definitely be a valiant general under your cause." Beauty Xiao charmingly smiled as she intentionally spoke up. Bright light flashed in her beautiful eyes when she looked at Qin Wentian. She didn't expect this fellow to be so powerful. Right now, even the Lifire Empyrean's state of heart was shaken.

The eyes of many major powers in the territories under the Lifire Palace, were gleaming with sharpness. This man who was sent to the northern city regions by the Lifire Empyrean to be the northern governor, no one thought well of him at that time. They all felt he would be the same as the other northern governors in the past, played and controlled by the Jialan Clan. However, the battle at the Ancient River Auction House showed them how wrong they all were. And now, in Lifelong City, he displayed even more of his brilliance.

If it wasn't because of his bandit past, the radiance from him would definitely be brighter as he would be more perfect. But even so, his past might still affect his future. Even the Lifire Empyrean had to think thrice whether to use Qin Wentian or not. No one knew how the Lifelong Realmlord would act after he learned of this.

Jialan Yuntian and Jialan Qiuyue both had complex looks on their faces. Who would have thought that Jialan Qiuyue's random wonderings would be right. That figure truly appeared here and was more dazzling than their expectations.

Before this, when many people saw Di Tian's performance, all of them felt that it was already very difficult to surpass Di Tian's accomplishments. However, the northern governor of the Lifire Palace, Qin Wentian, was even more outstanding, crushing the experts of the eight other world palaces alone. But who was more outstanding between him and Grandmaster Di Tian who was proficient in both weaponsmithing and the martial path? No one could really tell.

"Grandmaster Di Tian, what do you think of Governor Qin?" Jialan Yuntian asked Di Tian in a light voice.

"Governor Qin's magnificence knows no bounds." Di Tian laughed. He naturally wouldn't reveal that he and Qin Wentian were the same person. If Jialan Yuntian knew about this, it was unknown what sort of expression he would have.

"Seems like this old man was wrong in the past. Grandmaster Di Tian, please don't take it to heart." Jialan Yuntian spoke again, actually expressing his regret. Di Tian started, instantly understanding what Jialan Yuntian was referring to. Back then, in order to force him to stand with them, they alienated him against Qin Wentian, inviting them both to the birthday banquet of Jialan Qiuyue.

Right now, Jialan Yuntian evidently didn't dare to have any thoughts of controlling Di Tian any longer.

"Clan leader, what are you talking about. I'm not very clear." Di Tian shrugged and smiled. Jialan Yuntian's eyes flashed before he also smiled and nodded his head. However, he was thinking in his heart whether if Di Tian truly didn't mind what happened in the past?

Countless people were in fervent discussion as they looked at Qin Wentian, focusing their attention on him.

This governor from Lifire City, what would his fate be?

At this moment, the Realmlord laughed as he spoke, "The remaining eight of you, do you all still want to determine the actual rankings?"

He was naturally referring to the fact that Qin Wentian had already obtained eight victories. Those battles earlier made it so that this towering platform had completely become Qin Wentian's stage and the other participants only served as foils to make him shine brighter. Before Qin Wentian's appearance, everyone felt that the Lifire Palace was only good for making up the numbers. But now, the reality was completely different.

"There's no need to." Fuzhan spoke out. Since the Realmlord asked this question, it naturally meant that he also didn't want to waste time. If not, the Realmlord would have directly stated that the competition should continue.

The other participants also understood the Realmlord's meaning. They all shook their heads. It was meaningless to continue fighting. Qin Wentian had already seized all the glory here today, including everyone else who fought in the previous thirteen rounds of battles earlier.

"Mhm. Everyone, please return to your respective seats at your world palace." The Realmlord waved his hands and smiled. The silhouettes of the participants flashed as they returned to their original seats. Qin Wentian moved towards the Lifire Empyrean and bowed, "Palace Lord, your subordinate did not fail to live up to your expectations."

"Governor Qin, it has been hard for you. Come, take a seat." The Lifire Empyrean smiled. He naturally wouldn't blame Qin Wentian at this moment.

"Yes, Palace Lord." Qin Wentian didn't have any of the arrogance he displayed on the platform and became extremely humble. He knew that the Lifire Empyrean wouldn't really allow him to easily see his true attitude. Qin Wentian also understood it was better for him to act humble and keep a low profile now.

Beauty Xiao cast a charming glance at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian walked over and sat down beside her only to see her giggling as she transmitted her voice, "You did all this for Ye Qianyu, why wouldn't you be able to do the same for me?"

Qin Wentian rolled his eyes at her, a look of hidden resentment could be seen on Beauty Xiao's face as she transmitted her voice over, "Somebody has no conscience oh."

Qin Wentian glanced in the direction of the Lifelong Realmlord, only to see the Realmlord smiling, "The competition between the nine world palaces this time, is more fascinating compared to the past. Is everyone satisfied with it?"

"There are truly many capable men in our Lifelong Realm, all of them will cause the future of our realm to be even more glorious." The Skymist Empyrean respectfully spoke. He was the Lifelong Realmlord's disciple, but he had to refer to the Realmlord with his proper title in such a setting.

"They are not subordinates chosen by me but by you all instead. All the palace lords should reward your capable subordinates who participated earlier heavily." The Realmlord smiled.

"Naturally."

"Your subordinates will naturally reward them heavily." The world palace lords bowed and expressed.

The Realmlord smiled and nodded. He then turned his gaze towards the Lifire Empyrean and asked, "Such a grand character appearing in the Lifire Palace. Lifire Palace Lord, you actually prevented him from coming here before this? What is going on? Don't tell me you are afraid of this seat snatching Governor Qin away?"

Chapter 1630: Change in Attitude

The Lifire Empyrean's gaze stiffened. For a moment, he didn't know how he should reply.

Qin Wentian's situation was really extremely complex, but it was impossible for him to explain it for all to hear now out in the public. He could only reply, "Your subordinate doesn't dare. It's just that Lifire City needed someone to be in charge since I'm temporarily gone from there. Hence, this subordinate commanded Governor Qin to take over to prevent chaos from reigning supreme."

"Oh?" The Lifelong Realmlord calmly spoke. The Lifire Empyrean even dared to give him such a lousy excuse?

A look of difficulty could be seen on the Lifire Empyrean's face. But at this moment, Qin Wentian stood up and bowed to the Lifelong Realmlord. "This matter has nothing to do with palace lord. It's just because my identity is sensitive which led to palace lord making such an arrangement. I humbly beg Realmlord for a pardon."

Qin Wentian's words caused the Lifire Empyrean to narrow his eyes. The Realmlord felt even more curious. Although he was the master of this realm, many things were managed by his subordinates and he would usually not ask about the finer details of the happenings in each of the world palaces. He naturally would have no idea that Qin Wentian, who is a governor, used to be a bandit. Hence, he had no idea about the connection between Qin Wentian and Ye Qianyu.

"Oh? Your identity is sensitive? Tell me more about it." The Lifelong Realmlord asked.

"Junior has the identity of a criminal. I used to be a bandit and had plundered the mines under control of the Jialan Monarch who is one of the nine monarchs serving under the Lifire Palace Lord. After being captured, not only did the palace lord not blame my past, he even gave me huge responsibilities and promoted me into a governor. I'm filled with endless gratitude towards his kindness." Qin Wentian's tone was extremely polite. Not only did he not offend the Lifire Empyrean, his words were even praising the Lifire Empyrean faintly.

Although he was extremely imposing on the battle platform, the Lifire Empyrean was after all one of the nine world palaces' palace lords. His status wasn't something Qin Wentian could compare to despite being extremely impressive on the battle platform. Right now, his end goal was to rescue Ye Qianyu. He naturally didn't want to offend someone as powerful as the Lifire Empyrean needlessly.

"A bandit?" A strange light flashed in the eyes of the Lifelong Realmlord as he cast a glance at the Lifire Empyrean.

"Yes, Realmlord. In the past, due to some circumstances, I became a bandit under Ye Qianyu, Right now, Ye Qianyu has also appeared in this grand banquet, and Palace Lord must have been worried as he knew that I have a good relationship with her. He must have feared that I might be impulsive upon meeting her and this must be the reason why he told me to stay behind at the Lifire City instead. He has given a lot of thought to this matter." Qin Wentian continued.

"Ye Qianyu?" The Lifelong Realmlord recalled about the beautiful maiden from the Red Dust Immortal Palace whose dance stirred up a huge commotion earlier. That maiden's name was precisely Ye Qianyu, the Night Empyrean's daughter and she was here because she was seeking forgiveness from her crimes. He then turned his gaze towards the direction of the Red Dust Immortal Palace's people, landing on Ye Qianyu and immediately understood some things.

The others in the crowd all had a look of understanding on their faces. They finally understood why Qin Wentian would appear here and displayed his prowess in such a domineering manner.

So it turned out that he was fighting for the sake of rescuing a beauty.

He wanted to do his best to perform here and request the Realmlord to release Ye Qianyu as a reward?

"Yes." Qin Wentian nodded.

"In that case, you came here for her?" The Realmlord asked directly.

"Please pardon me, your eminence." Qin Wentian bowed. The Lifelong Realmlord looked at him. Not only the Realmlord, at this moment, the Lifire Empyrean, the Jialan Clan's people and all the other experts were staring at Qin Wentian.

With a background as a bandit yet possessing such a high amount of talent. He participated in the grand banquet and domineeringly got the top ranking for the final round of battle in the competition between the world palaces and his purpose was actually for the sake of a single woman? But truth to be told, this woman was truly an excellent creature. That dance Ye Qianyu performed earlier had caused their hearts all to stir, wanting to possess her.

Right now, they would have to see how the Lifelong Realmlord would decide. Would he grant Ye Qianyu amnesty because of Qin Wentian's talent?

"Ye Qianyu was captured by your Lifire Palace in the past?" The Lifelong Realmlord suddenly asked the Lifire Empyrean.

"Replying to Realmlord, those years ago, Ye Qianyu was the bandit head and was wrecking chaos in one of my territories. I commanded my subordinates to capture her and detain her in the Lifire Jail. Qin Wentian was just an accomplice and he became a bandit because he had no alternatives. This is why I didn't imprison him and gave him a chance to render merits to clear his crimes instead." The Lifire Empyrean spoke. Regardless if the Realmlord values Qin Wentian's talent or not, these questions of principle had to be made clear to him first.

"In that case, you did nothing wrong as well." The Lifelong Realmlord nodded lightly. "Has Qin Wentian rendered any merit so far?"

"He has been the governor of the northern city regions of my Lifire City for the past several tens of years and did render plenty of merit in terms of quelling the chaos in the north." The Lifire Empyrean replied.

"Since this is the case, Qin Wentian, don't worry about your past identity as a bandit. Just do your job as a governor well for now." The Realmlord smiled. With this sentence, this undoubtedly paved the way for Qin Wentian's future. His past identity as a bandit didn't matter to the Realmlord.

"As for Ye Qianyu, since she is the bandit head, it's impossible for me to release her just like that. She can temporarily become a maid in the Lifelong Saint Hall first. In the future, if you manage to render any great merit, you can come and look for me again to redeem her." The Realmlord's single sentence had determined Ye Qianyu's fate. Qin Wentian felt some disappointment in his heart. Seeing that Ye Qianyu had appeared her, he decided to take the risk and displayed his prowess in the battle. He naturally hoped that the Realmlord would pardon Ye Qianyu.

However, it was only natural for the Lifelong Realmlord to reply in that manner. As a bandit head, how can he release her so simply just like that? Telling him to come back for her after he renders great merits is already a form of kindness. What else could he say?

"Many thanks for Realmlord's kindness." Qin Wentian bowed, he could only thank the Realmlord.

"Give him more chances to render more merits in the future." The Realmlord instructed the Lifire Empyrean.

"Yes, Realmlord." The Lifire Empyrean nodded. Seems like the Realmlord truly regarded Qin Wentian highly. Although he didn't ask for Qin Wentian to be transferred over, he made it clear for the Lifire Empyrean to give Qin Wentian more chances to render merits. In that case, it would be more convenient if the Realmlord wanted to use Qin Wentian in the future. Qin Wentian might even be transferred to the Lifelong Saint Hall.

"Enough. Everyone, there's no need to feel so restrained. Let's continue to enjoy the banquet. Next, does the palace lords of the nine world palaces have anything you want to report?" The Lifelong Realmlord laughed carefreely. Everyone had smiles on their faces and toasted the Realmlord. After that, the atmosphere turned lively, the maidens of the Red Dust Immortal Palace once again displayed their dances for everyone to enjoy. There were also beautiful women playing zithers, producing elegant music. However, Ye Qianyu didn't join in this time. She remained at her original location.

Qin Wentian glanced in her direction, only to see Ye Qianyu just so coincidentally was looking at him as well. Her bright eyes and charming smile felt extremely soul-stirring and she even winked at him. Qin Wentian smiled when he saw this scene. Although she would temporarily become a maid in the Lifelong Saint Hall, and couldn't be considered truly free, her environment would definitely be much better compared to her being imprisoned in the Lifire Jail.

"Governor Qin, congratulations." At this moment, Beauty Xiao giggled and walked over. It seemed that she noticed the exchange of looks between Qin Wentian and Ye Qianyu. Her soft and alluring body leaned against Qin Wentian, exposing her bosom to him while a smile lit up the corners of her lips. Qin Wentian immediately knew that Beauty Xiao was doing this intentionally after just a single look at her.

Qin Wentian saw a smile layered with meaning on the face of Ye Qianyu when she saw this. Her gaze seemed to contain some hidden resentment. Qin Wentian bitterly smiled and shook his head before lifting up a wine cup and toasting Beauty Xiao.

"Beauty Xiao, there's no need for you to lunge over like that, right?" Yin Qiu's neither male nor female voice rang out. Beauty Xiao glanced at him and pressed her body even deeper into Qin Wentian, almost knocking him off his seat. The Lifire Empyrean kept his calm and didn't feel that this was strange. Beauty Xiao has always been such a character. He didn't think too deep into it.

"Seems like your bet paid off. With the Realmlord as your backing, the palace lord won't dare to act against you easily in the future. He might even try to pull you closer to him by using soft tactics." Beauty Xiao transmitted her voice over. She then continued, "I was the one who told you about this news. How do you intend to repay me?"

As she transmitted her voice over, Beauty Xiao bit her lips gently and had an alluring look on her face as she leaned in closer. Qin Wentian couldn't help to silently muse what a vixen she was.

"Governor Qin, let me toast you too. For the unhappiness between us earlier, let's all forget about it." Xia Hou lifted his wine cup and spoke, as though wanting to sue for peace with Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian coldly glanced at Xia Hou. A playful smile appeared on his face. This Xia Hou had always mocked and insulted him every time they met. Now, he actually wanted to settle the score peacefully?

"Governor Xia Hou is too polite." Qin Wentian lifted his wine cup and smiled, he didn't make things ugly for Xia Hou. He knew that Xia Hou's words didn't really represent that the grudge had been settled. By lifting his cup, it also didn't represent that he would forget what happened before. Both of them were just acting for the occasion.

"Qin Wentian, you have gained much face for our Lifire Palace today." Grand Governor Zhuge Xiong laughed and initiated a toast. The Realmlord had clearly already backed Qin Wentian and they knew that the Lifire Empyrean would soon try his best to pull Qin Wentian closer to him. Hence, they didn't feel any hesitation to express their goodwill now.

"Grand Governor, please." Qin Wentian replied and toasted him back. After that, Lin Ba came by and toasted him as well. All of them had very respectful attitudes towards Qin Wentian.

Not only so, many major powers of Lifire City also came to show their respect. After exchanging conventional greetings, many of them expressed their goodwill and acted in a very friendly manner.

After the grand banquet today, both Qin Wentian and Di Tian became the most popular characters in Lifire City.

Only the Jialan Monarch had a heavy look on his face as he drank his wine alone in sorrow. He was somewhat pale and had an unsightly expression. Everyone could act friendly with Qin Wentian, except for him.

The Lifire Empyrean had recruited Qin Wentian right from the start. Although he was using him, the empyrean used soft methods and there wasn't too much hatred between them.

Even the Jialan Clan could not be considered to have a grudge with Qin Wentian.

The one who truly had a grudge with Qin Wentian was none other than him, the Jialan Monarch. Because of his daughter Jialan Mingyue, the grudge between them had escalated to a point of no return. Naturally, Qin Wentian and Ye Qianyu had also caused him endless trouble and the lives of many of his descendants. It was impossible to resolve this grudge. But right now, given how outstanding Qin Wentian's performance was, in addition to the fact that the Jialan Clan wanted to sue for peace, and the Realmlord's appreciation of Qin Wentian, all caused the Jialan Monarch to feel increasingly unhappy.

From the looks of things, the Jialan Clan would definitely continue to express their goodwill to Qin Wentian and would no longer offend this transcendent immortal emperor that had gained the recognition of the Lifelong Realmlord.

When he thought of this, he could only sigh and continued drinking his wine down, cup by cup.

Over at the Jialan Clan's area, the spiritual character of the Jialan Clan, Jialan Jiangshan, had already understood the origins of the grudge between their Jialan Clan and Qin Wentian. He transmitted his voice to Jialan Yuntian, "Do everything you can to mend the relationship between our clan and Qin Wentian."

Chapter 1631: Palace Lords of the Gemini Palace

After the grand banquet, everyone dispersed.

The palace lords of the nine world palaces still had things to handle and they remained in the Lifelong Saint Hall. They still needed to pass the hundred-year worth of tax contribution of their territories up to the Lifelong Saint Hall to account for it.

The world palace lords then arranged for temporary residences to allow their subordinates to stay. The location of the temporary residences for each world palace lords were the same every year. The monarchs and governors would naturally follow their respective palace lords. As for those from the major powers of the nine world palaces' territories, they could only book rooms to stay at inns throughout Lifelong City.

Di Tian's original identity was considered an unaffiliated cultivator. But because he was now the Supervisory Commander of the Lifire Palace, he could be considered an official of the Lifelong Realm. The Lifire Empyrean personally invited him to come along and Di Tian naturally wouldn't reject it. The people of the Jialan Clan had some worry in their eyes as they glanced at Di Tian. They were worried that the friendship they painstakingly built up with Di Tian, might be destroyed by the Lifire Empyrean. Before Di Tian left, Jialan Qiuyue even shot a few glances filled with hidden bitterness at Di Tian.

Qin Wentian initially wanted to look for Ye Qianyu but Ye Qianyu was brought away by the maidens of the Red Dust Immortal Palace. They still had to wait for the Realamlord to sentence her. Although the Realmlord had spoken earlier, saying that she would temporarily serve as a maid at the Lifelong Saint Hall, the Red Dust Immortal Palace still had to give the Lifelong Realmlord an explanation why they would produce a bandit among their ranks.

The Lifelong Saint Hall was very vast, each of the world palace lords had a temporary imperial residence of their own. The Lifire Empyrean brought the monarchs and governors under him over there along with Di Tian.

Inside the great hall, the Lifire Empyrean sat in the host seat and smiled at Di Tian and Qin Wentian. "The battles today allowed Supervisory Commander Di Tian and Governor Qin Wentian to display your prowess, gaining much face for my Lifire Palace. As the palace lord, I naturally also feel gratitude and pride in my heart."

"This is what subordinate ought to do." Qin Wentian humbly replied.

"Palace lord is too serious." Di Tian calmly replied in a neither servile nor overbearing manner.

"The Lifelong Realm is extremely vast and major powers can be found anywhere. In the future, no matter where the both of you want to go, my Lifire Palace will be the shield protecting you and a home that both of you can return to anytime you want." The Lifire Empyrean smiled. He then continued, "It's the same for all of you as well, you are all representing the Lifire Palace."

"Yes, Palace Lord." Everyone nodded. This Lifire Empyrean was trying to win over people's hearts. However, his words were true, there are definitely many connections between different major powers. Even if they were selected by the Lifelong Saint Hall in the future and come here to work, they would still be representing the Lifire Palace. Unless of course, they managed to become the trusted aide of the Lifelong Realmlord one day. Only at that time, would they be completely able to toss aside their past."

"Di Tian, I've already heard about events of the past. Xia Hou took the initiative to create trouble for your Emperor Pavilion. After that, I sent Fairy Purple Moon to the central city regions to smooth things over, making Xia Hou settle it. Purple Moon should have gone to your Emperor Pavilion, right?" The Lifire Empyrean asked Di Tian. Di Tian glanced at the Purple Moon Immortal Emperor standing beside the Lifire Empyrean as he smiled and nodded, "Mhm, I have to thank palace lord for helping me out with that matter."

"This is something I ought to do. Xia Hou, you will be comrades with Di Tian in the future, quickly apologize for what happened in the past." The Lifire Empyrean commanded. Xia Hou's expression stiffened. Earlier, he had already bowed his head to Qin Wentian. Now, he was commanded to apologize to Di Tian? He had completely lost all face.

One must know that Xia Hou was an extremely arrogant individual. This point could be seen from how domineering his attitude was towards Di Tian and Qin Wentian in the past. But now, these two people whom he had offended before, became dazzling individuals which he couldn't afford to antagonize. He had to apologize to them both. One could very well imagine how difficult it must be for him.

However, he had no choice. The Lifire Empyrean had already given the order and he could only turn to Di Tian and said, "Grandmaster Di. I, Xia Hou, have offended you in the past. If there's a chance to, I will host a banquet and invite you over to properly apologize for my actions. Please don't hold it against me."

"Since palace lord has spoken, I naturally wouldn't hold it against you. As for holding a banquet, just forget about it." Di Tian calmly replied, not giving Xia Hou any face at all. The him right now truly need not give Xia Hou any face. The Lifelong Realmlord had personally conferred the title of Supervisory Commander to him, he could supervise all the governors and monarchs and report their misdeeds upwards. These people would be rushing over to form good relationships with him, he didn't need to do anything. Even the Lifire Empyrean could do nothing to him.

Xia Hou's countenance froze but the Lifire Empyrean didn't seem to hear Di Tian's hidden meaning. He nodded, "Di Tian, in the future when you expand your Emperor Pavilion in Lifire City, just come to the Lifire Palace to look for me for help directly if you need any. I'll naturally do my best to aid you."

"Many thanks, Palace Lord." Di Tian clasped his hands to the Lifire Palace Lord while coldly laughing in his heart. This Lifire Empyrean would be wary of Qin Wentian because of Ye Qianyu. But with regards to Di Tian, the Lifire Empyrean would try his best to recruit him, attempting to pull him away from the Jialan Clan.

Some things were enough by not overdoing it. The Lifire Empyrean naturally wouldn't lower himself too much. He exchanged some conventional greetings with Di Tian and Qin Wentian and released everyone soon after that.

As they were exiting, Qin Wentian intentionally walked together with the Jialan Monarch as he spoke softly, "Jialan, be more careful in the future."

After speaking, he increased his speed and walked away. The Jialan Monarch's expression froze, staring at Qin Wentian's back as an ugly look appeared on his face. This was blatantly threatening him.

After returning to his temporary residence, there was actually someone here to look for him. This person was a female at the immortal emperor realm and had an outstanding demeanor.

"Governor Qin." The female greeted with a smile. Qin Wentian puzzledly asked, "Fairy, you are?"

"I'm someone from the Gemini World Palace, a serving maiden of the two Gemini Empyreans. My palace lords are sending me to issue an invitation for you to head there." The serving maiden laughed. Qin Wentian had a bewildered look on his face, he then asked, "The Gemini palace lords? What are they inviting me for?"

"Maybe our palace lords admires Governor Qin because of the talent you displayed. They naturally wouldn't do anything to harm Governor Qin." The serving maiden smiled. Qin Wentian nodded. This place was the Lifelong Saint Hall. Regardless, it wouldn't matter if he went there.

"Right, can Fairy please lead the way then." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Governor Qin, please." That serving maiden gestured. After that, the two of them soared through the air and came to the temporary imperial residence of the Gemini Palace Lords located in the Lifelong Saint Hall.

In a certain courtyard, within a pavilion, two figures could be seen playing chess there. Other than them, there was another serving maiden at the immortal emperor level. When she saw Qin Wentian had arrived, she smiled, "Palace lords, Governor Qin is already here. We will take our leave first."

"Mhm." The two palace lords nodded. The two serving maidens retreated and at this moment, one of the palace lords waved his hand as a formless energy covered this entire courtyard, blocking out the probing of immortal senses.

"Sit." The two palace lords of the Gemini Palace were still playing chess as they spoke to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian walked over to the chess board, glancing at it and realised that both the white and black chess pieces were equal, no one was having an advantage. He then sat down at the side and quietly watched. He didn't interject to ask any questions.

The two palace lords continued with their game of chess. After some time, one of them suddenly asked, "Qin Wentian, where do you come from?"

Qin Wentian started. He stared at the palace lord and replied, "This junior comes from Lifire City."

"I'm asking about your origins." That palace lord continued. Qin Wentian's immeasurably deep eyes flashed with a strange light but he soon managed to mask it. He replied, "Junior doesn't understand the meaning of why palace lord is asking me this question?"

"Have you heard of Emperor Yi?" The two palace lords stopped playing chess and both were staring at Qin Wentian. At this moment, Qin Wentian felt an enormous pressure boring down on him. At the same time, his heart pounded rapidly, as he stared at the two palace lords, stunned.

Emperor Yi? They actually asked if he had heard of Emperor Yi.

The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, City of Ancient Emperors, Ancient Emperor Yi?

"Ancient Emperor Yi?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as he asked.

"Ancient Emperor?" The two palace lords started, mutually exchanging glances before they broke out into laughter. "Maybe it's because of the time difference. Right now, do you all refer to him as Ancient Emperor Yi?"

Qin Wentian also started. That's right, this era of theirs naturally referred to Emperor Yi as Ancient Emperor Yi. Were these two palace lords people of the same era with him? If this was the case, it was naturally impossible for them to refer to him as 'Ancient Emperor,' they would only refer to him as Emperor Yi.

"How did the two of you find out?" Qin Wentian asked.

"That final buddha gigantic palm imprint must have been augmented and reinforced by God's Hand, right?" One of the palace lords asked. Right now, Qin Wentian no longer had any more doubts. Seems like the two palace lords have already seen through it.

"Palace lords, who are you two to Emperor Yi?" Qin Wentian asked. His eyes stared at them, could it be one of them is Ancient Emperor Yi?

"Our surname is Qi." The two of them replied simultaneously.

Qin Wentian abruptly stood up. Lightning flashed through his mind. Their surname was Qi? This surname wasn't strange at all. But if he linked Ancient Emperor Yi to the Qi Clan and God's Hand… There was a significant meaning to it.

"I've been to a place with three giant bronze gates. I opened them and entered." Qin Wentian still didn't dare to divulge anything easily. He still had a trace of wariness in his heart. His words already contained a clear enough hint.

"In that case, shouldn't the two of us pay our respects to you, the Saint Lord of this generation?" The two of them laughed, staring at Qin Wentian, causing great waves to rise in Qin Wentian's heart.

Surnamed Qi, God's Hand, Emperor Yi.

Everything pointed to a single place - the Battle Saint Tribe!

"Seniors, both of you are too serious." A smile filled with sincerity appeared on Qin Wentian's face. He didn't expect to encounter people from the Battle Saint Tribe here.

"In that case, you are really Emperor Yi's successor?" The two palace lords asked.

"Mhm, junior managed to learn God's Hand due to a stroke of fate and a series of coincidental events and entered the place where the Battle Saint Tribe is staying in. I'm the Saint Lord of the Battle Saint Tribe of this generation." Qin Wentian admitted. He then asked, "Is senior Emperor Yi somewhere here too as well?"

"Have you heard of the two of us before?" The Gemini Palace Lords asked.

"Mhm, I heard that seniors are the disciples of a World Overlord. It's rumored that that World Overlord is a good friend of the Lifelong Realmlord. In that case, is Emperor Yi that World Overlord?" Qin Wentian asked.

The palace lords smiled and nodded, "However, the rumors spreading outside are mixed with truth and falsehoods. Emperor Yi might not really be a good friend of the Lifelong Realmlord. In any case, I noticed that Di Tian's attacks also contained a trace of God's Hand's essence but I'm unable to be sure. Is there a connection between you two?"

Chapter 1632: Conflict

Qin Wentian started. Di Tian's final attack was also something augmented by God's Hand but it appeared more like a sealing-attributed palm from it's external look. For people who were unfamiliar with God's Hand, they wouldn't be able to tell for sure. However, the Gemini Palace Lords were both experts from the Battle Saint Tribe, how could they be unable to tell?

God's Hand is basically a technique born from the Battle Saint Art of the Battle Saint Tribe. This must be the reason why they could see through it so clearly.

"Senior's vision is as blazing as torches. Di Tian and I are twins. There's naturally no need for me to hide the fact that I've cultivated the God's Hand from him. The two of us are both Saint Lords of this generation. Because we are worried that we might encounter danger here in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, we decided to conceal our identities and act separately. In this case, even if something happens to one of us, the other still could take revenge. Seniors, please help me to keep this a secret."

Qin Wentian spoke. He didn't reveal the fact about Di Tian was his avatar. He still needed to keep this a secret. If it wasn't for the two palace lords being a part of the Battle Saint Tribe, he wouldn't even have admitted to the slightest connection between him and Di Tian.

"No wonder." The two palace lords nodded, not suspecting his words at all. Qin Wentian and Di Tian's law attributes were completely different so no one would suspect that they are one and the same. They actually trusted Qin Wentian's words even more.

"Don't worry, we will naturally not leak this matter now. Is the Battle Saint Tribe still doing well? Are there people who followed you to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?"

"The Battle Saint Tribe is still doing well. As to why I came here, it was all due to a series of fortunate events and the Battle Saint Tribe didn't follow me over. They are still in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms." Qin Wentian slowly spoke. "Oh, seniors. If I wish to return to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, how can I do so?"

"Given your current cultivation base, it's very difficult for you to directly breakthrough the barrier between realms. In addition, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms are sealed away, so it is different compared to the other immortal realms. There should be teleportation arrays in the superpowers here but it's very troublesome for you if you want to return now given your current strength." Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, feeling some disappointment. It seems that it wouldn't be easy for him to return to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

"I still need to tell you one thing. The Lifelong Realmlord should be able to see that you used God's Hand as well. He might not be able to discover that Di Tian was using it, but your attacks were too obvious. Saint Lord, I mean Emperor Yi, he had used God's Hand before the Lifelong Realmlord before. You won't be able to hide from him. Hence, you have to be prepared that the Lifelong Realmlord might not put you in an important position and use you. But as for your twin Di Tian, the chances of him being placed in an important position is much higher."

Qin Wentian's expression turned heavy. Seems like the relationship between the Lifelong Realmlord and Emperor Yi was somewhat unusual. It wasn't as good as the rumors had said.

"In that case, what about Ye Qianyu?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed.

"He might have intentionally made her stay in the Lifelong Saint Hall but you don't need to worry too much. There won't be any danger to her. The Lifelong Realmlord upon seeing you using God's Hand, would definitely assume that you are someone personally nurtured by the Saint Lord and was sent here by him to temper yourself. Although he wouldn't place you in an important position, he also wouldn't suppress you. Unless of course, your growth had reached a stage that's threatening to him. In that case, he might try something." The palace lords smiled.

Qin Wentian nodded. That's right, out of the nine world palaces, one of the world palaces already belonged to Emperor Yi. He didn't hide the fact about God's Hand when in the competition, the Realmlord would definitely think that he is a successor nurtured by Emperor Yi. It was impossible for him to place a successor of a World Overlord in an important position in his Lifelong Realm. If not, would this realm be the Realm that belong to the Lifelong Realmlord, or the realm that belong to Ancient Emperor Yi?

Since he didn't hide the fact that he was using God's Hand, the Lifelong Realmlord would assume that he was someone arranged by Emperor Yi to come here but he wouldn't do anything too drastic.

Upon thinking of this, a strange look appeared on Qin Wentian's face. He didn't expect using God's Hand would lead to such a complicated result.

"Haha, do you feel gloomy?" The two palace lords laughed.

Qin Wentian bitterly smiled and shook his head, "I didn't expect this at all."

One of the palace lords stretched his hand out and patted Qin Wentian on his shoulder. "We will inform Saint Lord about your matter but we have no idea where he is now exactly as he is roaming the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. We will send a message to him. If you encounter any trouble in the future, you can come to us."

After speaking, he took out his messaging crystal. Qin Wentian took out his as well. The three of them then left a trace of their immortal senses on each other's crystals, it would be easier to communicate in the future.

After chatting for awhile more, Qin Wentian departed and returned to his own temporary residence to rest.

At the second day, the individual world palace lords brought along their serving maidens and went to the Realmlord to make their reports. Qin Wentian and the others continued to stay in the temporary palaces.

Qin Wentian, who had his eyes closed currently in meditation, suddenly heard some noise. He sent out his immortal sense and then stood up. His silhouette flashed and an instant later, he appeared outside the residence of Beauty Xiao. Right now, many people had barged in, and the one leading them was actually none other than Xiao Yu, the governor of the Lifelong City's northern city regions.

Other than them, plenty of the Lifire Palace's monarchs and governors came here as well. Upon seeing the situation here, there no longer was a charming smile on Beauty Xiao's face. A look of cold stubbornness could be seen instead as she stared at Xiao Yu's group of people.

"I'm ultimately still a governor of the Lifire Palace. By forcefully barging in, do you know the rules or not?" Beauty Xiao icily spoke.

"We are here to visit a junior of our clan, the Lifire Empyrean won't have any objections." An elder behind Xiao Yu walked out and coldly stared at Beauty Xiao.

"Who is your junior?" Beauty Xiao icily shot back.

"You don't even want to acknowledge your ancestor?" That elder's eyes gleamed with a cold light. "I heard that your actions in Lifire City are completely unrestrained, behaving wantonly, acting like a slut. You might not feel embarrassed, but our Xiao Clan of the Sword Spirit Sect cannot afford to lose such face."

The Sword Spirit Sect was considered a sect, that was also a clan as well. Right now, two major clans were in control of the Sword Spirit Sect and one of them was precisely none other than the Xiao Clan. However, the Sword Spirit Sect also wouldn't reject others who had different surnames if they wanted to join them.

Beauty Xiao of the Lifire Palace was precisely someone from the Xiao Clan of the Sword Spirit Sect.

Qin Wentian had a look of surprise on his face but the other monarchs and governors of Lifire City didn't look surprised. Evidently, they all knew about this.

"I have long severed all relationships between me and the Xiao Clan. There's no need for you guys to care about what I am doing." Beauty Xiao coldly spoke.

"Slut." Xiao Yu coldly spat, his tone extremely sharp. "Back then when the clan arranged a marriage for you, you refused to comply and insisted on following that trash. The clan did you a favor and killed that trash. Everything the clan did, it was for your own good. Who would have thought that you became such a cheap slut now and had completely thrown the face of our Xiao Clan. You actually even dared to not admit to this?"

Beauty Xiao's expression turned ashen. She stared at Xiao Yu, "Considering our position in the family hierarchy, I'm your elder. You dare to speak to me like this?"

"For such a lot, how can you be fit to be my elder?" Xiao Yu radiated coldness, stepping out as though he was about to attack Beauty Xiao.

"This place is the Lifelong Saint Hall, you dare?!" Beauty Xiao's expression changed.

"Even if you want to sever your relations with the Xiao Clan, the Realmlord won't say anything if we want to discipline an unfilial member of our clan." Xiao Yu icily spoke. He stretched his palm out, forming a gigantic palm imprint that radiated sharpness which blasted towards Beauty Xiao. Beauty Xiao's expressions changed, she stabbed out with a finger attack to defend. They actually started to exchange blows here.

Although both were governors, their strength level was clearly different. After all, Beauty Xiao was a governor of Lifire City and Xiao Yu was a genius governor of Lifelong City. Numerous collisions occurred, but Beauty Xiao was clearly at a disadvantage. A few moments later, the ringing sound of a slap rang out. Beauty Xiao was directly knocked to the ground as traces of blood could be seen at the corners of her lips.

"My Xiao Clan originally should have crippled you. But seeing that you are a governor of the Lifire Palace, we can expel you from the clan if you kneel down and apologize and accept three blows from me. After that, your actions would no longer concern our Xiao Clan, you can be as cheap as you want to." Xiao Yu coldly spoke as he stepped forward.

"Impudent." A glacial voice rang out. Because Beauty Xiao was someone of the Xiao Clan, Qin Wentian initially didn't want to get involved. After all, it was considered their Xiao Clan's internal matters. But now, it was clear that the Xiao Clan came here purposely to humiliate Beauty Xiao. He truly could no longer stand it.

When Xiao Yu saw Qin Wentian, his expression turned extremely ugly. "Why, is an outsider like you planning to interfere with the matters of my Xiao Clan?"

Qin Wentian blinked and a terrifying sword intent instantly gushed forth, shooting straight towards Xiao Yu's eyes. He took a step forward and slammed out with his palm. Xiao Yu's aura exploded outwards as his own sword intent gushed forth, colliding with Qin Wentian's. With a thunderous bang, his body was blasted back from the impact.

"What are you doing?" An expert of the Sword Spirit Sect icily spoke as he glared at Qin Wentian.

"Coming to our Lifire Palace's temporary quarters to insult one of our governors and considering that this place is still the Lifelong Realm, did you guys place the Realmlord and our Lifire Empyrean in your eyes at all?" Qin Wentian walked to the side of Beauty Xiao as he coldly replied.

"This is an internal matter of our Xiao Clan." An old man growled.

"She has already said that she severed all relations with the Xiao Clan. Also, didn't you guys say that you wanted to expel her? Since this is the case, it's clear that you all came here specifically to insult her, a governor of the Lifire Palace." Qin Wentian coldly spoke.

"Seeing how this slut leaned against him yesterday. and how protective he is of her, I wonder if there's anything sordid between them." One of the experts from the Xiao Clan spoke. The Sword Spirit Sect felt no goodwill at all towards Qin Wentian. He defeated Xiao Yu and embarrassed him. How could they feel any goodwill towards him?

"And? So what of it?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed. He helped Beauty Xiao up and wrapped his arm around her waist, causing her body to tremble slightly as she inclined her head and looked at his handsome features.

"You guys are so interested in my private matters?" Qin Wentian threatened. "Don't say that I didn't warn you. If there's anyone who still dares to insult or humiliate her, don't blame me for not being polite."

"Not being polite? How impolite can you be?" Xiao Yu sneered as killing intent radiated from him.

"Whatever you do to her, I'll return it to you double." Qin Wentian similarly radiated a cold killing intent.

"When you stepped out for Ye Qianyu, I still thought how deep and profound your love for her was. To think that you would also want such a slut." Xiao Yu laughed loudly.

Beauty Xiao turned pale after Xiao Yu spoke. She glanced at Qin Wentian but there was no change to Qin Wentian's expression. He merely barked, "Scram."

Xiao Yu and his group all had ugly looks on their faces. After that, they looked coldly at Qin Wentian and said, "Let's hope Governor Qin will still dare to protect her in the future."

After speaking, the people of the Xiao Clan flicked their sleeves and departed.

Chapter 1633: Summons

After the people of the Sword Spirit Sect left, the Lifire Palace's monarchs and governors glanced at Qin Wentian and Beauty Xiao. When did these two get together?

"Governor Qin not only managed to gain fame, you even gained a beauty." Yin Qiu spoke in a strange tone. Upon seeing Beauty Xiao pressing her body into Qin Wentian, he felt a sense of discomfort. He had been pursuing this vixen for many years but Qin Wentian had succeeded where he failed?

"We are all comrades yet you are actually willing to stand by the side and watch Governor Xiao being humiliated? No wonder you failed to win her heart despite so many years." Qin Wentian coldly mocked. Beauty Xiao then shifted her body away and bowed to Qin Wentian, "Thanks for helping me out."

"That's what I ought to do." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The other monarchs and governors of the Lifire Palace stiffened. Could it be that there's no relationship between Qin Wentian and Beauty Xiao? Qin Wentian only acted to uphold justice?

"Governor, let's go to my courtyard for a while." Beauty Xiao gently smiled. After that, she coldly glanced at the others gathered here. The others all revealed smiles on their faces before walking away in an embarrassed manner. Even Yin Qiu had no choice but to leave unhappily.

"Thank you, really." Beauty Xiao softly spoke after they entered the courtyard.

"It's fine." Qin Wentian shifted his gaze away as he replied.

Beauty Xiao suddenly smiled charmingly when she saw Qin Wentian's expression. She removed the outer layer of her clothing, Qin Wentian couldn't help but start when he looked back at her and only saw a transparent inner-wear covering her body. "What are you doing?"

"Take me." Beauty Xiao jumped up, cradling her legs around Qin Wentian's waist while she hugged his head, pressing his head into her bosom.

"Are you mad?" Qin Wentian panted, he inclined his head and stared at Beauty Xiao.

"I know you already have someone in your heart. I wouldn't request you to do anything for me. However, don't reject me." Beauty Xiao lowered her head, her eyes were filled with endless charm, causing Qin Wentian to be speechless. After that, he carried her into her room and they started a 'war' in the bedroom.

After many battles, Qin Wentian went back to the courtyard and sat down. He was in deep contemplation while sighing in his heart. No matter what, something did happen between them once. It was impossible to stand by and watch if somebody wanted to do something to her.

Beauty Xiao's sexy body leaned against Qin Wentian, her head rested on his shoulders as she spoke in a low voice. "Do you feel the same way as what the Xiao Clan's people have said about me? Do you think that I'm a slut?"

Without waiting for Qin Wentian to reply, she continued, "Once, I was a young miss of the Xiao Clan, my temperament was dignified and composed. Everything was fine until the Xiao Clan decided to marry me off to a clan I hated very much for the sake of achieving their purposes. Although it's an irony to speak of this, such a method is very commonly seen among major powers. They don't feel anything wrong when they do this. Out of anger, I left my clan alone. During my wanderings, I met a man. That man was in love with my beauty and was very good at sweet-talking. However, he was a weakling and a coward. When my clan caught up to me, he actually knelt and begged them for his life, willing to forsake me. Eventually, my clan killed him but I felt no sadness at all. He might have obtained my body, but he lost his life as the price. What an irony.

"The Xiao Clan captured me back, the people of my clan were as mocking and sarcastic as ever. Even the other clan whom I was forcefully engaged to, was humiliating me for rejecting the marriage arrangement. After that, I decided to become a 'slut' overnight. I broke out and the Xiao Clan and my personality also changed to what you are seeing today. Are they not the ones saying that I'm cheap? I'll show them how cheap I can be then. Since then, there were many men who wanted my body, and an example was Yin Qiu. But I can tell that they only want the thrill of subduing me, using my body for their enjoyment. This is what you men are like. Hence, none of them had ever obtained me. All this lasted until your appearance. You might not believe this but in reality, other than my ex, you are the second man I've given my body to." Beauty Xiao laughed.

"From your tone, you seemed to hate men a lot." Qin Wentian glanced at Beauty Xiao.

"Yup. In this strength-oriented world, males clearly have an advantage over females in cultivation. Also, ever since ancient times, it was normal for men to have three or four wives. They covet beauty, but society deems that nothing is wrong. As long as they have enough power and authority, they can have many beautiful women around them. However, what if a woman was to act the same way? She would instantly be labelled as a slut. Don't you think that this is unfair?"

Qin Wentian was speechless. The truth was truly as such. An example was Xiao Yu, he was the number one governor of the northern city regions in Lifelong City, and wasn't he surrounded by beauties who were young misses of aristocrat clans? Regardless of the Lifire Empyrean or Lifelong Realmlord, they had no lack of beauties by their side and the women following them all had talent and beauty, as well as backgrounds.

Was this fair? Or was this unfair? The society's norms in the world they lived in, was precisely this.

"You are different from them. For those I seduced before, none could resist my charm. You are truly different." Beauty Xiao laughed.

"Are you mocking me?" Qin Wentian felt some guilt in his heart. How was he different from them?

"You know I'm not. I'm very confident in my own charm, even for those who had many supreme beauties around them, as long as I take the initiative to seduce them, they would definitely be tempted. After all, all men have their needs. Yet, you actually managed to resist me so many times." Beauty Xiao smiled gently. "Although you eventually succumbed, you still managed to hold your desires in many times. Also, other than you, I've met one more person who was able to resist my charms."

"Who?" Qin Wentian asked.

"That man is the same as you, he also gained fame in this grand banquet. I'm talking about Di Tian." Beauty Xiao smiled as she looked at Qin Wentian's handsome features. "The two of you are actually quite similar in many aspects."

"Like what?" Qin Wentian casually asked.

"I can't spell it out clearly but it's just a kind of feeling. For some reason, I feel that the two of you seem to have a connection. It's like you are both the same person but that is clearly not possible." Beauty Xiao laughed. However, her words caused Qin Wentian's heart to tremble. Beauty Xiao had interacted closely with him and Di Tian before and she actually sensed something between them. The instinct of a woman was truly fearsome.

"Enough, you should go. You've stayed for too long, if you stay any longer, people might wonder what are we doing in here exactly!" Beauty Xiao's soul-stirring eyes stared at Qin Wentian. Her alluring body stood up, she walked over and helped Qin Wentian to tidy his clothes before she dressed up. "Let me send you out."

Qin Wentian was somewhat speechless as he stood up. Before he left, Beauty Xiao transmitted her voice to him, "In the future, I'll only seduce you alone."

...

The world palace lords returned from their meeting with the Realmlord. After that, they respectively departed, heading back to their respective world palaces.

The Lifire Empyrean, Qin Wentian and the others all returned to Lifire City too. Before he left, Qin Wentian still didn't manage to get a chance to meet with Ye Qianyu and Ye Qianyu's messaging crystal seemed to have been confiscated after she was sent to the Lifire Jail. Qin Wentian could only send her a one-way message, telling her to wait for him. He needed more time.

After the people of the nine world palaces left, on a vast platform in the Lifelong Saint Hall, the Lifelong Realmlord was enjoying wine as he sat there. There were many beautiful serving maidens around him serving him as well.

Up ahead, a group of beautiful women came over and bowed, "Us maidens of the Red Dust Immortal Palace, pay our respects to the Realmlord."

"Mhm." The Lifelong Realmlord nodded, he inclined his head and glanced at Ye Qianyu. "In the future, you will temporarily become a maid of the Lifelong Saint Hall for now."

"Yes, Realmlord." Ye Qianyu bowed.

"Before this, you danced at the grand banquet. Perform that dance again for me." The Lifelong Realmlord casually spoke. Ye Qianyu's expression stiffened as her countenance paled. She spoke in a low voice, "Realmlord…"

The Realmlord frowned as a formless pressure radiated forth in an instant. He looked at Ye Qianyu, his expression as calm as ever, there were no fluctuations in his eyes.

"If you are unwilling, I won't force you." The Realmlord calmly spoke.

"Qianyu." The Red Dust Immortal Palace's maidens all turned their gazes to her.

Ye Qianyu saw the gazes of her fellow sisters. She sighed in her heart before she glanced at the transcendent demeanor the Lifelong Realmlord was projecting.

He was, after all, the major character here. So what if Qin Wentian had a dazzling performance? Could she still not gain any respect?

Upon thinking of the message Qin Wentian sent her via immortal sense, Ye Qianyu's expression gradually changed.

Abruptly, her beautiful eyes flashed with a radiant smile. The her at this moment was filled with boundless charm.

"Yes, Realmlord." Ye Qianyu charmingly laughed, causing the Lifelong Realmlord's eyes to flash. After that, he watched as that alluring figure of Ye Qianyu shifted in different positions, performing that beautiful dance for him. Each of her movements were filled with endless glamor. The smile never left her beautiful eyes, which increased her alluringness. However, her state of heart was as calm as water, as cold as ice.

Regardless of the Lifelong Realmlord or the Lifire Empyrean, they would both sooner or later pay a price for underestimating Qin Wentian. It has only been a few tens of years and the Lifire Empyrean already felt threatened. In the future, it would be the same for the Lifelong Realmlord as well.

At this moment, a subordinate came by. He walked towards the Realmlord and bowed, "These are all the information records sent by the Lifire Palace."

"Mhm." The Realmlord nodded lightly, shifting his eyes from Ye Qianyu. He flipped through the records but very soon, a puzzled look could be seen in his eyes.

Beiming Youhuang? Qin Wentian and her were fellow martial apprentice siblings?

Since that was the case, what relationship did Beiming Youhuang have with Emperor Yi? Could she also be one of his successors?"

If she really is one of Emperor Yi's successors, how could she have been forced by the Jialan Monarch to such dire straits then? Or was it because Emperor Yi told both her and Qin Wentian to temper themselves outside without relying on his help?

As he flipped through the information records, the suspicion in the Lifelong Realmlord's heart grew even deeper. After he finished, Ye Qianyu has also ended her dance. The Realmlord spoke to his subordinate, "Send a message to the Lifire Palace Lord. Get him to send Beiming Youhuang to the Lifelong Saint Hall."

"Yes." That subordinate bowed and retreated.

The Lifelong Realmlord then turned his glance at Ye Qianyu and the maidens of the Red Dust Immortal Palace. All of you will temporarily become maids of the Lifelong Saint Hall to pay for her crimes. Be prepared for my summons."

"Yes." None of them dared to object. All of them bowed and watched as the Lifelong Realmlord stood up and left. After he left, a bright light flashed in Ye Qianyu's eyes as she stared at the horizons. The man whom she was waiting for, when would he be able to prop up this entire sky?

Chapter 1634: Settling Scores

In Lifire City, when Qin Wentian and the others returned, news of what happened in Lifelong City also had already circulated around.

Grandmaster Di Tian showed extraordinary talent, obtaining first in the martial competition with his mid-stage immortal emperor cultivation base. The Realmlord personally rewarded him heavily, from now on, the Emperor Pavilion can expand as it wished through the Lifelong Territories and had no need to pay tax. Di Tian was also given the position of the supervisory commander.

When this news spread, the entire Lifire City was rocked by it. Everyone knew that from now on, the Emperor Pavilion's rise was inevitable. No one would dare to obstruct it.

Those who once doubted Di Tian's strength, all felt extremely ashamed. As for those who supported Di Tian from the start, they were off boasting about their intelligence to all their friends. There were even people who took the incident of Liu Feibai challenging Di Tian and mocked Liu Feibai for overestimating himself. An ant-like him even dared to challenge Grandmaster Di Tian? He wasn't even worthy enough to carry the shoes for Di Tian. All sorts of ugly words could be heard, the genius Liu Feibai had lost face completely, and was being humiliated wherever he went, becoming the bad guy in the story.

At the same time, many major powers went to the Emperor Pavilion to visit, preparing to build up a good relationship with Grandmaster Di. However, the Emperor Pavilion soon sent out the news that Di Tian would organize a banquet and would invite everyone there.

Other than this, the other person who rose to fame, was none other than the northern governor Qin Wentian. That magnificent white-robed governor fought one man against eight other experts, even duelling against two during the last battle, helping the Lifire Palace to regain its face. His magnificence truly knew no bounds and his fame shook the heavens.

However, after his return to Lifire City, Governor Qin was as low-profile as ever, staying inside his governor's manor and not meeting with any guests.

Di Tian and Qin Wentian, became the legendary characters of Lifire City.

Today, inside the central city regions, the Emperor Pavilion hosted a banquet and invited the major powers from all regions. Even many experts from the governor manors were invited. For example, Lin Ba from the Eastern Governor Manor, Beauty Xiao from the Southern Governor Manor, Yin Qiu from the Western Governor Manor and even Grand Governor Zhuge Xiong. Only two governors weren't here. The first was Qin Wentian from the Northern Governor Manor, he was someone as outstanding as Di Tian. Many people guessed that Qin Wentian didn't see the need to give Di Tian face as he was not weaker than Di Tian.

There were also some that said both of them were too competitive and wanted to see who was superior. Both were absolute geniuses and weren't willing to accept that the other was better than him. Hence, Di Tian didn't see the need to invite Qin Wentian.

Naturally, no one could verify all these conjectures. Also, another matter was even more interesting. The Central Governor Xia Hou actually wasn't invited.

When thinking back to matters of the past, everyone all had thought-provoking looks on their faces. Back then, the central governor's manor was riddled with scandalous rumors. Everyone knew that Governor Xia Hou wanted to act against the Emperor Pavilion. Right now, Grandmaster Di Tian was the one smacking Xia Hou's face.

The banquet was already prepared and the place was filled to the brim. Not only were the experts from the central city regions here, all the major powers from all regions in Lifire City rushed here today. After all, it was easy to predict that the Emperor Pavilion's future was boundless, the Realmlord has already spoken. In addition to Di Tian's strength and capabilities of weaponsmithing, it was hard to imagine a situation where the Emperor Pavilion doesn't rise to the heavens.

Today, the people of the Mo Clan were extremely excited. The Mo Clan Leader Mo Ting, personally led his clan here. Mo Ting and his daughter Mo Junyi, as well as the Mo Clan Elder, Mo Fei, would definitely be in the seats of honor at the upper level today. After all, everyone knew that the Mo Clan had supported Di Tian right from the start, even sending Mo Junyi and Mo Fei to serve as employees for the Emperor Pavilion. Now that Grandmaster Di Tian has finally risen to glory, the Mo Clan would naturally feel proud.

Seeing so many major powers seated below them, Mo Ting's smile was extremely wide. He silently praised himself for having good judgement and making the right decision those years ago. Only sending coal in the midst of winter was valuable. Right now, these people were all adding flowery patterns on a perfect brocade.

Di Tian was seated at the highest level. After the food and wine were served, he raised his cup and toasted the crowd, "I, Di, am truly thankful for everyone showing up here. I would also like to thank Grand Governor Zhuge and the other governors for making time to come here."

"Grandmaster Di is too polite."

"Commander Qin, we are all comrades, there's no need to be so courteous." Lin Ba laughed. As for Beauty Xiao, she merely smiled and didn't attempt to seduce Di Tian. Seems like she was really honoring her promise to Qin Wentian. From now on, she would only seduce Qin Wentian alone.

"Although the Realmlord has personally graced me and granted me the position of the Commanding Supervisor, it's only a position with practically no obligations in reality. My interest is still on developing my Emperor Pavilion. I hope that everyone can help me out in the future." Di Tian, who had his features masked, exuded a sense of mystery. He was robed in black and his entire person radiated sharpness.

"Naturally. Grandmaster Di's Emperor Pavilion was originally a supreme major power. We would all have to count on the Emperor Pavilion instead." Somebody laughed.

"That's right, all the weapons forged by Grandmaster Di are considered an absolute gem. In the future, Grandmaster Di you mustn't stop forging alright? We all really want the chance to buy a treasure forged personally by you in your auctions."

Everyone spoke one after another, their tone extremely polite.

"That's natural. I will definitely continue to forge weapons but the rate at which I will be doing so, will naturally not be as high as before. After all, if one's strength doesn't increase, their dependence on their divine weapons would eventually prove to be their undoing." Di Tian smiled as the others nodded.

"You mean your strength is weak?" Mo Junyi by the side rolled her eyes at Di Tian. Di Tian laughed when he saw the expression on her face.

"Haha, Grandmaster Di is too humble."

Many people turned their gaze to Mo Junyi, some of their eyes gleamed with a bright light as they laughed. "Grandmaster Di and the Mo Clan's princess are truly an ideal couple, a match made in heaven. I can see the tender feelings in Miss Mo's eyes when she looks at Grandmaster Di."

Although this sounded like a joke, it was layered with hidden meaning. As expected, the eyes of the Mo Clan Leader Mo Ting, gleamed with sharpness after he heard that and smiled at the person who spoke.

Mo Junyi blushed and replied, "Everyone, don't tease me please."

"Haha, I truly felt this way." That person spoke half-jokingly. How could Di Tian not understand what these people are thinking about. If he and Mo Junyi really got together, they would definitely express their goodwill towards the Mo Clan and build up better relations.

However, there were also people who were unhappy. These people were from the Jialan Clan. Today, experts from the Jialan Clan also came here to attend the banquet and Jialan Qiuyue was among them.

"Wow, they are truly a heavenly match." A gentle voice rang out. The eyes of everyone turned and saw the flawlessly beautiful face of Jialan Qiuyue. They discovered that Jialan Qiuyue was smiling as she looked at Di Tian. The hint of a pout could be seen in her eyes, and this scene caused everyone to be shocked. The person who spoke earlier felt his heart trembling. He hurriedly smiled and replied, "I must have drunk too much and was just making a joke earlier. Please don't mind me."

Just as his voice faded, the Mo Clan instantly shot cold looks at him, causing this person to perspire cold sweat. Right now, he wanted nothing more than to find a hole and bury himself inside. This boot-licker made wrong moves everywhere. What a contrived scene. Who would have thought that the young miss of the Jialan Clan would actually be in love with Grandmaster Di as well. If he knew about this, he definitely wouldn't have dared to say that sentence earlier no matter how audacious he was. The Jialan Clan was a clan he couldn't afford to offend.

Many people felt their hearts shaking, Grandmaster Di was truly hot property. There are so many peak beauties wanting to chase after him and were all with high statuses.

Right now, the princess of the Jialan Clan and the princess of the Mo Clan, exchanged glances with each other. Sparks seemingly appeared as they matched gaze as the atmosphere turned tensed. Di Tian actually has such luck…

Di Tian was sweating as well. He softly coughed, "Right now, the Emperor Pavilion is still in its development phase. As for matters of the heart, I, Di, shall put it aside first and won't consider it in the near future."

As the sound of his voice faded, two pair of eyes filled with hidden resentment stared at him in unison. Di Tian sweated even more as he silently asked himself this. Were the beautiful females of this generation all less and less reserved?

In truth, one couldn't blame Jialan Qiuyue and Mo Junyi being not so 'reserved'. They also wanted to maintain the 'reservedness' females should have but they encountered a love rival. One should know jealousy was the emotion that would motivate most women. How would they be willing to appear weak in front of each other? Hence, they were not reserved at all in this situation.

"Seems like Grandmaster Di is destined to be blessed with many wives." Many people had a meaningful look in their eyes as they stared at Di Tian.

For truly outstanding men, there would naturally be many beauties willing to take the initiative.

Di Tian pretended not to have noticed the gazes of the two beauties. He continued and speak, "I'm sure everyone here knows a little about the development of my Emperor Pavilion. In the past, my Emperor Pavilion encountered many calamities and troubles and was almost shut down. Even though the danger has passed, I, Di, still feels fear when thinking about it now."

When the crowd heard Di Tian's words, their eyes suddenly flashed. Their attitudes all turned serious. What did Di Tian mean by saying all this now?

"Back then, it was precisely in the central city regions where I started the Emperor Pavilion. However, when I tried to develop, I was obstructed by many mysterious powers. The experts who bought treasures from my auction house and transaction grounds were all plundered, and they encountered all sorts of trouble. At that period of time, my customers were all panicking, causing the popularity of my Emperor Pavilion to dip. One must know that the Emperor Pavilion then was just a recently established business but was paying the same tax as first-tier powers. Yet, the governor's manor couldn't even investigate anything."

Di Tian's tone turned solemn. The governors here all had sharp expressions. What was Di Tian trying to do by mentioning this?

"Later on, although this matter was resolved. something still felt fishy. Who were the mysterious powers that acted against my Emperor Pavilion?" Di Tian's tone gradually sharpened. "Those powers used sinister and underhanded methods to act against my Emperor Pavilion and naturally would do the same in the future to other businesses too. This is extremely detrimental to the economic development of our Lifire City. Now that I received the love and grace of the Realmlord and became the Supervisory Commander, I'm prepared to investigate fully with regards to this. What do you all think?"

The hearts of everyone trembled. Di Tian brought up the point of him being graced by the Realmlord twice and became the Supervisory Commander. It was clear that he was showing off his backing, telling everyone that he is someone who belonged to the Realmlord.

Right now, this Grandmaster Di who had risen up, wanted to settle scores in the past. He was prepared for revenge the instant he came back, not wanting to waste any time.

The eyes of Zhuge Xiong and the other governors flashed, they clearly understood in their hearts that this matter didn't simply involve Xia Hou. Di Tian was prepared to get payback for all the grudges in the past? One must know that the Lifire Empyrean had expressed that he hoped for everyone to bury the hatchet. But Di Tian seemed as though he wanted to challenge the Lifire Empyrean's authority!

Chapter 1635: Tyrannical Di Tian

Zhuge Xiong and the others understood that Xia Hou was the mastermind. The others here naturally knew it as well. In addition, other than Governor Xia Hou, quite a few other major powers were involved in this as well and they might be among the crowd currently.

At this moment, many people narrowed their eyes. The lively atmosphere at the banquet abruptly fell silent. It was easy to offend people if one spoke out now. Although no one knew who they would offend, it was certain that those powers involved in the matter, were definitely people with powerful backgrounds.

Di Tian played with his wine cup when he saw this scene. He then smiled, "It's fine that nobody wants to express their stances. It's impossible for me to allow this incident of the past to fade away just like this, I'll definitely get to the very bottom of it. It's only that my Emperor Pavilion is still at its development phase and the forces I can muster are still weak. Hence, I might need to borrow some help from all of you. Is there anyone who is willing to support me and my Emperor Pavilion for this matter?"

"How forceful." Many people silently mused. However, to many people here, this was an opportunity for them to build relations with Di Tian. Hence, although they might offend some people, many people were tempted as they would be able to gain Di Tian's friendship. Now, it would depend on how they would choose.

"My Mo Clan would naturally throw in our full support behind the Emperor Pavilion. Back then, my Mo Clan was also affected by that matter and I feel extremely enraged. Now that Grandmaster Di wants to investigate, I, Mo Ting, will naturally help him out." The Mo Clan Leader directly expressed his stance.

"If Grandmaster Di needs help, my Jialan Clan is also willing to assist." Jialan Qiuyue's father, Jialan Cheng, spoke out. Their Jialan Clan definitely had to maintain their good relationship with Di Tian. Di Tian might very well become the most critical person that would help them in their struggle with the Lifire Empyrean for the position of the Lifire Palace Lord.

"I'm also willing to help." Another person from a major power spoke. After that, more and more people spoke. Even some of those with more ordinary backgrounds in the crowd couldn't help but to give their support when they saw so many major powers speaking up. Almost half of the crowd today directly expressed that they are willing to support Di Tian."

Di Tian had a smile on his face as he looked at everyone. After that, he turned his gaze towards Zhuge Xiong and the other governors as he stated, "Grand Governor Zhuge, I believe you also know that this matter would impact the various governor manors. Hence, I will need your help. I wonder what you all feel about this?"

Zhuge Xiong stared at Di Tian's dark eyes as he felt his heart shuddered. Truthfully, although he was the Grand Governor, he couldn't compare with Di Tian in terms of status. Di Tian basically didn't even need to care about him.

Di Tian has already domineeringly expressed his stance. He will definitely investigate this matter to the end. As for him now asking for their opinions, it was Di Tian wanting them to choose which side to stand on. Would they choose to stand with him, or would they choose to stand with Xia Hou.

If it was just between Di Tian and Xia Hou, it would be easy to make a choice. The critical thing was that they had to consider the Lifire Empyrean's attitude about this too.

Although the Lifire Empyrean didn't publicly express his stance, he did get Xia Hou to apologize when they were back in the Lifelong Saint Hall. Clearly, he wanted everyone to forget about all these unpleasant matters. But now, Di Tian seemed reluctant to forgive and forget and wanted to investigate this to the end. Since this is the case, things are truly troublesome now.

"Commander Di Tian, I personally agree with you. It's just that Xia Hou is ultimately a governor of our Lifire City. I have no idea about the palace lord's attitude. But if you choose not to intentionally target Xia Hou, I can give you information about the other major powers involved." Zhuge Xiong transmitted his voice to Di Tian. Di Tian's eyes gleamed sharply as he mused silently at what a crafty old fox Zhuge Xiong was.

Di Tian didn't care about the voice transmission. He directly opened his mouth and spoke, "Grand Governor, I became the supervisory commander of Lifire City on Realmlord's order. I naturally have to execute my duties. Even if this past incident didn't happen to my Emperor Pavilion but some other businesses instead, I would also definitely investigate clearly. Our Lifire City cannot be allowed to have cancerous cells festering within us. Since I already know about this matter, not investigating it would mean that I have let down the Realmlord's love for me."

Zhuge Xiong silently cursed in his heart. This bastard directly skipped past the Lifire Empyrean and brought out the Realmlord's name once again. Di Tian was truly good at using powerful connections to intimidate people.

In any case, this Di Tian was truly not afraid of the Lifire Empyrean. Back then at the Lifelong Saint Hall's grand banquet, he had already shown how close he was with the Jialan Clan and it was clear that he was now already on their side. Why would Di Tian care about what the Lifire Empyrean thought? The Lifire Empyrean was the one trying to pull Di Tian closer to him instead.

The Realmlord has personally said that as long as Di Tian didn't partake in any act of rebellion, he can do what he wanted to in Lifire City. Nobody would dare to move against him. Not even the Lifire Empyrean would do so.

Right now, he said he wanted to investigate Xia Hou and even brought up the name of the Realmlord, acting in the name of justice. Even if the Lifire Empyrean was here, what could he say? It was impossible that he would choose to offend Di Tian to the death and push him to the Jialan Clan, right?

Zhuge Xiong guessed that most probably, the Lifire Empyrean would allow Di Tian and Xia Hou to do what they want and he wouldn't interfere.

"What do you all think?" Zhuge Xiong glanced at Lin Ba, Beauty Xiao and Yin Qiu. This made Lin Ba and Yin Qiu to curse silently in their hearts. The ball was now in their court.

"I feel that we ought to support Grandmaster Di Tian. Since Grandmaster Di Tian is the supervisory commander, he does have the authority to investigate this matter. In any case, why would us governors of Lifire City have anything to hide?" Lin Ba spoke in a manner that exuded righteousness, causing Zhuge Xiong to feel somewhat surprised. This Lin Ba actually supported Di Tian so much?

However, he understood after thinking deeper into it. Out of the five governors of Lifire City, Qin Wentian was a special existence who already immensely disliked Xia Hou. Other than Qin Wentian, Xia Hou was very powerful, while Lin Ba was slightly below. If Xia Hou falls, Lin Ba's position would instantly be elevated and could also gain Di Tian's friendship. Why would he not support Di Tian? As for Xia Hou, both Di Tian and Qin Wentian wanted to deal with him. He wouldn't last for too long. It didn't matter if he offends him now.

"I also support Grandmaster Di Tian." Beauty Xiao giggled, expressing her stance with no hesitations, shooting glances filled with charm at Di Tian. Zhuge Xiong thought she wanted to seduce Di Tian and didn't feel anything strange about it.

"Hasn't that matter already been brought to a close? Commander Di, there's no need to investigate further, right." Yin Qiu calmly spoke, his tone was still considered friendly. Di Tian's gaze landed on Yin Qiu as he replied, "Since Governor Yin feels this way, please leave my place now. Those who walk different paths, cannot mix together."

Yin Qiu's expression instantly stiffened. He didn't expect Di Tian to be so domineering. His tone was already considered very peaceful, was he being expelled from here just because he didn't agree with Di Tian's opinions?

Zhuge Xiong and the others present were all shocked too. What a domineering Grandmaster Di Tian.

Lin Ba and Beauty Xiao smiled as they looked at Yin Qiu, with hints of sympathy in their eyes. This fellow still couldn't see the situation clearly?

"Commander Di, I'm just…" Yin Qiu instantly felt regret.

"Governor Yin, please." Di Tian waved his hand, not showing any mercy at all. Yin Qiu's mouth twitched, he then stood up and left with a heavy look on his face. One could very well imagine how bad his mood was being expelled like that.

"Although Governor Qin isn't present today, I believe he would definitely agree with me." Di Tian calmly spoke. Zhuge Xiong's eyes flashed. If Di Tian wanted to act against Xia Hou, Qin Wentian would naturally agree too.

"Since this is the case, if Commander Di needs any help, I'll do my best to support you." Zhuge Xiong replied.

"In that case, I'll have to thank Governor Zhuge then." Di Tian smiled and nodded. He then lifted his cup and spoke to everyone, "I'm most grateful for all of your valuable assistance. Let me toast everyone here."

The eyes of all the experts flashed, they all had different worries in their hearts. In the following days, a storm would soon engulf the central city regions of Lifire City.

...

Not long after the banquet ended, the news about what happened in the Emperor Pavilion soon circulated to the central governor's manor.

A loud boom echoed within the great hall. A table beside Xia Hou was smashed to pieces. Green veins throbbed on his face as his killing intent gushed forth.

"What a good Di Tian, Zhuge Xiong, Lin Ba and Beauty Xiao." Xia Hou's entire body was trembling, one could tell how angry he was. But other than anger, he also felt a hint of fear. Di Tian organized a banquet just to bring this matter up. Not only so, he even got all the governors to express their stances. This meant that Di Tian was determined to do something to him. Given Di Tian's capabilities, it was very probable that he, Xia Hou, might fall to Di Tian.

"Lord Governor, what should we do?" One of the vice governors asked. In the past, it was this vice governor who went to the Emperor Pavilion many times to recruit Di Tian. At that time, he felt Di Tian was stupid for not giving face to Xia Hou and was simply courting death with his actions. But now, they were actually starting to fear Di Tian. What an irony this was.

"We didn't do anything, right? So what if Di Tian wants to investigate? What do you mean by what should we do?" Xia Hou coldly shot a look at the vice governor. His ice-like eyes were filled with a threatening look. Evidently, he wanted his subordinates to watch their words. They might be at risk of leaking information.

"Your subordinate knows my mistake." The vice governor bowed.

"Retreat. Warn those below not to talk nonsense. I'll report this to the palace lord. Di Tian is truly getting more and more lawless." Xia Hou coldly spoke. That vice governor bowed and retreated, preparing to tell the others who were involved in this to keep quiet.

Not only for the central governor's manor, the Yan Clan, Han Clan, Wei Clan, the three major aristocrat clans were all holding emergency meanings now. The Di Tian now wasn't the Di Tian of the past. He had enough authority, status and power and could truly destroy them all. If he truly investigated and linked that incident back to them, nobody knew what was going to happen.

After several days, many people came to the central governor's manor. They were none other than Di Tian and his people from the Emperor Pavilion. Other than them, Zhuge Xiong was present as well.

"Commander Di Tian, what do you mean by this?" When Di Tian arrived, Xia Hou personally walked out and blocked Di Tian from entering. His expression was sinister. He had gone to look for the Lifire Empyrean but he failed to meet him. The Purple Moon Immortal Emperor transmitted the Lifire Empyrean's message to him, telling him that he better settle all the problems he caused himself. This meant that the Lifire Empyrean wouldn't interfere in this. He had to deal with Di Tian himself.

"Governor Xia Hou, I still have some doubts in my heart with regards to the matter that happened in the past at my Emperor Pavilion. I need to seek some people from your governor's manor to understand some things." Di Tian spoke.

"Sure, I can tell them to come out. If Commander Di wants to understand the situation more clearly, I will tell them to comply with you completely." Xia Hou glanced at Di Tian.

"I want to bring them back to my Emperor Pavilion. I've already reported this up to palace lord. There's no need to build another place for my commander's manor. I will just use the Emperor Pavilion as my office." Di Tian spoke.

"This can't do. They still have tasks they need to complete and wouldn't be free." Xia Hou rejected.

"This is the authorization token for the supervisory commander." Di Tian took out a token. This token was similar to the governors' token of authority. The words 'supervisory commander' was imprinted in gold on it.

"If there's anyone who dares to obstruct me from carrying out my duty, it would mean disrespect to the Lifelong Saint Hall, going against them, defying their orders. I'm authorized to carry out any actions I deem fit before reporting upwards." Di Tian calmly spoke. A moment later, a terrifying might descended on everyone, Di Tian's immortal sense enveloped the governor's manor as he continued, "I, Di Tian, the supervisory commander of Lifire City, hereby summon the vice governors and attendants of the central city regions to appear before me immediately. If not, it would be treated as an act of defiance and I will begin to slaughter everyone involved without mercy."

This voice rang out like thunder, reverberating through the central governor's manor, causing the hearts of countless people to tremble.

Chapter 1636: Conclusive Evidence

Xia Hou's expression turned grim. The tension in the air could be palpably felt.

The various vice governors and attendants also understood the status the current Di Tian had. Not coming out would be treated as defiance and he would kill all without mercy? Who gave him such authority? He was clearly using the position given by him by the Realmlord to avenge private grudges while using his public post. However, he did have good reason to do this. If they don't obey, would Di Tian really kill them all?

Given Di Tian's terrifying combat prowess as the top ranker in the martial competition, it was probable that even Governor Xia Hou wouldn't be able to stop him.

"Commander Di Tian, what place do you treat my governor's manor as?" Xia Hou turned ashen as he asked. If it wasn't for the fact that he knew he wouldn't be able to win against Di Tian, he would have already fallen out and started a fight. Right now, he was suppressing all of his emotions.

"I'm doing my job. If they are innocent, I'll naturally allow them to return and won't make things difficult for them." Di Tian spoke. Xia Hou's expression was extremely sinister. If he allowed Di Tian to bring all of them back to his place, there would surely be trouble. When his people were moved to Di Tian's territory, how could he still do anything?

"Who knows what sort of methods you would use?" Xia Hou coldly spoke.

"This time, I invited the experts from the grand governor and various governors to act as guards. They can watch the entire process and serve as witnesses. Guard Yun, brief Governor Xia Hou on the details." An immortal emperor stepped out. Xia Hou glanced at him as his expression turned unsightly. He naturally knew who the head guard of the grand governor's manor was.

"Governor Xia Hou, the Grand Governor believes Commander Di will carry out the investigation fairly. Please cooperate." Guard Yun spoke. Xia Hou's hands were trembling, he was angered to the tipping point. Right now, it was clear that Grand Governor Zhuge Xiong was already on Di Tian's side.

"Governor Xia Hou, I've given you enough face. If you continue to obstruct me, don't blame me for being impolite." Di Tian might as well directly threaten. His voice turned cold, "I will give the vice governors and attendants of your central governor's manor an incense worth of time. If no one comes out, I'll go in and find them."

The central governor's manor was completely shocked. Di Tian was too forceful but the Lifire Empyrean didn't do anything at all. Even the grand governor was on his side. As for the other governors, it was rumored that Governor Yin Qiu just said a single sentence that went against Di Tian's opinions and was expelled from the banquet. As for the other governors, all of them sent their men here to support Di Tian. The situation was completely one-sided.

After a few moments, some people came out from the governor's manor. These were the vice governors and attendants. Di Tian was simply too domineering, they didn't dare to not show up. If not, just given Xia Hou's strength, he wouldn't be able to protect them.

Upon seeing all his men appearing, Xia Hou clenched his fists tightly, feeling incomparably sullen.

Not long after, more and more people appeared. Di Tian glanced at them, "Thank you everyone for your cooperation. Since you are all vice governors and attendants, I'll give you the respect accorded to your ranks and treat you politely. Please come with me back to the Emperor Pavilion."

Di Tian turned after he spoke, truly in a polite manner. Everyone glanced at Xia Hou. Xia Hou looked at a few of his men as his eyes shone with the light of a warning.

The news that Di Tian brought everyone away soon swiftly circulated outwards. The entire central city regions were shaken by the commotion. This Grandmaster Di Tian was truly tyrannical and incomparably domineering, directly heading to the central governor's manor to bring their men away.

The vice governors and attendants of the central governor's manor were brought to the Emperor Pavilion. Over here, experts were as common as clouds, giving them great pressure. Di Tian glanced at them and asked, "For that incident in the past, I'm sure everyone has already heard of it. Let me ask the first question. Do any of you know who the mastermind is?"

The people here glanced at Di Tian. This fellow wasn't reserved at all and actually started the questioning so directly, not beating around the bush.

Naturally, nobody replied. How could they possible divulge the truth?

"It's fine if no one wants to speak. However, if I manage to find out the truth later and if there's someone intentionally not speaking out despite knowing the truth…" Di Tian smiled at everyone. "I'll cripple their cultivation bases."

Many people felt their hearts trembling, but they maintained an outward calm on their faces. If they didn't speak, how would Di Tian know?

"I'll give you all the same amount of time it takes for an incense stick to burn out. For those who know the truth about this, please take a step out." Di Tian smiled. After that, he stood up from his seat and walked around casually like he had nothing better to do. He glanced at Mo Junyi beside him and asked, "Has that expert from the northern governor's manor been invited here already?"

"Governor Qin has agreed, his subordinate has arrived." Mo Junyi spoke.

"Mhm, invite him here quickly." Di Tian spoke. Mo Junyi walked out and a few moments later, she returned with a terrifying-looking demonic lion beside her. This lion had jade-green eyes, he glanced at everyone, causing their souls to tremble as though their souls were momentarily out of their control.

"Senior Evil Emperor, thank you for making this trip." Di Tian politely spoke.

This lion was none other than the Evil Emperor. He nodded casually in response. His green eyes continued to stare at the crowd, causing many to feel their hairs standing.

"This bastard." Someone already started to curse at Di Tian silently in his heart.

"Evil Emperor is Qin Wentian's subordinate. Qin Wentian truly also wants to move against Xia Hou. With the Evil Emperor here, if we don't speak, would Di Tian use him to force us to reveal the truth?" There were people feeling a struggle in their hearts. They were no longer as calm as before.

"Guard Yun. You are the Grand Governor's subordinate. Help me bear witness. I guarantee that I won't ask about their private matters and will only ask questions about the past incident." Di Tian spoke to Guard Yun. Guard Yun could only curse silently in his heart at how shameless Di Tian was. This was simply frightening Xia Hou's men to their death.

As expected, there were a few people whose legs were already trembling as though they couldn't stand straight. If Di Tian really found the truth by using the Evil Emperor, he would cripple their cultivation. At that time, everything would be over for them.

Di Tian wasn't in a hurry, after walking about a few more steps, he inclined his head and smiled, "There's still half-an-incense stick worth of time. As long as you all take the initiative to confess, I guarantee I'll let bygones be bygones for you. If not, I'll follow my earlier arrangement. Everyone, please consider carefully."

After speaking, he continued to pace around. His footsteps rang out clearly in the dead silence of this space. The Evil Emperor's green eyes shone with a demonic luster. Finally, an attendant took a step forward. The amount of time given was running out. He didn't dare to take the risk.

With someone leading the way, there were instantly others who stepped out. Very swiftly, a total of three people stepped out. Di Tian coldly laughed when he saw this. This Xia Hou was truly absolutely unbridled, not bothering to hide his actions at all. There were actually more than three people who knew the truth of that past incident. From this, one could see how tyrannical Xia Hou was in the past, he simply didn't care about leaking the details at all.

Finally, a total of two vice governors and four attendants walked out. Di Tian laughed and asked them, I'll question you all before Guard Yun. Those years ago, who is the mastermind behind the troubles my Emperor Pavillion faced? All of you transmit your voices to me and Guard Yun privately, do not speak out openly. If your words don't match with each other, I'll have to move on to the next step of the investigation."

"What a crafty fellow." Everyone glanced at Di Tian. The people in the surroundings also didn't expect that Di Tian would have such a method. As expected, everything was over once Di Tian captured the people from the central governor's manor. He had already prepared for everything, there was no way out for these subordinates of Xia Hou.

After that, the voices of the six people were transmitted to Di Tian and Guard Yun. Di Tian and Guard Yun also checked the facts with each other. Moments later, a cold smile appeared in Di Tian's revealed eyes as he continued to ask. "So it means that Governor Xia Hou was completely in the know? Although he didn't initiate this, in truth, he had colluded with the other major powers, right?"

The six looked at each other in dismay and continued to transmit their voices. Di Tian's eyes were extremely cold. Finally, he looked at the Evil Emperor and spoke, "Can I trouble senior to mind-control this attendant and asked if the words he has spoken earlier were true? I have no idea if they communicated with each other secretly to lie to me and Guard Yun."

The Evil Emperor glanced at the weakest immortal king among the attendants as his eyes glowed with an evil light. Very swiftly, he controlled his target and asked the questions. The attendant replied straightforwardly that everything he has spoken before was true.

"Since this is the case, the evidence is irrefutable. I will summarize everything you six have told me and Guard Yun. Back then, the three aristocrat clans of the central city regions, the Yan Clan, Han Clan and Wei Clan paid a visit to Governor Xia Hou and wanted to form an alliance to deal with my Emperor Pavilion. After they did the deed, the governor's manor still pretended to investigate but did nothing in reality and even secretly gave information to the three aristocrat clans. Are my words right? Is there anything else you all want to rectify?" Di Tian spoke. No one said anything, and the others captured here felt their hearts shaking. A voice appeared in their mind, Xia Hou was finished.

This Di Tian was determined to get his revenge. And right now, the evidence was conclusive.

"There are experts from all the other governors here, including the people from Grand Governor Zhuge. Since the truth is out, what do you all think we should do?" Di Tian gazed at everyone.

"I have to report this matter first to the Grand Governor." Guard Yun and his subordinates spoke. Di Tian nodded, allowing them to make the report. A few moments later, Guard Yun replied, "Grand Governor says that he will instantly inform the palace lord about this matter. As for the three aristocrat clan, the Grand Governor says that from now onwards, they will be prohibited from expanding their power within our Lifire City, we will shut down all businesses controlled by them."

"I have no objections with the Grand Governor's ruling. As for Governor Xia Hou, I'll wait for palace lord to make the decision. With regards to the three aristocrat clans, they have already broken the law of our Lifire City. Not only will their businesses be shut down, I will also confiscate all assets under them as well." Di Tian smiled, his eyes flickering with coldness. The people here all felt their hearts trembling. They understood that Governor Xia Hou was finished. The three aristocrat clans would also be in dire straits.

Back then, since the three aristocrat clans wanted to force the Emperor Pavilion to its death, given his personality, how could Grandmaster Di Tian show mercy now that he was in power?

Chapter 1637: Rise of the Emperor Pavilion

In the central governor's manor, Xia Hou was pacing about in the great hall, he felt extremely anxious. His subordinates that were brought away still didn't relay any news back to him. Right now, he was like a deaf person, he was completely ignorant of what was going on in the Emperor Pavilion.

"Di Tian." Xia Hou's eyes were filled with killing intent. Those years ago, how could he give a damn about a mere weaponsmith? The central city regions was his territory and his words were law. He can play however he wanted to play. To think that he would actually meet with Di Tian's revenge today.

At this moment, his eyes suddenly gleamed with sharpness. Turning his head, he glanced at the air only to see many figures suddenly appearing. It was none other than Di Tian and a group of people. Other than Di Tian, the Grand Governor Zhuge Xiong, Lifire Palace's Protector Chen, and those vice governors and attendants of his central governor's manor were present.

At this moment, Xia Hou suddenly felt a sense of unease. His heart grew cold as he looked at them. Those figures didn't descend to the ground, they remained in the air and stared down at him.

"Xia Hou, as the central governor, you actually acted so arrogantly and were in cahoots with the major powers of Lifire City to privately deal with the Emperor Pavilion in your respective region of administration. Do you admit to your guilt?" Zhuge Xiong icily spoke.

"I don't know what Grand Governor is talking about." Xia Hou denied.

"IMPUDENT!" Zhuge Xiong berated. "Right now, the evidence is already conclusive, this fact was borne witness to by experts from the various governor's manor. Your subordinates have revealed everything. Are you still going to deny your crime?"

Xia Hou's expression turned ugly to the extreme. His icelike gaze turned towards those people standing behind Di Tian. His subordinates all lowered their heads, not daring to match his gaze. They had no choice but to do this. Under that situation, who would dare to lie? The Evil Emperor had been invited over and even if they wanted to lie, they wouldn't be able to do so. They had no choice for the consequences of lying were too terrible.

"Do you admit to your guilt?" Zhuge Xiong icily asked.

"I will beg for forgiveness from the palace lord." Xia Hou knew that he could change nothing no matter what he did. He clasped his hands in the direction of the Lifire Palace.

"The palace lord has already given the command to relieve you of your governor's duties. From now on, you will not be used in any official positions and your responsibilities will temporarily be carried out by vice governor Ji until further arrangements. Xia Hou, come with me to see the palace lord and wait for your punishment." Protector Chen spoke, causing Xia Hou to turn pale.

From now on, he will never be used in any positions? This was cutting off all future paths for him.

"Commander Di Tian. After returning to the Lifire Palace, the palace lord will naturally heavily punish him. What do you think?" Protector Chen glanced at Di Tian.

"Di Tian will naturally respect all decisions made by our palace lord. Let's do things according to what palace lord suggests." Di Tian smiled. Although he understood that nothing would happen to Xia Hou after he went to the Lifire Palace, the Lifire Empyrean still did this for him to see on the surface and crippled Xia Hou's future. As of now, it wasn't too good for him to be too forceful and adopt a confrontational posture going against the Lifire Empyrean.

"Mhm." Protector Chen nodded. He then continued, "Xia Hou, come with us."

Xia Hou didn't say anything and prepared to leave with Protector Chen. His ice-like eyes swept towards Di Tian, not bothering to mask his killing intent.

"Governor Ji, you will temporarily replace him as the central governor. Put in all your effort to cooperate with Commander Di." Zhuge Xiong spoke to the ex-vice governor Jimo. Jimo nodded, "Yes, Grand Governor."

Zhuge Xiong then led Protector Chen and the others away. Di Tian looked at Jimo and spoke, "Governor Ji, instantly summon all the subordinates within the governor's manor."

"Your subordinate hears and obeys." Jimo clasped his hands.

"Governor Ji, you are already a governor now, you can directly refer to me as Commander Di." Di Tian laughed. Jimo started before nodding, while he cursed silently in his heart. This fellow crushed Xia Hou just like that. How would he dare to be careless?

"The people of the central governor's manor assemble here immediately." Jimo roared. In an instant, the other various vice governors and attendants moved to assemble their subordinates, not daring to be slow at all. Right now, no one dared to offend Di Tian.

Di Tian gazed at the experts below him. These were the troops of the central governor's manor and were truly much stronger when compared to the northern governor's manor.

"Governor Ji, command three vice governors to each lead a regiment of troops and head to the Yan, Han and Wei Aristocrat Clans, holding them there. No one from their clans is allowed to go out and they have to cooperate with the governor's manor fully. For those who dare to disobey, kill them without mercy." Di Tian spoke. Although the power of the three aristocrat clans is strong, they wouldn't dare to do anything if the governor's manor really chose to surround them.

In reality, Di Tian wanted nothing more than the three aristocrat clans resisting. If they did so, he would have a chance to capture them all in one fell swoop, settling everything in one go. Back then, the three aristocrat clans didn't plan to even give his Emperor Pavilion any chance of survival. Now, Di Tian naturally wouldn't show mercy.

Jimo led the three vice governors under him and set off to the three aristocrat clans. At the same time, Di Tian sent out a command for other regiments of the central governor's manor to seize the businesses owned by the three aristocrat clans. Di Tian will personally head there to confiscate the businesses, just like how the Northern Governor Qin Wentian did so when he dealt with the Ancient River Auction House in the past.

A commotion shook the central regions of Lifire City. The incident where Qin Wentian acted in the past, already caused great waves when he moved against a single auction house backed by the Jialan Clan. Right now, Di Tian was actually doing the same thing but he was moving against three great aristocrat clans.

In Lifire City, powerful clans naturally have their own businesses or they wouldn't be able to survive. How would they be able to sustain the running of the clan given the huge amount of resources needed by each member?

The Yan Clan was a formation-based clan, while the Han and Wei Clans were businesses-based clans. The auction houses and transaction grounds the three clans had, were considered the top-ranking ones in the central city regions. When the governor's manor sent troops to confiscate the businesses, an earth-shaking commotion was caused. They were met with great resistance. However, Di Tian didn't merely lead the troops alone. Back then at the banquet he hosted, for those major powers who agreed to support him, Di Tian got them to send their experts to aid him in this, directly placing the experts of the other major powers against the three aristocrat clans.

Although Di Tian obtained the top ranking in the martial competition of Lifelong City, in truth, the strength level of his Emperor Pavilion hasn't really developed yet. After all, Di Tian just returned. If he wanted to depend on his Emperor Pavilion alone to deal with the three aristocrat clans, it would be akin to using an egg to smash a rock. Hence, Di Tian borrowed strength from those who verbally said that they would support him. He wanted to fight toughness with toughness, instantly allowing everyone in Lifire City to feel that the Emperor Pavilion was the strongest power in Lifire City, simply unexcelled by others.

Not only so, there were also enemies of the three aristocrat clans throwing stones at them when they were down. Within a single day, all the businesses of the three aristocrat clans were closed down and their assets confiscated.

And right now, within the three clans, the clan leaders all felt immense pain and regret. This time, they were really going to encounter a calamity.

Initially, even if the fact that they used dishonorable means to deal with the Emperor Pavilion, the fallout wouldn't be this big. After all, such a situation was commonly seen in Lifire City when the major powers competed with each other. However, they rammed their toes into Di Tian which was like an iron plate. Di Tian was determined to get revenge no matter what.

The Yan Clan was completely surrounded by the governor manor's troops. At this moment, a masked figure in black arrived here, standing in the air. His entire being radiated sharpness.

Upon seeing this figure, many of the Yan Clan recalled the time when this man first stepped into their Yan Clan. At that time, Di Tian was merely a junior specializing in the formation arts and came to challenge the Yan Clan's prestige. At that time, nobody cared about him. It was only until Di Tian defeated their Yan Clan did they start to view him with some regards.

But even so, no one would have expected such a scene would occur now. Di Tian directly led men to confiscate their assets and businesses and was standing high up in the air above the Yan Clan right now.

"Grandmaster Yan Feng, how have you been?" Di Tian peered down from the air, looking at a familiar face.

Yan Feng's eyes gleamed with sharpness, he stared at Di Tian, "Di Tian, you actually dare to borrow your official position to settle private grudges? You will definitely suffer retribution in the future."

"Oh?" Di Tian mockingly laughed. "When you guys colluded with Xia Hou to deal with my Emperor Pavilion, pushing me to the dead end, did you all not expect that you would be the ones suffering retribution?

"Grandmaster Yan Feng, I won't waste words with you. Back then when I came to the Yan Clan for the first time, it was difficult for me to even enter the gate, needing to pass some bullshit trial devised by your clan. But now, things are no longer so troublesome." Di Tian sarcastically commented. "From today onwards, everything the Yan Clan owned shall be taken away by me. In addition, the Yan Clan will be prohibited from operating any businesses in Lifire City forever. If not, in the future, things wouldn't be as simple as now, just merely confiscating your assets."

"Don't push things too far." Yan Feng raged. The people of the Yan Clan were all glaring at Di Tian.

"When you guys bullied me, did you all show any mercy?" Di Tian coldly spoke. "In the future, behave yourselves well. If you break the Lifire Palace's laws as well, you will definitely be severely punished. Farewell."

"Let's go." Di Tian waved his hand, signalling for the troops to retreat. He then led the troops and flew away in another direction.

The people of the Yan Clan all had ashen looks on their faces. If this was the case, there was no longer a way for their Yan Clan to establish dominance in the Lifire Palace's territories. They had no choice but to migrate away.

A vast aristocrat clan that has no businesses will not be able to sustain themselves. Why would all their guest elders still follow them? How would they nurture their own geniuses?

Di Tian was evidently forcing them away.

The central governor Xia Hou was stripped from his position and would never be placed in official positions again. The three aristocrat clans had their businesses sealed and assets confiscated and were forced to migrate away from Lifire City. This news instantly shook the entire Lifire City, creating tsunami-level of waves of commotion. All this happened because of a single person. Grandmaster Di Tian from the Emperor Pavilion.

For a period of time, Di Tian's fame surged up into the skies. No one in Lifire City dared to antagonize him. By doing this, he was sending a warning to those who wished to oppose him. No matter if you are a governor or aristocrat clan, you best not offend me.

After a period of time passed, the Emperor Pavilion announced that they would undergo a restructuring due to the influx of assets gained. He also didn't forget the powers that supported him and he split a share to each of them. Everyone was pleased with this outcome, the Emperor Pavilion didn't suppress others and only sought to expand itself. There was no need to doubt that not long from now, the Emperor Pavilion would be the largest business in the central city regions. Also, he didn't need to pay any tax.

Just like what everyone expected, the rise of the Emperor Pavilion was unblockable. It was just that no one had expected Di Tian to use such a tyrannical method and rise so quickly!

Chapter 1638: No Fortune to Enjoy the Grace of Beauties

The original central governor of Lifire City vanished, as did three aristocrat clans.

Before this, Di Tian hosted a banquet and had clearly stated his intentions, saying that he wanted to investigate the past incident and settle the debts. However, no one expected Di Tian to be so tyrannical at that time. To think he was so decisive and ruthless.

In addition, from the looks of things, the Lifire Empyrean truly allowed him to do what he wanted. Despite moving against Xia Hou, the Lifire Empyrean didn't interfere at all. Xia Hou clearly wasn't Di Tian's opponent. He who had reigned supreme in the central city regions for so many years, had his position removed. His current whereabouts were also unknown.

Not long after, the Lifire Palace sent an expert to officially take over the central governor's manor. This new governor was named Sun Qian and was a peak-stage immortal emperor who had cultivated for many years. He was a follower of the Lifire Empyrean before this. Sun Qian always had a smile on his face and seemed very amicable. After taking over, he immediately went to the Emperor Pavilion to pay a visit. Right now, the governors of Lifire City had come to a mutual consensus. If they wished to retain their positions as governors, the best thing to do was to forge a good relationship with Di Tian.

After all, who didn't have some information that could be used against them floating out there somewhere? What if Commander Di Tian wanted to investigate their past?

Xia Hou's incident made Yin Qiu feel extreme regret. So it turned out that it was useless even if he had expressed his stance, Di Tian would still do what he wanted to and in an extremely decisively manner. He had offended Di Tian for no rhyme or reason at all and had to tuck his tail between his legs now as the days passed, keeping a low profile. He didn't know if Di Tian would resent him and move against him someday like how he did to Xia Hou.

After these, the Emperor Pavilion's development was naturally as smooth as flowing water.

The Emperor Pavilion started to recruit from all regions, providing a high salary and many benefits. After all, the Emperor Pavilion could really afford it now. Just the fact that the Emperor Pavilion need not pay tax, it was already sufficient for the Emperor Pavilion to hire many experts. The experts sent from the other major powers to help Di Tian by taking important positions in the Emperor Pavilion, were gradually replaced by the Emperor Pavilion's own people. Di Tian slowly regained complete control of his business.

Also, everyone knew that this was merely the beginning.

Just like what everyone expected, with the Realmlord's support and having no need to pay tax, also in addition to Di Tian's position as the supervisory commander, who in Lifire City would dare to cross Di Tian? After a short tens of years, the Emperor Pavilion has already become a major power with businesses everywhere, including the northern city regions where Qin Wentian and the Jialan Clan resides.

The Jialan Clan had always been extremely supportive of Di Tian. They maintained their friendly relations and Di Tian did the same as well. Jialan Qiuyue would frequently come over to the Emperor Pavilion to find Di Tian to chat. In fact, Jialan Chen would even personally pay a visit and hint to Di Tian about him and Jialan Qiuyue's relationship.

However, although Di Tian and Jialan Qiuyue seemed very close, he continued to feign ignorance towards the Jialan Clan's hints, causing Jialan Qiuyue to always shoot him looks of hidden resentment. A peak-level beauty shooting such gazes at him every time, Di Tian really couldn't bear it. His grudge with the Jialan Clan was no longer so intense. Naturally, with the exception of the Jialan Monarch, he wouldn't forget Ye Qianyu who was being imprisoned in the Lifelong Saint Hall now just because of how friendly Jialan Qiuyue was. In any case, if there was no Jialan Monarch, many things wouldn't have happened.

Seeing the Jialan Clan 'making a move' to corner Di Tian, the Mo Clan was also extremely anxious. They urged Mo Junyi to be closer to Di Tian and she must not lose out to Jialan Qiuyue. But as the princess of a clan, how could she take the initiative to express her love for Di Tian? She would at most silently hint at things through her actions. With the two beauties acting like this, Di Tian felt that he had no fortune to enjoy the grace of the two beauties.

Time slowly passed as the Emperor Pavilion grew more and more every day. However, this was insignificant. As long as the Lifire Empyrean still sits at the peak, the Lifire Palace would still be the old Lifire Palace. Nothing will change too much.

Also, compared to the high-profile actions of Di Tian, Qin Wentian who had also displayed his brilliance those years ago, was much more low-profile. He acted in the same manner as the past, silently cultivating, showing no interest for external things. The Jialan Clan also sent people many times to invite him, wanting to repair their relationship. However, they couldn't even manage to meet with Qin Wentian.

Some people guessed that maybe, Qin Wentian wasn't even inside the governor's manor and was out tempering himself somewhere. After all, no one would dare to cause any trouble in the northern city regions any longer. The tyrannical actions Qin Wentian took to deal with the Ancient River Auction House those years ago was still fresh on everyone's mind. In addition, the Jialan Clan was no longer prepared to continue to make things difficult for Qin Wentian. Who else would dare to create trouble?

Naturally, for the contribution day held once every ten years at the Lifire Palace, Qin Wentian would still always punctually appear. Compared to Di Tian, Qin Wentian could be said to have given plenty of face to the Lifire Empyrean. He was acting just like when he was in the Lifelong Saint Hall, performing his duties remarkably. Even if the Lifire Empyrean was jealous and was on guard against him, it wasn't too good for him to really do anything towards Qin Wentian. Maybe, the small kinks in their relationship could be slowly smoothed away by time.

Regardless of Di Tian or Qin Wentian, in the perspective of the Lifire Empyrean, their actions were true to their personalities and seemed very normal.

Di Tian accomplished his ambitions, he was rewarded personally by the Realmlord and enjoyed special authority in the Lifire Palace. It was very normal that his actions were high profile. Even when Di Tian didn't give him face sometimes, the Lifire Empyrean brushed it off to Di Tian's personality. In any case, there wasn't any real conflict between them. Even if Di Tian really obtained the Realmlord's favor in the future and was moved to a higher position, it wouldn't really affect him much. Hence, this was why he was very lenient towards Di Tian. With regards to this point, even Di Tian had to admit it.

Qin Wentian was very normal as well. Because of his relationship with Ye Qianyu, in addition to the fact that he defied orders and went to the Lifelong Saint Hall back then, Qin Wentian was very clear of his boundaries after they came back. He did things in a low profile, accomplishing his duties and mostly kept to himself.

...

The river of time would never cease flowing. Unknowingly, tens of years passed. During this period of time, Lifire City was still the same old Lifire City. The only difference was that a supreme major power has been born - the Emperor Pavilion.

After several years of development, the Emperor Pavilion had truly become a terrifying power. Branches of the Emperor Pavilion could be found throughout Lifire City, no longer limited to any city regions. There were branches to be found in all the five regions now.

Right now, the Emperor Pavilion's businesses were no longer restricted to auction houses and transaction grounds. They even expanded into the restaurant and inn industry, as well as miscellaneous tasks such as inscribing formations. The number of experts the Emperor Pavilion controlled had far exceeded the number of experts each governor's manor had. With such a large business, it was only natural many people needed to sustain it. With how popular the Emperor Pavilion was, they also had sufficient resources to hire people. If Di Tian married and had kids, maybe a thousand years later, the Emperor Pavilion would become a supreme aristocrat clan.

Hence, during recent years, Di Tian encountered many speechless things. Many major powers sent their young misses over to the Emperor Pavilion clearly for the intention of asking for marriage. They even openly hinted that it was fine if Di Tian wanted to take the maidens as his concubines. After encountering such incidents several times, Di Tian no longer met with the major powers who wanted to push this agenda.

This caused many to feel bewildered. Grandmaster Di Tian already has fame and accomplishments. Why did he push all the maidens who were trying to get close to him so far away?

Leaving aside Jialan Qiuyue who was a peak beauty, even the young miss of the Mo Clan, Mo Junyi, was also a rare beauty. Also, all the maidens they sent to the Emperor Pavilion were all outstanding in both talent and beauty. How would they dare to send ordinary women over?

For others who had the same level of accomplishments as Di Tian, it was extremely normal for them to be surrounded by a bevy of beauties. However, Di Tian didn't even accept a single one. Even if he didn't want to marry or take concubines, it shouldn't be a problem to keep them by his side, right? The major powers wouldn't have any opinions about that. As long as Di Tian accepted the maidens they sent, at the very least, the maidens should be able to be his concubines in terms of status, right?

Could it be that Grandmaster Di Tian already has someone in his heart? If not, why wouldn't he even not want to marry the princess of the Jialan Clan, Jialan Qiuyue?

Today, in the headquarters of the Emperor Pavilion in the central city regions, the size of this business had expanded numerous times and was incomparably prosperous. In the courtyard Di Tian was in, the environment was extremely elegant and tranquil. This place was designed by Mo Junyi personally for him and wasn't a place anyone could enter as they wanted to. Even peak-stage immortal emperors had to report their arrival first.

However, there was a maiden standing in the courtyard now. She was incomparably beautiful and had a hint of nobility in her aura. She was none other than Jialan Qiuyue.

"Qiuyue, why are you so free to come over." Di Tian smiled as he asked.

"I encountered a troublesome matter and wanted to take a walk here." Jialan Qiuyue had a hint of bitter resentment in her eyes when she glanced at Di Tian. It has been over ten years and their relationship was already extremely close.

"Oh? Tell me about it." Di Tian sat in front of Jialan Qiuyue.

"Do you still remember the Xuanyuan Clan we met in the Lifelong Saint Hall over ten years ago?" Jialan Qiuyue asked.

"I naturally do. The Xuanyuan Clan is extremely strong and they are even one of the world palace lords, how would I forget about them?" Di Tian laughed.

"Someone from the Xuanyuan Clan requested a marriage arrangement through the Lifelong Saint Hall, wanting to match a young genius of their clan with me. It's not the son of Xuanyuan Hao but someone more outstanding them him." As she spoke, Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes stared at Di Tian, feeling trepidation in her heart. In truth, there were no such matter. It was a lie she made up.

"Oh? He wants to marry you?" Di Tian started.

Upon seeing Di Tian's shock, Jialan Qiuyue's heart trembled slightly. She seriously nodded, her beautiful eyes filled with a hint of trepidation.

"Qiuyue, congratulations! This is a good thing, why are you troubled about it?" Di Tian suddenly laughed as he seriously spoke. Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes instantly froze. She stared into Di Tian's eyes, he didn't seem to be joking.

Congratulations?

This is a good thing?

Her clan has hinted at matters of marriage between them multiple times with Di Tian for so many years but Di Tian didn't give an open response. She finally drummed up her courage and listened to her clan's suggestion. She discarded her pride and came here to probe him, yet he offered her his congratulations?

At this moment, Jialan Qiuyue felt incomparably grieved. All her pride and respect was as though they were trampled onto the ground.

"Di Tian, you are a bastard!" This was the first time Jialan Qiuyue cursed at someone. After that, she turned and ran off, her eyes were red, leaving behind a dumbstruck Di Tian!

Chapter 1639: News from Youhuang

In an ordinary courtyard of the Lifelong Saint Hall, Ye Qianyu was quietly lying down, her alluring frame was extremely tempting.

For these past tens of years, she and some other maidens from the Red Dust Immortal Palace was imprisoned in the Lifelong Saint Hall and they were forbidden from taking a step out from here. Occasionally, when the Realmlord was in the mood, he would summon them to admire their dance. Although they were not being asked to do miscellaneous things like servants, they actually might very well choose to do miscellaneous tasks instead of being treated as a dancer.

Sometimes, Ye Qianyu also wanted to rebel. But she knew that given how high the existence of the Lifelong Realmlord was, he could take her life away with just a single sentence. Also, she still wanted to wait for someone to mature. Let's see how many years the Lifelong Realmlord can admire their dance for.

Every time after a period of time, Ye Qianyu's mind would ring out with Qin Wentian's voice. Her messaging crystal was confiscated, the immortal sense she infused into it could now only receive messages, but she could not send any out. This has become the motivation for her to continue living. She knew that there was someone longing for her out there. Qin Wentian's messaging crystal had her immortal sense, so he knew that she would be able to hear his message although she couldn't reply. Qin Wentian would also frequently chat with her. Naturally, it was a one-way conversation.

At this moment, footsteps rang out. Ye Qianyu still laid there lazily, she opened her eyes and looked at the person who appeared. After that, a countenance that wasn't in anyway inferior to her in terms of beauty appeared in her vision.

"You came." Ye Qianyu spoke, "Please feel free to take a seat."

"Does he know the Lifelong Realmlord is treating you like this?" Beiming Youhuang's cold voice rang out. During these years, she has always been in the Lifelong Saint Hall. The Lifelong Realmlord personally gave the order for her to remain here and the Lifire Empyrean didn't dare to disobey. From then on, she has been stationed here. Many people spread rumors saying that she, Beiming Youhuang, has obtained the trust and recognition of the Lifelong Realmlord, there were even other rumors saying that the Realmlord admires her and wanted to woo her. Naturally, she didn't know any of these, no one would dare to tell her such things.

Even now, Beiming Youhuang had no idea why the Lifelong Realmlord brought her to the Lifelong Saint Hall. She knew that Qin Wentian displayed outstanding talent in the grand banquet, defeating the supreme and transcendent immortal emperors from the other world palaces completely. However, she didn't understand why the Lifelong Realmlord summoned her here after that and also frequently made Ye Qianyu dance for him. This was a mark of disrespect to Ye Qianyu, and there was no way the Lifelong Realmlord wouldn't know about this. In addition, Qin Wentian clearly stated that he participated in the grand banquet back then just for Ye Qianyu. The Lifelong Realmlord clearly knew this, but why was he still doing this?

Beiming Youhuang didn't know anything about all this. She had no way to guess at the Lifelong Realmlord's intention. The thoughts of major characters were extremely hard to fathom.

"Do you know why the Realmlord is doing this?" Beiming Youhuang asked.

"You don't even know why he is making you stay here, how would I know of his intentions." Ye Qianyu glanced at Beiming Youhuang. Clearly, this wasn't the first time the two had chatted.

"Maybe, he makes you do this because your dance is too beautiful and he admires it. However, everyone in the Lifelong Realm knows Qin Wentian participated in the grand banquet for you and it clearly wouldn't be good for the Realmlord to cut in and snatch you. Hence, he only made you dance for him." Beiming Youhuang calmly analysed. If not, she truly had no other ideas. However, she wasn't clear at all to her own situation.

"Didn't you try asking him?" Ye Qianyu smiled.

Beiming Youhuang started. It has been a long time since she communicated with Qin Wentian.

"Why should I? Don't tell me I should tell him about your bitter experiences here?" Beiming Youhuang spoke.

"You didn't ask him because you know that once you asked, he would inquire about my situation and learn about what I'm experiencing. He will hate the Lifelong Realmlord and might act impulsively and encounter troubles. Hence, you rather chose not to tell him that you are also in the Lifelong Saint Hall, right?" Ye Qianyu's beautiful eyes stared at Beiming Youhuang as she smiled. "You are in love with him, right?"

Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes froze. After that, she stood up and turned around to leave.

When she saw this scene, Ye Qianyu smiled. She then spoke out, "Back then, he was already impulsive once for you and fell into danger. Hence, you don't dare to tell him because you are afraid that he might be impulsive for me too, creating trouble that he cannot handle, right?"

Beiming Youhuang's steps didn't slow, she quickly disappeared from the area. Ye Qianyu glanced at her back and mumbled, "This fellow must have caused many poor ladies in Lifire City to have fallen for him."

At this moment, Qin Wentian wasn't in Lifire City, he was roaming around the streets in Heavenly City.

This place was the territory of Ye Qianyu's Thousand Feather Palace back then. It has now become a transaction pavilion. Upon seeing Qin Wentian, the beautiful serving girl saw his extraordinary demeanor and smiled at him, "Sir, what do you need? I can make some recommendations."

"I'm just casually strolling around." Qin Wentian smiled. His originally handsome appearance was extremely dazzling when he smiled. That serving girl was completely stunned. Her heart pounded. Right now, Qin Wentian's demeanor was simply too attractive. She knew that he was an extraordinary character the moment she saw him.

"Okay. Let me bring you around then." The serving girl gently smiled.

"It's fine, I can stroll around on my own." Qin Wentian laughed and walked away. A look of disappointment appeared on the serving girl's face as she stared at Qin Wentian's departing back.

Qin Wentian then headed to the inner halls of the Thousand Feathers Palace, but now, everything inside was already changed. He walked to Ye Qianyu's bedroom, and entered the secret courtyard through it, coming to the place where Ye Qianyu once built a cultivation platform for him as he looked down at the majestic Heavenly City.

"Who are you?" Someone coldly spoke. After that, several immortal emperors appeared here, all of them icily staring at Qin Wentian. "Sir, this is private property. You cannot enter without permission."

"My apologies, I stayed in the area before hence I'm just walking around." Qin Wentian smiled. The immortal emperors could sense Qin Wentian's extraordinary demeanor and they couldn't see through his cultivation base. They didn't know what they should do but at this moment, Qin Wentian spoke again, "Just allow me to sit here for a while, I won't do anything and will leave soon after that. Sorry for the disturbance."

After he spoke, Qin Wentian ignored them and sat down like there was no one here. He took out a flask of wine and began to lie down, enjoying the wine alone. In his mind, Ye Qianyu from the past was here as well. Right now, he had completely no idea how Ye Qianyu was.

Those immortal emperors left, but they didn't go too far. They stayed outside the courtyard and was using immortal sense to look at Qin Wentian.

The gentle wind gusted, he wasn't drunk from the wine but was drunk from the past memories he had of this place instead.

Those years ago, Ye Qianyu and him were both lying on the ground here, staring at the majestic city beneath them. A trace of loneliness could now be felt from his aura.

The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were truly boundlessly vast, he encountered many people here but the one that left him with the deepest impression, was none other than Ye Qianyu.

Maybe, Beiming Yopuhuang as well. But Beiming Youhuang wasn't someone from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Are you doing well?" At this moment, a voice rang out in his mind. Qin Wentian started, feeling like he had imagined the voice. He immediately took out his messaging crystal and sent his immortal sense in. He located a particular strand and asked, "Youhuang?"

"Mhm, how are you?" A gentle voice rang out. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with a smile, "I was just thinking of you, who would have thought that you would message me the moment I did so. I'm fine, what about you? Did the Lifire Empyrean station you somewhere instead? Why don't I see you every time I head to the Lifire Palace?"

"I'm in the Lifelong Saint Hall." Beiming Youhuang replied. Qin Wentian's gaze froze. He placed the flask of wine down and sat up slowly. "Why would you be there? Did something happen?"

"That year after you displayed your brilliance at the banquet, the Lifelong Realmlord transferred me from the Lifire Palace to here. From that time onwards, I've always been here. The Lifire Empyrean also broke off all connections with me as though I've suddenly become someone from the Lifelong Saint Hall." Beiming Youhuang spoke. From her words, he could tell that she didn't know what the reason behind this was.

Qin Wentian's heart pounded madly as many theories appeared in his mind. He thought about the Gemini Palace Lords and Emperor Yi.

There's only a possibility why the Lifelong Realmlord would know of Beiming Youhuang. It was because of him. The Realmlord must have investigated him and learned that Beiming Youhuang was his 'senior apprentice sister.' Since the Realmlord knows that he was a successor of Emperor Yi, the Realmlord must have transferred Beiming Youhuang to the Lifelong Saint Hall for that reason.

"Did the Lifelong Realmlord ask you any questions? For example, did he ask about the relationship between us and who our master is?" Qin Wentian asked.

Beiming Youhuang fell silent, as she thought back. After that, she replied, "Sometimes when he asked me for a chat, I don't know if he is hinting at things or not, but he didn't ask me for any specifics."

It was Qin Wentian's turn to fall silent. After a few moments, he asked again, "Have you seen Ye Qianyu?"

"I've been waiting for you to ask this question." Beiming Youhuang immediately replied. "I met her not long ago. For some reason, the Lifelong Realmlord didn't really treat her with respect. Although he didn't make things difficult for her, he would...frequently make her dance for him."

Qin Wentian's expression instantly changed, becoming unsightly after he heard that. Those years ago, he participated in the grand banquet solely for Ye Qianyu. This was something everyone knew. However, by doing this, this wasn't just the Realmlord showing no respect for Ye Qianyu, it was also a show of disdain to Qin Wentian, telling him that he didn't give a damn about him. Naturally, as the high-up and lofty Realmlord of this realm, there was no need for him to care about an existence like Qin Wentian. So what if Qin Wentian was talented? He was ultimately nothing more than an immortal emperor.

"I only tell you about this now because I was worried that you would be impulsive. Ye Qianyu says that she believes in you, that you won't be the same as in the past." Beiming Youhuang slowly spoke. Qin Wentian started again, he thought back to the past where he impulsively rushed into Jialan Emperor City for the sake of Beiming Youhuang, leading to Ye Qianyu's capture. From then on, Beiming Youhuang was restricted in her movements, trapped inside the Lifire Palace. And now, she was transferred to the Lifelong Saint Hall. All of these happened because of his impulsiveness.

"I will take note." Qin Wentian drew in a deep breath.

"Mhm, I'll leave first. Take care." Beiming Youhuang muttered irresolutely to herself before she replied.

"Youhuang, you have to take care too. Let me know immediately if something happens to you in the Lifelong Saint Hall." Qin Wentian replied. Beiming Youhuang didn't reply to that. Qin Wentian kept his messaging crystal and turned his sights into the horizons. Abruptly, an intense cold intent radiated from him, instantly enveloping his surroundings. Those immortal emperors outside felt their hearts pounding with terror as they looked at him. They felt incomparably stifled.

A beam of light flashed and Qin Wentian's silhouette disappeared. After he vanished, the immortal emperors appeared at the place he was in. They exchanged glances and spoke in low voices, "That man is extremely terrifying!"

Chapter 1640: Jialan Monarch's Death

The grudge between the Jialan Monarch and Qin Wentian had triggered a terrifying commotion back then. Qin Wentian and the Evil Emperor slaughtered their way into the Jialan Emperor Palace and killed many experts there, causing the Jialan Monarch's forces to dwindle in number which resulted in his strength slipping. He was also no longer regarded as important by his clan and that, in addition to the pressure from the Lifire Empyrean, he has been extremely unhappy all these years, constantly suppressing his emotions.

However, this wouldn't affect the amount of resources controlled by the Jialan Monarch. Given that there were so many mines in his territories, he had no need for worry at all. Among the mines, the Flowing Sand Mine, Skyfall Mine and Purple Cloud Mine were the most tightly guarded. The experts there were as common as the clouds and there were even immortal emperors among the guards.

The date of opening for the Skyfall Mine was finally here. Today, there were even more guards than usual. A mid-stage immortal emperor and two low-stage immortal emperors personally came here to receive the harvest.

The sky was as blue as water, in the clear air, a gentle breeze could be felt, causing many to feel extremely comfortable. However, the people of the Skyfall Mine felt extremely tensed. The day of harvest was an extremely important day and no mistakes could be allowed. All the guards were on the alert. Although the chances for bandits to appear was low, there was still a possibility. Hence, nobody dared to be careless.

At the hinterland of the Skyfall Mine, a group of excavators walked out, handing over their harvests. At this moment, the mid-stage emperor sitting there suddenly frowned. After that, his eyes snapped open as he glanced into the air. He then coldly shouted, "There are bandits."

As the sound of his voice faded, everyone immediately moved, activating the formations to protect the area. All of them inclined their heads and stared at the skies, only to see numerous figures appearing. All of them were masked and their faces couldn't be seen. There actually were three immortal emperors and the rest of the bandits were all at the immortal king realm.

That mid-stage immortal emperor guard instantly took out his messaging crystal and sent a message into it, "Monarch, there are bandits here to plunder the Skyfall Mine."

As he spoke, the guard inclined his head and said to the bandits, "Everyone, this is the Skyfall Mine governed by the Jialan Monarch. If there are any losses sustained, the monarch will definitely not rest. In addition, the Lifire Palace is above him. The price for plundering this mine will be too high for you all to bear. If you guys give up now, I'll treat this as a misunderstanding.

The bandit head waved his hand, signalling for his men to rush forward. Terrifying auras gushed forth, the atmosphere grew incredibly tense.

"You guys are crazy." The mid-stage immortal emperor guard cursed. A resplendent light radiated from him as he soared into the air, rushing towards the bandit head. The bandit head was clad in mysterious robes and radiated a glacial feel, like a powerful devil lord.

"KILL!" The mid-stage immortal emperor guard radiated a towering sword intent as he slashed his weapon at the bandit head. The bandit head waved his hand, unleashing a saber strike that cleaved apart everything. In an instant, an opening appeared in the center of the mid-stage emperor guard's brow as the saber strike continued downwards. The mid-stage immortal emperor guard died just like that.

The other guards below all turned as pale as paper. But at this moment, spatial fluctuations rocked the area. Many fearsome auras filled the area as a voice thundered out, "Who dares to act so impudently in my territory?"

"The monarch is here." The guards of the mine all felt excited. They saw the Jialan Monarch leading his subordinates and rushing here. A resplendent light radiated from the Jialan Monarch as a dragonsnake spiralled above his head. His eyes gleamed with a demonic light as he stared at the bandit head.

The Jialan Monarch was very angry, he was truly very angry. In the past, it was precisely because of a group of bandits that made him into a laughing stock, resulting in his descendants being killed, and the lowered recognition his clan had for him. Right now, yet another group of bandits actually dared to appear in his territory?

However, this bandit head seemed to feel no fear at all. He stared at the Jialan Monarch, his eyes were cold to the extreme. He didn't seem to have any intention to flee.

The Jialan Monarch furrowed his brows when he saw the bandit head's reaction. He suddenly felt a sense of unease. Why did it seem as though the bandit head was waiting for him to appear?

"Who are you? Don't you know the crime of banditry is punishable by death? Even if you escape now, you will face relentless pursuit." The Jialan Monarch icily spoke, his eyes staring at the bandit head in the air. However, bandit head's eyes were extremely terrifying and immeasurably deep, he had no reactions.

"Someone that wants your life." At this moment, the bandit head's eyes seemed to generate a terrifying lightning devil saber that shot right into the Jialan Monarch's eyes, slaughtering its way into his soul.

The Jialan Monarch's expression turned incomparably heavy. All of a sudden, a strange white snake arced across the air, wrenching its maw open, wanting to swallow the bandit head in a single gulp.

Black thunder instantly manifested, they were akin to cleaves performed by a devil saber, capable of tearing this space asunder. The white snake was directly cleaved into two, causing the Jialan Monarch's expression to change. He hurriedly took out a divine weapon and unleashed its power, instantly causing millions of demonic beasts to rush at the bandit head.

The bandit head was like he didn't see the demonic beasts. He took a step forward as a tyrannical might rocked the area. Beams of saber light burst from him, crackling like black bolts of thunder, and completely tore those demonic beasts apart. A white flash of lightning suddenly appeared in the darkness, demonic scales appeared on the Jialan Monarch's arms as he punched out, manifesting gigantic snakes that danced wildly in the air.

The saber attacks unleashed by the bandit head didn't stop. With a single strike, he slashed through the void. At the instant he attacked, the Jialan Monarch felt his soul about to collapse. He groaned in pain and was forced back. At the next instant, he saw the bandit head moving forward, grabbing out in the air. With a grab, a devil hand of darkness formed, sealing the space he was in.

"BOOM!" The air trembled. The Jialan Monarch couldn't move at all, he was grabbed by that devil hand. He struggled madly, his eyes were frigid as he stared ruthlessly at the bandit head. He then roared in anger, "WHO THE HELL ARE YOU?"

He faintly sensed that this powerful bandit wasn't here for the mine at all. He was here for himself, and was using the identity of a bandit to mask the fact that he came here to hunt him.

If not, given how strong this bandit head was, there was no way he would choose to become a bandit. He could simply head to the Lifire Palace and the Lifire Empyrean would definitely place him in a position of importance.

One must know that as one of the nine great monarchs under the Lifire Empyrean, there was no need to doubt how strong his combat prowess was. If he was not powerful enough, he wouldn't be able to seize one of the nine positions no matter what the Jialan Clan did to push him up. How could weaklings hold a position of such importance?

However, before this bandit head, he seemed so fragile that it felt like he couldn't even withstand a single strike. From this, one could tell how strong this bandit head was.

The bandit head didn't reply. The killing intent radiating from the bandit head grew more intense. The people below only saw the Jialan Monarch being restricted completely as their faces turned pale. The bandit head was like a devil god, unexcelled in this world. Even when the Jialan Monarch personally came here, he wasn't a match for this bandit head at all. Everyone felt like doomsday had arrived.

Even the Jialan Monarch couldn't deal with him. How terrifying was this bandit exactly?

"GO TO HELL!" A cold voice echoed out. A terrifying devil king palm imprint of darkness burst forth with boundless destructive might. The Jialan Monarch screamed in misery as his body was being bombarded by the pure aura of destruction. He could sense how fearsome that giant palm was. The Jialan Monarch stared fixedly at the bandit head as a thought flash in his head.

"YOU ARE…" He shouted, but an explosive boom thundered out, drowning his voice. The darkness palm strike dominated everything. It crushed the Jialan Monarch's defense as wounds appeared all over his body. Upon coughing blood, he directly closed his mouth and his expression was like dead ashes. His eyes that were filled with despair glanced at the bandit head, as boundless terror could be seen on his face, as well as a streak of anger.

At this moment, the Jialan Monarch seemed to have guessed who the bandit head was. He was roaring silently in his heart. It's him, it must be him who wanted to kill him!

He definitely didn't guess wrongly.

Bastard, he actually dared to disguise himself as a bandit to come here and take his life. This was truly sparing no expense, wanting him to die.

At this instant, the Jialan Monarch took out his messaging crystal and was prepared to reveal the bandit head's identity. However, everything was too late. Only despair could be seen on his face.

"BOOM!" Boundless destructive might bore down, the Jialan Monarch's body trembled apart violently from the impact. Before his death, he suddenly thought of many things. He was a genius of the Jialan Clan and was heavily nurtured by them. The clan arranged for him to become one of the nine monarchs under the Lifire Empyrean, granting him a lofty status and overwhelming authority as well as control over the life and death of many. In addition, he controlled a large number of resources, just a thought from him would gain him wealth unimaginable by ordinary people.

He was full of mettle and was walking towards a path of radiance. He could summon rain and call for the wind whenever he wanted to, there was nothing he could not achieve.

However, never in his wildest dreams did he imagine that his life would change so quickly. Just as he was feeling complacent, everything suddenly changed. He met those fellows that caused him to enter a path of condemnation with no hope of reprieve.

Another thunderous boom rang out, the Jialan Monarch's body was narrowly shattered apart. Blood flowed from his wounds, he was only left with a single breath of life and his eyes were fixed venomously on that bandit head.

"You…" He seemed to want to say something but there was no time any more. The destructive attack blasted into him again and the Jialan Monarch was finally killed completely in body and soul. His corpse fell helplessly down from the air.

At this instant, the subordinates of the Jialan Monarch were completely stunned. They even forgot that they were in combat, and stared at his corpse in a dumbstruck manner.

The monarch died?

One of the nine great monarchs, the Jialan Monarch under the Lifire Empyrean, was killed by someone?

All of them felt their hearts trembling as they stared at the body of the Jialan Monarch. After that, they looked at the figure who killed him. Has this person gone mad? He actually dared to kill one of the monarchs. Doesn't he know what the consequences would be if he did so? There would no longer be a place where he can survive here in the Lifire Palace's territories.

Even if the Jialan Monarch and Lifire Empyrean weren't on the same side, it was a great taboo to kill a monarch. However, this bandit head did so with no hesitations. He publicly executed one of the nine great monarchs in front of everyone.

At this moment, many people felt chills go down their back as their hair stood up. Has this world gone mad? Even bandits dared to act so crazily!

Chapter 1641: Suspicion

The bandit head glanced at the corpse of the Jialan Monarch on the ground. His revealed eyes were immeasurably deep. After that, like nothing has ever happened at all, he glanced in another direction and commanded, "Everyone hand over your harvest from the Skyfall Mine. For those who refuse to comply, don't blame me for slaughtering all of you without mercy."

The hearts of everyone here trembled, how would they still dare to resist? Even the immortal emperors brought here by the Jialan Monarch were standing there in a daze, dumbstruck.

The Jialan Monarch had actually died, killed publicly by someone. Could they even resist?

What was the difference between resistance and death?

At this moment, it was clear that their lives were more important. Huge waves rocked their hearts, even now, they felt a sense of surrealism like they were in a dream. This world had gone mad, the previous time bandits appeared, they were led by Ye Qianyu and were already strong enough, causing great casualties for the Jialan Monarch's forces. At the end, it was due to assistance from the Lifire Palace that the Jialan Monarch managed to settle everything, leading to the imprisonment of Ye Qianyu and capturing Qin Wentian.

However, a hundred years have passed and bandits appeared again. In addition, the bandits were more ruthless and tyrannical than before, even more audacious and crazier, directly killing the Jialan Monarch.

No matter how was the relationship between the Jialan Monarch and the Lifire Empyrean, he was still one of the nine monarchs of the Lifire Palace and was considered as a subordinate of the Lifelong Saint Hall as well. You, as a bandit, daring to plunder a mine and even kill a monarch, was definitely a great taboo. The Lifire Palace would definitely pursue this all the way till the end.

Usually, for bandits, the person doing the investigation and pursuing would naturally be the monarch responsible for the area where the bandits plundered. However, the monarch was already killed. How would the Lifire Palace take this lying down?

This group of bandits best be prepared to suffer the anger of the entire Lifire Palace.

However, all these were matters for the future. The subordinates of the Jialan Monarch, the guards and the excavators, all of them handed over their harvests obediently, not daring to pull any tricks. These bandits only wanted wealth, and true to their word, they didn't kill anyone else and acted like how ordinary bandits would act. The only exception was that the Jialan Monarch was killed!

"Let's leave." After collecting the harvest, the bandit head waved his hand as the group of them soared into the air and quickly vanished from sight. The experts at the Skyfall Mine have yet to return to their senses, all of them staring dumbly at the Jialan Monarch's corpse. Someone then spoke, "Bring this news to the Lifire Palace with the swiftest speed or trouble would soon fall on our heads."

As for those bandits, they quickly left the area and came to a desolate mountain range. All of the bandits had unkind looks in their eyes as they stared at the leader of this operation. "Why did you kill the Jialan Monarch? Are you crazy?"

Evidently, before they started the operation, they had no idea that this man would kill the Jialan Monarch.

"What's done is done and you guys have achieved your objective too. Why bother saying so much. Let's disperse." The bandit head calmly spoke, it was as though the killing of the Jialan Monarch was merely an insignificant matter.

"We initially only agreed to plunder the mine. Because of your strength, we are okay with allowing you to be the head of this operation and you were supposed to block the Jialan Monarch and the rest of the experts. However, you actually killed him. Are you trying to harm us? Who are you exactly?" One of the bandits coldly spoke. The bandit head coldly looked at him as a terrifying killing intent gushed forth, causing the pressure in the air to be extremely heavy. The bandits instantly froze, feeling a chill in their hearts.

Only now did they realize that this man, who even dared to kill the Jialan Monarch, could kill them easily to seal their mouths if he so wanted to. They actually still dared to question him? When they thought of this, all of the bandits turned pale.

"You know that we are panicking. This is too crazy, we just don't understand." Another bandit spoke, his tone becoming much warmer. Clearly, he was worried that the bandit head would slay them all in a fit of anger.

"The deed is done, stop talking about it. You guys have also received your share of the plunder, it's much more profitable compared to you all being unaffiliated cultivators. Also, we are only doing this once. In the future, we will split up and have nothing to do with each other, and will never appear as bandits again. With no clues available, how can they trace it back to you all?" The bandit head calmly spoke. "Go on and disperse. None of you knows the identities of each other as well. We will have nothing to do with each other in the future."

The eyes of everyone flickered. This bandit head was right. They were only doing this once and there were no clues for the investigation to be traced back to them. They decided to become bandits because life as unaffiliated cultivators was simply too tough, lacking in cultivation resources. And this bandit head found them one by one and displayed his startling strength to convince them for this one big job. They all agreed, leading to the heist today.

"Farewell." Numerous figures soared through the air, no longer bothering to talk or interact with each other. It's better this way that no one knew who the others were. In that case, if someone was caught in the future, he wouldn't be able to implicate the others. Plundering a mine and killing a monarch...if they were caught, they would definitely be executed.

...

The northern governor's manor of Lifire City.

In the governor's manor, a white-robed figure could be seen walking out. This figure was incredibly handsome and exuded a carefree and transcendent aura. Many people within the manor inclined their heads, their gazes filled with an intense reverence and respect as they stared at him in the air. This was their governor, a governor that exuded boundless magnificence. That year, he defeated the other emperors from the eight world palaces single-handedly. How glorious was this?

Although their governor has been keeping a low-profile during these years, nobody dared to show him any disrespect. When they saw the white-robed figure, it was like they were seeing a god. He was the symbol of their belief and was like a divine existence.

The white-robed figure turned his gaze over and stared at the people below. Everyone could clearly see his handsome face and feel his exceptional demeanor.

"I'm going to temper myself outside, I'm not sure how long it will be. If there are people looking for me, just tell them I'm not here. Unless there's a major incident, do not disturb me." The white-robed figure calmly spoke. After that, his silhouette flashed as he vanished from sight.

Everyone stared at the departing figure, feeling somewhat frustrated. Even for the subordinates of the governor's manor, it wasn't easy for them to meet with this white-robed figure.

Was the northern governor going out to temper himself again? They wondered where would he go this time.

...

The death of the Jialan Monarch swiftly spread to the Jialan Emperor Palace, and then to the Lifire Palace. In fact, there were people who directly used the teleportation array and brought the Jialan Monarch's corpse to the Lifire Palace to report this.

Inside the Lifire Palace, many experts gathered outside the great hall.

The Lifire Empyrean personally arrived. When he saw the Jialan Monarch's corpse, his face instantly turned to ice.

Although the Jialan Monarch was someone from the Jialan Clan and he didn't want him to have this position, but no matter what, the Jialan Monarch can be considered as his subordinate. Even if he didn't want the Jialan

Monarch to be in this position, he would deal with this himself. Yet there were actually bandits daring to kill his subordinate in the territories controlled by his Lifire Palace?

Plundering a mine and slaying a monarch, such an incident actually happened in his territory. From this, one could tell that the Jialan Clan would definitely use this chance to kick up a big fuss and stab him in the back by whispering things to the Realmlord. How did he, the Lifire Empyrean, govern his territories exactly?

"Tell me everything that happened clearly." The Lifire Empyrean had a dark look on his face. After that, the people below fearfully recounted everything to him.

"You are saying that the Jialan Monarch might recognize the bandit head and even guessed his identity but he didn't have time to say it?" The Lifire Empyrean frowned when he heard the report. That person bowed, "Your subordinate thinks so. Given the Jialan Monarch's tone then, it was like he already knew who the bandit head was. However, this subordinate doesn't dare to confirm this. After all, the Jialan Monarch didn't call out any names and died soon after that."

"Although Jialan's strength wasn't too strong, it was sufficient for him to rule unchallenged over a certain area. There wouldn't be too many people capable of dealing with him. For people who could dominate him in a fight and kill him so easily, only a rare few are capable of this. In addition, since the bandit head only killed the Jialan Monarch alone, it can be deduced that there's hatred between them. By process of elimination, who do you guys think the bandit head is?" The Lifire Empyrean icily spoke. He wasn't merely asking the people from Jialan Emperor City, he was also asking the experts from the Lifire Palace.

The eyes of the people from the Lifire Palace flickered incessantly, all of them thought of one person. But nobody dared to say anything.

When the people of the Jialan Emperor Palace heard the Lifire Empyrean's hint, they thought of one man as well. But similarly, they didn't dare to say anything.

"What's the matter? Just speak freely, the people here are all my trusted aides." The Lifire Empyrean coldly spoke.

"Your subordinate is fearful of speaking the wrong things." The Jialan Monarch's subordinate bowed.

"Speak." The Lifire Empyrean coldly commanded, causing that person to tremble. He bowed again, "There's one person who was once a bandit and he does have a motive to kill the Jialan Monarch."

The eyes of everyone flashed, gleaming with sharpness. The words of this subordinate completely matched with their thinking.

Although that person had always kept a low profile, every time he chose to do something, he would do it in an explosive and tyrannical manner. In the past, the moment he assumed the governor's position, he immediately slew three of his vice governors. After that, he kept a low-profile for many years and when he next acted, he slaughtered several immortal emperors alone and captured the Ancient River Auction House, shocking the entire northern city regions. After doing that, he became low-profile again all the way until he defied the Lifire Empyrean's order, shocking the entire Lifelong Realm with his performance at the grand banquet.

It was very possible. Given his possibility, he might really act explosively after keeping a low-profile for tens of years. Did he kill the Jialan Monarch?

At this moment, even the Lifire Empyrean had cold light flickering in his eyes. Would it really be him? Would he be so audacious, daring to provoke his authority?

During these years, both of them were in tacit understanding and things were peaceful. He didn't cause any trouble for the other party and that person was also humble and low-profile, quietly being his northern governor, creating no trouble at all. If things continued this way, the Lifire Empyrean wouldn't mind pulling him closer to his side.

However, if he bore a grudge for that past incident and really killed the Jialan Monarch for it, that would mean a challenge to the Lifire Empyrean's prestige and had crossed his bottom line.

This wasn't simply smacking his face. It had another layer of meaning. Today, he could kill the Jialan Monarch. In the future, after he grew in strength, wouldn't that mean that he could kill him, the Lifire Empyrean as well?

Chapter 1642: Not Qin Wentian?

The Lifire Empyrean's expression turned heavy. It was very rare for him to act in this manner in front of his subordinates. But it seemed that somebody was intent on challenging his bottom line.

If this deed was really done by Qin Wentian, there would only be one ending for Qin Wentian.

Upon thinking until here, the eyes of the Lifire Empyrean flashed with killing intent.

Clearly, the Lifire Empyrean had already assumed it was Qin Wentian who killed the Jialan Monarch. Other than Qin Wentian, he truly couldn't think of anyone else who would take the risk to kill a monarch of the Lifire Palace.

If it was a real bandit, he could have just plundered the mines, why was there a need to kill a monarch? That would only anger those above the monarch to investigate this matter even more deeply. To bandits, there simply wasn't any benefits in doing this.

There were very few people with such strength that could kill the Jialan Monarch, and also for people with such a motive. Only one person came to mind, it was that man who was once a bandit, the northern governor of the Lifire Palace, Qin Wentian.

"Don't speak nonsense. I believe that the people under me would know how to act within the norms." The Lifire Empyrean had a heavy expression as he spoke. It appeared as though the person before him had offended him with his words. This caused that person to tremble in fear. He was an immortal emperor but was now almost grovelling on the ground. The formless pressure from the Lifire Empyrean caused him to feel stifled.

"Your subordinate knows my mistake." That person spoke in a low voice.

"It's good that you know." The Lifire Empyrean calmly spoke. "Men, immediately send people to each of the governor's manors and gather the governors. Tell them to come here for a meeting at the Lifire Palace immediately."

The eyes of everyone flashed with sharpness after they heard it. The Lifire Empyrean was still the most intelligent. Although he publicly said not to suspect someone, but in truth, he immediately informed his men to gather the governors here for a meeting?

A meeting? To discuss what?

The Lifire Empyrean most probably wanted to see if each of the governors were inside their respective governor's manors or not.

"Yes." Some of his subordinates instantly sped towards each of the governor's manors. In fact, they didn't even send a message using the messaging crystals. They wanted to personally head to the governor's manors to take a look, only then would they know if the governors were present or not. This is what the Lifire Empyrean wanted to know. Those who worked for him naturally needed to know the Lifire Empyrean's thoughts. There was no need to speak too clearly for some things.

Not long after, somebody reported that the clan leader of the Jialan Clan, Jialan Yuntian, brought some of his family members here to pay a visit. The Lifire Empyrean naturally wouldn't reject. After all, the Jialan Monarch was from the Jialan Clan. It's only natural that his clan members would come.

After a few moments, Jialan Yuntian led his entourage and came to the great hall, all of them staring at the corpse on the ground.

Only to see Jialan Yuntian walking forward, he came to the side of the corpse. His fists were clenched as veins popped out of his neck. At this instant, it seemed like he aged several times.

Kneeling down, Jialan Yuntian gently touched the Jialan Monarch's face. The eyes of the leader of the mighty Jialan Clan, were actually red at this moment.

Regardless if the Jialan Monarch had disappointed him or not, this was still his son. Also, his martial talent had always been outstanding or it would be impossible to allow the Jialan Monarch to have such heavy responsibilities. However, this outstanding son of his had now become a cold corpse lying on the ground.

The eyes of everyone from the Jialan Clan all turned scarlet, flashing with rage. Their killing intent permeated the atmosphere. No matter what was the relationship between the Jialan Monarch and them, all of them still ultimately belonged to the Jialan Clan. The Jialan Monarch was still considered a very important member of the clan.

But now, he was actually killed by someone.

"Palace lord, what is going on?" Jialan Yuntian's voice trembled, he did his best to maintain the calmness of his tone.

"Tell everything you told me to the Jialan Clan Leader." The Lifire Empyrean glanced at the immortal emperor who came here to make a report. That immortal emperor nodded, he stepped out and repeated what he said before. After hearing his words, the killing intent released by the Jialan Clan's members grew even stronger. One of them then snarled, "It must be him. Other than Qin Wentian, there are no others."

"That's right, only he has enough strength and motives to do this. He used to be a bandit as well." Another person agreed. It was evident that the first thought everyone would have after hearing the story, would be to suspect Qin Wentian.

"Shut up." Jialan Yuntian berated, his voice was like ice. This caused many to glance at Jialan Yuntian, feeling somewhat puzzled.

Their Jialan Clan had shown goodwill many times to Qin Wentian but Qin Wentian had always ignored them. In fact, he even threatened them at Jialan Qiuyue's grand banquet before, saying that the Jialan Monarch must die.

Right now, the Jialan Monarch had truly died. Other than Qin Wentian, who else could his killer be?

When they thought of this, the people of the Jialan Clan felt even more enraged. This bastard. They had already treated Qin Wentian with extreme benevolence and had never made things difficult for him since a very long time ago, wanting to mend their relationship. But Qin Wentian still eventually made his move against them.

"Palace lord, please don't blame my members from shooting their mouths off." Jialan Yuntian bowed and apologized. He naturally also suspected Qin Wentian but no matter what, Qin Wentian was still a governor of the Lifire Palace. Without sufficient evidence, it wasn't their place to directly call Qin Wentian out, naming him as the killer. Also, back then in Lifelong City, the Realmlord had personally said that he wouldn't mind Qin Wentian's past background as a bandit.

"Qin Wentian is the northern governor of my Lifire Palace. It's best you all pay attention to your words or don't blame this seat for punishing some of you. With regards to the Jialan Monarch's death, I'll naturally investigate it all the way till the end. Regardless who the culprit is, I'll execute him for sure." The Lifire Empyrean coldly spoke, his voice was also filled with a heavy killing intent. This caused the hearts of the Jialan Clan's members to shudder. They finally understood Jialan Yuntian's meaning.

After all, they had never been on good terms with the Lifire Empyrean. They mustn't give him any thing that could be used against them.

Slandering a governor wasn't a minor incident. Although they felt that Qin Wentian was the killer, there was no proof as of now.

"I've already spread the word to the various governors, telling them to come here for a meeting to investigate this matter." The Lifire Empyrean's tone turned slightly warmer as he calmly spoke. The eyes of the people from the Jialan Clan flashed. The Lifire Empyrean has already summoned the various governors here?

In that case, they would soon know if Qin Wentian is in his governor's manor or not.

Since that was the case, they would simply wait here.

Time flowed by, the atmosphere now in the Lifire Palace felt extremely heavy. The death of a monarch definitely wasn't a minor thing. In addition, the monarch was killed by a bandit.

Very swiftly, this news circulated throughout Lifire City. For a period of time, a commotion shook the entire city, many people were discussing about this matter.

The Jialan Monarch had actually died.

Below the Lifire Empyrean, there's a grand governor, five city governor as well as nine monarchs. In truth, a monarch can be considered to be truly ruling over their territories. They control many mines and had immense power and authority, with many more minor cities under them. The cultivation resources they would be able to obtain far surpassed what a governor could. Even the grand governor cannot compare to them in terms of obtaining resources.

But the Jialan Monarch of the Jialan Clan was actually killed by a bandit.

This matter caused rumors to circulate all around and many people started guessing at the identity of the killer. Many of them couldn't help but to think of the northern governor Qin Wentian. Undoubtedly, he had the greatest suspicion on him.

There were even people who sighed in admiration. Governor Qin Wentian was truly an absolute genius. In the past, he defied orders and appeared in Lifelong City, startling everyone with his combat prowess. Now, he even assumed the mantle of a bandit again and killed the Jialan Monarch. This was just too crazy.

The various governors all soon arrived at the Lifire Palace. Beauty Xiao had her brows furrowed. She used her messaging crystal to contact Qin Wentian but Qin Wentian didn't reply, causing her to curse at his impulsiveness. Killing the Jialan Monarch at this moment, wasn't that simply courting death? This act would undoubtedly completely enrage the Lifire Empyrean. Once the investigation is carried out and he is found to be the culprit, the Lifire Empyrean will definitely execute him first before making a report upwards to the Lifelong Saint Hall.

Killing a monarch...Even if he executes Qin Wentian, there would be nothing the Realmlord could say.

Grand Governor Zhuge Xiong was the first person to arrive at the Lifire Palace. After that, Lin Ba, followed by Sun Qian who replaced Xia Hou, and then Beauty Xiao and Yin Qiu. Other than Qin Wentian, all the governors were present.

Upon seeing this, Beauty Xiao's smile turned slightly stiff. That fellow actually didn't show up?

The people from the Jialan Clan all frowned, even the Lifire Empyrean's expression was ice-cold. Was it really Qin Wentian?

If this was really the case, Qin Wentian better not blame him.

Finally, the immortal emperor who headed to the northern governor's manor finally returned. He even brought an additional person back with him. The Lifire Empyrean's expression turned completely dark when he saw this. That immortal emperor walked towards him and bowed, "Reporting to Palace Lord, Governor Qin isn't in his governor's manor."

"RUMBLE!" Many people from the Jialan Clan unleashed terrifying killing intent. The eyes of Jialan Yuntian flickered with sharpness. Was it really Qin Wentian?

The Lifire Empyrean radiated coldness, just as he was about to speak, that immortal emperor continued, "However, the people of the governor's manor said that Governor Qin just left not long ago. He said that he wanted to head out to temper himself and if there are no major matters, they were not to disturb him. Hence, I intentionally brought an attendant from the northern governor's manor back here."

"Mhm?" The eyes of everyone flashed when they heard this. The people from the Jialan Clan frowned. The Lifire Empyrean glanced at the attendant and asked, "When did Governor Qin leave?"

"Reporting to Palace Lord, it was roughly about two hours ago." That person replied while trembling with trepidation. The group before him were all people with extremely high status, there was also the Jialan Monarch's corpse lying on the ground. He clearly sensed that something was wrong.

"He intentionally informed you about this before he left?" The Lifire Empyrean asked.

"Not only me, many people in the governor's manor knew this. At that time, Governor Qin directly walked out of the governor's manor and told us that he will be heading out to temper himself as he soared through the air. Everyone personally saw this." That attendant didn't dare to hesitate as he honestly replied.

The Lifire Empyrean turned his gaze back to the immortal emperor who went to the northern region. That emperor nodded, "Palace Lord, this is true. Everyone in the northern governor's manor can confirm this fact. They all saw Governor Qin leaving."

The Lifire Empyrean's expression changed continuously. Could it be that he was mistaken? He believed that no one in the governor's manor would be so bold to lie to him together. If this really was the case, he would be able to find the truth once he investigated. No one would be so foolish.

Could it actually not be Qin Wentian?

As he thought of this, the Lifire Empyrean's expression turned warmer. It was good if the killer wasn't Qin Wentian. At the very least, it meant that Qin Wentian didn't challenge his bottom line.

"Palace Lord, although Governor Qin says not to disturb him unless there are major matters, I believe that if you issue a summons, he would return here immediately." That attendant bowed.

The Lifire Empyrean fell silent. After that, he spoke, "No need. Since Governor Qin has something important to do, just let him settle his matters first."

Chapter 1643: Taotie Mine

It was true that Qin Wentian was still in the governor's manor two hours ago before he left. In that case, the killer would surely not be Qin Wentian. If he didn't use the teleportation array in the Lifire Palace to connect to Jialan Emperor City, it was impossible for him to travel there so quickly.

Since so many people could be witnesses for him, this meant that it must be true. They can already eliminate all suspicions from Qin Wentian. The Lifire Empyrean also felt more at ease. Maybe, this wasn't a killing due to a grudge but because that bandit head was simply too arrogant and wanted to challenge the Lifire Palace's prestige. Hence, that bandit head killed the Jialan Monarch.

The people from the Jialan Clan were puzzled as well. Could it really not be Qin Wentian?

Their first thought was that the Lifire Empyrean was trying to shield Qin Wentian? Did he intentionally make this man say such a thing? However, this conjecture was quickly overturned. If the killer really was Qin Wentian, given the current state of relations between Qin Wentian and the Lifire Empyrean now, the Lifire Empyrean would definitely kill Qin Wentian with no hesitation. The act of killing the Jialan Monarch didn't merely involve the Jialan Clan, it was also challenging the Lifire Empyrean's bottom line. It would be more harmful than beneficial to the Lifire Empyrean.

"Since Qin Wentian isn't here, let's forget about it. What ideas do you all have with regards to this?" The Lifire Empyrean glanced at the other governors. Naturally, this discussion was merely a farce. His true purpose in gathering the governors here, was to see whether the governors were present in their respective manors or not.

"Palace lord, no matter who did this, by daring to kill a monarch of our Lifire Palace, that's clearly a challenge to your authority. We have to investigate this all the way till the end. After capturing the bandit head, we must execute him in public and use him to warn everyone else. If not, if there are more bandit attacks in the future, where would the prestige of our Lifire Palace be?" The newly appointed Central Governor Sun Qian spoke. However, he might as well not have said anything.

Naturally, he could only say this right now.

"Zhuge Xiong, any thoughts on this?" The Lifire Empyrean glanced at Zhuge Xiong.

"Did the bandits leave behind any clues?" Zhuge Xiong's eyes gleamed sharply, staring at the person making a report.

"There are no other clues available, we only know their law attributes. From this aspect, it would be like searching for a needle in a haystack." That person replied. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there are simply too many experts and it was unknown how many people had similar law attributes. Unless they coincidentally met the bandit head again and saw his style of combat. Only then would they have a chance to recognize him. However, the possibility of such a thing happening was almost nil.

"Palace lord, they committed a major crime and might very well not appear again in the future. If they don't show up ever again, it's almost impossible for us to find them. Without any clues to go on, if we wish to make progress in this case, we have to start acting from the bandit group itself." Zhuge Xiong spoke.

"What do you mean?" The Lifire Empyrean glanced at Zhuge Xiong.

"We will divide and conquer. The one who killed the Jialan Monarch is the bandit head alone. There's no need for us to kill them all, we can send out a news saying that as long as one isn't the bandit head and is willing to provide information, coming forth voluntarily to surrender, we won't pursue criminal charges for them being a bandit and will reward them instead. By doing this, we only need one of the bandits to surrender and we can find out more from him." Zhuge Xiong spoke.

The Lifire Empyrean frowned, "Could it be that we are really not pursuing charges if they surrender voluntarily? We are even rewarding them heavily?"

"Palace lord, only our Lifire Palace isn't pursuing." Zhuge Xiong had a meaningful look in his eyes, he even intentionally glanced at the people from the Jialan Clan. This caused the eyes of everyone to flash, as expected of the grand governor Zhuge Xiong, truly ruthless enough. The Lifire Palace wouldn't pursue it, but it would all be too easy for the Jialan Clan to make someone die behind the scenes.

"But, will they be so foolish and willing to take the risk?" Someone from the Jialan Clan asked.

"This is why we must heavily reward them. We have to make them fully believe in the news, causing their hearts to be stirred by greed." Zhuge Xiong replied.

"Excellent. I'll hand this matter to you to handle then. The other governors are to cooperate and assist Zhuge Xiong for this mission. As for everyone here, none of you are allowed to leak anything from the meeting here today." The Lifire Empyrean coldly swept his eyes over everyone, causing their hearts to tremble. The people here all respectively nodded.

Not long after, everyone had dispersed but the atmosphere in the Lifire Palace was still as tense as ever. It was the same in the Jialan Clan. After they brought the Jialan Monarch's corpse back, the atmosphere in their clan was also extremely tensed.

Zhuge Xiong instantly acted on the order. He personally went to Jialan Emperor City and released news that the bandit head was too arrogant and he would be executed if caught. But for the other bandits, as long as they came out to surrender voluntarily, not only would they not be punished, they would still receive three high-grade emperor-ranked weapons, 3,000 high-grade emperor stones and will receive a small property from Lifire City where they can cultivate within in peace and their safety would be protected by the Lifire Palace.

The moment this news circulated out, a huge commotion was created. This was the first time everyone heard that being a bandit actually could have such a good payoff. This was simply unbelievable.

The first thing everyone thought of was that this was a scheme. However, the fact that the bandits were able to make the Lifire Palace send out such news, was truly incredible. The Lifire Palace clearly was enraged enough that they didn't care about face anymore. They wanted to capture all these bandits as soon as possible. After all, a monarch had been killed.

There were also some who believed that this news might be real. After all, the Lifire Empyrean had personally given the order and it shouldn't be false. Maybe, he did this because he wanted to force the bandit head out so he could execute him to warn the public. Because he didn't have enough clues to investigate, the Lifire Palace had no choice but to do this.

...

As the most suspicious person, Qin Wentian clearly knew that it was naturally impossible for the Lifire Palace to find out. Maybe, it was impossible for them to discover who the bandit head was even if they took forever.

Even if the other bandits were too foolish and were blinded by greed, leading them to surrender, he wouldn't give a damn. Those bandits don't even know who the bandit head was. Although they had seen his face before, that was merely a disguise he wore for them to see. His appearance was masked by his illusory arts and even his aura was fake. How could anyone trace it back to him?

As to who the Jialan Monarch's killer was?

Their suspicions were all right. The killer was none other than Qin Wentian.

When he was in Heavenly City, he received news sent by Beiming Youhuang and knew what Ye Qianyu was facing in the Lifelong Saint Hall, also, Beiming Youhuang was trapped there as well. The fire brought on by the grudge those years ago suddenly blazed up in his heart. If it wasn't because of the Jialan Monarch, all of these wouldn't have happened. Youhuang wouldn't be trapped, Ye Qianyu wouldn't be jailed for tens of years in the Lifire Jail and now, was even being humiliated in the Lifelong Saint Hall by being asked to dance when the Realmlord felt like it. Given his relationship with Ye Qianyu, Ye Qianyu had only danced that dance once for him. That was on the cold lake in the Jialan Emperor City back then.

No matter how the Jialan Clan tries to express their goodwill, the Jialan Monarch had to die no matter what. His actions back then have already determined his fate today.

Under a fit of anger, Qin Wentian gathered some unaffiliated cultivators and directly acted against the Skyfall Mine, killing the Jialan Monarch, settling the grudge in his heart.

As for that white-robed figure that appeared before his men, which proved that it was impossible for him to kill the Jialan Monarch due to the time difference...that, naturally wouldn't be his true self. It was none other than Di Tian instead!

It was extremely easy to pull this off. Di Tian merely took off his mask, wore a white robe, and sealed his own aura. Without his mask, how was he any different from Qin Wentian?

Also, he left the governor's manor so openly because of one reason. How would his subordinates dare to use their immortal senses to scan him? But if he went to the Lifire Palace, there was a risk of being exposed. He didn't know if his disguise would hold up to the Lifire Empyrean's scrutiny. Hence, he directly announced to his subordinates that he wanted to temper himself outside and they should not disturb him unless absolutely necessary.

He believed that as long as the Lifire Empyrean knew that he just left the northern governor's manor and that there are so many people who could become alibis for him, the Lifire Empyrean wouldn't look for him. Ever since after the grand banquet at the Lifelong Saint Hall, the Lifire Empyrean had been very courteous with him. Since the death of the Jialan Monarch had nothing to do with him, why would the Lifire Empyrean forcefully summon him back to the Lifire Palace? Was there any meaning to that?

This move could hide everything. As long as no one knows that Qin Wentian was Di Tian, nobody would know who the killer of the Jialan Monarch is forever.

As long as he didn't kill the Jialan Monarch, the Lifire Empyrean would continue to be courteous to him and maintain their current state of relations.

Hence, Qin Wentian basically didn't have to worry that the Jialan Monarch's death might affect him.

At Lifire City, Di Tian was untouchable. The Emperor Pavilion now was only second to the Jialan Clan in terms of authority and power. In fact, because it was unrestricted by the Lifire Palace and the Realmlord had personally sent out the word to support its development, it's very possible that the Emperor Pavilion would surpass the Jialan Clan in the future.

In the blink of an eye, several months have already passed after the Jialan Monarch's death.

The Lifelong Realm, other than the nine world palaces, the Lifelong Saint Hall itself also controls a large number of territories. The region they control was the center of the entire Lifelong Realm, also known as the core region.

In this core region, there were eight major mines that were the most famous.

The Taotie Mine was one of the eight major mines controlled by the Lifelong Saint Hall. It was a true supreme-graded major mine and there would be terrifying treasures born occasionally. The guards here were naturally all also from the Lifelong Saint Hall.

In fact, all eight major mines had teleportation arrays that directly connected with the Lifelong Saint Hall. No bandits have ever dared to target any of the eight major mines. If something like that really happened, that would mean that there's someone who wants to challenge the supreme authority of the Lifelong Realmlord.

As for the excavators in the eight major mines, all of them had cultivation bases at the immortal emperor realm at the very least. Also, these excavators weren't slaves or convicts, they were true experts who came here willingly.

Although these major mines are all extremely dangerous but they possess countless bouts of good fortune. As long as they have some harvest, it would surely be enough for an immortal emperor to squander his fortune away for many years. Even if they can only gain 10% of the final harvest, these mines would still attract a great number of experts. There were even some who came here to pry the secrets of transcending the immortal emperor realm, hoping to break through to the empyrean realm.

Right now, Qin Wentian appeared outside the entrance of the taotie mine. He glanced at the majestic mountain range before him as he slowly approached.

It was rumored that the taotie mine, one of the eight major legendary mines controlled by the Lifelong Saint Hall, had a possibility to produce all sorts of extremely rare and unique treasures, as well as different types of empyrean stones.

This was why he came here. In order to cultivate faster and to reach the empyrean level, he had to take risks and temper himself!

Chapter 1644: Mystical Ancient Mountain

The Taotie Mine could be entered anytime as long as you met the requirement of being an immortal emperor. The rules were more relaxed here, there was no fixed time for people inside to exit. You can exit whenever you want to and keep 10% of your harvest.

These are the eight most important mines in the Lifelong Realm, and naturally were far more attractive to powerful experts. Also, it contained many mysteries within and frequent bouts of good fortune. Despite so, its rules were much more relaxed compared to the other mines. But then again, this was a kind of strategy as well. So what if this place had many bouts of good fortune within? If the rules were too strict, no one would want to come here to risk their lives in adventuring or to temper themselves. Who then, would come here to excavate the resources?

In the vast mine, there was a large stretch of flat land. This place was the entrance grounds. At this moment, a group of people entered and Qin Wentian was among them. These were all immortal emperors who were in small groups of twos or threes. The sounds of them talking could be heard as well.

"Senior brother, given your talent and cultivation, you came here to temper yourself once again. This time, you might really succeed in breaking through the emperor realm to enter the empyrean realm ." At this moment, a voice rang out beside Qin Wentian. This voice was from a group of martial siblings. The weakest one was a mid-stage immortal emperor while the strongest one exuded a terrifying aura, at the peak of the immortal emperor realm and was here to search for opportunities to allow himself to breakthrough.

"As expected of one of the eight major mines of the Lifelong Realm. Most probably, the people here are all from the major powers." Qin Wentian silently mused. These major powers are naturally of the entire Lifelong Realm in perspective. For example, the Sword Spirit Sect, the Jialan Clan, etc. They had to have an Empyrean within their sect or clan to be classified as a major power.

The Lifelong Realm was simply too vast. Just a single Lifelong City contains many major powers let alone the entirety of the Lifelong Realm. How many peak experts are there? Existences like the Realmlord might be as rare as kirin horns and phoenix feathers but for empyrean-level existences, there would surely be not too little of them.

"If everyone wants to enter, you all have to present all your interspatial rings for us to check via immortal sense. If there are sensitive objects in your rings, you can return and stow it away before coming back." At the registration point, the guards here reminded the people who wanted to enter. The rules were as expected. If the guards didn't check the rings, who knew if the excavators would embezzle their harvest or not.

The people here nodded in agreement. One of the guards then pointed ahead, "Continue ahead, the true entrance into the taotie mine is there. You guys can enter and exit anytime you want to."

"Right." The group of people nodded and continued ahead.

"Everyone, please hold on." At this moment, a figure spoke out, causing everyone to halt. They turned their heads and glanced at the person who spoke, it was a young and handsome guy. He had an extraordinary demeanor and a beautiful maiden who bore a striking resemblance to him, also stood beside him.

"Us two siblings are disciples of the Greencloud Mountain. This time, I'm sure everyone knows how dangerous it would be in the taotie mine. Leaving aside the dangers presented by the mine itself, there's still the threat from countless experts within. We might not win against the others if we have to fight for a treasure, hence, it's very normal for people to form alliances before entering. Our group has a total of nine people, why don't we form an alliance?" The young man slowly spoke. His words were the truth. Many who entered the major mines would always form an alliance.

Don't assume that they would be safe just because their cultivation base is high. The dangers within were unknown and it was a definite thing that there would be many experts inside.

Everyone seemed intrigued. They glanced at the young man and the young man laughed, "This is one of the eight major mines, the taotie mine. With more friends, we would have more confidence. The four of you should be disciples from major powers, right?"

The person the young man spoke to, was none other than the small group of martial siblings which Qin Wentian heard earlier.

"You two are really disciples from the Greencloud Mountain?" The peak-stage immortal emperor who was the leader of the group of four, asked.

"My name is Yi Qing, a disciple of the Greencloud Mountain. This is my younger sister, Yi Leng." That young man smiled and nodded.

"Descendents of the Yi Clan." The peak-stage immortal emperor's eyes flashed. After that, he nodded. "Since this is the case, let's form an alliance. We came from the Desolate Ground."

"Desolate Ground's Four Palaces?" The eyes of Yi Qing gleamed sharply. The peak-stage immortal emperor nodded.

"To think that I would be acquainted with the disciples of the Greencloud Mountain who are descendants of the Yi Clan, as well as geniuses from the Desolate Ground's Four Palaces. My name is Murong Xiaoxiao." A female immortal emperor, who was alone, smiled. She had bright eyes and a beautiful smile. Her smile was like a crescent moon, exuding a simple innocence. However, seeing that she had managed to cultivate to her current level and is also an unaffiliated cultivator, the others here naturally wouldn't just judge her from the surface."

"Fairy Murong." Yi Qing smiled and nodded at Murong Xiaoxiao. The people from the Desolate Ground also nodded to her.

"Unaffiliated cultivator, Tianwen." Qin Wentian smiled, he didn't reveal his true identity. The others here calmly glanced at Qin Wentian, their attitude towards him was naturally not as warmth when compared to their attitudes towards Murong Xiaoxiao. Beautiful women would always have an advantage.

"Skyair Palace, Shan Lengqiu." The last person was clad in black and projected a cold aura. Even the fact that the Greencloud Mountain's disciples and geniuses from the Desolate Ground's Four Palaces are here, it was unable to make him act more politely.

"Shan Lengqiu? The senior disciple of the Skyair Empyrean? The grand disciple of the Realmlord?" Yi Qing's countenance flashed with sharpness as he stared at Shan Lengqiu.

Shan Lengqiu nodded calmly. A moment later, the eyes of everyone around him brightened. Although they were from peak powers, their status couldn't be compared to Shan Lengqiu, he was the senior disciple under the Skyair Empyrean, the palace lord of the Skyair World Palace.

"To think that we would be able to meet Brother Shan here. I still remember during the last grand banquet, Brother Shan represented the Skyair World Palace in the competition between the world palaces and obtained the top ranking in one of the rounds. After that, you resigned from your position as a monarch and went roaming to temper yourself. We are truly extremely lucky to meet you here today." The leader of the group from the Desolate Ground politely clasped his hands as he spoke, he clearly knew of Shan Lengqiu's fame.

"That's right. In any case, why did someone of your talent and status come to the taotie mine to excavate?" Yi Qing asked.

"Why did I come here? Don't you guys understand?" Shan Lengqiu glanced at them. After that, the eyes of everyone gleamed with sharpness. Seems like he came here to seek an opportunity for a breakthrough. He wanted to reach the same level as his master, the Skyair Empyrean.

"Brother Shan can even give up the position as a monarch in order to reach the next level. This is really impressive." Murong Xiaoxiao gently spoke as she smiled at him.

"Before the empyrean realm, everything else has no meaning." Shan Lengqiu replied in a low voice. "Let's continue ahead."

"Mhm." The group of them then continued moving towards the mine's entrance with Shan Lengqiu in the center. Unknowingly, Murong Xiaoxiao had somehow appeared beside him and was now walking together by his side.

Qin Wentian followed behind, his expression was extremely calm, his heart as still as water. He didn't expect that in this taotie mine, he didn't expect that he would be able to meet a grand-disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord here. This place was truly a place filled with crouching tigers and hidden dragons.

The group of them continued and finally entered the teleportation array leading to the interior of the mine. In an instant, they crossed boundless distance and appeared in the airspace of the taotie mine. Stars sparkled around them and they seemed tiny and inconsequential. From their vision, they currently could only see a small portion of the mine.

"Taotie Mine." Murong Xiaoxiao murmured before she smiled. She then spoke to Shan Lengqiu, "Brother Shan, my strength is considerably weaker. Given how dangerous this place is, you have to protect me if I follow you, okay?"

A powerful female immortal emperor was now like a little woman radiating charm. Her actions were extremely gentle. Shan Lengqiu glanced at her and smiled, "Sure. Let's go down."

"There's no one guarding the airspace of this mine?" Qin Wentian asked.

Yi Qing and Yi Leng glanced at Qin Wentian. Yi Leng's eyes flickered with disdain. Although they could see that Qin Wentian was a peak-stage immortal emperor, an unaffiliated cultivator was still an unaffiliated cultivator, to think that he didn't even know about this. Yi Leng glanced at Shan Lengqiu and felt that the disparity between him and this Tianwen was exceedingly great. That Murong Xiaoxiao was truly shameless enough, directly sticking close to him. What a bitch.

"Brother Tianwen. You might not know this but there's a fearsome taotie energy within this mine that can devour everything. A terrifying spatial storm will produce currents of destructive might frequently. Let alone peak-stage immortal emperors, even empyreans cannot exit through the airspace. The only way to leave is to use the teleportation array." Yi Qing laughed as he explained.

"I'm ignorant and inexperienced. Thanks for your guidance." Qin Wentian thanked Yi Qing.

"You are really ignorant." Yi Leng coldly laughed as she glanced at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian smiled and nodded his head, he wasn't bothered at all.

The group of them continued and there would occasionally be flashes of emperor light below. However, they merely casually glanced in the direction and didn't stop. Ordinary emperor-ranked stones wouldn't be able to grab their attention.

"What is that?" At this moment, Murong Xiaoxiao glanced at a location extremely far away. Over there, a golden ancient mountain could be seen. Resplendent light cascaded down from the skies, landing on the mountain, giving it a saint-like and holy feeling.

"What strong spatial law energy." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice.

"Let's go and take a look." Shan Lengqiu's silhouette flashed and sped out, moving like black lightning, directly rushing towards that direction.

"Wait for me." Murong Xiaoxiao gently spoke. The rest of the group followed after. Yi Leng's beautiful eyes glanced at Murong Xiaoxiao, she seemed to be extremely unhappy with her.

Not long after, they arrived. There was a resplendent golden mountain range before their eyes, exuding a sense of incomparable majesticness. There were many experts standing around here, each group of experts occupied a spot. They were either standing there with their eyes closed, or seated down cross-legged. All of them seemed to be trying to gain some insights.

"The energy here is spatial energy but it doesn't seem to be pure spatial law energy." Qin Wentian glanced ahead. The majestic golden giant mountain actually had a transparent peak. Inside there, a few figures scattered around could be seen. All of them had ashen expressions and appeared thin and dried up. It felt like they had been trapped within there for an extremely long time!

Chapter 1645: Difference in Opinion Regarding the Dao

"This isn't spatial energy." As Qin Wentian's voice faded, Shan Lengqiu calmly replied. He stared at the golden mountain before them and continued, "This is world energy."

The eyes of everyone gleamed with sharpness. This was none other than what many of them wanted to come into contact with most, world energy.

Qin Wentian's eyes also gleamed as he stared ahead. Was this world energy?

In addition, the world energy could clearly be felt in the atmosphere. Truly, this was as expected of this worldstone-ranked mine that was one of the eight major mines.

For the emperor realm, one has to strengthen their law attribute energy and fuse them together to establish a stronger law domain. However, what should the next step be?

When one comprehends their law energy to the limits, they would touch upon the source origin of their laws. This is what it means to transcend the emperor realm. At that time, at the empyrean realm, the cultivator can infuse his will into his laws, making his will the law's will, making heaven's will, his will. After that, when one reaches the limits of the empyrean realm, their laws will fuse together and a brand new energy would be born. The new energy is known as world energy.

This kind of energy had already surpassed the boundaries of law domain, it's an intrinsic evolution, a qualitative transformation. Once you infuse your will into this new energy, that energy would be a part of you. Stellar martial cultivators originally represented the will of heavens. Hence, for empyreans, they must transcend laws, breaking past immortality and try to control heaven's will.

How many immortal emperors are there in the Lifelong Realm? They are basically countless in number. But then, how many world overlords are there?

As of now, Qin Wentian only knew of two. One was the Lifelong Realmlord. The second one was Ancient Emperor Yi from the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

This step was truly as tough as ascending to the heavens. Countless extraordinary characters had given their all, but even until the time of their death, they couldn't even glimpse that level.

Let alone the realm of world overlords, the vast majority of emperors couldn't even glimpse the level between world overlords and immortal emperors. Empyreans were also very rare. In the vast Lifelong Realm, those who became empyreans could be the palace lord of a world palace or establish a new peak power. From this, one could imagine how strong empyreans are.

After Qin Wentian came to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it was natural that he would not forget to look up all this information. He once browsed through ancient scrolls before and the ancients had questioned that the thirty-three immortal realms they were living in, why would such a place appear? Why is there a world for them all? Why would things be so balanced and contain the various law attributes that could be fused together?

World Overlords have already faintly came in contact with this level. The stronger a stellar martial cultivator grows, the closer he would be to the truth, nearing the origin of this world.

"Brother Shan has good judgement, being able to tell that it was world energy the moment you saw it. As expected of the senior disciple under the Skyair Empyrean. You should not be far from the empyrean level." Murong Xiaoxiao smiled. However, Shan Lengqiu shook his head, "I'm still too far from it."

"I believe Brother Shan will reach there sooner or later. Maybe, you would be able to break through to the Empyrean Realm here in the taotie mine." Murong Xiaoxiao gently smiled. "I don't really understand about the world stones, how were they formed? Can Brother Shan help me out with this question?"

"Mhm." Shan Lengqiu calmly nodded, "I was once fortunate enough to listen to a lecture given by my grand-master, the Lifelong Realmlord. He said that there are nine heavenly astral rivers in this world, and they are filled with a countless number of constellations. In truth, the nine heavenly astral rivers reflect our cultivation realms. The higher up a heavenly astral river is, the more terrifying the astral energy contained within its constellations would be. However, because humans are restricted by our cultivation base as well as limited by the boundlessly far distance apart, we cannot fully comprehend the true power of constellations. What we can comprehend, is only the energy we can absorb."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed after he heard Shan Lengqiu's words. He long had a similar suspicion in his heart. The constellations in the nine heavenly layers are all extraordinary. Even for constellations in the first layer, they contained boundless law energy. If not, for cultivators who have reached the immortal level, if the constellations they condensed before were all from the lower heavenly layers, would that mean that their constellations were crippled? Naturally no. After their cultivation base grows, the energy they can absorb would be of different quality as well.

"These mines are actually gigantic meteor stones from the heavens, or they might be naturally formed constellations. I have no idea how this taotie mine was formed but I believe that through the passage of countless years, as the saying goes, water droplets can even penetrate a rock. After absorbing the essence of the heavens and earth for so long, everything would evolve qualitatively. Maybe mines are the same as human cultivators, law origin energy would gradually be born and law's will would appear. When two different kinds of law origins fused together for countless years, their law's will would converge together and give birth to a brand new energy, resulting in the creation of a worldstone-ranked mine."

"You are saying that these mines are sentient?" Murong Xiaoxiao asked.

"Law's will isn't considered being sentient. The laws in the world are what people refer to as heaven's will. However, that itself is an ethereal thing but there's no doubt it really exists. It is different from humans and demonic beasts, the mine cannot think for itself." Shan Lengqiu explained. Murong Xiaoxiao's beautiful eyes flashed with light as she smiled, "Brother Shan, you are really too awesome. After listening to you, I feel that I'm really close to comprehending some bottlenecks which held me up in the past."

"Insightful indeed." The Yi Clan's siblings nodded. Qin Wentian had a look of contemplation on his face. Although Murong Xiaoxiao's words were clearly a fawn, it's true that Shan Lengqiu's words had sparked some insights. Humans always say that it's difficult to decipher heaven's will and difficult to go against one's destiny. If they were to apply Shan Lengqiu's theory, everything would be more logical. The so-called heaven's will is just a set of laws that governed the world. It was not sentient and couldn't think for itself. It was ethereal by nature and would naturally be difficult to decipher.

And as for humans, they are the most intelligent of the myriad of living things. When humans comprehend that kind of power, they can infuse their own will into the laws, forming a law's will. If they could do that, they would represent heaven's will. The heaven's will is my will. How tyrannical is that?

"These are some of the more obvious things. In any case, the giant mountain before us should be a world stone that's formed from the fusion of spatial law energy and earth law energy. The fusion gave birth to a brand new energy, transforming it from law energy to world energy. The people within are trapped and I'm afraid they most probably would never be able to exit from there." Shan Lengqiu glanced at the figures trapped within the peak. Their eyes all had vacant looks, it was clear that they had experienced a most painful struggle and their spirits were already broken.

"This place isn't suitable for us. Only world overlords are suitable to comprehend such energy. The distance for us is still far too great." Shan Lengqiu continued speaking.

"Mhm, I'll listen to you." Murong Xiaoxiao nodded. Although the group of them felt that this mountain was mystical, they understood that it wasn't suitable for them to comprehend the energy here. They were still too far from that level.

They then continued ahead and discovered another extraordinary place.

This place was a river of sword qi that cascades down from the sky, resembling a waterfall that flowed unceasingly downwards. The sword qi filled the earth, forming a sword abyss that was immeasurably deep. They had no idea if they reached the center of the taotie mine. This sword qi river was just too terrifying. If they entered the abyss, it would definitely be a path of death.

"The sword intent is clearly present but it didn't fuse with any other law energy. It's very close to the law origin." Shan Lengqiu sat down cross-legged and directly closed his eyes, seeking to perceive the energy here.

Murong Xiaoxiao started when she saw this. She flashed a charming smile and went over to sit beside Shan Lengqiu.

Qin Wentian also found a good spot. He didn't sit down. He chose to stand instead as he quietly observed. His white robes and hair fluttered in the wind.

The laws of sword can take on countless forms. It could actually become liquid, flowing like a river and it felt much milder than whatever he sensed before.

There were many people here, all of them were here to perceive the sword law energy and were standing in different locations. For people who came to the taotie mine, other than mining stones, they would often try to comprehend the mysteries here to cultivate. There were simply too many bouts of good fortune in here.

After several months, the group of them were still here comprehending. Qin Wentian stood alone at a location. Murong Xiaoxiao would occasionally stop to seek Shan Lengqiu's guidance on cultivation.

"Brother Shan, you comprehended something?" At this moment, Murong Xiaoxiao asked upon seeing Shan Lengqiu opening his eyes.

Shan Lengqiu nodded lightly. Murong Xiaoxiao then asked, "Brother Shan, I wish to consult you on this. This sword river seems so mild and gentle, completely unlike the sharpness of sword law energy. How can the laws of sword be so soft? It doesn't seem to contain any killing power within at all."

"Naturally it can't be. After losing the aura of sharpness, how can it still be termed as sword intent?" Shan Lengqiu spoke. "Sword users should all exhibit extreme sharpness. Although the energy fluctuations of this sword river seem gentle and soft, the innate nature of the laws of sword is still extremely tyrannical and sharp. If one steps into it, they would die instantly. The mild nature you sense now it's just something on the surface."

Not far away, Qin Wentian's expression changed after he heard Shan Lengqiu's words. Truth be told, he had been thinking about this question during this period of perceiving. However, he came to a different conclusion than Shan Lengqiu. Since this is the case, he might as well use this chance to exchange thoughts. Hence, he spoke, "I have a different opinion. The laws of sword can take on a myriad of forms, sword law attributes are indeed embodied by the words 'tyrannical' and 'sharp.' This is something innate to it. However, who says that sword intent cannot be gentle and soft, as mild as flowing water?"

Murong Xiaoxiao inclined her head and smiled at Qin Wentian, she didn't expect Qin Wentian would speak up now. Shan Lengqiu frowned upon hearing the difference in their opinions. He coldly spoke, "Have you seen a sword intent before that fails to harm or kill others when unleashed?"

"I've seen it before." Qin Wentian nodded. "In any case, when the sword intent we control flows in our bodies, why didn't it injure us?"

"Ridiculous." Shan Lengqiu's voice turned colder. "How can the sword intent you control hurt yourself? What example is this? This is simply nonsense."

"As to law's will, it means that I have to infuse my will into my laws. This is something you said earlier. Since this is the case, when we break through to a higher realm, the heaven's will would become our will. At that time, I can control the laws of the sword as I like, able to not injure myself or others if I so choose. Now that we are unable to do so, it's only because our cultivation base is insufficient." Qin Wentian's tone was calm. This was his opinion.

This was a good theory too. Different people would naturally come to different conclusions.

"Have you met before a cultivator at the higher realms who can achieve this?" Shan Lengqiu coldly spoke, as a mocking look could be seen in his eyes.

"My Brother Shan is the senior disciple of the Skyair Empyrean, the grand-disciple of the Realmlord. He has heard the dao lectures given by the Realmlord before." Murong Xiaoxiao giggled from beside Shan Lengqiu.

"There naturally would be different opinions. I'm only sharing mine. In addition, I stand by what I say." Qin Wentian smiled.

"In that case, you feel that despite the difference in our opinions, your comprehension of the sword laws is a level above mine?" Shan Lengqiu's tone turned sharp as a terrifying sword intent radiated from him. "Since this is the case, why don't we have a spar? Wouldn't we know the truth then?"

"Brother Shan, it's only a dao discussion. Brother Tianwen is merely sharing his opinion. Let's not damage the unity in our group." Yi Qing tried to persuade, however, he felt that Qin Wentian's theory made more sense. But naturally, he wouldn't say that out loud in public.

Chapter 1646: Someone in the Sword Abyss

Qin Wentian glanced at Shan Lengqiu. A spar?

He laughed. Before they got into an alliance, he already understood that the term alliance was just a pretty word for the weaker ones to rely on the stronger ones. Such an alliance was incomparably weak in the face of benefits. When they formed this alliance, because of Shan Lengqiu's background, the alliance was clearly deferential to him and everyone was fawning over him. Shan Lengqiu was an extraordinary figure, and given his status and background, he was naturally extremely proud.

Hence, when Qin Wentian brought up a different theory. He instantly viewed it as a provocation and he suggested a spar.

He shook his head. Qin Wentian glanced ahead, not saying anything. His pride wasn't the same as Shan Lengqiu's, not allowing others to have a different opinion. He had his own thinking, and if Shan Lengqiu really feels that his way of thinking is right, what does that have to do with him? Could it be that Qin Wentian had to spar against everyone who came up with a theory different from him?

Naturally, Shan Lengqiu would act like this because he viewed himself as the loftiest figure among them. If he knew that Tianwen was none other than the Qin Wentian who shook the entire Lifelong Realm in the grand banquet back then, he definitely wouldn't have dared to say anything. Now Shan Lengqiu was enraged purely because he felt that Qin Wentian didn't have the qualifications to question his theories, especially so in the presence of beautiful women. Even if Shan Lengqiu didn't exhibit too great a passion towards Murong Xiaoxiao, his vanity was satisfied seeing a beauty fawning over him. He naturally didn't want to lose face.

"Brother Shan, how can he spar against you? Just ignore his words." Yi Leng spoke up. As for the four others from the Desolate Ground's Four Palace, they remained silent as they watched while thinking over both Qin Wentian and Shan Lengqiu's theories.

From the surface of things, Shan Lengqiu seemed to be right. But if one thought deeper into it, Qin Wentian's words were quite logical. Since when one controls law energy, their law energy wouldn't hurt then, does this mean that the innate nature of a certain law could be controlled? The source origins of any law could exist in many different forms.

The deeper one thought about it, the more they felt they were on to something. It was like they were about to gain a spark of insight, yet it continued to elude them.

But even though they silently felt that Qin Wentian's words made more sense, they naturally wouldn't express it verbally.

The sword river continued flowing. In the abyss ahead, faint streaks of sword intent gushed forth, reversing the flow, and shot upwards. This caused the eyes of everyone to flash as they sent their immortal sense to probe the sword abyss. In an instant, the eyes of many people narrowed. Someone exclaimed in shock, "There's someone in there!"

There was actually someone in the depths of the sword abyss.

Numerous sharp gazes peered downwards, only to see a figure slowly floating up. The flow of the sword qi around him continued to reverse, converging with the downward current as they madly gushed forth in all directions.

"Puchi…" A crisp sound rang out. A person lowered his head and stared at his chest. There was a tiny hole there as a stream of sword qi passed through his body. A moment later, fresh blood gushed out, dripping onto the ground.

"ARGH!" That person let out a miserable howl as he explosively retreated. Instantly, many experts here all retreated backwards, with fear on their faces. The streams of sword qi that blasted out in all directions earlier, seemed soft and formless, yet a terrifying killing power was contained within them.

This seemed to verify Shan Lengqiu's earlier words. The sword laws can change form, but it's impossible to change its innate nature of being sharp and tyrannical. There was no sword that wouldn't kill.

However, when they looked at the figure rising up from the abyss, Shan Lengqiu's theory seemed to be overthrown. Qin Wentian seemed to be right. That person was immersed in the sword river, he didn't resist at all, the flows of sword qi flowed around, towards, and away from him, but they didn't injure him.

"Is this him releasing his sword intent?" Shan Lengqiu retreated as he spoke. But clearly, his words sounded like a lie to pacify himself. This sword intent was clearly born from the sword qi river, something birthed in the taotie mine. But when one's cultivation is strong enough, it's true that one could change the innate natures of their laws, allowing the sword to become soft and gentle.

"Seems like one can really achieve that after one fully comprehends the source origin of law." Qin Wentian mumbled. He glanced at Shan Lengqiu. "If that's the case, the Skyair Empyrean should be able to do it too. Didn't he tell you about this?"

Shan Lengqiu's expression stiffened as his countenance turned unsightly.

"Oh ya, sometimes it's better to allow the disciples to comprehend this themselves. If he really told you about it directly, you might be trapped by the foreknowledge instead. You might know about it but fail to understand why this is so. I'm sure the Skyair Empyrean must have allowed you to feel his law energy many times to help you out, right?" Qin Wentian sighed, his tone was calm with no hints of mockery. But all Shan Lengqiu felt was a sense of being looked down on.

"Shut up!" Shan Lengqiu coldly barked. Qin Wentian didn't say anything more. Murong Xiaoxiao had a look of astonishment on her face but she soon smiled as she stared at Shan Lengqiu, "The truth might not be what we have seen. I still believe that you are right."

This was undoubtedly ingratiating words, Murong Xiaoxiao was still fawning over Shan Lengqiu. Shan Lengqiu nodded to her, that proud and vain heart of his felt more comfortable after hearing that.

Qin Wentian no longer glanced at him. He turned his gaze to the person that appeared from the sword abyss. That person actually crouched there now and was sharpening his sword on a grindstone, allowing the sword qi river to flow continuously as it will. This caused the light gleaming on the edge of the sword to shine brightly, as though it could emit light on its own.

His long hair was disheveled, like a mad man. He was dressed in black, and his robes were stained with blood, his body riddled with scars. He kept his focus on sharpening his sword, there were no other distractions in his heart.

Finally, he lifted his head as a fearsome coldness flickered in his eyes. This gaze seemed to be capable of commanding the sword intent in the area, able to pierce through anything and tear everything apart.

"A thousand years to sharpen my sword. Now, the sword is completed." A sharp voice rang out from his mouth. After that, the grindstone fell down towards the abyss. He held his sword and a moment later, he suddenly exerted force, destroying this sword which he had sharpened for a thousand years.

Spending a thousand years to sharpen the sword. After the sharpening was finished, he destroyed it immediately?

These thousand years, did he use it to sharpen the sword that was in his hands, or the sword that was himself?

With a flash of his silhouette, he transformed into a beam of light that was akin to a sword. He himself, was the sword.

With a piercing sound, a crimson light flashed as blood was spilt. A figure that didn't retreat fast enough instantly died without time to scream. His head was separated from his body, executed in an instant.

The beam of light continued arcing through the distance, radiating extreme sharpness. Numerous experts died one after another. Upon seeing this scene, everyone present was terrified, their emperor might erupted forth as they fled with great speed.

"The source origin of laws, sword law's will." Qin Wentian's heart trembled. What a powerful might. He saw a peak-stage immortal emperor using his law domain and his treasures to defend, but they were pierced through instantly, destroying him.

There were other experts who used all sorts of abilities to defend but the beam of sword light disintegrated everything. Nobody could stop it.

This expert, who walked out of the sword abyss, had truly reached the level where he was invincible in the immortal emperor realm. In fact, it's highly probable that this expert had already reached the empyrean realm.

A thousand years to sharpen a sword. After he finished doing so, he was like a sword himself. This man had cultivated to the point of madness. in his eyes, only his sword exists. The other immortal emperors here became grindstones for him to sharpen himself.

Could it be that this was the so-called 'The Great Dao is emotionless'?

Shan Lengqiu and the rest retreated too. Murong Xiaoxiao hid behind him as their group of people retreated. Emperor light gushed forth from them in a protective barrier.

That beam of sword light transformed back into a human and appeared again. He smiled and glanced at Shan Lengqiu's group. He then moved in closer. Shan Lengqiu's expression drastically changed as he unleashed his own sword light, slashing out an attack towards this person.

However, that crazy-looking figure continued walking closer to them, ignoring Shan Lengqiu's attack. When Shan Lengqiu's sword intent landed on his opponent's body, the sword intent suddenly turned gentle, flowing pass his body.

At this moment, Shan Lengqiu paled. At the same time, this has also confirmed that he was wrong and Qin Wentian was right. When one's cultivation base was high enough, it was really possible for them to change the innate nature of their laws!

"Fighting that mad man with sword law attribute energy is simply courting death." Not far away, Qin Wentian instantly understood after he saw this scene. This expert, who was sharpening his sword in the sword abyss, had already comprehended the source origin of the laws of sword. It was a qualitative evolution and his comprehension of the sword-law attribute would directly trump you, suppressing you under him. How can you still use your pathetic understanding of sword laws to fight him?

This, was purely a suppression due to the difference in one's comprehensions and insights.

"You are also considered as someone who knows the sword?" That mad man mocked. Boundless sword might gush forth like flowing water around Shan Lengqiu. Shan Lengqiu was trembling as endless terror filled his eyes.

"Senior, I'm the senior disciple of Empyrean Skyair, I'm also considered one of the grand-disciples of the Lifelong Realmlord. Please show mercy." With death flashing in front of his eyes, Shan Lengqiu instantly gave in and revealed his background. This caused the mad man's eyes to flash. The grand-disciple of the Realmlord?

This taotie mine was governed by the Lifelong Realmlord and this place was naturally the Lifelong Realmlord's territory. If he really offended the Realmlord by killing this grand-disciple of his, despite the great improvement to his cultivation base, there would only be death before him.

"Since this is the case, let this be considered as me helping the Realmlord to teach you a lesson. In the future, cultivate well." The mad man coldly spoke. After that, boundless sword might swirled around Shan Lengqiu and tossing him through the air. This mad man could control the sword intent as he liked. The sword intent was his will, it would act according to his every desire.

Shan Lengqiu was tossed to the ground. His entire body was wet from his sweat. If it wasn't for his background protecting him, he would die as long as the other party willed it!

Chapter 1647: Fighting an Empyrean

"You guys are also the grand-disciples of the Realmlord?" The madman glanced at Murong Xiaoxiao and the rest. Earlier, these people were together with Shan Lengqiu, this was why he asked this question. If these people were also the grand-disciples of the Realmlord, he naturally wouldn't want to touch them.

Spending a thousand years to sharpen a sword, he had been lonely for far too long. Now that the sword-sharpening was complete, he wanted to use blood to drench it. Upon feeling the empyrean energy in his body, he felt extremely happy. Hence, he abandoned everything and didn't suppress his heart that wanted to go wild. This was why he went on a killing spree.

"We are Brother Shan's good friends." Murong Xiaoxiao and the others spoke.

"Is that true?" The madman glanced at Shan Lengqiu. Shan Lengqiu shook his head, "I'm not too familiar with them."

At this instant, the expressions of Murong Xiaoxiao and the others all turned pale. They turned and stared at Shan Lengqiu with rage. This bastard was actually so ruthless, wanting to make them die.

Shan Lengqiu himself narrowly lost his life, he didn't want to offend this man anymore. He didn't feel that the face this man had given him would stretch far enough for him to beg for mercy for this group of people. Although Murong Xiaoxiao was very beautiful, but given his status, how could he be lacking of beautiful women? It was fine if she wanted to fawn on him normally. But at such a time, he couldn't care less. In addition, he had presented his ugly side to everyone today. If everyone who saw it died, it would be much better.

